THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, called GENESIS.

CHAP. I.

IN ỹ beginning God created the heaven, and the earth.
2 And ỹ earth was without form, and void, & darknes was upon the face of the deep: & the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.
3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God diuided the light from the darknes.
5 And God called the light, Day: and ỹ darknes he called, Night: and the euening & the morning were the first day.
6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters: and let it diuide the waters from the waters.
7 And God made the firmament, and diuided the waters, which were vnder the firmament, from the waters which were above ỹ firmament: and it was so.
8 And God called the firmament, Heauen: and the euening and the morning were the second day.
9 And God said, Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered together vnto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land, Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.
11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grasse, the herb yeelding seed, & the fruit tree yeelding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in it self, vpon the earth: and it was so.
12 And the earth brought forth grasse, and herb yeelding seed after his kind, and the tree yeelding fruit, whose seed was in it self, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
13 And the euening and the morning were the third day.
14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heauen, to diuide the day from the night: and let them be for signes, and for seasons, and for dayes and yeares.
15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heauen, to giue light vpon the earth: and it was so.
16 And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the starres also.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to giue light vpon the earth:
18 And to rule ouer ỹ day, and ouer ỹ night, and to diuide the light from the darknes: & God saw that it was good.
19 And the euening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly ỹ moouing creature ỹ hath life, & foul ỹ may flee aboue the earth, in the open firmament of heauen.
21 And God created great whales, and euery liuing creature that moueth, which the waters brought forth abundantly after their kinde, and euery winged foul after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the Seas, and let foul multiply in the earth.
23 And the euening and the morning were the fift day.
24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the liuing creature after his kind, cattle, & creeping thing, & beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.
25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, & cattle after their kind, and euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
26 And God said, Let vs make man in our image, after our likenes, and let them haue dominion ouer the fish of the Sea, and ouer the foul of the aire, and ouer the cattle, and ouer all the earth, and ouer euery creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth.
27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them.
28 And God blessed them, & God said vnto them, Be fruitful, & multiply and replenish the earth, & subdue it, & haue dominion ouer ỹ fish of the Sea, & ouer the foul of the aire, and ouer euery liuing thing that moueth vpon the earth.
29 And God said, Behold, I haue giuen you euery herbe bearing seed, which is vpon the face of all the earth, and euery tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yeelding seed, to you it shall be for meat:
30 And to euery beast of the earth, and to euery foul of the aire, and to euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth, wherein there is life, I haue giuen euery greene herb for meat: & it was so.
31 And God saw euery thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And the euening and the morning were the sixt day.

CHAP. II.

THus the heauens, & the earth were finished, and all the host of them.
2 And on ỹ seuenth day God ended his worke which he had made: and he rested on the seuenth day from all his worke, which he had made.
3 And God blessed the seuenth day, & sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his worke which God created & made.
4 These are the generations of the heauens, and of the earth, when they were created, in the day that y LORD God made the earth, and the heavens

5 And every plant of y field before it was in y earth & every herb of y field before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, & there was not a man to till y ground.
6 But there went up a mist fro y earth & watered y whole face of y ground.
7 And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soule.
8 And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden: and there he put the man whom he had formed.
9 And out of the ground made y Lord God to grow every tree y is pleasant to y sight, & good for food: y tree of life also in the midst of the garden, & y tree of knowledge of good & evil.
10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from thence it was parted, & became into four heads.
11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth y whole land of Havilah, y he there is gold.
12 And the gold of that land is good: there is Bdellium, and the Onyx stone.
13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.
14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the East of Assyria: & the fourth river is Euphrates.
15 And the LORD God took y man, and put him into the garden of Eden, to dresse it and to keep it.
16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat.
17 But of the tree of knowledge of good and evill, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.
18 And the LORD God said: It is not good that the man should be alone: I will make him an helpe meet for him.
19 And out of y ground y Lord God formed every beast of y field, & every fowl of the ayr, & brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: & whatsoever y Adam called every living creature, y was the name thereof.
20 And Adam gave names to all cattell & to the fowl of the ayr, & to every beast of the eeld: but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.
21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof.
22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman: & brought her unto the man.
23 And Adam said: This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man.
24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, & shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.
25 And they were both naked y man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAP. III.

NOw the serpent was more subtill then any beast of the field, which y Lord God had made, & he said unto y woman, Yea hath God said Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?
2 And the woman said unto the Serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:
3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.
4 And the Serpent said unto the woman: Ye shall not surely die.
5 For God doth know y in y day ye eat of thereof, y your eyes shall be opened: & shall be as gods, knowing good & evil.
6 And when y woman saw that the tree was good for food, & y it was pleasant to y eyes, & a tree to be desired to make one wise: he took of y fruit thereof, & did eat, & gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.
7 And the eyes of them both were opened, & they knew that they were naked: & they sewed fig-leaves together, and made them selves aprons.
8 And they heard y voyce of y Lord God, walking in the garden in y cool of the day: & Adam & his wyfe hid themselves from y presence of y Lord God, amongst the trees of the garden.
9 And the LORD God called unto Adam & said unto him, Where art thou?
10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden: and I was afraid: because I was naked: and I hid my self.
11 And he said, Who told thee, that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?
12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.
13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is that thou hast done? And the woman said, The Serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.
14 And y Lord God said unto y Serpent, Because y hast done this, y are curssed above all cattle, & above every beast of y field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, & dust shalt thou eat all the dayes of thy life.
15 And I will put enmity between thee & the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.
16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow, and thy conception. In sorrow thou shalt bring forth children: & thy desire shall be unto thy husband, & he shall rule over thee.
17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voyce of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is y ground for thy sake: in sorrow shalt thou fre eat of it all the dayes of thy life.

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee: and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.
19 In y sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread till y returne unto y ground: for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, & unto dust shalt y return.
20 And Adam called his wives name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.
21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.
22 And the LORD God said, Behold, y man is become as one of us, to know good and evill. And now lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever.
23 Therefore y LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till y ground, from whence he was taken.
24 So he drave out the man: and he placed at the East of the garden of Eden, Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAP. IIII.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived, & bare Cain, & said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.
2 And she again bare his brother Abel. & Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.
3 And in processe of time, it came to pass, that Cain brought of y fruit of y ground an offering unto the LORD.
4 And Abel he also brought of the first lings of his flock, and of the fat thereof: and the LORD had respect unto Abel, and to his offering.
5 But unto Cain, & to his offering, he had not respect, and Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.
6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?
7 If thou do well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou dost not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, & thou shalt rule over him.
8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to passe, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, & slew him.
9 And y Lord said unto Cain, where is Abel thy brother? & he said, I know not: Am I my brothers keeper?
10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voyce of thy brothers blood crieth unto me from the ground.
11 And now art y cursed fro y earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brothers blood from thy hand.
12 When thou tilleth the ground, it shall not henceforth yeeld unto thee her strength: a fugitive, & a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.
13 And Cain said unto y LORD, My punishment is greater then I can bear.
14 Behold, thou hast drive me out this day from the face of the earth, & from thy face shall I be hid, & I shall be a fugitive & a vagabond in the earth: and it shall come to passe, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.
15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him seven fold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.
16 And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, & dwelt in the land of Nod, on the East of Eden.
17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived, & bare Enoch, & he builded a city, & called the name of the city after the name of his sonne Enoch.
18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: & Irad begat Mehujael: & Mehujael begat Methusael, & Methusael begat Lamech.
19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.
20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattel.
21 And his brothers name was Jubal: he was the father of such as handle the harp and organ.
22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-Cain, an instructer of every artificer in brasse and iron: and the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.
23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voyce, ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, & a young man to my hurt.
24 If Cain shalbe avenged seven fold, truely Lamech seventy and seven fold.
25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed in stead of Abel, whom Cain slew.
26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a sonne, and he called his name Enos: then began men to call upon the Name of the LORD.

CHAP. V.

31 And all the dayes of Lamech, were seven hundred seventy & seven yeers, and he died.
32 And Noah was five hundred yeer old: and Noah begat Sem, Ham, and Iapheth.

CHAP. VI.

1 NOw it came to pas when men began to multiply on the face of y earth, and daughters were born unto them.
2 That y sons of God saw y daughters of men y they were fair, & they took them wives of all of them they chose.
3 And the LORD said, my Spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his dayes shall be an hundred and twenty yeers.
4 There were giants in the earth in those dayes, & also after that, when the sons of God came in unto y daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men, which were of old men of renown.
5 And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was onely evil continually.
6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, & it grieved him at his heart.
7 And y Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created, from y face of earth, both man & beast, & y creeping things, & the fowls of the air: for it repenteth me that I have made them.
8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.
9 These are y generations of Noah: Noah was a just man, & perfect in his generations, & Noah walked with God.
10 And Noah begat three sons: Sem, Ham, and Iapheth.
11 The earth also was corrupt before God: & y earth was filled with violence.
12 And God looked upon the earth, behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.
13 And God said to Noah, the end of all flesh is come before me, for y earth is filled with violence through them: & behold, I will destroy them with the earth.
14 Make thee an Ark of Gephar wood: rooms shalt y make in y Ark, & shalt pitch it within & without with pitch.
15 And this is y fashion which y shalt make it of: the length of y Ark shall be three hundred cubits, y breadth of it fifty cubits & y height of it thirty cubits.
16 A window shalt y make to y Ark, & in a cubit shalt thou finish it above: & y door of y Ark shalt thou set in his side thereof: with lower, second, & third stories shalt thou make it.
17 And behold, I, even I do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life from under heaven: & every thing that is in the earth shall die.
18 But with thee will I establish my Covenant: and thou shalt come into the Ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons wives with thee.
19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the Ark, to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male & female.
20 Of fowls after their kind, & of cattel after their kind, of every creeping thing of y earth after his kind: two of every sort shall come to thee, to keep them alive.
21 And take y to thee of all food y is eaten, & thou shalt gather it to thee: & it shall be for food for thee, & for them.
22 Thus did Noah, according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAP. VII.

1 AND the LORD said to Noah, come thou & all thy house into the Ark: for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.
2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the airy sevens the male and the female, to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and fourty nights: and every living substance that I have made, will I destroy from off the earth.

5 And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noe was six hundred yeers old, when the flood of waters was on y earth.

7 And Noah went in & his sons and his wife, & his sons wives with him, into y ark, because of the waters of y flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pas after seven dais, y waters of y flood were upon y earth.

11 In y six hundred yeer of Noahs life, in the second month, y seventeenth day of the month, y same day were all y fountains of y great deep broken up, and y windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth fourty dayes and fourty nights.

13 In y self same day entred Noah, & Sem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into y ark,

14 They & every beast after his kind, & all the cattle after their kind, & every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, & every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark two and two of all flesh wherin is the breath of life.

16 And they y went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: & y LORD shut him in.

17 And y flood was fourty dayes upon y earth, & y waters increased, & bare up y ark, & it was lift up above y earth.

18 And y waters prevailed, & were increased greatly upon the earth: and the ark went upon y face of y waters.

19 And y waters prevailed exceedingly upon y earth, & al y high hils y were under y whole heaven were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did y waters prevail, & y mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died, y moved upon the earth, both of foul, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, & every man.

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life of al y was in the dry land died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed, which was upon the face of the ground, both man & cattle, & y creeping things, & the fowl of the heaven: and they were destroyed from y earth: and Noah onely remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty dayes.

CHAP. VIII.

AND God remembred Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to passe over the earth, and the waters asswaged.

2 The fountains also of the deep & y windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty dayes, the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventh day of the month upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And y waters decreased continually until the tenth month: & in the tenth month on the first day of the month were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 And it came to passe at the end of fourty dayes, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground.

9 But y dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him unto the ark: for the waters were on y face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him, into the ark.

10 And he stayd yet other seven daies: & again he sent forth y dove out of y ark.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: So Noah knew y waters were abated from off y earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven dais, and sent forth the dove which returned not again unto him any more.

13 And it came to pas in y six hundred & one yeer, in y first month, y first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off y earth: & Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, & behold, y face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second moneth, on the seven and twentieth day of the moneth was the earth dried.

15 And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of y ark, & thy wife, & thy sons, & thy sons wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing y is with thee of all flesh, both of foul, of cattle, and of every creeping thing y creepeth upon y earth: that they may breed abundantly in y earth, and be fruitfull & multiply upon y earth.

18 And Noah went forth, & his sons, & his wife, & his sons wives with him.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every foul, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 And Noah builded an altar unto y LORD, and took of every clean beast

God blesseth Noah, and maketh a covenant and of every cleane foul, and offered burnt-offerings on the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a sweet savour, and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for mans sake, for the imagination of mans heart is evill from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While ye earth remaineth seed time and harvest, and cold, and heat, and summer, and winter, and day, and night shall not cease.

CHAP. IX.

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitfull, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the feare of you, and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every foul of the aire, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea, into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth, shall be meat for you, even as the green herbs have I given you all things.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall you not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require: at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man, at the hand of every mans brother will I require the life of man.

6 Whoso sheddeth mans blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you be ye fruitfull and multiply, bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you:

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the foul, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you, neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood, neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetuall generations.

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to passe, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you, and every living creature of all flesh: and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud, and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature, of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 And the sons of Noah went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japhet, and Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah: and of these was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard.

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken, and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakednesse of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shem and Japhet took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakednesse of their father: and their faces were backward, and they saw not their fathers nakednesse.

24 And Noe awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.

25 And he said, Cursed be Canaan: a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant.

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty yeers.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty yeers, and he died.

CHAP. X.

8 And Cush begate Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod a mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdome was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city of Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 19 And y border of y Canaanites, was from Sidō, as y comest to Gerar, to Gaza: as y goest to Sodoma, & Gomorath, & Admah, & Zeboim, even to Lasha.

20 These are y sons of Ha after their families, after their tongues, in their countreys and in their nations.
21 Vnto Shem also the father of all y children of Eber, the brother of Japhet elder, vnto him were children born.

26 And Iokтан begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Ierah.
27 And Hadoram, & Vzal, & Diklah,

32 These are the families of y sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: & by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP. XI.

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.
2 And it came to passe as they iourneyed from y east, that they found a plaine in y land of Shinar, & they dwelt there.
3 And they said one to another: Go to, let us make brick, & burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone and slime had they for morter.
4 And they said: Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven: and let us make us a name: least we be scattered abroad vpon the face of the whole earth.
5 And the LORD came down to see the city, and the tower: which y children of men builded.
6 And the Lord said: behold, y people is one, & they haue all one language, and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them which they have imagined to do.
7 Go to, let us go down, & there confound their language, that they may not vnderstand one another's speech.
8 So the LORD scattered the abroad from thence vpon the face of all the earth: & they left of to build the city.
9 Therfore is y name of it called Babel, because y Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: & from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad vpon the face of all the earth.
10 These are y generations of Shem. Shem was an hundred yeers old, & begat Arphaxad two yeers after y flood.
11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad, five hundred yeers, and begat sons and daughters.
12 And Arphaxad lived five & thirty yeers, and begat Salah.
13 And Arphaxad lived, after he begat Salah, four hundred and three yeers, and begat sons and daughters.
14 And Salah lived thirty yeers, and begat Eber.
15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber, four hundred and three yeers, and begat sons and daughters.
16 And Eber lived four and thirty yeers and begat Peleg.
17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg, four hundred and thirty yeers, and begat sonnes and daughters.
18 And Peleg lived thirty yeers, and begat Reu.
19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu, two hundred and nine yeers, and begat sonnes and daughters.
20 And Reu lived two and thirty yeers and begat Serug.
21 And Reu lived, after he begat Serug, two hundred and seven yeers, & begat sonnes and daughters.
22 And Serug lived thirty yeers, and begat Nahor.
23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor, two hundred yeers, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty yeers, and begat Terah.
25 And Nahor lived, after he begat Terah, an hundred and nineteen yeers, and begat sonnes and daughters.
26 And Terah lived seventy yeers, & begat Abraham, Nahor and Haran.
27 Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, & Haran: & Haran begat Lot.
28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Vr of the Chaldees.
29 And Abram & Nahor took them wives: the name of Abrams wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahors wife Milkah the daughter of Haran, the father of Milkah, the father of Iscah.
30 But Sarai was barē, she had no child.
31 And Terah took Abrā his son, & Lot y son of Haran his son, & Sarai his daughter in law his son Abrās wife: & they went forth with them from Vr of y Caldees to go into y land of Canaā: & they came unto Haran, & dwelt there.
32 And the dayes of Terah were two hundred and five yeers: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAP. XII.

NOw the Lord had said to Abram: Get y out of thy countrey, & from thy kinred, & from the fathers house: vnto a land that I will shew thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bleſſe thee, and make thy name great, & thou ſhalt be a bleſſing.
3 And I will bleſſe them that bleſſe thee, & curſe him y curſeth thee: and in thee ſhall all families of the earth be bleſſed.
4 So Abram departed as the Lord had ſpoken to him, and Lot went with him: and Abram was ſeventy and five yeeres old, when he departed out of Haran.
5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, & Lot his brothers ſon, & all their ſubſtance y they had gathered, & the ſouls that they had gotten in Haran, & they went forth to go into the land of Canaan: ſo into the land of Canaan they came.
6 And Abram paſſed thorow the land to y place of Sichem, to y plain of Moreh. And y Canaanite was then in y land.
7 And y Lord appeared unto Abram, and ſaid, Vnto thy ſeed will I give this land: & there builded he an altar unto the LORD: who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the eaſt of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the weſt, and Hai on the eaſt: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Abram journeyed, going on ſtill toward the ſouth.
10 And there was a famine in the land, and Abram went downe into Egypt, to ſojourn there: for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to paſſe when he was come neer to enter into Egypt, y he ſaid to Sarai his wife, Behold now I know y thou art a fair woman to look upon.
12 Therefore it ſhall come to paſſe when the Egyptians ſhall ſee thee, that they ſhall ſay, This is his wife: & they will kill me, but they will ſave thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my ſiſter, y it may be well with me for thy ſake, and my ſoul ſhall live becauſe of thee.
14 And it came to paſſe, y when Abram was come into Egypt, y Egyptians beheld the woman, y ſhe was very fair.
15 The princes alſo of Pharaoh ſaw her, & commended her to Pharaoh: & y woman was taken into Pharaohs houſe.
16 And he intreated Abram well for her ſake: and he had ſheep, and oxen, and he-aſſes, and men-ſervants, and maid-ſervants, and ſhe-aſſes, and camels.
17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh, and his houſe with great plagues, becauſe of Sarai Abrams wife.
18 And Pharaoh called Abram, & ſaid, What is this y haſt done to me? Why didſt thou not tell me y ſhe was thy wife?
19 Why ſaidſt thou, She is my ſiſter? ſo I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.
20 And Pharaoh comanded his men, concerning him: and they ſent him away, & his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 And Abram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the South.
2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in ſilver, and in gold.
3 And he went on his journies from the South, even to Bethel, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Hai.
4 Vnto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the firſt: & there Abram called on the name of the Lord.
5 And Lot alſo which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.
6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their ſubſtance was great, ſo that they could not dwell together.
7 And there was a ſtrife between the herdmen of Abrams cattle, & the herdmen of Lots cattle: and y Canaanite, and the Perizzite dwelled then in y land.
8 And Abram ſaid unto Lot, Let there be no ſtrife, I pray thee, between me & thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for we be brethren.
9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thy ſelf, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right: or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.
10 And Lot lifted up his eies, & beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was watered every where, before the Lord deſtroyed Sodom and Gomorra, even as the garden of y Lord, like y land of Egypt, as thou commeſt unto Zoar.
11 Then Lot choſe him all y plain of Jordan, & Lot journeyed eaſt, & they ſeparated themſelves y one from y other.
12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in y cityes of y plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.
13 But y men of Sodom were wicked & ſinners before the Lord exceedingly.
14 And y Lord ſaid unto Abram, after y Lot was ſeparated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, & look from the place where thou art, northward, & ſouthward, and eaſtward, and weſtward.
15 For all y land which thou ſeeſt, to thee will I give it, and to thy ſeed for ever.
16 And I will make thy ſeed as the duſt of the earth: ſo that if a man can number the duſt of the earth, then ſhall thy ſeed alſo be numbred.
17 Ariſe, walk thorow the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it: for I will give it unto thee.
18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAP. XIV.

1 And it came to paſſe in the dayes of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellaſar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Nations:
2 That theſe made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birſha king of Gomorra, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.
3 All theſe were joyned together in the valley of Siddim: 3 is the salt sea.

4 Twelve yeers they served Chedorlaomer, & in the thirteenth yeer they rebelled.
5 And in y fourteenth yeer came Chedorlaomer and y kings that were with him, & smote y Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, & the Zuzims in Ham, & the Emims in Shaveh-Kiriathaim
6 And y Horites in their mount Seir, vnto El Paran, which is by y wildernes.
7 And they returned, and came to En-Mishpat, which is Kadesh, & smote all y country of y Amalekites & also the Amorites, y dwelt in Hazazon-tamar.
8 And there went out y king of Sodom, & y king of Gomorrah, & the king of Admah, & y king of Zeboiim & y king of Bela, (y same is Zoar) & they joyned battel with them in y vale of Siddim.
9 With Chedorlaomer y king of Elam, & with Tidal king of nations, & Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.
10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slime pits: & the kings of Sodom & Gomorrah fled, & fell there: & they that remained, fled to the mountain.
11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.
12 And they took Lot, Abrams brotherson, (who dwelt in Sodome) & his goods, and departed.
13 And there came one y had escaped, & told Abram y Hebrew, for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre y Amorite brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner: & these were confederate with Abram.
14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.
15 And he divided himself e against them, he & his servants by night, and smote them, & pursued them to Hoba, which is on the left hand of Damascus.
16 And he brought back all y goods, & also brought again his brother Lot, & his goods & y women also & y people.
17 And y king of Sodom went out to meet him. (after his returne from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him) at the valley of Savh, which is the kings dale.
18 And Melchizedek king of Salem, brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God.
19 And he blessed him, & said, blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessour of heaven and earth.
20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand: and he gave him tithes of all.
21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thy selfe.
22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up my hand to the LORD, the most high God, y possessour of heaven and earth.
23 That I will not take from a thred even to a shoo latchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest y shouldest say, I have made Abram rich.
24 Save onely that which the young men have eaten, & the portion of the men which went with me. Aner, Eshchol, & Mamre, let them take their portion.

CHAP. XV.

1 After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, fear not, Abram I am thy shield and thy exceeding great reward.
2 And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childlesse? & the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus.
3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and lo, one borne in my house is mine heir.
4 And behold, y word of y Lord came to him, saying, This shall not be thine heir, but he that shal come forth out of thine own bowels, shalbe thine heir.
5 And he brought him forth abroad, & said, look now toward heaven, & tell y stars if thou be able to number them. And he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.
6 And he believed in the LORD, and he counted it to him for righteousnes.
7 And he said unto him, I am y Lord that brought thee out of Vr of y Caldees to give thee this land to inherit it.
8 And he said, Lord GOD, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?
9 And he said to him, take me an heifer of three yeers old, & a she-goat of three yeers old, & a ram of three yeers old, and a turtle dove, & a young pigeon.
10 And he took unto him all these, & divided them in the midst, & laid each piece one against another, but the birds divided he not.
11 And when the fowls came down upon y carcas, Abram drove them away.
12 And when the sun was going down a deep sleep fel upon Abram: & lo, an horror of great darkenes fel upon him.
13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety, that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shal serve them, and they shal afflict them four hundred yeers.
14 And also that nation whom they shal serve, will I judge: & afterwards shall they come out with great substance.
15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.
16 But in the fourth generation they shal come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.
17 And it came to passe y when y Sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoaking furnace, & a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.
18 In y same day y Lord made a Covenant with Abram saying, to thy seed have I given this land, from y river of Egypt to the great river, y river Euphrates.
19 The Kenites, and the Kenezites, & the Kadmonites:

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, 21 And ỳ Amorites, & the Canaanites, and the Girgasshites, and the Iebusites.

CHAP. XVI.

NOw Sarai Abrams wife bare him no childre: & sh: had an hádmaid, an Egyptain, whose name was Hagar
2 And Sarai said to Abrá behold, now the Lord hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in to my maid: it may be ỳ I may obtain childre by her. & Abram hearkned to ỳ voice of Sarai
3 And Sarai Abrams wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptain, after Abram had dwelt ten yeeres in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.
4 And he went in to Hagar, & she conceived: & whē sh: saw ỳ she had conceived, her mistris was despised in her eis
5 And Sarai said to Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have giv'e my maid into thy bosom, & when sh: saw ỳ she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: ỳ LORD judge between me and thee.
6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face
7 And the Angel of ỳ Lord found her by a fountain of water, in the wilderness, by ỳ fountain in the way to Shur
8 And he said, Hagar, Sarais maid, Whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistresse Sarai.
9 And the Angel of the Lord said unto her Return to thy mistresse, and submit thy self under her hands.
10 And ỳ Angel of ỳ Lord said to her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, ỳ it shall not be numbred for multitude 11 And ỳ Angel of ỳ Lord said to her, Lo, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, & shalt call his name Ishmael because ỳ Lord hath heard thy affliction.
12 And he will be a wild man: his hand will be against every man: and every mans hand against him: and he shall dwell in ỳ presence of all his brethren.
13 And she called the Name of ỳ Lord that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, have I also here looked after him that seeth me?
14 Wherefore the well was called, Beer-lahai-roi: behold, it is between Cadesh and Bared.
15 And Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called his sons name, ỳ which Hagar bare, Ishmael.
16 And Abrā was fourscore & six yeers old, whē Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

CHAP. XVII.

AND whē Abrā was ninety yeers old & nine, ỳ Lord appeared to Abrā & said unto him, I am the Almighty God, walk before me, and be thou perfect.
2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.
3 And Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,
4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.
5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram: but thy name shall be Abraham: for a father of many nations have I made thee.
6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitfull, and will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee.
7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.
8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, ỳ land of Canā, for an everlasting possession, & I will be their God.
9 And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therfore, ỳ & thy seed after thee, in their generations
10 This is my covenant which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee: every man-child among you shall be circumcised.
11 And ye shal circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.
12 And he ỳ is eight daies old, shall be circumcised among you, every manchild in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with mony of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.
13 He ỳ is born in thy house, & he that is bought with thy mony must needs be circumcised: & my covenant shall be in your flesh, for an ever lasting covenant
14 And the uncircumcised man-child, whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people: he hath broken my covenant.
15 And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be 16 And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: ỳ a, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations, kings of people shall be of her.
17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred yeeres old? And shall Sarah that is ninety yeeres old, bare?
18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before the!
19 And God said Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed, & thou shalt call his name Isaac: & I will establish my covenant with him, for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.
20 And as for Ishmael I have heard thee: behold, I have blessed him, & will make him fruitfull, & will multiply him exceedingly: twelve princes shall he beget, & I will make him a great nation.
21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next yeere.
22 And he left of talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 And

23 And Abraha tcos Ishmael his son, & all ý were born in his house, & al ý were bought w his money every male amõg ý mẽ of Abrahams house, & circumcised ý flesh of their foreskin, in ý self same day, as God had said to him.
24 And Abraham vvas ninety yeers old and nine, vvhen he vvas circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
25 And Ishmael his son vvas thirteen yeers old vvhen he vvas circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
26 In the self same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his sonne.
27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, & bought with money of the stranger, vvere circumcised w him.

CHAP. XVIII.

A Nd the Lord appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre, and he sate in the tent door, in the heat of the day.
2 And he lift up his eyes, & looked, & lo, three men stood by him: & vvhen he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bovved himself toward the ground,
3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, passe not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:
4 Let a little vvater, I pray you be fetched and vvash your feet, and rest your selves under the tree:
5 And I vvil fetch a morsell of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that you shall passe on: for therefore are you come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.
6 And Abraham hastened into ý tent unto Sarah, & said, make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, & make cakes upon the hearth.
7 And Abraham ran unto ý heard, & fetcht a calf, tender & good, & gave it to a young man: & he hasted to dres it.
8 And he took butter and milk, & the calfe which he had dressed, & set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.
9 And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.
10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; & lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, vvhich vvas behinde him.
11 Now Abrahã & Sarah were old, & vvel stricken in age: & it ceased to be with Sarah after ý manner of vvomẽ.
12 Therefore Sarah laughed within her self, saying, After I am vvax old shall I have ye pleasure, my lord being old also?
13 And the LORD said to Abraham, Wherfore did Sarah laugh, saying, shall I of a surety beare a childe, ý am old?
14 Is any thing too hard for ý Lord? at the time appointed will I return to thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a sonne.
15 Then Sarah denied, saying: I laughed not for she was afraid. And he said, Nay, but thou diddest laugh.
16 And ý men rose up from thence, & looked toward Sodom: & Abraham went w them to bring thẽ on ý way.
17 And ý Lord said, Shal I hide from Abraham that thing vvhich I doe, 18 Seeing ý Abraham shall surely become a great & mighty nation, & all ý nations of ý earth shall be blessed in him?
19 For I know him ý hee will command his children & his household after him, & they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do iustice & iudgement, that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that vvhich he hath spoken of him.
20 And the LORD said, Behold ý cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sinne is very grievous:
21 I will go down now, & see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it which is come to me: and if not, I will know.
22 And ý men turned their faces from thence, & went toward Sodome: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD.
23 And Abraham drew neere, & said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?
24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city; wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?
25 That be far from thee to do after this maner, to slay ý righteous w the wicked, & that ý righteous should be as ý wicked. ý be far from thee. Shal not the Iudge of all the earth do right?
26 And ý LORD said, If I finde in Sodom fifty righteous within ý citie, then I vvil spare all ý place for their sakes.
27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold, now I have taken upon me to speake unto the Lord, vvhich am but dust and ashes.
28 Peradventure there shal lack five of ý fifty righteous, wilt ý destroy all the city for lacke of ý 5? he said, If I finde there forty & five, I vvil not destroy it.
29 And he spake unto him yet againe, and said, Peradventure there shalbe fourtie found there: & he said, I will not doe it for forties sake.
30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I vvill speake: Peradventure there shall thirtie be found there. And he said, I vvil not do it if I find thirty there.
31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speake unto ý Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I vvil not destroy it for twenties sake.
32 And he said, Oh I t not ý Lord be angry, & I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shalbe found there. & he said, I vvil not destroy it for tẽs sake.
33 And ý LORD went his way assoon as he had left communing ẅ Abraham: & Abraham returned to his place.

CHAP. XIX.

A Nd ther came two Angels to Sodom at even, and Lot sate in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them, rose up to meet meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

2 And he said, Behold now, my Lords, turn in I pray you, into your servants house, & tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, & go on in your ways. And they said, Nay but we will abide in the streets all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly, & they turned in to him, and entred into his house & he made the a feast & did bake unleavened bread, & they did eat.

4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, even y men of Sodom compassed y house round, both old & young, all the people from every quarter.

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man: let me, I pray y bring them out to you and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: onely to these men do nothing: for therfore came they under y shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, & he will needs be a judge: Now will we deal worse with thee then with them. And they pressed fore upon y man, even Lot, and came neer to breake the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door,

11 And they smote y men that were at the door of the house with blindnesse both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 And the men said to Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, & thy sons, & thy daughters, & whatsoever y hast in y city, bring them out of this place.

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, & spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, & said, Up get you out of this place; for y Lord will destroy this city: but he seemed as one y mocked to his sons in law.

15 And when the morning arose, then the Angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters which are here, lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingred, y men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters, the Lord being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 And it came to passe when they had brought them forth abroad, y he said, escape for thy life, look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain: escape to y mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh not so, my Lord.

19 Behold now thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, & thou hast magnified thy mercy which thou hast shewed to me in saving my life, & I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, & I die.

20 Behold now, this city is neer to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh let me escape thither (is it not a little one) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither: for I can not do any thing till thou be come thither: therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entred into Zoar.

24 Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven.

25 And he overthrew those cities, & all the plain, & all the inhabitants of y cities, & y which grew upon the ground.

26 But his wife looked back from behind him, & she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham gate up early in the morning, to the place where he stood before the LORD.

28 And he looked toward Sodom & Gomorrah, & toward all y land of y plain, & beheld and lo, y smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to passe, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, y God remembred Abraham, and sent Lot out of y midst of y overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in y which Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, & dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him: for he feared to dwel in Zoar, and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the first-born said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us, after the manner of all the earth.

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine y night, & the first-born went in, & lay with her father: & he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to passe on y morrow, that y first-born said to y younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father, let us make him drink wine this night also, and go thou in, & lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine y night also, & y younger arose, and lay with him: & he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the first-born bare a son, & called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

38 And

38 And ỹ yonger, the allo bare a son, & called his name Benammi: ỹ same is ỹ father of ỹ childrē of Ammō to this day.

CHAP. XX.

A Nd Abraham journeyed from thence toward ỹ South countrey, and dwelled betwen Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, & said to him, Lo, thou art but a dead man, for ỹ woman which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come neer her, & he said, LORD, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not to me, She is my sister? & she, even she herself said, she is my brother: in ỹ integrity of my heart, & innocency of my hands, have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know ỹ thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart: for I also withheld thee from sinning against me, therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife: for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, & thy shalt live: & if thou restore her not, know thou, that thy shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, & called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears, and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, & said unto him, What hast thou done to us? & what have I offended thee, that thy hast brought on me, & on my kingdome a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, because I thought, Surely ỹ fear of God is not in this place, & they will slay me for my wives sake.

12 And yet indeed she is my sister: she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.

13 And it came to passe, when God caused me to wander from my fathers house, that I said unto her, This is the kindnes which thou shalt shew to me, at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took sheepe, and oxen, and men servants, and women servants, and gave them unto Abraham, & restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee:

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousād pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of ỹ eyes to all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 So Abraham prayed to God, & God healed Abimelech & his wife, and his maid-servants, and they bare children.

18 For ỹ LORD had fast closed up all the wombes of ỹ house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abrahams wife.

CHAP. XXI.

A Nd the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

2 For Sarah conceived & bare Abraham a son in his old age, at ỹ set time, of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called ỹ name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight dayes old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that heare will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham that Sarah should have given children suckle? for I have borne him a sonne in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking.

10 Wherfore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bond woman & her son: for ỹ son of this bond-woman shal not be heire with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And ỹ thing was very grievous in Abrahams sight because of his sonne.

12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the lad, & because of thy bond woman. In all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voyce: for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bond woman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in ỹ morning, & tooke bread, & a bottle of water, & gave it to Hagar, (putting it on her shoulder) and the child, and sent her away: & she departed, & wandred in the wildernesse of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle; and she cast the childe under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bow-shoot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the childe. And she sate over against him, and lift up her voyce and wept.

17 And God heard ỹ voyce of ỹ lad, & ỹ Angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, & said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not: for God hath heard the voyce of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad and hold him in thine hand: for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God open'd her eyes, & she saw a well of water, & she went & filled the bottle bottle with water, & gave y lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad, and he grew, and dwelt in the wildernes, and became an archer.
21 And he dwelt in the wyldernes of Paran: and his mother took him a wyfe out of the land of Egypt.
22 And it came to passe at that time, y Abimelech, and Phichol the chief captain of his hoste, spake to Abrahā saying, God is with thee in all y thou doest.
23 Now therfore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsly with me, nor with my sonne, nor with my sons son: but according to the kindnesse that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.
24 And Abraham said, I will swear.
25 And Abrahā reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, y Abimelechs servants had violently taken away.
26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither dyd y tel me, neither y. I heard I of it but to day.
27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them unto Abimelech: and both of them made a covenant.
28 And Abraham set seven ew-lambs of the flock by themselves.
29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What mean these seven ewe lambs, which thou set by themselves?
30 And he said, For that ye shal receaue ewe lambs of mine hand y take of mine, that they may be a witnes to me, y I have diged this well.
31 Wherfore he called y place Beersheba: because y they twayne both of them sware.
32 Thus they made a couenāt at Beersheba: & Abimelech rose up, & Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into y land of the Philistins.
33 And Abraham planted a grove in Beersheba, & called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God.
34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines land many dayes.

CHAP. XXII.

AND it came to pas after these things, that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham. And he said, Behold, here I am.
2 And he said, Take now thy son thine only son Isaac, whom y loueth, & get thee into the land of Moriah and offer him there for a burnt offring upō one of y mountains y I will tell thee of.
3 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, & sadled his asse, & took two of his young men & him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for y burnt-offering, and rose up and went unto the place of which God had told him.
4 Then on the third day Abraham lift up his eyes, and saw the place a far off.
5 And Abraham said to his yong men, abide you here with the asse, and I, and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.
6 And Abraham took the wood of y burnt offring, & laid it on Isaachis son, & he took y fire in his hand, & a knife:

and they went both of them together.
7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Heare am I my son. And he said, Behold the fire and wood: but where is the lambe for a burnt offering?
8 And Abraham said, my son, God will provide him self a lāb for a burnt offring: so they wēt both of thē together.
9 And they came to the place which God had told him of, & Abraham built an Altar there, & laid y wood in order, & bound Isaac his sonne, and laid him on the Altar upon the wood.
10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, & took y knife to slay his sonne.
11 And the Angel of the Lord called to him out of heaven, & said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Here am I.
12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither doe thou any thing at all to him: for now I know y thou feareth God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine onely son from me.
13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, & looked, and behold, behinde him a ram caught in a thicket by his horne. And Abraham went and took the ram, and offred him up for a burnt-offring in the stead of his son.
14 And Abraham called the names of the place, Iehovah Ireh: as it is said to this day, in the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.
15 And y Angel of y Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven y second time,
16 And said, By my self have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine onely son,
17 That in blessing, I will bles thee & in multiplying, I will multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore, & thy seed shall possesse the gate of his enemies.
18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast obeyed my voice.
19 So Abraham returned to his yong men, & they arose up, & wēt together to Beersh ba, & Abraha dwelt at Beersh ba.
20 And it came to passe after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor.
21 Huz his first-born and Buz his brother and Kemuel the father of Aram.
22 And Chesed, and Hazo, & Pildash, and Iidlaph, and Bethuel.
23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abrahams brother.
24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Sarah was an hundred and seuen and twenty yeers old, these were the yeers of the life of Sarah.
2 And Sarah died in Kiriath-arba (the same is Hebron) in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah.

Sarah, and to weepe for her.
3 And Abrahã ſtood up fr̃ before his dead, & ſpake to y ſons of Heth ſaying,
4 I am a ſtranger, and a ſoiourner with you: give me a poſſeſſion of a burying place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my ſight.
5 And the children of Heth anſwered Abraham, ſaying unto him,
6 Heare us, my Lord: y art a mighty Prince amongſt us: in the choice of our ſepulchres bury thy dead: none of us ſhal withhold from thee his ſepulchre, but that thou mayſt bury thy dead.
7 And Abraham ſtood up, and bowed himſelf to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.
8 And he communed w̃ them, ſaying, If it be your mind that I ſhall bury my dead out of my ſight, hear me, & intreat for me to Ephron the ſon of Zohar:
9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field: for as much money as it is worth he ſhal give it me, for a poſſeſſion of a burying place amongſt you.
10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite anſwered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gates of his city, ſaying, 11 Nay, my lord, heare me: the field give I thee, & the cave that is therin, I give it thee, in the preſence of y ſons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.
12 And Abraham bowed down himſelf before the people of the land.
13 And he ſpake unto Ephron in y audience of y people of y land, ſaying But if y wilt give it, I pray thee hear me: I will give thee money for y field: take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.
14 And Ephron anſwered Abraham, ſaying unto him,
15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred ſhekels of ſilver: what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.
16 And Abraham hearkned to Ephron, & Abrahã weighed to Ephron y ſilver, which he had named, in the audience of the ſons of Heth, four hundred ſhekels of ſilver, current money with y merchant.
17 And the field of Ephron w̃ was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, y field, and the cave, which was therin, & all the trees that were in the field y were in all y borders round about, were made ſure
18 Unto Abraham for a poſſeſſion in y preſence of y children of Heth, before all that went in at the gates of his city.
19 And after this Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre: the ſame is Hebron in the land of Canaan.
20 And the field and the cave that therin, were made ſure unto Abraham for a poſſeſſion of a burying place, by the ſons of Heth.

CHAP. XXIV.

AND Abraham was old, and well ſtricken in age: and the LORD had bleſſed Abraham in all things.
2 And Abrahã ſaid to his eldeſt ſervãt of his houſe, y ruled over all y he had: Put I pray thee, thy hand vnder my thigh.
3 And I will make thee ſwear by the LORD the God of heaven & the God of the earth, that thou ſhalt not take a wife unto my ſon of the daughters of the Canaanites amongſt whom I dwel.
4 But thou ſhalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my ſon Iſaac.
5 And the ſervant ſaid unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me into this land: muſt I needs bring thy ſon again, unto the land from whence thou cameſt?
6 And Abraham ſaid to him, Beware y thou bring not my ſon thither again.
7 The LORD God of heaven, which tooke me from my fathers houſe, & fr̃ y land of my kinred, & which ſpake unto me, and y ſware to me, ſaying, Vnto thy ſeed will I give this land, he ſhall ſend his Angel before thee, and y ſhalt take a wife unto my ſon from thence.
8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou ſhalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my ſon thither again.
9 And the ſervant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his maſter, and ſware to him concerning that matter.
10 And the ſervant took ten camels of y camels of his maſter, & departed, (for all the goods of his maſter were in his hand) and he aroſe, and went to Meſopotamia, unto the city of Nahor.
11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at y time of y evening, even at y time that women goe out to draw water.
12 And he ſaid, O LORD God of my maſter Abraham, I pray thee ſend me good ſpeed this day, and ſhew kindneſſe unto my maſter Abraham.
13 Behold, I ſtand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:
14 And let it come to paſs, that y damſel to whõ I ſhal ſay, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, y I may drink, and ſhe ſhal ſay, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink alſo: let y ſame be ſhe that thou haſt appointed for thy ſervant Iſaac, and thereby ſhal I know that thou haſt ſhewed kindneſſe unto my maſter.
15 And it came to paſſe, before he had done ſpeaking, y behold Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel ſon of Milcah, y wife of Nahor, Abrahams brother, w̃ her pitcher upon her ſhulder.
16 And the damſel was very fair to look on, a virgin, neither had any man known her, and ſhe went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, & came up.
17 And the ſervant ran to meet her, and ſaid, Let me (I pray thee) drink a little water of thy pitcher.
18 And ſhe ſaid, Drink my lord: and ſhe haſted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her, held his peace, to wit, whether the Lord had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to passe as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden eare-ring, of half a shekell weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold,

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy fathers house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milkah, which she bare unto Nahor:

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw & provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be y Lord God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy, & his truth: I being in the way, the Lord led me to y house of my masters brethren.

28 And the damsell ran, and told them of her mothers house these things.

29 And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the eare-ring and bracelets upon his sisters hands, & when he heard y words of Rebekah his sister, saying, thus spake y man unto me, that he came to the man; and lo, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD, wherefore standest thou without? for I have pr pared the house and room for the camels.

32 And y man came into y house; and he unyoked his camels, & gave straw & provender for y camels, & water to wash his feet, & the mens feet y were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told my errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abrahams servant.

35 And the Lord hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, & herds, and silver, and gold, and men servants, and maid servants, and camels and asses.

36 And Sarah my masters wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all y he hath.

37 And my master made me sware, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my fathers house, and to my kinred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure y woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The Lord before whom I walk, will send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy way: & thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kinred, and of my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou be clear from mine oath, when thou commest to my kinred: and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day to y well, and said, O Lord God of my master Abraham, if now y do prosper my way w I go:

43 Behold I stand by the well of water: and it shall come to passe, that when a virgin cometh forth to draw water, & I say to her, Give me I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the Lord hath appointed out for my master.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine hart, Loe, Rebekah came forth, and her pitcher on her shulder; & she went down to the well and drew water: & I said to her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, & said, Both drink, & I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, & she made y camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? and she said, The daughter of Bethuel Nahors son, whom Milkah bare to him: & I put y earring upon her face, & bracelets on her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, & worshipped the LORD, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, who had led me in y right way to take my masters brethren daughter to his son.

49 And now if you will deal kindly and truely with my master, tell me: & if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban & Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the Lord: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go and let her be thy master sons wife, as the Lord hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, y when Abrahams servant heard their words, he worshipped himself to y Lord, bowing himself to y earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, & raiment, & gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he & y men that were with him, & tarried all night: & they rose up in y morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother & her mother said, Let y damsell abide with us a few days, at the least, after that she shall go.

56 And he said to them, Hinder me not, seeing y Lord hath prospered my way: send me away, y I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsell and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with Lord is many and she said, I will go.

60 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abrahams servant and his men.
60 And they blessed Rebekah, & said to her, Thou art our sister, be y mother of thousands of millions, & let thy seed get the possession y gate of those which hate them.
61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, & rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.
62 And Isaac came from y way of y well Lahairoi: for he dwelt in y south country.
63 And Isaac went out to meditate in y field at y eventide & he lift up his eies, & saw, & lo, the camels were coming.
64 And Rebekah lift up her eies, & when she saw Isaac she lighted off the camel.
65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? and the servant had said, it is my master, therfore she took a vail and covered her self.
66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.
67 And Isaac brought her into his mothers Sarahs tent, & took Rebekah, & she became his wife, & he loved her: & Isaac was cõforted after his mothers death.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.
2 And she bare him Zimran, & Iokshan, & Medan, & Midian, & Ishbak, & Shuah.
3 And Iokshan begat Sheba, & Dedan. And the sons of Dedan, were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.
4 And the sons of Midian, Ephah, and Epher, & Hanoch, and Abida, & Eldaah: all these were the children of Keturah.
5 And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.
6 But to y sons of y concubines Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, & sent them away fro Isaac his son (while he yet lived) Eastward unto the East country.
7 And these are y dayes of the yeres of Abrahams life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen yeres.
8 Then Abraham gave up y ghost, & died in a good old age, an old man, full of yeres, & was gathered to his people.
9 And his sons, Isaac & Ishmael, buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre.
10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried and Sarah his wife.
11 And it came to pas after y death of Abraham, y God blessed his son Isaac and Isaac dwelt by the well La-hai-roi.
12 Now these are y generations of Ishmael Abrahams son, which Hagar y Egyptian Sarahs handmaid bare unto Abraham.
13 And these are y names of y sons of Ishmael by their names, after their generations: The first-born of Ishmael, Najoth, & Kedar, & Adbeel, & Mibsam, 14 And Mishma, & Dumah, & Massa, 15 Hadar and Tema, Ietur, Naphish, & Kedemah.
16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their townes, and by their castles: twelve Princes according to their nations.
17 And these are the yeres of the life of Ishmael, an hundred & thirty & seven yeers: and he gave up y ghost, and died, & was gathered unto his people.
18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest towards Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren.
19 And these are y generations of Isaac Abrahams son: Abraham begat Isaac.
20 And Isaac was fourty yeres old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-Aramy sister to Laban y Syrian.
21 And Isaac intreated the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.
22 And the children struggled together within her, and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to enquire of the LORD.
23 And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are in thy wombe, & two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels: and the one people shall be stronger then the other people: and the elder shall serve the younger.
24 And when her dayes to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her wombe.
25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment: and they called his name, Esau.
26 And after y came his brother out, & his hand took hold on Esaus heel, & his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore yeers old, when she bare them.
27 And the boyes grew: And Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of y field: & Jacob was a plain man dwelling in tents.
28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.
29 And Jacob sod potage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint.
30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with y same red potage: for I am faint: therfore was his name called Edom.
31 And Jacob said, Sel me this day thy birth-right.
32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shal this birth-right do to me?
33 And Jacob said, Sweare to me this day, and he sware to him: and he sold his birth-right unto Jacob.
34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread & potage of lentiles: and he did eat and drink, and rose up: and went his way: thus Esau despised his birth-right.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 And there was a famine in y land, besides y first famine y was in y dayes of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistims, to Gerar.
2 And y Lord appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt: dwell in the land that I shall tell thee of.

3 Sojourn in this land, & I wil be with thee, and wil blesse thee: for vnto thee and to thy seed, I will giue all these countreys, & I wil perform the oath which I sware vnto Abraham thy father.
4 And I wil make thy seed to multiply as y stars of heaven, & wil giue to thy seed all these countries: and in thy seed shal all y nations of y earth be blessed.
5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandements, my statutes, and my lawes.
6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.
7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife: and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was fair to look vpon.
8 And it came to pas whē he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines, looked out at a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.
9 And Abimelech called Isaac, & said, Behold, of a surety, she is thy wife: and how saidest thou, She is my sister? and Isaac said vnto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.
10 And Abimelech said, What is this y hast done to vs? one of y people might lightly have lie w'thy wife, & y should'st have brought guiltines vpon vs.
11 And Abimelech charged al his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife, shal surely be put to death.
12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and receyued in the same yeer an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him.
13 And y man waxed great, & wēt forward, & grew till he became very great.
14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants, and y Philistines envied him.
15 For al the wels w his fathers servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.
16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go frō vs, for thou art much mightier than we.
17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.
18 And Isaac digged again the wels of water, w they had digged in y dayes of Abraham his father: for y Philistims had stopped them after y death of Abraham: & he called them by the names after y names by which his father had called them.
19 And Isaacs servāts digged in y valley, & found there a wel of springing water.
20 And y herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaacs herdmen, saying, the water is ours: & he called the name of y wel, Esek, because they strove w him.
21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it, Sitnah.
22 And he removed frō thence, & digged another wel, & for y they strove not: & he called the name of it, Rehoboth: and said, For now y Lord hath made room for us & we shalbe fruitfull in y land.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer sheba.
24 And y Lord appeared unto him y same night & said, I am y God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee and will blesse thee, and multiply thy seed, for my servant Abrahā sake.
25 And he builded an altar there, & called upon the name of the Lord, & pitched his tent there: and there Isaacs servants digged a well.
26 Then Abimelech went to him frō Gerar, & Ahuzzath one of his friends, & Phicol the chief captain of his army.
27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?
28 And they said, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt vs, even betwixt vs and thee, and let vs make a covenant with thee,
29 That thou wilt do vs no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done vnto thee nothing but good, & have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD.
30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.
31 And they arose up betimes in the morning, & sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.
32 And it came to pas y same day, that Isaacs servāts came & told him concerning y well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.
33 And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of y city is Beersheba to this day.
34 And Esau was forty yeers old when he took to wife Iudith, y daughter of Beeri the Hittite, & Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite:
35 Which were a grief of mind vnto Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAP. XXVII.

AND it came to passe that when Isaac was old and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his best sonne and said vnto him, My sonne: and he said vnto him, Behold, here am I.
2 And he said, Behold now I am old, I know not the day of my death.
3 Now therefore take I pray thee thy weapons thy quiver, and thy bow, & get me out to the field, & take me some venison for me;
4 And make me savoury meat such as I loue, and bring it to me, that I may eat, that my soul may blesse thee before I die.
5 And Rebekah heard what Isaac spake to Esau his sonne: and Esau went to the field to take venison, & to bring it home.
6 And Rebekah spake unto Iacob her sonne, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak vnto Esau thy brother, saying,
7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, & bless thee before the LORD, before my death.
8 Now therefore my sonne, obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of y goats, and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth.
10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.
11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is an hairy man, and I am a smooth man.
12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver, and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.
13 And his mother said to him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, go and fetch me them.
14 And he went, & fetched, & brought them to his mother, & his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.
15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, & were with her in y house, & put these on Jacob her yonger son 16 And the put the skins of the kids of the goates upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck.
17 And she gave the savoury meat, and the bread which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.
18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, here am I:
who art thou, my son?
19 And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau thy first-born: I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit, and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.
20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it to me.
21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau, or not.
22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father: and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacobs voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.
23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Es-aus hands: So he blessed him.
24 And he said, Art thou my very son
Esau? And he said, I am.
25 And he said, bring it near to me and I will eat of my sons venison, that my soul may bless thee: and he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.
26 And his father Isaac said unto him
Come near now, and kiss me, my son.
27 And he came near, and kissed him:
and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed.
28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine.
29 Let people serve thee, & nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethre and let thy mothers sons bow down to thee: Cursed be every one that curseth thee, & blessed be he that blesseth thee.
30 And it came to pass, as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, & Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
31 And he had also made savory meat, & brought it to his father, & said unto his father Let my father arise, & eat of his sons venison, that thy soul may bless me.
32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy first-born, Esau.
33 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who where is he that hath taken venison, & brought it me, & I have eaten of all before thou camest, & have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed.
34 And when Esau heard the word of his father, he cried & a great & exceeding bitter cry, and said to his father,
Bless me, even me also, O my father.
35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, & hath taken away thy blessing.
36 And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, & behold, now he hath taken away my blessing: and he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?
37 And Isaac answered, & said to Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord: and all his brethren have I given to him for servants: and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?
38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lift up his voice, and wept.
39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above.
40 And by thy sword shalt thy live, and shalt serve thy brother: & it shall come to pass when y shalt have y dominion, that y shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.
41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, y days of mourning for my father are at hand:
then will I slay my brother Jacob.
42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: And she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau as touching thee, doth comfort himself purposing to kill thee.
43 Now therefore my son, obey my voice: and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran.
44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brothers fury turn away;
45 Until thy brothers anger turn away from thee, and he forget that thou hast done to him: then will I send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?
46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: If Iacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND Isaac called Iacob, and blessed him, and charged him and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 Arise, go to Padan-Aram, to ỹ house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, ỹ thou mayest be a multitude of people.

4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee & to thy seed: & thee that ỹ mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, ẅ God gave to Abraha.

5 And Isaac sent away Iacob, and he went to Padan-Aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Iacobs and Esaus mother.

6 When I saw saw that Isaac had blessed Iacob and sent him away to Padan-Aram to take him a wife from thence and that as he blessed him, he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan:

7 And that Iacob obeyed his father, & his mother, & was gone to Padan-Aram:

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father:

9 Then went Esau vnto Ishmael, and took unto the wives ẅ he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abrahams son, ỹ sister of Nebajoth to be his wife.

10 And Iacob went out from Beersheba and went towards Haran.

11 And he lighted on a certain place, & tarried there all night, because the sun was set: and he took of ỹ stones of that place, and put them for his pillowes and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed: and behold, a ladder set upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven, & behold, ỹ Angels of God ascending, & descending on it.

13 And behold, the Lord stood above it: and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed.

14 And thy seed shalbe as the dust of ỹ earth, & ỹ shalt spread abroad to ỹ west and to ỹ east, & to the north, & to the south: & in thee and in thy seed shall all ỹ families of ỹ earth be blessed.

15 And behold, I am with thee and will keep thee in all places whither ỹ goest, & will bring thee again into this land: for I will not leave thee, until I have done that ẅ I have spoken to thee of.

16 And Iacob awaked out of his sleep and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place: and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, & said, How dreadfull is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Iacob rose up early in ỹ morning, & took the stone that he had put for his pillows, & set it up for a pillar, and powred oyl upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of the place Bethel: but the name of that city was called Luz, at the first.

20 And Iacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So ỹ I come again to my fathers house in peace: then shall ỹ Lord be my God.

22 And this stone, ẅ I have set for a pillar, shalbe Gods house. & of all ỹ thou give me, I will surely give ỹ tith to thee.

CHAP. XXIX.

THEN Iacob went on his journy, & came into ỹ land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold, a well in the field, and lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it: for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the wels mouth.

3 And thither were all ỹ flocks gathered, & they rolled ỹ stone from ỹ wels mouth, & watered ỹ sheep, & put ỹ stone again upon ỹ wels mouth in his place.

4 And Iacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? and they said, We are of Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said to them, Is he well? & they said, He is well: & behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot until all the flocks be gathered together, & till they roll the stone from the wels mouth: then we water the sheep.

9 And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her fathers sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass when Iacob saw Rachel ỹ daughter of Laban his mothers brother, & ỹ sheep of Laban his mothers brother, ỹ Iacob went near, and rolled ỹ stone from ỹ wels mouth, & watered ỹ flock of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Iacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Iacob told Rachel, ỹ he was her fathers brother and ỹ he was Rebekahs son: and she ran and told it her father.

13 And it came to passe, when Laban heard ỹ tidings of Iacob his sisters son, ỹ he ran to meet him, & embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house: & he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said unto him, Surely thou are my bone and my flesh: & he abode with him the space of a month.

15 And Laban said unto Iacob, Because thou are my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, & the name of the younger was Rachel 17 Leah was tender eyed: but Rachel was beautifull, and well favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven yeers for Rachel thy younger daughter.
19 And Laban said It is better that I give her to thee, then y I should give her to another man: abide with me.
20 And Jacob served seven yeers for Rachel: & they seemed unto him but a few dayes for the love he had to her.
21 And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wif (for my dayes are full, that I may go in unto her.
22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.
23 And it came to pas in the evening, y he took Leah his daughter, & brought her to him, and he went in unto her.
24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Zilpah his maid, for a hand-maid.
25 And it came to passe that in y morning, behold it was Leah: & he said to Laban, What is this, thou hast done to me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel?
wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?
26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the first-born.
27 Fulfill her week, and we will give thee this also for the service y thou me shalt serve with me yet seven other yeers.
28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.
29 And Laba gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid.
30 And he went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more then Leah, & served with him yet seven other yeers.
31 And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her wombe:
but Rachel was barren.
32 And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.
33 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon.
34 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and said, Now this time will my husband be joyned unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.
35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing.

CHAP. XXX.

A Nd when Rachel saw that she bare no children to Jacob, she envied her sister, and said to Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.
2 And Jacobs anger was kindled against Rachel and he said, Am I in Gods stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?
3 And she said, behold my maid Bilhah go unto her, & she shall bear upon my knees, y I may also have children by her.
4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: & Jacob went in unto her.
5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.
6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me & hath also heard my voice, & given me a son: therefore called he his name Dan.
7 And Bilhah Rachels maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.
8 And Rachel said, & great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, & have prevailed, & she called his name Naphtali.
9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.
10 And Zilpah Leahs maid bare Jacob a son.
11 And Leah said, A troup commeth and she called his name Gad.
12 And Zilpah Leahs maid bare Jacob a second son.
13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: And she called his name Asher.
14 And Reuben went in the dayes of wheat harvest, & found Mandrakes in y field, and brought them to his mother
Leah. Then said Rachel to Leah, Give me
I pray thee of thy sons Mandrakes.
15 And she said to her, Is it a small matter y thou hast taken away my husband? & wouldst y take away my sons mandrakes also? & Rachel said, therefore he shall lie with thee to night, for thy sons Mandrakes.
16 And Jacob came out of y field in y evening, & Leah went out to meet him, & said, y must come in unto me: for surely I have hired thee with my sons Mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.
17 And God harkened to Leah, & she conceived and bare Jacob the fifth son.
18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire because I have given my maiden to my husband, and she called his name Issachar.
19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixt son.
20 And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry: Now will my husband dwel with me, because I have born him six sons: & she called his name Zebulun.
21 And afterwards she bare a daughter and called her name Dinah.
22 And God remembred Rachel, & God
harkened to her, & opened her womb.
23 And she conceived & bare a son, & said, God hath taken away my reproch.
24 And she called his name Joseph, & said, y Lord shall add to me another son.
25 And it came to pas when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.
26 Give me my wives & my children for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.
27 And Laban said to him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thy eies, tarry

Iacobs spotted lambs. He departeth from Laban.

for I have learned by experience, that ỹ LORD hath blessed me for thy sake.
28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.
29 And he said vnto him, Thou knowest how I have serued thee, and how thy cattle was with me.
30 For it was little which ỹ hadst before I came, & it is now increased to a multitude, and ỹ Lord hath blessed thee since my comming: and now when shall I prouide for mine own house also?
31 And he said, What shal I giue thee? & Iacob said, Thou shalt not giue me any thing, If ỹ wilt do this thing for me, I will againe feed and keep thy flock.
32 I will passe through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled & spotted cattle: and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats, and of such shall be my hire.
33 So shal my righteousnes answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: euery one ỹ is not speckled and spotted among the goats, & brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.
34 And Laban said, Behold I would it might be according to thy word.
35 And he removed that day the goats ỹ were ring streaked, & spotted, and all the she-goats ỹ were speckled & spotted, & euery one that had some white in it, & all the brown among the sheep, & gaue them into the hand of his sons.
36 And he set three dayes iourney betwixt himself and Iacob: and Iacob fed the rest of Labans flocks.
37 And Iacob took him rods of greene poplar, & of hasel and chel-nut trees, & pilled white streakes in them, & made the white appear which was in ỹ rods.
38 And he set the rods which he had pilled, before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when ỹ flocks came to drink, that they should conceiue when they came to drink.
39 And the flocks conceiued before the rods and brought forth cattle ring-streaked, speckled, and spotted.
40 And Iacob did separate ỹ lambs, & set ỹ faces of the flocks towards ỹ ringstreaked, & all the brown in the flock of Laban: & he put his own flocks by themselues, & put them not to Labans cattle.
41 And it came to passe, whensoeuer the strong cattle did conceiue, that Iacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceiue among the rods.
42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Labans, and the stronger Iacobs.
43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, & maid-seruants, & men-seruants, and camels, and asses.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 And he heard ỹ words of Labans sons saying, Iacob hath taken away all ỹ was our fathers, and of ỹ which was of our fathers, hath he gotten all this glory.
2 And Iacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and behold, it was not toward him as before.
3 And the Lord said vnto Iacob, Return vnto the land of thy fathers, & to thy kinred: and I will be with thee.
4 And Iacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field vnto his flock,
5 And said to them, I see your fathers countenance, that it is not towards me as before: but the God of my father hath been with me.
6 And ye know that with all my power I have serued your father.
7 And your father hath deceiued me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.
8 If he said thus, ỹ speckled shal be thy wages: then all ỹ cattle bare speckled: & if he said thus, ỹ ring-streaked shal be thy wages: then bare all ỹ cattle ring-streaked.
9 Thus God hath taken away ỹ cattle of your father, and giuen them to me.
10 And it came to passe at the time that ỹ cattle conceiued, that I lifted vp mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, rams which leaped vpon ỹ cattle, were ring-streaked, speckled, and grizled.
11 And the Angel of God spake vnto me in a dream, saying, Iacob, and I said, Here am I.
12 And he said, I pray thee lift vp now thine eyes, and see all the rams which leap vpon ỹ cattle, are ring-streaked, speckled and grizled: for I haue seen all ỹ Laban doth vnto thee.
13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow vnto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and returne to the land of thy kinred.
14 And Rachel and Leah answered, and said vnto him: Is there yet a portion or inheritance for vs in our father's house?
15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold vs, and hath quite deuoured also our money.
16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours & our children's: now then whatsoeuer God hath said vnto thee, do.
17 Then Iacob rose vp, & set his sons and his wiues vpon camels.
18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-Aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.
19 And Laban went to sheare his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her fathers.
20 And Iacob stole away vnawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.
21 So he fled with all that he had, & he rose vp and passed ouer the riuer, and set his face toward the mount Gilead.
22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Iacob was fled.
23 And he took his brethren with him, & pursued after him seuen dayes iourney: and they ouertooke him in ỹ mount Gilead.
24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob neither good or bad.

25 Then Laban over took Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in y mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that y hast stollen away unawares to me, & caried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flie away secretly, and steal away from me, and didst not tell me? that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp.

28 And hast not suffered me to kisse my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in y power of my hand to do you hurt: but y God of your father spake to me yesternight, saying, Take y heed y spake not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldst needs be gone, because thou here longedst after thy fathers houfeg: t wherefore hast thou stollen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered, and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee: for Jacob knew not that Rachel had stollen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacobs tent, and into Leahs tent, and into the two maid-servants tents: but he found them not. Then went he out of Leahs tent, and entred into Rachels tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camels furniture, and sat upon them: and Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, I et it not displease my lord y I cannot rise up before thee, for y custome of women is on me: & he searched but found not y images.

36 And Jacob was wroth, & chid with Laban: & Jacob answered & said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, y thou hast so hotely pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff: what hast thou found of all thy houshold stuff? set it here before my brethren, and thy brethren, that they may judge between us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee: thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts, I brought not unto thee: I bare y losse of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether it stollen by day, or stollen by night.

40 Thus I was in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I bin twenty years in thy house: I served thee fourteen yers for thy two daughters, & six yeers for thy cattle; & y hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except y God of my father, y God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac had bin with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty: God hath seen mine affliction, and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 And Laban answered, & said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, & these children are my children, & these cattle are my cattle, & all that y seest, is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou: & let it be for a witnesse between me and thee.

45 And Jacob tooke a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones: and they tooke stones, and made an heape, and they did eate there upon the heape.

47 And Laban called it, Iegar Sahadetha: but Jacob called it, Galeed.

48 And Laban said, this heap is a witnes between me and thee this day: therefore was the name of it called Galeed,

49 And Mizpah; for he said, the Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; See, God is witnesse between me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast between me and thee.

52 This heape be witnesse, and this pillar be witnesse that I will not passe over this heape, to thee, and that thou shalt not passe over this heape, and this pillar unto me for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed his sons, and his daughters and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

CHAP. XXXII.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the Angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is Gods host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him, to Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, thus shall ye speak to my lord Esau, thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, & stayed there until now.

5 And I have oxen and asses, sheep and men-servants, and women-servants, and I have sent to tel my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers returned to Iacob, saying: We came to thy brother Esau and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Iacob was greatly afraid: and distressed, and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks and herds and the camels, into two bands.

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it: then the other company which is left, shall escape.

9 And Iacob said, O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac the LORD which saidst to me return into thy country, and to thy kinred and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which thou hast shewed unto thy servant for with my staffe I passed over this Iordan: and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me I pray thee from the hand of my brother from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And yet said: I will surely do thee good, & make thy seed as y sand of the sea which cannot be numbred for multitude.

13 And he lodged there that same night, and took of that which came to his hand, a present for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred she-goats, and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rammes.

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foales.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants: every drove by themselves, and said unto his servants, Passe over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying: When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then shalt say: they be thy servant Iacobs: it is a present sent to my lord Esau: and behold also he is behind us.

19 And to commanded he y second & the third, and all that followed the droves, saying: On this manner shall you speak to Esau, when you find him.

20 And say ye moreover: Behold, thy servant Iacob is behind us: for he said I will appease him with the present y goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face, perad venture he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two women-servants and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Iabbok.

23 And he took them & sent them over the brooks, & sent over y he had.

24 And Iacob was left alone: and there wrestled a man with him, until the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched y hollow of his thigh: & y hollow of Iacobs thigh was out of joynt as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go for the day breaketh: and he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Iacob.

28 And he said, thy name shall be called no more Iacob, but Israel for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

29 Also Iacob asked him, & said, I pray thee tell me thy name: And he said, Wherefore is it, that thou dost ask after my name? and he blessed him there.

30 And Iacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Penuel, the sun rose on him, & he halted on his thigh.

32 Therefore y children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is on the hollow of y thigh, to this day: because he touched the hollow of Iacobs thigh, in the sinew that shrank.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AND Iacob lifted up his eyes, & looked, & behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men: and he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids & their children formost, & Leah & her children after, & Rachel & Ioseph hindermost.

3 And he passed over before them and bowed himself to y ground seven times, until he came neer to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lift up his eyes, & saw y women, & y children, & said, Who are these with thee? & he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then y handmaids came neer, they & their children, and bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came neer, and bowed themselves: and after came Ioseph neer and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What meanest y by all this drove which I met? and he said, that I might find grace in y sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother, keep that thou hast unto thy self.

10 And Iacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing y is brought to thee, because God hath dealt graciously with me, & because I have enough. & he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, & let us go: and I will go before thee.

13 And he said to him, My Lord knoweth y y children are tender, & y flocks & herds with me: & if men should over drive them one day, all the flock would die.

14 Let

14 I et my lord, I pray thee, passe over before his servant: & I will lead on softly, according as y cattle y goeth before me, & the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir.

15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk y are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 So Esau returned that day, on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an house, and made boothes for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is Succoth.

18 And Jacob came to Salem, a citie of Shechem; which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, & pitched his tent before y citie.

19 And he bought a parcell of a field where he had spread his tent, at y hand of the children of Hamor Shechems father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

CHAP. XXXIV.

A Nd Dinah the daughter of Leah (which she bare unto Jacob) went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem y son of Hamor y Hivite, prince of y country, saw her, he took her, & lay with her, & defiled her.

3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, & he loved y damsel, and spake kindly to the Damsel.

4 And Shechem spake to his father Hamor, saying, get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter (now his sons were with his cattle in the field) & Jacob held his peace till they were come.

6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it, and the men were grieved: for they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel, in lying with Jacobs daughter, which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you: dwell & trade you therin, & get you possessions therin.

11 And Shechem said to her father, & to her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, & what ye shall say to me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowry & gift, and I will give according as ye shall say to me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And Jacobs sons answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised: for that were a reproach unto us.

15 But in this will we consent unto you: if ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised:

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, & we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us to be circumcised, then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do y thing, because he had delight in Jacobs daughter: & he was more honourable than all y house of his father.

20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to y gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us, therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein, for the land behold, it is large enough for them: let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us, for to dwell with us to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Shal not their cattle and their substance, and every beast of theirs be ours? onely let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And to Hamor and to Shechem his son, hearkned all y went out of y gate of his city, & every male was circumcised all y went out of the gate of his city.

25 And it came to pass on y third day, when they were sore, y two of y sons of Jacob, Simeon & Levi, Dinahs brethren took each man his sword. & came on the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor, and Shechem his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechems house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep and their oxen, & their asses, and that was in the city, and y which was in the field.

29 And all their wealth, & all their little ones, & their wives took they captive, & spoyled even all y was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon & Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me stink among y inhabitants of y land among y Canaanites, & y Perizzites: & I being few in number, they shal gather them selv s together against me, & slay me, & I shal be destroyed, I & my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister, as with a harlot?

CHAP. XXXV.

ANd God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said to his household, and to all y were with him, Put away the

the strange gods that are among you, & be clean and change your garments.
3 And let us arise, & go up to Bethel, & I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distresse, & was with me in y way which I went.
4 And they gave unto Iacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, & all their eare-rings which were in their eares, and Iacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.
5 And they journeyed: and the terrour of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sonnes of Iacob.
6 So Iacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan (that is Bethel) he and all the people that were with him.
7 And he built there an Altar, & called the place El Bethel: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.
8 But Debora Rebekahs nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bethel under an oake: and the name of it was called Allon Bachuth.
9 And God appeared unto Iacob againe, when hee came out of Padan Aram, and blessed him.
10 And God said unto him, thy name is Iacob: thy name shall not bee called any more Iacob, but Israel shall be thy name, and he called his name Israel.
11 And God said to him, I am God Almighty: be fruitfull, & multiply, a nation & a company of nations shall be of thee, & Kings shall come out of thy loynes.
12 And the land which I gave Abraham & Isaac to thee, will I give it, & to thy seed after thee will I give the land.
13 And God went up from him, in the place where he talked with him.
14 And Iacob set up a pillar in y place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: & he poured a drinke offering thereon, and he powred oyle thereon.
15 And Iacob called y name of y place where God spake with him, Bethel.
16 And they journied from Bethel, & there was but a little way to Ephrath, and Rachel travailed & she had hard labor.
17 And it came to pas when shee was in hard labor, y midwife said to her, Feare not, y shalt have this son also.
18 And it came to passe as her soule was in departing, (for she died) that she call'd his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin.
19 And Rachel died, & was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.
20 And Iacob set a pillar on her grave: y is y pillar of Rachels grave to this day.
21 And Israel journeyed & spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.
22 And it came to pas when Israel dwelt in that land, y Reuben went & lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: & Israel heard it: now y sons of Iacob were twelve.
23 The sons of Leah: Reuben Iacobs first borne, and Simeon, and Levi, and Iudah, and Issachar and Zebulun.
24 The sons of Rachel: Ioseph, and Benjamin.
25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachels hand-maid: Dan, and Naphtali.
26 And y sons of Zilpah, Leahs handmaid: Gad & Asher. These are y sons of Iacob, which were born to him in Padan Aram.
27 And Iacob came to Isaac his father to Mamre unto y city of Arbah (which is Hebron) where Abraham & Isaac sojourned.
28 And the dayes of Isaac were an hundred and fourescore yeeres.
29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, & died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of dayes: and his sonnes, Esau and Iacob buried him.

CHAP. XXXVI.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 AND Iacob dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.
2 These are y generations of Iacob: Ioseph being seventeen yeers old, was feeding y flocke of his brethre: & y lad was with the sons of Bilhah, & w the sons of Zilpah his fathers wives: & Ioseph brought to his father their evil report.
3 Now Israel loved Ioseph more then all his children, because he was the son of his old age, & he made him a coat of many colours.
4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more then all his brethren, they hated him, & could not speake peaceably unto him.
5 And Ioseph dreamed a dreame, and he told it his brethren, and they hated him yet the more.
6 And he said unto them, Heare, I pray you this dream which I have dreamed.
7 For behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and loe, my sheafe arose, and also stood upright; & behold your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheafe.
8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reigne over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? & they hated him yet the more, for his dreames, and for his words.
9 And he dreamed yet another dream, & told it his brethren, & said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more: and loe, the Sun and the Moone, and the eleven starres made obeisance to me.
10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren, & his father rebuked him, & said to him, what is this dream that thou hast dreamed? shall I and thy mother, and thy brethren indeed come to bow down our selves to thee to y earth?
11 And his brethren envied him: but his father observed the saying.
12 And his brethren went to feed their fathers flocke in Shechem.
13 And Israel said unto Ioseph, Doe not thy brethren feed y flocke in Shechem, come, & I will send thee to them: and he said unto him, Here am I.
14 And he said to him, go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocke, and bring me word again: so he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, & he came to Shechem.
15 And a certain man found him, & behold he was wandring in y field, & the man asked him saying, what dost thou seeke?
16 And he said, I seeke my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flockes?
17 And the man said, they are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let us goe to Dothan. And Ioseph went after his brethren and found them in Dothan.
18 And when they saw him afarre off, even before he came neer to them, they conspired against him to slay him.
19 And they said, one to another, Behold, this dreamer commeth.

20 Come

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him and cast him into some pit, and we will say, some evil beast hath devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreames.

21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said to them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit ý is in ý wilderness, and lay no hand on him ý he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 And it came to pass, when Ioseph was come to his brethren, that they stript Ioseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him.

24 And they took him and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sate down to eat bread: and they lift up their eyes and looked, and behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead, with their camels bearing spicery, & balm, and myrrhe, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And Iudah said unto his brethren, What profit is it, if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to ý Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, and our flesh: and his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by Midianites, merchantmens & they drew & lift up Ioseph out of ý pit, and sold Ioseph to ý Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Ioseph into Egypt.

29 And Reuben returned unto the pit: and behold, Ioseph was not in the pit: and he rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not, and I whither shall I go?

31 And they took Ioseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood.

32 And they sent the coat of many colors, & they brought it to their father, & said, this have we found: know now whether it be thy sons coat, or no.

33 And he knew it, & said, it is my sons coat: an evil beast hath devoured him, Ioseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Iacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loynes, and mourned for his son many dayes.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him: but he refused to be comforted: & he said, for I will go down into ý grave to my son, mourning: thus his father wept for him.

36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaohs, and captain of the guard.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

AND it came to pass at that time, that Iudah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah:

2 And Iudah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah, & he took her, & went in to her.

3 And she conceived and bare a son, ý and called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son, and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived & bare a son, and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 And Iudah took a wife for Er his first-born, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er Iudahs first-born was wicked in the sight of the LORD, ý the LORD slew him.

8 And Iudah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brothers wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew ý the seed should not be his, & it came to pass when he went in unto his brothers wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed unto his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the Lord, wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Iudah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widowed in thy fathers house, til Shelah my son be grown: (for he said, Lest peradventure he die also as his brethren did.) & Tamar went & dwelt in her fathers house.

12 And in processe of time the daughter of Shuah Iudahs wife died: and Iudah was comforted, & went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar saying, Behold, thy father in law goeth up to Timnah to sheare his sheep.

14 And she put her widows garments off from her, & covered her & wrapped herself, & sat in an open place which is by way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him to wife.

15 When Iudah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot, because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by ý way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee: (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law) and she said, What will thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock: and she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledg shall I give thee? And she said, Thy bracelets and thy staff that is in thine hand: and he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Iudah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the womans hand, but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of ý place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Iudah, & said, I cannot find her: & also ý men of ý plaod bare a child, ỹ ther was no harlot in this place wicked̃esse, and sinne against God?

21 And Judah said, Let her take it to gain, and her, lest we be ashamed: behold, I sent 11 And it came to passe about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his businesse, and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie ẃ me: & he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.
13 And it came to passe when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth; 14 That she called to the men of her house, and spake to them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew to us, to mock us: he came in unto me to lie with me, & I cried with a loud voice.
15 And it came to passe when he heard that I lifted up my voyce, and cryed, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.
16 And she laid up his garment by her, until her lord came home.
17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me, to mock me.
18 And it came to passe as I lift up my voice, and cryed, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.
19 And it came to pas when his master heard ỹ words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, after this manner did thy servant to me, ỹ his wrath was kindled.
20 And Iosephs master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the kings prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.
21 But the Lord was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, & gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Iosephs hand all ỹ prisoners that were in the prison, & what soever they did there, he was the doer of it.
23 The keeper of ỹ prison looked not to any thing ỹ was under his hand, because the Lord was with him: & that ẃ he did, the Lord made it to prosper.

CHAP. XL.

AND it came to pas after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt, and his baker, had offended their lord the king of Egypt.
2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, ag̃inst ỹ chief of ỹ butlers, & against the chief of the bakers.
3 And he put them in ward in ỹ house of ỹ captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Ioseph was bound.
4 And ỹ captain of ỹ guard charged Joseph with them, & he served them:
and they continued a season in ward.
5 And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to ỹ interpretation of his dream, ỹ butler & ỹ baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in ỹ prison.
6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them,
and

and behold they were fadde.
7 And he asked Pharaohs officers ỹ were w him in ỹ ward of his lords house, saying, Wherfore look ye so fadly to day?
8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is nomterpreter of it. And Ioseph said to them,
Do not interpretations belong to God?
tell me them I pray you.
9 And the chief butler told his dream to Ioseph, & said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me.
10 And in the vine were three branches, and it was as though it budded, & her blossoms shot forth, and ỹ clusters ther of brought forth ripe grapes.
11 And Pharaohs cup was in my hand:
and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaohs cup: and I gave the cup into Pharaohs hand.
12 And Ioseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three dayes.
13 Yet within three dayes shal Phara oh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place, and thou shalt deliver Pharaohs cup into his hands after the former maner when ỹ wast his butler.
14 But think on me, when it shall be well
w thee, & shew kindnesse, I pray thee, ỹ unto me: and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, & bring me out of this hous.
15 I or indeed I was stollen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing, that they should put me into the dungeon.
16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Io-seph, I also was in my dream, & behold,
I had three white baskets on my head.
17 And in the uttermost basket there was of all maner of baked meats for Pharaoh, and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.
18 And Ioseph answered and said, this is the interpretation thereof: the three baskets are three dayes:
19 Yet within three dayes shal Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree, and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.
20 And it came to passe the third day which was Pharaohs birth day that he made a feast unto all his servants: and lift up the head of the chief butler & of the chief baker among his servants.
21 And he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he gave the cup into Pharaohs hand.
22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Ioseph had interpreted to them.
23 Yet did not the chief butler remem ber Ioseph, but forgate him.

preted by Ioseph.

25 And Ioseph said to Pharaoh, The dreame of Pharaoh is one; God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven yeers, and the seven good ears are seven yeers: the dreame is one.

27 And the seven thin & ill fauoured kine yͤ came vp after them are seuē yeers, and the seuen empty ears blasted with the east wind, shall be seuen yeers of famine.

28 This is the thing which I haue spoken vnto Pharaoh: what God is a∣bout to do, he sheweth vnto Pharaoh.

29 Lo, there come seuē yeers of great plenty, throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And there shall arise after them seuen yeers of famine, and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land.

31 And yͤ plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following: for it shall be very greeuous.

32 And for that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaoh twice, it is because the thing is stablished by God, and God will shortly bring it to passe.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take vp the fift part of the land of Egypt, in the seuen plenteous yeers.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good yeers that come, and lay vp corn vnder the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shalbe for store to the land, against ſ seuen yeers of famine, which shalbe in the land of Egypt: that the land perish not through the famine.

37 And yͤ thing was good in the eies of Pharaoh, & in yͤ eies of all his seruants.

38 And Pharaoh said to his seruants, Can we finde such an one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said to Ioseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet & wise as thou art.

40 Thou shalt be ouer my house, and according to thy word shall all my people be ruled: onely in the throne will I be greater then thou.

41 And Pharaoh said to Ioseph, See, I haue set thee ouer all ỹ land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took of his ring from his hand, & put it vpon Iosephs hand, & arayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

43 And he made him to ride in the second charet which he had: and they cryed before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler ouer all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift vp his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Iosephs name Zaphnath Paaneah, and he gaue him to wife Aſenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah Priest of On: and Ioseph went out ouer all the land of Egypt.

46 (And Ioseph was thirty yeers old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt) and Ioseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, & went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeers the earth brought forth by handfulls.

48 And he gathered vp all the food of the seuen yeers, which were in the land of Egypt, & laid up the food in ỹ cities: the food of the field which was round about every city, laid he up in ỹ same.

49 And Ioseph gathered corn as ỹ sand of the sea, very much vntill he left mis∣bring: for it was without number.

50 And to Ioseph were born two sons before the yeers of famine came, which Aſenath the daughter of Poti-pherah, Priest of On, bare vnto him.

51 And Ioseph called the name of the first born, Manaſſeh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my fathers house.

52 And ỹ name of the second call'd he Ephraim, for God hath caused me to be fruitfull in the land of my affliction.

53 And ỹ seuē yeers of plenteousnes, which was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 And the seuen yeers of dearth began to come according as Ioseph had said, & the dearth was in all lands: but in all ỹ land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cryed to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said vnto all the Egyptians, Go vnto Ioseph, what he saith, vnto you, do.

56 And ỹ famine was over all ỹ face of the earth, & Ioseph opened all ỹ store∣houses, & sold to the Egyptians. & the famine waxed sore in ỹ land of Egypt.

57 And all countreys came into Egypt to Ioseph for to buy corn, because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAP. XLII.

NOw when Iacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Iacob said vnto his sons, why look one vpon another?

2 And he said, behold, I haue heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for vs from thence, that we may liue and not die.

3 And Iosephs ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 And Benjamin, Iosephs brother, Iacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, left peradventure mischief befal him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 And Ioseph was the gouernour ouer the land, and it was that sold to all the people of the land. and Iosephs bre∣thren came & bowed down themselues before him, with their faces to the earth.

7 And Ioseph saw his brethren, & he knew them but made himself straunge to them, and spake roughly to them, & said to them, Whence come ye? And they said, From ỹ land of Canaan to buy food.

8 And Ioseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Ioseph remembred the dreames which he dreamed of them, and said vnto them, Ye are spies: to see the nakednesse of the land you are come.
10 And they said to him, Nay, my lord: but to buy food are thy servants come.
11 We are all one mans sons, we are true men: thy servants are no spies.
12 And he said unto them, Nay but to see y nakednes of the land ye are come.
13 And they said, thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan: and lo, the youngest is this day with our father, & one is not.
14 And Ioseph said to them, That is it that I spake to you, saying, ye are spies
15 Hereby ye shalbe proved: by y life of Pharaoh, ye shal not go hence, except your yongest brother com hither.
16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, & ye shalbe kept in prison y your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.
17 And he put them all together into ward, three dayes.
18 And Ioseph said to them the third day, This do, and live: for I fear God.
19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in y house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your families.
20 But bring your youngest brother unto me, so shal your words be verified, and ye shal not dy: and they did so.
21 And they said one to another, We are verily guilty cōcerning our brother in y we saw y anguish of his soul, when he besought us, & we would not hear: therefore is this distresse come upon us.
22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child, and ye would not hear? therefore behold also his blood is requited.
23 And they knew not that Ioseph understood them: for he spake to them by an interpreter.
24 And he turned himself about from them, & wept, & returned to them again, & communed with them, & took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.
25 Then Ioseph cōmanded to fil their sacks with corn, and to restore every mans money into his sack, & to give them provision for y way. & thus did he to them.
26 And they laded their asses with the corne, and departed thence.
27 And as one of them opened his sacke, to give his asse prouender in the Inne, he espied his money, for behold, it was in his sackes mouth.
28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored, & loe, it is even in my sacke, & their heart failed them, & they were afraid, saying, one to another, what is this y God hath done unto us?
29 And they came unto Iacob their father unto the land of Canaan, & told him all that befell unto them, saying,
30 The man who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.
31 And we said unto him, We are true men, we are no spies.
32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not, & the yongest is this day with our father in y land of Canaan.
33 And the man, y lord of y countries said unto us, Hereby shal I know that we are true men: leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the hunger of your houshold, & and be gone.
34 And bring your yongest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that you are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffique in the land.
35 And it came to passe as they emptied their sackes, that lo, every mans bundle of money was in his sacke: & when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.
36 And Iacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Ioseph is not, & Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.
37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee, deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.
38 And he said, my son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischiefe befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring downe my gray hayres with sorrow to the grave.

CHAP. XLIII.

AND the famine was sore in y land.
2 And it came to passe when they had eaten up the corn which they brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, go again buy us a little food.
3 And Iudah spake unto him, saying, the man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.
4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down, and buy thee food.
5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go downe, for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.
6 And Israel said, wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother.
7 And they said, The man asked straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to y tenour of these words. Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?
8 And Iudah said to Israel his father, Send the lad with me, & we will arise & go, that we may live, & not die both we and thou, and also our little ones.
9 I will be surety for him, of my hand shalt y require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever.
10 For except we had lingred, surely now we had returned this second time.

am, I it must be so now, do this:
of the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balme, & a little hony, spices, and myrrhe, nuts and almonds.
And take double money in your hand the money was brought again in sacks mouth: carry it again in perhaps it was an oversight.
Take also your brother, & arise,
go again to the man.
God Almighty give you mercy that he may send away your brother & Benjamin: If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.
And the men took this present, and took double money in their hand,
Benjamin, & rose up, & went down
Egypt, and stood before Ioseph.
And when Ioseph saw Benjamin with he said to the ruler of his house, bring men into his house, & slay, & make ready for the men shall dine with me at noon.
And the man did as Ioseph bade: & he brought the men into Ioseph's house.
And they were afraid, because that they were brought into Ioseph's house, & they said, because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time we brought in, that he may seeke occasion against us, and fall upon us, take us for bondmen, & our asses.
And they came near to the steward Ioseph's house, and they communed him at the doore of the house.

our hands to buy food: we can-tell who put our money in our sacks.
And he said, Peace be to you, feare your God, and the God of your father hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.
And the man brought the men in-Ioseph's house, and gave them wa-
, and they washed their feete, and gave their asses provender.
And they made ready the Present Ioseph came at noon: for they rd y they should eate bread there.
And when Ioseph came home, they brought him the Present which was in their hand, into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.
And he asked them of their wel-
, & said, Is your father well, y old of whom ye spake? is he yet alive?
And they answered, Thy servant
father is in good health, he is yet ve: and they bowed downe their
, and made obeisance.
And he lift up his eyes, & saw his brother Benjamin his mothers son, said, Is this your yonger brother,
whom ye spake unto me, & he said,

God be gracious unto thee, my sonne.
30 And Ioseph made haste: for his bowels did yearne upon his brother: & he sought where to weep: and he en-tred into his chamber, and wept there.
31 And he washed his face, & went out,
& refrained himself, & said, Set on bread.
32 And they set on for him by himself, for them by themselves, & for the Egyptians which eate with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eate bread with the Hebrewes: for y is an abomination to the Egyptians.
33 And they sate before him, the first borne according to his birthright, &
the yongest according to his youth:
& the men marvelled one at another.
34 And he took & sent messes to them fro before him: but Benjamins mes was five times so much as any of theirs:
& they drank, and were merry with him.

CHAP. XLIII.

AND he commanded the steward of his house, saying, fill y mens sacks with food as much as they can carry, & put every mans money in his sacks mouth.
2 And put my cup, my silver cup, in y sacks mouth of the yongest, and his corne money: and he did according to the word that Ioseph had spoken.
3 As soone as y morning was light, y men were sent away, they & their asses.
4 And when they were gone out of the city, & not yet far off, Ioseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men: and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, wherefore have ye rewarded evill for good?
5 Is not this it, in which my lord drinketh? & wherby indeed he divi-neth? ye have done evill in so doing.
6 And he overtooke them, & he spake unto them these words.
7 And they said unto him, wherefore said my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing.
8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks mouthes, we brought againe unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steale out of my lords house, silver and gold?
9 With whom soever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lords bondmen.
10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words, he with whom it is found, shall be my servant,
and ye shall be blameless.
11 Then they speedily tooke downe every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sacke.
12 And he searched and began at the eldest, and left at the yongest: and the cuppe was found in Benjamins sacke.
13 Then they rent their clothes, & laded every mans asse, & returned to y city.
14 And Iudan and his brethren came to Ioseph's house: (for he was yet there) & they fell before him on the ground.
15 And Ioseph said to them, what deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not

y Lord, a man as I and certain ly diuine?
16 And Iudah said, what shall we say to my lord? what shall we speake? or how shall we cleare our selues? God hath found out y iniquity of thy seruants.
behold, we are my lords seruants both we, & he also w whom y cup is found.
17 And he said, God forbid y I should do so: but y man in whose hand y cup is found, he shall be my seruant, & as for you get you up in peace to your father 18 Then Iudah came neere to him & said, O my lord let thy seruant, I pray thee, speake a word in my lords eares, & let not thine anger burn against thy seruant: for thou art euen as Pharaoh.
19 My lord asked his seruants saying,
haue ye a father, or a brother?
20 And we said vnto my lord, We haue a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one, and his brother is dead, and hee alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.
21 And thou saidst vnto thy seruants bring him down vnto me, that I may set mine eye vpon him.
22 And we said vnto my lord, the lad cannot leaue his father: for if he should leaue his father, his father would die.
23 And thy saidst vnto thy seruants, except your youngest brother come down with you you shall see my face no more.
24 And it came to passe when we came vp vnto thy seruant my father, we told him the words of my lord.
25 And our father said, Go againe, and buy vs a little food.
26 And we said, we cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with vs, then will we go down: for we may not see y mans face except our youngest brother be with vs 27 And thy seruant my father said to vs, ye know y my wife bare me two sons.
28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces: and I saw him not since.
29 And if ye take this also from me, & mischiefe befall him, ye shall bring down my graye haires with sorrow to y grave.
30 Now therefore when I come to thy seruant my father, & y lad be not with vs, seeing y his life is bound vp in y lads life:
31 It shall come to passe, when he seeth that the lad is not with vs, that he will die, and thy seruants shall bring down the gray haires of thy seruant our father with sorrow to the grave.
32 For thy seruant became surety for y lad to my father, saying, If I bring him not vnto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.
33 Now therefore I pray thee, let thy seruant abide in stead of the lad, a bondman to my lord, and let the lad goe vp with his brethren.
34 For how shall I go up to my father,
& y lad be not with me? left peraduenture,
I see y evill y shall come on my father.

CHAP. XLV.

THen Ioseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him: and he cryed, Cause every man to go out from me: and there stood no man with him, while Ioseph made himselfe known vnto his brethren.
2 And he wept aloud: & the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.
3 And Ioseph said to his brethren,
I am Ioseph, Doeth my father yet liue?
& his brethren could not answer him:
for they were troubled at his presence.
4 And Ioseph said vnto his brethren, Come neere to me: I pray you: & they came neere: & he said, I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.
5 Now therefore be not grieved nor angry with your selues, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life.
6 For these two yeers hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five yeeres, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.
7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in y earth, & to saue your liues by a great deliver-8 So now it was not you y sent me hither, but God: & he hath made me as a father vnto Pharaoh, & lord of all his house, & a ruler thro out all y land of 9 Haste you, & goe vp to my father, & say vnto him, Thus saith thy sonne Ioseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt:
come down vnto me, tary not.
10 And y shalt dwell in y land of Goshen, & y shalt be neere to me, y & all thy children, & thy children children, & thy flocks, & thy herds, & all y thou hast:
11 And there will I nourish thee: for yet there are five yeers of famine: lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.
12 And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh vnto you.
13 And you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen: and ye shall haste, and bring down my father hither.
14 And he fell vpon his brother Benjamins neck, and wept: and Benjamin wept vpon his neck.
15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.
16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaohs house, saying, Ioseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh & his seruants well.
17 And Pharaoh said to Ioseph, Say vnto y brethre, this do ye, lade your beasts, & goe get you vnto the land of Canaan.
18 And take your father, & your household, and come vnto me: & I will give you the good of the land of Egypt:
& ye shall eat the fat of the land.
19 Now y art commanded, this do ye:
take you waggons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, & for your wiues: & bring your father and come.
20 Also regard not your stuff: for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.
21 And the children of Israel did so:
and Ioseph gave them waggons, ac-

ning to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment: but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner: ten asses laden with good things of Egypt, & ten like asses laden with corn, & bread, & meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 And they went up out of Egypt, & came into the land of Canaan, unto Iacob their father.

26 And told him saying: Ioseph is yet alive, and he is governour over all the land of Egypt. And Iacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Ioseph, which he had said to them: & when he saw the wagons which Ioseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Iacob their father revived.

28 And Israel said: It is enough. Ioseph my sonne is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

CHAP. XLVI.

AND Israel took his journey with all that he had, & came to Beer Sheba, & offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night, and said: Iacob Iacob. And he said: I here am I.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt. For I will there make of thee a great nation.

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt, & I will surely bring thee up again: & Ioseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And Iacob rose up from Beer Sheba: & the sons of Israel carried Iacob their father, & their little ones, & their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattell & their goods which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Iacob and all his seed with him:

7 His sons, & his sons sons, & his daughters, & his sons daughters, & all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 And these are the names of the children of Israel which came into Egypt, Iacob & his sons: Reuben, Iacobs first born.

9 And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, & Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 And y sons of Simeon: Iemuel, and Iamin, & Ohad, & Iachin, & Zohar, & Shaul y sonne of a Canaanitish woman.

11 And the sons of Levi, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Iudah: Er, & Onan, & Shelah, & Pharez, & Zerah, but Er, & Onan died in y land of Canaan. And y sons of Pharez were Hezron, & Hamul.

13 And the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Phuvah, and Iob, and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Iahleel.

15 These be y sons of Leah which she bare unto Iacob in Padan-Aram with his daughter Dinah: all y souls of his sons & his daughters were thirty & three.

16 And the sons of Gad: Ziphion, & Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher: Imnah, and Ishuah, and Ishui, and Beriah: and Serah their sister: and the sonnes of Beriah, Heber, and Malkiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpa's, whō Laba gave to Leah his daughter: & these he bare to Iacob, even sixteene soules.

19 The sonnes of Rachel Iacobs wife, Ioseph and Benjamin.

20 And unto Ioseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh & Ephraim which Aseneth the daughter of Potipherah Priest of On bare unto him.

21 And y sons of Benjamin were: Bela, & Becher, & Ashbi, Gera, & Naaman, Ehi, & Rosh, Muppim, & Huppim, & Ard.

22 These are y sons of Rachel, who were born to Iacob: all y souls were fourteen.

23 And the sons of Dan: Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali: Iahzeel, and Guni, and Iezer, and Shillem.

25 These are y sons of Bilhah whō Laba gave to Rachel his daughter, & she bare these to Iacob: all the souls were seven.

26 All the soules that came with Iacob into Egypt which came out of his loins, besides Iacobs sons wives, all the soules were 66 reckoned and six.

27 And the sons of Ioseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two soules: all the souls of the house of Iacob which came into Egypt were 70 reckoned and ten.

28 And he sent Iudah before him unto Ioseph, to direct his face unto Goshen, & they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Ioseph made ready his chariot, and went up to mete to Israel his father to Goshen, and presented himself unto him and fell on his necke and wept on his necke a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Ioseph: Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Ioseph said to his brethren, & to his fathers houses: I will prevaile and shew Pharaoh, & say to him: my brethren & my fathers house, which were in y land of Canaan are come unto me.

32 And the men are shepherds: for their trade hath been to feed cattell. & they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pas: when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say: thy servants trade hath been about cattell from our youth even until now both we & also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAP. XLVII.

THE Ioseph came & told Pharaoh, & said: my father & my brethren and their cattell, & their goods, & all that they have are come out of y land of Canaan: & behold they are in y land of Goshen.

2 And he took hence of his brethren,

five men: & presented the to Pharaoh.
3 And Pharaoh said to his brethren What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds both we & also our fathers.
4 We have said moreover unto Pharaoh
For to sojourn in y land are we come:
for thy very sits have no pasture for their flocks, for y famine is sore in y land of Canaan: now therefore we pray the, let thy servants dwell in y land of Goshen.
5 And Pharaoh spake unto Ioseph saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto the.
6 The land of egypt is before the: in the best of the land make thy father & brethren to dwell: in y land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any man of activity amongst them, then make them rulers over my cattle.
7 And Ioseph brought in Iacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh:
and Iacob blessed Pharaoh.
8 And Pharaoh said unto Iacob, How old art thou?
9 And Iacob said unto Pharaoh, The dayes of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years few & evil have the dayes of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the dayes of the years of the life of my fathers in the dayes of their pilgrimage.
10 And Iacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.
11 And Ioseph placed his father & his brethren, & gave them a possession in y land of Egypt: in y best of y land, in y land of Ramesses, as Pharaoh had commanded.
12 And Ioseph nourished his father & his brethren, & all his fathers household with bread, according to their families.
13 And there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was very sore: so that the land of Egypt & all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of y famine.
14 And Ioseph gathered up all the money, that was found in the Land of Iegypt, and in y land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Ioseph brought y money into Pharaohs house.
15 And when money failed in y land of Egypt & in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Ioseph & said Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money is failed.
16 And Ioseph said, Give your cattle, & I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.
17 And they brought their cattle unto Ioseph: and Ioseph gave them bread in exchange for horses & for the flocks and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses, and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.
18 When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how it is that our money is spent: my lord also had our herds of cattle, there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands.
19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes both we and our land? buy us & our land for bread, & we and

And as for me when I came fro Padā Rachel died by me in y land of Canaā, in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come to Ephrath, & I buried her there by y way of Ephrath, y same is Bethlehē.
8 And Israel beheld Iosephs sonnes, and said, Who are these?
9 And Ioseph said to his father, they are my sonnes, whō God hath given me in this place. & he said bring them, I pray thee, to me, & I will bless them.
10 (Now the eyes of Israel were dimme for age, so y he could not see) and he brought them neere vnto him, and he kissed them & embraced them.
11 And Israel said vnto Ioseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and lo,
God hath shewed me also thy seed.
12 And Ioseph brought them out frō betweē his knees, and he bowed him selfe with his face to the earth.
13 And Ioseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand, toward Israels left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand towards Israels right hand, and brought them neere vnto him.
14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, & laid it on Ephraims head, who was the yonger: & his left hand vpon Manasseh head, guiding his hands wittingly for Manasseh was y first-born.
15 And hee blessed Ioseph, and said, God before whom my fathers rs. Abra fed me all my life long vnto this day, evil, blesse the lads: & let my name be up his fathers hand, to remoove it frō Ephraims head, vnto Manasseths head

Not so my father: for this is the first born, put thy right hand upō his head.
19 And his father refused, and said, I know it my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his yōger brother shal be greater then hee: and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.
20 And he blessed them y day, saying,
In thee shall Israel blesse, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and Manasseh:
and hee set Ephraim before Manasseh
21 And Israel said to Ioseph, behold,
I die: but God shalbe w you, & bring you again to y land of your fathers.

CHAP. XLIX

ANd Iacob called unto his sonne, and said, gather your selves together, that I may tel you that which shal befall you in the last dayes.
2 Gather your selves together, and heare ye sons of Iacob, and hearken unto Israel your father.
3 Reuben thou art my first borne, my might, and the beginning of my strength: the excellencie of dignity, &
the excell nce of power.
4 Vnstable as water, thou shalt not excell, because thou went vp vnto thy fathers bed: then defiledst thou it.
He went up to my couch.
5 Simeō & Leui are brethrē: instrumēts of cruelty are in their habitations.
6 O my soule, come not thou into their secret; vnto their assembly mine honor be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self will they digged down a wall.
7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce: & their wrath, for it was cruell.
I will deuide them in Iacob, & scatter them in Israel.
8 Iudah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shalbe in the necke of thine enemies: thy fathers children shal bow downe before thee.
9 Iudah is a Lyons whelpe: from the prey my sonne art gone vp: he stouped down, he couched as a Lyon: and as an old Lyon: who shall rouse him vp?
10 The scepter shal not depart frō Iudah, nor a Law-giver from betweene his feet vntill Shiloh come, and vnto him shall the gathering of y people be.
11 Binding his foale vnto the vine, & his asses colt vnto the choice vine: he washed his garments in wine, and his cloths in the blood of grapes.
12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milke.
13 Zebulun shall dwell at y haven of the Sea, & he shalbe for an haven of ships: & his bo der shalbe to Zidon.
14 Issachar is a strong asse, couching down betweene two burdens.
15 And he saw y rest was good, & y land
y it was pleasat: & bowed his shoulder to bear, & became a feryant to tribute.
16 Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.
17 Dan shalbe a serpent by y way, an adder in y pathe that byteth the horse heeles, so y his rider shall fall backward.
18 I have waited for thy salvation,
O LORD.
19 Gad, a troupe shall overcome him:
but he shall overcome at the last.
20 Out of Asher, his bread shall be fat, and he shall yeeld royall dainties.
21 Naphtali is an hinde let loose: he giveth goodly words.
22 Ioseph is a fruitfull bough, even a fruitfull bough by a well, whose branches run ouer the wall.
23 The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him and hated him:
24 But his bow abode in strength, & y armes of his hands were made strōg, by y hands of y mighty God of Iacob: (fr thence is y shepheard, y stone of Israel)

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee: & by y Almighty, who shall blesse thee & blessings of heaven above, blessings of y deep y lieth under, blessings of the breasts and of the womb.
26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above y blessings of my progenitors: to the utmost bound of y everlasting hils, they shalbe on y head of Joseph and on the crown of the head of him y was sepe rate from his brethren.
27 Benjamin is a rauen, as a wolf: in the morning he shall eate up the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.
28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, which are their father spake unto them, and blesse them, every one according to his blessing he blessed them.
29 And he charged them and said unto them I am to be gathered to my people, bury me with my fathers, in the caue that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 In the caue that is in the field of the Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron y Hittite, for a possession of a buryng place.
31 (There they buryed Abraham & Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac & Rebekah his wife, there I buried Leah) 32 The purchase of the field, and of the caue that is therein, was from the children of Heth.
33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his fet into the bed, and yeelded up y ghost, & was gathered to his people.

CHAP. L.

AND Joseph fell upon his fathers face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.
2 And Joseph commanded his seruants the physicians to imbalme his father: and the physicians imbalmed Israel.
3 And fourty dayes were fulfilled for him, (for so are fulfilled the dayes of those which are imbalmed) and the Egyptians mourned for him three score and ten dayes.
4 And when the dayes of his mourning were past, Joseph spake vnto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, saying,
5 My father made me sweare saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I haue digged for me, in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.
6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee sweare.
7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the seruants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.
9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great company.
10 And they came to y threshing floore of Atad, which is beyond Iordan, & there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seuen dayes.
11 And when y inhabitants of y land of Canaan saw the mourning in the floore of Atad, they said, This is a grieuous mourning to y Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abelmizraim, which is beyond Iordan.
12 And his sons did vnto him according as he commanded them.
13 For his sons caried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the caue of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field of a possession of a buryng place of Ephron the Hittite before Mamre.
14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.
15 And when Iosephs brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Ioseph will peradventure hate us, & will certainly requite us all the euil which we did vnto him.
16 And they sent a messenger vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,
17 So shall ye say to Ioseph, Forgiue I pray thee now, the trespas of thy brethren and their sinne: for they did thee euil: And now we pray thee forgiue the trespas of the seruants of the God of thy father. And Ioseph wept when they spake vnto him.
18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face, and they said, Behold, we be thy seruants.
19 And Ioseph said vnto them, Feare not: for am I in the place of God?
20 But as for you, ye thought euil against me, but God meant it to good, to bring to passe, as it is this day, to saue much people alive.
21 Now therefore feare ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly vnto them.
22 And Ioseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his fathers house: and Ioseph lived an hundred and ten yeers.
23 And Ioseph saw Ephraims children of y third generation: y children also of Machir, the son of Manasse were brought up upon Iosephs knees.
24 And Ioseph said to his brethren, I die: and God will surely visite you, and bring you out of this land, vnto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
25 And Ioseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry my bones from hence.
26 So Ioseph died being an hundred and ten yeers old: and they imbalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egyp-

CHAP. I.

NOw these are y names of the childrē of Israel, which came into Egypt: every man & his housholde came with Iacob.
2 Reuben, Simeon, Leui and Iudah,
3 Issachar, Zebulun and Beniamin,
4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.
5 And all the soules that came out of the loins of Iacob were seventy soules: for Ioseph was in Egypt already.
6 And Ioseph died and all his brethren, and all that generation.
7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly & multiplied, & waxed exceeding mighty: and the land was filled with them.
8 Now there arose vp a new king ouer Egypt, which knew not Ioseph.
9 And he said vnto his people: Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier then we.
10 Come on, let us deal wisely w them lest they multeply, & it come to passe y whē there falls out any warre, they ioyn also vnto our enemies, & fight against vs, and so get them out of the land.
11 Therefore they did set ouer them taske-masters, to afflict them with their burdens: And they built for Pharaoh treasure-cities, Pithō & Raamses
12 But y more they afflicted thē, y more they multiplied and grew: & they were grieued because of y children of Israel.
13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serue with rigour.
14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of seruice in the field: all their seruice wherin they made them serue, was with rigour.
15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwiues (of which the name of one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah)
16 And he said: When ye do the office of a mid-wife to the Hebrew women, & see them vpon the stools, if it be a sonne, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall liue.
17 But y midwiues feared God, & did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saued y men-children alyue.
18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwiues and said to them, Why haue ye done this thing, and haue saued the men-children alyue?
19 And the midwiues said vnto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women, for they are lively, and are deliuered ere the midwiues come in vnto them.
20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwiues: & the people multiplied and waxed very mighty.
21 And it came to pass, because y midwiues feared God, y he made thē houses.
22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying: Euery sonne that is borne, ye shall cast into the riuer, and euery daughter ye shall saue alyue.

CHAP. II.

AND ther went a man of y house of Leui, & took to wife a daughter of Leui.
2 And the woman conceiued & bare a sonne: & whe she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three moths.
3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him a ark of bulrushes, & daubed it w slime and w pitch, and put the child therein, & layd it in the flags by the riuers brimme.
4 And his sister stood afar off, to wit, what would be done to him.
5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash her selfe at y riuer, & her maidens walked along by the riuer side: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.
6 And when she had opened it, she saw y child: and behold y babe wept. And she had compassion on him, & said, This is one of the Hebrews children.
7 Then said his sister to Pharaohs daughter: Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?
8 And Pharaohs daughter said vnto her: Go: and the maid went and called the childs mother.
9 And Pharaohs daughter said vnto her, Take this child away & nurse it for me, & I will giue thee thy wages. And y woman took the child and nursed it.
10 And y child grew, & she brought him to Pharaohs daughter, and he became her sonne, & called his name Moses: & said, because I drew him out of y water.
11 And it came to pas in those dayes, when Moses was grown, y he went out vnto his brethren, and looked on their burdēs. & he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew of his brethren.
12 And he looked this way & y way, & when he saw y there was no man, he slew y Egptian, & hid him in y sand.
13 And whe he went out y second day, behold, two men of y Hebrews strouue together: & he said to him y did y wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?
14 And he said, Who made thee a prince & a iudge ouer vs? intendest y to kill me as y killedst Egypte? And Moses feared and said: surely this is known.
15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sate down by a well.
16 Now the Priest of Midian had seuen daughters. And they came, drew water, and filled the troughs to water their fathers flock.
17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood vp and helped them, and watered their flock.
18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that you are come so soon to day?
19 And they said, An Egyptian deliuered vs out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said to his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left y man? call him, that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwel with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have bin a stranger in a strange land.

23 And it came to pass in procesle of time, y king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed by reason of y bodage, & they cried, & their cry came up to God, by reason of the bodage.

24 And God heard their groaning, & God remembred his covenant w Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon y children of Israel, & God had respect to them.

CHAP. III.

NOw Moses kept y flock of Iethro his father in Law, y priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desart, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

2 And the Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: & he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, & the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when y Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of y midst of y bush, & said, Moses, Moses: And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes fro off thy feet: for y place where on y standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, y the God of Abraham, Isaac, & Iacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.

7 And y Lord said, I have seen y affliction of my people w are in Egypt & y have heard their cry by reason of their task-masters: for I know their sorrows.

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of y Egyptians, & to bring them up out of that land, unto a good land, & a large, to a land flowing with milk and hony, to the place of the Canaanites, & y Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Iebusites.

9 Now therefore behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come to me: and I have also seen the oppression where with the Egyptians oppresse them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, Certainly I will be w thee, & this shall be a token to thee, that I have sent thee: when y hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said to God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shal say to them, The God of your fathers hath sent me to you: and they shal say to me, What is his Name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said to Moses, I AM THAT I AM: And he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover to Moses, Thus shalt thou say to y children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, y God of Abraham, y God of Isaac, & y God of Iacob hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, & this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go, and gather the Elders of Israel together, & say to them, The LORD God of your fathers, y God of Abraham, y God of Isaac, & of Iacob appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, & seen that w is done to you in Egypt:

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, unto the land of the Canaanites, and y Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Iebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and hony.

18 And they shal hearken to thy voice, & thou shalt come, thou and the Elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, & you shal say to him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: & now, we pray, (we beseech thee) let us go, (we beseech thee) three days journey into y wilderness, y we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no not by mighty hand.

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favour in y sight of y Egyptians: & it shall come to pass, that when ye go, ye shal not go empty.

22 But every woman shal borrow of her neighbour, & of her y soiourneth in her house, jewels of silver, & jewels of gold, & raiment: & ye shal put them upon your sons, & upon your daughters, and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

CHAP. IIII.

AND Moses answered & said, But behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared to thee.

2 And the Lord said unto him, What is y in thine hand? And he said, a rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground: and he cast it on y ground, & it became a serpent: And Moses fled fro before it.

4 And the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, & take it by y tail: And he put forth his hand & caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may believe that y Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God son of the oath appeared to thee.

6 And the Lord said furthermore to him, Put now thine hand into thy bosome. And he put his hand into his bosome: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.
7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosome again. And he put his hand into his bosome again, and plucked it out of his bosome, and behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.
8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first signe, y^t they will believe the voice of the latter signe.
9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also for these two signes, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and powre it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river, shall become blood upon the dry land.
10 And Moses said to the Lord, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither since yesterday, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, & slow of tongue.
11 And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made mans mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?
12 Now therefore go, & I will be with thy mouth, & teach thee what y^u shalt say.
13 And he said, O my Lord, I pray thee, by ye hand of him whom y^u will send.
14 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Moses, & he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know y^t he can speak well. And also behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: & when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.
15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.
16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: & he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of a God.
17 And y^u shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signes.
18 And Moses went and returned to Jether his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return to my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jether said to Moses, Go in peace.
19 And the LORD said to Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.
20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned into the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.
21 And the Lord said to Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see y^t thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thy hand: but I will harden his heart, y^t he shall not let the people go.
22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born.
23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy first-born.
24 And it came to passe by the way in the inne, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him.
25 Then Zippora took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.
26 So he let him go: then she said, a bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.
27 And the Lord said to Aaron, Go into the wildernesse to meet Moses. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.
28 And Moses told Aaron all ye words of the Lord, who had sent him, & all ye signes which he had commanded him.
29 And Moses & Aaron gathered together all ye Elders of ye children of Israel:
30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the signes in the sight of ye people.
31 And the people believed: And when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and y^t he had looked upon their affliction: then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAP. V.

AND afterward Moses & Aaron went in, & told Pharaoh, Thus saith ye Lord God of Israel: let my people go, y^t they may hold a feast to me in ye wildernes.
2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord that I should obey his voice, to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.
3 And they said, ye God of ye Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three dayes journey in ye desart, & sacrifice unto the Lord our God, lest he fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword.
4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? go ye unto your burdens.
5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, & you make them rest from their burdens.
6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,
7 Ye shall no more give ye people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.
8 And the tale of the bricks which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay on them: you shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle, therefore they cry, saying, Let us go & sacrifice to God.
9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein, & regard not vain words.
10 And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, & they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.
11 Go ye, get you straw where you can find it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.
12 So ye people were scattered abroad thorowthorowout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble in stead of straw.

13 And the task-masters hasted them, saying, Fulfill your works, your daily tasks as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel which Pharaohs task-masters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherfore have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came & cried to Pharaoh, saying, Wherfor deale you thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, & they say to us, Make brick: and behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go, and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now and work: for there shall no straw be given you: yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And y officers of y children of Israel did see that they were in ill case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And they said to them, The Lord look on you, & judge because you have made our savor to be abhorred in y eyes of Pharaoh, & in y eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned to the Lord, and said, LORD, wherefore hast thou so evil intreated this people? Why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy Name, he hath done evil to this people, neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAP. VI.

THen the Lord said to Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go: and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD.

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the Name of God Almighty, but by my name, IEHOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And I have also established my Covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage: and I have remembred my covenant:

6 Wherefore say to the children of Israel, I am y Lord, & I will bring you out from under y burden of y Egyptians, & I will rid you out of their bondage: & I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgements.

7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into y land concerning the which I did swear to give to Abraham, to Isaac, & to Jacob, & I will give it you for an heritage, I am y Lord.

9 And Moses spake so to y children of Israel: but they hearkened not to Moses for anguish of spirit, & cruel bondage.

10 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

11 Go to, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before y Lord, saying, Lo, the children of Israel have not hearkened to me, how then shall Pharaoh hear me who am of uncircumcised lips?

13 And the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 These be the heads of their fathers houses: the sons of Reuben y first born of Israel, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these be the families of Reuben.

15 And y Sons of Simeon, Jemuel, and Jamin, & Ohad, & Jachin, & Zoar, & Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 And these are y names of the sons of Levi, according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty & seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon, Libni, & Shimi, according to their families.

18 And the sons of Kohath, Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, & Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath, one hundred thirty and three years.

19 And the sons of Merari, Mahali and Mushi: these are the families of Levi, according to their generations.

20 And Amram took him the choched his fathers sister to wife, and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram, were an hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 And the sons of Izhar, Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Vzziel, Mishael, and Elizaphan, and Zithri.

23 And Aaron took him Elisheba daughter of Amminadab sister of Nahshon to wife, and she bare him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korah, Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar Aarons son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife, and she bare him Phinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses to whom the Lord said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.

27 These are they which spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children

Children of Israel from Egypt: These that Moses and Aaron.
3 And it came to passe on the day when the Lord spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt,
4 That y Lord spake to Moses, saying, I am y Lord: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, all y I say to thee.
5 And Moses said before the Lord, behold, I am of uncircumcised lips and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

CHAP. VII.

AND the Lord said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh, &
Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet.
2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.
3 And I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiply my signes and my wonders in the land of Egypt.
4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken to you, that I may lay my hand on Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great judgements.
5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out y children of Israel from among them.
6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.
7 And Moses was four score years old, and Aaron fourescore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.
8 And the LORD spake unto Moses,
and unto Aaron, saying, 9 When Pharaoh shall speak to you, saying, Shew a miracle for you, then y shalt say to Aaron, take thy rod, & cast it before Pharaoh, & it shall be a serpent.
10 And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so as y Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.
11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men, and the sorcerers, now the Magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments:
12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aarons rod swallowed up their rods.
13 And he hardened Pharaohs heare that he hearkened not unto them, as the LORD had said.
14 And the LORD said unto Moses,
Pharaohs heart is hardened: he refuseth to let the people go.
15 Get thee to Pharaoh in y morning, lo, he goeth out to the water, and thou shalt stand by the rivers brink against he come: & the rod which was turned to a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand.
16 And thou shalt say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath sent me to thee saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: & behold, hitherto y wouldst not hear.
17 Thus saith the Lord, in this thou shalt know that I am the Lord. Behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand, on the waters which are in y river, & they shall be turned into blood.
18 And the fish y is in y river, shall dy, & y river shall stink, & y Egyptians shall lothe to drink of y water of the river.
19 And the LORD spake unto Moses,
Say to Aaron, take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, on their streames, on their rivers, and on their ponds, and upon all their pooles of water, that they may become blood. & that there may be blood thorowout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.
20 And Moses and Aaron did so as the Lord commanded: and he lift up y rod and smote y waters that were in y river, in y sight of Pharaoh, & in y sight of his servants: and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.
21 And the fish that was in the river died: and the river stunk, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood thorowout all the land of Egypt.
22 And the Magicians of Egypt did so with their inchantments: and Pharaohs heart was hardned: neither did he harken to them, as the LORD had said.
23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.
24 And all y Egyptians digged round about y river for water to drink, for they could not drink of y water of y river.
25 And seven dayes were fulfilled after that the Lord had smitten the river.

CHAP. VIII.

AND the Lord spake to Moses; Go to Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, let my people go, that they may serve me.
2 And if thou refuse to let them go, lo,
I will smite all thy borders with frogs:
3 And y river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, w shall go up & come into thine house, & into thy bedchamber, & upon thy bed, & into y house of thy servants, and upon thy people, & to thine Ovens, & into thy kneading troughs.
4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.
5 And the LORD spake unto Moses,
Say to Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, & over the ponds, & cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.
6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
7 And the Magicians did so with their inchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.
8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, & said, Intreat y Lord, that he may take away the frogs fro me, & fro my people: and I will let the people go,
y they may do sacrifice to the LORD.
9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, &

for

for thy servats, & for thy people, to destroy ỹ frogs from thee, & thy houses,
ỹ they may remaine in ỹ river onely:
10 And he said, to morrow. And he said be it according to thy word, that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the LORD our God.
11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, & from thy people, they shall remaine in the river onely.
12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cryed unto the Lord, because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.
13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses: & the frogs dyed out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.
14 And they gathered them together upon heapes, and the land stank.
15 But when Pharaoh saw ỹ there was respite, he hardned his heart, & hearkened not unto them, as ỹ Lord had said.
16 And the Lord said unto Moses, say to Aaron stretch out thy rod, & smite the dust of ỹ land, that it may become lice through out all the land of Egypt.
17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, & smote ỹ dust of yearth, & it became lice in ma & in beast: all the dust of the land became lice, throwout all ỹ land of Egypt.
18 And the Magicians did so with their inchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.
19 Then ỹ Magicians said unto Pharaoh this is ỹ finger of God. And Pharaohs heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.
20 And the Lord said to Moses, rise up early in ỹ morning, & stand before Pharaoh, lo, he cometh forth to ỹ water: & say to him, thus saith the Lord, let my people go, ỹ they may serve me.
21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, Lo, I will send swarms of flies upo thee, & upon thy servants, & upon thy people, & into thy houses: & ỹ houses of ỹ Egyptis shalbe full of swarms of flies, & also ỹ ground whereon they are.
22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarmes of flies shalbe there, to the end thou mayest know ỹ
I am the Lord in the midst of ỹ earth.
23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to morrow shall this signe be.
24 And the LORD did so: and there came a grievous swarme of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants houses, and in all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupt by reason of the swarms of flies.
25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.
26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to doe: for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians, to ỹ Lord our God: Loe, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?
27 We will goe three dayes journey into the wilderneſſe, and sacrifice to the Lord our God, as he shal command us.
28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, ỹ ye may sacrifice to ỹ Lord your God in ỹ wildernesse: onely you shall not go very far away: entreat for me.
29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, & I will entreat the Lord, that the swarmes of flies may depart from Pharaoh, frō his servants, & from his people to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deale deceitfully any more, in not letting ỹ people go to sacrifice to the Lord.
30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD.
31 And ỹ Lord did according to ỹ saying of Moses: & he removed ỹ swarmes of flies from Pharaoh, & his servants, & frō his people: there remained not one.
32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, in neither would he let the people goe.

CHAP. IX.

THen the Lord said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, & tell him, thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrewes, let my people goe, that they may serve me.
2 For if thou refuse to let them go,
and wilt hold them still;
3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattell which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon thy oxen, & upon ỹ sheep:
there shalbe a very grievous murrain.
4 And the Lord shal sever between the cattell of Israel, & the cattell of Egypt, and there shall nothing die of all that is the childrens of Israel.
5 And the Lord appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall doe this in the land.
6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow; and all the cattell of Egypt dyed, but of the cattell of the children of Israel dyed not one.
7 And Pharaoh sent & beheld, & lo, there was not one of ỹ cattle of ỹ Israelites dead, and ỹ heart of Pharaoh was hardened, & he did not let the people go.
8 And the Lord said to Moses, & to Aaron, take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, & let Moses sprinkle it toward ỹ heaven in ỹ sight of Pharaoh.
9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, & shall be a boile breeking forth & blaines upon man & upon beast, throughout all ỹ land of Egypt.
10 And they tooke ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven, and it became a boile breaking forth with blaines upon man & upon beast.
11 And the Magicians could not stand before Moses, because of the boiles:
for the boile was upon the Magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.
12 And the Lord hardened ỹ heart of Pharaoh, & he hearkened not to them, as the

that ye will not yet feare y Lord God.
31 And the flax, and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the eare, and the flaxe was bolled:
32 But the wheat & the rie were not smiten: for they were not grown up.
33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hayle ceased, and the raine was not powred upon the earth.
34 And when Pharaoh saw that the raine and the hayle, and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.
35 And y heart of Pharaoh was hardened; neither would he let y children of Israel go, as y Lord had spoken by Moses.

CHAP. X.

AND the Lord spake to Moses, go in to Pharaoh: for I have hardned his heart, & y heart of his servants, that I might worke these my signes before him:
2 And y thou mayst tell in y eares of thy sonne, & of thy sons sonne, what things I have wrought in Egypt, & my signes which I have done amongst them: that ye may know how that I am the Lord.
3 And Moses & Aaron came in to Pharaoh, & said to him, thus saith y Lord God of the Hebrewes, how long wilt y refuse to humble thy selfe before me? let my people go y they may serve me.
4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast.
5 And they shal cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see y earth: and they shall eat the residue of y remnant which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hayle, & shal eat every tree of your field which groweth for you out of the field.
6 And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers have seene, since the day y they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, & went out from Pharoh.
7 And Pharaohs servants said to him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? Let the men go, y they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet, that Egypt is destroyed?
8 And Moses & Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but who are they that shal go?
9 And Moses said, We will go with our yong, and with our old, with our sons, and with our daughters, with our flocks, and with our herds will we go, for we must hold a feast unto the LORD.
10 And he said to them, Let y Lord be so with you, as I will let you go, & your little ones. Look to it, for evil is before you.
11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD, for that you did desire: and they were driven out from Pharaohs presence.
12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand over y land of Egypt

Egypt for y locusts, y they may come up upō y land of Egypt, & eat every herb of the land, eve al y the hail hath left.
13 And Moses stretched forth his rod and over y land of Egypt, & y Lord brought an East-wind upon the land all y day, and all y night: and when it was morning, the East-wind brought y locusts.
14 And the locusts went out over all the land of Egypt, & rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they: before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.
15 For they covered y face of y whole earth so y y land was darkened, & they did eate every herb of the land, & all the fruit of the trees, which y hail had left:
& there remained not any greene thing in the trees, or in the herbes of the y field, through all the land of Egypt.
16 Then Pharaoh called for Moses & Aarō in haste: & he said, I have sinned against y Lord your God, & against you.
17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sinne only this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.
18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.
19 And y Lord turned a mighty strōg West-wind, & took away the locusts, & cast them into y red sea: there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.
20 But the LORD hardened Pharaohs heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel goe.
21 And y Lord said to Moses, Stretch out thy hand toward heaven: y there may be darkenes over the land of Egypt, even darkenes which may be felt.
22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven: & there was a thick darknes in all y land of Egypt three dayes.
23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three dayes:
but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.
24 And Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, go ye serve y Lord: only let your flockes and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you.
25 And Moses said: thou must give us also sacrifices & burnt offerings, y we may sacrifice unto the Lord our God.
26 Our cattell also shall goe with us:
there shall not an hoofe be left behind:
for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God: and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.
27 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he would not let them goe.
28 And Pharaoh said unto him: Get thee from me, take heed to thy self, see my face no more: for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.
29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face againe no more.

CHAP. XI.

AND y Lord said to Moses, yet will I bring one plague more upō Pharaoh & upō Egypt, after wards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he surely thrust you out hence altogether.
2 Speake now in y eares of the people, & let every man borrow of his neighbour, & every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.
3 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of y Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaohs servants, and in the sight of the people.
4 And Moses said, thus saith the Lord, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt.
5 And all y first born in y land of Egypt shall die, from y first born of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the first born of the maid-servant that is behind the mill, and all the first born of y beasts.
6 And there shall be a great cry through out all y land of Egypt, such as there was not like it, nor shall be like it any more.
7 But against any of y children of Israel shall not a dog moove his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difrence between the Egyptians & Israel.
8 And all these thy servants shall come downe unto me, and bow downe unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee: and after that I will go out. & he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.
9 And y Lord said to Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken to you: y my wōders may be multiplied in y land of Egypt.
10 And Moses & Aarō did all these wonders before Pharaoh: & y Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, so y he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

CHAP. XII.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses &
Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, 2 This moneth shall be unto you the beginning of moneths: it shall be the first moneth of the yeere to you.
3 Speake ye unto all y Congregation of Israel, saying, In y tenth day of this moneth they shall take to them every man a lambe according to the house of their fathers a lambe for an house.
4 And if the household be too little for the lambe, let him and his neighbour next unto his house, take it according to the number of the soules: every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lambe.
5 Your lambe shall be without blemish, a male of the first yeere: ye shall take it out from the sheepe or from the goates.
6 And you shall keepe it until the fourteenth day of the same moneth: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.
7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts, and on the upper doore posts of the houses, wherein they shall eate it.
8 And they shall eate the flesh in that night roste with fire, & unleavened bread:
and with bitter herbs shall they eate it.
Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all ther shut not with fire: his head with his legs, and w the purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning: and that which remaineth of it until the morning, ye shall burn with fire.
11 And thus shall ye eat it, w your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand: and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD'S passeover.
12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, & will smite all y firstborn in my land of Egypt, both man and beast, and against all y gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am y LORD.
13 And the blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, & the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I smite y land of Egypt.
14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to the LORD, throughout your generations: you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.
15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread, even in the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: For whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.
16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, & in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you: no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.
17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread: for in this self-same day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations, by an ordinance for ever.
18 In the first month, on y fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.
19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth y which is leavened, even y soul shall be cut off from y Congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in y land.
20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened: in all your habitations shall ye eate unleavened bread.
21 Then Moses called for all the Elders of Israel, and said to them, Draw out, & take you a lamb, according to your families, and kill the passeover.
22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssope, & dip it in y blood that is in y bason, and strike the lintel & y two side posts, with the blood that is in the bason: and none of you shall go out at y door of his house until the morning.
23 For the Lord will passe through to smite y Egyptians: & when he seeth the blood upon y lintel, & on the two side posts, the Lord will passe over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.
24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee, & to thy sons for ever.
25 And it shall come to passe, when ye be come to the land, which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.
26 And it shall come to passe, when your children shall say unto you, What mean you by this service?
27 That ye shall say, it is the sacrifice of the Lords passeover, who passed over the house of y children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head, and worshipped.
28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.
29 And it came to pas y at midnight the Lord smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, fro y first-born of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto y first born of the captive that was in y dungeon, and all the first-born of cattle.
30 And Pharaoh rose up in y night, he & all his servats, & all y Egyptians, & ther was a great cry in Egypt: for there was no house where there was not one dead.
31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from amongst my people, both you, and the children of Israel, and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.
32 Also take your flocks, and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone, and blesse me also.
33 And the Egyptians were urgent on the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We be all dead men.
34 And the people tooke their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughes being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.
35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses: & they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, & raiment.
36 And the Lord gave y people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so y they lent unto them such things as they required: & they spoyled the Egyptians.
37 And the children of Israel journyed from Ramaes to Succoth, about sixe hundred thousand on foote, that were men, beside children.
38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them, and flockes, and herds, even very much cattell.
39 And they baked unleavened cakes of y dough, w they brought fourth out of Egypt; for it was not leavened: because they were thrust out of Egypt, & could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victuall.
40 Now the sojourning of y children of Israel who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty yeers.
41 And it came to passe at the end of y four hundred & thirty yeers, even y selfsame day it came to pas, y all y hosts of the Lord went out fro y land of Egypt.
42 It is a night to be much observed to the

The first-born sanctified. Ioseph's bo to ỹ Lord, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD, to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 And the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, this is the ordinance of ỹ Passeover: there shal no stranger eat ther of 44 But every mans seruant ỹ is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat ther of.

45 A forreiner, and an hired seruant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten, thou shalt not carry ỹ ooth ought of ỹ flesh abroad out of the house, neither shall yee breake a bone ther of.

47 All the Congregation of Israel shall keepe it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, & wil keep the Passeover to ỹ Lord: let al his males be circumcised, & then let him come neer, & keep it: & he shalbe as one ỹ is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shal eat of it.

49 One law shall be to him that is home-born and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel: as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to passe the self same day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

CHAP. XIII.

AND ỹ Lord spake to Moses, saying,

2 Sanctifie unto me all the first-born, whatsoever openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 And Moses said to ỹ people, remember this day, in wch ye came out from Egypt out of the house of bondage: for by strength of hand the Lord brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out in the month Abib.

5 And it shalbe when the Lord shall bring thee into ỹ land of ỹ Canaanites, & the Hittites, & the Amorites, & the Hivites, & ỹ Iebusites, which he sware to thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milke & hony, ỹ thou shalt keepe this service in this moneth.

6 Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shalbe eaten seven dayes: & there shal no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shal there be leaven seen with thee in al thy quarters.

8 And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, this is done because of that which the LORD did unto me, when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shalbe for a signe to thee upon thine hand, & for a memorial between thine eyes, that the Lords Law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the Lord brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therfore keep this ordinance in his season from yeer to yeer.

11 And it shalbe when the Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, as hee sware unto thee & to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 That thou shalt set apart to the Lord al ỹ openeth the matrix & al ỹ firstling that cometh of a beast, wch thou hast: the males shalbe the Lords.

13 And every firstling of an asse thou shalt redeem with a lamb: & if thou redeem it not, then shalt break his neck, & al ỹ first born of man among thy children shalt thou redeeme.

14 And it shalbe when thy sonne asketh thee in time to come, saying, what is this? ỹ shalt say to him, by strength of hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

15 And it came to passe when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, ỹ Lord slew all ỹ first born in ỹ land of Egypt, both the first born of man, & ỹ first born of beast: therfore I sacrifice to the Lord all that openeth the matrix being males: but all the first born of my children I redeeme.

16 And it shalbe for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the Lord brought us fourth out of Egypt.

17 And it came to passe when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not thorow the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was neere: For God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt.

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the red Sea, & the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses tooke the bones of Ioseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderneſſe.

21 And ỹ Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light: to go by day & night.

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

CHAP. XIIII.

AND ỹ Lord spake to Moses, saying,

2 Speake to the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol & the Sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encampe by the Sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of ỹ children of Israel, they are intangled in ỹ land, the wildernesse hath shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaohs heart, he shal follow after them: & I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, & upon all his hoste, ỹ the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD: And they did so.

5 And it was told ỹ king of Egypt, people fled: And y heart of Pharaoh & his servants was turned against y people, & they said, why have we done this, that we have let Israel go no longer to serve us?

6 And he made ready his charet, and took his people with him.
7 And he took six hundred chosen charets, & all the charets of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.
8 And the Lord hardned the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, & he pursued after y children of Israel: & y children of Israel went out with high hand.
9 But y Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses & charets of Pharaoh, & his horsmen, and his army, & overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-ha-hiroth before Baal zephon.
10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, y children of Israel lift up their eies, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them, & they were sore afraid: & y children of Israel cryed out unto the LORD.
11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? Wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?
12 Is not this the word y we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, let us alone, y we may serve y Egyptians? for it had been better for us to serve y Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.
13 And Moses said to y people, Fear ye not, stand still & see y salvation of y LORD, y he will shew to you to day: for y Egyptians who ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.
14 The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.
15 And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore cryest thou to me? Speak to y children of Israel y they go forward.
16 But lift up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over y sea, & divide it: & y children of Israel shall go on dry ground throughout the midst of y sea.
17 And I, lo, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, & they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his charets, and upon his horsemen.
18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have got me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his charets, and upon his horsemen.
19 And the Angel of God which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them, and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, & stood behind them.
20 And it came between y camp of y Egyptians, & the camp of Israel, & it was a cloud & darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so y y one came not near the other all the night.
21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the Sea, and the LORD caused it to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the Sea dry land, and the waters were divided.
22 And y children of Israel went into

23 And y Egyptians pursued, & went in after the to y midst of y sea, even all Pharaohs horses, his charets & his horsmen.
24 And it came to passe; that in the morning watch, the Lord looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire, and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians.
25 And took off their charet wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.
26 And y Lord said to Moses, Stretch out thine hand over y sea, y y waters may come again upon y Egyptians, on their charets, and upon their horsmen.
27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared: & and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.
28 And y waters returned, & covered y charets, & y horsmen, & all the host of Pharaoh y came into y sea after the: there remained not so much as one of them.
29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry ground in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wal to them on their right hand, and on their left.
30 Thus the Lord saved Israel y day out of y hand of y Egyptians; & Israel saw y Egyptians dead on the sea shore.
31 And Israel saw y great work which the Lord did on the Egyptians: & the people feared the Lord, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

CHAP. XV.

THen sang Moses & y children of Israel this song unto y Lord, & spake saying, I will sing unto y Lord: for he hath triumphed glorously: y horse & his rider hath he thrown into the sea.
2 The Lord is my strength & song, & he is become my salvation: he is my God, & I will prepare him an habitation, my fathers God, & I will exalt him.
3 The LORD is a man of war; the LORD is his name.
4 Pharaohs charets and his host hath he cast into the Sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the red sea.
5 The depths have covered them: They sank into the bottom as a stone.
6 Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD hath dashed in pieces y enemy.
7 And in y greatnes of thine excellency, thou hast overthrown them y rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed the as stubble.
8 And with the blast of thy nostrils y waters were gathered together, y floods stood upright as an heap; and y depths were congealed in y heart of the Sea.
9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide y spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, mine hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them, they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like to thee, O Lord among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

14 The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed: the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold on them: all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16 Fear and dread shall fall on them: by the greatnes of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone, till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in & plant them in y mountain of thine inheritance, in y place, O Lord which y hast made for thee to dwell in, in y Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

18 The Lord shal reign for ever & ever.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his charets and his horsmen into the sea, & y Lord brought again y waters of y sea on them: but y children of Israel went on dry land in y midst of the sea.

20 And Miriam y Prophetesse y sister of Aaron took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her, with timbrels, and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 So Moses brought Israel from y red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur: and they went three dayes in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cryed to the Lord: and the Lord shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made a statute & an ordinance, & there he proved them.

26 And said, If y wilt diligently hearken to y voice of the Lord thy God, & wilt do that was right in his sight, & wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought on the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.

27 And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm-trees, and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAP. XVI.

AND they took their journy from Elim, & all the congregation of the children of Israel came to y wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim & Sinai, y fifteenth day of y second month after their departing out of y land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God, we had died by the hand of the Lord in y land of Egypt, when we sat by y fleshpots, and when we did eat bread to y full: for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kil this whole assembly with hunger.

4 Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you: and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

5 And it shall come to passe, that on the sixt day they shal prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even ye shall know y the Lord hath brought you out from the land of Egypt.

7 And in y morning, then ye shall see the glory of y Lord, for that he heareth your murmurings against y Lord: for what are we y ye murmure against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be when the Lord shal give you in y evening flesh to eat, & in y morning, bread to the full: for y Lord heareth your murmurings which ye murmure against him: & what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come neer before y Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass as Aaron talked unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel y they looked toward the wildernesse, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: Speak to them, saying, At even ye shal eat flesh, & in the morning ye shal be filled with bread, & ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to passe, that at even the quailes came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14 And when the dew y lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when y children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said to them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

16 This is y thing which the LORD

ath commanded: gather of it every man according to his eating: an Omer for every man according to the number of your persons, take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an Omer, he that gathered much, had nothing over, and he that gathered little, had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto Moses, but some of them left of it until y morning, & it bred wormes & stank: & Moses was wroth w them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: & when y Son waxed hote, it melted.

22 And it came to pass that on the sixt day they gathered twice as much bread two Omers for one man, & all y rulers of y congregation came, & told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the LORD: bake y which you will bake to day, and seeth that ye will seethe, and y w remaines over, lay up for you to be kept until y morning.

24 And they laid it until the morning, as Moses bade & it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day, for to day is a Sabbath to the LORD: to day ye shal not find it in the field.

26 Six dayes ye shal gather it, but on the seventh day which is the Sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 And it came to pass that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, & they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my Commandments and my Laws?

29 See, for that y LORD hath given you y Sabbath, therfore he giveth you on the sixt day the bread of two dayes: bide ye every man in his place: let no man go out of his place on y seventh day.

30 So y people rested on y seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like Coriander seed white, and the taste of it was like wafers made with hony.

32 And Moses said, This is the thing the Lord commandeth: Fil an Omer of it to be kept for your generations, that they may see the bread wherwith I have fed you in y wildernes, when I brought you forth fro y land of Egipt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an Omer full of Manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD to be kept for your generations.

34 As y Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before y testimony to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat Manna forty yeers, til they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an Omer is the tenth part of an Ephah.

CHAP. XVII.

AND all the congregation of y children of Israel journeyed fro y wildernes of Sin after their journeys, according to the commandement of the Lord, & pitched in Rephidim: & there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherfore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide you with me? Wherfore do ye tempt the LORD?

3 And y people thirsted there for water, & y people murmured against Moses, & said, Wherfore is this, that y hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kil us & our children, & our cattel w thirst?

4 And Moses cryed unto the LORD, saying, What shal I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me.

5 And y LORD said to Moses, Go on before the people, & take w thee of the elders of Israel: & thy rod wherwith y smotest y river, take in thy hand, & go.

6 Lo, I wil stand before thee there on the rock in Horeb, & thou shalt smite y rock, & there shal come water out of it, y the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of y elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted y Lord, saying, Is the Lord among us, or not?

8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Iosshua, Chuse us out men, & go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I wil stand on the top of y hil, w the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Iosshua did as Moses had said to him, & fought w Amalek: & Moses, Aaron & Hur went up to y top of y hil.

11 And it came to pas whe Moses held up his hand, y Israel prevailed: & whe he let down his hād, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses hands were heavy, and they took a stone & put it under him, & he sate theron: & Aaron & Hur stayed up his hands, y one on y one side, & y other on the other side, & his hands were steddy til y going down of y Sun.

13 And Iosshua discomfited Amalek, and his people w the edge of y sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Iosshua: for I wil vtterly put out the remembrance of Amalek fro under heaven.

15 And Moses built an Altar, and called y name of it IEHOVAH-Nisi:

16 For he said, Because y LORD hath sworn, y the LORD wil have war w Amalek fro generation to generation.

CHAP. XVIII.

WHen Iethro the Priest of Midian Moses father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Iethro counselleth Moses.

Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 Then Iethro Moses father in Law took Zipporah Moses wife, after he had sent her back,

3 And her two sons, of which ỹ name of the one was Gershon: for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

5 And Iethro Moses father in law came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wildernesse, where he encamped at the mount of God.

6 And he said to Moses, I thy father in law Iethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, & kissed him: & they asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all ỹ the LORD had done to Pharaoh, & to ỹ Egyptians for Israels sake, & all ỹ travel that had come upon them by the way, & how ỹ LORD delivered them.

9 And Iethro rejoiced for all ỹ goodnes ỹ the Lord had done to Israel who he had deliverd out of ỹ hãd of ỹ Egyptians.

10 And Iethro said, Blessed be ỹ Lord who hath delivered you out of ỹ hãd of ỹ Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath deliverd ỹ people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know ỹ the Lord is greater then all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly, he was above the.

12 And Iethro Moses father in law took a burnt-offering, and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the Elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses father in law before God.

13 And it came to passe on the morrow that Moses sate to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses, from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses father in law saw all ỹ he did to ỹ people, he said, What is this thing ỹ ỹ doest to the people? why sittest ỹ thy self alone, & all the people stand by thee from morning to even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God.

16 When they have a matter they come unto me, and I judge between one and another, and do make them know the Statutes of God, and his Laws.

17 And Moses father in Law said to him. The thing ỹ ỹ doest is not good.

18 Then wilt surely wear away both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee: ỹ art not able to perform it thy self alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voyce, I will give the counsel, & God shal be with thee: Be thou for ỹ people to God ward, ỹ thou mayest bring the causes to God.

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances, and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, & the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, thou shalt provide of all the people, able men such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousnesse, and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fiftiens, & rulers of tens.

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring to thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shal it be easier for thy self, & they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, & God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shal also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to ỹ voyce of his father in law, & did all ỹ he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, & rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moses let his father in law depart, and he went his way into his own land.

CHAP. XIX.

IN the third moneth when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day they came into the wildernesse of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desart of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness, and there Israel camped before ỹ mount.

3 And Moses went up to God: and the Lord called to him out of ỹ mount, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Iacob, and tell the children of Israel:

4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles wings, and brought you unto my self.

5 Now therefore if ye will obey my voyce indeed, and keep my covenant, ye shalbe a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all ỹ earth is mine.

6 And ye shalbe unto me a kingdom of Priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 And Moses came & called for ỹ elders of ỹ people, & laid before them all these words, which the Lord comanded him.

8 And all ỹ people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken, we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto ỹ LORD.

9 And ỹ LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told ỹ words of the people to ỹ LORD.

10 And ỹ LORD said unto Moses, Go to ỹ people & sanctifie them to day, and to morrow, & let them wash their clothes,

11 And be ready against ỹ third day: for ỹ third day ỹ LORD will come down in ỹ sight of all ỹ people on mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to your selves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount, shall be surely put to death.

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through, whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 And he said to the people, Be ready against the third day; come not at your wives.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud, so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoak, because the LORD descended upon it in fire, and the smoak thereof ascended as the smoak of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount, and the LORD called Moses upon the top of the mount, and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the Priests also which come near to the LORD, sanctifie themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, the people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctifie it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the Priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

CHAP. XX.

AND God spake all these words, saying,

2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make to thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thy self to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

8 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six dayes shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work: thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattel, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six dayes the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day, wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long upon the land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witnesse against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his asse, nor any thing that is thy neighbours.

18 And all the people saw the thundrings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoaking; and when the people saw it, they removed and stood a far off.

19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to proove you, and that his fear may be before your faces that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew neer unto the thick darkness where God was.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 An Altar of earth shalt thou make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt-offrings, and thy peace-offrings, thy sheep, and oxen: in all places where I record my Name, I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

25 And if thou wilt make me an Altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewen stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps to my Altar, that thy nakednesse be not discovered thereon.

CHAP. XXI.

NOw these are the judgements which thou shalt set before them.

2 If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six yeers he shal serve, and in the seventh he shal go out free for nothing.
3 If he came in by himself, he shal go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shal go out with him.
4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters, y wife and her children shal be her masters, and he shal go out by himself.
5 And if the servant shal plainly say I love my master, my wife, and my children, I will not go out free:
6 Then his master shal bring him to the door, or unto the door post, & his master shal boar his ear thorow w an awle and he shall serve him for ever.
7 And if a man sell his daughter to be a maid servant, she shal not go out as the men-servants do.
8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, the shal he let her be redeemed: to sel her to a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully w her.
9 And if he hath betrothed her to his son, he shal deal with her after the manner of daughters.
10 If he take him another wife, her food, her rayment, and her duty of marriage shall he not diminish.
11 And if he do not these three to her,
the shal she go out free without mony.
12 He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shal be surely put to death.
13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him to his hand, then I will appoint thee a place whither he shal flee.
14 But if a man come presumptuously on his neighbor to slay him w guil, y shalt take him fro mine altar, y he may die.
15 And he that smiteth his father or his mother, shal surely be put to death.
16 And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.
17 And he that curseth his father or his mother, shal surely be put to death.
18 And if men strive together, & one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, & he die not, but keepeth his bed:
19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staffe, then shal he that smote him be quit: onely he shall pay for the losse of his time, and shall cause him to be throughly healed.
20 And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand, he shall be surely punished, 21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished, for he is his money.
22 If men strive, and hurt a woman w child, so that her fruit depart from her, & yet no mischief follow, he shal be surely punished according as y womans husband will lay upon him, & he shall pay as the judges determine.
23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life.
24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.
25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
26 And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or eye of his maid, y it perish, he shal let the go free for his eye.
27 And if the smite out his man-servants tooth, or his maid-servants tooth, he shal let him go free for his tooths 28 If any ox gore a man or a woman, y they die, then the ox shall be stoned, and his flesh shall not be eat, but the owner of the ox shall be quit.
29 But if the ox were wont to push with horn in time past, and it hath bene testified to his owner, & he hath not kept him in, but y he hath killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, & his owner also shall be put to death.
30 If there be laid on him a summe of mony, then shal he give for the ransome of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.
31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgement shall it be done to him.
32 If y ox shal push a man-servant or a maid-servant, he shal give to their master thirty shekels, & y ox shall be stoned.
33 And if a man shal open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox, or an asse fall therein, 34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them, and the dead beast shall be his.
35 And if one mans ox hurt another, that he die, then shall they sel the living ox and divide the money of it, and dead ox also they shall divide.
36 Or if it be known y the ox hath used to push in time past, & his owner hath not kept him in, he shal surely pay ox for ox, & the dead shal be his own.

CHAP. XXII.

1 If a man shall steal an ox, or a shee & kil it, or sel it, he shal restore five oxe for an ox, & four sheep for a shee.
2 If a thief be found breaking up, & be smitten that he die, there shal be no blood shed for him.
3 If y sun be risen on him, there shal be blood shed for him: for he shal make ful restitution: if he have nothing, the he shalbe sold for his theft.
4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or asse, or sheep, he shall restore double.
5 If a man shal cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shal put in his beast, & shall feed in another mans field, of best of his own field, & of y best of own vineyard shal he make restitution.
6 If fire break out, & catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field be consumed therewith, the that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.
7 If a man shal deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stollen out of the mans house: if the thief be found, let him pay double.
8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he or his hand to his neighbours goods.

9 For all manner of trespasse, whether it be for oxe, for asse, for sheepe, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his: the cause of both parties shall come before the Iudges, and whom the Iudges shall condemne, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.
10 If a man deliver to his neighbour an asse, or an oxe, or a sheepe, or any beast to keepe, and it die or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it.
11 Then shall an oath of the Lord be betweene them both: that he hath not put his hand to his neighbours goods: and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good:
12 And if it be stollen from him, he shall make restitution to y owner thereof.
13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witnes, and hee shall not make good that which was torn.
14 And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, hee shall surely make it good.
15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shal not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.
16 And if a man entice a maid, that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.
17 If her father vtterly refuse to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowrie of virgins.
18 Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.
19 Whosoever lieth with a beast, shall surely be put to death.
20 He that sacrificeth vnto any god save to the LORD onely, bee shall be vtterly destroyed.
21 Thou shalt neither vexe a stranger, nor oppresse him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
22 Yee shall not afflict any widow, or fatherlesse childe.
23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all vnto me, I will sure-ly heare their cry:
24 And my wrath shal waxe hote, and I will kill you with the sword: and your wives shalbe widowes, and your children fatherlesse.
25 If thou lend money to any of my people that is poore by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.
26 If thou at all take thy neighbours raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it to him by that the Sunne goeth down.
27 For y is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherin shal he sleep? & it shal come to passe, when he cryeth to me, y I will heare, for I am gracious.
28 Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.
29 Thou shalt not delay to offer y firstof thy ripe fruits, & of thy liquors: the first born of thy sons shalt y give to me.
30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven dayes it shalbe with his damme, ou the eighth day thou shalt give it me.
31 And ye shalbe holy men to me: neither shal ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in y field: ye shal cast it to y dogs.

CHAP. XXIII.

THou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witnesse.
2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil: neither shalt y speak in a cause to decline after many, to wrest judgment.
3 Neither shalt thou countenance a poore man in his cause.
4 If thou meete thine enemies oxe or his asse going astray, thou shalt surely bring it backe to him againe.
5 If thou see the asse of him that hateth thee, lying under his burden, and wouldest forbeare to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.
6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poore in his cause.
7 Keep thee farre from a false matter, & the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justifie the wicked.
8 And thou shalt take no gift, for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.
9 Also y shalt not oppresse a stranger: for ye know y heart of a stranger: seeing ye were strangers in y land of Egypt.
10 And sixe yeeres thou shalt sow thy land, & shalt gather in y fruits thereof.
11 But the seventh yeere thou shalt let it rest, and lie still, that the poore of thy people may eate: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eate. In like manner thou shalt deale with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard.
12 Sixe dayes thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest, that thine oxe and thine asse may rest, and the sonne of thine hand-maid, and the stranger may be refreshed.
13 And in all things that I have said to you, be circumspect: and make no mention of the names of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.
14 Three times thou shalt keep a feast vnto me in the yeere.
15 Thou shalt keep the feast of vnleavened bread: thou shalt eat vnleavened bread seven dayes, as I commanded thee in the time appointed of y moneth Abib: for so in it thou camest out from Egypt: & none shall appeare before me empty.
16 And y feast of harvest, y first fruits of thy labours, & thou hast sown in the field: & y feast of in gathering, which is in the end of the yeer when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of y field.
17 Three times in y yeer all thy males shal appeare before the LORD God.
18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remaine untill the morning.
19 The first of the first fruites of thy land, thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God: thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mothers milke.

20 Behold, I send an Angel before thee to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place ẅ I have prepared.
21 Beware of him, & obey his voyce, provoke him not for he wil not pardon your trasgressions: for my name is in him.
22 But if thou shalt indede obey his voyce, & do al that I speak: then I will be an enemy to thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.
23 For mine Angel shal go before thee and bring thee in to the Amorites, & the Hittites and the Perizzites, & the Cananites, the Hivites, and the Iebusites: and I will cut them off.
24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but ẏ shalt utterly overthrow them, & quite break down their images.
25 And ye shal serve the Lord your God, and he shall blesse thy bread, and thy water: and I will take sickneſſe away from the midst of thee.
26 There shal nothing cast their young nor be barren in thy land: the number of thy dayes I will fulfill.
27 I will send my feare before thee, & will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, & I will make al thine enemies turne their backes unto thee.
28 And I will send hornets before thee, ẏ shal drive out the Hivite the Cananite, and the Hittite from before thee.
29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one yeere, lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.
30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased and inherite the land.
31 And I will set thy bounds frō ẏ red sea, even to ẏ sea of ẏ Philistines, & frō the desart to ẏ river: for I wil deliver ẏ inhabitants of ẏ land into your hand & ẏ shalt drive them out before thee.
32 Thou shalt make no Covenant with them, nor with their gods.
33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

CHAP. XXIIII.

AND he said to Moses, come up to ẏ LORD, thou and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seuenty of the Elders of Israel: and worship ye afarre off.
2 And Moses alone shal come neere ẏ Lord: but they shal not come nigh, neither shall the people go up with him.
3 And Moses came, and told the people all the words of the Lord & al the judgements: & al the people answered with one voyce, & said, all the wordes which the Lord hath said, will we do.
4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.
5 And he sent yong mē of ẏ childrē of Israel, ẅ offred burnt offerings, & sacrificed peace offrings of oxē to ẏ Lord.
6 And Moses took half of the blood and put it in basons, and halfe the blood he sprinkled on the Altar.
7 And he took the book of the Covenant, & read in the audience of the people: & they said, al that the Lord hath said will we doe, and be obedient.
8 And Moses took ẏ blood, & sprinkled it on ẏ people, & said, Behold, ẏ blood of the Covenant, which the Lord hath made ẅ you concerning all these words.
9 Then went up Moses & Aaron, Nadab & Abihu, & seuenty of ẏ elders of Israel:
10 And they saw ẏ God of Israel: and there was under his feet, as it were paved worke of Saphir-stone, and as it were ẏ body of heaven in his clearnesse.
11 And upon the Nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, & did eat & drink.
12 And ẏ Lord said to Moses, come up to me into the mount, & be there: and I will give thee Tables of stone, and a Law, & Commandements which I have written, that thou mayest teach them.
13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Iothua: and Moses went up into the mount of God.
14 And he said to the elders, Tarry here for us until we come again to you: and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you, if any man have any matters to do, let him come to them.
15 And Moses went up into ẏ mount, and a cloud covered the mount.
16 And the glory of the Lord abode upon mount Sinai, & ẏ cloud covered it six dayes, & the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.
17 And the sight of ẏ glory of ẏ Lord was like deuouring fire on ẏ top of the mount, in ẏ eyes of ẏ childrē of Israel.
18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, & gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount fourty dayes, and fourty nights.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, & his sons with him from among the children of Israel, that he may minister to me in the priests office, even Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aarons sons.
2 And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory and for beauty.
3 And thou shalt speak to all they are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdome, that they may make Aarons garments to consecrate him, that he may minister to me in the Priests office.
4 And these are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, & an Ephod, & a robe, & a broidered coat, a mytre, & a girdle: & they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, & his sons, that he may minister to me in the Priests office.
5 And they shall take gold, and blue, & purple, and skarlet, and fine linnen.
6 And they shall make the Ephod of gold, of blew, and of purple, of scarlet, & fine twined linnen, with cunning work.
7 It shall have the two shoulder pieces thereof, joyned at the two edges thereof, and so it shalbe joyned together.
8 And the curious girdle of the Ephod which is upon it, shalbe of the same, according to the work thereof, even of gold, of blew, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen.
9 And thou shalt take two onix stons, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:
10 Six of the names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth:
11 With the work of an ingraver in stone, like y ingravings of a signet shalt ingrave the two stones, with the names of y children of Israel, thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.
12 And thou shalt put the two stones on y shoulders of y Ephod, for stones of memorial to y children of Israel. And Aaron shal bear their names before the Lord on his two shoulders for a memorial.
13 And thou shalt make ouches of gold 14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chaines to the ouches.
15 And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgement with cunning work, after y work of the Ephod y shalt make it: of gold, of blue, & of purple, & of skarlet, & of fine twined linen shalt y make it.
16 Foursquare it shalbe being doubled:
a span shalbe the length thereof, and a span shal be the breadth thereof.
17 And thou shalt set in it ny settings of stones, even four rows of stones: y first row shalbe a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.
18 And the second row shalbe an emeraud, a saphir, and a diamond.
19 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an Amathist.
20 And the fourth row, a beril, and an onix, and a jasper: they shalbe set in gold in their inclosings.
21 And the stones shalbe with the names of y children of Israel twelve according to their names like y ingravings of the signet: every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.
22 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate, chaines, at the ends, of wreathen work, of pure gold.
23 And y shalt make upon the breast-plate two rings of gold, & shalt put y two rings on y two ends of y breastplate 24 And thou shalt put the two wrea-then chaines of gold in the two rings, whichare on the ends of the breastplate.
25 And the other two ends of y two wreathen chains, thou shalt fasten in shoulder pieces of the Ephod before it.

26 And thou shalt make two rings of curious girdle of the Ephod.

28 And they shal binde y breastplate by y rings thereof, to y rings of the Ephod by a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the Ephod, & that y

29 And Aaron shal bear the names of y children of Israel in the breastplate of judgement on his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.
30 And thou shalt put in the breast-plate of judgement, the Urim and the

Thum-

Thummim, and they shalbe upon Aarons heart, whē he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall beare y iudgement of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

31 And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shalbe an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shal have a binding of woven work, round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent.

33 And beneath upon the hem of it, thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of skarlet round about the hem therof, and bels of gold between them round about.

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shalbe on Aaron to minister: & his sound shalbe heard whē he goeth in to the holy place before the LORD, & when he cometh out, that he die not.

36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engraving of a signet, HOLINES TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre, upon the forefront of the mitre it shalbe.

38 And it shalbe on Aarons forehead, y Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, w children of Israel shal hallow in all their holy gifts: and it shalbe always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

39 And thou shalt imbroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen: and thou shalt make the girdle of needle-work.

40 And for Aarons sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt y make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them on Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him: and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, & sanctifie them, that they may minister to me in the Priests office.

42 And y shalt make them linen breeches, to cover their nakednes, from the loins even to y thighs they shal reach

43 And they shalbe on Aaron, and on his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of y congregation, or when they come neer to the altar to minister in y holy place, that they bear not iniquity, and die. It shalbe a statute for ever unto him, and his seed after him.

CHAP. XXIX.

AND this is y thing that y shalt do to them, to hallow them, to minister to me in y Priests office: take one yong bullock, & two rams without blemish.

2 And unleavened bread, & cakes unleavened, tempered with oyl, & wafers unleavened, anointed with oyl: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock & the two rams.

4 And Aaron & his sons y shalt bring to the door of the tabernacle of y congregation, & shalt wash them with water.

5 And y shalt take the garments, & put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the brest-plate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the Ephod.

6 And y shalt put y mitre on his head, & put the holy crowne upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt y take y anointing oyl, & poure it on his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, & put coates upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdes (Aaron and his sons) & put y bonnets on them: and y Priests office shalbe theirs for a perpetuall statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And y shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of y congregation, & Aarō & his sons shall put their hands upon the head of y bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the bloode of the bullock, & put it upon the horns of the altar w thy finger, and poure all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneyes, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But y flesh of the bullock, and his skin and his dung shalt thou burn with fire without y camp: it is a sin-offring.

15 Thou shalt also take one ram, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut y ram in pieces, & wash y inwards of him, & his legs, & put them to his pieces, & to his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering unto the LORD: It is a sweet savour an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

19 And thou shalt take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kil y ram, & take of his blood, and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, & on the tip of the right ear of his sons, & on the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is on the altar, & of the anointing oyl, & sprinkle it upon Aaron, & upon his garments, & upon his sons, & upon the garments of his sons with him: & he shall be hallowed, & his garments, and his sons, and his sons garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the

that is on them, and ȳ right shoulder, for it is a ram of consecration.
23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oyled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread, that is before the LORD.
24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and shalt wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.
25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aarons consecrations, and wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD, and it shall be thy part.
27 And thou shalt sanctifie the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, which is waved, & which is heaved up of the ram of ȳ con-secrations, even of that which is for Aaron and of that which is for his sons.
28 And it shalbe Aarons, & his sons, by a statute for ever, frō ȳ children of Israel: for it is an heave-offring: & it shalbe an heave-offring frōy childrē of Israel of ȳ sacrifice of their peace-offerings, ēve their heave-offring to ȳ Lord 29 And the holy garments of Aaron shalbe his sons after him to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.
30 And ȳ son ȳ is Priest in his stead, shal put them on seven dayes, when he cometh into the tabernacle of ȳ congregation to minister in the holy place.
31 And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.
32 And Aaron and his sons shall eate the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
33 And they shal eat those things wherwith atonemēt was made to cōsecrate & to sanctifie them: but a stranger shal not eat thereof, because they ar holy.
34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread rema in unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten because it is holy.
35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron and to his sons, according to al things which I have commanded thee: seven dayes shalt thou consecrate them.
36 And thou shal offer every day a bullock for a sin-offring, for atonement and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctifie it.
37 Seven dayes thou shalt make an atonement for ȳ altar, and sanctifie it, & it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shalbe holy.
38 Now that is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar, two lambs of the first yeer day by day continually.
39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:

40 And with ȳ one lamb a tenth deal of floure mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; & ȳ fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering.
41 And ȳ other lamb ȳ shalt offer at even, & shalt do thereto according to the meat-offring of ȳ morning, & according to ȳ drink-offring thereof, for a sweet savour an offring made by fire to ȳ Lord 42 This shalbe a continual burnt-offering throwout your generations, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lord, where I will meet you to speak there unto ther.
43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel: and the tabernacle shalbe sanctified by my glory.
44 And I will sanctifie the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar; I wil sanctifie also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the Priests office.
45 And I wil dwel amongst the children of Israel, and will be their God.
46 And they shal know that I am the Lord their God, ȳ brought them forth out of ȳ land of Egypt, ȳ I may dwel amongst them: I am ȳ LORD their God.

CHAP. XXX.

AND thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon: of Shittim wood shalt thou make it.
2 A cubit shalbe the length thereof, & a cubit y breadth thereof (four square shal it be) & two cubits shalbe ȳ height ther-of; ȳ horns thereof shalbe of the same.
3 And ȳ shalt overlay it with pure gold, ȳ top thereof, & the sides therof round a bout, & ȳ horns thereof: & thou shalt make to it a crown of gold rotid about 4 And two gold rings shalt ȳ make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt ȳ make it: and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withall.
5 And ȳ shalt make the staves of Shittim wood, & overlay them with gold.
6 And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony before the mercy-seat, that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.
7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: whē he dresseth
the lamps, he shal burn incense upon it.
8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even he shal burn incense upon it, a perpetuall incense before the LORD, throwout your generations.
9 Ye shal offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt-sacrifice, nor meatoffring: neither shal ye powre drink-offering thereon.
10 And Aaron shal make an atonemē on the horns of it once in a yeer, with the blood of the sin-offering of atonements: once in the yeer shall he make atonement on it, throughout your generations: it is most holy unto ȳ Lord.
11 And ȳ Lord spake to Moses, saying, 12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they giveevery man a ranſome for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numbrest

numbreth them, that there be no plague amongst them, when y numbreth them.
13 This they shal give, every one that passeth among them that be numbred half a shekel after the shekel of y sanctuary: a shekel is twenty gerahs: an half shekel shalbe y offring of Lord.
14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbred, from twenty yeres old and above, shal give an offering to the LORD
15 The rich shal not give more, & the poor shal not give less then half a she-kel, whē they give an offring to y Lord to make an atonement for your souls.
16 And y shalt take y atonement money of y children of Israel, & shalt appoint it for y seruice of y tabernacle of y congregation, y it may be a memorial to y childrē of Israel before y Lord,
to make an atonement for your souls.
17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, & his foot also of brass to wash withal, & y shalt put it betweē y tabernacle of the congregation, & y altar, and thou shalt put water therein.
19 For Aaron and his sons shal wash their hands and their feet therеat.
20 When they go into the tabernacle of y congregation, they shal wash with water that they die not: or when they come neer to the altar to minister, to burn offrings made by fire to the Lord.
21 So they shal wash their hands and their feet, y they die not: & it shalbe a statute for ever to them, evē to him & to his seed throw out their generatiōs 22 Moreover, the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
23 Take y also unto thee principal spices of pure myrrhe five hūdred shekels, & of sweet cynamon, half so much, even two hundred & fifty shekels, & of sweet calamus two hundred & fifty shekels.
24 And of Cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, and of oyl olive an hin.
25 And thou shalt make it an oyl of holy oyntment, an oyntment compound after the art of the Apothecary:
it shall be an holy anoynting oyle.
26 And thou shalt anoint the Tabernacle of the Congregation therewith:
and the Altar of incense.
27 And the Table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the Altar of incense.
28 And the altar of burnt offering, & all his vessels, & the laver & his foot.
29 And thou shalt sanctifie them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them, shall be holy.
30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron & his sons, and consecrate them, y they may minister vnto me in y Priests office.
31 And y shalt speak to y childrē of Israel, saying, this shalbe an holy anointoyl to me throw out your generations.

ses, take unto thee sweet spices, Stacte, Onicha, and Galbanum: these sweet spices with pure frankincense, of

CHAP. XXXI.

1 And y Lord spake to Moses, say leel the son of Vri, the son of Hur, the tribe of Iudah.

rit of God, in wisedom, and in un manner of workmanship.

you: whosoever doth any work in y
Sabbath day shal surely be put to death.
14 Wherfore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations for a perpetuall covenant.
17 It is a sign betweene me & y children of Israel for ever: for in six dayes the Lord made heaven and earth, & on the seventh he rested & was refreshed.

18 And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAP. XXXII.

NOw when the people saw that Moses delayed to come downe out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, Up, make us gods which shal go before us: for as for this Moses the man that brought us up out of y land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said to them, Breake off the golden eare-rings which are in y ears of your wives, of your sons & of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden ear-rings which were in their ears & brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received the at their hand, & fashioned it with a graving tool, after it had made it a molten calf: and they said, these be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of y land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it, and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on y morow, offered burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings and y people sate down to eat and to drink, & rose up to play.

7 And the Lord said unto Moses, Go, get thee down, for thy people which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.

8 They have turned aside quickly out of y way y I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, & have sacrificed ther to, & said, these be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of y land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiffnecked people.

10 Now therfore let me alone that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

11 And Moses besought y Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of y land of Egypt, with great power, & with a mighty hand?

12 Wherfore should y Egyptians speak & say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, & Israel thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidest to them,
I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven: and all this land that I have spoken of, will I give unto your seed, and they shal inherit it for ever.

14 And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do to his people.

15 And Moses turned, & went down from y mount, & the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: The tables were written on both sides; on the one side, and on y other were they written.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard y noise of y people as they shouted, he said to Moses,
There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not y voice of the y shout for maistery, neither is it y voice of them y cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing, do I hear.

19 And it came to passe assoon as he came nigh to the camp, that he saw the calf, & the dancing: and Moses anger waxed hot, & he cast y tables out of his hands, & brake them beneath y mount.

20 And he took y calf which they had made, & burnt it in y fire, & ground it to powder, and strawed it upon y water, & made the children of Israel drink of it.

21 And Moses said to Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shal go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off: So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 And when Moses saw y people were naked (for Aaron had made the naked to their shame amongst their enemies)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of y campe, & said, who is on y Lords side?
let him come to me. And all y sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

27 And he said to the, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, & go in & out from gate to gate thorow out y camp, & slay every man his brother, & every man his companion, & every man his neighbour.

28 And y children of Levi did according to y word of Moses: & there fell of the people y day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, consecrate your selves to day to y Lord, even every man upon his son, & upon his brother, y he may bestow on you a blessing this day.

30 And it came to passe on y morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sinne; And now

I

I will go vp to ỹ Lord; peradventure I shal make an atonement for your sin.
31 And Moses returned to ỹ LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, & have made the gods of gold 32 Yet now, if thou wilt, forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book, which thou hast written.
33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.
34 Therefore now go, lead the people to ỹ place of which I have spoken unto thee: Behold, mine Angel shal go before thee; Nevertheles, in ỹ day when I visite, I will visite their sin upon them.
35 And ỹ Lord plagued ỹ people, because they made ỹ calf ỹ Aaron made.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart & go up hence, thou & the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land wi I sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Vnto thy seed will I give it me
2 And I will send an Angel before thee, & I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the 3 Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Iebusite.
3 Vnto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee: for thou art a stiffe-necked people, lest I consume thee in the way.
4 And when the people heard these evill tidings, they mourned; and no man did put on him his ornaments.
5 For ỹ Lord had said to Moses, Say to ỹ children of Israel, ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into ỹ midst of thee in a moment, & consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, ỹ I may know what to do to thee.
6 And the children of Israel stript themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.
7 And Moses took the Tabernacle, & pitched it without ỹ camp, afar off from the camp, & called it the Tabernacle of the congregation: And it came to passe, ỹ every one ẅ sought the LORD, went out unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without ỹ camp.
8 And it came to passe, when Moses went out unto ỹ tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door and looked after Moses.
9 And it came to passe as Moses entred into the tabernacle, ỹ cloudy pillar descended, & stood at the door of the Tabernacle, & the Lord talked ẅ Moses.
10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the Tabernacle door: and all the people rose up, and worshipped every man at his tent door.
11 And ỹ Lord spake to Moses face to face, as a man speaketh to his friend. And he turned again into the camp, but his servant Iehu a the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of ỹ tabernacle.
12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people, and thou hast not let me know ẅo thou wilt send ẅ me. Yet thou said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.
13 Now therfore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.
14 And he said, My presence shal go with thee, and I will give thee rest.
15 And he said to him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.
16 For wherein shal it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shal we be separated, I and thy people from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.
17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.
18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.
19 And he said, I will make all my goodnesse passe before thee, and will proclaim the Name of the LORD before thee: and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.
20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shal no man see me, and live.
21 And ỹ LORD said, Behold there is a place by me, & thou shalt stand upon a rock:
22 And it shal come to passe, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I passe by.
23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back-parts: but my face shal not be seen.

CHAP. XXXIV.

AND the LORD said to Moses, Hew thee two Tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these Tables, the words that were in the first Tables, which thou brakest.
2 And be ready in ỹ morning, and come up in ỹ morning to mount Sinai, and present thy self there to me in ỹ top of the mount.
3 And no man shal come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount, neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.
4 And he hewed two Tables of stone like unto ỹ first: & Moses rose up early in the morning, & went up to mount Sinai, as ỹ LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand ỹ two tables of stone.
5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the Name of the LORD.
6 And ỹ LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful & gracious, long suffering, and abundant in goodnesse and truth,
7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, & transgression, & sin: & that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting ỹ iniquity of the fathers upon the children, & upon ỹ children's children, neration, & to ỹ fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, & bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.
9 And he said, If now I ha e found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee, go amongst us, (for it is a stiff-necked people) & pardon our iniquity and our sin, & take us for thine inheritance.
10 And he said, behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marveils, such as have not bin done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art, shal see the glory of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.
11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: Behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and thee Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite:
12 Take heed to thy self, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest: lest they be for a snare in the midst of thee.
13 But ye shal destroy their altars, break their images, & cut down their groves.
14 For thou shalt worship no other God, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God:
15 Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice, thy sons, and their daughters go a thy sons go a whoring after their gods of 18 The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep: Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I command thee in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib ỹ camest out from Egypt.

19 All that openeth the matrix is mine,
and every firstling among thy cattel,
whether ox or sheep, that is male.
20 But ỹ firstling of an asse ỹ shalt redeem with a lamb: & if thou redeem him not, then shalt ỹ break his neck. All the first born of thy sons ỹ shalt redeem.
And none shal appear before me empty.
21 Six days shalt thou work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time, & in harvest thou shalt rest.
22 And thou shalt observe ỹ feast of weeks, of ỹ first fruits of wheat harvest:
and ỹ feast of ingathering at ỹ years end.
23 Thrice in the year shall all your men children appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel.
24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shal any mã desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God, thrice in the year.
25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven: neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of Passeover be left unto the morning.
26 The first of ỹ first fruit of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seeth a kid in his mothers milk.
27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenour of these words, I have made a covenant with thee, and with Israel.
28 And he was there with the LORD fourty dayes and fourty nights: he did neither eat bread, nor drink water: and he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten Commandments.
29 And it came to passe, when Moses came down fro mount Sinai (ỹ two tables of testimony in Moses hand, when he came down from the mount) that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone, while he talked with him.
30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come nigh him.
31 And Moses called to them, & Aaron and all the rulers of ỹ congregation returned to him, & Moses talked with them.
32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.
33 And till Moses had done speaking with them he put a vail on his face.
34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel, ỹ which he was commanded.
35 And ỹ children of Israel saw ỹ face of Moses ỹ skin of Moses face shone:
& Moses put ỹ vail on his face again,
until he went in to speak with him.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 And Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them. These are the words which the LORD hath commanded that ye should do them.
2 Six dayes shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shalbe to you an holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doth work therein, shall be put to death.
3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day.
4 And Moses spake unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded saying,
5 Take ye fro among you an offring to ỹ LORD: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offring of the LORD: gold, & silver, and brasse, 6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet,
and fine linnen, and goats haair,

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords:

19 The clothes of service, to do service ỹ in the holy place, ỹ holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons to minister in my Priests office.

20 And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came every one, whose heart ſtirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORDS offering to the worke of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and ear-rings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered, offered an offring of gold to the LORD.

30 And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name, Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, & in silver, and in braſs,

33 And in the cutting of ſtones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart, that he may teach, both he and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

7 For the ſtuff they had was ſufficient for all y work to make it, & too much.

4 They made shoulder pieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.
5 And the curious girdle of his Ephod that was on it, was of the same according to the work ther of: of gold, blue, and purple, and skarlet, & fine twined linnen, as y LORD commanded Moses.

CHAP. XL.

AND the Lord spake to Moses, saying,

2 On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail:

4 And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order that which pertaineth unto it: and thou shalt bring in the Candlestick, & light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold, for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt-offring before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the Court round about, and hang up the hanging at the Court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is therin & shalt hallow it, & all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offring, & all his vessels, & sanctify the altar: & it shall be an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, & wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctifie him that he may minister unto me in the Priests office.

A cloud covereth the tabernacle.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and cloath them with coats.

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister to me in the Priests office: for their anointing shall be an everlasting priesthood, throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses, according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 And it came to pass in the first month, in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastned his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and reared up his pillars, 19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it, as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 And he took and put the testimony in the ark, and put the staves on the ark, and put the Mercy-seat above upon the ark.

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony, as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it, before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the Candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle Southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail.

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon, as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt offring by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, & offered upon it the burnt-offring, and the meat offring, as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And he set the Laver between the tent of the congregation & the altar, and put water there to wash it with.

31 And Moses and Aaron & his sons washed their hands & their feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came neer unto the altar, they washed, as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle, and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys.
37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.
38 For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

CHAP. I.

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the Tabernacle of the congregation, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering to the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.
3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.
4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering: and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.
5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the Priests Aarons sons shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about on the altar that is by the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation.
6 And he shall flay the burnt-offering, and cut it into his pieces.
7 And the sons of Aaron the Priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.
8 And the Priests Aarons sons shall lay the parts, the head and the fat in order on the wood that is in the fire upon the altar.
9 But the inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the Priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
10 And if his offering be of the flocks, namely of the sheep, or of the goats for a burnt sacrifice, he shall bring it a male without blemish.
11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar Northward, before the LORD: and the Priests Aarons sons shall sprinkle his blood round about on the altar.
12 And he shall cut it into his pieces with his head and his fat: and the Priest shall lay them in order on the wood, that is on the fire which is upon the altar.
13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the Priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtle doves, or of young pigeons.
15 And the Priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar.
16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part by the place of the ashes.
17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder. And the Priest shall burn it on the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

CHAP. II.

AND when any will offer a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour: and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon.
2 And he shall bring it to Aarons sons the Priests: & he shall take therout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof, and the Priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
3 And the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aarons and his sons: it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.
4 And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be an unleavened cake of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.
5 And if thy oblation be a meat-offering baken in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.
6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat-offering.
7 And if thy oblation be a meat-offering baken in the frying pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.
8 And thou shalt bring the meat-offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: & when it is presented unto the Priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.
9 And the Priest shall take from the meat offering a memorial thereof, & shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
10 And that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aarons and his sons: it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.
11 No meat-offering that ye shall bring to the LORD shall be made leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.
12 As for the oblation of the first fruits, ye shall offer them to the Lord, but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.
13 And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.
14 And if thou offer a meat offering of the first fruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat-offring of thy first fruits green eares of corn dried by ỹ fire, even corn beaten out of ful eares.

15 And thou shalt put oyl on it, & lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat-offring 16 And the Priest shal burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn ther of, and part of the oil ther of, with all ỹ frankincense ther of: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

CHAP. III.

AND if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace-offering, if he offer it of the herd, whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.
2 And he shal lay his hand upon the head of his offring, & kil it at ỹ doore of the tabernacle of ỹ congregation: & Aarons sons the Priests shal sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.
3 And he shal offer of ỹ sacrifice of the peace-offring, an offring made by fire and the caul above the liver with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aarons sons shal burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace-offering unto the LORD, be of the flock, male or female, he shal offer it without blemish.
7 If he offer a lamb for his off ring, then shal he offer it before the LORD
8 And he shal lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kil it before the tabernacle of ỹ congregation: And Aarons sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.
9 And he shal offer of the sacrifice of ỹ peace-offring an offring made by fire to ỹ Lord ỹ fat ther of, and the whole rump, ỹ it shal he take off hard by ỹ back that is upon them, which is by ỹ flanks,

and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys it shal he take away.
11 And the Priest shal burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering
made by fire unto the LORD.
12 And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.
13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kil it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shal sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.
14 And he shal offer ther of his offering, even an offring made by fire to the Lord: the fat that covereth ỹ inwards, and al the fat that is upon the inwards 15 And the two kidneys, & ỹ fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

CHAP. V.

A Nd if a soul sin, & hear the voice of a swearing, & is a witnes, whether he hath seen or known of it, if he do not utter it, then he shal bear his iniquity.
2 Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcasse of an unclean beast, or a carkasse of unclean cattle, or the carkasse of unclean creeping things, & if it be hidden from him,
he also shall be unclean, and guilty:
3 Or if he touch the uncleanesse of man, whatsoever uncleanesse it be that a man shal be defiled with all, and it be hid from him, when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty:
4 Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lipse to do evill, or to do good whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him, when he knoweth of it, then he shal be guilty in one of these.
5 And it shal be when he shal be guilty in one of these things, that he shal confess that he hath sinned in that thing.
6 And he shal bring his trespas-offring unto the Lord for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats for a sin-offering: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.
7 And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shal bring for his trespas which he hath committed, two turtle doves, or two young pigeons to the LORD: one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering.
8 And he shal bring them unto the Priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin-offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder.
9 And he shal sprinkle of the blood of the sin-offring on y side of the altar, and y rest of y blood shall be wrung out at y bottom of y altar: it is a sin-offring.
10 And he shal offer the second for a burnt-offering, according to the manner: and the Priest shal make an atonement for him for his sin which he had sinned, and it shal be forgiven him.

11 But if he be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, then he y sinned, shal bring for his offring, the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flowr for a sin offering: he shall put no oyle vpon it, neither shal he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sinne offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to y Priest, & the Priest shall take his handful of it, even a memoriall thereof, & burn it on y Altar, according to the offrings made by fire to the Lord: it is a sin offring.

13 And y Priest shal make an atonement for him, as touching his sinne that he hath sinned in one of these, and he shalbe forgiven him: and y remnant shalbe the Priests, as a meat offering.

14 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

15 If a soule commit a trespasse, and sinne through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD: then he shall bring for his trespasse to the LORD, a ramme without blemish out of the flocke, with thy estimation by shekels of y silver, after the shekel of the Sanctuary for a trespasse offering.

16 And he shal make amends for the harme that he hath done in the holy thing, and shal adde the fift part thereto, and give it vnto the Priest, and the Priest shal make an atonement for him with the ramme of the trespasse offering, and it shal be forgiven him.

17 And if a soule sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD, though he wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall beare his iniquity.

18 And hee shall bring a ram without blemish out of y flock, & thy estimation for a trespasse offering to y Priest: & y Priest shal make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred & wist it not: & it shalbe forgiven him.

19 It as a trespasse offring: he hath certainely trespassed against the LORD.

CHAP. VI.

1 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

2 If a soul sin & commit a trespasse against y Lord, & lie to his neighbour in y was deliuered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing take away by violence, or deceived his neighbour,

3 Or haue found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely in any of all these that a man doth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shalbe, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shal restore that which he took violently away, or y thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was deliuered him to keep, or the lost thing y he found,

5 Or any about y he hath sworn falsely: he shal euē restore it in y principal, & shal adde y fift part more thereto, & give it to him to whō it appertaineth, in y day of his trespasse offering.

6 And he shal bring his trespasse offring to y Lord, a ram without blemish out of the flocke, with thy estimation, for a trespasse offering vnto the Priest.

7 And the Priest shal make atonement for him before y Lord: & he forgiven him, for any thing that he hath done in trespassing.

8 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sonnes, This is y law of y burnt offring: burnt offering, because of the fire upon y Altar all night vnto the morning, & the fire of the Altar shalbe burned vpon it.

10 And the Priest shal put on his linnen garment, & his linnen breeches shalbe put vpon his flesh, and take the ashes which the fire hath made with the burnt offering on the Altar, and he shal put them beside the Altar.

11 And he shal put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the host vnto a cleare place.

12 And the fire vpon the altar shall be burning in it: it shal not be put out: and the Priest shal burne wood vpon it every morning, & lay the burnt offering in order vpon it: & he shall burne thereon the fat of the peace offrings.

13 The fire shal ever be burning vpon the Altar: it shal never go out.

14 And this is the law of the meat offering, the sons of Aaron shal offer it before the LORD, before the Altar.

15 And he shal take of it his handful of the flowre of the meat offring, and of the oyle thereof: and all the frankincense which is vpon the meat offering, and shal burne it vpon the Altar, for a sweet sauour, euen the memorial of it vnto the LORD.

16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eate: with vnleauened bread shal it be eaten in y holy place: in the court of the Tabernacle of the congregation they shall eate it.

17 It shall not be baken with leauen. I haue giuen it vnto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as is the sinne offring, and as the trespasse offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eate of it. It shalbe a statute for ever in your generations, concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: euery one that toucheth them, shalbe holy.

19 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and his sons which they shal offer vnto the LORD in y day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flowr for a meat offering perpetually, half of it in the morning, & half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shalbe made with oyle, when it is baken: & shalt bring it in: & in baken pieces of y meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet sauour to the LORD.

22 And the Priest of his sonnes that is anointed in his stead, shal offer it: it is a statute for ever vnto the LORD: it shal be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat offering for the Priest shal be wholly burnt: it shal not be eaten.

24 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

Speak unto Aaron & to his sons, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt-offering is killed, shall the sin-offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy. The Priest that offereth it for sin, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereupon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

All the males among the Priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

And no sin-offering whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

CHAP. VII.

Likewise this is the law of the trespasse offering: it is most holy.

In the place where they kill the burnt-offering, shall they kill the trespasse offering: & the blood thereof shall he sprinkled round about the altar.

And the fat offer of it all, the fat thereof the rump, & the fat that covereth the inwards,

And the two kidneys, & the fat that is on them which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

And the Priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire to the LORD: it is a trespasse offering.

Every male among the Priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place; it is most holy.

As the sin-offering is, so is the trespasse offering, there is one law for them: the Priest that maketh atonement therewith, shall have it.

And the Priest that offereth any man's burnt-offering, even the Priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt-offering which he hath offered.

And all the meat-offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pannand in the pan shall be the Priests that offereth it.

And every meat-offering mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

If he offer it for a thank-giving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil of fine flour fryed.

Besides y cakes he shal offer for his offering leavened bread, with the sacrifice of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings.

And of it he shal offer one out of y whole oblation for an heave-offring to y Lord, & it shalbe the Priests that prinkled y blood of y peace-offrings.

And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thank-giving shall be eaten y same day y it is offered, he shall not leave any of it to y morning.

But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntarie offring, it shalbe eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice. & on the morrow also the remainder of it shal be eaten.

But y remainder of y flesh of y sacrifice on y third day shalbe burnt in fire.

And if any of the flesh of y sacrifice of his peace-offrings be eaten at al on the third day, it shal not be accepted, neither shal it be imputed to him y offereth it: it shal be an abomination, & y soul y eateth of it shal bear his iniquity.

And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing, shall not be eaten: it shalbe burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, al that be clean shal eat thereof.

But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offrings that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanesse upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

Moreover the soul that shal touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanesse of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of y sacrifice of peace-offrings which pertain unto the LORD, even y soul shal be cut off from his people.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner fat of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

And the fat of the beast that dieth of it self, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used, in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it, shall be cut off from his people.

Moreover ye shal eat no manner of blood, whether it be of of foul or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,

Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace-offrings unto the LORD, shall bring his oblation unto the LORD, of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings.

His own hands shall he bring the offering of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast: it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave-offring before the LORD.

And the Priest shall burn the fat upon the alear: but the breft shall be Aarons and his sons.

And y right shoulder shal ye give unto unto the Priest for an heave-offering of the sacrifices of your peace-offrings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron that offereth the blood of the peace-offrings, and the fat, shal have the right shoulder for his part.
34 For the wave breast, and ỹ heave-shoulder, have I taken of ỹ children of Israel, frō all ỹ sacrifices of their peace offrings, & have given the to Aaron ỹ Priest, & unto his sons by a statute for ever, from among ỹ children of Israel.
35 This is ỹ portion of the anointing of Aaron, & of ỹ anointing of his sons, out of ỹ offerings of the Lord made by fire, ỹ day whē he presented the, to minister to the Lord in ỹ Priests office:
36 Which the Lord commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in ỹ day ỹ he anointed them by a statute for ever throughout their generations.
37 This is ỹ law of ỹ burnt-offring, of ỹ meatoffring, & of ỹ sin-offring, & of ỹ trespas-offring, & of ỹ consecrations & of the sacrifice of ỹ peace-offrings:
38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the Lord, in the wilderneſſe of Sinai.

CHAP. VIII.

AND ỹ Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Take Aaron & his sons wt him, & ỹ garments, & the anointing oyl and a bullock for the sin-offering, and two rams, & a basket of unleavened bread.
3 And gather thou al the congregation together, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the Lord commanded to be done.
6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water.
7 And he put on him ỹ coat, & girded him wt the girdle, and cloathed him wt ỹ robes, & put ỹ Ephod upon him, & girded him wt the curious girdle of the Ephod, and bound it to him therewith.
8 And he put the breſtplate upon him: also he put in the breſtplate, the Vrim, and the Thummim.
9 And he put ỹ mytre upon his head, also upon the mytre, even on his forefront did he put ỹ golden plate, ỹ holy crown, as the Lord commanded Moses.
10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them.
11 And he sprinkled ther of upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar, and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot to sanctifie them.
12 And he powred of the anointing oil upon Aarons head, and anointed him, to sanctifie him.
13 And Moses brought Aarons sons & put coats upon them, and girded them wt girdles, and put bonnets upon them, as the LORD commanded Moses.
14 And he brought the bullock for sin-offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock, for the sin-offering.
15 And he slew it, & Moses took the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar round about wt his finger, & purified the altar, and powred the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it to make reconciliation upon it.
16 And he took al the fat that was on the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys & their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.
17 But ỹ bullock, & his hide, his flesh, & his dung, he burnt wt fire without the camp, as ỹ Lord commanded Moses.
18 And he brought the ram for a burnt-offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
19 And he killed it, and Moses sprinkled the blood on ỹ altar round about.
20 And he cut ỹ ram into peices, & Moses burnt ỹ head, & ỹ peices, & the fat.
21 And he washed the inwards, & the legs in water, and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: It was a burnt-sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.
22 And he brought the other ram, even the ram of consecration: & Aaron & his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
23 And he slew it, and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aarons right eare, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.
24 And he brought Aarons sons, and Moses put of ỹ blood on ỹ tip of their right ears, & upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.
25 And he took the fat, and the rump, & all the fat ỹ was upon the inwards, and the caul above ỹ liver, and the two kidneys, & their fat, & the right shoulder.
26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread ỹ was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, & a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, & put them on the fat, and on the right shoulder.
27 And he put al upon Aarons hands, and on his sons hands and waved them for a wave-offering before the LORD.
28 And Moses took the from off their hands, and burnt them on ỹ altar upon the burnt-offering: They were consecrations for a sweet savour: It is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
29 And Moses took ỹ breſt, & waved it for a wave-offering before the LORD: for of ỹ ram of consecration it was Moses part as ỹ Lord commanded Moses.
30 And Moses took of the anointing oyl, & of ỹ blood which was upon the altar, & sprinkled it upon Aarons garments, and upon his sons garments with him; and

…ous offering.
…Aaron & his garments, and his
…and his sons garments with him,
…And Moses said to Aaron, and to
…sons, Boyl the flesh at the door of …tabernacle of the congregation: and
…there eat it with the bread that is in the …basket of consecrations: as I commanded
…saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.
…And that which remaineth of y flesh
…and of the bread shal ye burn with fire.
…And ye shal not go out of the door
…of the tabernacle of the congregation
…seven dayes untill the days of your …consecration be at an end: for seven
…dayes shall he consecrate you.
…As he hath done this day, so the …LORD hath commanded to do, to …make an atonement for you.
…Therefore shal ye abide at the door
…of the tabernacle of the congregation
…day and night seven dayes and keep the …charge of the LORD, that ye die not:
…for so I am commanded.
…So Aaron and his sons did all …things which the LORD commanded
…by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. IX.

…And it came to pass on the eight day,
…that Moses called Aaron and his …sons, and the elders of Israel.
…And he said to Aaron, Take thee a …young calf for a sin-offring, and a ram
…for a burnt-offering without blemish
…and offer them before the LORD.
…And unto the children of Israel thou …shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of …the goates for a sin-offring, & a calf &
…a lamb, both of the first yeer without
…blemish, for a burnt-offering.
…Also a bullock and a ram for peace-
…offrings to sacrifice before the Lord, &
…a meat-offring mingled with oil: for to …day the LORD will appear unto you.
…And they brought that which Moses
…commanded before the tabernacle of y
…congregation: & all the congregation
…drew neer, and stood before the Lord.
…And Moses said, This is the thing
…which the LORD commanded that …ye should do: and the glory of the …LORD shall appear unto you.
…And Moses said to Aaron, Go unto
…the altar and offer thy sin-offring, & thy
…burnt-offring & make an atonement for
…thy self, and for thy people, & offer the …offring of y people, and make an atone…ment for them, as y LORD commanded.
…Aaron therefore went unto the al…tar, and slew the calf of the sin-offring,
…which was for himself.
…And the sons of Aaron brought the …blood unto him, and he dipt his finger
…in the blood, and put it upon the horns
…of the altar, and powred out the blood
…at the bottom of the altar.
…But the fat and the kidnies, and the …caul above the liver of the sin-offering
…he burnt upon the altar, as the LORD
…commanded Moses.
…And the flesh and the hide he burnt
…with fire without the camp.
…And he slew the burnt-offring, and …his sons presented unto him the …blood, which he sprinkled round a…bout upon the altar.
…And they presented y burnt-offring
…to him, with the pieces thereof, & the …head: and he burnt them upon y altar.
…And he did wash the inwards, and …the legges, and burnt them upon the
…burnt-offering on the altar.
…And he brought the peoples offer…ing, and took the goate, which was the …sin-offering for the people, and slew it,
…and offered it for sin, as the first.
…And he brought the burnt-offering
…and offered it according to the manner.
…And he brought the meat-offring,
…and took an handfull thereof, & burnt
…it upon the altar, beside the burnt-sa…crifice of the morning.
…He slew also the bullock and the …ram, for a sacrifice of peace-offrings, w
…was for the people: and Aarons sons
…presented unto him the blood (which he …sprinkled on the altar round about,)
…And the fat of the bullock, and of
…the ram, the rump, and that which co-
…vereth the inwards, and the kidneyes,
…and the caul above the liver;
…And they put the fat on the brests,
…and he burnt the fat upon the altar:
…And y brests & the right shoulder,
…Aaron waved for a wave-offering be…fore the Lord, as Moses commanded.
…And Aaron lift up his hand towards
…the people and blessed them, and came …down from offring of the sin-offring,
…& burnt-offering, and peace-offrings.
…And Moses and Aaron went into y
…tabernacle of the congregation, & came
…out & blessed the people: & the glory
…of the Lord appeared to all the people.
…And there came a fire out from be…fore the LORD, and consumed upon
…the altar the burnt-offering & the fat:
…which when all the people saw, they
…shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAP. X.

…And Nadab & Abihu the sons of Aa-
…ron took either of them his censer,
…& put fire therein, and put incense ther-
…on, and offered strange fire before the …Lord, which he commanded them not.
…And there went out fire from the …LORD, and devoured them, and they
…died before the LORD.
…Then Moses said unto Aaron, This …is it that the LORD spake, saying, I …will be sanctified in them y come nigh
…me, and before all the people I will be …glorified: and Aaron held his peace.
…And Moses called Mishael, and El-
…zaphan the sons of Vzziel, uncle of Aa-
…ron, and said unto them, Come neer,
…carry your brethren from before the
…sanctuary out of the camp.
…So they went neer, and carried …them in their coates out of the camp,
…as Moses had said.
…And Moses said to Aaron, and to E…leazar, & to Ithamar his sons, Vncover
…not your heads, neither rend your …clothes, lest you die, & lest wrath come …upon

on al ỹ people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning ẅ the LORD hath kindled.

7 And ye shall not go out from the doór of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for ỹ anointing oil of the LORD is upon you: and they did according to the word of Moses.

8 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever, throughout your generations

10 And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

11 And ỹ ye may teach ỹ children of Israel all the statutes ẅ the Lord hath spoken to them by the hand of Moses.

12 And Moses spake unto Aaron and unto Eleazar, & unto Ithamar his sons, that were left, take the meat-offring, ỹ remaineth of the offrings of ỹ Lord made by fire, & eat it without leaven, beside the altar: for it is most holy.

13 And ye shal eat it in ỹ holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons due, of the sacrifice of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And ỹ wave breast & heave shoulder shal ye eat in a clean place, thou, & thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons due, which are given out of the sacrifice of peace offrings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave shoulder, and the wave breast shal they bring with the offrings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offring before ỹ Lord: & it shal be thine, & thy sons ẅ thee, by a statute for ever, as ỹ LORD hath comanded.

16 And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offring, and behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazer and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin-offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said to Moses, Behold, this day have they offred their sin-offering, and their burnt-offring before the LORD, and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin-offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

CHAP. XI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto ỹ children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts ỹ ye shal eat among all the beasts ỹ are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, & is cloven footed, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shal ye eat.

4 Nevertheless, these shal ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof, he is unclean unto you.

5 And the Cony, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof, he is unclean unto you.

6 And the Hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof, he is unclean unto you.

7 And the Swine, though he divideth the hoof, & he cloven footed, yet he cheweth not ỹ cud: he is unclean unto you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, & their carkasse shal ye not touch: they are unclean to you.

9 These shal ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins & scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shal ye eat.

10 And all that hath not fins & scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that moove in the waters, & of any living thing which is in the waters, they shal be an abomination unto you.

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but you shall have them in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls, they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, & the ossifrage, and the ospray.

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind:

15 Every raven after his kind:

16 And ỹ owl, and ỹ night hawk, and the cuckow, and ỹ hawk after his kind.

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier-eagle,

19 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fouls that creep going upon four, shal be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat, of every creeping thing ỹ goeth upon four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth.

22 Even these of them ye may eat: the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, & ỹ grashopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things which have four feet, shal be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shal be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carkasse of them, shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carkasse of them, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

the carkasses of every beast which hath the hoof, and is not cloven footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.
And what soever goeth upon his feet, amongst all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carkasse, shall be unclean until the Even.
And he that beareth the carkas of them shall wash his cloths, & be unclean until the Even: they are unclean to you.
These also shall be unclean to you,
among the creeping things that creep upon the earth, the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind,
And the ferret, and ye camelion, & the lizard, and the snail, and ye mole
These are unclean to you among all that creep, whoso ever doth touch them when they be dead, shall be unclean until the Even.
And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean, whether it be any vessell of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the Even: so it shall be cleansed.
And every earthen vessel, wherin any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean, & ye shal break it.
Of all meat which may be eaten, y^t upon which water cometh shall be unclean: And all drink y^t may be drunk in every such vessell, shall be unclean.
And every thing whereupon any part of their carkas falleth, shall be unclean: whether it be oven or ranges for to set on, they shall be broke down, for they are unclean, & shal be unclean to you.
Nevertheless, a fountain or pit wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carkasse shall be unclean.
And if any part of their carkasse fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sowen, it shall be clean.
But if any water be put upon the seed and any part of their carkasse fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.
And if any beast of which ye may eat, is dead, whoso toucheth ye carkasse thereof shall be unclean until the Even.
And he that eateth of the carkas of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the Even: he also that beareth the carkasse of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until ye even.
And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, shall be an abomination: it shall not be eaten.
Whatsoever goeth upon ye belly, & whatsoever goeth on all four, or whatsoever hath more feet amõg al creping things y^t creep on ye earth, them ye shal not eat: for they are an abomination.
Ye shall not make your selves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth; neither shall ye make your selves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.
For I am ye Lord your God, ye shal therefore sanctify your selves, and ye shall be holy: for I am holy: neither shal ye defile your selves with any maner of creeping thing y^t creepeth on ye earth.
For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God: ye shal therefore be holy, for I am holy.
This is ye law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, & of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:
To make a difference betweene the unclean and the clean, and betweene the beast that may be eaten, and ye beast that may not be eaten.

CHAP. XII.

And ye LORD spake to Moses saying,
Speak unto the children of Israel saying, If a woma have conceived seed & born a man child, then she shall be unclean seven dayes: according to the dayes of the separation of her infirmity shall she be unclean.
And in the eight day, the flesh of his foreskin shal be circumcised, And she shal then continue in the blood of her purifying three & thirty dayes: She shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into ye sanctuary, till the dayes of her purifying be fulfilled.
But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: & she shal continue in ye blood of her purifying threescore & six dates.
And when the dates of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first yeer for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle dove for a sin-offering unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation unto the priest:
Who shal offer it before ye LORD, and make an atonement for her, and she shal be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.
And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shal bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, the one for the burnt-offering, and the other for a sin offring: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, & she shall be clean.

CHAP. XIII.

And the LORD spake unto Moses
and Aaron, saying,
When a man shal have in the skin,
of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosie, then he shal be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests.
And the Priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper then the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: & ye priest shal look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If ỹ bright ſpot be white in the skin of his fleſh, and in ſight be not deeper then the skin, and ỹ hair ther of be not turned white, then ỹ Prieſt ſhal ſhut up him that hath the plague, ſeven dayes.
5 And the Prieſt ſhal look on him the ſeventh day, and behold, if the plague in his ſight be at a ſtay, and the plague ſpread not in the skin, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut him up ſeven dayes more.
6 And the Prieſt ſhall look on him again the ſeventh day, and behold, if the plague be ſomewhat dark, and ỹ plague ſpread not in the skin, the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean: it is but a ſcab. & he ſhal waſh his clothes, & be clean.
7 But if the ſcab ſpread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been ſeen of the Prieſt for his cleaning, he ſhal be ſeen of the Prieſt again.
8 And if the Prieſt ſee, that behold, the ſcab ſpreadeth in the skin, then the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean, it is a leproſie.
9 When the plague of leproſie is in a man, then he ſhall be brought unto the Prieſt:
10 And the Prieſt ſhal ſee him: and behold, if the riſing be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white and there be quick raw fleſh in the riſing:
11 It is an old leproſie in the skin of his fleſh, and the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him unclean, and ſhal not ſhut him up: for he is unclean.
12 And if a leproſie break out abroad in the skin, and the leproſie cover all the skin of him that hath the plague, from his head even to his foot, wherſoever the Prieſt looketh:
13 Then the Prieſt ſhal conſider: and lo, if the leproſie have covered all his fleſh, he ſhal pronounce him clean ỹ hath ỹ plague, it is all turned white, he is clean.
14 But when raw fleſh appeareth in him, he ſhal be unclean.
15 And ỹ Prieſt ſhal ſee the raw fleſh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw fleſh is unclean: it is a leproſie.
16 Or if the raw fleſh turn again, and be changed unto white, he ſhall come unto the Prieſt:
17 And the Prieſt ſhal ſee him, and behold, if ỹ plague be turned into white, then the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.
18 The fleſh alſo in which, even in the skin thereof was a bile, & is healed,
19 And in the place of the bile there be a white riſing, or a bright ſpot, white, and ſomewhat reddiſh, and it be ſhewed to the Prieſt:
20 And if when the Prieſt ſeeth it, behold it be in ſight lower then the skin and ỹ hair ther of be turned white, the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leproſie broke out of ỹ bile.
21 But if the Prieſt look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs therein, & if it be not lower then the skin but be ſomewhat dark, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut him up ſeven dayes.
22 And if it ſpread much abroad in the skin, then the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean, it is a plague.
23 But if the bright ſpot ſtay in his place, & ſpread not, it is a burning and ỹ Prieſt ſhal pronounce him clean.
24 Or if there be any fleſh in the whereof there is a hot burning, & the quick fleſh that burneth ſhall have a bright ſpot ſomwhat reddiſh or white:
25 Then ỹ Prieſt ſhal look on it, and behold, if the hair in the bright ſpot be turned white, and it be in ſight deeper then the skin, it is a leproſie broke out of the burning: wherfore ỹ Prieſt ſhal pronounce him unclean it is ỹ plague of leproſie.
26 But if the Prieſt look on it, and behold, there be no white hair in the bright ſpot, and it be not lower then the other skin, but be ſomewhat dark, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut him up ſeven dayes:
27 And the Prieſt ſhall look on him the ſeventh day: and if it be much abroad in the skin, then the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leproſie.
28 And if ỹ bright ſpot ſtay in his place & ſpread not in ỹ skin, but it be what dark, it is a riſing of ỹ burning, and the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of ỹ burning.
29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head, or the beard,
30 Then the Prieſt ſhall ſee ỹ plague: and behold, if it be in ſight deeper then the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair, then the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean, it is a dry ſcall, even a leproſie upon the head or beard.
31 And if the prieſt look on the plague of the ſcall, and behold, it be not in ſight deeper then the skin, and that there is no black hair in it, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut up him that hath the plague of the ſcal ſeven dayes.
32 And in the ſeventh day the Prieſt ſhal look on the plague: and behold, if the ſcall ſpread not, and there be no yellow hair, and the ſcal be not in ſight deeper then the skin,
33 He ſhal be ſhaven, but the ſcal he not ſhave: & the Prieſt ſhal ſhut up him that hath ỹ ſcal, ſeven dayes more.
34 And in the ſeventh day the Prieſt ſhal look on the ſcal: and lo, if the ſcall be not ſpread in the skin, nor be in ſight deeper then the skin: then the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean: and he ſhall waſh his clothes, and be clean.
35 But if the ſcall ſpread much in the skin after his cleanſing,
36 Then the Prieſt ſhall look on him, and behold, if the ſcal be ſpread in the skin, the Prieſt ſhal not ſeek for yellow hair: he is unclean.
37 But if ỹ ſcal be in his ſight at a ſtay, & that there is black hair grown therein: ỹ ſcal is healed, he is clean: and the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean.
38 If a man alſo or a woman have in the skin of their fleſh bright ſpots, even white bright ſpots.

2 Then the Priest shall look; & behold, if bright spots in y skin of thein be darkish white, it is a frecht-like sory groweth in y skin: & it is cleane.
And the man whose haire is fallen off the head: he is bald, yet he is cleane.
And he y hath his haire fallen off his part of his head toward his face is forehead bald: yet is he cleane.
And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore it is leprosie sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.
Then the Priest shall look upon it:
behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his balde head, or in his bald forehead: as the leprosie ap-peareth in the skin of the flesh.
He is a leprous man, he is unclean:
the Priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean: his plague is in his head.
And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare; and he shall put a cover upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.
All the dayes wherein the plague shall be in him, he shall be defiled, he is unclean: he shall dwell alone, without the campe shall his habitation be.
The garment also of that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linnen garment;
Whether it be in y warpe or woof, of linnen or of woollen: whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin:
And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin either in the warpe, or in the woofe: or in any thing of skin: it is a plague of leprosie, & shal be shewed to the Priest.
And the Priest shall looke upon the plague, and shut up that hath the plague seven dayes.
And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if y plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woofe; or in a skin, or in any worke that is made of skin, the plague is a fretting leprosie; it is unclean.
He shall therefore burn y garment, either warpe or woofe, in woollen, or in linnen, or any thing of skin: whether the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie, it shall be burnt in the fire.
And the Priest shall command y they wash the thing wherein y plague is in, & he shall shut it up seven dayes more.
And the Priest shall looke on the plague after that it is washed: and behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, & the plague be not spread, it is unclean: thou shalt burn it in the fire, it is inward, whether it be bare within or without.
And if the Priest looke, & behold, the plague be somewhat darke after the washing of it, & he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skinne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.
And if it appeare still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin, it is a spreading plague, thou shalt burne that wherein the plague is with fire.
And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be cleane.
This is the law of the plague of leprosie in a garment of woollen or linnen, either in the warp or woofe, or any thing of skinnes, to pronounce it cleane, or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAP. XIIII.

And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
This shall be y law of the leper, in the day of his cleansing: he shall be brought to the Priest.
And the Priest shall go forth out of the campe, and the Priest shall looke, and behold, if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper:
Then shall the Priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed, two birds alive, and cleane, and Cedar wood, and skarlet, and hyssope.
And the Priest shall command that one of the birdes be killed over an earthen vessel, over running water.

3 Thus shal Aaron come into ỹ holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offring, and a ramme for a burnt offring.

4 He shal put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linnen breeches upon his flesh, and shal be girded with a linnen girdle, and with the linnen Mitre, shall he be attired. These are holy garments: therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, & so put them on.

7 And he shall take ỹ two goats, and present them before ỹ Lord at ỹ doore of the Tabernacle of ỹ congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goates: one for the Lord, & the other lot for the Scape-goate.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goate upon which the LORDS lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering.

10 But the goat on which the lot fell to be the Scape goat, shal be presented alive before the Lord, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a Scape-goat into the wildernes.

11 And Aaron shal bring the bullock of the sin offring which is for himself, & shal make an atonement for himself, & for his house, and shall kill ỹ bullock of ỹ sin offring which is for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coales of fire from off the Altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the vaile.

16 And he shal make an atonement ỹ holy place, because of the unclean of the children of Israel, & becau their transgressions, in all their sin so shall he do for the tabernacle of congregation that remaineth amo them in the midst of their uncleane

17 And there shall be no man in tabernacle of the Congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement the holy place, untill hee come and have made an atonement for himselfe, and for his household and all the Congregation of Israel.

19 And he shal sprinkle of the bloud upon it with his finger seven times, & cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleannesse of the children of Israel.

20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling, the holy place and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat.

21 And Aaron shal lay both his hands upon ỹ head of ỹ live goat, & confess over him all ỹ iniquities of ỹ children of Israel, & all their transgressions in their sins, putting them upon ỹ head of the goat, & shal send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wildernesse.

22 And the goate shall beare upon him all their iniquities, unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wildernesse.

6 And he y burneth them, shal wash is cloathes, & bath his flesh in water & terward he shal come into the campe y And this shalbe a statute for ever enth day of y moneth, ye shall afflict our soules, & do no work at al; wheher it be one of your owne countrey, or stranger that sojourneth among you.

30 For on that day shall the Priest ake an atonement for you to cleanse ou, that ye may be cleane from all our sinnes before the LORD.
31 It shal be a Sabbath of rest unto ou, and ye shall afflict your soules by statute for ever.
32 And the Priest whom he shall anoint, and whom her shall consecrate to minister in the Priests office in his fathers stead, shal make the atonement, and shall put on the linnen cloathes,
even the holy garments.
33 And he shal make an atonemet for the holy Sanctuary, & he shal make an atonement for y Tabernacle of y Congregation, & for y altar: and he shall make an atonement for the Priests, & for all the people of the Congregation.
34 And this shall bee an ever lasting statute unto you; to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins once a yeere. And he did as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAP. XVII.

1 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, & say to them: This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying, 3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox or lamb, or goat in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp.
4 And bringeth it not unto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to offer an offering to the Lord before the Tabernacle of the LORD:
blood shall be imputed unto y man he hath shed blood, and that man shal be cut off from among his people:
5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices & they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them to the Lord, unto the door of y Tabernacle of the congregation unto the Priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD.
6 And the Priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the Altar of the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & burn the fat for a swetsavour unto the LORD.
7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto the devils, after whom they have gone a whoring: This shal be a statute for ever unto them, thorough out their generations.
8 And thou shalt say to them, whatsoever man there be of y hous of Israel or of y strangers y sojourn amog you y offereth a burnt offring or sacrifice 9 And bringeth it not unto y door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to offer it to the Lord, even that man
shal be cut off from among his people.
10 And what soever man there be of y house of Israel, or of y strangers y sojourn among you, y eateth any manner of blood: I wil even set my face against that soule that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.
11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the Altar, to make an atonement for your soules: for it is the blood, that maketh an atonement for the soule.
12 Therefore I said to the children of Israel no soul of you shal eat blood neither shal any stranger that sojour-neth among you eat blood.
13 And whatsoever man there be of y
children of Israel, or of the strangers y sojourn among you, which hunteth & catcheth any beast or foule that may be eaten, he shal even powre out y blood thereof, and cover it with dust:
14 For it is y life of all flesh: y blood of it is for y life thereof therefore I said to the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of al flesh is the blood thereof:
whosoever eateth it, shall be cut off.
15 And every soule that eateth that which died of it self, or that which was torne with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean vntill the even: then shall he be cleane.
16 But if he wash them not, nor bath his flesh, then he shall beare his iniquity.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Speake to the children of Israel,
& say to them, I am y Lord your God.
3 After y doings of the land of Egypt wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan whither I bring you, shal ye not doe:
neither shal ye walk in their ordinances 4 Ye shal do my judgments and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the Lord your God.
5 Ye shal therefore keep my statutes
& my judgements: which if a man do, he shal live in them: I am the Lord.
6 None of you shal approach to any that is neere of kin to him, to uncover their nakednesse: I am the LORD.
7 The nakednesse of thy father, or the nakednesse of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother, thou shalt not uncover her nakednesse.
8 The nakednes of thy fathers wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy fathers nakednes.
9 The nakednes of thy sister y daugheter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother whether she be born at home, or born abroad, eve their nakednes y shalt not uncover.

40 The nakednesse of thy sons daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, eue their nakednesse thou shalt not uncouer: for theirs is thine owne nakednes.
11 The nakednesse of thy fathers wyues daughter, begotten of thy father (sith she is thy sister) thou shalt not uncouer her nakednes.
12 Thou shalt not uncouer the nakednes of thy fathers sister: she is thy fathers nere kinswoman.
13 Thou shalt not uncouer the nakednes of thy mothers sister: for she is thy mothers nere kinswoman.
14 Thou shalt not uncouer ỹ nakednes of thy fathers brother: thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt 15 Thou shalt not uncouer the nakednes of thy daughter in law: she is thy sonnes wife, thou shalt not uncouer her nakednesse.
16 Thou shalt not uncouer the nakednes of thy brothers wife: it is thy brothers nakednesse.
17 Thou shalt not uncouer the nakednes of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt ỹ take her sonne daughter, or her daughters daughter, to un-couer her nakednes: for they are her nere kinswomen: it is wickednes.
18 Neither shalt ỹ take a wife to her sister to vexe her, to uncouer the nakednes besides ỹ other in her life time.
19 Also thou shalt not approach vnto a woman to uncouer her nakednes, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanes 20 Moreouer thou shalt not lie car-nally with thy neighbours wife, to defile ỹ selfe with her.
21 And thou shalt not let any of thy seed passe through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou prophane the Name of thy God: I am the LORD.
22 Thou shalt not lie with mankinde, as with womankinde: it is abomination.
23 Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thy selfe therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lye downe to couple her self vnto it:
it is confusion.
24 Defile not you your selues in any of these things: for in all these things are defiled, which I cast out before you.
25 And ỹ land is defiled: therefore I do visite ỹ iniquitie thereof vpon it, & ỹ land it self vomiteth out her inhabitants.
26 Ye shall therefore keep my Statutes, and my Iudgements, and shall not commit any of these abominations, neither any of your owne nation, nor any stranger ỹ sojourneth among you 27 (For all these abominations haue the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled.) 28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.
29 For whosoeuer shall commit any of these abominations, even the soules that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.
30 Therefore shall ỹ keepe my ordinance
ỹ ye commit not any one of these abominable customes, wherewith committed before you, & that you defile not selues therein: I am the LORD your God.

CHAP. XIX.

AND ỹ LORD spake to Moses, sa-2 Speake vnto all the congregation of the children of Israel, & say vnto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.
3 Ye shall feare euery man his mother and his father, and keepe my Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.
4 Turne ye not vnto idols, nor make to your selues molten gods: I am the LORD your God.
5 And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings vnto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your owne will.
6 It shall be eaten ỹ same day ye offer it, & on ỹ morrow: & if ought be left vntil ỹ third day, it shalbe burnt with fire.
7 And if it be eaten at all on ỹ third day,
it is abominable: it shall not be accepted.
8 Therefore euery one that eateth shall beare his iniquity, because he hath prophaned the hallowed thing of the LORD, and that soule shall be cut off from among his people.
9 And when ye reape the haruest of your land, thou shalt not make cleane corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy haruest.
10 And thy vine yard shalt thou not glean, neither shalt thou gather euery grape of thy vineyard, thou shalt leaue them for the poore & stranger: I am the LORD your God.
11 Ye shall not steale, neither deale falsely, neither lie one to another.
12 And ye shall not sweare by my name falsely, neither shalt ỹ prophane the Name of thy God: I am the LORD.
13 Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.
14 Thou shalt not curse the deafe, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt feare thy God, I am the LORD.
15 Ye shall do no vnrighteousnes in iudgement: thou shalt not respect the person of the poore, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righte-ousnes shalt thou iudge thy neighbour.
16 Thou shalt not go vp and down as a tale-bearer among thy people, neither shalt thou stand against the life of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.
17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: ỹ shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, & not suffer sin on him.
18 Thou shalt not auenge nor beare

21 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme of the trespasse offering before the LORD, for his sinne which he hath done: and his sinne which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

22 And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count yfruit thereof as uncircumcised; three yeares shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in y fourth yeer all y fruit thereof shall be holy to praise y LORD withal.

25 And in y fift yeer shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, y it may yeeld to you y increase thereof: I am the LORD your God

26 Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood: neither shall ye use enchantments, nor observe times.

27 Ye shall not round the corners of your heads: neither shalt thou marre the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any markes upon you: I am the LORD.

29 Ie not prostitute thy daughter to cause her to be a whore: lest the land fall to whoredome, and the land become full of wickednesse.

30 Ye shall keepe my Sabbaths, and reverence my Sanctuary: I am y LORD.

31 Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards to be defiled by them: I am y Lord your God.

32 Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, & honour y face of the old man, and feare thy God: I am the LORD.

33 And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vexe him.

34 But the stranger that dwelleth with you, shall be as one borne amongst you, and thou shalt love him as thy selfe: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

35 Ye shall do no unrighteousnesse in judgement, in meteyard, in weight, nor in measure.

36 Iust ballances, iust weights, a iust Ephah, and a iust Hin shall ye have: I am the Lord your God which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 Therefore shall ye observe all my Statutes, and all my Iudgements, and do them: I am the LORD.

CHAP. XX.

1 And the Lord spake to Moses saying:

2 Againe thou shalt say to the children of Israel, whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of y strangers that sojourne in Israel, that giveth any of his seed to Molech, he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 And I will set my face against that man, & will cut him off fro among his people, because he hath given of his seed to Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to prophane my holy Name.

4 And if the people of the land doe any wayes hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kil him not:

5 Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off and all that goe a whoring after him, to commit whoredome with Molech, from among their people.

6 And the soule that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to goe a whoring after them, I will even set my face against y soule, & will cut him off from among his people.

7 Sanctifie your selves therefore, & be ye holy: for I am the Lord your God.

8 And ye shall keepe my Statutes, & do them: I am the Lord which sanctifie you.

9 For every one that curseth his father or his mother, shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother, his blood shall be upon him.

10 And the man that committeth adultery with another mans wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbours wife, the adulterer and the adulteresse shall surely be put to death.

11 And the man that lyeth with his fathers wife, hath uncovered his fathers nakednesse: both of them shall be put to death, their blood shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion, their blood shall be upon them.

13 If a man also lye with man-kind as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death, their blood shall be upon them.

14 And if a man take a wife, and her mother, it is wickednesse, they shall be burnt with fire both he and they, that there be no wicked nesse among you.

15 And if a man ly with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie downe thereto, thou shalt kil the woman & the beast: they shall surely be put to death: their blood shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, and see her nakednesse, and she see his nakednesse: it is a wicked thing, & they shall be cut off in y sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sisters nakednesse, he shall bear his iniquitie.

18 And if a man shall ly with a woman having her sickenesse, and shall uncover her nakednesse, he hath discovered her fountaine, and she hath uncovered the fountaine of her blood: & both of them shall be cut off fro among their people.

19 And thou shalt not uncover y nakednesse of thy mothers sister, nor of thy fathers sister, for he uncovereth his nere kinsman: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncles wife, hee hath discovered his uncles cles nakednesse: they shall beare their sin, they shal die childlesse.

21 And if a man shall take his brothers wife, it is an uncleane thing: he hath uncovered his brothers nakednesse, they shal be childlesse.
22 Ye shal therfore keep all my statutes, and al my judgments, & do them:
that the land whither I bring you to dwel therin, spew you not out.
23 And ye shal not walk in the maners of the nation which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therfore I abhorred them.
24 But I have said to you, Ye shal inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possesse it, a land ẏ floweth w milk & hony: I em ẏ Lord your God, ẇ have separated you fro other people 25 Ye shal therfore put difference between clean & unclean, & between unclean fouls and clean: and ye shal not make your fouls abominable by beast or by foul, or by any maner of living thing ẏ creepeth on ẏ ground, ẇ
I have separated from you as unclean.
26 And ye shalbe holy to me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you fro other people, ẏ ye should be mine.

a familiar spirit, or ẏ is a wizard, shal surely be put to death: they shal stone die therefore, if they prophane it; I the 10 There shall no stranger eat of y holy reling shall not eat of y holy thing.

11 But the Priest buy any soul with his money, he shal eat of it, and he that is born in his house; they shall eat of his meat.
12 If the Priests daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.
13 But if the Priests daughter be a widow, or divorced, & have no child, & is returned to her fathers house as in her youth, she shal eat of her fathers meat, but there shal no stranger eat thereof.
14 And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shal put the fift

ly things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD.
16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespasse, when they eat their holy things: for I the Lord do sanctifie them.
17 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
18 Speak to Aaron, & to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, & say to them: Whatsoever he be of y house of Israel, or of y strangers in Israel, y will offer his oblatio for all his vows, & for all his free-will-offrings, w they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt-offering:
19 Ye shal offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, or of the sheep, or of the goates.
20 But whatsoever hath a blemish that is, ye not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you.
21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace-offrings to y Lord, to accomaccepted: there shal be no blemish therin 22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or ha-shal not offer these unto the Lord, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock, or a lamb, y hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, y may freely offer for a free-will-offr
ing: but for a vow it shal not be accepted.
24 Ye shal not offer unto the LORD that which is brusled, or crushed, or broken, or cut, neither shal you make any offering thereof in your land.
25 Neither from a strangers hand shal ye offer the bread of your God of any of these, because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.
26 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
27 When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat is brought forth, then it shal be seven dais under the dam, and from the eight day & thereforth, it shal be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
28 And whether it be cow or ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young, both in one day.
29 And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.
30 On the same day it shal be eaten up: ye shal leave none of it until the morrow, I am the LORD.
31 Therfore shal ye keep my cōmandments, and do them: I am the LORD.
32 Neither shal ye prophane my holy name, but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the Lord which hallow you,

Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to y children of Israel, and say to them, concerning y feast of the Lord, w ye shal proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.
3 Sixe dayes shal worke be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, an holy convocation, ye shall do no worke therein: it is the Sabbath of the Lord in al your dwellings.
4 These are the feasts of the Lord, even holy convocations, which ye shal proclaime in their seasons.
5 In the fourteenth day of the first moneth at even is y Lords Passeover.
6 And on the fifteenth day of the same moneth, is y feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord: seven dayes ye must eate unleavened bread.
7 In the first day ye shal have an holy convocation: yee shall do no servile worke therein:
8 But ye shal offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord seven dayes: in y seventh day is an holy convocation:
Ye shal do no servile work therein.
9 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
10 Speak to the children of Israel, & say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shal reape the harvest therof, then ye must bring a sheafe of the first fruits of your harvest unto the Priest:
11 And he shal wave y sheafe before y Lord to be accepted for you: on y morrow after y Sabath y Priest shal wave it.
12 And ye shal offer that day, when ye wave the sheafe, an he lambe without blemish of the first yeere, for a burnt offering unto the LORD.
13 And the meat offring thereof shal be two tenth deals of fine flour, mingled with oyle, an offering made by fire unto the Lord, for a sweet savour: and the drinke offering thereof shal be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

14 And ye shal eate neither bread, nor parched corne, nor greene eares, vntill ỹ selfe same day that ye have brought an offering vnto your God: It shal be a statute for ever throughout your generations, in al your dwellings.

15 And ye shal count to you from the morrow after the Sabbath, from ỹ day that ye brought ỹ sheaf of ỹ wave offering: seven Sabbaths shal be compleat,

16 Even vnto the morrow after ỹ seventh Sabbath, shall ye number fifty dayes: and ye shal offer a new meat offering vnto the LORD.

17 Ye shal bring out of your habitation two wave loaves of two tenth deales: they shalbe of fine floure, they shalbe baken with leaven, they are the first fruits vnto the LORD.

18 And ye shal offer with ỹ bread seuē lambes without blemish of the first yeer, and one young bullock, and two rammes: they shal be for a burnt offering to ỹ Lord, with their meat offring and their drinke offerings, even an offering made by fire of swette fauour vnto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goates, for a sin offering, & two lambs of the first yeere, for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And ỹ Priest shal wave them with ỹ bread of ỹ first fruits, for a wave offering before ỹ Lord, with the two lambes: they shalbe holy to ỹ Lord for ỹ Priests.

21 And ye shal proclaim on ỹ selfsame day, that it may be an holy conuocation to you: ye shal do no seruile work therein: it shalbe a statute for euer in al your dwellings, throughout your generations.

22 And when ye reape the harvest of your land, ỹ shalt not make cleane riddance of the corners of the field, when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: then shalt leave them vnto the poore, and to the strangers: I am the Lord your God.

23 And the Lord spake to Moses saying,

24 Speake to the children of Israel, saying, in the seventh moneth, in the first day of the moneth shal ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy conuocation.

25 Ye shall do no seruile work therein: but yee shall offer an offering made by fire vnto the LORD.

26 And ỹ Lord spake to Moses, saying,

27 Also on ỹ tenth day of this seuēth moneth there shal be a day of atonement: It shal be an holy conuocatiō to you, & ye shal afflict your soules, & offer an offering made by fire to ỹ LORD.

28 And ye shal doe no worke in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoeuer soule it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shal be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoeuer soul it be that do the any worke in that same day, the same soul will I destroy frō amōg his people.

31 Ye shal do no manner of work: it shalbe a statute for ever throughout your generations, in al your dwellings.

32 It shal be to you a Sabbath of rest, & ye shal afflict your soules: in the ninth day of the moneth at Euen, from Euen to Euen, shal ye celebrate your Sabbath.

33 And the Lord spake to Moses saying,

34 Speak to ỹ children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this moneth shal be the feast of tabernacles for seuen dayes vnto the Lord.

35 On ỹ first day shal be an holy conuocatiō: ye shal do no seruile work therein.

36 Seuen dayes shal ye offer an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: on the eight day shal be an holy conuocation to you, & ye shal offer an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: it is a solemne assembly, & ye shall do no seruile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the Lord, which ye shall proclaime to be holy conuocations, to offer an offering made by fire vnto the Lord, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drinke offerings, euery thing vpon his day:

38 Besides the Sabbaths of the Lord, and besides your gifts, & besides your vowes, and besides all your freewillings which ye giue vnto the Lord.

39 Also on ỹ fifteenth day of the seuenth moneth, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shal keep a feast vnto the LORD seuen dayes: on the first day shal be a Sabbath.

40 And ye shal take you on ỹ first day boughes of goodly trees branches of palm-trees, & ỹ boughes of thick trees, & willows of ỹ brook, & ye shal reioyce before ỹ Lord your God seuen dayes.

41 And ye shal keep it a feast vnto the Lord seuen dayes in the yeere: it is a statute for euer in your generations: ye shal celebrate it in ỹ seuenth moneth.

42 Yee shall dwell in booths seuen dayes: all that are Israelites borne shall dwel in boothes:

43 That your generations may know that I made ỹ children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

44 And Moses declared vnto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

CHAP. XXIIII.

AND ỹ Lord spake to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they bring to thee pure oliue oile beaten for the light, to cause the lampe to burne continually.

3 Without the vaile of the Testimony in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, shall Aaron order it from euening vnto the morning, before the LORD continually. It shal be a statute for euer in your generations.

4 He shal order the lampes vpon the candlestickes before the Lord continually.

5 And thou shalt take fine floure, and bake twelue cakes therof: two tenth deales shalbe in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes, six on a row, vpon the pure table before the LORD.

And thou shalt put pure frankin-se upon each row, that it may be o bread for a memorial, even an fering made by fire to the LORD.
Every Sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually being taken from the children of I rael by an everlasting Covenant.
10 And the sonne of Aaron & his sons, & shall eate it in y holy place: for it is most holy to him of the offrings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetuall statute 11 And the son of an Israelitish wo man whose father was an Egyptian, went out among y children of Israel: & this son of the Israelitish woman, & a man of Israel strove together in y camp 12 And y Israelitish womans son blasphemed y Name of the Lord, & cursed:
& they brought him to Moses, & his mothers name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan 13 And they put him in ward, that the mind of y Lord might be shewed them.
14 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying 15 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp, & let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, & let all the Congregation stone him.
16 And thou shalt speake unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God, shall beare his sinne.
17 And he that blasphemeth y Name of y Lord, he shall surely be put to death & all the Congregation shal certainely stone him: as well a stranger, as he y is borne in y land, when he blasphemeth y
Name of y Lord, shall be put to death.
18 And he that killeth any man, shall surely be put to death.
19 And he that killeth a beast, shall make it good: beast for beast.
20 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour, as he hath done, so shall it be done to him:
21 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again 22 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.
23 Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your owne countrey: for I am the Lord your God.
24 And Moses spake to y children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed, out of y camp & stone him with stones: & y children of Israel did as y Lord commanded Moses.

CHAP. XXV.

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses in Mount Sinai, saying,
2 Speake unto the children of Israel & say unto them: When ye come into y land which I give you, then shall the land keep a Sabbath unto the Lord.
3 Six yeers thou shalt sow thy field, and six yeeres thou shalt prune thy vineyard and gather in y fruit thereof.
4 But in the seventh yeere shal be a Sabbath of rest to the land, a Sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field nor prune thy Vineyard.
5 That w groweth of it own accord of thy harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather y grape of thy vine undressed: for it is a yeer of rest unto y land.
6 And the Sabbath of the land shall be meat for you: for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maids and for thy hired servant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee.
7 And for thy cattel, and for the beast that are in thy land, shal all the increase thereof be meate.
8 And thou shalt number seven Sabbaths of yeeres unto thee, seven times seven yeers: and the space of the seven Sabbaths of yeer, shall be unto the forty & nine yeeres.
9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the Iubile to sound, on the tenth day of the seventh moneth: in the day of atonement shal ye make the trumpet sound thorowout all your land.
10 And ye shal hallow the fiftieth yeer and proclaim liberty thorowout all the land, to all the inhabitants thereof: it shalbe a Iubile to you, & ye shal return every man unto his possession, and ye shal return every man unto his family.
11 A Iubile shall that fiftieth yeer be to you: Ye shal not sow, neither reap that w groweth of it self in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.
12 For it is the Iubile it shal be holy unto you: ye shal eate the increase ther-of out of the field.
13 In the yeer of this Iubile ye shal returne every man unto his possession.
14 And if thou sel ought to thy neighbour, or buy ought of thy neighbors hand, ye shal not oppresse one another 15 According to y number of yeers after y Iubile thou shalt buy of thy neibour: and according to the number of yeers of the fruits, he shal sel to thee.
16 According to the multitude of yeers thou shalt increase the price thereof, & according to the fewnesse of yeers, thou shalt diminish y price of it: for according to the number of the yeeres of the fruits doeth he sel unto thee.
17 Ye shal not therefore oppresse one another, but thou shalt feare thy God:
For I am the LORD your God.
18 Wherefore y shal do my Statutes, and keep my Iudgements, & doe them,
and ye shal dwel in the land in safety.
19 And the land shal yeeld her fruit, & ye shal eat your fill, and dwel therin in safety.
20 And if ye shal say, What shal we eat the seventh yeer? Behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:
21 Then I will command my blessing upon you in the six yeer, and it shall bring foorth fruit for three yeers.
22 And ye shal sow the eight yeere, & eat yet of old fruit; until the ninth yeer, until her fruits come in, ye shal eat of the old store.
23 The land shal not be sold for ever:

ever: for the land is mine, for ye were strangers and sojourners with me.
24 And in all ỹ land of your possession ye shal grant a redemption for ỹ land.
25 If my brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possessiõ, & if any of his kin come to redeem it, the shal he redeem that ẅ his brother sold.
26 And if the man have none to redeem
it, and himself be able to redeem it:
27 Then let him count the yeeres of the sale thereof, & restore ỹ overplus to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return vnto his possession.
28 But if he be not able to restore it to him: then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that bought it, until the yeer of Iubile: and in the Iubile it shal goe out, and he shal return to his possession.
29 And if a man sel a dweling house in a walled city, then he may redeeme it within a whole yeere after it is sold:
within a ful yeer may he redeeme it.

space of a ful yeer, the ỹ house ỹ is in ỹ deemed, & they shal go out in ỹ jubile.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the citie of his possession shal go out in the yeer of Iubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.
34 But the field of the ſuburbs of their cities may not be sold: for it is their perpetuall possession.
35 And if thy brother be waxen poor, and I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid, and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall there go through your land.

8 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

9 And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: & your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

10 For I will have respect to you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

11 And ye shall eat old store, & bring forth the old, because of the new.

12 And I will set my tabernacle among you, and my soul shall not abhor you.

13 And I will walk among you, & will be your God, & ye shall be my people.

14 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

15 But if ye will not hearken to me, & will not do all these commandments:

16 And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgements, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

I also will do this unto you, I will appoint over you terrour, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart: & ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you, & ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the pride of your power, and will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yeeld her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yeeld their fruits.

21 And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me, I will bring seven times more plagues upon you, according to your sins.

22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number, and your high wayes shall be desolate.

23 And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things but will walk contrary to me:

24 Then will I also walk contrary to you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant, and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you, and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, & they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken to me, but walk contrary unto me,

28 Then I will walk contrary to you also in fury, and I, even I will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, & the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

30 And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carkases upon the carkases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

31 And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her Sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies land, even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her Sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate, it shall rest: because it did not rest in your Sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And on them y are left alive of you I will send a faintnes into their hearts, in y lands of your enemies, & the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them, & they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword, and they shal fal when none pursueth them.

37 And they shal fal one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shal perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shal eat you up.

39 And they y are left of you shal pine away in their iniquity in your enemies lands, & also in y iniquities of their fathers shal they pine away with them.

40 If they shal confesse their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespasse which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me:

41 And y I also have walked contrary to them, & have brought them into the land of their enemies: if their uncircumcised hearts be humbled: & they then accept of y punishment of their iniquity

42 Then will I remember my covenant of Jacob, & also my covenant of Isaac, & also my covenant of Abraham will I remember, & I will remember the land.

43 For the land also shall be left of them, and shal enjoy her Sabbaths, while it lyeth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because even because they despised my judgements, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for al that, when they be in the

the land of their enemies, I will not caſt them away, neither will I abhorre them, to deſtroy them vtterly, and to breake my Couenant with them: for I am the LORD their God.

41 But I will for their ſakes remember the couenant of their anceſtors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt, in the light of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

49 Theſe are the ſtatutes, and iudgements, and Lawes, which the Lord made betweene him and the children of Iſrael in mount Sinai by the hand of Moſes.

CHAP. XXVII.

AND the Lord ſpake to Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake to the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, when a man ſhall make a ſingular vow, the perſons ſhall be for the LORD by thy eſtimation.

3 And thy eſtimation ſhalbe of the male from twenty yeers old euen to ſixtie yeers old: euen thy eſtimation ſhalbe fifty ſhekels of ſilver after the ſhekel of the ſanctuary.

4 And if it be a female, then thy eſtimation ſhall be thirtie ſhekels.

5 And if it be from fiue yeers old, euen vnto twenty yeers old, then thy eſtimation ſhalbe of the male twenty ſhekels, and for the female ten ſhekels.

6 And if it be from a moneth old, euen vnto fiue yeers old, then thy eſtimation ſhalbe of the male fiue ſhekels of ſilver, and for the female thy eſtimation ſhall be three ſhekels of ſilver.

7 And if it be from ſixtie yeers old and aboue: if it be a male, then thy eſtimation ſhall be fifteen ſhekels, and for the female ten ſhekels.

8 But if he be poorer then thy eſtimation: then he ſhall preſent himſelf before the Prieſt, and the Prieſt ſhall value him: according to his ability that vowed, ſhall the Prieſt value him.

9 And if it be a beaſt whereof men bring an offring to the LORD, all ye any man giueth of ſuch to the Lord ſhalbe holy.

10 He ſhal not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he ſhal at al change beaſt for beaſt: then it & the exchange thereof ſhalbe holy.

11 And if it be any vncleane beaſt, of which they do not offer a ſacrifice to the LORD: then he ſhal preſent ye beaſt before the Prieſt.

12 And ye Prieſt ſhal value it, whether it be bad or good: as thou valueſt it who art the Prieſt, ſo ſhall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeeme it: then he ſhal adde a fift part thereof vnto thy eſtimation.

14 And when a man ſhal ſanctifie his houſe to be holy vnto ye LORD, then ye Prieſt ſhall eſt mate it, whether it bee good or bad: as the Prieſt ſhal eſtimate it, ſo ſhall it ſtand.

15 And if he that ſanctified it will redeem his houſe, then he ſhall adde the fift part of the money of thy eſtimation to it, and it ſhall be his.

16 And if a man ſhal ſanctifie vnto ye Lord ſome part of a field of his poſſeſſion, then thy eſtimation ſhalbe according to y^e ſeed thereof. An homer of barley ſeed ſhalbe valued at fifty ſhekels of ſilver.

17 If he ſanctifie his field from the yeer of Iubile, according to thy eſtimation: it ſhall ſtand.

18 But if he ſanctifie his field after the Iubile, then ye Prieſt ſhall reckon to him according to the yeers that remaine vnto the yeer of the Iubile, & ſhalbe rebated from thy eſtimation.

19 And if he that ſanctified ye field at all in any wiſe redeme it, then he ſhal adde the fift part of ye money of thy eſtimation vnto it, & it ſhalbe aſſured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have ſold the field to another man, it ſhal not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field when it goeth out in the Iubile ſhalbe holy vnto the LORD, as a field deuoted: the poſſeſſion thereof ſhall be the Prieſts.

22 And if a man ſanctifie vnto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his poſſeſſion:

23 Then the Prieſt ſhall reckon vnto him the worth of thy eſtimation, euen vnto the yeere of the Iubile, and he ſhall giue thine eſtimation in that day as an holy thing vnto the LORD.

24 In the yeer of the Iubile, the field ſhall turne vnto him of whom it was bought, euen to him to whom the poſſeſſion of the land did belong.

25 And all thy eſtimation ſhall be according to the ſhekel of the Sanctuary: twenty Gerahs ſhal be the ſhekel.

26 Only the firſtling of the beaſts, which ſhould be the LORDS firſtling, no man ſhal ſanctifie it: whether it be ox or ſheepe: it is the LORDS.

27 And if it be of an vncleane beaſt, then he ſhall redeeme it according to thy eſtimation, and ſhal adde a fift part of thereto: Or if it be not redeemed, then ſhalbe ſold according to thy eſtimation.

28 Notwithſtanding, no deuoted thing that a man ſhal deuote vnto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beaſt, and of the field of his poſſeſſion, ſhal be ſold or redeemed: euery deuoted thing is moſt holy vnto the LORD.

29 None deuoted, which ſhalbe deuoted of men, ſhall be redeemed: but ſhall ſurely be put to death.

30 And all the tithe of the land, whether of the ſeed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORDS: it is holy vnto the LORD.

31 And if a man will at all redeeme ought of his tithes, he ſhall adde thereto the fift part thereof.

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flocke, euen of whatſoeuer paſſeth vnder the rod, the tenth ſhall be holy vnto the LORD.

33 He ſhal not ſearch whether it be good or bad, neither ſhall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof ſhalbe holy: it ſhal not be redeemed.

34 Theſe are the commandements which the LORD commanded Moſes for the children of Iſrael in mount Sinai.

49 Onely thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the summe of them among the children of Israel.

50 But y shalt appoint y Levites over y Tabernacle of Testimony, & over all the vessels thereof, & over all things y belong to it: they shal beare y Tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, and they shal minister unto it, and shal encampe round about the Tabernacle.

51 And when y tabernacle setteth forward, y Levites shal take it down: and when y Tabernacle is to be pitched, y Levites shal set it up: and the stranger that commeth nigh, shal be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shal pitch their tents every man by his own camp and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

CHAP. II.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his owne standard, with the ensigne of their fathers house: farre off about the Tabernacle of the Congregation shal they pitch.

17 Then the tabernacle of y congregation shal set forward, & the campe of y Levites in y midst of y campe: as they encampe so shal they set forward every man in his place by their standard.

18 On the West side shal be the standard of the campe of Ephraim, according to their armies: and the captaine of the sonnes of Ephraim, shal be Elishama the sonne of Ammihud.

39 All that were numbred of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbred at the commandement of the LORD throughout their families, all the males from a moneth old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 And y Lord said to Moses, number all y first-born of y males of y children of Israel, from a moneth old and upward, & take y number of their names.

41 And y shalt take y Levites for me, (I am y Lord) instead of all y first-born among y children of Israel, and y cattle of y Levites, instead of all y firstlings among y cattel of y children of Israel.

50 Of the first born of the children of Israel took he the money, a thousand three hundred & threescore & five sicles after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed, to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as y LORD commanded Moses.

IV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron saying.

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among y sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their father.

3 From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath, in the tabernacle of the congregation about the most holy thing.

5 And when y camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come and his sons, and they shall take down the covering vail and cover the ark of the testimony with it.

6 And shall put thereon the covering of badgers skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blew, and shall put in the staves thereof.

7 And upon the table of Shew-bread they shall spread a cloth of blew, & put thereon y dishes, and the spoons, & the bowls, and covers to cover with: & the continual bread shall be thereon.

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of skarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers skins, and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blew, and cover the candlestick of the light, & his lamps, and his tongs, & his snuffe dishes, and all the oyl vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it.

10 And they shall put it and all y vessels thereof, with in a covering of badgers skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

11 And upon the golden Altar they shall spread a cloth of blew, & cover it with a covering of badgers skins, and shall put to the staves thereof.

12 And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they

12 And they shall take off ye all the from which he ministreth in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blew, and cover it with a covering of badgers skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

13 And they shall put upon it all the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon.

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basons, all the vessels of the altar, and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers skins, and put to the staves of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the Sanctuary, and all the vessels of the Sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward: after that the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it, but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

16 And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, & the daily meat-offering, and the anointing oil, and the overlight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and the vessels thereof.

17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

18 Cut ye not off ye tribe of ye families of ye Kohathites from among ye Levites.

19 But thus do unto them, y^t they may live, and not die, when they approach the most holy things, Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service, & to his burden.

20 But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

21 And ye Lord spake to Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families:

23 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old thou shalt number them; all that enter in to perform the service to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of ye families of Gershonites to serve, & for burdens.

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers skins y^t is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, & the hanging for ye door of the gate of the court which is by the tabernacle, & by the altar round about, & their cords, & all the instruments of their service, and all y^t is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of ye sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: & ye shall appoint them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon, in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.

29 As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families by the house of their fathers:

30 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entreth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is ye charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of ye congregation, ye boards of the tabernacle, and ye bars thereof, and the pillars thereof and the sockets thereof:

32 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the Priest.

34 And Moses and Aaron, & the chief of the congregation numbred the sons of the Kohathites, after their families & after ye house of their fathers, 35 From the thirty years & upward, even unto fifty years old, every one y^t entreth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

36 And those that were numbred of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were they y^t were numbred of the families of the Kohathites, all that congregation, wch Moses & Aaron did number, according to ye commandment of ye LORD by ye hand of Moses.

38 And those that were numbred of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, & by ye house of their fathers,

39 From thirty years old & upward, even unto fifty years old, every one that entreth into the service, for ye work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

40 Even those that were numbred of them throughout their families by the houses of their fathers, were two thousand six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they that were numbred of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of ye congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD.

42 And those that were numbred of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers:

43 From thirty years old & upwards even unto fifty years old, every one that entreth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

44 Even those that were numbred of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbred of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbred according cording to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

46 All the holy were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron & the chief of Israel numbered, after their families and after the house of their fathers,

47 From thirty years old & upward, even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation.

48 Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

49 According to the commandment of the LORD, they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden; Thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAP. V.

AND the LORD spake to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead:

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them, that they defile not their camps in the midst of which I dwel.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 And the LORD spake to Moses, saying,

6 Speak to the children of Israel, when a man or woman shall commit any sinful men commit, to do trespasse against the LORD, and that person be guilty

7 Then they shall confesse their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespasse with the principal thereof, and adde unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespasse unto, let the trespasse be recompensed unto the Lord, even to the Priest: beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the Priest shall be his.

10 And every mans hallowed things shall be his: what soever any man giveth the Priest, it shall be his.

11 And the LORD spake to Moses, saying,

12 Speak to the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any mans wife goeth aside, & commit a trespasse against him,

13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, & there be no witnesse against her, neither she be taken with the manner:

14 And the spirit of jealousie come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousie come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall y man bring his wife to the Priest, & he shal bring her offering for her, y tenth part of an Ephah of barley meal, he shal pour no oil on it, nor put frankincense thereon: for it is an offering of jealousie, an offering of memorial bringing in iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the Priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD.

17 And the Priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the Priest shall take & put it into the water.

18 And the priest shal set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the womans head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousie offering: & the priest shal have in his hand bitter water that causeth the curse.

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say to the woman, If no man have lien with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanes & another stead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse.

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lien with thee besides thine husband:

21 Then y priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and y Priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee a curse, and an oath among thy people, when the Lord doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell:

22 And this water y causeth the curse shal go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: and the woman shall say, Amen, Amen.

23 And the Priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water.

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water y causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the Priest shall take the jealousie offring out of the womans hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar.

26 And the priest shal take an handful of the offering, even y memorial thereof, & burne it upon the altar, & afterward shall cause y woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, if she be defiled, and have done trespasse against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, & her belly shall swel, & her thigh shall rot: & the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean: then she shall be free, & shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled:

30 Or when the spirit of jealousie cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the Priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shal the man be guiltles from iniquity, and this woman shal bear her iniquity.

CHAP. VI.

A Nd y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shal separate them selves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD:
3 He shal separate himself from wine, & strong drink, & shal drink no vineger of wine or vineger of strong drink, neither shal he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moyst grapes, or dryed.
4 All the dayes of his separation shal he eat nothing that is made of y vine, from the kernels even to y husk.
5 All the dayes of the vow of his separation, there shal no razor come on his head, til the dayes be fulfilled in y which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shal be holy, and shal let y locks of the hair of his head grow.
6 All the dayes that he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shal come at no dead body.
7 He shal not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die, because the consecration of his God is upon his head.
8 All the dayes of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.
9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration, then he shal shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shal he shave it.
10 And on the eight day he shal bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the Priest, to the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
11 And the Priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offring, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead & shal hallow his head that same day.
12 And he shal consecrate to the Lord y dayes of his separation, & shal bring a lamb of y first yeer for a trespasse offring: but y dayes that were before shal be lost, because his separation was defiled.
13 And this is the law of the Nazarite, When the dayes of his separation are fulfilled, he shal be brought to y door of y Tabernacle of y Congregation:
14 And he shal offer his offering to y LORD, one lamb of the first yeer without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first yeer without blemish for a sin offring, and one ram without blemish for peace offrings,
15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flowre mingled with oyl, & wafers of unleavened bread, anointed with oyl, and their meate offering and their drink offerings.
16 And the Priest shal bring them before the LORD, and shal offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering.
17 And he shal offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the Priest shal offer also his meat offering and his drink offering.
18 And the Nazarite shal shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation and shal take the hair of the head of his separation and put it in the fire, which is under the sacrifice of y peace offerings.
19 And the Priest shal take the sodden shoulder of the ram, & one unleavened cake out of the basket, & the unleavened wafer, & shal put them upon the hand of the Nazarite after the hair of his separation is shaven.
20 And the Priest shal wave them for a wave offering before the Lord: this is holy for the Priest, with the wave breast, and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.
21 This is the law of the Nazarite, who hath vowed: and of his offering to the LORD for his separation besides that, that his hand shal get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.
22 And y Lord spake to Moses saying
23 Speak to Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shal bless the children of Israel, saying unto them:
24 The Lord bless thee, & keep thee:
25 The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:
26 The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.
27 And they shal put my Name upon y children of Israel, & I will bless them.

CHAP. VIII.

AND the Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the Candlestick.
3 And Aaron did so: he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the Lord commanded Moses.
4 And this work of the Candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thet of, unto the flowres thereof was beaten work: according to the pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the Candlestick.
5 And the Lord spake to Moses, saying,
6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.
7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.
8 Then let them take a young bullock & his meat offrings, fine flour mingled with oil: and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offring.
9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the Tabernacle of the congregation, and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of y children of Israel together:
10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD, and the children of Israel shal put their hands on y Levites:

11 And Aaron shall offer the Leuites before the LORD, for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the seruice of the LORD.
12 And the Leuites shall lay their handes vpon the heades of the bullockes: & thou shalt offer the one for a sin offring, & the other for a burnt offring vnto the LORD, to make an atonemente for the Leuites.
13 And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and before his sonnes, and offer them for an offering vnto the LORD.
14 Thus shalt thou separate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shalbe mine.
15 And after that shall the Leuites go in to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and then shalt thou clense them & offer them for an offering.
16 For they are wholy geuen to me from among the children of Israel: in stead of such as open euery womb: euen in stead of the first borne of all the children of Israel haue I taken them to me.
17 For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on y day I smote euery first borne in y land of Egypt, I sanctified the for myself.
18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the first borne of y children of Israel.
19 And I haue geuen the Leuites as a gifte to Aaron and to his sonnes from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and to make an atonemente for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh vnto the Sanctuary.
20 And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of y children of Israel did to y Leuites according to all y thel ord commanded Moses concerning y Leuites: so did y children of Israel vnto them.

23 And y Lord spake to Moses saying
24 This is it that belongeth to y Leuites: from twenty & fiue yeres old and aboue shall they go in to wait on y seruice of y Tabernacle of y Congregation.
25 And from y age of fifty yeres they shall cease waiting on the seruice thereof, and shall serue no more:
26 But shall minister with their brethre in the Tabernacle of the congregation to kepe the charge, and shall do no seruice. Thus shalt thou do to the Leuites, touching their charge.

CHAP. IX.

AND the LORD spake to Moses in y wildernes of Sinai, in y first moneth of the second yere after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

Leuites conformable
2 Let the children of Israel also kepe the Passeouer at his appointed season.
3 In the fourteenth day of this moneth at Euen ye shall kepe it in his appointed season according to all the rites of it, & according to all the ceremonies that pertayne vnto it, shall ye kepe it.
4 And Moses spake to the children of Israel y they should kepe y Passeouer.
5 And they kept the Passeouer on the fourteenth day of the first moneth, euen in the wildernes of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.
6 And there were certain men, which were defiled by the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passeouer on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day.
7 And those men said to him, we are defiled by y dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offring of y Lord in his appointed season among y children of Israel?
8 And Moses said vnto them, stand & I will heare what the LORD will command concerning you.
9 And y Lord spake to Moses saying, to Speak to y children of Israel, saying, If any man of you, or of your posterity shall be vncleane by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey a farre off, yet he shal kepe y Passeouer vnto the LORD.
11 The fourteenth day of y seuenth moneth shall they kepe it, and eate it with vnleauened bread and bitter herbes.
12 They shal leaue none of it vntil the morning, nor break any bone of it: according vnto all the ordinances of the Passeouer they shal kepe it.
13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and forbeareth to kepe the Passeouer, euen y same soul shall be cut off fro his people, because he offred not y offring of y Lord in his appointed season: that man shall bear his synne.
14 And if a straunger shall sogourne among you and will kepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord: according to the ordinance of the Passeouer & according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall haue one ordinance both for y straunger and for him that was born in the land.
15 And on the day that the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloud couered the Tabernacle, namely, the tent of the Testimonie: and at euen there was vpon the Tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire vntil the morning.
16 So it was alway: the cloud couered it by day, & y appearance of fire by night.
17 And when the cloud was taken vp from the Tabernacles, then after that, the children of Israel iourneyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.
18 At the commandement of the Lord the children of Israel iourneyed, and at the commandement of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloud abode vpon the Tabernacle they rested in their tents.
19 And

Silver trumpets

by rest when the cloud tarried long upon the Tabernacle many dayes, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.
23 And so it was when the cloud was a few dayes upon the Tabernacle, according to commandment of y Lord, they abode in their tents, and according to y commandment of y Lord they journied not: And so it was when the cloud abode from Even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed, 22 Or whether it were two dayes, or a month, or a yeer, that the cloud tarried on the Tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not, but when it was taken up they journeyed.
23 At the commandment of the Lord they rested in y tents, & at y commundement of y Lord they journeyed: they kept the charge of y Lord, at y commandement of y Lord by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. X.

AND y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Make thee two trumpets of silver:
of an whole piece shalt thou make them that thou mayst use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.
3 And when they shall blow with them all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the Congregation.
4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the Princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.
5 When ye blow an alarm then y camps that lye on the parts south shall go forward.
6 When ye blow an alarm y second time, then the camps that lie on the parts south shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.
7 But when the Congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.
8 And the sons of Aaron the Priest shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be unto you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.
9 And if ye go to war in your land, against the enemy that oppresseth you then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets, and ye shall be remembred before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.
10 Also in the day of your gladness, & in your solemne dayes, & in y beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, & over y sacrifice of your peace offerings, that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am y Lord your God.
11 And it came to passe on the twentieth day of the second moneth, in the second yeer, that the cloud was taken up from off y Tabernacle of y Testimony.
12 And y children of Israel took their journeys out of the wildernes of Sinai, & y cloud rested in y wildernes of Paran.
13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Iudah according to their armies. & over his host was Nahshon y son of Amminadab.
15 And over the holte of the tribe of the children of Issachar, was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.
16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, was Eliab the son of Helon.
17 And y tabernacle was taken down
& y sons of Gershon, & sons of Merari set forward, bearing the Tabernacle.
18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur
the son of Shedeur.
19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad, was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the Sanctuary: and y other did set up the tabernacle against they came 22 And the standard of the camp of y children of Ephraim set forward, according to their armies, and over his host was Elishama y son of Ammiud.
23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh, was Gamaliel the son of Pedazur.
24 And over the host of the tribe of y children of Benjamin, was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

the re-reward of all the camp throow-

Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
26 And over the host of the tribe of y

28 Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel, according to their

29 And Moses said unto Hobab the son of Raguel the Midianite Moses father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which y Lord said, I will give it you come thou with us and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.
30 And he said unto him, I will not go but I will depart to mine own land, & to my kinred.
31 And he said, leave us not I pray thee for as much as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wildernesse, and thou mayst be to us in stead of eyes.
32 And it shall be if thou go with us, yea it shall be y what good nesse y Lord shall do to us, the same will we do to thee.

33 And they departed from the mount of the Lord three dayes iourney: & the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes iourney, to search out a resting place for them.
34 And the cloud of the Lord was upon them by day, when they went out of y camp.
35 And it came to pas when the Ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up Lord, & let thine enemies be scattered,
& let them that hate thee, flee before thee.
36 And when it rested, he said, Return,
Lord, to the many thousands of Israel.

CHAP. XI.

AND when the people complained, it displeased y Lord: & y Lord heard it, & his anger was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, & consumed them that were in the vtmost parts of the camp.
2 And the people cryed vnto Moses: & when Moses prayed vnto the Lord, the fire was quenched.
3 And he called the name of the place
Taberah: because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.
4 And the mixt multitude that was among them, fell a lusting, & the childre of Israel also wept again, and said,
Who shall give vs flesh to eat?
5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt freely, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and y onions and the garlick.
6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all besides this Manna, before our eyes.
7 And the Manna was as Coriander-seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of Bdellium.
8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mils, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: & the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oyl.
9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the Manna fell on it.
10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the Lord was kindled greatly: Moses also was displeased.
11 And Moses said vnto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou afflicted this servant of thine? and wherefore I not found fauour in thy sight, that thou layest y burden of all this people vpon me?
12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, carry them in thy bosom, as a nurse carrieth the sucking child, vnto the land which thou swatest vnto their fathers?
13 Whence should I have flesh to give vnto all this people? for they weep vnto me, saying, Give vs flesh, y we may eat.
14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.
15 And if thou deal thus with me, kil me I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight, and let me not see my wretchedness.
16 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom y knowest to be the elders of the people, & officers over them, & bring them to y Tabernacle of the congregation, y they may stand there with thee.
17 And I will come down & talk with thee there: & I will take of the spirit which is vpon thee, & will put it vpon them, & they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that y bear it not thy self alone.
18 And say thou vnto the people, Sanctifie your selves against to morrow, & ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the eares of the Lord, saying, Who shall give vs flesh to eat? for it was well with vs in Egypt: therefore the Lord will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.
19 Ye shall not eat one day only, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days only:
20 But even a whole moneth: vntil it come out at your nostrils, & y it be loathsome vnto you, because ye have despised the Lord which is among you, & have wept before him, saying,
Why came we forth out of Egypt?
21 And Moses said, The people among whom I am, are six hundred thousand on foot, & thou hast said, I will give them flesh, y they may eat a whole moneth.
22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the Sea be gathered together for them to suffice them?
23 And the LORD said vnto Moses,
Is the LORDS hand waxed shorter?
thou shalt see now whether my word come to passe vnto thee or not.
24 And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the Lord, & gathered the seventy men of the elders of y people, & set them round about y Tabernacle.
25 And the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake vnto him, and took of the spirit that was on him, and gaue it vnto
the seventy Elders: and it came to pas, that when the Spirit rested on them,
they prophesied, and did not cease.
26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, & the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested on them, (and they were of them that were written, but went not out vnto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the camp.
27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesie in the camp.
28 And Ioshua y sonne of Nun, y seruant of Moses, one of his young men, answered & said, My lord Moses, forbid them.
29 And Moses said vnto him, Enuiest thou for my sake? would God y all the Lords people were Prophets, & that the Lord would put his Spirit vpon them!
30 And Moses gate him into the camp,
he, and the Elders of Israel.
31 And there went forth a wind from the Lord, and brought quailes from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a dayes iourney on this side, & it were a dayes iourney on y other side and about y camp: and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

5 And the people stood by all that day, and all that night, and all the next day.
6 And they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten Homers: & they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.
33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.
34 And he called the name of that place Kibroth-Hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.
35 And the people journeyed from Kibroth-Hattaavah unto Hazeroth: and abode at Hazeroth.

CHAP. XII.

1 And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.
2 And they said, Hath y LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it.
3 Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)
4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and to Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three to the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.
5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.
6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I y LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, & will speak to him in a dream.
7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.
8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?
9 And the anger of y LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.
10 And the cloud departed from off y tabernacle; and behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: & Aaron looked unto Miriam, and, lo, she was leprous.
11 And Aaron said to Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.
12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed, when he cometh out of his mother's womb.
13 And Moses cryed to the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.
14 And the Lord said to Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, & after that let her be received in again.
15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: & y people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.
16 And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAP. XIII.

1 And y LORD spake to Moses, saying,
2 Send thou men that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.
3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD, sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.
4 And these were their names: of y tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.
5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.
6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.
7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.
8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.
9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.
10 Of the tribe of Zabulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.
11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely of y tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi y son of Susi.
12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.
13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.
14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.
15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.
16 These are the names of y men which Moses sent to spy out y land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua.
17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way Southward, and go up into the mountain:
18 And see the land what it is, & the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many.
19 And what the land is y they dwell in, whether it be good or bad: and what cities they be that they dwel in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;
20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein or not. And be ye of good courage, & bring of y fruit of y land. (Now y time was y time of the first ripe grapes.)
21 So they went up, and searched the land, from the wilderness of Zin, unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.
22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the children of Anak were: (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)
23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, & cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, & they bare it between two on a staff; & they brought of the pomgranats and of the figs.
24 The

24 The place was called ỹ brook Eſh-col, becaute of the cluſter of grapes ẅ ỹ childre of Iſrael tut down from thence

25 And they returned from ſearching of the land, after fourty daves.

26 And they went and came to Moſes and to Aaron, & to all ỹ congregation of ỹ childre of Iſrael, to ỹ wilderns of Paran to Kadeſh, & brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and ſhewed them the frute of the land.

27 And they told him, and ſaid, We came to the land whither thou ſenteſt us, and ſurely it flow th with milk & heny: and this is ỹ frute of it.

28 Neverthelesſe the people be ſtrong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, & very great: moreover, we ſaw the children of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites dwel in the land of the South: and the Hittites, and the Iebuſites, and the Amorites dwel in ỹ mountaines, and the Canaanites dwel by the ſea, & by the coaſt of Iordan.

30 And Caleb ſtilled the people before Moſes, and ſaid, Let us go up at onse, and poſſeſſe it, for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him ſaid, We be not able to go up againſt ỹ people, for they are ſtronger then we

32 And they brought up an evill report of the land which they had ſearched, to the children of Iſrael, ſaying, the land throw which we have gone to ſearch it, is a land that eateth up ỹ inhabitants thereof, and all the people ỹ we ſaw in it, are of great ſtature

33 And there ſe we the Grants the ſons of Anak, ſcome of ỹ Grants: & we were in our own ſight as graſhoppers, and ſo we were in their ſight.

CHAP. XIIII.

AND all the Congregation lifted up their voyce, and cryed, and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes and againſt Aaron, and the whole Congregation ſaid unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt, or would God we had died in this wildernesſe.

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us to this land, to fall by the ſword, that our wives, and our children ſhould be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they ſaid one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.

5 Then Moſes & Aaron fel on their faces before al the aſſembly of ỹ Congregation of the children of Iſrael.

6 And Iesſhua ſon of Nun, & Caleb the ſon of Iephunne, ẅ were of them ỹ ſarched the land, rent their cloathes.

7 And they ſpake to all the company of the children of Iſrael, ſaying, The land, which we paſſed thorow to ſearch, is an exceeding good land.

8 If ỹ LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, & give it us, a land which floweth ẅ milk & heny.

9 Onely rebel not ye againſt ỹ LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land, for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 But all ỹ congregation bade them ẅ ſtones: & ỹ glory of the LORD appeared in ỹ tabernacle of ỹ Congregation, before all ỹ children of Iſrael.

11 And the LORD ſaid to Moſes, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they beleeve me, for all the ſignes which I have ſhewed among them.

12 I will ſmite them ẅ the peſtilence, & diſinherit them, & wil make of thee a greater nation, & mightier then they.

13 And Moſes ſaid unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians ſhall hear it, for thou broughteſt up this people in thy might from among them:)

14 And they will tell it to ỹ inhabitants of this land, for they have heard ỹ ỹ Lord, art among this people, that Lord, art ſeen face to face, & that thy cloud ſtandeth over them, & ỹ goeſt before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, & in a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now if ỹ ſhale kill all this people as one man, then ỹ nations which have heard ỹ fame of thee, will ſpeak, ſaying,

16 Becauſe the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land which he ſware unto them, therefore he hath ſlain them in the wildernesſe.

17 And now I beſeech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou haſt ſpoken, ſaying,

18 The Lord is long ſuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquitie and tranſgreſſion, and by no means cleaning the guilty, viſiting the iniquitie of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beſeech thee, ỹ iniquitie of this people, according to ỹ greatneſs of thy mercy, & as ỹ haſt forgiven this people, from Egypt, even until now.

20 And the LORD ſaid, I have pardoned according to thy word.

21 But as truely as I live, all ỹ earth ſhalbe filled with ỹ glory of the LORD.

22 Becauſe all thoſe men which have ſeen my glory, & my miracles which I did in Egypt, & in the wildernesſe, & have tempted me now theſe ten times, and have not hearkened to my voyce,

23 Surely they ſhal not ſee the land which I ſware to their fathers, neither ſhal any of them ỹ provoked me ſee it.

24 But my ſervant Caleb, becauſe he had another ſpirit with him, & hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereunto he went, and his ſeed ſhall poſſeſſe it.

25 (Now the Amalekites, and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley) To morrow turn you, & get you into the wildernesſe, by the way of the red Sea.

26 And the Lord ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmure against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmure against me.
28 Say unto them, As truely as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine eares, so will I doe unto you:
29 Your carkeises shall fall in this wilderneſſe, and all that were numbred of you, according to your whole number, from twenty yeeres old and upward, which have murmured against me.
30 Doubtleſſe ye ſhall not come into the land, concerning the which I ſware to make you dwell therein, ſave Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, and Joſhua the ſon of Nun.
31 But your little ones, which ye ſaid ſhould be a prey, them will I bring in, & they ſhall know the land which ye have deſpiſed.
32 But as for you, your carkeiſes, they ſhall fall in this wilderneſſe.
33 And your children ſhall wander in the wilderneſſe fourty yeeres, & bear your whoredoms, until your carkeiſes be waſted in the wilderneſſe.
34 After the number of the dayes in which ye ſearched y land, even fourtie dayes, (each day for a yeer) ſhall ye bear your iniquities, even fourty yeers, & ye ſhall know my breach of promiſe.
35 I the Lord have ſaid, I will ſurely do it unto all this evill congregation, that are gathered together againſt me: in this wilderneſſe they ſhall be conſumed, and there they ſhall die.
36 And the men, which Moſes ſent to ſearch y land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmure againſt him, by bringing up a ſlander upon y land:
37 Even thoſe men that did bring up the euill report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD.
38 But Joſhua y ſon of Nun, & Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to ſearch y land, lived ſtil.
39 And Moſes told theſe ſayings unto all the children of Iſrael, and the people mourned greatly.
40 And they roſe up early in the morning, and gate them up into the top of the mountaine, ſaying, Loe, we be here, and will goe up to the place w Y Lord hath promiſed: for we have ſinned.
41 And Moſes ſaid, Wherefore now do you tranſgreſſe y Commandement of the Lord? but it ſhall not proſper.
42 Go not up, for the Lord is not among you, that ye be not ſmitten before your enemies.
43 For the Amalekites, & the Canaanites are there before you, and ye ſhall fall by the ſword, becauſe ye are turned away from the Lord, therefor, the Lord will not be with you.
44 But they preſumed to goe up unto the hilltop: neverthleſſe, the Arke of the covenant of the Lord and Moſes departed not out of the campe.
45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites, which dwelt in that hill, and ſmote them, and diſcomfited them even unto Hormah.

CHAP. XV.

1 AND Y Lord ſpake to Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake unto the children of Iſrael, and ſay to them, when ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you.
3 And will make an offering by fire unto the Lord, a burnt offering, or a ſacrifice in performing a vow, or in a free-will offering, or in your ſolemne feaſts, to make a ſweet ſavour unto the Lord, of the herd, or of the flock:
4 Then ſhall he that offereth his offering unto the Lord bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of oyle.
5 And the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drinke offering ſhalt thou prepare with the burnt offering, or ſacrifice for one lamb.
6 Or for a ram, y ſhalt prepare for a meat offring, two tenth deals of flour mingled w y third part of an Hin of oil.
7 And for a drink offring, thou ſhalt offer the third part of an Hin of wine, for a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.
8 And when thou prepareſt a bullocke for a burnt offering, or for a ſacrifice in performing a vow, or peace-offrings unto the LORD:
9 Then ſhal he bring with the bullock a meat-offering of three tenth deales of floure mingled with half an Hin of oyl.
10 And thou ſhalt bring for a drink-offering half an Hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.
11 Thus ſhall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.
12 According to the number that ye ſhal prepare, ſo ſhal ye do to every one according to their number.
13 All that are born of the country, ſhal do theſe things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.
14 And if a ſtranger ſojourn with you, or whoſoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD: as ye do, ſo ſhal he do.
15 One ordinance ſhall be both for you of the congregation, & alſo for y ſtranger y ſojourneth w you, an ordinance for ever, in your generations: as ye are, ſo ſhall y ſtranger be before the LORD.
16 One law and one manner ſhal be for you and for the ſtranger that ſojourneth with you.
17 And Y Lord ſpake to Moſes, ſaying,
18 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, and ſay unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you,
19 Then it ſhall be that when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye ſhal lift it up an heave-offering unto the LORD.
20 Ye ſhal offer up a cake of the firſt of your dough for an heave-offring: as ye do the heave offering of the threſhing floor, ſo ſhal ye heave it.
21 Of y firſt of your dough ye ſhal give to Y Lord an heave-offring in your generations.
22 And

22 And ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments which the LORD hath spoke vnto Moses.
23 Even all ỹ the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from ỹ day ỹ ỹ LORD commanded Moses, & hence forth among your generations:
24 Then it shall be if ought be committed by ignorance without ỹ knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one yong bullock for a burnt-offering, for a swete fauour vnto the LORD, with his meat-offering and his drink-offering according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for the sin-offering.
25 And the Priest shall make an atonement for all ỹ congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiuen them, for it is ignorance: & they shall bring their offring a sacrifice made by fire to ỹ LORD, and their sin-offring before the LORD for their ignorance.
26 And it shalbe forgiuen all ỹ congregation of the children of Israel, & the stranger ỹ sojourneth among them, seeing all ỹ people were in ignorance.
27 And if any one sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she-goat of the first yeer for a sin-offering.
28 And the Priest shal make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him, & it shalbe forgiuen him.
29 You shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born amongst the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.
30 But the soul that doth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD: and that soul shal be cut off from among his people.
31 Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, & hath broken his commandment: ỹ soul shall vtterly be cut off: his iniquity shall be vpon him.
32 And while the children of Israel were in ỹ wilderness, they found a man ỹ gathered sticks on the Sabbath day.
33 And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him vnto Moses, and to Aaron, and vnto all the congregation.
34 And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him.
35 And the LORD said vnto Moses. The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.
36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died: as the LORD commanded Moses.
37 And ỹ LORD spake to Moses saying,
38 Speak to the children of Israel, and bid them ỹ they make them fringes in ỹ borders of their garments, throughout their generations, and ỹ they put vpon ỹ fring of ỹ borders a riband of blue:
39 And it shal be to you for a fring that ye may look vpon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them: and that ye seek not after your own heart, and your own eyes after which ye vse to go a whoring:
40 That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy vnto your God.
41 I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of ỹ land of Egypt, to be your God: I am ỹ Lord your God.

CHAP. XVI.

NOw Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Leui, and Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sonnes of Reuben, took men.
2 And they rose vp before Moses, with certain of ỹ children of Israel, two hundred & fifty Princes of ỹ assembly, famous in ỹ congregation, men of renoume.
3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses & against Aaron, and said vnto them, ye take too much on you, seeing all ỹ congregation are holy, euery one of them, & the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift you vp your selues above ỹ congregation of the LORD?
4 And when Moses heard it, he fell vpon his face.
5 And he spake vnto Korah, and vnto all his company, saying, Euen tomorrow the LORD will shew who is his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come neer vnto him, even him whom he hath chosen, will he cause to come neer vnto him.
6 This do take you censers, Korah, and all his company:
7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them, before the LORD to morrow: and it shalbe, that the man whom the LORD doth chuse, he shall be holy: ye take too much vpon you, ye sons of Leui.
8 And Moses said vnto Korah, Hear I pray you, ye sons of Leui.
9 Seemeth it but a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you frō ỹ congregation of Israel, to bring you neer to himself, to do ỹ service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation, to minister vnto them?
10 And he hath brought thee neer to him, & all thy brethren the sons of Leui with thee: and seek ye Priesthood also?
11 For which cause both thou, and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him?
12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab which said, We will not come vp.
13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs vp out of the land that floweth with milk and hony, to kill vs in the wilderness, except thou make thy self altogether a Prince ouer vs?
14 Moreouer, thou hast not brought vs into a Land that floweth w milk and hony, or giuen vs inheritance of fields of resurrection: wilt ye put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

13 And Moses was very wroth, & said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one asse from them, neither have I hurt one of them.
16 And Moses said to Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron to morrow.
17 And take ye every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also and Aaron each of you his censer.
18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.
19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.
20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,
21 Separate your selves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.
22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, & wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?
23 And the LORD spake to Moses, saying,
24 Speak to the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 Then Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.
26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.
27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, & stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.
28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind.
29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men, then the LORD hath not sent me.
30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, & swallow them up with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit, then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.
31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:
32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that pertained unto Korah, and all their goods.
33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, & the earth closed upon them, & they perished from among the congregation.
34 And all Israel that was round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, lest the earth swallow us up also.
35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offred incense.
36 And the LORD spake to Moses, saying,
37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, & scatter thou the fire yonder, for they are hallowed.
38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offred them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed, & they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.
39 And Eleazer the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offred, and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar.
40 To be a memorial to the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron come neer to offer incense before the LORD, y he be not as Korah, and as his company, as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.
41 But on y morrow all the congregation of y children of Israel murmured against Moses, & against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.
42 And it came to pass when the congregation was gathered against Moses, and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.
43 And Moses & Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.
44 And the LORD spake to Moses, saying,
45 Get you up from among this congregation, y I may consume them, as in a moment. & they fell upon their faces.
46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD: the plague is begun.
47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, & ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold, y plague was begun among the people. & he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.
48 And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed.
49 Now they that died in the plague, were fourteen thousand, and seven hundred, besides them that died about the matter of Korah.
50 And Aaron returned to Moses, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, & the plague was stayed.

CHAP. XVII.

AND the LORD spake to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to y children of Israel, & take of every one of them a rod, according to the house of their fathers, of all ther princes, according to ỹ house of their fathers, twelve rods: write thou every mans name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aarons name on the rod of Leui: for one rod shalbe for ỹ head of the house of their fathers.
4 And thou shalt lay it em up in ỹ tabernacle of the congregation, before testimony, where I wil meet with you.
5 And it shal come to passe, that the mans rod whom I shall chuse, shal bloſ-ſom, and I wil make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, wherby they murmure against you.
6 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel & every one of their princes gaue him a rod apiece, for each prince one according to their fathers houses, es en twelue rods: and the rod of Aaron was among the rods.
7 And Moses laid up the rods before ỹ Lord, in the tabernacle of witnesse.
8 And it came to passe that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witnesse, and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossomes, and yeelded almonds.
9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD, unto all the children of Israel: and they looked,
and took every man his rod.
10 And the Lord said to Moses, bring Aarons rod again before ỹ testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels, and ỹ shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.
11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.
12 And the children of Israel spake to Moses saying, Behold we die, we perish, we all perish.
13 Whosoeuer cometh any thing nere unto the tabernacle of the Lord, shall die. Shal we be consumed with dying?

CHAP. XVIII.

AND ỹ Lord said to Aaron, Thou & thy sons, & thy fathers house with thee shal bear the iniquity of ỹ sanctuary:
and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your Priesthood.
2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Leui, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be ioyned unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shal minister before the tabernacle of witnesse.
3 And they shal keep thy charge, and the charge of all the Tabernacle: onely they shal not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary, and the altar, that neither they, nor you also die.
4 And they shalbe ioyned unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle for the congregation, for all the seruice of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.
5 And ye shal keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar:
that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel.
6 And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel: to you they are given a gift for the LORD, to do the ser-

of the tabernacle of the congregation.
7 Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shal keep your Priests office for every thing of the Altar, and within Vaile, and ye shal serue: I haue gi-your Priests office unto you, as a of gift: and the stranger that com-nigh shall be put to death.
8 And the Lord spake to Aaron, I also haue given the charge of heaue-offrings of all ỹ allowaof the children of Israel, to thee given them by reason of the anoi-to thy sons by an ordinance for 9 This shal be thine of the most charge reserved from the fire: of location of them, every meat-offer thine, and every sin-offering of & every trespasse-offering of the they shall render unto me, shal be holy for thee, and for thy sons.
10 In the most holy place shalt eat it, every male shal eat it: it sh holy unto thee.
11 And this is thine, the heave-offring their gift, with all the wave-offrings the children of Israel: I haue given the thee, & to thy sons, & to thy daugh with thee, by a statute for ever: every that is clean in thy house, shal eat 12 All the best of the oil, & all the of ỹ wine, & of the wheat, ỹ first of them which they shal offer unto LORD, them haue I given thee.
13 And whatsoever is first ripe in land which they shal bring unto LORD, shalbe thine: every one clean in thine house shal eat of it.
14 Every thing devoted in Israel be thine.
15 Euery thing ỹ openeth the ma of all flesh, which they bring to the LO whether it be of men or beast, shal thine: nevertheless the first-borne of shalt thou surely redeem, & ỹ firſt of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.
16 And those that are to be redee from a month old shalt ỹ redeem, ac ding to thine estimation, for the mo of five shekels, after the shekel of sanctuary which is twenty gera 17 But the first ling of a cow, or ỹ ling of a sheep, or ỹ first ling of a ỹ shalt not redeem, they are holy:
shalt sprinkle their blood on ỹ alt shalt burn their fat for an offring by fire, for a sweet fauour to the LO 18 And the flesh of them shalbe as the wave-breast, and as the shoulder are thine.
19 All the heave-offerings of the thing which the children of Israel fer to the LORD, haue I given thy sons, and thy daughters with by a statute for ever: it is a cove fait for ever, before the LORD, thee and to thy seed with thee.
20 And the Lord spake to Aaron shalt haue no inheritance in their other shall y have any part among them; I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel, for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.
22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of y congregation, lest they bear sin, & die.
23 But the Levites shal do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation,
and they shal bear their iniquity: it shalbe a statute for ever thorowout your generations, that among the chil dren of Israel they have no inheritance 24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave-offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.
25 And the Lord spake to Moses, saying,
26 Thou speak to the Levites, and say to them, When ye take of y children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shal offer up an heave-offring of it for the Lord, even a tenth part of the tithe.
27 And this your heave-offring shalbe reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the winepresse.
28 Thus shal ye also offer an heave-offring unto the Lord, of all your tithes which ye receive of the children of Israel: & ye shal give therof the LORDS heave-offring to Aaron the Priest.
29 Out of your gifts ye shal offer every heave-offring of the LORD, of all the best therof, even the hallowed part therof out of it.
30 Therefore thou shalt say to them,
When I have heaved y best therof, it shalbe counted to y Levites, as the increase of the threshing-floor,
and the increase of the winepresse.
31 And ye shal eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.
32 And ye shal bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved y best of it: nether shal ye pollute y holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

CHAP. XIX.

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 This is the ordinance of the law, which the LORD hath commanded saying, Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke.
3 And ye shal give her to Eleazar the Priest, that she may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face.
4 And Eleazar y Priest shal take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times.
5 And one shal burn the heifer in his sight: her skin and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shal he burn.
6 And the Priest shal take Cedar-wood & hyssope, and skarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.
7 And y Priest shal wash his clothes, & he shal bathe his flesh in water, & after ward he shal come into y camp, & the Priest shalbe unclean until the even.
8 And he y burneth her, shal wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shalbe unclean til the even.
9 And a man that is clean shal gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp, in a clean place, & it shalbe kept for the congregation of the children of Israel, for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.
10 And he that gatheth the ashes of the heifer, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shal be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.
11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man shalbe unclean seven dayes.
12 He shal purifie himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shalbe clean: but if he purifie not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shal not be clean.
13 Whosoever toucheth y dead body of any manly is dead, & purifieth not himself, defileth y tabernacle of y LORD:
and that soul shalbe cut off from Israel, because the water of seperation was not sprinkled upon him: he shalbe unclean, his unclanneſse is yet upon him.
14 This is y law, when a man dieth in a tent, all y come into y tent, & all that is in y tent, shalbe unclean seven dayes.
15 And every open vessel which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.
16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields:
or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shalbe unclean seven dayes.
17 And for an unclean person, they shal take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shalbe put thereto, in a vessel:
18 And a clean person shal take hysope and dip it in the water, & sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, & upon the persons that were ther, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave.
19 And the clean person shal sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shal purifie himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.
20 But the man y shalbe unclean, and shal not purifie himself, y soul shalbe cut off from among y congregation, because he hath defiled y sanctuary of the LORD: the water of seperation hath not been sprinkled upon him: he is unclean.
21 And it shalbe a perpetuall statute into them: Yee that touch the water of separation shall wash his clothes and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until the Even.

22 And whatsoeuer the vncleane person toucheth shall be vnclean: & the soule y toucheth it shall be vnclean vntil Even.

CHAP. XX.

THen came y children of Israel even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month: and the people abode in Kadesh and Miriam died there, and was buried there.
2 And there was no water for the congregation: & they gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron.
3 And y people chode with Moses, and spake saying: Would God y we had died when our brethren died before y Lord 4 And why have ye brought up y congregation of y Lord into this wilderne that we & our cattel should die there?
5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us into this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or vines, or of pomegranates
neither is there any water to drink.
6 And Moses and Aaron went from y presence of the assembly, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and fell vpon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.
7 And y Lord spake to Moses saying:
8 Take the rod and gather thou & y brother thy brother, y and Aaron thy brother, & speak ye unto the rock before their eyes, & it shal give forth his water: & ye shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: for thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.
9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.
10 And Moses and Aaron gathered y congregation together before y rock: & he said unto them: Hear now ye rebels, must we fetch you water out of this rock?
11 And Moses lift up his hand, and with his rod he stroke y rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, & y congregation and their beasts dranke also.
12 And y Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron: because ye beleeved me not to sanc-tifie me in y eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into y land, I have given them.
13 This is y water of Meribah because the children of Israel strove with the LORD: and he was sanctified in them.
14 And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel: ye know well all the travaile that hath befallen us:
15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time: and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers.
16 And when we cryed to the LORD,
he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and behold, we are in Kadesh a city in the uttermost of thy border.
17 Let us pas, I pray thee, thorow thy country: we will not pass thorow the fields, or thorow y vineyards, neither will we drink of y waters of y wells:
we will go by the kinges high way, we not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed y borders.
18 And Edom said to him, Thou shalt not passe by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.
19 And the children of Israel said him: We will go by the hie way: & & my cattle drink of thy waters: then will pay for them: I will only (not co-any thing else) go thorow on my fe 20 And he said: thou shalt not go row. And Edom came out against him much people, and with a strong hand.
21 Thus Edom refused to give Isra passage to come his border: Wherefo
Israel turned away from him.
22 And the children of Israel were whole congregation, four out of Kadesh, and came unto mount Hor.
23 And the LORD spake unto Mos and Aaron in mount Hor, by the of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shalbe gathered to his ple: for he shal not enter into the which I have given unto the chil of Israel, because ye rebelled aga
my word at the water of Meribah.
25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his and bring them up unto mount Hor 26 And strup Aaron of his garmen and put them upon Eleazar his and Aaron shall be gathered to h people, and shall die there.
27 And Moses did as the Lord co
manded: and they went up into mo
Hor in the sight of all y Congrega 28 And Moses stripped Aaron of garments, and put them upon Eleaz his son: and Aaron died there in top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.
29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty dayes, even all the hou of Israel. CHAP. XXI.

AND when king Arad the Canani which dwelt in the south, heard that Israel came by the way of spies, then he fought against Israel, took some of them prisoners.
2 And Israel vowed a vow unto LORD, and said: If thou wilt indee deliver this people into mine hand then I will utterly destroy their cit 3 And the LORD hearkened to voice of Israel, and delivered up Canaanites: and they utterly destro them & their cities: and he called name of the place Hormah.
4 And they journeyed from mount Ho by way of y red sea to compasse y land of Edom: & y soule of the people was much discouraged because of the way.
5 And y people spake against God and against Moses, wherfor have ye brou us up out of Egypt, to die in the wil derness? for there is no bread, neither is there water, and our soule lotheth this light bread.

6 And

6 And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, and much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned: for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee: pray unto the LORD that he take away the serpents from us: and Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Ije-Abarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising.

12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab, and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, what he did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Arnon,

15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to Beer: that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 Then Israel sang this song, Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it:

18 The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the Law-giver, with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah:

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth.

20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jeshimon.

21 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards, we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land, from Arnon unto Jabok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in Proverbs say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built, and prepared.

28 For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

29 Woe to thee, Moab, thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sons that escaped, & his daughters into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto Medeba.

31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spie out Jaazer, & they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to battel at Edrei.

34 And the LORD said to Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him, & all his people, & his land, and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So they smote him, & his sons, and all his people, until there was none left to him alive: and they possessed his land.

CHAP. XXII.

AND the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab, on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many, and Moab was grieved because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt, behold, they cover the face of the earth, & they abide over against me.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people, for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot well, he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab & the elders of Midian departed with the reward of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said to them, Lodge here this night, night, & I will bring you word again as the Lord shall speak vnto mee: & the Princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, & said What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said vnto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent vnto me saying,

11 Lo, there is a people come out of Egypt, which couereth the face of the earth: Come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to ouercome them, and driue them out.

12 And God said to Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them, thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in y morning, and said vnto y Princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to giue me leaue to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose vp, and they went vnto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with vs.

15 And Balak sent yet again princes more, and more honourable then they.

16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, Let nothing I pray thee, hinder thee from coming vnto me:

17 For I will promote thee vnto very great honour, and will do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: Come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered, and said to the seruants of Balak: If Balak would giue me his house full of siluer & gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do lesse or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tary ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say to me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam at night, and said vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp and go with them; but yet the word which I shall speak vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and saddled his asse, & went with the Princes of Moab.

22 And Gods anger was kindled, because he went: & the Angel of the LORD stood in the way for an Aduersary against him. Now he was riding vpon his asse, and his two seruants were with him.

23 And the asse saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the asse turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the asse to turn her into the way.

24 But the Angel of the LORD stood vp in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the asse saw the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her self to the wall, and crushed Balaams foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn, either to the right hand, or the left.

27 And when the asse saw the Angel of the LORD, she fell down vnder Balaam, and Balaams anger was kindled, and he smote the asse with a staffe.

28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the asse, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in my hand, for now would I kil thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, vpon which thou hast rid euer since I was thine, vnto this day? was I euer wont to do so vnto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in y way, & his sword drawn in his hand: & he bowed downe his head, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the LORD said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine asse these three times? Behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is peruerse before me:

33 And the asse saw me, and turned from me these three times: vnless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saued her aliue.

34 And Balaam said vnto the Angel of the LORD, I haue sinned: for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me. Now therefore if it displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the Angel of the LORD said vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak vnto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him vnto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the vtmost coast.

37 And Balak said vnto Balaam, Did not I earnestly send vnto thee? wherefore camest thou not vnto me? Am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said vnto Balak, Lo, I am come to thee: haue I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came vnto Kiriath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offred oxen, and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to passe on y morrow, that Balak took Balaam, & brought him vp into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see y vtmost part of y people.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Balaam said vnto Balak, Build me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen oxen, and seuen rammes.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offred on euery altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said to Balak, Stand by thy burnt offring, & I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to me

night, & I will bring you word again as the Lord shall speak vnto mee: & the Princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, & said What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said vnto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent vnto me saying,

11 Lo, there is a people come out of Egypt, which couereth the face of the earth: Come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to ouercome them, and driue them out.

12 And God said to Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them, thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in y morning, and said vnto y Princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to giue me leaue to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose vp, and they went vnto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with vs.

15 And Balak sent yet again princes more, and more honourable then they.

16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, Let nothing I pray thee, hinder thee from coming vnto me:

17 For I will promote thee vnto very great honour, and will do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: Come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered, and said vnto the seruants of Balak: If Balak would giue me his house full of siluer & gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do lesse or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tary ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say to me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam at night, and said vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp and go with them: but yet the word which I shall say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and saddled his asse, & went with the Princes of Moab.

22 And Gods anger was kindled, because he went: & the Angel of y LORD stood in the way for an Aduersary against him. Now he was riding vpon his asse, and two seruants were with him.

23 And the asse saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the asse turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the asse to turn her into the way.

24 But the Angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the asse saw the Angel of the LORD, she thrust her self to the wall, and crushed Balaams foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn, either to the right hand, or the left.

27 And when the asse saw the Angel of the LORD, she fell down vnder Balaam, and Balaams anger was kindled, and he smote the asse with a staffe.

28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the asse, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me, I would there were a sword in my hand, for now would I kil thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, vpon which thou hast ridden euer since I was thine, vnto this day? was I euer wont to do so vnto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in y way, & his sword drawn in his hand: & he bowed downe his head, and fel flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the LORD said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine asse these three times? Behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is peruerse before me:

33 And the asse saw me, and turned from me these three times: vnless she had turned from me, surely now also had I slain thee, and saued her alive.

34 And Balaam said vnto the Angel of the LORD, I haue sinned: for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me. Now therefore if it displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the Angel of the LORD said vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak vnto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him, vnto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the vtmost coast.

37 And Balak said vnto Balaam, Did not I earnestly send vnto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not vnto me? Am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said vnto Balak, Lo, I am come to thee: haue I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came vnto Kiriath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offred oxen, and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on y next day, y Balak took Balaam, & brought him vp into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see y vtmost part of y people.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Balaam said vnto Balak, Build me here seuen altars, & prepare me here seuen oxen, and seuen rammes.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offred on euery altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said to Balak, Stand by thy burnt offring, & I wil go: peradventure the LORD will come to me and whatsoever he saith unto me, I will tell you: So he went to an high place

And God met Balaam, and he said unto him, I have prepared seven Altars and I have offered upon every Altar a bullock and a ramme.
And the LORD put a word in Ba-laams mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.
And he returned unto him, and lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.
And he took up his parable, and said Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come curse me Jacob, and come defie Israel.
How shall I curse whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defie, whom the LORD hath not defied?
For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him:
lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.
Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.
And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.
And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?
And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them:
thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all, and curse me them from thence.
And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built me altars, and offred a bullock and a ramme on every altar.
And he said to Balak, Stand here by thine burnt offring, and I will meet the LORD yonder.
And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus:
And when he came to him, lo, he stood by his burnt offring, and all the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, What hath the LORD spoken?
And he took up his parable, and said,
Rise up Balak, and hear, give ear unto me, thou son of Zippor.
God is not a man that he should lie, neither the son of man that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?
Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed, and I cannot reverse it.
He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them.
God brought them out of Egypt;
he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn.

23 Surely there is no inchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob, and of Israel, What hath God wrought?
24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, & lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, & drink the blood of the slain.
25 And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.
26 But Balaam answered, and said to Balak, told not I thee, saying, all that the LORD speaketh that I must do?
27 And Balak said unto Balaam, Come,
I pray thee, I will bring thee to another place: peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.
28 And Balak brought Balaam to the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jesimon.
29 And Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks, and seven rammes.
30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

CHAP. XXV.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not as at other times to seek for inchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.
2 And Balaam lift up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.
3 And he took up his parable, & said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said: and the man whose eyes are open hath said:
4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:
5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!
6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the rivers side, as the trees of lign-aloes which the LORD hath planted, & as cedar trees beside waters.
7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, & his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, & his kingdom shall be exalted.
8 God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, & shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows.
9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.
10 And Balaks anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said to Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.
11 Therefore now, flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour: but lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour.

12 And Balaam said to Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest to me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot goe beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine owne mind; but what the LORD saith, that will I speak.

14 And now behold, I go unto my people: come therefore and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter dayes.

15 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, And the man whose eyes are open hath said:

16 He hath said which heard the words of God, & knew the knowledge of the most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open.

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: There shall come a Starre out of Jacob, a Scepter shall rise out of Israel, & shall smite the corners of Moab, & destroy all the children of Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies and Israel shall do valiantly.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was first of nations, but his posterity shall perish for ever.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable: & said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rocke.

22 Nevertheless Kenite shall be wasted, till Asshur shall carry thee away captive.

23 And he took up his parable, & said, Alas who shall live when God doth this?

24 And Ilis shall come from y coast of Chittim, & shall afflict Asshur, & shall afflict Eber, & he also shall perish for ever.

25 And Balaam rose up, and went & returned to his place, and Balak went also his way.

CHAP. XXV.

AND Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

2 And they call'd the people unto the sacrifices of their gods, and the people did eate, & bowed downe to their gods.

3 And Israel joyned himselfe to Baal-peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all y heads of the people & hang them up before the LORD in against the Sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.

5 And Moses said unto the Iudges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joyned unto Baal-peor.

6 And behold, one of the children of Israel came, and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, & in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the dore of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, & took a javelin in his hand.

8 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

9 And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

10 And y LORD spake to Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, (while he was zealous for my sake among them) that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousie.

12 Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my Covenant of peace.

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the Covenant of an everlasting Priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made reconcilement for the children of Israel.

14 Now the name of y Israelite that was slaine, even y was Himri y Midianitish woman was Zuri, son of Salu a chiefe house among y Simeonites.

15 And the name of Midianitish woman that was slaine, was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, he was head of a people, & of a chiefe house in Midian.

16 And y LORD spake to Moses, saying,

17 Vex the Midianites, & smite them.

18 For they vex you with their wiles wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, & in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian their sister, which was slaine in the day of the plague for Peors sake.

CHAP. XXVI.

CHAP. XXX.

AND Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes, concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.
2 If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or sweare an oath, to bind his soule with a bond: he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.
3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind her selfe by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth:
4 And her father heare her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soule, and her father shall hold her peace at her: then all her vowes shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soule shall stand.
5 But if her father d disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vowes or of her bonds, wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand: and her father d disallowed her.
6 And if she had at all an husband when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soule;
7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vowes shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soule shall stand.
8 But if her husband d disallowed her in the day that he heard it: then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips wherewith she bound her soule,

11 And they took all the spoile, and all the prey, both of men and beasts.
12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoile unto Moses and Eleazar the Priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel unto the camp at the plaines of Moab, which are by Iordane neer Iericho, 13 And Moses & Eleazar y Priest, & all the princes of y congregation went forth to meet them without y camp.
14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the hoste, y captaines over thousands, and captaines over hundreds, which came from the battell.
15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?
16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespasse against the Lord in y matter of Peor, & ther was a plague among y congregation of y Lord.
17 Now therfore kil every male among the little ones, and kil every woman y hath knowne man by lying with him.
18 But al the woman children that have not knowne a man by lying with him, keep alive for your selves.
19 And do ye abide without the camp seven dayes: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slaine, purifie both your selves and your captives, on the third day, and on the seventh day.
20 And purifie al your raiment, and all that is made of skins and al worke of goats hair, & al things made of wood.
21 And Eleazar the Priest said unto the men of war which went to y battel, This is the ordinance of the Law which the LORD commanded Moses.
22 Onely the golde, and the silver, y brasse, the yron, the tin, and the lead,
23 Every thing that may abide y fire, ye shal make it go through the fire, & it shall be cleane: nevertheles, it shal be purified with the water of separation: and al that abideth not the fire, ye shal make go through the water.
24 And ye shal wash your clothes on y seventh day, and ye shal be clean, and afterward ye shal come into the camp.
25 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
26 Take the summe of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:
27 And divide the prey into two parts between them who took the warre upon them, who went out to battel, and between al the congregation.
28 And levie a tribute to the Lord of y men of war which went out to battel: one soule of five hundred, both of the persons and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheepe.
29 Take it of their halfe, and give it unto Eleazar the Priest, for an heave offering of the LORD.
30 And of the children of Israels half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of y persons, of the beeves, of y asses, & of her father, and the LORD shal forgive her, if her father vtterly disalowed her in the day that he heard of all her vowes, or of her bonds wherwith she bounded her soule, she shal stand.

7 And if her husband hath vtterly made her void on y day he heard it, that which is gone out of her lips, concerning her vowes, or concerning the bond of her soul, shal not stand: her husband hath made them void, & the LORD shal forgive her.

8 But if her husband altogether disalowed her on y day he heard them, then he confirmeth not the vow of her bonds wherwith she bounded her soule, it shal be forgiven her, because her husband disalowed her.

9 But every vow & every binding oath to afflict y soule, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

10 But if her husband altogether held his peace at her, from day to day, then he confirmeth all her vowes, or all her bonds which are upon her: he confirmeth them because he held his peace at her, in y day he heard them.

11 But if he shal any wayes make them void, after that he hath heard them, then he shal beare her iniquity.

12 These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses betweene a man & his wife, betweene the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her fathers house.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 And y Lord spake to Moses, saying,
2 Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.
3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arme some of your selves to the warre, & let them go against the Midianites, & avenge y Lord of Midian.
4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel shal ye send to the warre.
5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for warre.
6 And Moses sent them to the warre, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar y Priest, to the warre with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand.
7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses, and they slew al the males.
8 And they slew the Kings of Midian beside the rest of them that were slaine, namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five Kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor, they slew with the sword.
9 And the children of Israel tooke al the woman of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoile of al their cattel, and al their flockes, and al their goods.
10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and al their goodly tolles with fire;

the flockes, of al maner of beasts, and gave them to the Levites which keep y charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.
31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest,
did as the Lord commanded Moses.
32 And the bootty being the rest of the prey which y men of war had caught, was sixe hundred thousand, and seven ty thousand, and five thousand sheep.
33 And three score and twelve thou sand beeves.
34 And three score and one thousand asses.
35 And thirty and two thousand per sons in al, of women that had not knowne man by lying with him.
36 And the half which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand, seven & thirty thousand, & five hundred sheep 37 And the LORDS tribute of the sheep: was sixe hundred and three score and fifteen.
38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand, of which the LORDS tribute was three score and twelve.
39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred, of which y LORDS tribute was three score and one.
40 And the persons were sixteen thou sand, of which the LORDS tribute was thirtie and two persons.
41 And Moses gave the tribute & was the LORDS heave offring, to Eleazar y Priest, as y Lord commanded Moses.
42 And of y children of Israels half,
Moses divided from the men y warred 43 (Now the halfe that pertained to the congregation, was three hundred thousand, and thirty thousand, and se ven thousand and five hundred sheep)
44 And thirty & sixe thousand beeves 45 And thirty thousand asses, and five hundred,
46 And fifteen thousand persons.
47 Even of the children of Israels half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them to the Levites which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.
48 And the officers which were over thousands of the hoste, the captaines of thousands and captaines of hun dreds came neer unto Moses.
49 And they said unto Moses, thy servants have taken the summe of the men of war & are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of vs.
50 We have therefore brought an oblation of the LORD, what euery man hath gotten of jewels of gold chains and bracelets, rings, earerings, and tablets to make an atonement for our soules before the LORD.
51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of them, even al wrought jewels,
52 And all the gold of the offering y they offered up to the LORD of the captains of thousands, and of the cap taines of hundreds was sixteen thou sand seven hundred and fifty shekels.
53 (For the men of warre had tak poile, every man for himself) 54 And Moses and Eleazar the Pri took the gold of y captaines of the lands, and of hundreds, and brought into y tabernacle of the congre for a memorial for the Children
Israel before the LORD.

6 And Moses said unto the child of Gad, and unto the children of Reu shal your brethren go unto war, shal ye sit here?
7 And wherefore discourage ye heart of the children of Israel fro going over into the land, which LORD hath given them?
8 Thus did your fathers when I them from Kadesh-Barnea to se 9 For when they went up unto of Eshcol & saw the lands, they dis raged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into kindled the same time, & he sware,

16 And they came neer unto him, &
We wil build vp cotsolds for our because of y inhabitants of y land.

18 We will not returne vnto our houses, vntil the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance:
19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Iordan or forward, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iordan Eastward.
20 And Moses said vnto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war.
21 And all go al of you armed over Iordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him 22 And the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shal returne and be guiltles before the LORD, and before Israel: and this land shal be your possession before the LORD.
23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sinne will find you out.
24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep: and do that which hath proceded out of your mouth.
25 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben spake vnto Moses, saying, thy servants will do as my lord commandeth.
26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattel shall be there in the cities of Gilead:
27 But thy servants will passe over, every man armed for warre, before the LORD to battel, as my lord saith.
28 So concerning them, Moses commanded of Eleazar the Priest and Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:
29 And Moses said to the, If y children of Gad, & the children of Reuben wil passe with you Iordan, every man armed to battel before the LORD, & the land shal be subdued before you: then ye shal giue them y land of Gilead for a possession:
30 But if they will not passe over with you armed: they shal have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.
31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered, saying,
As the LORD hath said vnto thy servants, so wil we do.
32 We will passe over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Iordan may be ours.
33 And Moses gaue to them even to the children of Gad, & to y children of Reuben, and to halfe the tribe of Manasseh

Manasseh went to Gilead, & took it, &

40 And Moses gaue Gilead to Machir, y son of Manasseh, & he dwelt therein.

called them Havoth-Iair.
42 And Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called it
Nobah after his owne name.

24 Then the congregation shal judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood, according to these judgements.
25 And the congregation shal deliver the slayer out of the hand of ỹ revenger of blood, & the congregation shal restore him to the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shal abide in it unto the death of the high Priest, which was anounted with the holy oil.
26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled:
27 And ỹ revenger of blood find him without ỹ borders of the citie of his refuge, & the revenger of blood kil the slayer, he shal not be guilty of blood:
28 Because he should have remained in the citie of his refuge, until the death of the high Priest: but after the death of the high Priest, the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.
29 So these things shal be for a statute of judgement to you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
30 Whoso killeth any person, ỹ murderer shal be put to death by ỹ mouth of witnesses: but one witness shal not testify against any person to cause him to die.
31 Moreover ye shal take no satisfaction for ỹ life of a murderer, which is guilty of death, but he shal be surely put to death.
32 And ye shal take no satisfaction for him that is fled to ỹ citie of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the Priest.
33 So ye shal not pollute the land wherin ye are: for blood, it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.
34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shal inhabit, wherein I dwel: for I ỹ Lord dwel among ỹ children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXVI.

AND ỹ chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead ỹ son of Machir, ỹ son of Manasseh, of the families of ỹ sons of Joseph came neer, & spake before Moses, & before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel
2 And they said, The Lord commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: & my lord was commanded by the Lord to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother, unto his daughters.
3 And if they be married to any of the sons of ỹ other tribes of the children of Israel, then shal their inheritance be taken from ỹ inheritance of our fathers, & shal be put to the inheritance of ỹ tribe whereunto they are received: so shal it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.
4 And when the Jubile of the children of Israel shal be, then shal their inheritance be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.
5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well.
6 This is the thing which ỹ Lord doth command concerning ỹ daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best, only to ỹ family of the tribe of their father shal they marry.
7 So shal not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from one tribe to another tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shal keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.
8 And every daughter ỹ possesseth inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shal be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every one the inheritance of his fathers.
9 Neither shal the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe: but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.
10 Even as ỹ Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.
11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their fathers brothers sons.
12 And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, & their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.
13 These are the commandments and the judgements which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by Jordan, neer Jericho.

The fifth book of MOSES, called DEVTERONOMIE.

CHAP. I.

THese be ỹ words which Moses spake to all Israel on this side Jordan in ỹ wilderness, in ỹ plain over against ỹ red sea, between Paran & Tophel, & Laban, & Hazeroth, and Dizahab.
2 (There are eleven dayes journey from Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, unto Kadesh-Barnea.)
3 And it came to passe in the fourtieth yeer, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD had given him in commandement unto them:
4 After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei.
5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount:

7 Turn you and take your journey, & go to the mount of the Amorites, & to all the places nigh thereunto, in y plain in the hils, and in the vale, and in the South and by the Sea side to the land of the Canaanites and to Libanon, to the great river, the river Euphrates.
8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob: to give unto them and to their seed after them.
9 And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you my self alone.
10 The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and behold you are this day as the Stirs of heaven for multitude.
11 (The LORD God of your fathers up make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and blesse you as he hath promised you.)
12 How can I my self alone bear your cumbrance, & your burde, & your strife?
13 Take ye wise men and understanding and known among your tribes, & I will make them rulers over you.
14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken, is good for us to do.
15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise & known, & made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.
16 And I charged your Iudges at that time saying, Hear the causes between your brethren & judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.
17 Ye shal not respect persons in iudgment, but you shal hear the small as well as the great: you shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is Gods: & the cause y is too hard for you bring it to me & I will hear it.
18 And I commanded you at that time all things which ye should do.
19 And when we departed from Horeb we went through all that great & terrible wilderness, which you saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us, and we came to Kadesbarnea.
20 And I said unto you, ye are come to the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give us.
21 Behold, the Lord thy God hath set y land before thee: go up & possesse it as the Lord God of thy fathers hath said unto thee: fear not neither be discouraged.
22 And ye came nere unto me every one of you, and said, we will send men before us, and they shal search us out the land and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shal come.
23 And the saying pleased me wel, & I took twelve men of you: out one of a tribe
24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, & came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.
25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, & brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, & said, it is a good land which the Lord our God doth give us.
26 Notwithstanding: ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God.
27 And ye murmured in your tents, & said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us.
28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our hearts saying, the people is greater, and taller then we, the cities are great and walled up to heaven, and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there.
29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.
30 The LORD your God which goeth before you he shal fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes.
31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how y Lord thy God bare thee as a man doth bear his son in all y way that ye went, til ye came unto this place.
32 Yet in this thing ye did not believe the LORD your God.
33 Who went in the way before you to search you out a place to pitch your tents in: in fiery night to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloudy day.
34 And y Lord heard the voyce of your words, and was wroth, & sware saying,
35 Surely there shal not one of these men of this evil generation see y good land, which I sware to give to your fathers, 36 Save Caleb the son of Iephunneh, he shal see it, & to him will I give y land y he hath trode on, & to his children, because he hath wholly followed y Lord.
37 Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.
38 But Iesshua the son of Nun, which stadeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherite it.
39 Moreover, your little ones, wo ye said should be a prey, & your children which y day had no knowledge between good & evil, they shal go in thither, & to them will I give it, & they shal possesse it.
40 But as for you, turn ye, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the red Sea.
41 Then ye answered & said unto me, We have sinned against y Lord, we will go up & fight according to all y y Lord our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into y hil.
42 And the LORD said to me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight, for I am not among you, lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake to you, and you would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord and went presumptuously up into the hil.

44 And the Amorites which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you & chased you as Bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned, and wept before y Lord, but y Lord would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you,

46 So ye abode in Kadesh many dayes, according to y dayes y ye abode there.

CHAP. II.

THen we turned & took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of y red Sea, as the Lord spake unto me and we compassed mount Seir many dayes.

2 And the Lord spake to me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain long enough, turn you Northward.

4 And command y people, saying, Ye are to passe through y coast of your brethren y childr of Esau, w dwelin Seir, & they shalbe afraid of you: take ye good heed to your selves therefore

5 Meddle not with them for I will not give you of their land, no not so much as a foot breadth, because I have given y mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shal buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat, & ye shal also buy water of them for money, y ye may drink.

7 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness, these fourty yeers the LORD thy God hath been with thee, thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath and from Ezion-Gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites neither contend with them in battel; for I will not give thee of their land for a possession: because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims:

11 Which all were accounted giants, as the Anakims, but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead, as Israel did to the land of his possession which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up (said I) and get you over the brook Zered: and we went over the brook Zered.

14 And y space in which we came from Kadesh Barnea, til we were come over the brook Zered, was thirtie and eight yeers until all the generation of y men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD swar unto them.

15 For indeed the hand of y Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the host, til they were consumed.

16 So it came to pas, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the Lord spake to me, saying,

18 Thou art to passe over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day.

19 And when thou commest nigh against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in times past, & Ammonits call the Zamzummims, 21 A people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:)

22 As he did for the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed Horims from before them, & they succeeded them, & dwelt in their stead even to this day.

23 And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim even unto Azzah, the Caphtorim which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their stead.

24 Rise ye up, take your journey, passe over the river Arnon. Behold, I have given into thy hand Sihon the Amorite king of Hesbon & his land: begin to possesse it, & contend with him in battel.

25 This day will I begin to put y dread of thee, and the fear of thee on y nations that are under the whole heaven, who shal hear report of thee, and tremble, & be in anguish because of thee.

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Hesbon, with words of peace saying,

27 Let me passe through thy land: I will go along by y high way, I will neither turn to the right hand, nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sel me meat for money that I may eat, and give me water for money that I may drink: only I will passe through on my feet:

29 As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar did unto me, until I shall passe over Jordan, into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon king of Hesbon would not let us passe by him: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, & made his heart obstinate y he might deliver him into thy hand as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said to me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: go in to possesse that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people to fight at Jahaz.

33 And the Lord our God delivered him before us, & we smote him, & his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at the same time, and utterly destroyed the men

and

and the women, and the little ones of every city we left none to remain.
7 Only the cattel we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.
8 From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even to Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us.
9 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor to whatsoever
the LORD our God forbade us.

CHAP. III.

1 Then we turned, & went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people to battel at Edrei.
2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people and his land into thy hand, and thou shalt do unto him, as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.
3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, & all his people:
& we smote him
until none was left to him remaining.
4 And we took all his cities at y time, there was not a city which we took not from them, three score cities, all the region of Argob the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars, beside un-walled towns a great many.
6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women and children of every city.
7 But all the cattel, & the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to our selves.
8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, the land y was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon to mount Hermon:
9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, and y Amorites call it Shenir.)
10 All cities of the plain, & all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salcha, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants: behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon, nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it after the cubit of a man.
12 And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof gave I unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites.
13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh: All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of Giants.
14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri, and Maacharah: and called them after his own name, Bashan Hanoth Jair unto this day.
15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.
16 And to the Reubenites, and unto the Gadites, I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon, half the valley, & the border even unto the river Jabbok, which y border of y children of Ammon.
17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under Ashdoth Pisgah Eastward.
18 And I commanded you at y time, saying, The Lord your God hath give you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren children of Israel, all that are meet for the war.
19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattel (for I know that ye have much cattel) shall abide in your cities which I have given you:
20 Until the LORD hath given rest unto your brethren as well as unto you, and until they also possesse the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession which I have given you.
21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all y the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do to all y kingdoms whither thou passest.
22 Ye shall not fear them, for the LORD your God, he shall fight for you.
23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,
24 O Lord GOD, y hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, & thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven, or in earth, y can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?
25 I pray thee, let me go over and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.
26 But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, & would not hear me, and the LORD said to me, Let it suffice thee, speak no more unto me of this matter.
27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes Westward, and Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and behold it with thine eyes:
for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.
28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.
29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-Peor.

CHAP. IV.

NOw therefore hearken, O Israel, to the statutes, & to the judgments, w I teach you for to do them, that ye may live, and go in, and possess y land, w the Lord God of your fathers giveth you.
2 Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of y LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have ſeen what the LORD did because of Baal-Peor: for all the men that followed Baal-Peor, the LORD thy God hath deſtroyed them from among you.
4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God, are alive every one of you this day.
5 Behold, I have taught you Statutes and Judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye ſhould do ſo in the Land whither ye go to poſſeſs it.
6 Keep therefore, and do them; for this is your wiſdom and your underſtanding in the ſight of the nations, which ſhall hear all theſe Statutes and ſay, Surely this great nation is a wiſe and underſtanding people.
7 For what nation is there ſo great, who hath God ſo nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?
8 And what nation is there ſo great, that hath Statutes and Judgements ſo righteous, as all this Law which I ſet before you this day?
9 Only take heed to thee ſelf, and keep thy ſoul diligently, leſt thou forget the things which thine eyes have ſeen, & leſt they depart from thine heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy ſons, and thy ſons ſons;
10 Specially the day thou ſtoodſt before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD ſaid unto me, Gather me the people together, & I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me, all the days they ſhall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.
11 And ye came near, and ſtood under the mountain; and the mountain burnt with fire unto the midſt of heaven, with darkneſs, clouds, and thick darkneſs.
12 And the LORD ſpake unto you out of the midſt of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but ſaw no ſimilitude, only ye heard a voice.
13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten Commandments, and he wrote them upon two tables of ſtone.
14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you Statutes & Judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to poſſeſs it.
15 Take ye therefore good heed unto your ſelves (for ye ſaw no manner of ſimilitude on the day that the LORD ſpake to you in Horeb, out of the midſt of the fire)
16 Leſt ye corrupt your ſelves & make you a graven image, the ſimilitude of any figure, the likeneſs of male or female,
17 The likeneſs of any beaſt that is on the earth, the likeneſs of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,
18 The likeneſs of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeneſs of any fiſh that is in the waters beneath the earth:
19 And leſt thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou ſeeſt the Sun, and the Moon, and the Stars, even all the hoſt of heaven, ſhouldeſt be driven to worſhip them, & ſerve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.
20 But the LORD hath taken you, & brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.
21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your ſakes, and ſware that I ſhould not go over Jordan, and that I ſhould not go into that good Land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.
22 But I muſt die in this Land, I muſt not go over Jordan: but ye ſhall go over, and poſſeſſe that good Land.
23 Take heed unto your ſelves, leſt ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeneſs of any thing which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.
24 For the LORD thy God is a conſuming fire, even a jealous God.
25 When thou ſhalt beget children, and children children, and ſhall have remained long in the Land, and ſhall corrupt your ſelves, and make a graven image, or the likeneſs of any thing, and ſhall do evil in the ſight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger:
26 I call heaven and earth to witneſs againſt you this day, that ye ſhall ſoon utterly periſh from off the Land whither ye go over Jordan, to poſſeſs it: ye ſhall not prolong your days upon it, but ſhall utterly be deſtroyed.
27 And the LORD ſhall ſcatter you among the nations, and ye ſhall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD ſhall lead you.
28 And there ye ſhall ſerve gods, even the works of mens hands, wood and ſtone, which neither ſee, nor hear, nor eat, nor ſmell.
29 But if from thence thou ſhalt ſeek the LORD thy God, thou ſhalt find him, if thou ſeek him with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoul.
30 When thou art in tribulation, and all theſe things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, & ſhalt be obedient to his voice;
31 (For the LORD thy God is a merciful God) he will not forſake thee, neither deſtroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he ſware unto them.
32 For ask now of the days that are paſt which were before thee, ſince the day that God created man upon earth, and aſk from the one ſide of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any ſuch thing, or hath been heard like it?
33 Did ever people hear the voice of God, ſpeaking out of the midſt of the fire, as thou haſt heard, & live?
34 Or hath God aſſayed to go & take him a nation from the midſt of another nation, by temptations, by ſigns, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a ſtretched out arm, and by great terrible things, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

39 Vnto thee it was shewed, that thou might'st know, that the LORD he is God there is none also besides him.
40 Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee; and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his words out of the middest of the fire.
41 And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, & brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt:
42 To drive out nations from before thee, greater and mightier then thou art, to bring thee into, & give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.
43 Know therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath; there is none else.
44 Thou shalt keep therefore his Statutes and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for ever.
45 Then Moses severed three cities on this side Iordan toward the Sun rising.
46 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kil his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past, and that fleeing unto one of these cities, he might live:
47 Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country of the Reubenites, & Ramoth in Gilead of the Gadites, and Golan in Basban of the Manassites.
48 And this is the Law which Moses set before the children of Israel.
49 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgements, which Moses spake to the children of Israel, when they came forth out of Egypt:
50 On this side Iordan in the valley over against Beth-Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote after they were come forth out of Egypt; 51 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, were on this side Iordan toward the Sun rising.
52 From Aroer which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which is Hermon.
53 And all the plain of this side Iordan Eastward, even unto the sea of the plain under the springs of Pisgah.

CHAP. V.

1 Moses called all Israel, and bad them hear Gods statutes & judgements which they should learn & observe that day. 2 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us who are all of us here alive this day.
4 The Lord talked with you face to face in the mount, out of the middst of the fire, 5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount) saying,

6 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.
7 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.
8 Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth.
9 Thou shalt not bow down thy self to them, nor serve them: for I (LORD) thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, 10 And shewing mercy to thousands, of them that love me, and keep my commandments.
11 Thou shalt not take the Name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.
12 Keep the Sabbath day to sanctifie it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.
13 Six dayes thou shalt labour, and do all thy work.
14 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid servant, nor thine ox, nor thine asse, nor any of thy cattel, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: that thy man servant, and thy maid servant may rest as well as thou.
15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy God brought thee out thence, through a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the Sabbath day.
16 Honour thy father & thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee, that thy dayes may be prolonged, & that it may go well with thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.
17 Thou shalt not kil.
18 Neither shalt thou commit adultery.
19 Neither shalt thou steal.
20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.
21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbours wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbours house, his field, or his man-servant, or his maid servant, his ox, or his asse, or any thing that is thy neighbours.
22 These words the LORD spake to all your assembly in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, & of the thick darkness, with a great voice, and he added
no more: and he wrote them in two tables of stone, & delivered them to me.
23 And it came to pass when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkeness

nesse (for ỹ mountaine did burn with fire) that ye came nei to me, even all ye heads of your Tribes, & your Elders.

23 And ye said, behold, ỹ Lord our God hath shewed us his glory, & his greatnes, & we have heard his voyce out of ỹ midst of ỹ fire: this day we have seen that God doth talk with man, & he liveth.

24 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: If we heare the voyce of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

25 For who is there of all flesh that hath heard the voyce of ỹ living God, speaking out of the midst of the fire (as we have) and lived?

26 Go thou neere and heare all that the LORD our God shall say, and speake thou unto us all that ỹ e LORD our God shall speake unto thee, and we will heare it, and doe it.

28 And the LORD heard the voyce of your words when ye spake unto me, & the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voyce of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoke.

29 O that there were such an heart in them, that they would feare me, and keep my commandments alwayes, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever.

30 Goe, say to them, Get you into your tents againe.

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speake unto thee all the Commandments, and the Statutes, and the Iudgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may doe them in the land which I give them to possesse it.

32 Ye shal observe to doe therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand, or to the left.

33 You shal walk in all ỹ ways which the Lord your God hath commanded you ỹ ye may live, & ỹ it may be well with you & that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shal possesse.

CHAP. VI.

NOw these are the Commandments, the Statutes, and the Iudgements which the Lord your God commanded to teach you that ye might doe them in the land whither ye goe to possesse it.

2 That thou mayest feare the Lord thy God to keep all his Statutes, and his Commandments which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy sons sons, all the dayes of thy life, and that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Heare therefore, O Israel, & observe to doe it, ỹ it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee in ỹ land ỹ floweth with milk & hony.

4 Heare, O Israel, the LORD our God is one LORD.

5 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

6 And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart.

7 And thou shalt teach them diligently to thy children: & shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, when thou walkest by the way, & when thou liest down, & when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind them for a signe upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, & on thy gates.

10 And it shall be when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Iacob to give thee, great & goodly cities, which thou buildedst not,

11 And houses full of all good things which thou filledst not, & wells digged which thou diggedst not, vineyards & olive trees, which thou plantedst not, when thou shalt have eaten & be full;

12 Then beware lest thou forget the Lord which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt from ỹ house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt feare ỹ Lord thy God, & serve him, & shalt sweare by his name.

14 Ye shall not goe after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you:

15 (For the Lord thy God is a ỹ God among you) lest ỹ anger of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, & destroy thee from off the face of ỹ earth.

16 Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Massah.

17 Ye shall diligently keep the Commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his Statutes which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest goe in and possesse the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers;

19 To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the Lord hath spoken.

20 And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What meane the Testimonies, and the Statutes, and the Iudgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, we were Pharaohs bondmen in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And the LORD shewed signes & wonders, great and sore upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes.

23 And he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land ỹ he sware to our fathers.

24 And the Lord commanded us to doe all these Statutes, to feare the Lord our God, for our good always, ỹ he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shalbe our righteousnes, if we observe to doe all these Commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

CHAP.

CHAP. VII.

When the Lord thy God shal bring thee into y land whither y goest to possesse it, & hath cast out many nations before thee, y Hittites, & y Girgashites, & the Amorites, & the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Iebusites, seven nations greater and mightier then thou;
2 And when the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee, thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them, thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them.
3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.
4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.
5 But thus shall ye deal with them: ye shall destroy their altars, & break down their images, & cut down their groves, & burn their graven images with fire.
6 For thou art an holy people to the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.
7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor chose you, because you were more in number then any people; (for ye were the fewest of all people.)
8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn to your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh King of Egypt.
9 Know therefore that the Lord thy God he is God, y faithful God, which keepeth Covenant & Mercy with them that love him, & keep his commandments, to a thousand generations;
10 and repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.
11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the Statutes, and the judgements, which I command thee this day, to do them.
12 Wherefore it shall come to passe, if ye harken to these judgements and keep and do them: That the Lord thy God shal keep to thee y Covenant, & y Mercy which he sware to thy fathers:
13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oyle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee.
14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.
15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, & will put none of the evill diseases of Egypt (which ye know well) upon thee, but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.
16 And thou shalt consume all y people which y Lord thy God shal deliver thee: thine eye shal have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods, for that will be a snare to thee.
17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, these nations are mo then I; how can I dispossesse them?
18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember, what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt.
19 The great temptations & thine eies saw, & the signes, & the wonders, & the mighty hand, & the stretched out arm, wherby y Lord thy God brought thee out: so shall the Lord thy God do to all y people of whom thou art afraid.
20 Moreover, the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.
21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God, & terrible.
22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.
23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shal destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.
24 And he shal deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: There shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.
25 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.
26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou bee a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, & thou shalt utterly abhorre it; for it is a cursed thing.

CHAP. VIII.

All the commandments which I command thee this day, shal ye observe to do, that ye may live and multiply, and go in and possesse the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.
2 And thou shalt remember all y way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in y wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thy heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.
3 And he humbled thee, & suffered thee to hunger, & fed thee with Manna which ye knewest not, neither did thy fathers know: y he might make thee know, y man doeth not live by bread only, but by

by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of ỹ Lord doeth man live.
4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell these forty yeers.
5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, ỹ as a man chasteneth his son, so the Lord thy God chasteneth thee.
6 Therefore thou shalt keep ỹ commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his wayes, & to fear him.
7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountaines, and depths ỹ spring out of valles & hils;
8 A land of Wheate and Barley, and Vines and Figtrees, & Pomegranates, a land of Oyle-Olive and Hony.
9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without skarcenesse, thou shalt not lacke any thing in it; a land whose stones are yron, and out of whose hils thou mayest dig brasse.
10 When thou hast eaten, & are full, then thou shalt blesse ỹ Lord thy God, for ỹ good land ỹ he hath given thee.
11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, & his judgements and his Statutes which I command thee this day:
12 Lest when thou hast eaten, and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein
13 And when thy heards and thy flockes multiply, and thy silver, and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied:
14 Then thine heart be lifted up and thou forget the Lord thy God (which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;
15 Who led thee through ỹ great & terrible wildernesse, wherein were fiery serpents, & scorpions, and drought, where there was no water, who brought thee forth water out of ỹ rock of flint:
16 Who fed thee in ỹ wildernesse with Manna, ỹ thy fathers knew not, ỹ he might humble thee, & ỹ he might prove thee to do thee good at thy latter end;
17 And thou say in thine heart, My power, and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.
18 But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant, which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.
19 And it shall bee, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walke after other gods, and serve them, and worship them: I testifie against you this day that ye shall surely perish.
20 As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish, because ye would not be obedient to ỹ voyce of the Lord your God.

CHAP. IX.

HEar, O Israel, thou art to passe over Iordan this day, to go in to possesse nations greater and mightier then thy selfe, cities great, & fenced up to heaven,
2 A people great & tall, the children of ỹ Anakims, whom thou knowest, of whom thou hast heard say, who can stand before the children of Anak?
3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which goeth over before thee, as a consuming fire: he shal destroy them, & he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, & destroy them quickly, as the Lord hath said unto thee.
4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousnesse the Lord hath brought me in to possesse this land: but for the wickednesse of the nations, the Lord doth drive them out from before them.
5 Not for thy righteousnesse, or for the uprightnesse of thine heart, dost thou go to possesse their land: but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob.
6 Understand therefore, that the Lord thy God giveth thee not this good land to possesse it, for thy righteousnesse: for thou art a stiff necked people.
7 Remember, & forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wildernesse: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came to this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord.
8 Also in Horeb ye provoked ỹ Lord to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you, to have destroyed you.
9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the Tables of stone, even the Tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty dayes and forty nights, I neither did eat bread, nor drink water:
10 And the LORD delivered to me two tables of stone, written with the finger of God, and on them was written according to all the words of the LORD spake with you in the mount, out of the midst of fire, in the day of the assembly.
11 And it came to passe at the end of forty dayes and forty nights, that the Lord gave me the two Tables of stone, even the Tables of the Covenant.
12 And the LORD said to me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves: they are quickly turned aside out of the way ỹ I commanded them: they have made them a molten image.
13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiffe-necked people:
14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, & blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater then they.
15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned were first in my two hands.

2 And I brake the two tables of the covenant which ye brake, & thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of Shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up to the mount having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables according to the first writing, the ten commandments which the LORD spake to you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned my self and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made, and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, & there he was buried, & Eleazar his son ministered in the Priests office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah, & from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time, the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his Name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: the Lord is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount according to the first time, fourty dayes and fourty nights: and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 And y LORD said to me, arise, take thy journey before y people, that they may go in, and possesse the land which I sware to their fathers to give to them.

12 And now Israel, what doth y Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear y Lord thy God, to walk in all his waies, & to love him, & to serve the Lord thy God & all thy heart, and & all thy soul,

13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?

14 Behold, the heaven, & the heaven of heavens is the Lords thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them; even you, above all peoples, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the fore-skin of your heart, & be no more stiff-necked.

17 For the Lord your God, is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward.

18 He doth execute y judgement of the fatherless & widow, & loveth y stranger in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore y stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God: him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and sweare by his Name.

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which ye shall possesse, served their gods, upon the high mountaines and upon the hilles, and under every green tree.

3 And you shal overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves in fire, and you shal hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 Ye shal not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But to the place which the LORD your God shall chuse out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shal ye seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither shall ye bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offrings of your hand, and your vowes, and your free-will offrings, and the first lings of your beeves, and of your flocks.

7 And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shal rejoyce in all that you put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD your God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shal not do after al the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest, and to the inheritance which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when ye go over Iordan, and dwell in the land which the Lord your God giveth you to inherit it, & when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwel in safety:

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall chuse to cause his name to dwel there, thither shall ye bring all that I command you: your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave-offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD.

12 And ye shal rejoyce before ỹ LORD your God, ye and your sons, and your daughters, and your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and the Levites ỹ is within your gates, forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to thy self, that thou offer not thy burnt-offerings in every place that thou seest:

14 But in ỹ place which the Lord shal chuse in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt-offerings, & there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after according to the blessing of the LORD thy God, which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the Roe buck, and as of the Hart.

16 Onely ye shall not eat the blood: ye shall poure it upon the earth, as water.

17 Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tythe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or ỹ firstlings of thy herds, or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows ỹ thou wilt pay, nor thy free-will offrings, or heave-offring of thine hand:

18 But thou must eat them before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse, thou & thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoyce before the Lord thy God, in all that thou puttest thine hands to.

19 Take heed to thy self that thou forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 When the LORD thy God shal enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh (because thy soul loveth to eat flesh) thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosē to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kil of thy herd, and of thy flock, which the Lord hath given thee as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 Even as the ro-buck and the hart is eaten, so ỹ shalt eat them: ỹ unclean and the clean shal eat of them alike.

23 Onely be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life, & thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it, thou shalt powre it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it, ỹ it may go wel with thee, and ỹ children after thee when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only the holy things which thou hast, & thy vows ỹ shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shal chuse.

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt-offrings, the flesh and the blood upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be powred out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Obserye and hear all these words, which I command thee, that it may go wel with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou dost that which is good & right in ỹ sight of the Lord thy God.

29 When the Lord thy God shall cut off ỹ nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possesse them; and ỹ succeedest them, and dwellest in their land;

30 Take heed to thy self, that thou be not snared by following them, after ỹ they be destroyed from before thee, and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31 Thou shalt not do so to the Lord thy God; for every abomination to the LORD which he hateth, have they done to their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What thing soever I command you, obserye to do it: thou shalt not adde thereto, nor diminish from it.

CHAP. XIII.

IF there arise among you a Prophet, or a dreamer of dreames, and giveth thee a signe, or a wonder;
2 And the signe or the wonder come to passe whereof he spake to thee, saying: let us go after other gods (which thou hast not knowne) & let us serve them:
3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that Prophet, or y dreamer of dreames: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.
4 Ye shall walke after the Lord your God, and feare him, and keepe his commandements, & obey his voyce, & you shall serve him, and cleave unto him.
5 And that Prophet, or that dreamer of dreames, shall be put to death: because he hath spoken to turne you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lord y God commanded thee to walke in. So shalt thou put the wicked away from the midst of thee.
6 If thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or y wife of thy bosome, or thy friend which is as thine owne soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods (which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers,
7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh to thee, or far off from thee from y one end of the earth even unto y other end of y earth:
8 Thou shalt not consent to him, nor hearken unto him, neither shall thine eye pitie him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceale him:
9 But thou shalt surely kill him: thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.
10 And thou shalt stone him with stones that he die, because he hath sought to drive thee away from the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of y land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.
11 And all Israel shall hear, and feare, & shall do no more any such wickednes as this is among you.
12 If thou shalt heare say in one of thy Cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying,
13 Certaine men the children of Belial are gone out from among you, & have withdrawne the inhabitants of their Owne, saying, Let us go and serve other gods which ye have not known:
14 Then shalt thou enquire, and make search, and aske diligently, & behold if her ared, & y abomination be wrought among you:
15 Thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, & all that is therein, & the cattel thereof with the edge of the sword.
16 And thou shalt gather all y spoyle of it into the midst of y street thereof, and shall burne with fire the city, & all the spoile thereof every whit before the Lord thy God: and it shall be an heape for ever: it shall not be built again.
17 And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing unto thine hand: that the Lord may turne from the fiercenes of his wrath, and shew thee mercy, & have compassion on thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworne unto thy fathers:
18 When thou shalt hearken unto the voyce of the LORD thy God, to keepe all his commandements w I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

CHAP. XIIII.

YE are the children of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldnes between your eyes for the dead:
2 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, & y Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto him above all y nations y are upon y earth.
3 Thou shalt not eate any abomination.
4 These are the beasts which ye shall eate: the Ox, the Sheep, and the Goate,
5 The hart, and the Roe buck, and the wilde Bucke, & y wilde goat, & y Pygarg, & y Camell, & the wilde ox, & the Chamois.
6 And every beast that parteth the hoofe, and cleaveth the cleft into two clawes, and chaweth the cud among the beastes that ye shall eate.
7 Nevertheles these ye shall not eate of them that chew the cud, or of them y parte the cleft of the hoofe, as the Camell, & the Hare, & the Cone: for they chew the cud, but divide not y hoofe: therefore they are unclean unto you.
8 And the Swine, because it divideth the hoofe, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carkas.
9 These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins & scales shall ye eate.
10 And whatsoever hath not fins & scales ye shall not eate: it is unclean unto you.
11 Of all cleane birds ye shall eate.
12 But these are they of which ye shall not eate: the Egle, & y ossifrage, & y ospray, 13 And the Glede, and the Kite, and the Vulture after his kind:
14 And every Raven after his kind,
15 And the Owle, and y nightchawe, & the Cuckow, & y Hawke after his kind,
16 The little Owle, and the great Owle,
17 And the Pellican, and the Gier Eagle, and the Cormorant, 18 And the Stork, and the Heron after her kinde, & the Lapwing, & the Bat.
19 And every creeping thing y flieth, is unclean to you: they shall not be eaten.
20 But of all cleane foules ye may eate.
21 Ye shall not eate of any thing that dyed of it self: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eate it, or thou mayst sell it unto alem for thou art an holy people to Lord thy God. Thou ſhalt not ake a bid in his mothers milke.

Thou ſhalt truly tithe all the ineaſe of thy ſeed, that y field bringeth out yeer by yeer.
And thou ſhalt eat before the Lord thy God: in the place which he ſhall chooſe to place his Name there, the tith of thy corne, of thy wine, & of thy oil, and the firſtlings of thy herds: and of thy flocks that thou mayeſt learne to feare the LORD thy God always.
And if the way be to long for thee, ſo that thou art not able to carry it, or the place be to far from thee, which the Lord thy God ſhall chuſe to ſet his Name there, when the LORD thy God hath bleſſed thee:
Then ſhalt thou turne it to money and bind up the money in thine hand, and ſhalt go unto the place, which the LORD thy God ſhall chuſe,
And thou ſhalt beſtow that money for all that thy ſoul luſteth after:
whether it be for oxen, or for ſheep, or for wine, or for ſtrong drink, or for whatſoever thy ſoul deſireth: and thou ſhalt eat there before the Lord thy God, & thou ſhalt rejoice thou and thy houſhold, And the Levite that is within thy gates, forſake him not: for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.
At the end of three yeers ſy ſhalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increaſe y ſame yeer, & ſhalt lay it up within thy gates.
And the Levite, becauſe he hath no part nor inheritance with thee, and the ſtranger, and the fatherleſſe, and y widow that are within thy gates, ſhall come and eat, and be ſatisfied, that the LORD thy God may bleſſe thee in all y work of thine hand which thou doeſt.

CHAP. XV.

AT the end of every ſeven yeers thou ſhalt make a releaſe.
And this is the manner of the releaſe:
Every creditour that lendeth ought to his neighbour, ſhall releaſe it: he ſhall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother, becauſe it is called the LORDS releaſe.
Of a ſtranger thou may eſt exact it: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand ſhall releaſe: Howbeit there ſhall be no poor among you: for y Lord ſhall greatly bleſſe you in the land which y Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, to poſſeſſe it:
Only if thou carefully hearken to the voyce of the LORD thy God, to obſerve to do all theſe commandements which I command thee this day.
For y Lord thy God bleſſeth thee, as he promiſed thee, and ſy ſhalt lend to many nations, but ſhalt not borrow:
and ſhalt reigne over many nations but they ſhall not reigne over thee.
If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren in any of thy gates in thy land which y Lord thy God giveth thee, thou ſhalt not harden thy heart, nor ſhut thine hand from thy poor brother:
But thou ſhalt open thine hand wide unto him, & ſhalt lurely lend him ſufficient for his need in that which he wanteth.
Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, ſaying, The ſeventh yeer, the yeer of releaſe is at hand: and thine eye be evil againſt thy poore brother, and thou giveſt him nought, & he cry to the LORD againſt thee, and it be ſinne unto thee.
Thou ſhalt ſurely give him, and thine heart ſhall not be grieved: when thou giveſt unto him: becauſe that for this thing the LORD thy God ſhall bleſſe thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puteſt thine hand unto.
For the poor ſhall never ceaſe out of y land: Therefore I command thee ſaying, Thou ſhalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poore, and to thy needie in the land.
And if thy brother, or a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman be ſold to thee, & ſerve thee ſixe yeers, then in y ſeventh yeer ſy ſhalt let him go free from thee.
And when thou ſendeſt him out free from thee, thou ſhalt not let him go away empty.
Thou ſhalt furniſh him liberally out of thy flocke, & out of thy floore, and out of thy wine preſſe, of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath bleſſed thee thou ſhalt give unto him.
And thou ſhalt remember that y waſt a bondman in y land of Egypt, &
the Lord thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.
And it ſhall be if he ſay unto thee,
I will not go away from thee, becauſe
he loveth thee, and thine houſe, becauſe he is well with thee:
Then ſhalt y take an awl, & thruſt it through his eare to the door, and he ſhall be thy ſervant for ever: & alſo to thy maid ſervant ſy ſhalt do likewiſe.
It ſhall not ſeeme hard to thee when ſy ſendeſt him away free from thee: for he hath ſerved thee ſixe yeers, & the Lord thy God ſhall bleſſe thee in all that thou doeſt.
All the firſtling males that come of thy herd, & of thy flock ſy ſhalt ſanctifie unto the Lord thy God: ſy ſhalt do no worke w ſy firſtling of thy bullock, nor ſhear the firſtling of thy ſheepe.
Thou ſhalt eat it before y Lord thy God yeer by yeer, in y place which the Lord ſhall chuſe, y and thy houſehold.
And if there be any ill miſh therein as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemiſh, thou ſhalt not ſacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.
Thou ſhalt eat it within thy gates:
the unclean & y cleane perſon ſhall eat
it alike, as the Roe buck, and as y hart.
Only ſy ſhalt not eat y blood thereof:
y ſhalt poure it on y ground as water.

CHAP. XVI.

OBſerve y moneth of Abib, & keep the Paſſeover to y Lord thy God:
for in the moneth of Abib the LORD

thy God brought thee fourth out of Egypt by night.

2 Thou shalt ther fore sacrifice ỹ passover to the Lord thy God of ỹ flocke and the herd, in the place ẅ the Lord shal chuse to place his Name there.

3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread ẅ it: seven daves shalt ỹ eat unleavened bread ther with, even ỹ bread of affliction (for ỹ camest fourth out of ỹ land of Egypt in haste) that ỹ mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of ỹ land of Egypt, al ỹ dayes of thy life.

4 And there shal be no leavened bread seen ẅ thee in al thy coastes ẽ dayes: neither shal there any thing of ỹ flesh ẅ thou sacrificedst the first day at even remayne al night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice ỹ passeover within any of the gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee:

6 But at ỹ place which ỹ Lord thy God shal chuse to place his name in, there ỹ shalt sacrifice the passeover at even, at the going downe of ỹ Sun, at ỹ season that thou camest fourth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt rosse & eat it in ỹ place which the Lord thy God shall chuse and thou shalt turne in y morning and go vnto thy tents.

8 Six dayes thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and on the seuenth day shal be a solemne assembly unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no worke therein.

9 Seven weekes shalt thou number to thee: begin to number the seuen weekes from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corne.

10 And ỹ shalt keep ỹ feast of weekes to the Lord thy God ẅ a tribute of a free wil offring of thine hād, ẅ ỹ shalt giue to ỹ Lord thy God, according as ỹ Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

11 And thou shalt reioyce before the Lord thy God: ỹ, and thy son, & thy daughter & thy man seruant, and thy mayd seruant, & the Leuite ỹ is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, & the widow, that are among you, in the place ẅ the Lord thy God hath chosen to place his Name there.

12 And thou shalt remember that ỹ wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seuen dayes, after that ỹ cōmest together in thy corn & thy wine.

14 And ỹ shalt reioyce in thy feast, thou, & thy sons, and thy daughters, & thy man seruants, & thy mayd seruants, & the Leuite, & ỹ stranger, & ỹ fatherlesse, & the widowes ỹ are within ỹ gates.

15 Seven dayes shalt ỹ keep a solemne feast to the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord shal chuse: because the Lord thy God shal bleſſe thee in al thy increase, and in al the works of thine hands, therfore ỹ shalt surely reioyce.

16 Three times in a yeer shal al thy males appeare before ỹ Lord thy God in ỹ place ẅ he shal chuse: in ỹ feast of unleavened bread, & in ỹ feast of weeks and in ỹ feast of tabernacles: and they shal not appear before the Lord

17 Every man shal give as he is able according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath given thee.

18 Iudges & officers shalt ỹ make in al thy gates ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee, throughout thy tribes: & they shal judge ỹ people ẅ iust iudgement.

19 Thou shalt not wrest iudgement, shalt not respect person, neither take gift: for a gift doth blind ỹ eies of the wise, & peruert ỹ words of ỹ righteous.

20 That ẅ is altogether iust shalt thou follow, that thou mayest liue & inherit the land, ỹ LORD thy God giueth thee.

21 Thou shalt not plant there a tree of any trees neer to ỹ altar of ỹ LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 Neither shalt thou set thee up any image, ẅ the LORD thy God hateth.

CHAP. XVII.

THou shalt not sacrifice vnto God any bullock or sheep wherein is blemish, or any ill-fauoured thing: for that is an abomination to ỹ Lord thy God.

2 If there be found among you within any of thy gates ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his couenant,

3 And hath gone and serued other gods and worshipped them, either the Sun, or Moon, or any of the hoste of heaven, which I have not commanded,

4 And it be told thee, and ỹ hast heard of it, & inquired dil gently, & behold it be true, and the thing certain that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which have committed that wicked thing) unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, & shalt stone them ẅ stones til they die.

6 At the mouth of two, or three witnesses shal he that ought to die be slaine: but at the mouth of one witnesse he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of ỹ witnesses shall be first vpon him, to put him to death: & afterward hands of all ỹ people: so shalt thou put the euil away from among you.

8 If there arise a matter too hard for thee in iudgement, between blood & blood, her & her plea & plea & betweene stroke and stroke, being matters of controuersie within thy gates: then shalt ỹ arise and get thee vp into the place ẅ the Lord thy God shal chuse.

9 And thou shalt come to ỹ Priests the Leuites, & vnto the iudge ỹ shall be in those dayes, & enquire, and they shal shew thee ỹ sentence of iudgement.

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence which they shall shew thee from that place ẅ the LORD shal chuse: and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they informe thee:

11 According to the sentence of ỹ law ỹ shall teach thee, and a cōfort on the iudgement ẅ they shal tell thee shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew

7 Then he shall minister in the Name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his sonne or his daughter to passe through the fire, or that useth witchcraft, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

11 Or a charmer, or a counsulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things, are an abomination to the LORD: & because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God.

14 For these nations which thou shalt possesse, hearkened unto observers of times, and to diviners: but as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffred thee to do so.

15 The Lord thy God will raise up to thee a Prophet from the middest of thee, of thy brethren like unto me, unto him ye shall hearken:

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb, in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

17 And the LORD said unto me, they have well spoken which they have spoken.

18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak unto them, all that I shall command him.

19 And it shall come to passe, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words, which he shall speak in my Name, I will require it of him.

20 But the Prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my Name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the Name of other Gods, even that Prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 When a Prophet speaketh in the Name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to passe, that is the thing, which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: y shalt not be afraid of him.

CHAP. XIX.

WHen the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD

...one right hand, nor to y left. 7 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the Priest (that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God) or unto the Judge, even y man shall die: & thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. 8 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously. 9 When thou art come unto the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, & thou possessest it, and dwellest therein, if thou say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me: 10 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall chuse: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother. 11 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way. 12 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. 13 And it shall be when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this Law in a book, out of that which is before the Priests the Levites. 14 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the dayes of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this Law and these Statutes to do them: 15 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand or to the left: to the end y he may prolong his dayes in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel.

CHAP. XVIII.

THE Priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance. 2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: y LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said to them. 3 And this shall be the Priests due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep: and they shall give to the Priest the shoulder, the two cheeks and the maw. 4 The first fruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, & of thy oil, & the first of y fleece of thy sheep shalt thou give him. 5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in y Name of the LORD, he and his sons for ever. 6 And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall chuse:

Lord thy God giueth thee to possesse it.
3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and diuide the coasts of thy land, (which the LORD thy God giueth thee to inherit) into three parts, that euery slayer may flee thither.
4 And this is the cause of the slayer which shal flee thither, y he may liue: whoso kileth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past.
5 As when a man goeth into the wood w his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slippeth from the helue, and lighteth vpon his neighbour that he die he shal flee vnto one of those cities, and liue:
6 Lest the auenger of bloud pursue the slayer while his heart is hot, and ouertake him, because the way is long, and slay him, whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.
7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, thou shalt separate three cities for thee.
8 And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy coast (as he hath sworn vnto thy fathers) and giue thee all y land which he promised to giue vnto thy fathers.
9 (If thou shalt keep al these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day: to loue the LORD thy God, and to walk euer in his ways) then shalt thou adde three cities moe for thee, beside these three:
10 That innocent bloud be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giueth thee for an inheritance, and so bloud be vpon thee.
11 But if any man hate his neighbour & lie in wait for him & rise vp against him, and smite him mortally, that he die, & fleeth into one of these cities:
12 Then the elders of his city shall send & fetch him thence, and deliuer him into the hand of the auenger of bloud, that he may die.
13 Thine eye shal not pitie him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent bloud from Israel, that it may go well with thee.
14 Thou shalt not remoue thy neighbours land-mark, which they of old time haue set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land y the LORD thy God giueth thee to possesse it.
15 One witnes shal not rise vp against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin in any sin that he sinne: that the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shal the matter be stablished.
16 If a false witnesse rise vp against any man, to testifie against him that which is wrong:
17 Then both the men between whom the controuersie is, shal stand before the Lord, before the Priests and the iudges which shalbe in those dayes:
18 And the iudges shal make diligent inquisition: and behold, if the witnes be a false witnes, and hath testified falsly against his brother.
19 Then shal ye do vnto him, as he had thought to haue done vnto his brother, so shalt thou put the euil from among you.
20 And those which remain shall heare, & shal henceforth commit no more any such euil among you.
21 And thine eyes shal not pitie, but shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAP. XX.

When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more then thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt.
2 And it shal be when ye are come nie vnto the battle, that the Priest shall approach and speak vnto the people,
3 And shall say vnto them, Hear, O Israel, you approach this day vnto battle against your enemys: let not your hearts faint, feare not, and do not tremble, neither be terrified because of them:
4 For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies to saue you.
5 And the officers shal speak vnto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return vnto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.
6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.
7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, & hath not taken her? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in battle, & another man take her.
8 And the officers shal speak further vnto the people, and they shal say, What man is there that is fearfull and faint hearted? let him go and return vnto his house, lest his brethren heart faint as his heart.
9 And it shalbe when the officers haue made an end of speaking to the people, that they shal make captains of the armies to lead the people.
10 When thou commest nigh vnto a citie to fight against it, then proclaime peace vnto it.
11 And it shalbe, if it make thee answer of peace, and open vnto thee, that it shalbe that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries vnto thee, and they shall serue thee.
12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make warre against thee, then thou shalt besiege it.
13 And when the LORD thy God hath deliuered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite euery male thereof with the edge of the sword.
14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the citie, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take vnto thy self, and thou shalt eat of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

Thou shalt not remove the ors, which they of old time have set in thine ritance, which thou shalt inherit, in the land hich the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

One witness not sufficient.

One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

False witnesses punished.

If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days;

And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

Neither shall thine eye pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Laws of war.

When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest an horse and chariot, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

And it shall be, when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people,

And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them;

For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

hall found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thy self.

4 Thou shalt not see thy brothers asse or his oxe fall down by the way, & hide thy self from them; thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a womans garment: for all that do so, are abomination to the LORD thy God.

6 If a birds nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or egs, and the damsitting upon the yong, or upon the egs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young.

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee, that it may be wel with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy dayes.

8 When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, y thou bring no blood on thine house, if any man fal fro thence.

9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds; lest the fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard be defiled.

10 Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an asse together.

11 Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of wollen and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherwith thou covestit thy self.

13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her,

14 And give occasions of speach against her, & bring up an evil name on her, & say I took this woman, & when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shal the father of the damosel & her mother take & bring forth the tokens of the damosels virginity, to the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damosels father shal say unto the elders, I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hated her:

17 And lo, he hath given occasions of speach against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid: and yet these are the tokens of my daughters virginity, and they shal spread y cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of the city shall take that man and chastise him.

19 And they shall amerse him in an hundred shekels of silver, & give them unto the father of y damosel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgine of Israel: & she shal be his wife he may not put her away all his dayes.

20 But if this thing be true, & y tokes of virginity be not found for y damsel:

21 Then they shal bring out y damosel to the door of her fathers house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die, because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play y whore in her fathers house: so shalt thou root out the evil away from among you.

22 If a man be found lying with a man married to an husband, then shall both of them die, both the man y lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil fro Israel.

23 If a damosel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her,

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of the city, and shal stone them with stones that they die: the damosel, because she cryed not being in y city, and the man, because he hath hubled his neighbours wife: so shalt put away evil from among you.

25 But if a man finde a betrothed damosel in the field, and the man take her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shal die.

26 But unto the damosel thou shalt do nothing: there is in the damosel no worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour and slayeth him, even so is this matter.

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damosel cryed, and there was none to save her.

28 If a man find a damosel that is not betrothed, & lay hold on her, & lie with her, and they be found:

29 Then the man that lay with her shal give unto the damosels father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he hath humbled her: he may not put her away all his dayes.

30 A man shall not take his fathers wife, nor discover his fathers skirt.

CHAP. XXIII.

HE that is wounded in the stones or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into y congregatio of the LORD.

2 A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD: even to his tenth generation shal he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An Ammonite, or Moabite shall not enter into y congregation of the LORD: even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever.

4 Because they met you not with bread and with water in y way, when ye came forth out of Egypt, & because they hired against thee Balaã y son of Beor Pethor of Mesopotamia to curse thee.

5 Nevertheles y Lord thy God would not hearken to Balaam: but y Lord thy God turned y curse into a blessing unto thee, because y Lord thy God loved thee.

6 Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy dayes for ever.

7 Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite: for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian, because thou wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children y are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

9 When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every wicked thing.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 When a man hath taken a wife, and divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.
2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another mans wife.
3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bil of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house: Or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;
4 Her former husband which sent her away,
may not take her again to be his wife,
after y she is defiled: for that is abomination before y LORD: and y shal not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giv th thee for an inheritance.
5 When a man hath taken a new wife, he shal not go out to war, neither shal he be charged with any business but he shal be free at home one yeer: and shal cheer up his wife which he hath taken.
6 No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh a mans life to pledge.
7 If a man be found stealing any of his brethr n of y children of Israel, & maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him: then that thief shal die, and thou shalt put evil away from among you.
8 Take heed in the plague of leprosie, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that y Priests
the Levites shall teach you: as I command them, so ye shal observe to do.
9 Remember what the LORD thy God did to Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.
10 When thou doest lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.
11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou doest lend, shall bring out the pledge abroad to thee.
12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge.
13 In any case thou shalt deliver him y pledge again when y Sun goeth down that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousnes unto thee before the LORD thy God.
14 Thou shalt not oppresse an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers y are in thy land with in thy gates:
15 At his day thou shalt give him his wages, neither shal the Sun go down upon it, for he is poor, & setteth his heart on it, lest he cry against thee unto the LORD: and it be sin unto thee.
16 The fathers shal not be put to death for the children, neither shal y children be put to death for y fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.
17 Thou shalt not pervert the judgement of y stranger, nor of y fatherless, nor take a widows raiment to pledge:
18 But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-man in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence:
therefore I command thee to do this thing.
19 When thou cuttest down thine harvest in the field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for y stranger, for the fatherlesse, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may blesse thee in all y work of thine hands.

20 When thou beatest thine Oliuetree, thou shalt not go ouer y boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherlesse, and for the widow.
22 And thou shalt remember y thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt:
therefore I command thee to do this thing. CHAP. XXV.

1 If there be a controuersy betweene men,
& they come to iudgement, y the iudg-es may iudge them, the they shall iusti-fie y righteous, & condemne y wicked.
2 And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the Iudge shall cause him to lie downe, and to be beaten before his face according to his fault, by a certain number.
3 Forty stripes he may giue him, and not exceed: lest if he should exceed, & be beaten aboue these with many stripes, then thy brother shall seem vile to thee.
4 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corne.
5 If brethren dwel together, & one of them die, & haue no child, y the wife of the dead shal not marry without, vnto a stranger: her husbands brother shal go in vnto her, & take her to him to wife, & perform the duty of an husbands brother to her.
6 And it shall be that the first borne which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.
7 And if the man like not to take his brothers wife, then let his brothers wife go vp to the gate vnto the elders and say, My husbands brother refuseth to raise vp vnto his brother a name in Israel: he will not perform the duty of my husbands brother.
8 Then the elders of his city shall cal him, and speak vnto him: and if he stand to it, & say, I like not to take her:
9 Then shall his brothers wife come vnto him in the presence of y elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, & spit in his face, & shall answer and say, So shall it be done to that man, y will not build vp his brothers house.
10 And his name shall be called in Israel, the house of him that hath his shoe loosed.
11 When men striue together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth neere for to deliuer her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets:
12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.
13 Thou shalt not haue in thy bag diuers weights, a great, and a small.
14 Thou shalt not haue in thine house diuers measures, a great and a small.
15 But y shalt haue a perfect & iu weight a perfect & iust measure shalt haue, y thy dayes may be lengthned in y land y Lord thy God giueth thee.
16 For all that do such things, and all that do vnrighteously, are abomination vnto the LORD thy God.
17 Remember what Amalek did vnto thee by the way, when ye were co forth out of Egypt:
18 How he met thee by the way, an smote y hindmost of thee, euen all were feeble behind thee, when y wa faint & weary, and he feared not God 19 Therefore it shall be when y Lor thy God hath giuen thee rest from a thine enemies round about in the lan the LORD thy God giueth thee fo an inheritance to possesse it, y thou sha blot out the remembrance of Amale from vnder heauen: thou shalt not fo get it. CHAP. XXVI.

1 And it shall be when thou art com in vnto the land which the LORD giueth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein:
2 That thou shalt take of the first of the fruit of y earth, which thou shalt bri of thy land y LORD thy God giue thee, & shalt put it in a basket, & shal go to the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his Name there.
3 And thou shalt go to y priest that shall be in those dayes, & say vnto him I profess this day to y LORD thy God y I am come to the countrey which the LO sware vnto our fathers for to giue vs.
4 And the Priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, & set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.
5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt and sojourned there with a few, & became there a nation great mighty, and populous.
6 And y Egyptians euil intreated vs, afflicted vs, & laid on vs hard bondage.
7 And when we cryed vnto the LORD God of our fathers, y the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression.
8 And the LORD brought vs forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signes, and with wonders.
9 And he hath brought vs into this place, and hath giuen vs this land, euen
a land that floweth with milke & hony.
10 And now behold, I haue brought the first fruits of the land which thou O LORD, hast giuen me: and thou shalt set it before y LORD thy God, & worship before y LORD thy God.
11 And y shalt reioyce in euery good thing which the LORD thy God hath gi-uen vnto thee, & vnto thine house, thou Leuite, & the stranger y is among 12 When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase and ſtrangers in the yeer of tithing, and haſt given it to the Levite, y ſtranger, the fatherleſs, & the widow, that they may eat within thy gates & be filled:

13 Then ſhalt ſay before y LORD thy God, I have brought away y hallowed things out of mine houſe, & alſo have given them to y Levite, and to the ſtranger, to the fatherleſs, and to the widow, according to all thy commandements which thou haſt commanded me: I have not tranſgreſſed thy commandements, neither have I forgotten them.

14 I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away ought thereof for any unclean uſe, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to y voice of y LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou haſt commanded me.

15 Look down from thy holy habitation from heaven, and bleſſe thy people Iſrael, and the land which thou haſt given us, as thou ſwareſt to our fathers, a land that floweth with milk & honey.

16 This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do theſe Statutes and Judgements: do therefore them now, and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoul.

17 Thou haſt avouched the LORD this day to be y God, and to walk in his waies, and to keep his Statutes, and his commandements, and his Judgements, and to hearken unto his voice.

18 And the LORD hath avouched him this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promiſed thee, & that thou ſhouldeſt keep all his commandments:

19 And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praiſe, and in name, and in honour, and that thou mayeſt be an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath ſpoken.

CHAP. XXVII.

AND Moſes with the elders of Iſrael commanded the people, ſaying, Keep all the Commandements which I command you this day.

2 And it ſhall be on the day when you ſhall paſſe over Jordan, unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou ſhalt ſet thee up great ſtones, and plaiſter them with plaiſter:

3 And thou ſhalt write upon them all the words of this Law, when thou art paſſed over, y thou mayeſt go into y land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk & honey, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promiſed thee.

4 Therefore it ſhall be when ye be paſſed over Jordan, that ye ſhall ſet up theſe ſtones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal, and thou ſhalt plaiſter them with plaiſter.

5 And there ſhalt y build an altar to the LORD thy God, an altar of ſtones: y ſhalt not lift up an iron tool on them.

6 Thou ſhalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole ſtones: and thou ſhalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God.

7 And thou ſhalt offer peace-offerings, and ſhalt eat there, and rejoyce before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou ſhalt write on the ſtones all the words of this Law very plainly.

9 And Moſes, & the Prieſts y Levites, ſpake to all Iſrael, ſaying, Take heed, & hearken, O Iſrael, this day thou art become y people of y LORD thy God.

10 Thou ſhalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his Commandements, and his Statutes which I command thee this day.

11 And Moſes charged the people the ſame day, ſaying,

12 Theſe ſhall ſtand on mount Gerizim to bleſſe y people, when ye are come over Jordan, Simeon, & Levi, & Judah, & Iſſachar, and Joſeph, and Benjamin.

13 And theſe ſhall ſtand upon mount Ebal to curſe, Reuben, Gad, and Aſher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 And the Levites ſhall ſpeak, & ſay to all y men of Iſrael with a loud voice:

15 Curſed be y man y maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination to y Lord, y work of y hands of y craftſman, & puteth it in a ſecret place: and all y people ſhall anſwer, & ſay, Amen.

16 Curſed be he that ſetteth light by his father or his mother: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

17 Curſed be he that removeth his neighbours landmark: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

18 Curſed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

19 Curſed be he y perverteth y judgement of the ſtranger, fatherleſs, and widow: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

20 Curſed be he y lyeth with his fathers wife, becauſe he uncovereth his fathers skirt: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

21 Curſed be he that lieth with any manner of beaſt: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

22 Curſed be he that lieth with his ſiſter, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

23 Curſed be he y lieth with his mother in law: & all y people ſhall ſay, Amen.

24 Curſed be he y ſmiteth his neighbour ſecretly: & all y people ſhall ſay, Amen.

25 Curſed be he that taketh reward to ſlay an innocent perſon: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

26 Curſed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them: and all the people ſhall ſay, Amen.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND it ſhall come to paſſe, if thou ſhalt hearken diligently unto the voyce of the LORD thy God, to obſerve and to do all his Commandements which I command thee this day, that y LORD thy God will ſet thee on high above all nations of the earth.

2 And all theſe bleſſings ſhall come on thee, & overtake thee, if y ſhalt hearken to the voyce of the LORD thy God.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattel, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee, to be smitten before thy face, they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shal command the blessing upon thee in thy store-houses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto, and he shall blesse thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his wayes.

10 And all people of the earth shal see that thou art called by the Name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shal make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, & in the fruit of thy cattel, & in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shal open to thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to blesse all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shal make thee the head, and not the tail, and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath: if that thou hearken to the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe, and to do them.

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods, to serve them.

15 But it shall come to passe, if thou wilt not hearken to the voyce of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his Commandments and his Statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shal come on thee, & overtake thee.

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shal be thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shal be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20 The LORD shal send on thee cursing, vexation & rebuke in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, & until thou perish quickly, because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possesse it.

22 The LORD shal smite thee with consumption, and with a fever, & with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew, and they shal pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And the heaven that is over thy head shal be brass, and the earth that is under thee shal be iron.

24 The LORD shal make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitte before thine enemyes: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven wayes before them, and shalt be removed into all kingdoms of the earth.

26 And thy carkesse shal be meat unto all fouls of the aire, and unto the beasts of the earth, & no man shal fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The Lord shal smite thee with madness & blindness, and astonishment of heart.

29 And thou shalt grope at noone day, as the blind groapeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy waies: but thou shalt be onely oppressed, and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

30 Thou shalt betroth a wife, & another man shal lie with her: thou shalt build an house, & thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

31 Thine ox shal be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine asse shal be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

32 Thy sonnes and thy daughters shal be given unto another people, and thine eyes shal look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shal be no might in thine hand.

33 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not, eat up: and thou shalt be onely oppressed, and crushed alway.

34 So that thou shalt be mad, for the sight of thine eies which thou shalt see.

35 The LORD shal smite thee in the knees and in the legs with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king, which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, & there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

37 And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, & a by-word among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee.

Deuteron. for
Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and thou shalt gather but little in: for the locusts shall consume it.
Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them: but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes, for the worms shall eat them.
Thou shalt have olive-trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thy self with oil: for thine olive shall cast his fruit.
Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them: for they shall go into captivity.
All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the worm consume.
The stranger that is within thee, shall get up above thee very high: and thou shalt come down very low.
He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head and thou shalt be the tail.
Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and pursue thee, & overtake thee, till thou be destroyed: because thou hearkenedst not to the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his Commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee.
And they shall be upon thee for a sign and a wonder, & on thy seed for ever.
Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things.
Therefore shalt thou serve the enemy which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, & in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.
The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth, a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand:
A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young.
And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.
And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee throughout all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.
And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters (which the Lord thy God hath given thee) in the siege and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distresse thee.
So that the man y is tender among you, and very delicate, his eyes shall be evil toward his brother, and toward y wife of his bosom, and toward y remnant of his children y he shall leave.
So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege & in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distresse thee in all thy gates.
The tender & delicate woman among you, w would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon y ground, for delicateness & tenderness, her eies shall be evil towards y husband of her bosom, & towards her son, & towards her daughter,
And towards her young one y cometh out from between her feet, & toward her children w she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege & straitness, wherewith thy enemie shall distresse thee in thy gates.
If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayst fear this glorious and fearefull Name, THE LORD THY GOD.
Then y Lord will make thy plagues wonderful, & y plagues of thy seed even great plagues, & of long continuance, & sore sicknesses, & of long continuance.
Moreover, he will bring upon thee all y diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of, & they shall cleave unto thee.
Also every sickness, & every plague which is not written in y book of this Law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.
And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as y stars of heaven for multitude: because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.
And it shall come to passe, that as the LORD rejoyced over you to do you good, & to multiply you: so the Lord will rejoyce over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought: and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possesse it.
And y Lord shall scatter thee among all y people, from y one end of y earth even to y other, & there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither y nor thy fathers have known, even wood & stone.
And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.
And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee, & y shalt fear day & night, & shalt have none assurance of thy life.
In y morning thou shalt say, would God it were even: & at even y shalt say, would God it were morning: for y fear of thine heart wherewith y shalt fear, & for y sight of thine eyes w y shalt see.
And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt again, with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: & there ye shall be sold to your enemies for bondmen, & bondwomen, & no man shall buy you.

CHAP. XXIX.

These are the words of the Covenant which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the Covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called unto all Israel, & said unto them Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in y land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, & unto all his servants, & unto all his land.

3 The great temptations, & thy eyes have seen those great miracles:

4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, & eyes to see, & eares to heare, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty yeares in the wilderne: your cloths are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoes is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have not eate bread: neither have you drunk wine, or strong drink: & ye ought know y I am y Lord your God.

7 And when you came unto this place Sihon the king of Heshbon, & Og y King of Bashan, came out against us unto battell, and we smote them.

8 And we took their land, & gave it for an inheritance to y Reubenites, & to y Gadites, & y half tribe of Manasseh.

9 Keep therefore the words of this Covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

10 Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God: your captaines of your tribes: your Elders, & your officers with all the men of Israel.

11 Your little ones, your wives, & thy stranger y is in thy camp, fro y hewer of wood unto y drawer of thy water.

12 That y should enter into Covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath which y Lord thy God maketh with thee this day.

13 That he may establish thee to day for a people to himself, & y he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, & as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, & to Iacob.

14 Neither with you only do I make this Covenant and this oath:

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before y Lord our God, & also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in y land of Egypt: & how we came through the nations which ye passed by.

17 And ye have seen the abominations & their idols, wood, & stone, silver, and gold, which were among them.)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from y Lord your God: to go & serve y gods of these nations: lest there should be among you a root y beareth gall & wormwood.

19 And it come to pass when he heareth y words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace though I walk in y imagination of my heart: to adde drunkennes to thirst.

20 The Lord will not spare him: but then y anger of the Lord & his jealousie shall smoke against that man, & all y curses that are written in this book shall ly upon him, & y Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And y LORD shall separate him unto evill out of all y tribes of Israel according to all y curses of y Covenant are written in this booke of the law.

22 So that the generation to come your children y shall rise up after them, and y stranger y shall come from a farre land, shall say, when they see y plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it:

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, & salt, & burning, that is not sowen, nor beareth, nor any grasse groweth therein, like y overthrowing of Sodom & Gomorrah, Admah, & Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath:

24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath y LORD done thus to this land? what meaneth y heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, because they have forsaken the Covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them, when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went & served other gods, & worshipped them: gods which they knew not, & which he had not given unto them.

27 And y anger of y Lord was hot against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this booke:

28 And the Lord rooted them out of their land in anger, & in wrath, & in great indignation, & cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things that are revealed, belong unto us, & to our children for ever: that we may do all the words of this Law.

CHAP. XXX.

AND it shall come to pass when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing, & the curse which I have set before thee, and y shalt call them to mind among all y nations whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,

2 And shalt return unto the LORD thy God, & shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou & thy children with all thine heart, and with all thy soule;

3 That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion on thee, & will return & gather thee from all the nations whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost part of heaven, fro thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, & fetch thee.

5 And y LORD thy God will bring thee into the land y thy fathers possessed, & thou shalt possesse it: & he will do thee good, & multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And y LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, & the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, & with all thy soule, that thou mayest live.

7 And y LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, & on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return & obey

Lord, & do all his commanall command thee this day, Lord thy God will make thee in every work of thy hand, in fruit of thy body, & in y fruit of thy & in fruit of thy land for good:
Lord will again rejoice over thee as he rejoiced over thy fathers:
if thou shalt hearken to y voice of Lord thy God, to keep his command-& his Statutes, which are writin this book of the Law, and if y turn unto the Lord thy God with all heart, and with all thy soule.
For this commandement which command thee this day, it is not hid-from thee, neither is it farr off.
is not in heaven, y thou shouldest say, shall go up for us to heaven, &
it to us, y we may hear it, & doe it neither is it beyond the sea, that shouldest say, Who shall go over sea for us, and bring it unto us, we may heare it and do it.
But the word is very nigh unto in thy mouth, and in thy heart, thou mayst doe it.
Behave set before thee this day,
good, and death and evil;
this day I command thee this day, to the Lord thy God, to walke in wayes, and to keep his command-& his Statutes, & his judgements thou mayest live & multiply, & y Lord thy God shall blesse thee in the land whither thou goest to possesse it.
But if thine heart turn away, so thou wilt not heare, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, & serve them:
I denounce unto you this day, y ye shall surely perish, & y ye shall not prolong your dayes on y land whither y passest over Jordan to go to possesse it.
I call heaven & earth to record this day against you, y I have set before you life & death, blessing & cursing: therefore chuse life, that both thou and thy seed may live:
That y mayest love the Lord thy God, & y thou mayest obey his voyce & that y mayest cleave to him: for he is thy life, & y length of thy dayes, that thou mayest dwell in the land w
the Lord sware to thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, & to Jacob, to give them.

CHAP. XXXI.

Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel.
And he said unto them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day: I can no more go out and come in: also y Lord hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.
The Lord thy God, he will go over before thee, & he will destroy these nations before thee, & y shalt pos-sesse them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the Lord hath said,
And the Lord shall do unto them as he did to Sihon, and to Og kings of the Amorites, and to the land of them whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.
Be strong & of a good courage, feare not, nor be afraid of them for y Lord thy God, he it is y doeth go with thee,
he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.
7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto y land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them, and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.
8 And the Lord he it is that doth go before thee, he will be with thee, he will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:
feare not, neither be dismayed.
9 And Moses wrote this Law, and delivered it unto the priests y sons of Levi, w bare the Arke of the Covenant of y
LORD, & to all the Elders of Israel.
10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven yeers in the solemnity of the yeer of release, in the feast of tabernacles.
11 When all Israel is come to appeare before the LORD thy God, in y place
w he shal chuse, y shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, & thy stranger that is within thy gates that they may hear, & that they may learne & feare the LORD your God, & obserue to do all the words of this Law:
13 And that their children, w have not known any thing, may heare, and learne to feare the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possesse it.
14 And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thy dayes approach, that y must die: call Joshua, & present your selves in the tabernacle of the congregation, y I may give him a charge. And Moses & Joshua went & presented themselves in y tabernacle of y congregatio 15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle, in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.
16 And the Lord said unto Moses,
Behold, y shalt sleep with thy fathers, and this people will rise up and go a whoring after the gods of y strangers of the land, whither they go to be amongst them, and will forsake me, and break my Covenant w I made w them.
17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in y day, & I will forsake them, & I will hide my face from them, & they shall be devoured, & many evils & troubles shall befall them, so y they will say in y day, are not these evils come on us, because our God is not among st us 18 And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evil which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.
19 Now therfore write ye this song for you

you, & teach it ỹ childrē of Israel: put it in their mouthes, ỹ this ſong may be a witnes for me againſt ỹ childrē of Israel 20 For when I ſhal have brought them into the land which I ſware to their fathers, ỹ floweth with milke & hony:
& they ſhal have eaten & filled themſelves, & waxen fat: thē will they turn unto other gods, and ſerve them; and provoke me and breake my covenant.
21 And it ſhal come to paſſe, when many evils and trouble ſhal befall them, that this ſong ſhal teſtifie againſt thē,
as a witnes: for it ſhal not be forgotte out of the mouthes of their ſeed: for I know their imagination, which they go about even now, before I have brought them into the land which I ſware.
22 Moſes therfore wrote this ſong ỹ ſame day, & taught it ỹ childrē of Israel.
23 And he gave Ioſhua ỹ ſon of Nun a charge, and ſaid, Be ſtrong, and of a good courage: for thou ſhalt bring ỹ children of Israel into ỹ land which I ſware to them, & I will be with thee.
24 And it came to paſſe, when Moſes had made an end of writing ỹ words of this law in a book, until they were finiſhed,
25 That Moſes commanded ỹ Levites which bare the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord, ſaying, 26 Take this book of the Law, & put it in the ſide of the Arke of the Covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witnes againſt thee.
27 For I know thy rebellion and thy ſtiffe necke: Behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious againſt the LORD; and how much more after my death?
28 Gather unto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your officers, ỹ I may ſpeake thēſe words in their eares, & call heaven & earth to record againſt them.
29 For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt your ſelves, & turn aſide from ỹ way ỹ I have commanded you: and evil will befal you in the latter dayes, becauſe ye will do evil in ỹ ſight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the worke of your hands.
30 And Moſes ſpake in the eares of all the congregation of Israel the words of this ſong until they were ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

GIve eare, O ye heavens, and I will ſpeake: and heare, O earth, the words of my mouth.
2 My doctrine ſhal drop as the raine:
my ſpeech ſhal diſtil as the dewe, as ỹ ſmal raine upon the tender herbe: and as the ſhowres upon the graſſe.
3 Becauſe I will publiſh the Name of the Lord: aſcribe ye greatnes to our God.
4 He is ỹ rocke, his worke is perfect:
for all his wayes are iudgement: a God of truth, and without iniquitie, iuſt and right is he.
5 They have corrupted themſelves, their ſpot is not the ſpot of his children: they are a perverſe & crooked generation.
6 Doe ye thus requite the LORD, O foolish people, and unwiſe, is not he thy Father ỹ hath bought thee?

he not made thee, and eſtabliſhed thee?
7 Remember the dayes of olde:
conſider ỹ yeers of many generations:
aſke thy father, and he will ſhew thee:
thine elders, and they will tel thee.
8 When the moſt high divided to the nations their inheritance, when he ſeparated the ſonnes of Adam: he ſet the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.
9 For the LORDS portion is his people:
Iacob is the lot of his inheritance.
10 He found him in a deſart land, & in the waſte howling wildernes: he led him about, he inſtructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.
11 As an Eagle ſtirreth up her neſt, fluttereth over her young, ſpreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:
12 So the Lord alone did lead him,
& there was no ſtrange God with him.
13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eate the increaſe of the fields, and he made him to ſucke hony out of the rocke, and oyle out of the ſtinty rocke.
14 Butter of kine, and milke of ſheepe, with fat of lambes, and rams of the breede of Bathan, and goats, with fat of kidneys of wheat, and thou didſt drinke the pure blood of the grape.
15 But Ieſurun waxed fat, & kicked:
ỹ art waxen fat, ỹ art growne thicke, ỹ art covered with fatneſſe: then he forſooke God, which made him, and lightly eſteemed the Rocke of his ſalvation.
16 They provoked him to jealouſie with ſtrange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.
17 They ſacrificed unto devils, not to God: to Gods whom they knew not, new gods, that came newly up, whom your fathers feated not.
18 Of the Rocke that begate thee thou art unmindful, and haſt forgotten God that formed thee.
19 And when the LORD ſaw it, he abhorred them, becauſe of ỹ provoking of his ſons, and of his daughters.
20 And he ſaid, I will hide my face from them, I will ſee what their end ſhal be: for they are a very froward generation: children in whom is no faith.
21 They have moved me to jealouſie with ỹ which is not god: they have provoked me to anger with their vanities.
& I will move them to jealouſie with thoſe which are not a people: I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.
22 For a fire is kindled in my anger, ſhal burne unto the loweſt hell, & ſhal conſume the earth with her increaſe, & ſet on fire ỹ foundations of ỹ mountaines.
23 I will heape miſchiefes upon them:
I will ſpend mine arrowes upon them.
24 They ſhal be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heate, and with bitter deſtruction: I will alſo ſend the teeth of beaſts upon them, offer pents of the dust.

The sword without, and terrour this shall destroy both the young , and the virgine, the sucking with the man of gray haires.
I said, I would scatter them into corne-
, I would make the remembrance them to cease from among men:
Were it not that I feared the wrath
the enemy, lest their adversaries behave themselves strangely, & they should say, our hand is high,
the LORD hath not done all this.
For they are a nation void of , neither is there any under-ing in them.
O that they were wise, that they erstood this, that they would con-their latter end:
How should one chase a thousand
, and put ten thousand to flight, ex-their Rocke had sold them, and y LORD had shut them up?
For their Rocke is not as our Rock,
our enemeis themselves being Iudges
For their vine is of the vine of So-
, and of the fields of Gomorrah:
grape is grapes of gal, their ers are bitter.
Their wine is the poyson of dra-
, and the cruel venime of aspes.
Is not this laid up in store & me,
sealed up among my treasures?
To me belongeth vengeance and , in the time that their foot shall slide in due
: for the day of their calamitie is
, and the things that shall come them, make haste.
For the Lord shal iudge his people, repent himself for his servants, when ees that their power is gone, and e is none shut up, or left.
And he shal say, Where are their
, the rocke in whō they trusted?
ich did eate the fat of their sacri-
, & drank the wine of their drinkings? let them rise up and helpe
, and be your protection.
See now, that I even I am he, & there no god with me: I kil and I make ave; I wound, and I heale: neither is e any that can deliver out of my hand.
For I lift up my hand to heaven,
say, I live for ever.
If I whet my glittering sword, & mine hand take hold on judgement, I ll render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.
I will make mine arrowes drunke blood, (and my sword shal devour sh) and that with the blood of the ed, and of the captaines, from the ginning of revenges upon the enemy Rejoyce, O ye nations with his peo-
: for he will avenge the blood of his vants, and will render vengeance to adversaries, and will be merciful to land to his people.
And Moses came and spake all the ds of this song in the eares of the ple, he and Hoshea the son of Nun.
And Moses made an end of speak-all these words to all Israel.

46 And he said unto them: Set your hearts unto all the words which I testifie among you this day which ye shall command your children to observe to do all the words of this Law.
47 For it is not a vaine thing for you: because it is your life, & thorow this thing ye shal prolong your dayes in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possesse it.
48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfe same day, saying, 49 Get thee up into this mountaine Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Iericho, and behold ỹ land of Canaan which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession:
50 And die in the mount whither ỹ goest up, and be gathered to thy people as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered to his people:
51 Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel, at ỹ waters of Meribah Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin: because ye sanctified me not in ỹ midst of the children of Israel.
52 Yet thou shalt see the land before thee, but ỹ shalt not go thither unto ỹ land which I give ỹ children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AND this is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.
2 And he said, The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir to them:
he shined forth from mount Paran, & he came with ten thousands of Saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.
3 Yea he loved ỹ people: all his saints are in thine hand: and they sat down at thy feet: everyone shal receive of thy words.
4 Moses commanded us a Law: even ỹ inheritance of ỹ congregatiō of Iacob.
5 And he was King in Iesurun, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.
6 Let Reuben live, and not die, and let not his men be few.
7 And this is the blessing of Iudah: & he said, Heare, Lord, the voyce of Iudah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him, and be thou an help to him from his enemies.
8 And of Levi he said: Let thy Thum-mim, and thy Urim be with thy holy One, whom thou didest proove at Massah, and with whom thou didest strive at the waters of Meribah:
9 Who said unto his father, and to his mother, I have not seene him, neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his owne children: for they have observed thy word, & kept thy Covenat.
10 They shal teach Iacob thy Iudge-ments, and Israel thy Law, they shall put incense before thee, and whole burnt sacrifice upon thine Altar.
11 Bleese, LORD, his substance, and accept the worke of his hands:
smite thorow the loynes of them that rise against him, and of them that that hate him, ỹ they rise not againe

12 And of Benjamin he said. The beloved of the LORD shal dwel in safty by him, & ỹ Lord shal cover him all the day long. & he shal dwel between his shoulders.
13 And of Joseph he said. Blessed of ỹ LORD be his land, for the precious thing of heaven, for the dew and for the deep that coucheth beneath,
14 And for ỹ precious fruits brought forth by the Sun, & for the precious things put forth by the Moon:
15 And for the chief things of ancient mountaines, & for the precious things of the lasting hills.
16 And for ỹ precious things of the earth, & fulnes thereof, & ỹ good will of him ỹ dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come upō ỹ head of Joseph, & upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.
17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, & his horns are like ỹ horns of Unicorns: with them he shal push ỹ people together to the ends of ỹ earth: & they are ỹ ten thousands of Ephraim. & they are the thousands of Manasseh.
18 And of Zebulun he said. Rejoyce Zebulun in thy going out: and Issachar in thy tents.
19 They shal call the People unto the mountain, there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousnesse: for they shall suck of the abundance of the Seas, & of the treasures hid in the sand.
20 And of Gad he said Blessed be he ỹ enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion & teareth ỹ arm ẅ ỹ crown of ỹ head.
21 And he provided the first part for himself, because there in a portion of the law-giver was he buried. & he came with the head of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Israel.
22 And of Dan he said. Dan is a lyons whelp, he shal leap from Bashan.
23 And of Naphtali he said. O Naphtali satisfied with favour: & full with the blessing of the LORD: possess thou the West and the South.
24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children, let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oyle:
25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass & as thy dayes, so shal thy strength be.
26 There is none like to the God of Iesurun, who rideth on ỹ heaven for thy help, and in his excellency upon ỹ skie
27 The eternall God is thy refuge underneath are the everlasting armes: he shal thrust out the enemy before thee: & shal say, Destroy.
28 Israel then shal dwell in safty, alone: the fountain of Iacob shall be upon a land of corn & wine: also ỹ heavens shall drop down dew.
29 Happy are ỹ O Israel: who is like to thee, O people saved by the LORD ỹ shield of thy help: & who is the sword of thy excellency: & thine enemies shall be found lyars unto thee: & thou shalt tread upon their high places.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

AND Moses went up from the plaines of Moab unto ỹ mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, ỹ is over against Iericho: & the Lord shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan.
2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, & Manasseh, & all the land of Iudah, unto the utmost Sea.
3 And the south, and the plaine of the valley of Iericho, the city of palme trees unto Zoar.
4 And the LORD said to him. This is the land which I sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Iacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed. I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not goe over thither.
5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but no man knows of his sepulchre to this day.
7 And Moses was an hundred & twenty yeers old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his naturall force abated.
8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses, in the plaines of Moab, thirty dayes: So the dayes of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.
9 And Ioshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdome: for Moses had laid his hands upon him. & the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.
10 And there arose not a Prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face:
11 In all the signes and the wonders which the Lord sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land.
12 And in all that mighty hand, and all the great terrour which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

The Book of IOSHVA.

CHAP. I.

NOw after the death of Moses, the servant of the LORD, it came to passe, that the LORD spake unto Ioshua the son of Nun, Moses minister, saying 2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Iordan, thou and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.
3 Every place that the sole of your foot shal tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.
4 From the wilderness, & this Lebanon even unto the great river, the ri Eufra-

...al the land of the Hittites,
...the great Sea, toward the going
...of the Sunne, shalbe your coast.
...There shal not any manbe able to ...withstand thee all y daies of thy life:
...as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee;
...I will not faile thee, nor forsake thee.
...Be strong & of a good courage: for
...to this people shalt thou divide for ...inheritance the land which I sware
...unto their fathers to give them.
...Only be thou strong, and very ...couragious, that thou mayest observe
...to do according to all the law which
...Moses my servant commanded thee:
...turn not from it to the right hand, or
...to the left, that thou mayest prosper
...whithersoever thou goest.
...This book of the law shal not de...part out of thy mouth, but thou shalt
...meditate therein day and night; that ...thou mayest observe to do according
...to all that is written therein: for then
...thou shalt make thy way prosperous,
...and then thou shalt have good successe.
...Have not I commanded thee? Be ...strong and of a good courage; bee not ...afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for
...the LORD thy God is with thee,
...whithersoever thou goest.
...Then Iehoshua commanded the of...ficers of the people, saying,
...Passe through the host: and com...mand the people, saying, Prepare you
...victuals: for within three dayes, ye
...shall passe over this Iordan, to go in
...to possesse the land which the LORD
...your God giveth you, to possesse it.
...And to the Reubenites and to the
...Gadites and to halfe the tribe of Ma-
...nasseh spake Iehoshua, saying,
...Remember the word which Moses
...the servant of y LORD commanded you,
...saying, The Lord your God hath giv...en you rest, and hath given you this land
...Your wives, your little ones, and
...your cattell shall remaine in the land
...which Moses gave you on this side
...Iordan; but ye shall passe before your
...brethren armed, all the mighty men
...of valour, and helpe them;
...Until the LORD have given your
...brethren rest, as he hath given you,
...and they also have possessed the land
...which the LORD your God giveth
...them: then ye shall return unto the land
...of your possession, and enjoy it, which ...Moses the Lords servant gave you on on ...this side Iordan toward y sunne rising.
...And they answered Iehoshua, saying,
...All y commandest us we will do, and ...whithersoever y sendest us, we will go.
...According as we hearkened unto
...Moses in all things, so will we hearken
...unto thee: only the LORD thy God be
...with thee, as he was with Moses.
...Whosoever he be that doth re-
...bell against thy commandement, and ...will not hearken unto thy words in
...all that thou commandest him, hee
...shall be put to death: only be strong,
...and of good courage.

CHAP. II.

1 AND Iehoshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spie secretly, saying, go view y land, and y Iericho: & they went out, & came into a harlots house named Rahab, & lodged there.
2 And it was told the King of Iericho saying, behold, there came men in hither to night, of the children of Israel, to search out the countrey.
3 And the King of Iericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are en-tred into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.
4 And the woman took the two men, and hid them; and said thus: There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:
5 And it came to passe, about y time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither y men went, I wote not: pursue after them quickly for ye shall overtake them.
6 But shee had brought them up to the roofe of the house, and hid them with the stalkes of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roofe.
7 And the men pursued after them y way to Iordan unto the foords, & as-soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.
8 And before they were laid down,
she came up unto them upon the roofe.
9 And she said unto the men, I know, that the Lord hath given you y land,
and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.
10 For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of y red sea for you, when you came out of egypt, & what you did unto the two kings of y Amorites y were on the other side Iordā, Sihon and Og, whō ye utterly destroyd 11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man because of you: for the Lord your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.
12 Now therefore, I pray you, sweare to me by the Lord, since I have shewd you kindnes, y ye will also shew kindnes to my fathers house, & give me a true token:
13 And that ye will save alive my father and my mother, & my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.
14 And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our businesse. And it shall be when the Lord hath given us the land, that we will deale kindly and truly with thee.
15 Then she let them down by a coard through the window: for her house was upō y town wal, & she dwelt on y wal 16 And she said unto them: Get you to the mountaine, lest the pursuers meet with you; and hide your selves there three dares, until y pursuers be returned and afterward may you go your way.

17 And

17 And the men said to her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us sweare;
18 Behold, when we come into ỹ land, ỹ shalt bind this line of skarlet thread in the window which thou diddest let us down by: & ỹ shalt bring thy father & thy mother, & thy brethren, and all thy fathers houshold home unto thee.
19 And it shall be, ỹ whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into ỹ street, his blood shall be upō his head & we will be guiltelesse, & whosoever shall be with me in my house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.
20 And if thou utter this our businesse, then wee will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to sweare.
21 And shee said, According to your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the skarlet line in the window.
22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three daies, untill the pursuers were returned. And the pursuers sought them throughout all the way but found them not.
23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain and passed over, and came to Ioshua ỹ son of Nun, & told him all things that befell unto them.
24 And they said to Ioshua, truly the Lord hath delivered into our hands all the land: for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us.

CHAP. III.

AND Ioshua rose early in the morning, and they removed from Shittim, and came to Iordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.
2 And it came to pas after three daies, that ỹ officers went thorow the host;
3 And they commanded ỹ people, saying, When ỹ see the Ark of the Covenant of ỹ Lord your God, & ỹ Priests ỹ Leytes bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.
4 Yet there shall be a spac between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure, come not neer to it, ỹ ye may know ỹ way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore.
5 And Ioshua said to the people, Sanctifie your selves: for to morrow the LORD will doe wonders among you.
6 And Ioshua spake unto the Priests, saying, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and passe over before the people. And they took up the Arke of the Covenant, and went before the people.
7 And the LORD said unto Ioshua, This day will I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee.
8 And thou shalt command the Priests that bear the Ark of the Covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the water of Iordan, ye shall stand still in Iordan.
9 And Ioshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the word of the LORD your God.
10 And Ioshua said, Hereby ye know that the living God is among you, & that he will without fayle drive out from before you the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgasshites, and the Amorites, and the Iebusites.
11 Behold, the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD of all the earth, passeth over before you into Iordan.
12 Now therefore take ye twelve men out of the Tribes of Israel, out of every Tribe a man.
13 And it shall come to pas, assoone as the soles of ỹ feet of the Priests ỹ bear the Ark of ỹ Lord, the Lord of all the earth shal rest in ỹ waters of Iordan, that ỹ waters of Iordan shalbe cut off: for the waters ỹ come down from above, and they shall stand upon an heap.
14 And it came to passe when the people removed from their tents to passe over Iordan, and the Priests bare the Ark of ỹ Covenant before the people;
15 And as they that bare the Ark were come to Iordan, & the feet of ỹ Priests that bare ỹ Ark were dipped in the brim of the water (for Iordan overfloweth all his banks at the time of harvest)
16 That the waters which came down from above stood & rose up upon an heap very far from the citie Adam, that is beside Zaretan, & those ỹ came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, & were cut off, & ỹ people passed over right against Iericho.
17 And the Priests that bare the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Iordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, untill all the people were passed clean over Iordan.

CHAP. IIII.

AND it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over Iordan, that the LORD spake to Ioshua, saying,
2 Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,
3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of ỹ midst of Iordan, out of the place where the Priests feet stood firm, twelve stones, & ye shal carry them over with you, & leave them in the lodging place where you shal lodge this night.
4 Then Ioshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:
5 And Ioshua said to them, Passe over before the Ark of the Lord your God into the midst of Iordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:
6 That this may be a signe among you, that when yc our children aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What meane you by these stones?
7 Then ye shall answere them, That the waters of Iordan were cut off before the Arke of the Covenant of ver Iordan, ers of Iordan were cut off, and ers: This shall be for a memorial to dren of Israel for ever.

the children of Israel did so as ded, & took up twelve out of the midst of Iordan, as LORD spake unto Ioshua, accor-ber of the tribes of the of Israel, & carried them over them, unto the place where they and lay them down there.
Ioshua set up twelve stones in of Iordan, in the place where of the Priests which bare the of the Covenant, stood: and they unto this day.
the Priests which bare the Ark, midst of Iordan, until every was finished y I LORD commun-Ioshua to speak to y people, accorall that Moses commanded Io-people hasted & passed over.
it came to pass, when all the were clean passed over, that the
the LORD passed over, and the in the presence of the people.
the children of Reuben, & the of God, & half y tribe of Ma-passed over armed before y chil-Israel, as Moses spake to them:
about forty thousand prepared passed over before the LORD, unto the plaines of Iericho.
That day the LORD magnified in the sight of all Israel, and feared him, as they feared Moses days of his life.
the LORD spake unto Iosaying,
Command the Priests that bear the of the Testimonie, that they come of Iordan: Ioshua therefore commanded the saying, come ye up out of Iordan it came to pass when y I priests y Ark of the Covenant of the were come up out of y midst of & y soles of y Priests feet were unto y dry land, y waters of returned unto their place, & flow-all his banks as they did before.
And the people came up out of Ioron the tenth day of the first moneth encamped in Gilgal, in the East of Iericho.
And those twelve stones which took of Iordan, did Ioshua pitch in Gilgal
And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?
Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Iordan on dry land.
For the Lord your God dryed up y waters of Iordan from before you until were passed over, as y Lord your God to the Red sea, which he dryed up from before us, until we were gone over:
That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty, that ye might feare ther LORD your God for ever.

CHAP. V.

AND it came to passe when all the Kings of the Amorites which were on the side of Iordan Westward, & all the kings of the Canaanites which were by the Sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Iordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more because of the children of Israel.

2 At that time the LORD said unto Ioshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.

3 And Ioshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskinnes.

4 And this is the cause why Ioshua did circumcise: all the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wildernesse by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out, were circumcised, but all the people that were borne in the wilderness by the way as they came foorth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty yeers in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of warre which came out of Egypt were consumed, because they obeyed not the voyce of the LORD, unto whom the LORD sware that he would not shew them the land which the LORD sware unto their fathers, that he would give us a land that floweth with milke and honey.

7 And their children who he raised up in their stead, them Ioshua circumcised, for they were uncircumcised: because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to passe when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp till they were whole.

9 And the Lord said to Ioshua, This day have I rolled away y reproch of Egypt from off you. Wherefore y name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day.

10 And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the Passeover on the fourteenth day of the moneth at even, in the plaines of Iericho.

11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land, on the morrow after the Passeover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the self-same day.

12 And the Manna ceased on the morrow after they had eate of y old corn of y land, neither had y children of Israel Manna any more, but they did eat of y fruit of the land of Canaan that yeer.

13 And it came to passe when Ioshua was by Iericho, that he lift up his eyes, and looked, and beheld, there stood a man over against him, with his sword drawn in his hand: and Ioshua went unto him and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay, but as captain of y hoste

hoſte of the Lord am I now come. And Ioſhua fell on his face to the earth, and did worſhip and ſaid unto him, What ſaith my Lord unto his ſeruant?

15 And the captaine of the LORDS hoſte ſaid unto Ioſhua, Looſe thy ſhoe from off thy foot, for the place wherein thou ſtandeſt is holy: & Ioſhua did ſo.

CHAP. VI.

NOw Iericho was ſtraitly ſhut vp, becauſe of the children of Iſrael: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the Lord ſaid unto Ioſhua, See I haue giuen into thine hand Iericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye ſhal compaſſe the city, all ye men of war and go round about ỹ citie once: thus ſhalt thou do ſixe dayes.

4 And ſeuen Prieſts ſhal beare before the Arke ſeuen trumpets of rams hornes: and the ſeuenth day ye ſhall compaſſe the city ſeuen times, and the Prieſts ſhal blow with the trumpets.

5 And it ſhal come to paſſe, that when they make a long blaſt with the rams horns, and when ye heare the ſound of the trumpet, all the people ſhal ſhout with a great ſhout: and the wal of the citie ſhal fal down flat: and the people ſhal aſcend vp euery man ſtraight before him.

6 And Ioſhua the ſon of Nun called the Prieſts, and ſaid to them, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, and let ſeuen Prieſts beare ſeuen trumpets of rams hornes before the Arke of the LORD.

7 And he ſaid vnto the people, Paſſe on and compaſſe the city, and let him that is armed, paſſe on before the Arke of the LORD.

8 And it came to paſſe, when Ioſhua had ſpoken vnto the people, that the ſeuen Prieſts bearing the ſeuen trumpets of rams hornes paſſed on before ỹ LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the Arke of the couenant of the LORD followed them.

9 And ỹ armed men went before ỹ Prieſts that blew ỹ trumpets, & ỹ rere-ward came after the Arke, the Prieſts going on and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Ioſhua had commanded ỹ people, ſaying, Ye ſhal not ſhout, nor make any noiſe with your voyce, neither ſhall any word proceed out of your mouth, vntil the day I bid you ſhout, then ſhal ye ſhout.

11 So the Arke of the Lord compaſſed the city, going about it once, and they came in ỹ camp, & lodged in ỹ camp.

12 And Ioſhua roſe early in the morning, and the Prieſts tooke vp the Arke of the LORD.

13 And ſeuen Prieſts bearing ſeuē trumpets of rams horns before ỹ Arke of the Lord, went on continually, and blew ỹ trumpets, and ỹ armed men went before them, but ỹ rere-ward came after the Arke of the Lord, the Prieſts going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the ſecond day they compaſſed the city once, and returned into ỹ campe: they did ſixe dayes.

15 And it came to paſſe on the ſeuenth day, that they roſe early in the morning at the day, and compaſſed the citie ỹ ſame manner ſeuen times: only ỹ day they compaſſed ỹ city ſeuen times.

16 And it came to paſſe at the ſeuenth time, when the Prieſts blew ỹ trumpets, Ioſhua ſaid to the people, Shout for the Lord hath giuen you the citie.

17 And the citie ſhal be accurſed, it, and al that are therein to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot ſhal liue, al that are with her in ỹ houſe, becauſe ſhe hid the meſſengers that we ſent.

18 And you in any wiſe keep yourſelves from the accurſed thing, leſt ye make your ſelues accurſed when ye take of the accurſed thing, and make the hoſte of Iſrael a curſe, and trouble it.

19 But al the ſilver and gold, and veſſels of braſſe and iron, are conſecrated vnto the Lord: they ſhal come into the treaſure of the LORD.

20 So the people ſhouted when the Prieſts blew with the trumpets: and it came to paſſe when the people heard the ſound of the trumpets, and the people ſhouted with a great ſhout, that the wal fell down flat, ſo that the people went vp into ỹ city every man before him, and they took the city.

21 And they vtterly deſtroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and oxe, and aſſe, and ſheep, with the edge of the ſword.

22 But Ioſhua had ſaid vnto the two men that had ſpied out the coaſt, Go into the harlots houſe, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye haue vnto her.

23 And the young men that were ſpies went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and al that ſhe had: and they brought out all her kinred, and left them without the camp of Iſrael.

24 And they burnt the city with fire, and al that was therein: only the ſilver and the gold, and the veſſels of braſſe and of iron they put into the treaſure of the houſe of the LORD.

25 And Ioſhua ſaued Rahab the harlot alyue, & her fathers houſhold, and all that she had: and she dwelleth in Iſrael vnto this day: becauſe ſhe hid the meſſengers which Ioſhua ſent to ſpie out Iericho.

26 And Ioſhua adiured them at that time, ſaying, Curſed be the man before the Lord, that ariſeth vp & buildeth this city Iericho, he ſhal lay the foundation thereof in his firſt borne, & in his youngeſt ſon ſhal he ſet vp the gates of it.

27 So ỹ Lord was with Ioſhua, & his fame was noiſed throughout all the country.

CHAP. VII.

BVt the children of Iſrael committed a treſpaſſe in the accurſed thing: for Achan ỹ ſon of Carmy, ỹ ſon of Zabdi, the ſon of Zerahi, of the tribe of Iudah, took of the accurſed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled againſt the children of Iſrael.

And Joshua sent men from Iericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on y east side of Bethel, and spake to them, saying, Go up and view the country. So the men went up and viewed Ai. And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, Let not all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai, & make not all the people to labour thither, for they are but few. So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men, & they fled before the men of Ai. And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate, even to Shebarim, & smote them in the going down: Wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water. And Joshua rent his clothes and fell to the earth upon his face, before the Ark of the Lord, until the even-tide, he and the Elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan. O LORD, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies? For the Canaanites, & all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great Name? And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up, wherefore lieſt thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned, & they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of y accursed thing, & have also stolen, & dissembled also, & they have put it even among their own stuffe. Therefore y children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turn their backes before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from amongst you. Up, sanctifie y people, & say, Sanctifie your selves against to morrow: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, there is an accursed thing in the midst of you, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, til ye take away y accursed thing from among you. As ye shall be brought neer in the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be that the tribe which the LORD taketh, shall come according to y families thereof: and the family which the LORD shall take, shall come by houſholds: and the houſhold which the LORD shall take, shall come man by man. And it shall be, that he y is taken with the accursed thing, shall be burnt with fire, he & all that he hath: because he hath transgressed y covenant of y Lord, & because he hath wrought folly in Israel. So Joshua arose up early in y morning, & brought Israel by their tribes: and the tribe of Iudah was taken. And he brought y family of Iudah, & he took the family of the Zarhites: & he brought y family of Zarhites, man by man, and Zabdi was taken. And he brought his houſhold man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Iudah, was taken. And Joshua said unto Achan, my son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him, and tel me now what thou hast done, hide it not from me. And Achan answered Ioshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done. When I saw among the spoiles a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, & a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them, and behold, they are hid in y earth in my midst of my tent, and the silver under it. So Joshua sent messengers, & they ran unto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it. And they took them out of y midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, & unto all the children of Israel, & laid them out before y Lord. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, & y silver, & the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, & his daughters, & his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, & his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them to the valley of Achor. And Joshua said, Why hast y troubled us? the Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day: so y Lord turned from the fiercenes of his anger: wherefore y name of y place was called, The valley of Achor unto this day.

CHAP. VIII.

And the LORD said unto Ioshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed, take all the people of war with thee, & arise, go up to Ai, See, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land. And thou shalt do to Ai & her king, as y didst to Iericho & her king, only the spoil thereof, & the cattel thereof, shal ye take for a prey to your selves, lay thee an ambush for y city, behind it. So Ioshua arose & all the people of war, to go up against Ai, and Ioshua chose out thirty thousand migty men of valour, & sent them away by night. And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready.

5 And I, & all the people yare with me, will approach to y city: & it shal come to pas, whe they come out against us, as at y first, y we will flee before them 6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from y city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at y first: therefore we will flee before them 7 Then ye shal rise up from y ambush, and seize upon the city: for the Lord your God will deliver it into your hand 8 And it shalbe when ye have taken y city, y e shal set the city on fire: according to the commandment of y Lord shal ye do. See, I have comanded you. 9 Joshua therefore sent them forth, & they went to lie in ambush, & abod between Bethel & Ai, on y west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged y night amog y people. 10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, & numbred the people, and went up, he, and the Elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. 11 And all y people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, & drew nigh, & came before y city, & pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, & set them to lie in ambush between Bethel & Ai, on y west side of y city. 13 And when they had set y people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city: Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to pass when the king of Ai saw it, that they hasted, and rose up early, & men of the city went out against Israel to battel, he & all his people at a time appointed, before y plain, but he wist not y there were lyers in ambush against him, behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, & fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people y were in Ai, were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai, or Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And y Lord said to Joshua, Stretch out y spear y is in thine hand, toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear y he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: & they entred into the city, and took it, and hasted, and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, & lo, y smoke of y city ascended up to heaven, & they had no power to flee this way or that way: & the people y fled to the wilderness turned back upon y pursuers. 21 And when Joshua, & all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, & that the smoke of y city ascended, then they turned again, & slew men of Ai. 22 And the other issued out of against them, so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on y side, & they smote them, so that let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of Ai, they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to passe when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in y field, in y wilderness wherein they chased them, & when they were all fallen on y edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all Israelites returned unto Ai, & smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all y men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew not his hand back wherwith he stretched out y spear, until he had quite destroyed all y inhabitants of Ai.

27 Onely the cattel, & the spoil of this city, Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according to the word of the Lord, which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until even-tide: & as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carkeise down from off the tree, & cast it at the entring of y gate of y city, & raise thereon a great heap of stones that remain eth to this day.

30 Then Joshua built an altar to the Lord God of Israel in mount Ebal, 31 As Moses y servant of y Lord commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in y book of the Law of Moses, an Altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: & they offered thereon burnt-offerings unto the Lord, and sacrificed peace-offerings.

32 And he wrote there upon y stones a copy of y Law of Moses, which he wrote in y presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel, & their Elders, and officers, & their Iudges, stood on this side the Arke, & on that side, before the Priest s the Levites, which bare y Ark of y Covenant of y Lord, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them: half of them over against mount Gerizzim, & half of them over against mount Ebal, as Moses y servant of the LORD had commanded before time, that they should bless e y people of Israel.

34 And afterward he read all y words of y Law, & blessings, & cursings, according to all y is written in y book of the Law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, with the women and the little ones, and the strangers that were conversant among them.

CHAP. IX.

AND it came to pass when all y kings which were on this side Iordan, in the hils, & in the valleys, and in all the coasts mouth of the great Sea over against Lebanon the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite heard thereof.

2 That they gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua, and with Israel with one accord.

3 And when the Inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho, and to Ai,

4 They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had bin ambassadours, and took old sacks upon their asses, & wine bottles old and rent, & bound up

5 And old shoes, & clouted on their feet: & old garments on them, & all y bread of their provision was dry & mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto y camp of Gilgal, & said unto him, & to y men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ye a league with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwel amongus, & how shal we make a league with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they said unto him, From a very great country are thy servants come, because of the Name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt.

10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, unto Sihon king of Heshbon, & to Og king of Bashan which was at Ashtaroth.

11 Wherefore our elders, and all the Inhabitants of our country, spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for y journey, & go to meet them, & say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you: but now behold, it is dry, & mouldy.

13 And these bottles of Wine which we filled, were new, and behold, they be rent: and these our garments, and our shoes are become old, by reason of the very long journey.

14 And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD.

15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the Princes of the congregation sware unto them.

16 And it came to pass at the end of three dayes, after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel journeied, and came unto their cities on y third day: now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, & Beeroth, & Kirjath-jearim.

18 And y children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: & all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the Princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them: we will even let them live, lest wrath be on us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And y Princes said to them, Let them live: (but let them be hewers of wood, & drawers of water unto all the congregation) as the Princes had promised them.

22 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you? when ye dwel among us.

23 Now therefore ye are cursed, & there shal none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood & drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, & said, Because it was certainly told thy servants how that the LORD thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, & to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you: therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good & right unto thee to do unto us, do.

26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should chuse.

CHAP. X.

NOw it came to pass when Adonizedek king of Jerusalem had heard, how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it, (as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,

2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua, and with the children of Israel.

5 Therfore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, & went up, they & all their hostes, & encamped before Gibeon, & made war against it.

6 And y men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to y camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants, come up to us quickly & save us, & help us: for all the kings of y Amorites y dwel in y mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Iohua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the Lord said unto Iosh[ua] Fear them not: for I have deliuered them into thine hand; there shal not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Iesh[ua] therefore came to them sodenly, & went up from Gilgal al night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, & slew them a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along y way y goeth up to Bethoron, & smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to passe, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven on them unto Azekah, and they died: they were mo which died with y hailstones, then them whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 Then spake Iohua to the Lord in the day when y Lord delivered up the Amorits before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou stil upon Gibeon, and thou Moon in the valley of Ajalon.

13 And the sun stood stil, & the moon stinted, til y people had avenged themselves on their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Iasher? So the Sun stood stil in the midst of heaven, & hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

15 And Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Iosh[ua], saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Iohua said, Roul great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it, for to keep them.

19 And stay you not, but pursue after your enemies, & smite the hindmost of them, suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath deliverd them into your hand.

20 And it came to passe whe Ioshua & y children of Israel had made an end of slaying them a very great slaughter, til al they were consumed, y there stil remained of them, entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp of Ioshua at Makkedah in peace: none mov'd his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Ioshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Ierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to passe when they brought those kings unto Ioshua, y Ioshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captaines of the men of warre which went with him, Come neer, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came neer, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Ioshua said to them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong & of good courage for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies against whom you fight.

26 And afterward Ioshua smote them, and slew them, & hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon trees unto the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of going down of the Sun, that Ioshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had bin hid, and laid great stones in the caves mouth, which remaine until this very day.

28 And that day Ioshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he vtterly destroyed, them and all the soules that were therein, he let none remaine: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Iericho.

29 Then Ioshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord deliverd it also, and the king thereof into the hand of Israel, & he smote it with y edge of the sword, & all the soules that were therein: he let none remaine in it, but did to the king thereof as he did to the king of Iericho.

31 And Ioshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him unto Lachish, & encamped against it, and fought against it.

32 And the Lord delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to helpe Lachish, and Ioshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 And from Lachish Ioshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they encamped against it, & fought against it;

35 And they took it on that day, & smote it with the edge of the sword, & all the soules that were therein he vtterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Ioshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him unto Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the soules that were therein, he left none remaining according to all that he had done to Eglon, but destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 And Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it.

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and them with the edge of the sword smote them with the edge of the sword and he utterly destroyed the, as Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded.

13 But as for the cities y stood still in their strength, Israel burnt none of the saue Hazor only, that did Iosshua burn.
14 And al the spoil of these cities, and the catle, the children of Israel tooke for a prey to themselues: but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breath.
15 As the Lord commanded Moses his seruant, so did Moses commaũd Iosshua, & so did Iosshua: he left nothing undone of al that the Lord commanded Moses 16 So Iosshua tooke all the land, the hils, and al the South country, and all the land of Goshen, & the valley, and the plaine, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same.
17 Even from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, unto Baal-Gad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their Kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.
18 Iosshua made warre along time with al those Kings.
19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, saue the Hiuites, the inhabitants of Gibeon al other they took in battel.
20 For it was of the Lord, to harden their hearts, y they should com against Israel in battel, that he might destroy them utterly, & that they might have no fauour, but y he might destroy the,
as the LORD commanded Moses.
21 And at that time came Iosshua, and cut off the Anakims from y mountaines from Hebron, from Deber, from Anab, & from al the mountaines of Iudah, & from al y mountaines of Israel: Iosshua destroyed them utterly & their cities.
22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of y children of Israel:
only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Asshdod there remained.
23 So Iosshua tooke the whole land according to al that the LORD said to Moses, and Iosshua gaue it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their diuisions by their tribes: and the land rested from warre.

CHAP. XII.

NOw these are the Kings of the land, y children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Iordan, toward the rising of the Sun, from the riuer Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the plaine on the East.
2 Sihon King of the Amorites, who dwelt in Hesbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the banke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the middle of the riuer, and from half e Gilead, unto the riuer Iabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:
3 And from the plaine, to the Sea of Cinneroth on the East, and unto the Sea of the plaine, even the salt Sea on the East, the way to Beth-Iesimoth: and from

smote them with the edge of the sword, and left none remaining, but vtterly destroyed al that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.
Iosshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea, even to Gaza, and al y coun-trey of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.
And al these kings and their land did Iosshua take at one time: because y LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.
10 And Iosshua returned and al Israel with him, unto the campe to Gilgal.

CHAP. XI.

ANd it came to pass, when Iabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent to Iobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,
And to the Kings that were on the north of the mountaines: and of the plaines South off Ginneroth: & in y val-ley, & in y borders of Dor, on the west:
And to the Canaanite on the East, & on the West, and to the Amorite, & the Hittite, and the Perizite, & y Iebusite in the mountains, & to the Hiuite un-der Hermon in the land of Mizpeh.
And they went out, they and all their hoste with them, much people, even as many as the sand that is upon the sea shore in mul-titude, with horse & chariotes very many.
And when all these Kings were met together, they came and pitched toge-ther at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.
And the Lord said unto Iosshua, Bee not afraid because of the, for to morow about this time will I deliuer them vp al slaine before Israel: y shalt houghe their horses, and burn their chariots w fire.
So Iosshua came, and all the people of warre with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and they fell vpon them.
And the Lord deliuered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, & unto Misrephoth-maim, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward, and they smote the al, vntil they left none remaining.
And Iosshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: hee houghed their horses, & burnt their chariots w fire.
10 And Iosshua at that time turned backe, and tooke Hazor, and smote the King thereof with the sword: for Ha-zor before time was the head of all those Kingdomes.
11 And they smote al the soules y were therein w the edge of the sword, vtterly destroying them: there was not any left to breath: & he burnt Hazor with fire.
12 And al the cities of those Kings, and all the kings of them, did Iosshua take, & from the south, under Ashdoth-Pisgah.

4 And y coasts of Og king of Bashan which was of y remnant of the giants that dwelt at Ashtaroth, and at Edrei,
5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites, and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.
6 Them did Moses, the servant of the Lord, and the children of Israel smite. & Moses y servant of the Lord gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.
7 And these are the Kings of y country, which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Iordan on the West from Baal-Gad in the valley of Lebanon, even unto the mount Halak that goeth up to Seir, which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel, for a possession, according to their divisions:
8 In the mountaines, and in the valleys, and in the plains, & in the springs, and in the wilderness, & in the South country, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Iebusites.
9 The King of Jericho, one: the King of Ai which is beside Bethel, one:
10 The King of Jerusalem, one: the King of Hebron, one:
11 The King of Jarmuth, one: the King of Lachish, one:
12 The King of Eglon, one: the King of Gezer, one:
13 The King of Debir, one: the king of Geder, one:
14 The King of Hormah, one: the King of Arad, one:
15 The King of Libnah, one: the King of Adullam, one:
16 The King of Makkedah, one: the King of Bethel, one:
17 The King of Tappuah, one: the King of Hepher, one:
18 The King of Aphek, one: the King of Lasharon, one:
19 The King of Madon, one: the king of Hazor, one:
20 The King of Shimron-Meron, one: the King of Achshaph, one:
21 The King of Taanah, one: the King of Megiddo one:
22 The King of Kedesh, one: the King of Iokneam of Carmel one:
23 The king of Lorsin y coast of Dor, one: y king of y nations of Gilgal one:
24 The king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty and one.

CHAP. XIII.

NOw Ioshua was old, and stricken in yeers: and the LORD said unto him: Thou art old and stricken in yeers, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.
2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri,
3 From Sihor, which is before Egypt even unto the borders of Ekron Northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of y Philistines, y Gazathites, the Ashdothites, y Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, also y
4 From the South: all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah y is beside Sidonians unto Aphek, to the border of the Amorites:
5 And the land of the Giblites, and Lebanon toward the Sun rising, from Baal-Gad under mount Hermon, unto the entring in to Hamath.
6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out before y children of Israel: only deuide thou it by lot unto y Israelites for an inheritance as I have commanded thee.
7 Now therefore deuide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh,
8 With whom the Reubenites, and Gadites, have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them beyond Iordan Eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:
9 From Aroer that is upon the brim of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon:
10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon:
11 And Gilead, and y border of the Geshurites, & y Maachathites, & all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah:
12 All the kingdome of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.
13 Nevertheless, the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwel among the Israelites unto this day.
14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance: the sacrifices of y Lord God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto him.
15 And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families:
16 And their coast was from Aroer that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plaine by Medeba.
17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain: Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-Baalmeon, 18 And Iahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,
19 And Kiriathaim, & Sibmah, & Zareth-shahar, in y mount of the valley,
20 And Beth-Peor, & Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-Iesimoth:
21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdome of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, y and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

Balaam also the son of Beor the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slain by them.

22 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan and the border thereof: this was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even to the children of Gad according to their families:

25 And their coast was Jaazar, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto A-roer that is before Rabbah:

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath Mizpeh, and Betonim: and from Ma-hanaim unto the border of Debir.

27 And in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, & Succoth, & Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan, & his border, even to the edge of the Sea of Cinneroth, on the other side Jordan East-ward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities and their villages.

29 And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their coast was from Maha-naim, all Bashan, all the kingdome of Og king of Bashan, and all the townes of Jair, which are in Bashan, three-score cities:

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, & Edrei cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan were pertaining to the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countreys which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan by Jericho Eastward.

33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he had said unto them.

CHAP. XIIII.

Now these are the countreys which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them:

2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by y hand of Moses for the nine tribes, & for y half tribe.

3 For Moses had given y inheritance of two tribes, and an half tribe, on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Ioseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim:
therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattel, and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 Then the children of Iudah came to Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Iephunneh the Kenezite, said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said to Moses y man of God, concerning me & thee in Kadesh Barnea.

7 Fourty yeers old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea, to espie out the land, and I brought him word again,
as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless, my brethren that went up with me, made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on y day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have troden, shall be thine inheritance, and thy children for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God.

10 And now behold, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he said, these fourty & five yeers, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandred in y wilderness and now loe, I am this day fourscore and five yeers old.

11 As yet I am as strong this day, as I was in the day that Moses sent me:
as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this moun-taine whereof the Lord spake in that day, (for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced) if so be the LORD wil be with me, then I shal be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave to Caleb the son of Iephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Iephunneh the Kenezite unto this day: because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before, was Kiriath-arba, which Arba was a great man among the Anakims, and the land had rest from warre.

CHAP. XV.

THis then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iudah by their families, even to the border of Edom:
the wilderness of Zin southward, was the uttermost part of the South coast.

2 And their South border was from the shore of the salt Sea, from the bay that looketh Southward.

3 And it went out to the South side to Maalehacrabbim: and passed along to Zin, and ascended upon the South side unto Kadesh-Barnea, & passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compasse to Karkaa.

4 From thence it passed toward Az-mon: & went out unto the river of Egypt.

ter, & the goings out of ỹ coast were at ỹ seat: this shalbe your south coast.
5 And the East border was ỹ salt Sea, even to the end of Iordan: & their border in ỹ North quarter was from ỹ bay of the Sea, at ỹ vtmost part of Iordan.
6 And the border went vp to Bethhoglah, & passed along by ỹ North of Beth-arabah, & the border went up to the stone of Bohan ỹ son of Reuben.
7 And the border went vp toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so Northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the South-side of the river: and the border passed towards the waters of En-shemesh, & the goings out thereof were at En-Rogel.
8 And the border went up by ỹ valley of the son of Hinnom, to ỹ South side of the Iebusite, ỹ same is Ierusalem: & ỹ border went up to ỹ top of ỹ mountain, ỹ lieth before the valley of Hinnom, westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants, Northward.
9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hil, to ỹ fountain of ỹ water of Nephtoah: and went out to ỹ cities of mount Ephron: & ỹ border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kiriath-Iearim.
10 And the border compassed from Baalah Westward to mount Seir, and passed along vnto the side of mount Iearim, (which is Chesalon) on the North-side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah.
11 And the border went out vnto the side of Ekron Northward: & the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out to Iabneel: and the goings out of the border were at the sea.
12 And the west-border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof: this is the coast of ỹ children of Iudah round about according to their families.
13 And vnto Caleb ỹ son of Iephunneh he gave a part among the children of Iudah, according to ỹ commandment of ỹ Lord to Ioshua, ỹ city of Arba ỹ father of Anak, which city is Hebron.
14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.
15 And he went vp thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kiriath-Sepher.
16 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriath-Sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.
17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.
18 And it came to passe as she came vnto him, that she mooved him to ask of her father a field, and she lighted of her asse, and Caleb said vnto her, What wouldest thou?
19 Who answered, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a South-land, give me also springs of water: & he gave her the vpper springs, and the nether springs.
20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Iudah, according to their families.
21 And the vttermost cities of the coast of the children of Iudah toward Edom Southward, were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Iagur,
22 And Kinah, & Dimonah, & Adadah,
23 And Kedesh, & Hazor, & Ithnan,
24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, 25 And Hazor, Hadattah, & Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor,
26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,
27 And Hazar-Gaddah, & Heshmon, and Bethpalet, 28 And Hazarshual, and Beersheba, and Biziothiah,
29 Baalah, and Iim, and Azem,
30 And Eltolad, & Chesil, & Hormah,
31 And Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,
32 And Lebaoth, & Shilhim & Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty and nine, with their villages.
33 And in the valley, Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, 34 And Zanoah, & Enganim, Tappuah, and Enam, 35 Iarmuth, and Adullam, Socho, and Azekah,
36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages.
37 Zenam, & Hadashah, & Migdalgad,
38 And Dilean, & Mizpeh, & Ioktheel,
39 Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,
40 And Cabbon, & Lahmam, & Kithlish,
41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages.
42 Lebnah, and Ether, and Ashan,
43 And Iiphtah, & Ashnah, & Nezib,
44 And Keilah, & Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages.
45 Ekron, & her towns, & her villages.
46 From Ekron even to the sea all that lay neer Ashdod, with their villages.
47 Ashdod with her towns, & her villages, Gaza with her towns, and villages vnto the river of Egypt, and the great Sea, and the border thereof.
48 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Iattir, and Socoh,
49 And Dannah, & Kiriath-Sannah, which is Debir,
50 And Anab, & Eshtemoh, & Anim,
51 And Goshen, & Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities, with their villages.
52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean,
53 And Ianum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah,
54 And Humtah, and Kiriath-arba, (which is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities, with their villages.
55 Maon, Carmel, & Ziph, & Iuttah,
56 And Iezreel, & Iokdeam, & Zanoah,
57 Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities, with their villages.
58 Halhul, Bethzur, and Gedor,
59 And Maarah, and Bethanoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages.
60 Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-

Iearim

mah and Rabbah, with their villages.
37 Hazor also, and Kedesh, and Edrei, and Enhazor,
38 And Iron also, and Migdalel, Horem, and Bethanath, and Bethshemesh, nineteen cities with their villages.
39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.
40 The seventh lot came forth for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.
41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Irshemesh, 42 And Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and Jethlah,
43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,
44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,
45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon,
46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho.
47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.
48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.
49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:
50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.
51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAP. XVII.

1 There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.
2 There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.
3 But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, the LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.
5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead, and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan:
6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.
7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand to the inhabitants of Entappuah.
8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.
9 And the coast descended to the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the northside of the river, and the out goings of it were at the Sea.
10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.
11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Bethshean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countreys.
12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.
13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, but did not utterly drive them out.
14 And the children of Joseph spake to Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?
15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the Giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.
16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Bethshean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.
17 And Joshua spake to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only:
18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the out goings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have yron chariots, and though they be strong.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND the whole Congregation of the childrē of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set vp the Tabernacle of the congregation there, and the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet receyued their inheritance.

3 And Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, How long are ye slacke to go to possesse the land which y Lord God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Giue out from among you three men to eche tribe: & I will send them and they shal rise, and go through y land, & describe it according to y inheritance of them: & they shal come againe to me.

5 And they shal deuide it into seuen parts: Iudah shal abide in their coast on the South, and the house of Ioseph shal abide in their coasts on the North.

6 Ye shal therefore describe the land into seuen parts, and bring y description hither to me: that I may cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.

7 But the Leuites have no part among you, for the Priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad and Reuben and halfe the tribe of Manasseh have receiued their inheritance beyond Iordan on y East, which Moses y seruant of y Lord gaue them.

8 And then he arose and went away: and Ioshua charged them y went to describe y land, saying: Go & walke through the land, & describe it, and come againe to me: that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

9 And the men went and passed thorow the land, and described it by cities into seuen parts in a booke, and came againe to Ioshua to the hoste at Shiloh.

10 And Ioshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Ioshua deuided y land vnto y children of Israel according to their diuisions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Beniamin came vp according to their families: and the coasts of their lot came forth betweene the children of Iudah, and the children of Ioseph.

12 And their border on the North side was from Iordan and the border went vp to the side of Iericho, on the North side and went vp through the mountaines Westward: & y goings out thereof were at y wilderneſe of Beth-aven.

13 And y border went out frō thence toward Luz to y side of Luz (which is Bethel) Southward: & y border descended to Ataroth-adar, ner y hil y lyeth on y South side of the nether Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawen thence & compassed y corner of the Sea Southward, from the hil that lyeth before Beth-horon South ward: & the goings out thereof were at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-iearim) a citie of the children of Iudah. This was the West quarter.

15 And the South quarter was from the end of Kiriath-iearim, and the border went out on the West: and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah.

16 And the border came downe to the end of the mountaines, that lye before the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, which is in the valley of the giants on the North, and descended to the valley of Hinnom to the side of Iebusi on y South and descended to Enrogel.

17 And was drawne from the North, and went forth to Enshemith, & went forward toward Gelioth which is ouer against y going vp of Adummin, & descended to the stone of Bohan y son of Reuben.

18 And passed along toward the side ouer against Arabah, Northward, & went downe vnto Arabah.

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: & the outgoings of the border were at the Northbay of the salt sea, at the South end of Iordan: This was y South coast.

20 And Iordan was y border of it on the East side: this was y inheritance of the childrē of Beniamin by y coasts of it round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Beniamin, according to their families were Iericho, and Beth-hoglah and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,

23 And Auim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar-Haāmonai, & Ophni, and Gaba, twelue cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mispeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, & Taralah,

28 And Zelah, & Ieph, & Iebusi (which is Ierusalem) Gibeath, and Kiriath: fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Beniamin according to their families.

CHAP. XIX.

AND y second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of y children of Iudah.

2 And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar-shual, and Balah, & Azem,

4 And Eltolad, & Bethul, & Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hasar-susah,

6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteene cities and their villages.

7 Ain Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their villages.

8 And all the villages that were about these cities, to Baalath-beer, Ramath of the South: This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Iudah was the inheritance of the children of Simeō: for the part of y children of Iudah was too much for them:

Simeon, Zebulun,
the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of the 9 And the third lot came vp for the children of Zebulon according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was vnto Sarid.
10 And their border went vp toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river

12 And from thence passeth on along on the East to Gittah Hepher, to Ittah-Kazin, and goeth out to Remmon which stretcheth to Neah, 13 And the border compasseth it on the thereof are in y valley of Iphthah-el, 14 And Katah, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem:

twelue cities with their villages.
15 This is the inheritance of the chil-

Anaharath,
19 And Rabbith, and Kishion, & Abez, 20 And Remeth, and Engannim, and Enhaddah, and Beth-pazzez,
21 And the coast reacheth to Tabor, & Shahazimah, and Bethshemesh, and the outgoings of their border were at Iordan: sixteen cities with their villages.
22 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar, according to their families, y cities & their villages.
23 And the fift lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.
24 And their border was Helkath,

Misheal and reacheth to Carmel West ward to Shihor Libnath, 26 And turneth toward y sun rising to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to Zebulun and to the valley of Iphthah el toward the North side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on y left hand, 27 And Hebron, and Rehob, & Hammon, & Kanah, even vnto great Zidon y 28 And then y coast turneth to Hazahran, to Hannoth, & y outgoings thereof are at the sea, from y coast to Akzib, 29 Hammah also, & Achzib, Helbah, and Ahiah, & Achzib, 30 Vmmah, and Aphek, & Rehob: twenty and two cities & their villages.
31 This is the inheritance of y tribe of the children of Asher according to their families: these cities & their villages.
32 The fift lot came out to the children of Naphtali: even for y children of Naphtali according to their families.
33 And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, & Adami, made an end of dividing the country.

CHAP. XX.

1 The Lord also spake vnto Ioshua,
saying,
2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake vnto you by the hand of Moses:
3 That the slayer that killeth any person vnawares, and vnwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the auenger of blood.
4 And when he y doth flee vnto one of those cities shal stand at the entring of the gate of the citie, and shall declare his cause in the eares of the Elders of that citie; they shal take him into the citie vnto them and give him a place, that he may dwel among them

5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shal not deliver the slayer vp into his hand: because he smote his neighbour vnwittingly, and hated him not before time.

6 And he shal dwel in that citie, vntil he stand before the Congregation for judgement, and vntil the death of the high Priest that shall be in those dayes: then shal the slayer return, and come vnto his owne citie and vnto his own house, vnto y citie from whence he fled.

7 And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, & Shechem in mount Ephraim, & Kiriath arbah (y is Hebron) in the mountaine of Iudah.

8 And on the other side Iordan by Iericho Eastward they assigned Bezer in the Wildernesse vpon the plain, out of the tribe of Reuben, & Ramoth in Gilead out of y tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of y tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that soiourneth among them, y whosoever killeth any person at vnawares, might fleet thither, and not dye by the hand of the avenger of blood, vntil he stood before y congregation.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Then came neere the heads of the fathers of the Levites vnto Eleazar the Priest and vnto Iosh ua the son of Nun and vnto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

2 And they spake vnto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, to give vs cities to dwel in, with the suburbes thereof, for our cattell.

3 And the children of Israel gave vnto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandement of the LORD, these cities, & their suburbes.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Levites had by lot out of the tribe of Iudah, & out of y tribe of Simeon, & out of y tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 And y children of Gershom had by lot out of y families of y tribe of Issachar, and out of y tribe of Asher, & out of y tribe of Naphtali, & out of y half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben and out of the tribe of Gad, & out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 And the children of Israel gave by lot vnto the Levites these cities with their suburbes, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 And they gave out of the tribe of y children of Iudah, and out of y tribe of the children of Simeon these cities which are here mentioned by name.

10 Which the children of Aaron being o the families of the Kohathites who were of the children of Levi, (for theirs was the first lot.)

12 And they gave them the citie Arbah the father of Anak (which is Hebron) in y hil countrey of Iudah, & the suburbs thereof round about.

12 But the fields of the citie, and the villages thereof gave they to Caleb the son of Iephunneh for his possession.

13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the Priest, y Hebron with her suburbes, to be a city of refuge for the slayer, and Libnah with her suburbes.

14 And Iattir with her suburbes, and Eshtemoa with her suburbes.

15 And Holon with her suburbes, and Debir with her suburbes.

16 And Ain with her suburbes, and Iuttah with her suburbes, and Bethshemesh with her suburbes, nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her suburbes, Geba with her suburbes.

18 Anathoth with her suburbes, and Almon with her suburbes, four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron the Priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbes.

20 And y families of y children of Kohath y Levites, which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had out of their lot out of y tribe of Ephraim.

21 For they gave them Sichem with her suburbes in mount Ephraim, to be a citie of refuge for the slayer, and Gezer with her suburbes.

22 And Kibzaim with her suburbes, and Beth-horon with her suburbes, four cities.

25 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbes, and Gathrimmon with her suburbes: two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbes for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 And to y children of Gershom of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbes, to be a citie of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with her suburbes, two cities.

28 And out of y tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbes, Dabrath with her suburbes,

30 And out of y tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbes, and Abdon with her suburbes, 31 Helkath with her suburbes, and Rehob with her suburbes, four cities.

away: and they went unto their tents.
7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan Westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents then he blessed them.
8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, & very much cattel, with silver & with gold, & with brasse, & with iron, and with very much raiment: Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.
9 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to.
11 And the children of Israel heard say, Lo, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, & the half tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.
12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.
13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest.
14 And with him ten princes of each chief house a prince, throughout all the tribes of Israel, and each one was an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.
15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, & to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, & they spake with them, saying,
16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel this day against the LORD?
17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, (although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,)
18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? & it will be that seeing ye rebell to day against the LORD, to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel.
19 Notwithstanding if the land of your possession be unclean, then ye over the LORDS land wherein where ỹ LORDS Tabernacle dwelleth and take possession among us but ỹ rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel ỹ against us, in building you an altar, beside the altar of the LOR Dour God.

20 Did not Achan ỹ son of Zerah comit a trespasse ỹ accursed thing, & wrath fel on al ỹ congregatiō of Israel? & ỹ man perished not alone in his iniquty
21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and the half of the of Manasseh, answered, and said unto ỹ heads of the thousands of Israel.
22 The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shal know, if it be in rebelliō, or if in transgression against the LORD (save us not this day.)
23 That we have built us an Altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer theron burnt offring, or meat offring, or if to offer peace offerings theron, let ỹ LORD himself require it.
24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, in time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with the LOR God of Israel?
25 For the LORD hath made Iordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben, and children of Gad, ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.
26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an Altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifices,
27 But that it may be a witnesse between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do ỹ service of ỹ LORD before him with our burnt offrings, and ỹ our sacrifices, & ỹ our peace offrings, ỹ your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.
28 Therefore said we, yt it shalbe, whē they should so say to us, or to our generations in time to come that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of ỹ LORD, ỹ our fathers made, not for burnt offrings, nor for sacrifices but it is a witnes betwē us & you.
29 God forbid that we should rebel against ỹ LORD, & turn this day from following ỹ LORD, to build an altar for burne offrings, for meat offrings or for sacrifices, besides ỹ altar of the Lord our God yt is before his tabernacl.
30 And when Phinehas ỹ Priest, and ỹ Princes of ỹ congregation & heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard these words ỹ the children of Reuben & the children of Gad, & the children of Manasseh spake, it pleased them.
31 And Phinehas ỹ son of Eleazar the Priest said to ỹ children of Reuben, & to ỹ children of Gad, and to ỹ children of Manasseh, This day we perceive ỹ ỹ Lord is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against ỹ Lord now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.
32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest, & the Princes returned from children of Reuben, & from children of Gad out of the land of Gilead, into the land of Canaan to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.
33 And the thing pleased ỹ children of Israel, & the children of Israel blessed God, & did not intend to go up against them in battel, to destroy ỹ land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.
34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar: for it shall be a witnesse between us, that the LORD is God.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 And it came to pass a long time after ỹ the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Iehoshua waxed old, & stricken in yeares.
2 And Iehoshua called for all Israel, & for their elders, & for their heads, & for their iudges, & for their officers, & said unto them; I am old and stricken in yeares.
3 And ye have seen all yt ỹ LORD your God hath done unto all these nations before your face: for it is ỹ LORD your God yt hath fought for you.
4 Behold I have divided unto you these nations that remain for an inheritance for your tribes from Iordan with all ỹ nations that I have cut off, even to the great Sea Westward.
5 And the LORD your God he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight, and ye shal possesse their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you.
6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the Law of Moses, that ye turn not aside there from, to the right hand or to the left.
7 That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them.
8 But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.
9 For ỹ LORD hath driven out before you, great nations and strong: But as for you no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.
10 One man of you shal chase a thousand: for ỹ Lord your God he it is that fighteth for you as he hath promised you.
11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, ỹ ye love ỹ LORD your God.
12 For if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave to the remnant of these nations, even these yt remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they unto you:
13 Know for a certainty, yt the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations before you: but they shalbe snares & traps unto you, & scourges in your sides, & thorns in your eyes, until ye perish frō off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And behold, this day I am going y way of all the earth, & ye know in all your hearts, & in all your souls, y not one thing hath failed of all the good things y Lord your God hath spoken concerning you: all are come to pass to you, & not one thing ha h failed thereof.
15 Therefore it shal come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you: so shall the Lord bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you.
16 When ye have transgressed the covenant of the Lord your God which he commanded you, and have gone & served other gods, & bowed your selves to them: then shal the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and ye shal perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given you.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 And Iosua gathered al the tribes of Israel to Shechem, & called for the elders of Israel, and for their Heads, & for their Iudges, and for their officers,
& they presented themselves before God.
2 And Iosua said unto al the people, Thus saith y Lord God of Israel, your fathers dwelt ony other side ory flood in old time, even Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor:
and they served other gods.
3 And I took your father Abraham fro the other side of the flood, and led him throughout al the land of Canaan; and multiplied his seed, & gave him Isaac.
4 And I gave unto Isaac, Iacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possesse it: but Iacob and his children went down into Egypt.
5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did amongst them: and afterward I brought you out.
6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came unto the Sea, & the Egyptians pursued after your fathers w charets & horsemen unto the red Sea.
7 And when they cryed unto the Lord,
he put darkenes between you & the Egyptians & brought the Sea upon the & covered them. & your eies have seen what I have done in Egypt, & ye dwelt in the wildernesse a long season.
8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites which dwelt on the other side Iordan: and they fought with you and I gave them into your hand that ye might possesse their land, and I destroyed them from before you.
9 Then Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you; 10 but I would not hearken unto Balaam, therefore he blessed you stil: so I delivered you out of his hand.
11 And ye went over Iordan, & came unto Iericho: and the men of Iericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, & the Hittites, and the Girgasshites, the Hivites, and the Iebusites, and I delivered them into your hand.
12 And I sent y hornet before you, which drave them out fro before you, even the two kings of y Amorites but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.
13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, & ye dwel in them: of the vineyards, and oliveyards which ye planted not, doe ye eate.
14 Now therefore fear the LORD, & serve him in sincerity, and in truth, & put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, & in Egypt: and serve ye the LORD.
15 And if it seem evil to you to serve y Lord, chuse you this day whom you will serve, whether y gods which your fathers served y were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of y Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me, and my house, we will serve y LORD.
16 And the people answered, & said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods.
17 For the LORD our God, he it is y brought us up & our fathers out of the land of Egypt, fro y house of bondage, & which did those great signes in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed.
18 And y LORD drave out from before us all y people even y Amorites which dwelt in the land: therfore will we also serve the LORD, for he is our God.
19 And Iosua said to the people, Ye cannot serve y Lord: for hee is an holy God, hee is a jealous God, he will not forgive your transgressions, nor your sins.
20 If ye forsake the LORD, & serve strange gods, then he will turn, and do you hurt, and consume you after that he hath done you good.
21 And the people said unto Iosua, Nay, but we will serve the LORD.
22 And Iosua said to the people, Ye are witnesses against your selves, that ye have chosen you y LORD, to serve him; And they said, We are witnesses.
23 Now therefore put away, said hee, the strange gods which are among you, & encline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.
24 And the people said unto Iosua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voyce will we obey.
25 So Iosua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute, and an ordinance in Shechem.
26 And Iosua wrote these words in the book of y Law of God: & took a great stone, & set it up there under an oak, y was by y sanctuary of y LORD.
27 And Iosua said to al y people, behold, this stone shal be a witness to us: for it hath heard al y words of y Lord which he spake to us, it shal be therefor a witness to you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.
29 And it came to passe after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun the servant of the LORD died, being an hundred and ten yeers old.
30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the North side of the hill of Gaash.
31 And Israel served the LORD all the dayes of Joshua: & all the dayes of the Elders that overlived Joshua, & which had known all the works of the LORD that he had done for Israel.
32 And the bones of Joseph, which children of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Sichem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor father of Sichem, for an hundred pieces of silver, & it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.
33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died, and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

The Book of JUDGES

CHAP. I.

Now after the death of Joshua, it came to passe, that the children of Israel asked of the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?
2 And the LORD said, Judah shall go up, behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.
3 And Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites, & I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.
4 And Judah went up, & the LORD delivered the Canaanites & the Perizzites into their hand; and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.
5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek & they fought against him, & they slew the Canaanites & the Perizzites.
6 But Adoni-bezek fled, & they pursued after him, and caught him, & cut off his thumbes, and his great toes.
7 And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten Kings having their thumbs, & their great-toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath requited me, & they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.
8 (Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.)
9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites that dwelt in the mountain, & in the South, & in the valley.
10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron (now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath-arba) & they slew Sheshai, & Ahimã, & Talmai.
11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: (& the name the city of Debir before was Kiriath-sepher.)
12 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.
13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother took it: & he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.
14 And it came to passe when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: & she lighted from off her asse, & Caleb said to her, What wilt thou?
15 And she said unto him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land, give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.
16 And the children of the Kenite Moses father in law went up out of the city of palm-trees, & the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah which lyeth in the South of Arad, & they went & dwelt among the people.
17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother: and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it, (and the name of the city was called Hormah.)
18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, & Ekron with the coast thereof.
19 And the LORD was with Judah, and he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain, but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron.
20 And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sonnes of Anak.
21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.
22 And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Bethel: and the Lord was with them.
23 And the house of Iosephsent to search Bethel, (now the name of the city before was Luz.)
24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us we pray thee the entrance into the city, and we will shew thee mercy.
25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the citie they smote the city with the edge of the sword: but they let go the man and all his family.
26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.
27 Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean, and their towns, nor Taanah, and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor, and her towns,

...ram, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo, and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass when Israel was ...ong, that they put y Canaanites to tribute, & did not vtterly drive them out.

29 Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol: but the Canaanites dwelt among the, & became tributaries.

31 Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor y inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor Achzib, nor Helbah, nor Aphik, nor of Rehob:

32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Bethanath, but he dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: neuertheless, the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, & of Bethanath, became tributaries vnto them.

34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountaines: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres in Aialon, & in Shaalbim: yet ſtand of the house of Ioſeph prevailed, ſo that they became tributaries.

36 And the coaſt of the Amorites was from the going up to Akrabbim, from the rocke, and vpward.

CHAP. II.

AND an Angel of the LORD came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and ſaid, I made you to go vp out of Egypt, and haue brought you to the land which I ſware to your fathers, and ſaid, I will neuer breake my couenant with you.

2 And ye ſhall make no league with the inhabitants of this land: you ſhall throw down their altars: but ye haue not obeyed my voyce: why haue you done this?

3 Wherefore I alſo ſaid, I will not drive them out from before you, but they ſhall be as thornes in your ſides, and their gods ſhalbe a ſnare vnto you.

4 And it came to paſſe when the Angel of the LORD ſpake theſe words to all the children of Iſrael, that the people lift vp their voyce, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place, Bochim. And they ſacrificed there vnto the LORD.

6 And when Ioſhua had let the people go, y children of Iſrael went every man to his inheritance to poſſeſſe the land.

7 And the people ſerued the LORD all the dayes of Ioſhua, and all the dayes of the Elders that outliued Ioſhua, who had ſeen all the great works of the LORD that he did for Iſrael.

8 And Ioſhua the ſonne of Nun the ſeruant of the LORD died, being an hundred and ten yeers old.

9 And they buried him in the borders of his inheritance in Timnah-Heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the North ſide of the hill Gaaſh.

10 And alſo all that generation were gathered vnto their fathers, and there aroſe a new generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the workes which he had done for Iſrael.

11 And the children of Iſrael did euil in y ſight of y Lord, & ſerued Baalim:

12 And they forſook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought the out of y land of Egypt, & followed other gods, of the gods of the people y were round about them, & bowed themſelues vnto them, & prouoked y LORD to anger.

13 And they forſook the LORD, and ſerued Baal and Aſhtaroth.

14 And the anger of y LORD was hot againſt Iſrael, & he deliuered them into the hands of ſpoilers y ſpoiled them, & he ſold them into y hands of their enemies round about, ſo y they could not any longer ſtand before their enemies.

15 Whither ſoeuer they went out, the hand of y Lord was againſt them for euill, as the LORD had ſaid, & as the LORD had ſworn vnto them: and they were greatly diſtreſſed.

16 Neuertheleſſe the LORD raiſed vp Iudges, which deliuered them out of the hand of thoſe that ſpoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken to their Iudges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themſelues vnto them; they turned quickly out of the way, which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandements of the LORD; but they did not ſo.

18 And when the LORD raiſed them vp Iudges, then the LORD was with the Iudge, & deliuered them out of y hand of their enemies, all the dayes of the Iudge (for it repented the LORD) because of their groanings, by reaſon of them that oppreſſed them & vexed them.

19 And it came to paſs, when y Iudge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themſelues more then their fathers, in following other gods, to ſerue them, and to bow down vnto them: they ceaſed not from their owne doings, nor from their ſtubborn way.

20 And the anger of the LORD was hot againſt Iſrael, & he ſaid, Becauſe y this people hath tranſgreſſed my couenant which I commanded their fathers, & haue not hearkened vnto my voyce,

21 I alſo will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Ioſhua left when he died:

22 That through them I may proue Iſrael, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore y Lord left thoſe nations, without driving them out haſtily, neither deliuered he them into y hand of Ioſhua.

CHAP. III.

NOw theſe are the nations which the LORD left to proue Iſrael by them (even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Onely that the generations of the children of Israel might know to teach them war; at the least such as before knew nothing thereof:)
3 Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and ỹ Zidonians, & the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-Hermon, unto the entring in of Hamath.
4 And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the Commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites.
6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their Sons, and served their gods.
7 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgate the LORD their God, and served Baalim, and the groves.
8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hote against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-Rishathaim King of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-Rishathaim eight yeeres.
9 And when the children of Israel cryed unto the LORD, the Lord raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Calebs yonger brother.
10 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the Lord delivered Chushan-Rishathaim King of Mesopotamia into his hand, and his hand prevailed against Chushan-Rishathaim.
11 And the land had rest forty yeers. and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.
12 And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon the King of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.
13 And he gathered to him ỹ children of Ammon & Amalek, & went & smote Israel, & possessed ỹ city of palm trees.
14 So the children of Israel served Eglon ỹ King of Moab eighteen yeers.
15 But when the children of Israel cryed to the Lord, the Lord raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left handed: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the King of Moab.
16 But Ehud made him a dagger (which had two edges) of a cubite length; and he did gird it under his raiment, upon the right thigh.
17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab, and Eglon was a very fat man.
18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.
19 But he himself turned again from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence; and all that stood by him went out from him.
20 And Ehud came unto him, and he was sitting in a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.
21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right, and thrust it into his belly.
22 And the haft also went in after the blade; & the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly, and the dirt came out.
23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doores of the parlour upon him, and locked them.
24 When he was gone out his servants came, and when they saw, that behold the doores of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he covereth but in his summer chamber.
25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and behold he opened not ỹ doores of the parlour; therefore they took a key, & opened them: and behold, their Lord was fallen down dead on the earth.
26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, & escaped unto Seirath.
27 And it came to pass when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.
28 And he said unto them, Follow after me, for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took ỹ fordes of Jordan toward Moab, & suffered not a man to pass over.
29 And they slew of Moab at ỹ time about ten thousand men, all lusty men of valour, & they escaped not a man.
30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel, and the land had rest fourscore yeers.
31 And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred men with an ox goad: and he also delivered Israel.

CHAP. III.

AND the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.
2 And the Lord sold them into the hand of Jabin King of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor: the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.
3 And the children of Israel cryed to the LORD: for he had nine hundred charets of iron: and twenty yeers he mightily oppressed ỹ children of Israel.
4 And Deborah a prophetesse, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.
5 And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Be-dwelt in mount Ephraim: & y children of Israel came up to her for Iudgement.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam, out of Kedesh-Naphtali, and said vnto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded saying, Go and draw towards mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Zebulun?
7 And I will draw vnto thee, to the riuer Kishon, Sisera the captain of Iabins army, & his charets, and his multitude: & I wil deliuer him into thy hand.
8 And Barak said vnto her, If y wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, the I will not go.
9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the iourney y thou takest shal not be for thine honour: for the Lord shal sel Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.
10 And Barak called Zebulun, and Naphtali to Kedesh, and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.
11 Now Heber the Kenite (which was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses) had seuered himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent unto y plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.
12 And they shewed Sisera, that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor,
13 And Sisera gathered together all his charets, euen nine hundred charets of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, vnto the riuer of Kishon.
14 And Deborah said vnto Barak, Vp: for this is the day in which the Lord hath delyered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.
15 And the Lord discomfited Sisera, and all his charets, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak: so that Sisera lighted down off his charet and fled away on his feet.
16 But Barak pursued after the charets and after the host, vnto Harosheth of the Gentiles. and all the host of Sisera fel vpon the edge of the sword: and there was not a man left.
17 How-beit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace betwen Iabin the King of Hazor, and the house of Heber the Kenite.
18 And Iael went out to meet Sisera, and said vnto him, Turne in my lord, turne in to me, feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her, into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.
19 And he said vnto her, Give me, I pray thee, a litle water to drinke, for I am thirstie. And she opened a bottle of milk, & gave him drink, & covered him.
20 Againe he said vnto her, Stand in the dore of the tent, & it shal be when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.
21 Then Iael, Hebers wife, took a naile of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly vnto him and smote the naile into his temples, & fastened it into the ground: (for he was fast asleep, and wearie:) so he died.
22 And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Iael came out to meet him, & said to him, Come, & I wil shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, Behold, Sisera lay dead, and the naile was in his temples.
23 So God subdued on that day, Iabin the King of Canaan, before the children of Israel.
24 And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Iabin the King of Canaan, until they had destroyed Iabin King of Canaan.

CHAP. V.

1 Then sang Deborah, and Barak the son of Abinoam, on that day, saying
2 Praise ye the Lord, for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves.
3 Heare O ye Kings, give eare O ye Princes, I, even I will sing to y Lord, I will sing praises toy Lord God of Israel.
4 LORD, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.
5 The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai, from before the Lord God of Israel.
6 In the dayes of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the dayes of Iael, the high waves were unoccupied, and the trauellers walked thorow by-wayes.
7 The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah, arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.
8 They chose new Gods, then was warre in the gates. Was there a shield or speare seen among fortie thousand in Israel.
9 My heart is towards y governours of Israel, y offered themselves willingly among y people: Bless ye the LORD.
10 Speak ye y ride on white asses, ye y sit in iudgement, & walk by y way,
11 They that are deliuered from the noise of archers in y places of drawing water, there shal they rehearse the righteous actes of the Lord even the righteous actes towards y inhabitants of his villages in Israel: the shal y people of the Lord go down to the gates.
12 Awake, awake Deborah, awake, awake, vtter a song: arise Barak, and leade thy captivity captive thou son of Abinoam.
13 Then he made him that remaineth have dominio over the nobles among the people the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.
14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of of the against Amalek, after thee Benjamin, among thy people: Out of Machir came down governours, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the Princes of Issachar were with Deborah: even Issachar, and also Barak, he was sent on foot into the valley: for the divisions of Reuben, there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among ỹ sheep-folds, to heare the bleatings of the flocks? for the divisions of Reuben
there were great searchings of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyond Iordan, and why did Dan remaine in ships? Aser continued on the sea shore, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zebulun & Naphtali were a people that jeoparded their lives to the death, in the high places of the field.

19 The kings came and fought: then fought the Kings of Canaan in Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo, they took no gaine of money.

20 They fought from heaven, ỹ starrs in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon: O my soul, thou hast troden down strength.

22 Then were the horse hooves broke by the meanes of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

23 Curse ye Meroz (said the Angel of the Lord) curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof: because they came not to the helpe of the Lord, to the helpe of the Lord against the mighty.

24 Blessed above women shall Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite be, blessed shall she be above women in the tent.

25 She asked water & she gave him milk
she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the naile, and her right hand to the workmens hammer: and with the hammer she smote Sisera, she smote off his head, when she had pierced & strucke thorow his temples.

27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down, at her feet he bowed, he fell, where he bowed there he fell down dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, & cryed thorow ỹ lattesse, Why is his charet so long in coming?
why tarry ỹ wheeles of his charrets?

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea,
she returned answere to her selfe.

30 Have they not spedde, have they not divided the prey to every man a damosel or two? To Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needle worke, of divers colours of needle work on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoile?

31 So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but let them that love him, be as the Sun when he goeth forth in his might. And ỹ land had rest forty yeers.

CHAP. VI.

AND the children of Israel did evill in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the h of Midian seven yeers.

2 And the hand of Midian prevai against Israel: and because of ỹ Mi nites, the children of Israel made the and caves, and strong holds.

the Amalekites, and the children of they entred into the land to destroy children of Israel cryed unto the Lo

7 And it came to passe, when the c dren of Israel cryed unto the Lord, cause of the Midianites,

8 That the Lord sent a Prophet ỹ children of Israel, which said to the your God, feare not the gods of th

ye have not obeyed my voyce.

11 And there came an Angel of Lord, and sate under an Oake w in Ophrah, that pertained unto Ioa the Abi-Ezrite: and his son Gideo thrashed wheat by the winepresse, t hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the Angel of ỹ Lord appeare to him, and said unto him, The Lo

13 And Gideon said to him, Oh m
Lord, if the LORD be with us, w then is all this befallen us? and whe be all his miracles which our father told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now th LORD hath forsaken us, & delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the Lord looked upon him, said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he said to him, O my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold my family is poore in Manasseh, and am the least in my fathers house.

16 And the LORD said to him, Surely
I will be with thee, & thou shalt smite
the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then sh me a signe, that thou talkest with me

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, til I come unto thee, and bring forth my prese

seuen, and set it before thee. And he did, I will tary vntil thou come again to And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and vnleavened cakes of an ephah of floure: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the oake and presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said to him,
Take the flesh, and the vnleavened cakes and lay them vpon this rocke, & powre out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staffe that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the vnleavened cakes, & there rose vp fire out of the rocke and consumed y flesh, and the vnleavened cakes: then y Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD: for because I have seene an Angel of the Lord face to face.

23 And the LORD said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee, feare not, thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there vnto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom, vnto this day: it is yet in Ophrah, of the Abi-Ezrites.

25 And it came to passe the same night that the LORD said vnto him, Take thy fathers young bullocke, even the second bullocke of seuen yeares old: and throw down the Altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the groue that is by it.

26 And build an Altar vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, & take the second bullocke and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of y groue wch thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his seruants, and did as the LORD had bidden vnto him: And so it was, because he feared his fathers houshold & the men of the citie, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, beh old, the altar of Baal was cast down and y groue was cut down that was by it, and the second bullocke was offered vpon the Altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked they said, Gideon
the sonne of Ioash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie said to Ioash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the Altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the groue that was by it.

31 And Ioash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? Will ye saue him? He that will plead for him, let him be put to death while it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himselfe, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him Ierubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites, and the Amalekites and the children of y East were gathered together, and went ouer and pitched in the valley of Iezreel.

34 But the Spirit of the Lord came vp-on Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, and Abiezer was gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers thorow out all Manasseh, who also was gathered after him, and he sent messengers unto Asher and vnto Zebulun, and vnto Naphtali and they came vp to meet them.

36 And Gideon said vnto God, If thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in y floor; & if the deaw be on y fleece, only, & it be dry vpon all the earth beside, then shall I know y thou wilt saue
Israel by my hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so for he rose vp early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the deaw out of the fleece, a bowle full of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, & I will speak but this once: Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece Let it now be dry only upon y fleece,
& upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAP. VII.

THen Ierubbaal (who is Gideon) &
all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the hoste of the Midianites were on the North side of them by the hil of Moreh in the valley

2 And the Lord said unto Gideon, y people y are wth thee are to many for me to give y Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me saying, Mine own hand hath saued me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaime in the eares of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearefull and afraid, let him returne and depart early from mount Gilead: & there returned of the people twenty and two thousand, and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon,
The people are yet to many, bring thē down to y water & I will trie them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say to thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go wth thee, and of whomsoever I say vnto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people to the water: & the Lord said to Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water w^th his tongue as a dog lappeth, him shalt y set by himselfe, likewise every one y boweth down vpon his knees to drink.

6 And y number of the ye lapped putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all y rest of y people bowed down

down on their knees to drink water.
7 And the Lord said vnto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I saue you, and deliuer the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go euery man vnto his place.
8 So the people took victuals in their hand, & their trumpets: & he sent all y rest of Israel, euery ma to his tent, & retained those three hundred me: & y host of Midia was beneath him in y valley.
9 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said vnto them, Arise, get thee down vnto the hoste, for I haue deliuered it into thine hand.
10 But if y feare to go down, go thou & Phurah thy seruant down to y hoste.
11 And thou shalt heare what they say, and afterwards shal thy hands be strengthened to go down to the hoste. Then went he down with Phurah his seruant to the vtter side of the armed men that were in the hoste.
12 And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the East lay along in the valley like grashoppers for multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude.
13 And when Gideon was come, behold there was a man that told a dreame to his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dreame, & lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoste of Midian, and came to a tent, & smote it that it fell, & ouerturned it that the tent lay a long.
14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing els saue the sword of Gideon the son of Ioash a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God deliuered Midian, and all the hoste.
15 And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dreame, & the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, & said, Arise, for the Lord hath deliuered into your hād y host of Midian.
16 And he deuided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in euery mans hand, w emptie pitchers, & lamps within the pitchers.
17 And he said vnto them, Look on me and do likewise, and behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shal be that as I do so shal ye do.
18 When I blow w a trumpet, I and all y are w me, then blow ye the trumpets also on euery side of all y camp, & say, the sword of y Lord, & of Gideon.
19 So Gideon and the hundred men y were with him, came to the outside of the campe, in y beginning of y middle watch, and they had but newly set y watch, & they blew the trumpets, & brake y pitchers y were in their hands.
20 And the three companies blew the trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, & the trumpets in their right hands to blow with all: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon.
21 And they stood euery man in his place round about the camp and all the hoste ran, and cryed, and fled.
22 And the three hundred blew trumpets, and the Lord set euery mans sword against his fellow, throughout all y hoste: & the hoste fled to Beth shittah, in Zererah, and to the border of Abel-Meholah, to Tabbath.
23 And the men of Israel gathered themselues together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.
24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, & take before them the waters to Beth Barah & Iordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselues together, & took y waters to Beth-barah, & Iordan.
25 And they took two Princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb, and they slew Oreb vpon the rocke of Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepresse of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Iordan.

CHAP. VIII.

AND the men of Ephraim said vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus, that thou calledst vs not when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.
2 And he said vnto them, What haue I done now in comparison of you? Is not y gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better then the vintage of Abiezer?
3 God hath deliuered into your hands the Princes of Midian, Oreb & Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? then their anger was abated toward him when he had said that.
4 And Gideon came to Iordan, and passed ouer, he, & y three hundred men y were w him, faint, yet pursuing them.
5 And he said to the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, loaues of bread vnto the people that follow me, for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, Kings of Midian.
6 And the Princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands, that we should giue bread vnto thine armie?
7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the Lord hath deliuered Zeba & Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh w thorns of y wildernes, & w briers.
8 And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake vnto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him, as the men of Succoth had answered him.
9 And he spake also vnto the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will breake down this tower.
10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fifteene thousand men, all the remnant of all the hostes of the children of the East: for there fell a hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.
11 And Gideon went vp by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the East of Nobah and Iogbehah, & smote

h, for the hoste was secure.
And when Zeba and Zalmunna e perfued after them, and took two kings of Midian, Zeba and mna, and discomfited al the hoft.
And Gideon the son of Ioash retur-from battle before the sun was up,
And caught a young man of the of Succoth, and enquired of him:
he described unto him the Princes Succoth, and the elders thereof, even ore and seuenteen men.
And he came unto the men of Such, and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmna, & who ye did vpbraid me, say-Are the hands of Zebah & Zalmun-now in thine hand, that we should ve vnto thy men that are weary?
And he took the Elders of the city, thorns of the wilderness, & briers, & them he taught the men of Succoth.
And he beat down the tower of Penuel, & slew the men of the city.
Then said he vnto Zebah & Zalnna, what manner of men were they om ye slew at Tabor? and they an-ered, As thou art, so were they, each em resembled the children of a king.
And he said, They were my breen, even the sons of my mother: as e LORD liveth, if ye had saued them
ive, I would not slay you.
And he said vnto Iether his first-rn, Vp and slay them: but the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, be-use he was yet a youth.
Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, ou thou and fall vpon vs: for as the an is, so is his strength. And Giden arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmun, & took away the ornaments that ere on their camels necks.
Then the men of Israel said to Gion, Rule thou over vs, both thy & thy n, and thy sons son also: for thou hast livered vs from the hand of Midian.
And Gideon said vnto them, I will t rule over you, neither shall my son le over you, thy Lord shall rule over you.
And Gideon said vnto them, I uld desire a request of you, that ye uld give me every man y eare-rings his prey. For they had golden earegs, because they were Ismaelites.
And they answered, We will wilgly give them. And they spread a rment, and did cast therein every n the eare-rings of his prey.
And y weight of y golden ear rings
t he requested, was a thousand & seven ndred shekels of gold, beside ornaments & collars, and purple raiment y s on y kings of Midian, & beside the ins that were about y camels necks.
y And Gideon made an Ephod thereof,
d put it in his city, even in Ophrah:
d all Israel went thither a whoring ter it: which thing became a snare to Gideon, and to his house.
Thus was Midian subdued before e children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more: and the country was in quietnesse forty yeers, in the dayes of Gideon.
29 And Ierubbaal the son of Ioash went and dwelt in his own house.
30 And Gideon had three score and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.
31 And his concubine that was in Shechem she also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.
32 And Gideon the son of Ioash died, in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Ioash his father, in O-phrah of the Abi-Ezrites.
33 And it came to pass, assoon as Gideon was dead, y the children of Israel turned again, & went a whoring after Baalim & made Baal-berith their god.
34 And the children of Israel remem-bred not y LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies, on every side:
35 Neither shewed they kindnesse to the house of Ierubbaal, namely Gideon, according to all the goodnesse which he had shewed vnto Israel.

CHAP. IX.

AND Abimelech the sonne of Ierubbaal went to Shechem vnto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mothers father, saying, 2 Speak, I pray you in the eares of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Ie-rubbaal (which are threescore and ten persons) reigne over you, or that one reigne over you? Remember also, that I am your bone, & your flesh.
3 And his mothers brethren spake of him in the eares of all the men of Shechem all these words, and their heart inclined to follow Abimelech: for they said, He is our brother.
4 And they gaue him threescore and ten pieces of silver, out of the house of Baal-Berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him.
5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Ierubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Iotham y youngest son of Ierubbaal was left: for he hid himself.
6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, & went and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar y was in Shechem.
7 And when they told it to Iotham, he went & stood in y top of mount Geri-zim, & lift up his voice, & cryed, & said unto them, Hearken to me, you men of Shechem, y God may hearken to you.
8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them. & they said to the olive-tree, Reigne thou over vs.
9 But the olive-tree said vnto them,
Should I leave my fatnesse, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig-tree, Come thou, and reigne over us.
11 But the fig-tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetnesse, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?
12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reigne over us.
13 And the vine said to them, Should I leave my wine which cheareth God & man, and go to be promoted over the trees?
14 Then said all the trees to the bramble, Come thou and reigne over us.
15 And the bramble said to the trees, If in truth ye anoint me King over you, then come & put your trust in my shadow: & if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devoure the cedars of Lebanon.
16 Now therefore, if ye have done truely and sincerely in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Ierubbaal, and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands:
17 (For my father fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:
18 And ye are risen up against my fathers house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons on one stone, & have made Abimelech king of his maid-servant king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother.)
19 If ye then have dealt truely and sincerely with Ierubbaal, and with his house this day, then rejoyce you in Abimelech, & let him also rejoyce in you.
20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, & devoure you men of Shechem, & the house of Millo: & let fire come out from you men of Shechem, & from the house of Millo, & devoure Abimelech.
21 And Iotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for fear of Abimelech his brother.
22 When Abimelech had reigned three yeers over Israel,
23 Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech;
24 That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Ierubbaal might come, & their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother that slew them, & upon the men of Shechem which aided him in the killing of his brethren.
25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, & they robbed all that came along that way by the: & it was told Abimelech.
26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.
27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, & trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.
28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, & who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Ierubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?
29 And would to God this people were under my hand, then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.
30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.
31 And he sent messengers to Shechem privily, saying, Lo, Gaal, the son of Ebed, & his brethren be come to Shechem; & behold, they fortifie the city against thee.
32 Now therefore up by night, thou & the people that is with thee, & lie in wait in the field.
33 And it shall be, that in the morning as soone as the Sunne is up, thou shalt rise early, & set upon the city: and behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion.
34 And Abimelech rose up and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.
35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entring of the gate of the city: & Abimelech rose up, & the people that were with him from lying in wait.
36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of mountains, as if they were men.
37 And Gaal spake again, & said, Behold there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Meonenim.
38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth wherewith thou didst say, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out, I pray now, and fight with them.
39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, & fought with Abimelech.
40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entring of the gate.
41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal & his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.
42 And it came to passe on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.
43 And he took the people and divided them into three companies, & laid wait in the field, & looked, and behold, the people were come forth out of the city, and he rose up against them, & smote them.
44 And Abimelech, & the company that was with him, rushed forward, & stood in the entring of the gate of the city: and two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, & slew them.
45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, & he took the city, & slew the people that was therein, & beat down the city, & sowed it with salt.

50 And when all the men of the towre of Shechem heard that, they entred into an hold of y house of y god Bereth. 47 And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gate him up to mount Zalmon he and all the people that were with him: and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough & followed Abimelech and put them to the hold, & set the hold on fire upon them: so that all the men of y tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men & women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, & pitched against Thebez, & took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gate them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came to y tower, & fought against it, & went hard to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certaine woman cast a piece of a milstone upon Abimelechs head, and all to brake his skull.

54 Then he called hastily to the young man his armour bearer, and said to him draw thy sword & slay me, y men say not of me, a woma slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man into his place.

56 Thus God requited the wickednes of Abimelech which he did unto his father in slaying his seventy brethren.

57 And all the evil of the men of Sichem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Iotham the son of Ierubbaal.

CHAP. X.

1 And after Abimelech, there arose to defend Israel, Tola y son o Puah, the sonne o Dodo, a man of Issachar: & he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty & three yeres & died: & was buried in Shamir.

3 And after him arose Iair a Gileadite & judged Israel twenty & two yeers.

4 And he had thirty sonnes that rode on thirty asse colts, and they had thirty cities which are called Hevoth-Iair unto this day, which are in y land of Gilead.

5 And Iair died, and was buried in Camon.

6 And y children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, & served Baalim & Astaroth, & the gods of Syria, & the gods of Zidon, & the gods of Moab, & the gods of y children of Ammon, & the gods of y Philistines, & forsoke the LORD, and served not him.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, & into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that yeer they vexed & oppressed the children of Israel: eighte neteen yeers: all the children of Israel that were on the other side Iordan, in the land of the Amorites which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover, the children of Ammon passed over Iordan to fight also against Iudah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore distressed.

10 And the children of Israel cryed to the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Zidonians also and the Amalekites and the Moabites did oppresse you, and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go, and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen, let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said to the Lord, we have sinned, do thou unto us what soever seemeth good unto thee, deliver us onely we pray thee this day.

16 And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD, and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then y children of Ammon were gathered together, & encamped in Gilead. & y children of Israel assembled themselves together, & encamped in Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAP. XI.

1 NOw Iephthah y Gileadite was a mighty man of valeur & he was y son of an harlot: & Gilead begate Iephthah.

2 And Gileads wife bare him sons, & his wives sons grew up, and they thrust out Iephthah, and said to him, Thou shalt not inherit in our fathers house, for thou art y son of a strong woman.

3 Then Iephthah fled from his brethren, and dweit in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Iephthah, and went out with him.

4 And it came to passe, in processe of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the Elders of Gilead went to fetch Iephthah out of the land of Tob;

6 And they said unto Iephthah, Come and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Iephthah said unto the Elders of Gilead. Dri not ye hate me, and ex pell me out of my fathers house? And why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distresse?

8 And y Elders of Gilead said to Iephthah, therefore we turn again to thee now, that y mayest go with us, and fight against y children of Ammon, & be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Iephthah said unto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Am mon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your Head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead said unto Iephthah, y Lord be witnes between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Iephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Iephthah vttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

12 And Iephthah sent messengers vnto y king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, y y art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iephthah, Because Israel took away my land when they came vp out of Egypt, from Arnon, even vnto Jabbok and vnto Iordan: now therefore restore those lands againe peaceably.

14 And Iephthah sent messengers, again
vnto the king of y children of Ammon.

15 And said vnto him, Thus saith Iephthah, Israel took not away y land of moab, nor y land of y children of Ammō

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked thorow the wildernes vnto y red sea, & came to Kadesh

17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, I pray thee, let me thee, passe thorow thy land, but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like maner they sent vnto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along thorow the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, & came by by y East side of y land of Moab, and pitched on y other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab:
for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of y Amorites, y king of Hesbhon & Israel said to him, let us pass, we pray thee, thorow thy land, vnto my place.

20 But Sihon trusted not Israel, to passe thorow his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, & fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, & they smote them:
so Israel possessed all the land of the A-morites, y inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the coasts of y Amorites, fro Arnon even to Jabbok, from y wildernes even unto Iordan.

23 So now y Lord God of Israel hath dispossessed y Amorites from before people Israel, & shouldest y possess 24 Wilt not y possesse y which Che-thy god giveth thee to possesse?
who soever y Lord our God shall driue out from before vs them will we 25 And now, art thou any thing bet-then Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them, 26 While Israel dwelt in Hesbhon & her townes, & in Aroer, & her townes in all y cities, y be a long by y coast of Arnō, three hundred yeers: and why
And ye not recover them within that 27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to warre against me: the LORD the Iudge be iudge this day betweene the children of Israel & y children of Ammon.

28 How beit, the King of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the words of Iephthah, which he sent him.

29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came vpō Iephthah, & he passed over Gilead & Manasseh, & passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, & from Mizpeh of Gilead
he passed ouer vnto y children of Ammon.

30 And Iephthah vowed a vow vnto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without faile deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,

31 Then it shalbe y whatsoever com-forth of the dores of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be y LORDS
& I will offer it vp for a burnt offering.

32 So Iephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them:
& y Lord delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, ven till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, & vnto the plain of the vineyards with a very great slaughter.
thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 And Iephthah came to Mizpeh vnto his house, & behold his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels, & with dances. & he was his only child: beside him he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass when he saw her, y he rent his clothes and said, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me very low: and thou art one of them y trouble me: for I have opened my mouth to the Lord, and I cannot go back.

36 And she said vnto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth vnto the LORD, doe to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth: forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said vnto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two moneths, that I may go vp and downe vpon the mountaines and bewail my virginitie, I & my fellowes.

38 And he said, Go: and he sent her away for two moneths: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginitie upon the mountaines.

37 And it came to pass at y end of two months, y she returned to her father, who did w her according to his vow, which he had vowed: and she knew no man: and it was a custome in Israel,
38 That the daughters of Israel went yerly to lamент the daughter of Iephthah y Gileadite four daies in a yeer.

CHAP. XII.

1 And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went Northward, and said vnto Iephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammō & didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.
2 And Iephthah said vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with y children of Ammon; & when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.
3 And when I saw y ye deliver'd me not, I put my life in my hands, & passed over against the children of Ammon: & the LORD delivered them into mine hand: wherefore then are ye come up vnto me this day to fight against me?
4 Then Iephthah gathered together all the men o. Gilead, & fought w Ephraim: & the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim, among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.
5 And the Gileadites took y passages of Iordan before the Ephraimites: & it was so that when those Ephraimites which were escaped, said, Let me go over; that y men of Gilead said to him, Art thou an Ephramite? If he said, Nay,
6 Then said they to him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said, Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him and slew him at the passages of Iordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites, forty and two thousand.
7 And Iephah judged Israel six yeers: then died Iephthah the Gileadite, & was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.
8 And after him Ibz. n of Bethlehem judged Israel.
9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters, who he sent abroad, & took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven yeers.
10 Then died Ibz. n and was buried at Bethlehem.
11 And after him Elon a Zebulonite, judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten yeers.
12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon, in the country of Zebulun.
13 And after him Abdon the son of Hillel a Pirathonite judged Israel.
14 And he had forty sons, & thirty nephews y rode on threescore & ten asses colts: and he judged Israel eight yeers.
15 And Abdon the son of Pillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

CHAP. XIII.

1 AND the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: & the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty yeers.
2 And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of y Danites, whose name was Manoah, and his wife was barren and bare not.
3 And y Angel of the Lord appeared to the woman, and said to her, Behold now, thou are barren, and bare'st not: but thou shalt conceive and bear a son.
4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine, nor strong drink, and eat not any uncleane thing.
5 For lo, thou shalt conceive and bear a son; and no raſour shall come on his head, for the childe shalbe a Nazarite unto God from the wombe: & he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.
6 Then the woman came & told her husband, saying, a man of God came to me and his countenance was like the countenance of an Angel of God: very terrible: but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name.
7 But he said unto me, Behold thou shalt conceive and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any uncleane thing: for the child shalbe a Nazarite to God from the wombe, to the day of his death.
8 Then Manoah intreated y LORD, and said O my LORD, let the man of God which thou didst send, com again unto us and teach us what we shal do unto the child that shalbe born.
9 And God hearkened to the voyce of Manoah: & y Angel of God came again to the woman as she sate in y field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.
10 And the woman made hast, & ran, & shewed her husband, & said to him, Behold, the man hath appeared to mee, that came unto me the other day.
11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.
12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to passe: How shal we order the child, & how shal we do to him?
13 And the Angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said to the woman let her beware.
14 She may not eat of any thing that commeth of the vine: neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any uncleane thing: all that I commanded her, let her observe.
15 And Manoah said unto the Angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shal have made ready a kid for thee.
16 And the Angel of the Lord said to Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: & if thou wilt offer a burnt offring, y must offer it unto the LORD: for Manoah knew not that he was an Angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said, unto the Angel of the LORD, what is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?

18 And the Angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name seeing it is secret?

19 So Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock to the Lord: & y Angel did wonderously, and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to passe, when the flame went vpwards heayen from off the Altar that the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the Altar: and Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 (But the Angel of the LORD did no more appeare to Manoah and to his wife: then Manoah knew that he was an Angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said to his wife, We shal surely dy because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said vnto him, If the Lord were pleased to kil vs he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would hee have shewed us all these things nor would as at this time have told vs such things as these.

24 And the woman bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the child grew and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the spirit of the LORD began to moove him at times in the camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAP. XIIII.

AND Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me for a wife.

3 Then his father & his mother said vnto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his father, get her for me, for she pleaseth me wel.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he sought occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath, & lo, a young lyon roared against him.

6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily vpon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, & he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down & talked with the woman, & she pleased Samson wel.

8 And after a time he returned to take her, & he turned aside to see y carcase of y lyon, & behold, there was a swarm of Bees, & hony in y carcase of y lyon.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, & went on eating, & came to his father & mother, & he gave them and they did eat; but he told not them y he had taken the hony out of y carkasse of the lyon.

10 So his father went down vnto the woman, & Samson made there a feast: for so vsed the young men to do.

11 And it came to passe when they saw him that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 And Samson said vnto them, I will now put forth a riddle to you: if you can certainly declare it me, within the seven dayes of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets, and thirty change of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets, & thirty change of garments. And they said vnto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may heare it.

14 And he said to them, out of the eater came forth meat, & out of y strong came forth sweetnesse. And they could not in three dayes expound the riddle.

15 And it came to passe on y seventh day that they said to Samsons wife, Entice thy husband, y he may declare vnto us the riddle lest we burn thee and thy fathers house with fire: Have you called us to take that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samsons wife wept before him, & said thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my people, & hast not told me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him the seven dayes while the feast lasted: & it came to passe on the seventh day that he told her, because she lay sore vpon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said vnto him on the seventh day, before the sun went down, What is sweeter then hony? and what is stronger then a lyon? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 And the Spirit of the LORD came vpon him, & he went down into Ashkelon, & slew thirty men of them, & took their spoile, and gave change of garments to them which expounded the riddle: and his anger was kindled, & he went up to his fathers house.

20 But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

CHAP. XV.

BVt it came to passe within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid, and he said I will go in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadest vtterly hated her, therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than make her I pray thee in stead of her-5 And Samson said concerning them, now shall be more blameless then the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went & caught three hundred foxes, and took fire-brands, & turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tailes.
5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into y standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and also of the standing corn with the vineyards and olives.
6 Then the Philistines said, who hath done this? And they answered. Samson the son in law of the Timnite, because his wife hath taken his wife, & given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, & burnt her, & her father with fire.
7 And Samson said to them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.
8 And he smote them hip & thigh, with a great slaughter: & he went down and dwelt in the top of the rocke Etam.
9 Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Iudah, and spread themselves in Lehi.
10 And the men of Iudah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered. To bind Samson are we come:
that we may do to him as he hath done to us.
11 Then three thousand men of Iudah went to the top of the rocke Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? What is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.
12 And they said to him. We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of y Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Sweare to me, that ye will not fall upon me your selves.
13 And they spake unto him, saying,
No, but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new coards, and brought him up from the rocke.
14 And when hee came to Lehi the Philistines shouted against him: & y Spirit of y Lord came mightily upon him, and the coards y were upon his armes, became as flax that was burnt with fire,
& his bands loosed from off his hand-15 And he found a new jaw-bone of an asse, & put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith.
16 And Samson said, with the jaw-bone of an asse, heaps upon heaps, with y jaw-bone of an asse have I slaine a thousand men.
17 And it came to passe when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast y same jaw bone out of his hand, and called that place Ramath-Lehi.
18 And he was sore a thirst and called on the Lord, and said, thou hast given this great deliverance in the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of y uncircumcised?
19 But God clave a hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout, and when he had drunk his spirit came again, & he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof En-hak-kore, which is in Lehi unto this day.
20 And he judged Israel in the dayes of the Philistines twenty yeers.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Then went Samson to Gezi, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her.
2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they com-passed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night saying in the morning when it is day we shall kill him.
3 And Samson lay til midnight, and arose at midnight, & took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all,
and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hil, that is before Hebron.
4 And it came to passe afterward, that he loved a woman in the vall. of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.
5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him & see wherein his great strength lieth, & by what means we may prevail against him that we may bind him, to afflict him and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred peces of silver 6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength is? and wherewith thou might est be bound, to afflict thee.
7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withs, that were never dryed then shall I be weak and be as another man.
8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dryed, and shee bound him with them.
9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. & she said unto him, y Philistins be upō thee Samson, & he brake y withs as a threed of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire: So his strength was not known.
10 And Delilah said unto Samson, behold, thou hast mocked me and told me lies, now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou might est be bound.
11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied then shall I be weak, and be as another man.
12 Delilah therefore tooke new ropes and bound him therewith, and said to him, the Philistines be upon thee, Samson (and there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber) and he brake them from off his armes like a threed.
13 And Delilah said unto Samson, hitherto thou hast mocked me, & told me lies: tell me wherewith thou might est be bound. & he said unto her, If y weavest
the seven locks of my head with y web,

14 And she fastened it with the pinne and said vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson: and he awaked out of his sleepe, and went away with the Pin of the beam, and with the web.

15 And she said vnto him, how can'st thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me where in thy great strength lyeth.

16 And it came to passe when she pressed him daily w her words, & vrged him, so that his soul was vexed vnto death.

17 That he told her all his heart, & said to her, There hath not come a rayor vpon mine head for I have been a Nazarite to God from my mothers womb: If I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weake, and be like any other man.

18 And when Dilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come vp this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came vp vnto her, & brought money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep vpon her knees, and she called one a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head, & she began to afflict him, & his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleepe, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake my self. And he wist not that the LORD was departed from him.

21 But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, & brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brasse, and he did grinde in the prison house.

22 Howbeit, the haire of his head began to grow againe after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of y Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a great sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they said, our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country which slew many of vs.

25 And it came to passe when their hearts were merry, y they said, Call for Samson, that he may make vs sport, And they called for Samson out of the prison house, and he made them sport, and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said vnto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feele the pillars whereupon y house standeth, that I may leane vpon them.

27 Now the house was full of men, & women, & all the lords of y Philistines were there: & there were vpon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson called vnto the Lord and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, onely this once, O God, y I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars, vpon which the house stood, and on which it was borne vp, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let me dye with all his might, and the house fell vpon the lords, and vpon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death, were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down and took him, and brought him vp, and buried him in the buriall place of Manoah his father: and he judged Israel twenty yeers.

CHAP. XVII.

AND there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

2 And he said vnto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine eares, behold the silver is with me, I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be thou of the LORD my sonne.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I have wholly dedicated the silver vnto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it vnto thee.

4 Yet he restored the money vnto his mother: and his mother tooke two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an Ephod, and Teraphim, and consecrated one of his sonnes, who became his Priest.

6 In those dayes there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his owne eyes.

7 And there was a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, of y family of Judah, who was a Levite, & he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Bethlehem Judah, to sojourn where he could finde a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he iourneyed.

9 And Micah said vnto him, Whence comest thou? And he said vnto him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I go to sojourn where I may finde a place.

10 And Micah said vnto him, Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a Priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the yeere, and a suite of apparell, & thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man, and the young man was vnto him as one of his sons.

11 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his a priest, and was in the house of y Micah.

12 Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 In those days there was no king in Israel: and in those dayes the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for vnto that day all their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spie out the land, and to search it; and they said vnto them, Go search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of y young man the Levite, and they turned in thither, and said vnto him, Who brought thee hither? And what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said vnto them, Thus & thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his Priest.

5 And they said to him, Aske counsel, we pray thee, of God, y we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, Go in peace: before the Lord is your way wherein ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt carelesse, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure, and there was no magistrate in the land y might put them to shame in any thing, and they were farre from the Zidonians, and had no businesse with any man.

8 And they came vnto their brethren to Zorah, and Eshtaol: and their brethren said vnto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, Arise, that we may go vp against them, for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are ye still? Be not slothfull to go, and enter to possesse the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come vnto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 And there went from thence of y family of the Danites out of Zorah, & out of Eshtaol six hundred men, appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim in Iudah: wherefore they called y place Mahaneh-Dan, vnto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence to mount Ephraim, & came to y house of Micah.

14 Then answered the five men that went to spie out the country of Laish, and said vnto their brethren, Do ye not know that there is in these houses an Ephod, and Teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thither ward, and came to y house of the young man the Levite, even to the house of Micah, and saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan stood by the entring of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spie out the land, went vp, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and y Ephod, and the Teraphim, and y molten image: and the Priest stood in y entring of the gate, with the six hundred men y were appointed w weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micahs house, and fetched the carved image, the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image: then said the Priest vnto them, What do ye?

19 And they said vnto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand vpon thy mouth, and go with vs, and be to vs a father and a Priest: is it better for thee to be a Priest vnto the house of one man, or that thou be a Priest vnto a tribe, and a family in Israel?

20 And the Priests heart was glad, & he took the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the middest of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattel, and the carriage before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses neer to Micahs house, were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cryed vnto the children of Dan: and they turned their faces and said vnto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the Priest, & ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say vnto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said vnto him, Let not thy voice be heard among vs, lest angry fellows run vpon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went backe vnto his house.

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came to Laish, to a people that were at quiet, and secure, and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no businesse with any man; and it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob. And they built a city, & dwelt therein

29 And

29 And they called the name of the city Dan after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at first.
30 And the children of Dan set vp the graven image: and Ionathan the son of Gershom the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were Priests to y tribe of Dan vntil the day of the captivity of the land.
31 And they set them vp Micahs graven image which he made: all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to pass in those dayes, when there was no King in Israel, that there was a certaine Leuite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who tooke to him a concubine out of Bethlehem Iudah.
2 And his concubine played the whore against him: and went away from him to her fathers house to Bethlehem Iudah, and was there foure whole moneths.
3 And her husband arose, and went after her to speak friendly vnto her, and to bring her againe, having his seruant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her fathers house: and when the father of the damosell saw him, he reioyced to meet him.
4 And his father in law, the damosels father retained him: and he abode with him three dayes: so they did eate and drinke, and lodged there.
5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose vp to depart: and the damosels father said to his son in law, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.
6 And they sate down and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damosels father had said vnto y man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.
7 And when the man arose vp to depart: his father in law vrged him: therefore he lodged there again.
8 And he rose early in the morning on the fift day to depart, and the damosels father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried vntil afternoon and they did eat both of them.
9 And when y man rose vp to depart, he & his concubine, & his seruant: his father in law the damosels father said to him, Behold, now the day draweth towards evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, y thine heart may be merry, and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home.
10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose vp and departed, & came ouer against Iebus (which is Ierusalem): & there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.
11 And when they were by Iebus, the day was farr spent, and the seruant said vnto his master, Come I pray thee, & let vs turne in into this city of the Iebusites, and lodge in it.
12 And his master said vnto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel: we will passe ouer to Gibeah.
13 And he said vnto his seruant, Come and let vs draw neere to one of these places to lodge all night in Gibeah, or in Ramah.
14 And they passed on and went their way, and the Sunne went downe ouer them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin.
15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: & when he went in, he sate him down in the street of the city: for there was no man that tooke them into his house to lodging.
16 And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim, and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites.
17 And when he had lift vp his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?
18 And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem Iudah, toward the side of mount Ephraim: from thence am I: & I went to Bethlehem Iudah, but I am now going to y house of the Lord: & there is no man that receiveth me to house.
19 Yet there is both straw and prouender for our asses, and there is bread & wine also for me, and for my handmaid, & for the young man which is with thy seruants: there is no want of anything.
20 And the old man said, peace be with thee: howsoever let all thy wants lie vpon me, only lodge not in the street.
21 So he brought him into his house, and gaue prouender vnto the asses: & they washed their feet, & did eat and drink.
22 Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial beset the house round about, & beat at the doore, & spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, y we may know him.
23 And the master of the house went out vnto them, and said to them, Nay my brethren, nay I pray you, do not so wickedly, seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly.
24 Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, & his concubine, them I will bring out now, & humble ye them, & do with them what seemeth good vnto you: but vnto this man do not so vile a thing.
25 But the men would not hearken vnto him: so the man took his concubine, & brought her forth vnto them, and they knew her, and abused her all the night vntill the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.
26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the doore of the mans house, where her lord was, vntill it was light.
27 And her lord rose vp in the morning and opened the doors of the house, and

...ght out to go his way? and he...
...the woman his concubine was ...down at the door of the house,
...her hands were on the threshold,
...And he said vnto her, Vp, and let
...is going. But none answered: then
...he took her vp vpon an asse, and
...rose vp, & gat him to his place
...And when he was come into his ...house, he took a knife, and laid hold
...his concubine, and divided her, to...gether with her bones, into twelve pieces,
...sent her into all the coasts of Israel.
...And it was so, that all that saw it,
...said, There was no such deed done nor
...seen from the day that the children of ...Israel came vp out of the land of
...Egypt vnto this day: consider of it,
...take advice, and speake your minds.

CHAP. XX.

Then all the children of Israel went ...out, and the congregation was ga...thered together as one man, from Dan
...even to Beer-sheba, with the land of ...Gilead, vnto the Lord in Mizpeh.
...And the chiefe of al the people, even
...of all the tribes of Israel, presented ...themselves in the assembly of the peo...ple of God, foure hundred thousand
...footmen that drew sword.
...(Now the children of Beniamin
...heard that the children of Israel were gone
...vp to Mizpeh:) then said y children of ...Israel vnto vs, how was this wicked act?
...And the Levite, the husband of the ...woman that was slaine, answered, and
...said, I came to Gibeah that belongeth
...to Beniamin, I & my concubine, to lodge
...there. And the men of Gibeah rose against ...me, and beset the house round about
...vpon me by night, & thought to have
...slaine me: and my concubine have they ...forced that she is dead.
...And I took my concubine, and cut
...her in peices, and sent her thorowout
...all the country of the inheritance of ...Israel: for they have committed lewd-
...nesse and folly in Israel.
...Behold, ye are al children of Israel,
...give here your advice, and counsel.
...And all the people arose as one man,
...saying, We will not any of vs go to his
...tent, neither will we any of vs turn into
...his house:
...But now this shalbe the thing
...which we will do to Gibeah, we will go
...vp by lot against it:
...And we will take ten men of a hun...dred throwout all the tribes of Israel,
...and an hundred of a thousand, and a ...thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch
...victuall for the people, that they may
...when they come to Gibeah of Ben-
...iamin, according to al the folly that ...they have wrought in Israel.
...So all y men of Israel were gathered ...against y city, knit together as one man.
...And the tribes of Israel sent men
...throw all the tribe of Beniamin, saying,
...What wickednes is this that is ...wrought among you?
...Now therefore deliver vs y men, y
...children of Beniamin, that we may put them to death, and put a...way evil from Israel. But the children ...of Beniamin would not hearken to y
...voice of their brethre y children of Israel.
14 But the children of Beniamin ...gathered themselves together out of ...the cities vnto Gibeah, to go out to
...battel against the children of Israel.
15 And the children of Beniamin were
...numbred at y time out of y cities, twe-
...ty & five thousand men y drew sword,
...beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which
...were numbred, seven hundred chose men.
16 Among al this people there were ...seven hundred chosen men left handed:
...every one could sling stones at an hairs
...breadth, and not misse.
17 And the men of Israel, beside
...Beniamin, were numbred foure hun...dred thousand men that drew sword,
...all these were men of war.
18 And the children of Israel arose,
...and went vp to the house of God, and
...asked counsel of God, and said, Which
...of vs shall go vp first to the battel a...gainst the children of Beniamin? And
...the LORD said, Iudah shal go vp first.
19 And y children of Israel rose vp in
...y morning, & encamped against Gibeah.
20 And the men of Israel went out ...to battel against Beniamin, and the ...men of Israel put themselves in aray,
...to fight against them at Gibeah.
21 And the children of Beniamin came ...forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed
...down to the ground of the Israelites
...that day, twenty and two thousand men.
22 And the people of Israel ...encouraged themselves, and set their ...battel again in aray, in y place where
...they put themselves in aray y first day.
23 (And the children of Israel went vp
...and wept before the Lord until Even,
...and asked counsel of the Lord, saying,
...Shal I go vp againe to battel against
...the children of Beniamin my brother?
...And the Lord said, Go vp against him.) 24 And y children of Israel came neer a...gainst y children of Beniam, y second day.
25 And Beniamin went forth against it
...them out of Gibeah the second day,
...and destroyed down to the ground of
...the children of Israel againe, eighteen
...thousand men, al these drew y sword.
26 Then all the children of Israel,
...and al the people went vp, and came
...vnto the house of God, and wept, and
...sate there before the LORD, & fasted
...y day til Even, and offered burnt offe-
...rings, & peace offerings, before the Lord.
27 And the children of Israel enquired ...of the Lord, (for the ark of the cove-
...nant of God was there in those dayes, 28 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar
...the son of Aaron, stood before it in ...those dayes,) saying, Shal I yet againe
...go out to battel against the children
...of Beniamin, my brother, or shal I ...cease? And the Lord said, Go vp, for to...morrow I will deliver the into thy hand.
29 And Israel set layers in waite round a...bout Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went vp against the children of Beniamin on y third day, & put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.
31 And the children of Beniamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from y city, & they began to smite of the people, & kil as at other times, in y high wayes, of wone goeth vp to Bethel, & y other to Gibeah in y field, about thirty men of Israel.
32 And the children of Beniamin said They are smitten down before vs, as at the first: But the children of Israel said, Let vs flee, and draw them from y city vnto the high wayes.
33 And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal Tamar: & y lyers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of y meadows of Gibeah.
34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battel was sore: but they knew not that evil was neer them.
35 And the Lord smote Beniamin before Israel: & the children of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites that day, twenty and five thousand, and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.
36 So the children of Beniamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to y Beniamites, because they trusted vnto the liers in wayte, which they had set beside Gibeah.
37 And the liers in waite hasted, and rushed vpon Gibeah, and the lyers in waite drew themselves along, & smote all the citie with the edge of the sword.
38 Now there was an appointed signe between the men of Israel and y liers in waite, that they should make a great flame & smoke arise vp out of y citie.
39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battel, Beniamin began to smite and kil of y men of Israel about thirty persons, for they said, Surely they are smitten down before vs, as in y first battel.
40 But when the flame began to rise vp out of the citie, with a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the citie ascended vp to heaven.
41 And when the men of Israel turned againe, y men of Beniamin were amazed: for they saw y evil was come vpo them.
42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel vnto the way of the wilderness, but y battel overtook them, & them which came out of y cities they destroyed in the midst of them.
43 Thus they enclosed the Beniamites round about, and chased them, & trode them down with ease ouer against Gibeah toward the Sunne rising.
44 And there fell of Beniamin eighteen thousand men: all these were men of valor.
45 And they turned, and fled toward the wilderness vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the high wayes five thousand men: and pursued hard after them vnto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.
46 So that all which fell that day of Beniamin, were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword, all these were men of valour.
47 But six hundred men turned & fled to the wilderness vnto the rocke Rimmon, and abode in the rocke Rimmon foure moneths.
48 And the men of Israel returned vpo the children of Beniamin, & smote them with the edge of the sword, both the men of every citie, as the beast: & all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

CHAP. XXI.

NOw y men of Israel had sworne at Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of vs give his daughter vnto Beniamin to wife.
2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there til Even before God, & lift vp their voices & wept sore,
3 And said, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to pas in Israel, y there should be to day one tribe lacking in Israel?
4 And it came to pas on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an Altar, and offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings.
5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among al the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the Congregation vnto the Lord? for they had made a great oath concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpeh, saying, He shal surely be put to death.
6 And y children of Israel repented for Beniamin their brother, & said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.
7 How shal we do for wives for them that remaine, seeing we have sworne by the Lord, that we will not giue them of our daughters to wives.
8 And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not vp to Mizpeh to the LORD? And behold, there came none to the camp from Iabesh-Gilead to the assembly.
9 For the people were numbred, & behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Iabesh-Gilead there.
10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go & smite the inhabitants of Iabesh-Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the woman and the children.
11 And this is the thing that ye shal do, ye shal vtterly destroy every male, and every woman y hath lien by man.
12 And they found among the inhabitants of Iabesh-Gilead, four hundred yong virgins that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.
13 And the whole Congregation sent some to speak to the children of Beniamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to cal peaceably vnto them.
14 And Beniamin came again at that time, and they gave them wives which alive of y women of Jabesh-that hour so they sufficed them not d that the people repented them for ssing, because that the LORD ade a breach in y tribes of Israel?

Then the Elders of the Congrega-on said, How shall we do for wives em that remain? seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin.
And they said, there must be an inhe-itance for they be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroied out of Israel?
Howbeit, we may not give them wives of our daughters: For y children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.
Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh yearly, which is on the North side of Bethel, on the East side of the high way that goeth up from Bethel to Sichem, & on the South of Lebanon.
Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go, and lie in wait in the vineyards.

21 And see, and behold, if y daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of y vineyards, & catch you every man his wife of y daughters of Shiloh, & go to y land of Benjamin.
22 And it shall be when their fathers, or their brethren come to us to complain, that we will say to them, Be favourable to them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in y war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that you should be guilty.
23 And the children of Beniamin did so, and took them wives according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.
24 And the children of Israel departed thence at y time every man to his tribe, and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.
25 In those dayes there was no King in Israel, every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

CHAP. I.

NOw came to passin y dates when y Iudges ruled, y there was a famine in the land: & a certain man of Bethlehē Iudah went to sojourn in y countrey of Moab he and his wife, & his two sons.
And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and name of his two sons, Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Iudah, and they came into the countrey of Moab, and continued there.
And Elimelech Naomies husband died, and she was left, and her two sons.
And they took them wives of the women of Moab, y name of y one was Orpah, and the name of y other Ruth:
and they dwelled there about ten yeers.
And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them, and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.
Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might returne from y countrey of Moab: for she had heard in the countrey of Moab, how y y Lord had visited his people, in giving them bread.
Wherefore she went forth out of y place where she was & her two daughters in law with her: & they went on y way to returne unto the land of Iudah.
And Naomi said to her two daughters in law, Go, returne each to her mother's house: y Lord deale kindly w you, as ye have dealt w y dead, & w me.
The Lord grant you, that ye may find rest each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them, & they lift up their voices, and wept.
And they said to her, Surely, we will returne with thee unto thy people.
But Naomi said, Turne againe my daughters, why will ye go with me? Are there yet any moe sons in my wombe, that they may be your husbands?
12 Turne againe my daughters, go your wayes, for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, If I should have a husband also to night, and should also bear sons:
13 Would ye tarry for the til they were grown: would you stay for the til to having husbands? nay my daughters: for it grieveth me much for your sakes, y y hand of y Lord is gone out against me.
14 And they lift up their voyce, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law, but Ruth clave unto her.
15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back to her people, & to her gods: returne y after thy sister in law.
16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee or to returne from following after thee: for whither thou goest
I will goe, and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people and thy God my God.
17 Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried, the Lord do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me.
18 When she saw that she was stedfast-ly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.
19 So they two went until they came to Bethlehem: and it came to pass when they were come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said: is this Naomi?
20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Marah: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.
21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty:
Why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me.
22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabiteſſe her daughter in law with her, which returned out of y country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harveſt.

CHAP. II.

AND Naomi had a kinſman of her husbands, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, & his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſaid vnto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, & glean ears of corn after him in whoſe ſight I ſhal find grace. And ſhe ſaid to her, Go my daughter.

3 And ſhe went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging vnto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and ſaid vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you: and they anſwered him, The Lord bleſſe thee.

5 Then ſaid Boaz vnto his ſervant that was ſet over the reapers, Whoſe damſel is this?

6 And the ſervant that was ſet over the reapers anſwered and ſaid, It is y Moabitiſh damſell, that came backe w Naomi out of the countrey of Moab:

7 And ſhe ſaid, I pray you, let me gleane and gather after the reapers among ſt the ſheaves: ſo ſhe came and hath continued even from y morning til now, y ſhe tarried a little in y houſe.

8 Then ſaid Boaz vnto Ruth, Heareſt thou not, my daughter? go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence but abide here faſt by my maidens.

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: Have I not charged the young men, y they ſhal not touch thee? and when y art a thirſt, go to y veſſels, & drink of that which the yong men have drawn.

10 Then ſhe fel on her face, and bowed her ſelfe to the ground, and ſaid vnto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou ſhouldeſt take knowledge of me, ſeeing I am a ſtranger?

11 And Boaz anſwered and ſaid vnto her, It hath fully been ſhewed me, all that y haſt done to thy mother in law ſince y death of thine husband: & how y haſt left thy father and thy mother, & y land of thy nativitie, & art come to a people, w y kneweſt not heretofore.

12 The LORD recompenſe thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Iſrael, vnder whoſe wings thou art come to truſt.

13 Then ſhe ſaid, Let me finde favour in thy ſight, my lord, for y haſt comforted me, and for that y haſt ſpoken friendly to thine handmaid, though I be not like to one of thy handmaidens.

14 And Boaz ſaid to her, At meale time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morſel in the vinegar. And ſhe ſate beſide the reapers: & he reached her parched corne, and ſhe did eat, and was ſufficed, and left.

15 And when ſhe was riſen to gleane, Boaz commanded his men, ſaying, Let her glean among y ſheaves, & reproach her not.

16 And let fal alſo ſome of the handfuls of purpoſe for her, & leave them, ſhe may glean ſhe, & rebuke her not.

17 So ſhe gleaned in the field vntil even, and beate out that ſhe had gleaned, and it was about an Ephah of barley.

18 And ſhe took it vp, and went into the city, and her mother in law ſaw what ſhe had gleaned & ſhe brought forth, and gave to her that ſhe had reſerved after ſhe was ſufficed.

19 And her mother in law ſaid vnto her, Where haſt thou gleaned to day? & where wroughteſt thou? bleſſed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And ſhe ſhewed her mother in law with whom ſhe had wrought, & ſaid, The man with whom I wrought to day, his name is Boaz.

20 And Naomi ſaid vnto her daughter in law, bleſſed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindneſſe to the liuing, and to the dead. And Naomi ſaid vnto her, The man is neer vnto vs, one of our next kinſmen.

21 And Ruth y Moabitiſh ſaid, He ſaid me alſo, y ſhalt keep faſt by my men, til they have ended all my harveſt.

22 And Naomi ſaid to Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, y they meet thee not in any other field.

23 So ſhe kept faſt by the maidens of Boaz to gleane, to the end of barley harveſt, and of wheat harveſt, & dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAP. III.

THEN Naomi her mother in law ſaid to her, my daughter, ſhal I not ſeek reſt for thee, y it may be wel with thee?

2 And now, is not Boaz of our kindred, with whoſe maidens thou waſt, behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threſhing floor.

3 Waſh thy ſelf therefore, & anoint thee, & put thy raiment vpon thee, and get thee down to y floor: but make not thy ſelf known to the man, vntil he have done eating and drinking.

4 And it ſhal be, when he lieth down, that thou ſhalt marke the place where he ſhal lie, and thou ſhalt go in, & vncover his feet, and lay thee down, & he will tel thee what thou ſhalt do.

5 And ſhe ſaid vnto her, All that thou ſayeſt vnto me, I will do.

6 And ſhe went down vnto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten & drunken, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heape of corne, and ſhe came ſoftly, and vncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 And it came to paſs at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himſelf: & behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he ſaid, Who are thou? And ſhe anſwred, I am Ruth thine handmaid:

there before thy flurt over thine and for y dr e neer kinsman.
ad he said, Blessed be thou of y ny daughter: for y hast shewed kindness in the latter end, then beginning in as much as y followe
ng poore or y w brother poor or rich
And now my daughter, feare not,
do to thee al that thou requireft:
the city of my people doth know that art a vertuous woman.
And now it is true, that I am thy kinsman: how beit, there is a kinsnearer then I.
Tarry this night, and it shal be in morning, that if he will perform thee the part of a kinsman, well, him do the kinsmans part: but if he not do the part of a kinsman to then will I do the part of a kinfto thee, as the LORD liveth:
down till the morning.
And she lay at his feet til y morn-and she rose up before one could another. And he said, let it not known that a woman came into y floor And he said, bring y vail y hast on and hold it. And when she held it, measured six measures of barley, & la-it on her: & she went into y city.
when she came to her mother in she said, Who art y my daughter?
And she told her al y man had do to her
And she said, These six measures barley he gave me: for he said to me go not empty to thy mother in law
Then said she: Sit still my daughter
I wot know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, til he have finished the thing this day.

CHAP. IIII.

Then went Boaz up to y gate, & sate him down there: & lo, the kinsman whom Boaz spake, came by, to whō he said, Ho, such a one: turn aside, sit down here. & he turned aside, & sat down And he took ten men of y Elders of city, and said, Sit ye down here.
And they sate down.
And he said to the kinsman, Naomi that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelechs.
I thought to aduertise thee, say-Buy it before the inhabitants & before the Elders of my people. If y wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if y wilt not redeem it tell me, y I may know: for there is none to redeem it besides thee: & I am after thee. And he said, I wil redeem it.
Then said Boaz, What day y buy-the fielde of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth y Moa-bitesse the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of y dead on his inheritance.
6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for my self, lest I marre mine owne inheritance: redeem thou my right to thy self, for I cannot redeem it.
7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel, concerning redeeming, and concerning changing, for to confirm al things, a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.
8 Therfore the kinsman said to Boaz,
Buy it for thee: so he drew off his shoe 9 And Boaz said to the Elders, and unto al the people, Ye are witnes this day, that I have bought al that was Elimelechs, and al that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.
10 Moreover, Ruth the Moabitesse, y wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from y gate of his place: ye are witnes this day.
11 And al the people that were in the gate, & the Elders said, We are witnes:
The LORD make this woman that is come into thy house, like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in Ephratah, and be famous in Bethlehē.
12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez (whom Tamar bare unto Judah) of the seed which the LORD shal give thee of this young woman.
13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife, & whē he went in to her, y Lord gave her conception, & she bare a son.
14 And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel 15 And he shal be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and a nourisher of thy old age, for thy daughter in law which loveth thee, which is better to thee then seven sons, hath born him.
16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosome, & became nurse to it 17 And the women of her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi, & they called his name Obed:
he is y father of Iesse, y father of David.
18 Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begate Hezron.
19 And Hezron begate Ram, and Ram begate Amminadab.
20 And Amminadab begate Nahasson, and Nahasson begate Salmon, 21 And Salmon begate Boaz, and Boaz begate Obed.
22 And Obed begate Iesse, and Iesse begate David.

The first book of SAMVEL, Called, The first book of the KINGS.

CHAP. I.

Ow there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Ieroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite;
2 And he had two wives: the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And that man went up out of his citie yeerly, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the LORD of hostes in Shiloh, and ỹ two sons of Eli, Hophni, & Phinehas ỹ Priests of ỹ Lord were there.
4 And when the time was ỹ Elkanah offred, he gaue to Peninnah his wife & to all her sons & her daughters portions.
5 But vnto Hannah he gaue a worthy portion: (for he loued Hannah: but ỹ LORD had shut vp her wombe.
6 And her aduersary also prouoked her sore, for to make her fret because ỹ LORD had shut vp her wombe.)
7 And as he did so yeer by yeer, when she went vp to the house of the Lord, so she prouoked her, therefore she wept and did not eate.
8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieued? Am not I better to thee then ten sons?
9 So Hannah rose vp after they had eaten in Shiloh, & after they had drunke. (Now Eli ỹ Priest sate vpon a seat by a post of the Temple of the LORD.)
10 And she was in bitternes of soul, & prayed vnto the LORD, and wept sore.
11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hostes, if thou wilt indeed look on y affliction of thine handmaid and remember me, & not forget thine handmaid, but wilt giue vnto thine handmaid a man child, then I will giue him to ỹ Lord all ỹ daies of his life, & there shal no rasour com vpon his head.
12 And it came to pas, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.
13 Now Hannah she spake in her heart, onely her lips moued, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.
14 And Eli said vnto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.
15 And Hannah answered and said, No my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowfull spirit: I haue drunken neither wine nor strong drink, but haue powred out my soul before the LORD.
16 Count not thine handmaide for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief haue I spoken hitherto.
17 Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant thee thy petition ỹ y hast asked of him.
18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eate, and her countenance was no more sad.
19 And they rose vp in the morning earely, and worshipped before ỹ Lord and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and ỹ LORD remembred her.
20 Wherefore it came to pas, when the time was come about, after Hannah had conceiued, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, because I haue asked him of the LORD.
21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house went vp to offer vnto the LORD the yeerly sacrifice, and his vow.
22 But Hannah went not vp, for she said vnto her husband, I will not vp til the childe be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appeare before the Lord, & there abide for euer.
23 And Elkanah her husband said vnto her, Do what seemeth thee good, tarie vntil thou haue weaned him, only the LORD establish his word: so the woman abode, and gaue her son suck vntil she weaned him.
24 And when she had weaned him, she tooke him vp with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottel of wine, and brought him vnto the house of the LORD, in Shiloh: and the childe was young.
25 And they slew a bullock, & brought the childe to Eli.
26 And she said, Oh my lord, as thy soule liueth my lord, I am y woman y stoode by thee here praying to the LORD.
27 For this child I prayed, and the LORD hath giuen me my petition which I asked of him.
28 Therefore also haue I lent him to the LORD, as long as he liueth he is lent vnto the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

CHAP. II.

AND Hannah prayed, and said, My heart reioyceth in the LORD, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged ouer mine enemies, because I reioyce in thy saluation.
2 There is none holy as the LORD: there is none beside thee: neither is there any rocke like our God.
3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly, let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for ỹ Lord is a God of knowledge: and by him actions are weighed.
4 The bowes of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girt with strength.
5 They that were full, haue hired themselues for bread: & they that were hungry, ceased: so that the barren hath borne seuen, and she that hath many children, is waxed feeble.
6 The LORD killeth, and maketh aliue: he bringeth down to the graue, and bringeth vp.
7 The Lord maketh poor, & maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth vp.
8 He raiseth vp the poor out of the dust, and lifteth vp the begger from the dunghil, to set them among princes, & to make them inherite the throne of glory: for the pillars of y earth are the Lords, and he hath set y world on them.
9 He will keepe the fete of his Saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darknes; for by strength shall no man preuaile.
10 The aduersaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces: out of heauen shal he thunder vpon them: ỹ Lord shal iudge

ments of the earth, and hee shal giue strength vnto his king, and exalt the horne of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the childe did minister vnto the LORD before Eli the Priest.

12 Now the sonnes of Eli were sons of Belial: they knew not the LORD.

13 And the Priests custome with the people was, that when any man offered sacrifice, y Priests seruant came while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hooke of three teeth in his hand:

14 And he strooke it into the panne, or kettle, or caldron, or pot: all that the flesh hooke brought vp, the Priest took for himself: so they did in Shiloh, to all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the fat, the Priests seruant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Giue flesh to roste for the Priest, for he will not haue sodden flesh of thee but raw.

16 And if any man said vnto him, Let them not faile to burne the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soule desireth, then he would answere him:
Nay but thou shalt giue it mee now:
and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sinne of the young men was very great before the LORD:
for men abhorred y offrings of y Lord.

18 But Samuel ministred before the LORD, being a childe, girdest with a linnen Ephod.

19 Moreover, his mother made him a little coate, and brought it to him from yeere to yeere, when she came vp with her husband to offer y yeerely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah, and his wife, and said, The LORD giue thee seede of this women, for the loane which is lent to the LORD. And they went into their owne home.

21 And the LORD visited Hannah, so that shee conceiued, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters: and the child
Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did vnto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he said vnto them, Why doe ye such things? for I heare of your euil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay my sonnes: for it is no good report that I heare: ye make the LORDS people to transgresse.

25 If one man sinne against another, the Iudge shal iudge him: but if aman sinne against the LORD, who shal intreate for him? Notwithstanding they hardened not vnto the voyce of their father, because y Lord would slay them.

26 (And the child Samuel grew on,
and was in fauour both with the Lord,
and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him. Thus saith the LORD. Did I plainely appear vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house?

28 And I did choose him out of all the tribes of Israel, to be my Priest to offer vpon mine Altar, to burnt incense, to weare an Ephod before me: and I did giue vnto the house of thy father, all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore kicke ye at my sacrifice, and at mine offering which I haue commanded in my habitation, and honour-rest thy sonnes aboue me to make your selues fat with the chiefest of all the offering of Israel my people?

30 Wherfore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed, that thy house, & the house of thy father should walke before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me: for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shal be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold the dayes come, that I will cut off thine arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shal not be an olde man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shal giue Israel, and there shal not be an old man in thine house for euer.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shal not cut off from mine Altar, shal be to consume thine eyes, and to grieue thine heart: and all the increase of thine hous
shal die in the flowre of their age.

34 And this shal be a signe vnto thee, that shal come vpon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shal die both of them.

35 And I will raise mee vp a faithfull Priest that shal do according to that which is in my heart, & in my mind: &
I will build him a sure house, & he shal walke before mine Anointed for euer.

36 And it shall come to passe, y every one that is left in thine house, shal come and crouch to him for a piece of siluer & a morsell of bread, & shal say, Put me (I pray thee) into one of the Priests offices, that I may eate a piece of bread.

CHAP. III.

AND the child Samuel ministred vnto the LORD before Eli: and the word of the LORD was precious in those dayes: there was no open vision.

2 And it came to passe at y time, when Eli was laid downe in his place, & his eyes began to wax dim, y he could not see.

3 And yer y lamp of God went out in y
Temple of y Lord, where y Ark of God was, & Samuel was laid down to sleep.

4 That the LORD called Samuel, and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ranne vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not, lie downe againe.
And he went and lay downe.

6 And the LORD called yet againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not my son, lie downe again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet reuealed vnto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he rose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou diddest call me. And Eli perceiued that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said vnto Samuel, Go, lie downe, and it shall bee, if hee call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak LORD, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went, and lay downe in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11 And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will doe a thing in Israel, at which both the eares of euery one that heareth it, shall tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli, all things which I haue spoken concerning his house, when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I haue told him that I will iudge his house for euer, for the iniquity which he knoweth, because his sonnes made themselues vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Elis house, shall not be purged with sacrifice, nor offering for euer.

15 And Samuel lay vntil the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the LORD, and Samuel feared to tell Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, & said, Samuel, my son, And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the Lord hath said vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God do so to thee & more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all the things that he said to thee.

18 And Samuel told him euery whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel, from Dan euen to Beersheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a Prophet of the LORD.

21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the Lord reuealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh, by the word of the Lord. CHAP. IIII.

AND the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battel, and pitched beside Eben-Ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselues in array against Israel: and when they ioyned battel, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field, about foure thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten vs to day before the Philistines? Let vs fetch the Arke of the Couenant of the LORD out of Shiloh vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the Arke of the Couenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth betweene the Cherubims: and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas were there with the Arke of the Couenant of God.

5 And when the Arke of the Couenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang againe.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrewes? And they vnderstood, that the Arke of the LORD was come into the campe.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the campe. And they said, Woe vnto vs: for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 Woe vnto vs, who shall deliuer vs out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, & quit your selues like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not seruants to the Hebrewes, as they haue been to you: quit your selues like men, & fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, & Israel was smitten, and they fled euery man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirtie thousand footmen.

11 And the Arke of God was taken: and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slaine.

12 And there ran a man of Beniamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent, and with earth vpon his head.

13 And when he came, loe, Eli sate vpon a seate by the way side, watching: for his heart trembled for the Arke of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said? What meaneth the noise of this tumult? and the man came hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight yeers olde, and his eyes were dimme, that he could not see.

16 And the man said vnto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my sonne?

17 And the messenger answered, and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people: and thy two sonnes also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the Arke of God is taken.

18 And it came to passe, when he made mention of the Arke of God, that he fell from off the seat backward, by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died.

CHAP. V.

...The Philistines tooke the Arke
...of God, and brought it from Eben...ezer to Ashdod.

...When the Philistines tooke the
...Arke of God, they brought it into the ...house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.
...2 And when they of Ashdod arose early on ...the morrow, behold, Dagon was ...fallen upright face to the earth, before
...the Arke of the Lord: and they tooke
...Dagon, and set him in his place again.
...3 And when they arose early on the ...morning, behold, Dagon was ...fallen upon his face to the ground, be...fore the Arke of the Lord: and the head
...of Dagon, and both the palmes of his ...hands were cut off on y threshold: on...ly the stump of Dagon was left to him.
...4 Therefore neither the Priests of ...Dagon, nor any that come into Dagons
...house, tread on the threshold of Dagon
...in Ashdod unto this day.
...5 But the hand of the Lord was heavy
...upon them of Ashdod, and he destroy...ed them, and smote them with Emerods,
...even Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.
...6 And when the men of Ashdod saw
...that it was so, they said, The Arke of ...the God of Israel shall not abide with ...us: for his hand is sore upon us, and
...upon Dagon our god.
...7 They sent therefore, and gathered all
...the lords of y Philistines unto them, &
...said, What shal we doe with y Arke of ...the God of Israel? And they answered,
...Let the Arke of the God of Israel bee ca-
...ried about unto Gath. And they carried
...the Arke of God of Israel about thither.
...8 And it was so, that after they had car...ried it about, the hand of the LORD
...was against the city with a very great ...destruction: and he smote the men of ...the city both small and great, and they ...had Emerods in their secret parts.
...9 Therefore they sent the Arke of ...God to Ekron: and it came to pas, as
...the Arke of God came to Ekron, that the ...Ekronites cryed out, saying, They have ...brought about the Arke of the God of ...Israel to us, to slay us and our people.
...10 So they sent and gathered together
...all the lords of the Philistines, and ...said, Send away the Arke of the God
...of Israel, and let it goe againe to his
...owne place, that it slay us not, and our ...people: for there was deadly destructi...on throughout all the citie: the hand
...of God was very heavy there.
...12 And the men that died not, were
...smitten with the Emerods: and the cry
...of the citie went up to heaven.

CHAP. VI.

...1 AND the Arke of the LORD was in
...the country of the Philistines seven
...moneths.
...2 And y Philistins called for the Priests
...and the diviners, saying, What shal we
...do to the Arke of the LORD? Tell us
...wherewith we shal send it to his place?
...3 And they said, If yee send away the
...Arke of the God of Israel, send it not ...empty: but in any wise returne him a
...trespasse offering: then ye shal be hea-
...led, and it shal be known to you, why
...his hand is not removed from you.
...4 Then said they, What shall be the ...trespasse offering, which we shal re-
...turne to him? They answered, Five
...golden Emerods, and five golden Mice,
...according to the number of the lords
...of the Philistines: for on plague was on
...you all, and on your lords.
...5 Wherefore ye shall make images of ...your Emerods, & images of your Mice,
...y marre the land, & ye shal give glory
...unto y God of Israel; peradventure he ...will lighten his hand from off you, &
...fro off your gods, & fro off your land.
...6 Wherefore then doe ye harden your ...hearts, as y Egyptians, & Pharaoh hard-
...ned their harts: When he had wrought
...wonderfully among them, did they not
...let the people go, and they departed.
...7 Now therefore make a new cart, and ...take two milch kine, on which there
...hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to
...y cart, & bring y calves home fro them.
...8 And take the Arke of the Lord, and ...lay it upon the cart, and put the jewels
...of gold, which ye returne him for a
...trespasse offering, in a coffer by y side
...thereof, & send it away, y it may goe.
...9 And see, if it goeth up by y way of his ...own coast to Beth shemesh, then he hath ...done us this great evil: but if not, then
...we shal know y it is not his hand y smote
...us, it was a chance that happened to us.
...10 And the men did so, and took two
...milch kine, and tied them to the cart,
...and shut up their calves at home.
...11 And they laid the Ark of y LORD
...upon y cart, and y coffer, with y Mice
...of gold, & y images of their Emerods.
...12 And the kine tooke the straight
...way to the way of Beth shemesh, and ...went along the high way, lowing as ...they went, and turned not aside to the ...right hand, or to the left, and the lords
...of the Philistins went after them, unto
...the border of Beth shemesh.
...13 And they of Beth shemesh were rea-
...ping their wheat harvest in y valley:
...and

and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the Arke, and reioyced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Ioshua a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave y wood of the cart, and offered y kine, a burnt offering unto the LORD.

15 And the Levites tooke down the Arke of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: And the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offrings, and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seene it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden Emerods, which the Philistines returned for a trespasse offering unto the LORD; one for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one.

18 And the golden mice according to the number of all the cities of y Philistines, belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of countrey villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set downe the Arke of the Lord, which stone remaineth unto this day, in the field of Ioshua the Beth-shemite.

19 And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the Arke of the LORD, even he smote of the people fiftie thousand, and three score and ten men: and the people lamented, because y LORD had smitten many of y people w a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-iearim, saying, The Philistines have brought againe the Arke of the LORD, come ye downe, and fetch it up to you.

CHAP. VII.

AND the men of Kiriath-iearim came and fetcht up the Arke of the Lord and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hil, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keepe y Arke of the LORD.

2 And it came to passe while the ark abode in Kiriath-iearim, that the time was long: for it was twenty yeers: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3 And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye doe returne unto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods, and Ashtaroth from among you, & prepare your hearts to y Lord, & serve him only: & he will deliver you out of y hād of y Philistins.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather al Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you, unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh and drew water, and powred it out before the LORD, and fasted that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines heard the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of y Philistins.

9 And Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, and offered it for a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD, and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel, and the LORD heard him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew neare to battel against Israel: but the Lord thundred w a great thunder that day upon y Philistines, & discomfited them, & they were smitē before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came vnder Bethcar.

12 Then Samuel tooke a stone, and set it betweē Mizpah and Shen, & called the name of it, Ben-Ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 So the Philistines were subdued, & they came no more into y coasts of Israel: and y hād of y Lord was against the Philistines al y dayes of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath, with their coasts: and did Israel deliver out of y hands of y Philistins. & there was peace betweene Israel & the Amorites.

15 And Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life.

16 And he went from yeere to yeere in circuit to Bethel, & Gilgal, & Mizpeh, & iudged Israel in all those places.

17 And his returne was to Ramah: for there was his house: and there he iudged Israel: and there he built an altar unto the LORD.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to passe, when Samuel was old, that hee made his sonnes Iudges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his first borne was Ioel, and the name of his second Abiah: they were Iudges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, & took bribes, and perverted iudgement.

4 Then al the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: now make us a King to iudge us like all the nations.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, Give us a King to iudge us. & Samuel prayed to y Lord.

8 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voyce of the people in all they say to thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

9 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

10 Now therefore hearken unto their voyce: howbeit, yet protest solemnely unto them, & shew them the manner of the King that shall reigne over them.

11 And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a King.

12 And he said, This will bee the manner of the king that shall reigne over you: He will take your sons, & appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horse-men, and some shall run before his charets.

13 And he will appoint him Captaines over thousands, and captaines over fifties, and will set them to eare his ground, and to reape his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his charets.

14 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cookes, and to be bakers.

15 And he will take yout fields, and yout vine-yards, and yout olive-yards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

16 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of yont vineyards, and give to his officers, and his servants.

17 And he will take your men servants, and your maid servants, & your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

18 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.

19 And ye shall cry out in that day, because of your king which yee shall have chosen you: and the LORD will not hear you in that day.

20 Nevertheless, the people refused to obey the voyce of Samuel: & they said, Nay, but we will have a king over us.

21 That we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, & go out before us, & fight our battels.

22 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the eares of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken to their voyce, and make them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his citie.

CHAP. IX.

1 NOw there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choyce young man, & a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person then hee: from his shoulders and upward, he was higher then any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish, Sauls father, were lost: and Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed thorow mount Ephraim, and passed thorow the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed thorow the land of Shalim and there they were not: and he passed thorow the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us returne, lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold, now there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man: all that he saith, commeth surely to passe: Now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, & there is not a present to bring to the man of God: What have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have heere at hand the fourth part of a sickell of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Before time in Israel when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the Seer: for he that is now called a Prophet, was before time called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, well said come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, & said unto them, is the Seer heere?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is: Behold, he is before you, make haste now: for he came to day to the city: for there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place.

13 As soone as yee be come into the citie, ye shall straightway find him before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come because he doth blesse the sacrifice, and afterward they eat that be bidden: now therefore get you up, for about this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: & when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them for to go up to the high place.

15 Now the Lord had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of y land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to bee Captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of y hand of y Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, people, because the cry is come to me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of: this same shall reigne over my people.
18 Then Saul drew neer to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.
19 And Samuel answered Saul, & said, I am the Seer: go up before me unto ỹ high place, for ye shal eat with mee to day, & to morrow I will let thee go, & will tell thee all that is in thine heart.
20 And as for thine asses that were lost three dayes ago, set not thy mind on them, for they are found: And on whom is al the delite of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy fathers house?
21 And Saul answered & said, Am not I a Benjamite, of ỹ smallest of ỹ tribes of Israel? & my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Wherfore then speakest thou so to me?
22 And Samuel took Saul, and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.
23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said to thee, Set it by thee.
24 And the cook took up the shoulder, & that which was upon it, & set it before Saul: & Samuel said, behold, that which is left, set it before thee, & eat, for unto this time hath it been kept for thee: since I said, I have invited the people: so Saul did eat with Samuel ỹ day.
25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house.
26 And they arose earely: & it came to passe about the spring of ỹ day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Vp that I may send thee away: And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he & Samuel abroad.
27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us (and he passed on) but stand ỹ still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God.

CHAP. X.

1 THen Samuel took a vial of oile, & powred it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captaine over his inheritance?
2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachels sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin, at Zelzah: and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou went'st to seek, are found: and loe, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shal I do for my son?
3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men, going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of, and another carrying a bottle of 4 And they will salute thee, and thee two loaves of bread, which shalt receive of their hands.
5 After that thou shalt come to of God, where is ỹ garison of ỹ Pilistines: and it shall come to pass, that thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place, with psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp before them, & they shall prophesie:
6 And the Spirit of ỹ LORD will come upon thee, & thou shalt prophesie with them, & shalt be turned into another man.
7 And let it be when these signes come unto thee, that thou do occasion serve thee: for God is with thee.
8 And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal, & behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven dayes shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, & shew thee what thou shalt do.
9 And it was so, that when he had turned his backe to goe from Samuel, God gave him another heart, and all those signes came to passe that day.
10 And when they came thither unto the hil, behold, a company of the prophets met him, and the Spirit of God came upon him, & he prophesied among them.
11 And it came to pass, when all they that knew him before time, saw, ỹ behold, he prophesied among ỹ prophets, then the people said one to another, what is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?
12 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a provebe, Is Saul also among the prophets?
13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.
14 And Sauls uncle said unto him, & to his servant, Whither went ye? and he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.
15 And Sauls uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.
16 And Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of ỹ matter of the kingdom whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.
17 And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh:
18 And said to the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, & out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you.
19 And ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities, and your tribulations: and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present your selves before the LORD, by your tribes, and by your thousands.

Samuel had caused all of Israel to come neer, y tribe was taken:
he caused the tribe of Benjamin to come neer by their families, y family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.
Therefore they enquired of the Lord,
if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuffe.
And they ran, & fetched him thence,
and he stood among the people,
and was higher then any of the people,
from his shoulders and upward.
And Samuel said to all the people,
Do you see whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the King.
Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.
Saul also went home to his house in Gibeah, and there went with him a band of men whose hearts God had touched.
But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? and they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his peace.

CHAP. XI.

Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.
And Nahash the Ammonite answered them. On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel.
And the Elders of Jabesh said to him, Give us seven dayes respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.
Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the eares of the people: and all the people lift up their voices, and wept.
And behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field, & Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? & they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.
And the Spirit of God came upon Saul, when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.
And he took a yoke of oxen, & hewed them in pieces, & sent them throwout the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul, & after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen: and the fear of the LORD fell on y people, and they came out with one consent.
And when he numbred them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shal ye say to the men of Jabesh-Gilead, To morrow by that time the Sun be hot, ye shal have help.
And the messengers came & shewed it to the men of Jabesh, & they were glad Therefore the men of Jabesh said,
To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.
And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put y people in three companies, & they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, & slew the Am-monites until the heat of the day: & it came to passe, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.
And the people said unto Samuel,
Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.
And Saul said, there shal not a man be put to death this day: for to day the Lord hath wrought salvation in Israel.
Then said Samuel to the people,
Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.
And all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal: and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD: and there Saul, and all the men of Israel rejoyced greatly.

CHAP. XII.

And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have harkened unto your voyce in all that ye said unto me, and have made a King over you.
And now behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old, and gray headed, and behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my child-hood unto this day.
Behold, here I am, witness against me before the Lord, & before his Anointed: Whose ox have I taken? or whose asse have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind
my eies therewith? & I will restore it you.
And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.
And he said unto them, The LORD is witnesse against you, and his Anointed is witnesse this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand: And they answered, He is witnesse.
And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD, of all the righteous acts of y Lord, which he did to you and your fathers.
When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cryed to the LORD,
then the LORD sent Moses & Aaron, & brought forth your fathers out of Ægypt, & made them dwell in this place.
And

9 And when they forgate the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, & into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried to ỹ Lord, & said, We have sinned, because we have forsake ỹ Lord, & have served Baalim, & Asharoth: but now deliver us out of ỹ hād of our enemies, & we will serve thee.

11 And the Lord sent Ierubbaal, and Bedan, & Iephthah, & Samuel, & delivered you out of the hands of your enemies on every side, & ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said to me, Nay, but a king shal reign over us, when the Lord your God was your King.

13 Now therefore behold, the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired, and behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will feare the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shal both ye, and also the king that reigneth over you continue, following the LORD your God.

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebell against the commandment of the LORD, then shal the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 Now therefore stand and see this great thing which the LORD will doe before your eyes.

17 Is it not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain, that ye may perceive and see that your wickednesse is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and al the people greatly feared the LORD, and Samuel.

19 And al the people said to Samuel, Pray for thy servants to the Lord thy God, ỹ we die not: for we have added to al our sins, this evil to ask us a king.

20 And Samuel said unto the people, Feare not: (ye have done al this wickednesse, yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart:

21 And turn ye not aside, for the should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit, nor deliver: for they are vain.)

22 For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great Names sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

23 Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord, in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good, and the right way.

24 Only fear ỹ Lord, and serve him in truth with al your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, y both ye and your king.

CHAP. XIII.

SAul reigned one yeer, and when he had reigned two yeers over Israel,

2 Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, & in mount Bethel, & a thousand were with Ionathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of ỹ people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Ionathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout al the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And al Israel heard say, ỹ Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, & ỹ Israel also was had in abomination of the Philistines: and the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, to fight with Israel, thirty thousand charets, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up and pitched in Michmash, East-ward from Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a straite: (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And some of ỹ Hebrewes went over Iordan, to the land of Gad, & Gilead: as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and al the people followed him trembling.

8 And he tarried seven dayes according to ỹ set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace-offerings. And he offered the burnt-offering.

10 And it came to pass that assoone as he had made an end of offering ỹ burnt-offering, lo, Samuel came, & Saul went out to meet him, ỹ he might salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and ỹ thou camest not within the dayes appointed, and ỹ the Philistines gathered themselves together to Michmash:

12 Therefore said I, the Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced my self therefore and offered a burnt-offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandement of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdome upon Israel for ever.

14 But now thy kingdom shal not continue: ỹ Lord hath sought him a man after his own heart, & the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gate him up

Gibeah to Gibeah of Benjamin, numbred the people ỹ were preent him about six hundred men.
3 And Saul and Ionathan his son, &
e people that were present w them, de in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the hilistines encamped in Michmash.
5 And the spoilers came out of the ent of ỹ Philistins in three companies:
e company turned to the way ỹ leath to Ophrah, to the land of Shual:
6 And another company turned the y to Bethoron: and another comy turned to the way of the border
t looketh to the valley of Zeboim, ward the wildernesse.
7 Now there was no smith found throughout al the land of Israel: for e Philistines said, Lest the Hebrewes ke them swords or speares.
8 But all the Israelites went down the Philistines, to sharpen every n his share, and his coulter, and his e, and his mattock.
9 Yet they had a file for ỹ mattocks, d for the coulters, and for the forks, &
r the axes, and to sharpen the goades.
10 So it came to pass in the day of bat-le, ỹ there was neither sword nor spear und in ỹ hand of any of ỹ people that ere w Saul & Ionathan: but w Saul d Ionathan his son was there found.
11 And the garison of the Philistines went out to the pallage of Michmash.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 NOw it came to passe on a day, that Ionathan ỹ son of Saul said to the ung man ỹ bare his armour, come, & let s go over to ỹ Philistines garison ỹ is on yonder side: but to old not his father.
2 And Saul tarried in ỹ utter most part of Gibeah under a pomegranate-tree, ẇ is in Migron: & the people that were w him, were about six hundred men.
3 And Ahiah the son of Ahitub, Icha-bods brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, ỹ LORDS Priest in Shiloh, were ing an Ephod: and the people
new not that Ionathan was gone.
4 And between the passages by which Ionathan sought to go over to ỹ Philistines garison, there was a sharp rock on yone side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, & ỹ name of the other Seneh.
5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, &
the other southward over against Gibeah.
6 And Ionathan said to ỹ young man
ỹ bare his armour, Come, & let us go over to the garison of these uncircumcised: it may be ỹ the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD, to save by many, or by few.
7 And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee, behold, I am with thee, according to thine heart.
8 Then said Ionathan, Behold, we will passe over unto these men, and we will discover our selves unto them.
9 If they say thus unto us, tarry until we come to you: then we will stand still in our place, & will not go up to them.
10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us, then we will go up, for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand:
and this shall be a signe unto us.
11 And both of them discovered themselves to the garison of the Philistines:
and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes, where they had hid themselves.
12 And the men of the garison answered Ionathan and his armour-bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Ionathan said unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.
13 And Ionathan clymed up upon his hands, and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Ionathan, and his armour-bearer slew after him.
14 And ỹ first slaughter, ẇ Ionathan & his armour bearer made, was about twety men, within as it were an half acre of land, ẇa yoke of oxen might plow.
15 And there was tremblinging in the holt in the field, and among al the people, the garison and the spoilers: they also trembled, and the earth quaked, so it was a very great trembling.
16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibe-ah of Benjamin looked: and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.
17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now and see, who is gone from us. And when they had numbred, behold, Ionathan and his armour-bearer were not there.
18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God: (for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)
19 And it came to pass while Saul talked unto the Priests, that the noise that was in the hoste of the Philistines went on and increased: And Saul said unto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand.
20 And Saul and al the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battel, & behold, every mans sword was against his fellow, & there was very great discōfiture.
21 Moreover, the Hebrewes that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into ỹ camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were w Saul and Ionathan.
22 Likewise al the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephr-raim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battel.
23 So the LORD saved Israel that day:
& the battel passed over to Beth-avan.
24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until even-tyde, that I may be avenged on mine enemies: so none

none of the people tasted any food.
27 And all they of the land came to a wood, and there was hony on the ground.
28 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the hony dropped, but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.
29 But Ionathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath, wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, & dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, & his eyes were enlightened.
30 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint.
31 Then said Ionathan my father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this hony.
32 How much more, if happily the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?
33 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aialon: and the people were very faint.
34 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calues, and slew them on the ground, and the people did eate them with the blood.
35 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roule a great stone vnto me this day.
36 And Saul said, Disperse your selves among the people and say vnto them, Bring me hither every man his oxe, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat, and sin not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his oxe with him that night, and slew them there.
37 And Saul built an Altar vnto the LORD: the same was the first Altar that he built vnto the LORD.
38 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them vntil the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good to thee. Then said the Priest, Let us draw neer hither vnto God.
39 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day.
40 And Saul said, Draw ye neer hither all the chief of the people: & know and see, wherein this sin hath been this day.
41 For as the LORD liveth, who saveth Israel, though it be in Ionathan my son he shal surely die. But ther was not a man among all the people y answered him.
42 Then said he to all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I, & Ionathan my son, will be on the other side. And y people said vnto Saul, Do what seemeth good to thee.
43 Therfore Saul said vnto the LORD of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Ionathan were taken: but the people escaped.
44 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Ionathan my son. And Ionathan was taken.
45 Then Saul said to Ionathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Ionathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little hony with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and lo, I must dye.
46 And Saul answered, God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Ionathan.
47 And y people said to Saul, Shall Ionathan die who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the Lord liveth, there shal not one haire of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So y people rescued Ionathan, that he died not.
48 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.
49 So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, & fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, & against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, & against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: & whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.
50 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.
51 Now the sons of Saul were Ionathan, and Ishui, and Melchishua: and the names of his two daughters were these, the name of the first-born, Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:
52 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner Sauls uncle.
53 And Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.
54 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the dayes of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him vnto him.

CHAP. XV.

SAmuel also said vnto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou vnto the voice of the words of the LORD.
2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.
3 Now go and smite Amalek, and vtterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not, but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, oxe and sheep, camel and asse.
4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbred them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Iudah.
5 And Saul came to a citie of Amalek,

...ntures.

...and laid wait in the valley.
...Saul said unto the Kenites, Go,
...part you down from among the
...lest I destroy you with
...ye shewed kindness to all ...children of Israel, when they came
...of Egypt. So the Kenites de-
...from among the Amalekites.
...Saul smote the Amalekites from
...until thou comest to Shur,
...over against Egypt.
...he took Agag the king of the ...alive, & utterly destroyed
...people with the edge of the sword.
...Saul and y people spared Agag,
...best of the sheep, & of y oxen
...fatlings, and the lambs, & all
...good, & would not utterly de-
...but every thing y was vile
...that they destroyed utterly.
...then came the word of the LORD
...Samuel, saying,
...I repenteth me that I have set up
...to be king: for he is turned back
...following me, and hath not per-
...my commandments. And it
...grieved Samuel: and he cried unto
...LORD all night.
...and when Samuel rose early to met
...him in the morning, it was told Samuel,
...Saul came to Carmel, & behold,
...he set him up a place, & is gone about,
...passed on, & gone down to Gilgal.
...And Samuel came to Saul, and ...Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou
...of the LORD: I have performed the ...commandment of the LORD.
...And Samuel said, what meaneth then
...bleating of the sheep in mine ears,
...lowing of the oxen which I hear?
...And Saul said, they have brought ...them from the Amalekites: for y people ...spared the best of the sheep, and of the ...oxen, to sacrifice to the Lord thy God;
...and the rest we have utterly destroyed.
...Then Samuel said to Saul, Stay, &
...I will tell thee what y Lord hath said to ...me this night. And he said to him, Say on.
...And Samuel said, When thou wast
...little in thine own sight, wast thou not ...made head of the tribes of Israel, &
...the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?
...And the LORD sent thee on a jour...ney, and said, Go, and utterly destroy y
...sinners, the Amalekites, and fight a...gainst them, until they be consumed.
...Wherefore then diddst thou not o...bey the voice of the LORD, but didst
...fly upon the spoil, and diddst evill in
...the sight of the LORD?
...And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I ...have obeyed the voice of the LORD,
...and have gone the way which the ...LORD sent me, and have brought A-
...gag the king of Amalek, and have ut...terly destroyed the Amalekites.
...But y people took of y spoil, sheep,
...& oxen, the chief of y things w should
...have been utterly destroyed to sacrifice
...unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.
...And Samuel said, Hath y LORD as ...great delight in burnt offrings & sacri-

...fices, as in obeying y voice of y LORD?
...Behold, to obey, is better then sacrifice,
...and to hearken, then the fat of rams.
...For rebellion is as the sin of witch-
...craft, and stubbornesse is as iniquity
...and idolatry: because thou hast re...jected the word of the LORD, he hath
...also rejected thee from being king.
...And Saul said to Samuel, I have ...sinned: for I have transgressed y cōmand-
...ment of y Lord, and thy words, because
...I feared y people, & obeyed their voice.
...Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon
...my sin, and turn again with me, that ...I may worship the LORD.
...And Samuel said to Saul, I will not ...return with thee: for thou hast rejected y
...word of the LORD, & the LORD hath
...rejected thee frō being king over Israel.
...And as Samuel turned about to go ...away, he laid hold upon the skirt of
...his mantle, and it rent.
...And Samuel said to him, the Lord
...hath rent the kingdome of Israel from ...thee this day, and hath given it to a ...neighbor of thine, y is better then thou.
...And also the strength of Israel will ...not lie nor repent: for he is not a man
...that he should repent.
...Then he said, I have sinned, yet ho...nour me now, I pray thee, before the ...Elders of my people, and before Israel,
...and turn again with me, that I may
...worship the LORD thy God.
...So Samuel turned again after Saul,
...and Saul worshipped the LORD.
...Then said Samuel, bring you hither
...to me Agag y king of y Amalekites. &
...Agag came to him delicately, & Agag
...said, surely y bitternes of death is past.
...And Samuel said, As thy sword
...hath made women childelesse, so shall
...thy mother be childlesse among wo...men. And Samuel hewed Agag in pie...ces before the LORD in Gilgal.
...Then Samuel went to Ramah, & Saul
...went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.
...And Samuel came no more to see
...Saul til the day of his death: never...theless Samuel mourned for Saul: and
...the LORD repented that he had
...made Saul king over Israel.

CHAP. XVI.

AND the LORD said to Samuel, How long wilt y mourn for Saul, seeing
I have rejected him frō reigning over Israel? Fill thine horn w oil, & go, I will send thee to Iesse y Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king amōg his sons.
And Samuel said, How can I go? If Saul heare it, he will kil me. And the Lord said, Take an heifer w thee, and say, I am com to sacrifice to the LORD.
And cal Iesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him, whom I name unto thee.
And Samuel did that w the LORD spake, & came to Bethlehem: & the Elders of the town trembled at his com-ming, & said, Comest thou peaceably?
And he said, Peaceably, I am come to sacrifice to ỹ LORD: sanctifie your selves, and come with me to the sacrifice: & he sanctified Iesse, and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, & said, Surely ỹ Lords anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said to Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on ỹ height of his stature, because I have refused him: for ỹ Lord seeth not as men seeth: For man looketh on ỹ outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

8 Then Iesse called Abinadab, & made him passe before Samuel: and he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Iesse made Shammah to passe by: and he said, Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

10 And Iesse made seven of his sons to passe before Samuel, & Samuel said to Iesse, ỹ Lord hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said to Iesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, there remaineth yet the ỹ youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Iesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down, till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in: now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautifull countenance, and goodly to look to: And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him, for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, & anointed him in the midst of his brethren: & the Spirit of the Lord came upon David, from that day forward. So Samuel arose up and went to Ramah.

14 But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

15 And Sauls servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our Lord now cõmand thy servants which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on a harp: & it shall come to passe, when the evill spirit from God is on thee, that he shall play with his hand, & thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of ỹ servants & said, Behold, I have seen a son of Iesse the Bethlehemite, ỹ is cunning in playing, & a mighty valiant man, & a man of warr, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, & the Lord is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Iesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Iesse took an asse laden with bread and a bottle of wine, & a kid, & sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly, and he became his armour-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Iesse saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me: for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to passe, when the evill spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, & was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAP. XVII.

NOw ỹ Philistines gathered their armies to battell, & were gathered together at Shocho, ỹ is in Iudah, & pitched between Shocho and Azekah in Ephes-Dammim.

2 And Saul, and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and set the battell in aray against the Philistines.

3 And ỹ Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath, whose height was six cubites and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brasse upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mailes: and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brasse.

6 And he had greaves of brasse upon his legs, and a target of brasse between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weavers beam, & his speares head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and his bearer ỹ bare a sheild, went before him.

8 And he stood, and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said to them, Why are ye come out to set your battell in aray, am not I a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? chuse you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, & to slay me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, & slay him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defie the armies of Israel this day: give me a man that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of that ephrathite of Bethlehem-Iudah, whose name was Iesse, and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the dayes of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Iesse went and followed Saul to the battell: and the names of his three sons that went to the battell, were Eliab the first born, and next unto him, Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went & returned from Saul, to feed his fathers sheep at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine drew neer morning and evening, and presented himself fourty dayes.

17 And Iesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched corn, & these ten loaves, and run to the camp, to thy brethren.

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto of these thousand, & looke how [illegible] take their pledge.

[illegible] Saul, and they, and all the [illegible] of Israel were in the valley of [illegible] fighting with the Philistims.
20 And David rose up early in the [illegible] morning, and left the sheepe with a [illegible] and took, and went as Iesse had [illegible] commanded him: and he came to the [illegible] as the hoste was going forth
[illegible] to fight, and shouted for the battle [illegible] of Israel and the Philistines had [illegible] set their army against army.
21 And David left his carriage in the [illegible] hand of the keeper of the carriage, and [illegible] ran into the army, and came and saluted [illegible] his brethren.
22 And as he talked with them, lo, ther
[illegible] came up the champion of the Philistims
[illegible] (Goliath by name) out of the ar[illegible] mies of Philistim, & spake according [illegible] to the same words: & David heard them.
23 And all the men of Israel, when [illegible] they saw the man, fled from him, and [illegible] were sore afraid.
24 And the men of Israel said, Have ye [illegible] seene this man that is come up? surely [illegible] for to defie Israel is he come up: and it [illegible] shall be that the man who killeth him, [illegible] the King will inrich him with great [illegible] riches, and will give him his daughter, [illegible] and make his fathers house free in Israel.
25 And David spake to the men y stood [illegible] by him, saying, What shall be done to y
[illegible] man that killeth him, & taketh [illegible] away reproach from Israel? for who is [illegible] this uncircumcised Philistine, y he [illegible] should defie y armies of y living God?
26 And the people answered him after [illegible] this manner, saying, So shall it be done
[illegible] to the man that killeth him.
27 And Eliab his eldest brother heard [illegible] when he spake to the men, and Eliabs [illegible] anger was kindled against David, and [illegible] he said, Why camest thou downe hi[illegible] ther? and with whom hast thou left [illegible] those few sheepe in the wilderne[illegible]?
[illegible] I know thy pride, and the naughtinesse
[illegible] of thine heart; thou art come downe [illegible] that thou mightest see the battell.
28 And David said, What have I now [illegible] done? is there not a cause?
29 And he turned from him, to[illegible] wards another, and spake after the [illegible] same manner: and the people answered [illegible] him again after the former manner.
30 And when the words were heard [illegible] which David spake, they rehearsed [illegible] them before Saul, and he sent for him.
31 And David said to Saul, let no mans
[illegible] heart faile, because of him: thy servant
[illegible] will go, and fight with this Philistine.
32 And Saul said to David, Thou art
[illegible] not able to go against this Philistine [illegible] to fight with him: for y art but a youth, [illegible] and he a man of warre from his youth.
33 And David said unto Saul, thy ser-[illegible] vant kept his fathers sheepe, and there [illegible] came a Lyon, and a Beare, and tooke [illegible] a Lambe out of the flocke.
34 And I went out after him, and smote [illegible] him, & delivered it out of his mouth: & if whenhe arose against me, I caught him by his beard, & smote him & slew him.
36 Thy servant slew both y Lyon and y Beare; and this uncircumcised Philistine shal be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of y living God.
37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered mee out of the paw of the Lyon, and out of the paw of the Beare, he will deliver me out of y hand of y Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Goe, and the LORD be with thee.
38 And Saul armed David with his armor.
& he put an helmet of bras on his head,
also he armed him with a coat of male.
39 And David girded his sword on his armour, & he assayed to goe, for he had not proved it: & David said unto Saul,
I cannot go with these: for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.
40 And he tooke his staffe in his hand, & chose him five smooth stones out of the brooke, and put them in a shepheards bag which he had, even in a scrip, and his sling was in his hand, and he drew neere to the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on, and drew neere unto David, and the man that bare the shield went before him.
42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a faire countenance.
43 And the Philistine said to David,
Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? and the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
44 And the Philistine said to David,
Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowles of the aire, and to the beasts of the field.
45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a speare, & with a shield; but I come to thee in the Name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.
46 This day will y LORD deliver thee into mine hand, & I will smite thee, & take thine head from thee, & I will give y carkasses of y hoste of the Philistines this day unto the foules of y aire, and to the wilde beasts of the earth, y all the earth may know, y there is a God in Israel.
47 And all this assembly shall know, that the LORD saveth not with sword and speare (for the battel is the LORDs) and he will give you into our hands.
48 And it came to passe when the Philistine arose, and came, and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, & ranne toward the army to meet the Philistine.
49 And David put his hand in his bag, and tooke thence a stone, and slang it,
and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead: & he fell upon his face to y earth.
50 So David prevailed over the Philistine, with a sling, and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him: but there was no sword in y hand of David.
51 Therefore David ran, & stood upon the Philistine: and tooke his sword and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him. & cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Iudah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, vntill thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron: and the wounded of the Philistines fell downe by the way to Shaaraim, even vnto Gath, and vnto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And Dauid tooke the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Ierusalem: but he put his armour in his tent.

55 And when Saul saw Dauid go forth against the Philistine, hee said vnto Abner the Captaine of the hoste, Abner, whose sonne is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soule liueth, O King, I cannot tel.

56 And the King said, Enquire thou whose sonne the stripling is.

57 And as Dauid returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with y head of the Philistine in his hād.

58 And Saul said to him, whose son art thou, thou young man? And Dauid answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Iesse the Bethlemite.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND it came to passe when hee made an end of speaking vnto Saul that the soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathan loued him as his owne soule.

2 And Saul tooke him that day, and would let him goe no more home to his fathers house.

3 Then Ionathan and Dauid made a Couenant, because hee loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathan stript himselfe of the robe that was vpon him and gaue it to Dauid, and his garments, euen to his sword and to his bowe, & to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whithersoeuer Saul sent him, and behaued himselfe wisely: and Saul set him ouer the men of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants.

6 And it came to passe, as they came, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul with tabrets, with ioy, and with instruments of musicke.

7 And y women answered one another as they played and said, Saul hath slain his thousāds, & Dauid his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he said, They have ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousands, and to me they haue ascribed but thousands: and what can he haue more, but the kingdome?

9 And Saul eyed Dauid from that day and forward.

10 And it came to passe on the morrow, that the euill spirit from God came vpon Saul and hee prophesied in the midst of the house: and Dauid played with his hand as at other times: and there was a iauelin in Sauls hand.

11 And Saul cast the iauelin: for he said, I will smite Dauid euen to the wall with it: and Dauid auoided out of his presence twice.

12 And Saul was afraid of Dauid, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain ouer a thousand, and hee went out, and came in before the people.

14 And Dauid behaued himselfe wisely in all his waies, and the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaued himselfe very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Iudah loued Dauid, because he went out and came in before them.

17 And Saul said to Dauid, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her will I giue thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the battels of the LORD. For Saul said, Let not mine hand bee vpon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be vpon him.

18 And Dauid said vnto Saul, What am I? & what is my life, or my fathers family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the King?

19 But it came to passe, at the time when Merab Sauls daughter should haue been giuen to Dauid, y thee was giuen to Adriel y Meholathite to wife.

20 And Michal Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will giue him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the twaine.

22 And Saul commanded his seruants saying, Commune with Dauid secretly, and say, Behold, the King hath delight in thee, & his seruants loue thee: now therefore be y Kings son in law.

23 And Sauls seruants spake these words in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to bee a Kings son in law, seeing that I am a poore man and lightly esteemed?

24 And the seruants of Saul told him, saying, On this maner spake Dauid.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall yee say to Dauid, The King desireth not any dowry but an hundred foreskins of the Philistins to be auenged of y Kings enemies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fall by y hād of the Philistines.

26 And when his seruants told Dauid these words, it pleased Dauid well to be

…e Kingdom in law, and the dayes …re not expired:
…herefore David arose, flee and …ame to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.
18 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.
19 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the Prophets prophecying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophecied.
20 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise, and Saul sent messengers again the third time, & they prophecied also.
21 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well which is in Sechu: and he asked, and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.
22 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, & he went on & prophecied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
23 And he stript off his clothes also, and prophecied before Samuel in like manner, and lay downe naked all that day: and all that night: wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

CHAP. XX.

1 And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?
2 And he said unto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will doe nothing either great or small, but that he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.
3 And David sware moreover, and said, thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes, and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truely as the LORD liveth, and as thy soule liveth, there is but a step betweene me and death.
4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soule desireth, I will even doe it for thee.
5 And

…Saul spake to Jonathan his son …nto all his servants, that they …ould kill David.
…But Jonathan Sauls son delighted …ch in David, & Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh …ll thee. Now therefore, I pray thee, …ake heed to thy selfe until the morn…ng, and abide in a secret place, and …hy selfe:
…And I will goe out and stand beside …y father in the field where thou art, …nd I will commune with my father …f thee & what I see, I will tell thee.
…And Jonathan spake good of David …nto Saul his father, and said unto him …et not the King sin against his servant, …gainst David: because he hath not sinned against thee, & because his works …ave been to thee ward very good.
…For he did put his life in his hand, and …ew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought …reat salvation for all Israel: thou sawest …t, and didst rejoyce: Wherefore then …ilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?
…And Saul hearkened unto the voyce …f Jonathan, and Saul sware, As the …ORD liveth, he shall not be slaine.
…And Jonathan called David, and Jo…nathan shewed him all those things. …nd Jonathan brought David to Saul …at he was in his presence, as in times past.
…And there was warre againe, and …avid went out, and fought with the …hilistines, and slew them with a great …laughter, and they fled from him.
…And the evill spirit from the LORD …ame upon Saul as he sate in his house …ith his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.
…And Saul sought to smite David …ven to the wall with the javelin, but …e slipt away out of Sauls presence, …nd he smote the javelin into the wall: …nd David fled & escaped that night.
…t Saul also sent messengers to David's …use, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal Davids wife told him, saying, If thy life be not thy life this night: to morrow thou shalt be slaine.
12 So Michal let David down through a window: & he went & fled, & escaped.
13 And Michal tooke an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats haire for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.
14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sicke.
15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.
16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats haire for his bolster.
17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go: Why should I kil thee?
18 So David fled, and escaped, and c And David said vnto Ionathan, Lo, to morrow is ỹ new moon, & I should not fail to sit ẅ the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide my self in the fields vnto the third day at Even.

6 If thy father at all misse me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Bethlehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus: It is well: thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that euill is determined by him.

8 Therfore thou shalt deal kindly ẅ thy seruãt, for ỹ hast brought thy seruant into a couenant of ỹ Lord ẅ thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thy self: for vvhy should'st thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Ionathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly ỹ euil were determined by my father to come vpon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Ionathan, Who shall tell me? or vvhat if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 And Ionathan said to David, come, & let vs go out into the field, & they vvent out both of them into the field.

12 And Ionathan said vnto David, O Lord God of Israel, vvhen I have sounded my father, about to morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, & I then send not vnto thee, and shew it thee;

13 The Lord do so, & much more to Ionathan: but if it please my father to do thee euil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou may'st go in peace, & the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not onely, while yet I liue, shew me the kindnesse of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindnesse from my house for ever; no not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David euery one from the face of the earth.

16 So Ionathan made a couenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD euen require it at the hand of Davids enemies.

17 And Ionathan caused David to sweare again, because he loued him, for he loued him as he loued his own soul.

18 Then Ionathan said to David, To morrow is the new Moon, & ỹ shalt be mist, because ỹ seat wil be emptie.

19 And when thou hast stayed three dayes, then thou shalt go down quickly & come to the place where thou didst hide thy self, when the businesse was in ỹ hand, & shalt remaine by ỹ stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go find out the arrowes. If I expresselly say vnto the lad, Behold, the arrowes are on this side of thee, take them: then come ỹ, for there is peace to thee, and no hurt, as the LORD liueth.

22 But if I say thus vnto the young man, Behold, the arrowes are beyond thee: goe thy way, for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter which thou and I haue spoken of, behold, the LORD be betweene thee & me for euer.

24 So David hid himselfe in the field: and when the new Moone was come, the King sate him downe to eate meate.

25 And ỹ King sate vpon his seat, as at other times, euen vpon a seat by ỹ wall: and Ionathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, & Dauids place was emptie.

26 Neuertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day; for he thought, Some thing hath befallen him, he is not cleane, surely he is not cleane.

27 And it came to passe on the morrow, which was the second day of the moneth, that Dauids place was emptie: and Saul said vnto Ionathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not ỹ son of Iesse to meate, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Ionathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leaue of me, to goe to Bethlehem,

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a sacrifice in ỹ citie, and my brother he hath commanded me to be there, and now if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren: therefore commeth he not vnto the kings table.

30 Then Sauls anger was kindled against Ionathan, and he said vnto him, Thou foole of the perverse rebellious woman, doe not I know that thou hast chosen ỹ son of Iesse to thine owne confusion, & to ỹ confusion of thy mothers nakednesse?

31 For as long as the son of Iesse liueth vpon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor ỹ kingdome. Wherefore now send and fetch him vnto me, for hee shall surely die.

32 And Ionathan answered Saul his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shall he be slaine? what hath he done?

33 & Saul cast a iauelin at him to smite him, whereby Ionathan knew ỹ it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Ionathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eate no meate the second day of the moneth: for he was grieued for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 And it came to passe in the morning that Ionathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said vnto his lad, Runne, find out now ỹ arrowes ỹ I shoot. And as the lad ran he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the ladde was come to the place of the arrow which Ionathan had shot, Ionathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Ionathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Ionathans knew not any thing: only Jonathan & David knew the matter.

37 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the citie.
38 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, & fell on his face to y ground, and bowed himself three times: & they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.
39 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me, & between thee, and between my seed, & between my seed, & thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed:
and Jonathan went into the citie.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David, & said to him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?
2 And David said to Ahimelech the Priest, the king hath commanded me a matter, & hath said to me, let no man know any thing of the business where to I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.
3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present.
4 And the Priest answered David, & said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread, if so be young men have kept themselves
at least from women.
5 And David answered the Priest, and said unto him, of a truth, women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is but of a meaner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.
6 So the Priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there, but the shewbread that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.
7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD, and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.
8 And David said to Ahimelech, and is there not here under thine hand, I pray thee, spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword, nor my weapons with mine own: for the king's business required haste.
9 And the Priest said, the sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is there wrapped in a cloth behind the Ephod: if thou will take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that, give it me.
10 And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath.
11 And the servants of Achish said to him, is not this David the king of y land? Did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, & David his ten thousands?
12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.
13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.
14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, you see the man is mad: wherefore
then have ye brought him to me?
15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? Shal this fellow come into my house?

CHAP. XXII.

1 David therefore departed thence, & escaped to the cave Adullam; and when his brethre, & all his fathers house heard it, they went down thither to him.
2 And every one that was in distresse, and every one that was in debt, & every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him, and he became a captaine over them: and there were with him about foure hundred men.
3 And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab, and said to the king of Moab Let my father, and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, til
I know what God will do for me.
4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.
5 And y Prophet Gad said to David, Abide not in the hold, depart, and get thee to y land of Judah. Then David departed, & came into y forrest of Hareth.
6 When Saul heard that David was discovered, & the men that were with him: (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his speare in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him.
7 Then Saul said unto his servants y stood about him, Heare now, ye Benjamites: Will the son of Iesse give every one of you fields, and vineyards, and make you all captaines of thousands, and captaines of hundreds:
8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Iesse, and there is none of you y is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me y my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait as at this day?
9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite
(who was set over the servants of Saul)
& said I saw the son of Iesse comming to Nob, to Ahimelech y son of Ahitub.
10 And he enquired of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath y Philistine.
11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the Priest, the son of Ahitub, & all his fathers house, y Priests y were in Nob:
and they came all of them to the king.
12 And

13 And Saul said, Hear now thou son of Ahitub: and he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou & the son of Iesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the kings son in law, & goeth at thy biding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him; be it far from me: let not y king impute any thing to his servant, nor to all y house of my father, for thy servat knew nothing of al this, lesse or more.

16 And y king said, thou shalt surely die Ahimelech, thou & al thy fathers house.

17 And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turne and slay the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of y king would not put forth their hand to fal upon the Priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said unto Doeg, turn thou and fall on the Priests. And Doeg y Edomite turned, & he fell on y priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linnen Ephod.

19 And Nob the citie of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep with the edge of the sword.

20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORDS Priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tel Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that seeketh my life, seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safegard.

CHAP. XXII.

Then they told David, saying, Behold y Philistines fight against Keilah, & they rob the threshing floors.

2 Therefore David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shal I goe and smite the Philistines? and the Lord said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And Davids men said unto him, behold we be afraid here in Iudah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

4 Then David enquired of the Lord yet again: And the Lord answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah: for I will deliver y Philistines into thy hand.

5 So David & his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattel, and smote them with a great slaughter: so David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an Ephod in his hand.

7 And it was told e Saul that David was come to Keilah: and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, by entring into a town that hath gates and barres.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him, and said to Abiathar the Priest, Bring hither the Ephod.

10 Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Wil the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? wil Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee tel thy servant. And the LORD said, He wil come down.

12 Then said David, Wil the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? and the LORD said, They wil deliver thee up.

13 Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose, and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go: and it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah, and he forbare to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountaine in the wildernes of Ziph: and Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee: and thou shalt be king over Israel, & I shal be next to thee: and that also Saul my father knoweth.

18 And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, & Ionathan went to his house.

19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doeth not David hide himself with vs in strong holdes in the wood, in the hil of Hachilah, which is on the South of Ieshimon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down, according to al the delire of thy soul to come down, and our part shal be to deliver him into the Kings hand.

21 And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the Lord, for ye have compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know & see his place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me y he dealeth very subtilly.

23 See

wherfore, and take knowledge of all thy places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with certainty, and I will go with you:
and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out thousands of all the thousands of Iudah.
23 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.
24 Saul also and his men went to seek him. They told David wherfore he was come into a roome, and abode in the wilderness of Maon: and when David heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.
25 And Saul went on this side of y mountain: and David and his men on that side of the mountaine: and David made haste to get away for feare of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.
26 But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for y
Philistims have invaded the land.
27 Wherfore Saul returned from following after David, & went against the Philistims: therfore they called that place Sela-Hammahlekoth.
28 And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at En-gedi.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Wherefore it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following y Philistims, that it was told him, saying, Behold,
David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.
2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wilde goats.
3 And came to the sheep coats by the way, where was a cave, and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David & his men remained in the sides of y cave.
4 Then the men of David said to him,
Behold the day of which y Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemie into thine hand, that y mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the lap of Sauls robe privily.
5 And it came to pass afterwards, that David smote him, because he had cut off the lap of Sauls skirt.
6 And he said to his men, The Lord forbid that I should do this thing unto my Lord, the anointed of the LORD, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.
7 So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.
8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cryed after Saul, saying, My lord the King. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth and bowed himself.
9 And David said to Saul, Wherfore hearest thou mens words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt.
10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how y the Lord had delivered thee to day into mine hand in y cave:
and some bade me kil thee, but mine eye spared thee, and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord;
for he is the LORDS anointed.
11 Moreover, my father, See, yea see y skirt of thy robe in mine hand: for in y
I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not. Know thou and see that there is neither evill nor trasgression in mine hand, & I have not sinned against thee, yet y huntest my soul to take it.
12 The Lord iudge betwen me and thee, and the Lord aveage me of thee:
but mine hand shal not be upon thee.
13 As saith y proverbe of y ancients
Wickednes proceedeth from y wicked:
but mine hand shall not be upon thee.
14 After whom is the king of Israel come out: after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.
15 The LORD therefore be judge, and iudge betwen me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.
16 And it came to pass when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul: Saul said, Is this y voyce my son David? And Saul lift up his voyce and wept.
17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evill.
18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: for-asmuch as when y LORD had delivered me into thy hand, y killedst me not.
19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherfore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.
20 And now behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that y kingdome of Israel shall be stablished in thine hand.
21 Swear now therfore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, & y thou wilt not destroy my name out of my fathers house.
22 And David sware unto Saul, and Saul went home: but David and his men gate them up unto the hold.

CHAP. XXV.

1 And Samuel died, and all y Israelites were gathered together, & lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wildernesse of Paran.
2 And there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel, and the man was very great, & he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats:
& he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail:
and she was a woman of good under standing, & of a beautiful countenance

but the man was churlish, and evil in his doings, & he was of ȳ houseof Caleb

4 And David heard in the wildernes, that Nabal did sheat his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said vnto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperitie. Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be vnto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now they shepheards which were with vs we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing to them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. wherefore let the young men find fauor in thine eyes: (for we come in a good day) giue I pray thee, whatsoeuer commeth to thine hand, to thy seruants, and to thy son David.

9 And when Davids young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the Name of David, and ceased.

10 And Nabal answered Davids seruants and said who is David? and who is the son of Iesse? There be many seruants now a dayes, that break away, e very man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, & my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and giue it vnto men whom I know not whence they be?

12 So Davids young men turned their way, and went again, and came, and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said to his men, Gird you on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword, & David also girded on his sword: and there went vp after David about foure hundred men, & two hundred abode by ȳ stuffe.

14 But one of ȳ seruants told Abigail, Nabals wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wildernes to salute our master, & he railed on them.

15 But the men were very good vnto vs, & we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing all ȝe long as we were conuersant with them, when we were in ȳ fields.

16 They were a wall vnto vs both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for euil is determined against our master, & against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial ȳ a man can not speak to him.

18 Then Abigail made haste, & took two hundred loaues, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, & two hundred cakes of figs, & laid them on asses.

19 And she said vnto her seruants, go on before me, behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so as she rode on ȳ asse, that she came down by the covert of ȳ hill, & behold, David & his men came downe against her, and she met them.

21 (Now David had said, surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wildernes, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained vnto him, and he hath requited me euill for good.

22 So & more also do God vnto the enemies of David, if I leaue of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.)

23 And when Abigail saw I. asse, she hasted, and lighted off her asse, & fell before David on her face, and bowed her self to the ground.

24 And fell at his feet, & said, Vpon me, my lord vpon me let this iniquitie be, and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speake in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore my lord as ȳ LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing ȳ LORD hath withholden thee from comming to shed blood, & from auenging thy self with thine own hand: now let thine enemies, and they that seek euil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this blessing which this handmaid hath brought to my lord, let it euen be giuen vnto the young men that follow my lord.

28 I pray thee forgiue the trespasse of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battels of the LORD, and euill hath not been found in thee all thy dayes.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, & to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in ȳ bundle of liuing in the LORD thy God: & the soules of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass when the LORD shall haue done to my lord according to all the good that hee hath spoken concerning thee, and shall haue appointed thee ruler ouer Israel;

31 That this shall be no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of heart to my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causelesse, or that my lord hath auenged himself: But when the LORD shall haue dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me.

33 And blessed be thy aduise, & blessed be ȳ, which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, & from auenging my self with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liueth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except ȳ hadst hasted, & come to meet me, surely there left to Nabal: by y morning y fil'eth against y wall.

David received of her hand which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.
And Abigail came to Nabal, & beheld, a feast in his house like y feast of a king, and Nabals heart was merry within him, for he was very dru-ken: therefore she told him nothing, less or more, until y morning light.
But it came to passe in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal his wife had told him these things, his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.
And it came to passe about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he dyed.
And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, & hath kept his servant from evill: for the wickedness of Nabal hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail that she should become his wife to him.
And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us to thee, that we should take thee to him to wife.
And she arose, & bowed her self on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash
the feet of the servants of my lord.
And Abigail hasted, & rose, & rode upon an Asse, & five damsels of hers y went after her, & she went after y messengers of David, and became his wife.
David also took Ahinoam of Jez-reel, and they were also both of them his wives.
But Saul had given Michal his daughter, Davids wife, to Phalti the son of Laish which was of Gallim.

CHAP. XXVI.

And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doeth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah which is before Jeshimon?
Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.
And Saul pitched in the hill of Ha-chilah, which is before Jeshimon by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, & he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.
He therefore sent out spies, & understood that Saul was come in very deed.
And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: & David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner the captaine of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, &
the people pitched round about him.
Then answered David, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah brother to Ioab, b

David spareth Saul.

saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said,
I will go down with thee.
7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, & his speare stuck in y ground at his bolster: but Abner & the people lay round about him.
8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the speare even to the earth at once, & I will not smite him the second time.
9 And David said to Abishai: Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against y LORDS Anointed, and be guiltlesse?
10 David said furthermore, As y Lord liveth, y LORD shall smite him, or his day shall come to die: or he shall decend into battel and perish.
11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORDS Anoynted: but I pray thee, take thou now y speare y is at his bolster & y cruse of water, & let us goe.
12 So David tooke the speare and the cruse of water from Sauls bolster, and they gate them away: and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from y LORD was fallen upon them.
13 Then David went over to y other side, & stood on the top of an hil a far off (a great space being betweene them.) 14 And David cryed to y people, & to Abner y son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not Abner? then Abner answered, & said, who art thou y cryest to y king?
15 And David said to Abner, art not thou a valiant man? & who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord y king? for there came one of y people in to destroy y king thy lord.
16 This thing is not good that thou hast done: as y Lord liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master the Lords anoynted: and now see where the kings speare is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.
17 And Saul knew David's voice, & said,
Is this thy voice my son David? & David said, it is my voice, my lord, O king.
18 And he said, wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear y words of his servant: if the Lord have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering:
but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the Lord: for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go serve other gods.
20 Now therefore let not my blood fall to the earth, before the face of y Lord:
for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partrige in the mountaines.

21 Then said Saul, I have sinned: return my son David, for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered, and said, Behold the King's speare, and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORDS Anointed.

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevaile. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place

CHAP. XXVII.

AND David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me, then that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines: and Saul shall despaire of me to seeke me any more in any coast of Israel, so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and hee passed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish the son of Maoch King of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, hee and his men every man with his household, even David with his two wives Ahinoam y Jezreelitesse, & Abigail the Carmelitesse, Nabals wife.

4 And it was told Saul, that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more againe for him.

5 And David said to Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some towne in the country, that I may dwell there: for why shall thy servant dwell in the royall city with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth to the Kings of Iudah unto this day.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistims, was a full yeer and foure moneths.

8 And David and his men went up and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, & took away the sheepe and the oxen, and the asses and the camels, and the apparell, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Whither have ye made a rode to day? and David said, Against the South of Iudah, and against the South of the Ierahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhorre him, therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND it came to passe in those dayes, that the Philistims gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, Know thou assuredly that thou shalt go out with me to battell, thou and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his owne city: and Saul had put away those y had familiar spirits, and the wizards out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the hoste of the Philistines, hee was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreames, nor by Urim, nor by Prophets.

7 Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may goe to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said unto him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and hee went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and hee said, I pray thee divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those y have a familiar spirits, and the wizards out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voyce: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the King said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ending out of the earth.

and he said unto her What forme
e? And she said, An old man co-th up, and he is covered with a and Saul perceived that it was uel, and she stooped with her face the ground and bowed herself to-and Samuel said to Saul Why hast disquieted me, to bring me up?
Saul answered, I am sore distressed, the Philistins make war against and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by ophets, nor by dreames: therefore have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall doe.
Then said Samuel, Wherefore then you ask of me, seeing the LORD departed from thee, and is become emy?
for the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath n the kingdom out of thine hand, & giv-it to thy neighbour, even to David.
Because thou obeyedst not the ce of the LORD, nor executedst erce wrath upon Amalek: therefore this thing hath the LORD done this thing thee this day.
Moreover, the LORD will also ver Israel with thee into the hand the Philistines: and to morrow shalt and thy sons be with me: the Lord ll deliver the host of Israel also the hand of the Philistines.
Then Saul fell straightway all a-length upon the earth, and was sore afraid be-the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him: for he had eaten bread all the day, nor all y night.
And the woman came unto Saul, & saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, & have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest to me.
Now therefore I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thy handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee: and eate, y thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way.
But he refused, and said, I will not eate. His servants together with the woman compelled him, and he hearkened unto their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sate upon the bed.
And the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof.
And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants, & they did eate. Then they arose up, and went away that night.

CHAP. XXIX

Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountaine which is in Jezreel.
And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward with Achish.
Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here?
And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these dayes, or these yeeres, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me, to this day?
And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return that thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battel, lest in the battel he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master should it not be with the heads of these men?
Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?
Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely as the LORD liveth thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy comming in with me in the host, is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee, since the day of thy coming unto me, unto this day:
nevertheless the lords favour thee not.
Wherefore now return and goe in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines.
And David said to Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant, so long as I have been before thee unto this day, y I may not goe and fight against the enemies of my lord y king?
And Achish answered, and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an Angel of God: notwithstanding, the Princes of y Philistines have said, He shall not goe up with us to the battel.
Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy masters servants that are come with thee: and assoon as yee be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.
So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAP. XXX.

And it came to passe, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire;
And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any,
either great or small, but caried them away, and went on their way.
So David and his men came to the citie, and behold, it was burnt with fire, and their wives, and their sons, & their daughters were taken captives.
Then David and the people that were with him lift up their voyce and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And Davids two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Iezreelitesse, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed, for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons, and for his daughters, but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs son, I pray thee, bring me hither the Ephod: & Abiathar brought thither the Ephod to David.

8 And David enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troupe? shall I overtake them? and he answered him, Pursue, for y shalt surely overtake them, & without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, & came to the brooke Besor, where those that were left behind, stayed.

10 But David pursued, he, and foure hundred men: (for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brooke Besor.)

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eate, and they made him drink water.

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figges, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water, three dayes, and three nights.

13 And David said to him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite, and my master left me, because three dayes agone I fell sicke.

14 We made an invasion on the South of y Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Iudah, and upon y South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Sweare unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kil me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth eating & drinking, and dauncing, because of all the great spoil, y they had take out of y land of y Philistims, & out of y land of Iudah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight, even to the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save foure hundred young men which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that y Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither Sonnes nor daughters, neither spoile nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flockes, and the beasts, & they drave before those other cattel, & said, this is Davids spoil.

21 And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint, that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came neer to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil, that we have recovered, but to every man his wife, & his children, y they may lead them away, & depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shal not do so my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, & hath delivered the company that came against us, into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? But as his part is, that goeth down to y battel, so shal his part be that tarieth by y stuff: they shal part alike.

25 And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute, and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoile unto the Elders of Iudah, even to his friends, (saying) Behold, a present for you of the spoile of the enemies of the LORD.

27 To them which were in Bethel, & to them which were in South Ramoth, and to them which were in Iattir,

28 And to them which were in Aroer, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in Eshtemoa,

29 And to them which were in Rachal, and to them which were in the cities of the Ierahmeelites, & to them which were in the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them which were in Hormah, and to them which were in Chorashan, & to them which were in Athach, 31 And to them which were in Hebron, and to al the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

CHAP. XXXI.

NOw the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slaine in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons: and the Philistines slew Ionathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Sauls sons.

3 And the battel went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not, for he was sore afraid: therefore Saul took a sword, and fel upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fel likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So

5 So Saul died and his three sons, & his armour bearer, and all his men that same day toge her.

6 And when the men of Israel y were on y other side of y valley, & they that were on y other side Iordan saw y the men of Israel fled, & y Saul & his sons were dead: they forsook y cities & fled, & y Philistines came & dwelt in them.

7 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

8 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistims round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, & among the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his body to the wal of Bethshan.

11 And when the inhabitants of Iabesh-Gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done unto Saul:

12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, & the bodies of his sons from the wal of Bethshan, & came to Iabesh, and burnt them there.

13 And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Iabesh, and fasted seven dayes.

The second Booke of SAMVEL, otherwise called, The second booke of the KINGS.

CHAP. I.

NOw it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from y slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two dayes in Ziklag:

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the host from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeysance.

3 And David said to him, From whence comest thou? and he said to him, Out of the tents of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said to him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, that the people are fled from the battel, and many of the people also are fallen & are dead; and Saul and Ionathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said to the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him, said, As I happened by chance on mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his speare, and loe the charets and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me: and I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who are thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said to me again, Stand, I pray thee upon me, & slay me: for anguish is come upon me; because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and took the crowne that was on his head, and y bracelet that was on his arm, & have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Ionathan his son, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were fallen by the sword.

13 And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence are thou? & he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said to him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand, to destroy the Lords Anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, & said, Go neer, and fall upon him. And he smote him, that he died.

16 And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slaine the LORDS Anointed.

17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul, and over Ionathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Iudah y use of the bow: behold it is written in the book of Iasher.)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are y mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in y streets of Askelon: lest y daughters of the Philistines rejoyce, lest y daughters of the Vncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountaines of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be raine upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slaine, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Ionathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Ionathan were lovely, & pleasant in their lives, & in their death they were not divided, they were swifter then Eagles, they were stronger then lyons.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the middest of the battel: O Ionathan, thou wast slaine in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Ionathan, very pleasant hast thou been unto mee: thy love to mee was wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished?

CHAP. II.

AND it came to passe after this, that David enquired of ỹ LORD, saying, Shal I go up into any of ỹ cities of Iudah? And the LORD said to him, Go up. And David said, Whither shal I go up? And he said, vnto Hebron. 2 So David went up thither, & his two wiues also, Ahinoam the Iezreelitesse, & Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

3 And his men that were with him, did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Iudah came, and there they annointed David king over the house of Iudah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Iabesh-Gilead were they that buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers to the men of Iabesh-Gilead, & said to them, Blessed be ye of the LORD, ỹ ye have shewed this kindnesse vnto your lord, even vnto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now the LORD shew kindnesse and truth vnto you: and I also will requite you this kindnesse, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore, now let your hands be strengthened, & be valiant: for your master Saul is dead, & also the house of Iudah have anointed me king over them.

8 But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Sauls host, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him ouer to Mahanaim.

9 And he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Iezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ishbosheth Sauls son was fourty yeers old when he began to reigne over Israel, and reigned two yeers: but the house of Iudah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Iudah, was seven yeers, and six moneths.)

12 And Abner the son of Ner, and ỹ servants of Ishbosheth ỹ son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeõ.

13 And Ioab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David went out, & met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Ioab, Let the young men now arise and play before us: and Ioab said, Let them arise.

15 Then they arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ishbosheth ỹ son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, & thrust his sword in his fellows side: so they fell down together. Wherefore ỹ place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battel ỹ day: & Abner was beaten, & the men of Israel before the servants of David.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there; Ioab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild Roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner, & in going he turned not to the right hand nor to ỹ left, frõ following after.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? and he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand, or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, turn thee aside from following me. Wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold vp my face to Ioab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear, smote him under the fifth rib, that ỹ spear came out behind him: and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to passe, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Ioab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the Sun went down when they were come to the hil of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wildernesse of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and said, Shall the sword deuour for ever? Knowest thou not ỹ it will be bitternes in the latter end? How long shal it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Ioab said, As God liueth, vnlesse thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone vp, every one from following his brother.

28 So Ioab blew a trumpet, & all the people stood still, & pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night thorow the plain, & passed ouer Iordan, and went thorow all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Ioab returned frõ following Abner, and when he had gathered all ỹ people together, there lacked of Dauids servants nineteen men & Asahel.

31 But ỹ servants of David had smitten of Benjamin and of Abners men, so ỹ three hundred & threescore men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the Sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Ioab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

CHAP. III.

NOw there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his first born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess.

3 And his second, Chileab, of Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur.

4 And the fourth Adonijah the son of Haggith: and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital:

5 And the first Ithream by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to passe, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ishbosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ishbosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindnesse this day unto the house of Saul thy father, unto his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So do God to Abner and more also, except as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him:

10 To translate the kingdome from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel, and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David in his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel to thee.

13 And he said, Well, I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ishbosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from Phaltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim.
Then said Abner unto him, Go return. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you.

18 Now then do it, for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him: and David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reigne over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22 And behold, the servants of David, and Joab came from pursuing a troup, and brought in a great spoil with them: (but Abner was not with David in Hebron for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.)

23 When Joab and all the hoste that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said,
What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee: Why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out, and thy com-ming in, and to know all thou dost.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdome are guilt-less before the LORD for ever, from the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his fathers house, and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battel.

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: & the king lift up his voice & wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me and more also, if I taste bread or ought else till y sun be down.
36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did, pleased all the people.
37 For all the people, and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.
38 And the king said to his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?
39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king, and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the LORD shall reward the doer of evil, according to his wickedness.

CHAP. IIII.

AND when Sauls son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.
2 And Sauls son had two men y were captaines of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, & the name of the other Rechab y sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of y children of Benjamin (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin
3 And y Beerothites fled to Gittaim, & were sojourners there until this day.)
4 And Jonathan Sauls son, had a son y was lame on his feet, & was five yeers old when the tidings came of Saul & Ionath his out of Iezreel, & his nurs took him up and fled: and it came to pass as she made haste to flee, y he fell, & became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.
5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab & Baanah went, and came about y heat of y day to y house of Ishbosheth, who lay on a bed at noon
6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat, and they smote him under the fift rib, and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.
7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, & they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, & took his head and gate them away thorow the plaine all night.
8 And they brought y head of Ishbosheth to David to Hebron, & said to y king, Behold the head of Ishbosheth y son of Saul thine enemie y sought thy life, and y Lord hath avenged my lord y king this day of Saul, & of his seed.
9 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversitie.
10 When one told me saying, Lo, Saul is dead (thinking to have brought good tidings) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought y I would have given him a reward for his tidings that 11 How much more when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house, upon his bed? Shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, & take you away from y earth?
12 And David commanded his young men, & they slew them, & cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron: but took the head of Ishbosheth, & buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

CHAP. V.

THE came all y tribe of Israel to David to Hebron, & spake saying, Behold, we are thy bone, and thy flesh.
2 Also in time past when Saul was king over us, y wast he that led out, & brought in Israel: & the Lord said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, & y shalt be a captain over Israel.
3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.
4 David was thirty yeeres old when he began to reigne, and he reigned fourty yeeres.
5 In Hebron he reigned over Iudah seven yeers and six moneths, and in Ierusalem he reigned thirty and three yeers over all Israel and Iudah.
6 And y king & his men went to Ierusalem to the Iebusites the inhabitant of y land; which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, y shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.
7 Neverthe le s, David took the strong hold of Zion, y same is y city of David.
8 And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Iebusites, and the lame and the blind that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain. Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.
9 So David dwelt in the tore & called it The city of David, and David built round about from Millo and inward.
10 And David went on, & grew great, & the Lord God of hosts was with him.
11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and Cedar-trees and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house.
12 And David perceived that the Lord had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake.
13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Ierusalem, after he was come from Hebron, & there were yet sons & daughters born to David.
14 And these be y names of those that were born to him in Ierusalem, Shammua & Shobab, & Nathan, & Solomon 15 Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Iaphia.
16 And Elishama, & Eliada, & Eliphalet.
17 But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David, and David heard of it and went down to the hold.

the Ark is removed.

6 The Philistines also came & spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

7 And David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I goe up to the Philistines? shalt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Goe up: for I will doubtlesse deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

8 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of the place Baal-Perazim.

9 And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them.

10 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

11 And when David enquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compasse behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

12 And let it be when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, y then thou shalt bestir thy selfe: for then shall the LORD goe out before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistines.

13 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him, & smote y Philistims from Geba, til thou come to Gazer.

CHAP. VI.

1 Gaine David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him, from Baale-iudah, to bring up from thence the Arke of God, whose Name is called by the Name of the LORD of hostes, y dwelleth between the Cherubims.

3 And they set the Arke of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was in Gibeah: and Vzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was at Gibeah, accompanying the Arke of God, and Ahio went before the Arke.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of Fir tree, even on harps, & on Psalteries, & on timbrels, & on cornets, & on cymbals.

6 And when they came to Nachons threshing floore, Vzzah put forth his hand to the Arke of God, and tooke hold of it, for the oxen shooke it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Vzzah, and God smote him there for his error, and there he died by the Arke of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Vzzah. And he called the name of the place Perez-Vzzah unto this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the Arke of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove y Ark of the LORD unto him in the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the Arke of y LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom y Gittite, three moneths: and y LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 And it was told King David, saying, The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all y pertained to him, because of the Arke of God. So David went and brought up the Arke of God, from the house of Obed-edom into y citie of David, with gladnesse.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare the Arke of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen & ratlings.

14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might, and David was girded with a linnen Ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel, brought up the Arke of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the Arke of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Sauls daughter looked thorow a window, and saw king David leaping and dauncing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

17 And they brought in the Arke of y LORD, and set it in his place in y midst of y tabernacle that David had pitched for it. & David offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And assoone as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings, and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the LORD of hostes.

19 And hee dealt among the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, & a flagon of wine: so all people departed every one to his house.

20 Then David returned to blesse his household: and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, & said, How glorious was the King of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vaine fellowes shamelesly uncovereth himself?

21 And David said unto Michal, it was before the LORD which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile then thus, & will be base in mine own sight: and of y maid servants which hast spoke of, of them shal I be had in honour.

23 Therfore Michal y daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

CHAP. VII.

1 And it came to passe when y King sat in his house, & y LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies

2 That the King said unto Nathan the Prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of of Cedar, but the Ark of God dwelleth within curtaines.

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, doe all that is in thine heart: for the LORD is with thee.

4 And it came to passe that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou build me an house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house, since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent, and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel, spake I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of Cedar?

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I tooke thee from the sheepcoat, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel.

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more: neither shall the children of wickednesse afflict them any more, as afore time,

11 And as since the time that I commanded Iudges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 And when thy dayes be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdome.

13 He shall build an house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 I will be his father, and he shall be my sonne: if he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rods of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I tooke it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thine house and thy kingdome shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speake unto David.

18 Then went King David in, and sate before the LORD, and he said, Who am I, O Lord GOD? & what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God, but thou hast spoken also of thy servants house for a great while to come, and is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?

20 And what can David say more to thee? for thou, Lord GOD, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy words sake, according to thine own heart hast thou done all these things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our eares.

23 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem, for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to doe for you great things, and terrible for thy land before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations, and their gods?

24 For thou hast confirmed to thy selfe thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever, and thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God the Lord, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, & doe as thou hast said.

26 And let thy Name be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is God over Israel: & the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to the eare of thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O Lord God, (& art that God, & thy words be true, & thou hast promised this goodnesse unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now let it please thee to blesse the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast spoken it, and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

CHAP. VIII.

1 And after this it came to passe that David smote the Philistines, & subdued them: & David tooke Metheg Ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground: even with two lines measured he, to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became Davids servants, and brought gifts.

3 David smote also Hadadezer, the sonne of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David tooke from him a thousand charets, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David houghed also all the horses of the charets, but reserved of them for an hundred charets.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: & the Syrians became servants to David, & brought gifts. & the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And

kingdome,
1 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
2 And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took exceeding much brasse.
3 When Toi King of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,
4 Then Toi sent Joram his son to King David to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hada-dezer, and smitten him, (for Hadadezer had warr with Toi) and Joram brought with him vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and vessels of brasse;
5 Which also King David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued, 6 Of Syria and of Moab and of the children of Ammon, & of the Philistims, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer son of Rehob king of Zobah.
7 And David gate him a name when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being eigh teen thousand men.
8 And he put garisons in Edom throughout all Edom put he garisons, and all they of Edom became Davids servants: and the LORD preserved
David whithersoever he went.
9 And David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgement and justice unto all his people.
10 And Ioab the son of Zeruiah was over the hoste, and Iehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder.
11 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, & Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests, and Seraiah was the Scribe.
12 And Benaiah the son of Iehoiada was over both y Cherethites & y ele thites: & Davids sons were chief rulers.

CHAP. IX.

1 And David said, Is there yet any y is left of y house of Saul, that I may shew kindnes for Ionathans faser sake.
2 And of the house of Saul there was a servant whose name was Ziba: and when they had called him unto David,
the King said unto him, Art thou Ziba?
And he said, Thy servant is he.
3 And the King said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindnes of God unto him?
And Ziba said to the King, Ionathan hath a son which is lame on his feet.
4 And the King said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the King, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lodebar.
5 Then King David sent, and fet him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel from Lodebar.
6 Now when Mephibosheth the son of Ionathan the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fel on his face and did reuerence. And David said, Meph-ibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy

7 And David said to him, Fear not, for I wilfurely shew thee kindnes, for Ionathan thy fathers sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.
8 And he bowed himselfe, and said,
What is thy servant, that y should est
look upon such a dead dog as I am?
9 Then the king called to Ziba, Sauls servant, & said unto him, I have given unto thy masters son al that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.
10 Thou therefore and thy sons, and thy servants shal til the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruites, y thy masters son may have food to eate:
but Mephibosheth thy masters son, shal eat bread al way at my table. Now
Ziba had fifteen sons & twenty servants.
11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to al that my lord the king hath commanded his servant so shal thy servant do: as for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shal eate at my table as one of the kings sons.
12 And Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all tha dwelt in the house of Ziba, were servants unto Mephibosheth.
13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eate continually at the kings table, and was lame on both his feet.

CHAP. X.

1 And it came to pass after this, that the King of y children of Ammon died, & Hanun his son reigned in his stead.
2 Then said David, I will shew kind-nes unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindnes unto mee.
And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father and Davids servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
3 And y princes of y children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? Hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search y city, & to spie it out, and to overthrow it?
4 Wherfore Hanun took Davids servants & shaved off y one half of their beards & cut off their garmēt sin y middest even to their buttocks, & let them go away.
5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because y men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Iericho until your beards be grown, and then return.
6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of King Maacah a thousand men, & of Ishtob twelve thousand me 7 And when David heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the hoste of the mighty men.
8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battel in aray at the entring

entring in of the gate and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ishtob, & Maacah, were by themselves in y field.
9 When Ioab saw that the front of y battel was against him, before and behind, he chose out of all y chosen men of Israel, & put them in aray against Syria.
10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.
11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me, but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.
12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men, for our people, and for the cities of our God, and the Lord do that which seemeth him good.
13 And Ioab drew nigh, and y people that were with him, unto the battel against y Syrians: & they fled before him.
14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, & entred into the cytie. So Ioab returned from y children of Ammon, & came to Ierusalem.
15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.
16 And Hadarezer sent and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river, and they came to Helam. And Shobach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer went before them.
17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Iordan, and came to Helam. And y Syrians set themselves in aray against David, and fought with him.
18 And the Syrians fled before Israel, and David slew the men of seven hundred charets of the Syrians, & fourty thousand horsemen, & smote Shobach y captain of their hoste, who died there.
19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer, saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them: so the Syrians feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XI.

AND it came to pass, that after the yeer was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battel, that David sent Ioab and his servants with him, & all Israel: and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbath, but David tarried still at Ierusalem.
2 And it came to pass in an evening tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roofe of the kings house: and from the roofe he saw a woman washing her self, and the woman was very beautiful to look on.
3 And David sent and enquired after the woman, and one said, is not this Bathsheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Vriah the Hittite?
4 And David sent messengers, and took her, & she came in to him. & he lay with her (for she was purified frō her uncleanes.) and she returned vnto her house.
5 And the woman conceived, and sent & told David, and said, I am with child.
6 And David sent to Ioab, saying, Send me Vriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent Vriah to David.
7 And when Vriah was come to him, he demanded of him how Ioab did, and how y people did, & how y warre prospered.
8 And David said to Vriah, Go down to thy house, & wash thy feet. & Vriah departed out of y kings house, & there followed him a messe of meat from the king.
9 But Vriah slept at the door of the kings house, with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.
10 And when they had told David, saying, Vriah went not down to his house, David said unto Vriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didest thou not go down unto thine house?
11 And Vriah said unto David, The Arke, and Israel, and Iudah abide in tents, and my lord Ioab, and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open field: shall I then go to mine house, to eate and to drink, & to lye by my wife? As thou livest, & as thy soule liveth, I will not do this thing.
12 And David said to Vriah, tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Vriah abode in Ierusalem that day, and the morrow.
13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him, and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with y servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.
14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of Vriah.
15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Vriah in the forefront of the hottest battel, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten and die.
16 And it came to pass, when Ioab obeyved y city, that he assigned Vriah vnto a place where he knewy valiant men were.
17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Ioab: & there fell some of the people of the servants of David, and Vriah the Hittite died also.
18 Then Ioab sent and told David all the things concerning the warre.
19 And charged the messenger, saying, When y hast made an end of telling the matters of the warre unto the king,
20 And if so be that the kings wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh to y city when ye did fight? Knew ye not that they would shoot from the wal?
21 Who smote Abimelech the son of Ierubbesheth? Did not a woman cast a piece of a milstone upon him from the wal, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wal? Then say thou, Thy servant Vriah the Hittite is dead also.
22 So y messenger went, & came & shewed David all y Ioab had sent him for.
23 And y messenger said to David, Surely y men prevailed against us, & came

CHAP. XII.

And the LORD sent Nathan to Da-id. & he came unto him, and said nto him, There were two men in one wn city, one rich, and the other poor.
The rich man had exceeding many eep and herds.

But the poor man had nothing save ne little ewe lambe which he had ought and nourished up: and it grew p together with him, and with his hildren: it did eat of his own meat, & ank of his own cup, and lay in his osom, & was to him as a daughter.

And there came a traveller unto the ich man, and he spared to take of his wn sheep and of his own herd, to ress for the wayfaring man that was ome unto him, but took the poore an's lamb, and dressed it for the man hat was come to him.

And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, & he said to Nathan he LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing, is worthy to die.

And he shall restore the lamb four-old, because he did this thing, and ecause he had no pity.

Then Nathan said to David, thou art he man. Thus saith the LORD God of Isael, I anointed thee King over Israel, nd I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul nd I gave thee thy master's house, nd thy masters wives into thy bosome, nd gave thee the house of Israel, and f Iudah, and if that had been too litle, I would moreover have given unto hee such and such things.

Wherefore hast thou despised the ommandment of the LORD to do evil in is sight? thou hast killed Vriah the Hitite with the sword, & hast taken his wife o be thy wife, and hast slain him with he sword of the children of Ammon.

Now therefore the sword shall never epart from thine house, because thou ast despised me, & hast taken the wife
f Vriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I ill raise up evill against thee out of hine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, & give them to thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this Sunne.

12 For thou didst it secretly : but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the Sunne.

13 And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said to David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin, thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because thy this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee, shall surely die.

15 And Nathan departed to his house,
& the Lord strake the child that Vrighs wife bare to David, & it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child, & David fasted, and went in,
and lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to passe, on the seventh day the child died, and the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake to him, & he would not hearken unto our voice, how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead, therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead?
And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself:
and changed his apparell, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped: then he came to his owne house, and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him,
what thing is this that thou hast done?
Thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive, but when the child was dead, thou didst rise & eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, who can tell, whether God will be gracious to me that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, & went in to her, & lay with her, & she bare a son, & he called his name
Solomon, and the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the Prophet, and he called his name Iedidiah, because of the LORD.

26 And Ioab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royall city.

27 And Ioab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah,
and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encampe against

gainst the city, and take it: lest I take thing ought to be done at the city, & it be called after my name. not thou this folly.

29 And David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took their king's crowne therefore, I pray thee, speak to the from off his head (the weight whereof king for he will not withhold me from was a talent of gold with the precious thee.

stones) and it was set on Davids head, 14 Howbeit, he would not hearken and he brought forth the spoile of the unto her voyce, but being stronger than city in great abundance. she forced her, and lay with her.

31 And he brought forth the people 15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he had loved her, was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her, and Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said to him, There is no cause this evil in sending me away, greater than the other thing that thou didst unto me: but he would not hearken unto her.

17 And he called the servant that ministred unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, & bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of many colours upon her: for with such were the kings daughters that were virgins apparelled. And his servant brought her out from him, and bolted the door after her.

19 Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, hath Amnon thy brother been with thee, but hold now thy peace my sister, he is thy brother: regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 But when king David heard of these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to passe after two yeers that Absalom had sheep shearers in Baal-hazor which is by Ephraim: & Absalom invited all the kings sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, behold now thy servant hath sheepe shearers, let the king I beseech thee and his servants, go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom Nay my sonne, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Absalom pressed him, y he let Amnon & all the kings sons go with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnons heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you Smite Amnon, then kill him, feare not: have not I commanded you? be courageous and be valiant.

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto

CHAP. XIII.

AND it came to passe after this, that Absalom the sonne of David had a faire sister, whose name was Tamar. And Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar: for she was a virgin, and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Ionadab, the sonne of Shimeah, Davids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtill man.

4 And he said unto him, why art thou being the kings son, leane from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? and Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 And Ionadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thy self sick: and when thy father commeth to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come & give me meat, and dresse the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down, & made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar saying, Go now to thy brother Amnons house, and dresse him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnons house, (& he was laid down) and she took floure & kneaded it, & made cakes in his sight, & did bake y cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and powred them out before him, but he refused to eat: And Amnon said, Have out all men from me: And they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said to Tamar, bring the meat into the chamber, y I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took y cakes which she had made, & brought them into y chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them to him to eat, she took hold of her, & said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me, for no such Absalom murdered.

Absalom and Absalom had commanded all y kings sons arose, & every one gat him up vpō his mule. 30 And as they came to pas, while they were in the way, that tidings came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hath slaine all the kings sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose and rare his garments, & lay on the earth: & all his seruants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Ionadab the son of Shimeah, Dauids brother, answered, and said, Let not my Lord suppose that they haue slaine all the young men, the kings sons; for Ammon onely is dead: for vpon the appointement of Absalom this hath been determined from the day he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my Lord take the thing to his heart, to think that all the kings sons are dead: for Ammon onely is dead.

34 But Absalom fled: & the young man that kept the watch, lift up his eyes, & looked, and lo there came much people by y way of y hil side behind him.

35 And Ionadab said vnto the king, Behold, the kings sons come; as thy seruant said, so it is.

36 And it came to passe assoone as he had made an end of speaking, that behold, the kings sons came, and lift up their voyce and wept: and the king also and all his seruants wept very sore.

37 But Absalom fled, & went to Talmai son of Ammihud king of Gesshur: and mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three yeres.

39 And the soule of king David longed to go forth vnto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Ammon, seeing he was dead.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Now Ioab the son of Zeruiah, perceiued that the kings heart was toward Absalom.

2 And Ioab sent to Tekoah, & fetcht thence a wise woman, & said vnto her, I pray thee, faine thy self to be a mourner, & put on now mourning apparel, & anoint not thy self with oyle, but be as a woman that had a long time bewailed for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this maner vnto him: so Ioab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeysance & said, Help, O King.

5 And the king said vnto her, What ayleth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thine handmaid had two sonnes, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliuer him, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy y heir also: & so they shall quench my coale which is left, & shall not leave to my husband, neither name nor remainder vpon the earth.

8 And the king said vnto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will giue charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said to the king, my lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my fathers house: & the king and his throne be guiltlesse.

10 And the king said, Whosoeuer saith ought vnto thee, bring him to me, and he shal not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee let the king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer y reuengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liueth, there shall not one haire of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word to my lord y king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speake this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doeth not fetch home again his banished.

14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt vpon the ground, which cannot be gathered vp again; neither doth God respect any person, yet doeth he deuise meanes, that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speake vnto the king, it may be that the king will performe the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will heare to deliuer his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy mee, and my sonne together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an Angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered, and said vnto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shal aske thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speake.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Ioab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liueth, my lord the king, none can turne to the right hand, or to the left, from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy seruant Ioab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this forme of speech hath thy servant Ioab don this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisedom of an Angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 And the king said vnto Ioab, behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom againe.

22 And Ioab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Ioab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Ioab arose, & went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Ierusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turne to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his owne house, and saw not y kings face.

25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom, for his beauty: from the sole of his foot, even to the crowne of the head, there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head (for it was at every yeers end that he polled it, because the haire was heavy on him; therefore he polled it) he weighed the haire of his head at two hundred shekels, after the kings weight.

27 And to Absalom there were borne three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of a faire countenance.

28 So Absalom dwelt two full yeers in Ierusalem, & saw not the kings face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Ioab, to have sent him to the king, but he would not com to him: & when he sent again y second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said vnto his servants, See, Ioabs field is next mine, & he hath barley there: go and set it on fire: and Absaloms servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Ioab arose and came to Absalom to his house, & said to him, wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Ioab, Behold, I sent vnto thee, saying, come hither that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the kings face: and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kil me.

33 So Ioab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before y king: & y king kissed Absalom.

CHAP. XV.

AND it came to passe after this, y Absalom prepared him charets, & horses, & fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose vp early, & stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversie came to y king for judgement, then Absalom called to him, and said, Of what citie art thy servant? & he said, Thy servant is of one of y tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said to him, See, matters are good & right: but there is no man deputed of y king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, O that I were made Iudge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause, might come to me, & I would do him iustice.

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him, to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and held him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel, that came to the king for judgement: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass after fourty yeers, that Absalom said to the king, I pray thee, let me go & pay my vow, which I have vowed to the Lord in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord shal bring me again indeed to Ierusalem, then I will serve the Lord.

9 And the king said vnto him, Go in peace. So he arose, & went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, Assoone as ye hear y sound of y trumpet, then ye shal say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Ierusalem that were called: and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, Davids counseller, from his citie, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices: and the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

13 And there came a messenger to Dauid, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And Dauid said vnto all his servants that were with him at Ierusalem, Arise, and let us flee: for we shal else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake vs suddenly, and bring evil vpon vs, and smite the citie with the edge of the sword.

15 And the kings servants said vnto y king, behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his houshold after him: and the king left ten women which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him, and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with vs? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Where wish escape.

almost thou camest but yesterday, and I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brother-in-law, and mercy and truth be with thee.

5 And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, & as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

6 And David said to Ittai, Go & pass over. So Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

7 And all the country wept with a loud voice, & all y people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

8 And lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing y Ark of the covenant of God: & they set down the Ark of God: and Abiathar went up, till all the people had done passing out of the city.

9 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the Ark of God into the city: if I shal find favour in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation.

10 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

11 The king said also unto Zadok y priest, Art not thou a Seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

12 See, I will tarie in the plain of the wilderness until there come word from you to certifie me.

13 Zadok therfore and Abiathar carried the Ark of God againe to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

14 And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot, and all y people y was with him covered every man his head: and they went up, weeping as they went up.

15 And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turne the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

16 And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent, & earth upon his head.

17 Unto whom David said, If thou go on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me.

18 But if thou returne to the city, & say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant O king: as I have been thy fathers servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant; then may'st thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

19 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar y Priests? therfore it shall be that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of y kings house, y shalt tel it to Zadok & Abiathar the Priests.

20 Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadoks son, and Jonathan Abiathars son; & by them ye shal send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

21 So Hushai David's friend came into the city, and Absalom came to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XVI.

1 AND when David was a little past y top of the hil behold Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of asses saddled, & on them two hundred loaves of bread, & an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruites, & a bottle of wine.

2 And the King said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the kings household to ride on, & y bread & summer fruits for y yong men to eate, & y wine that such as be faint in y wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy masters son? and Ziba said unto y King, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem; for he said, To day shal the house of Israel restore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of y house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and all the servants of king David: and all y people, and all the mighty men, were on his right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei, when he cursed, Come out, come out thou bloody man, and thou man of Belial:

8 The LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned, and the LORD hath delivered the kingdome to the hand of Absalom thy son: and behold, thou art taken to thy mischiefe, because thou art a bloody man.

9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord y king? let me go over, I pray thee, & take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shal then say, Wherfore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my sonne which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? Let him alone, and let him curse: for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord wil look on mine affliction, & that y Lord wil requite good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by y way, Shimei went alog on y hil side over over againſt him, & curſed as he went, and threw ſtones at him, and caſt duſt.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreſhed themſelves there.

15 And Abſalom and all the people the men of Iſrael, came to Ieruſalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And it came to paſs when Huſhai the Architе Davids friend, was come unto Abſalom, Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, God ſave the king, God ſave the king.

17 And Abſalom ſaid to Huſhai, Is this thy kindneſſe to thy friend? Why went eſt thou not with thy friend?

18 And Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, Nay: but whom the Lord and this people, & all the men of Iſrael chuſe, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom ſhould I ſerve? ſhould I not ſerve in y preſence of his ſonne as I have ſerved in thy fathers preſence, ſo will I be in thy preſence.

20 Then ſaid Abſolom to Ahithophel, give counſel among you what we ſhall do.

21 And Ahithophel ſaid to Abſalom, Go in to thy fathers concubins which he hath left to keep the houſe, and all Iſrael ſhal hear that thou art abhorred of thy father, then ſhal the hands of all that are with thee be ſtrong.

22 So they ſpread Abſalom a tent upon the top of the houſe, & Abſalom went in unto his fathers concubines, in the ſight of all Iſrael.

23 And y counſel of Ahithophel which he counſelled in thoſe dayes, was as if a man had enquired at y Oracle of God: ſo was all the counſel of Ahithophel, both with David, and with Abſalom.

CHAP. XVII.

MOreover, Ahithophel ſaid unto Abſalom, Let me now chuſe out twelve thouſand men, and I will ariſe and purſue after David this night.

2 And I will come upon him while he is weary, and weak-handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him ſhall flee, and I will ſmite the king only.

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou ſeekeſt is as if all returned: ſo all the people ſhall be in peace.

4 And the ſaying pleaſed Abſalom well, and all the Elders of Iſrael.

5 Then ſaid Abſalom, Call now Huſhai the Archite alſo and let us hear likewiſe what he ſaith.

6 And when Huſhai was come to Abſalom, Abſalom ſpake to him ſaying, Ahithophel hath ſpoken after this manner: ſhall we do after his ſaying? if not, ſpeake thou.

7 And Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, The counſell that Ahithophel hath given, is not good at this time.

8 For (ſaid Huſhai) thou knoweſt thy father, and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds as a Bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with y people.

9 Behold, hee is hid now in ſome pit, or in ſome other place: & it will come to paſs when ſome of them be overthrown at the firſt, that whoſoever heareth it, will ſay, there is a ſlaughter among y people that follow Abſalom.

10 And he alſo that is valiant, whoſe heart is as the heart of a lyon, ſhal utterly melt: for all Iſrael knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therfore I counſell that all Iſrael be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beerſheba, as y ſand that is by the ſea for multitude: and y thou go to battel in thine own perſon.

12 So ſhall we come upon him in ſome place where he ſhall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him, there ſhall not be left ſo much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotē into a city, then ſhal all Iſrael bring ropes to y ſame city, & we will draw it into the river until there be not one ſmal ſtone found there.

14 And Abſalom, and all y men of Iſrael ſaid, the counſel of Huſhai the Archite is better then the counſel of Ahithophel: For y LORD had appointed to defeat the good counſel of Ahithophel: to the intent y LORD might bring evil upon Abſalom.

15 Then ſaid Huſhai unto Zadok & to Abiathar the Prieſts, Thus & thus did Ahithophel counſell Abſalom, and the Elders of Iſrael, and thus and thus have I counſelled.

16 Now therfore ſend quickly, & tell David, ſaying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderneſs, but ſpeedily paſſe over, leſt the king be ſwallowed up, & all y people y are with him.

17 Now Ionathan and Ahimaaz ſtayed by En-rogel, (for they might not be ſeen to come into the city,) & a wench went and told them: and they went and told King David.

18 Nevertheleſs, a lad ſaw them, & told Abſalom: but they went both of them away quickly, & came to a mans houſe in Bahurim, which had a well in his court whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and ſpread a covering over the wels mouth, and ſpread ground corn thereon: and the thing was not known.

20 And when Abſaloms ſervants came to the woman, to the houſe, they ſaid, where is Ahimaaz and Ionathan? and the woman ſaid unto them, They be gone over the brooke of water. And when they had ſought and could not find them, they returned to Ieruſalem.

21 And it came to paſs after they were departed, that they came up out of the wel, & went and told King David, and ſaid to David, Ariſe, & paſſe quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counſelled againſt you.

22 Then David aroſe, & all the people that went with him: and they passed ver Iordan. by the morning light ere lacked not one of them that was t gone over Iordan.

And when Ahithophel saw that his ice was not followed, he saddled
s ass, and arose, and gate him home to his house, to his city, and put his se in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the pulchre of his father.
Then David came to Mahanaim: Absalom passed over Iordan, he and the men of Israel with him.
And Absalom made Amasa Cap-n of the host in stead of Ioab:
ich Amasa was a man whose ther was Ithra an Israelite that went in to Abigal the daughter of Nahash, ter to Zeruiah Ioabs mother.
So Israel and Absalom pitched in land of Gilead.
And it came to passe, when David s come to Mahanaim, that Shobi n of Nahash of Rabbah of the ldren of Ammon, and Machir the n of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Bar-lai the Gileadite of Rogelim, Brought beds, and basons, and earthen ssels, & wheat, and barly, and our, and parched corne, and beanes, d lentiles, and parched pulse,
And honey, and butter, and sheepe, d cheese of kine for David, and for e people that were with him, to t: for they said, The people is huny, and weary, & thirstie in the wildernesse.

CHAP. XVIII.

And David numbred the people that re with him, and set captains of ousands, and captaines of hundreds er them.
And David sent forth a third part the people under the hand of Ioab, d a third part under the hand of bishai the son of Zeruiah Ioabs bror, and a third part under the hand the Gittite: and the King said to the people, I will surely go forth
h you my selfe also.
But the people answered, Thou alt not go forth: for if we flee ay, they will not care for us, neither there halfe of us die, will they care for us:
t now thou are worth ten thousand us: therefore now it is better that u succour us out of the city.
Also the King said unto them, What eemeth you best, I will doe. And the ng stood by the gate side, and all e people came out by hundreds and by thousands.
And the King commanded Ioab
d Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deale r me my sake with the young man en Absalom. And all the people ard when the King gave all the cap-ins charge concerning Absalom.
So the people went out into the ld against Israel: and the battel was the wood of Ephraim.
Where the people of Israel were slaine before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twentie thousand men.
For the battel was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.
And Absalom met the servants of David, and Absalom rode upon a mule and the mule went under the thicke boughes of a great oake, and his head caught hold of the Oake, and he was taken up betweene ỹ heaven & ỹ earth, & ỹ mule ỹ was under him, went away.
And a certaine man saw it, and told Ioab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an Oake.
And Ioab said unto the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to ỹ ground, & I would have given thee ten sickels of silver, and a girdler.
And the man said to Ioab: Though I should receive a thousant sheke ls of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against ỹ kings sonne: for in our hearing ỹ king charged thee, & Abishai, & Ittai, saying, Beware
ỹ none touch ỹ young man Absalom.
Otherwise, I should have wrought falshood against mine owne life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thy selfe wouldest have set thy selfe against me.
Then said Ioab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And hee tooke three darts in his hand, and thrust them through ỹ heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in ỹ middest of the Oake.
And tenne young men that bare Ioabs armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.
And Ioab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Ioab held back ỹ people.
And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in ỹ wood, & laid a very great heape of stones upon him:
& all Israel fled every one to his tent.
Now Absalom in his life time had taken and reared up for himselfe a pillar which is in the kings dale: for he said, I have no sonne to keep my name in remembrance: And he called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called unto this day, Absaloms place.
Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadoh, Let me now runne, and beare the King tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies.
And Ioab said to him, Thou shalt not beare tidings this day, but thou shalt beare tidings, another day: but this day thou shalt beare no tidings, because the Kings son is dead.
Then said Ioab to Cushi, Goe tell the King what ỹ hast seen. And Cushi bowed himselfe unto Ioab, and ran.
Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadoh yet again to Ioab, But now howso-ever it be, I pray thee, also run after Cushi.
And Ioab said, Wherefore wilt ỹ run,

my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But how soever (said he) let me run. And he said unto him, Runne. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plaine, and overran Cushi.

24 And David sate between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, unto the wall, and lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cryed, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew neer.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the former is like the running of Ahimaaz, the sonne of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and commeth with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called and said unto the king, All is wel. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men y lift up their hand against my lord y king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Ioab sent the kings servant, & me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And behold, Cushi came, & Cushi said, Tidings my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? & Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against him to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the king was much moved, & went up to the chamber over the gate, & wept: & as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom, would God I had dyed for thee, O Absalom my son, my son.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it was told Ioab, Behold, y king weepeth & mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victorie that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day, how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gate them by stealth y day into y city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battel.

4 But the king covered his face, & the king cryed with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son.

5 And Ioab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the face of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons, & of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, & the lives of thy concubines.

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends, for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither Princes nor servants: for this day I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I sweare by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee, then all the evill that befell thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sate in the gate: and they told to all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of the Philistines, & he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom whom we anointed over us, is dead in battell: now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 And king David sent to Zadok & to Abiathar the Priests, saying, Speak unto y Elders of Iudah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? (seeing y speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.)

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bone & my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Ioab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Iudah, even as the heart of one man, so y they sent this word to the king, return thou & all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Iordan; and Iudah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Iordan.

16 And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hasted, and came down with the men of Iudah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, & Ziba y servant of the house of Saul, & his fifteen sons & his twenty servants with him, & they went over Iordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the kings household, & to do what he thought good: and Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Iordan;

19 And said to the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity to me, neither do thou remember y which thy servant did perverstly in the day that my lord y king hing went out of Jerusalem, that the hing should take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king.
21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORDs Anointed.
22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries to me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know, that I am this day king over Israel?
23 Therefore the king said unto Shi-mei, Thou shalt not die, and the King sware unto him.
24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the King, and had neither dressed his feete, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the day the King departed, until the day he came again in peace.
25 And it came to passe when hee was come to Jerusalem to meete the King, that the king said unto him, Wherefore went not thou with me, Mephibosheth?
26 And he answered, my lord, O king, my servant deceived mee: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an asse that I may ride thereon, and goe to the king, because thy servant is lame.
27 And hee hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the King: but my lord the king is as an Angel of God: doe us therefore what is good in thine eyes.
28 For all of my fathers house were but dead men before my lord the king:
yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine owne table?
what right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?
29 And the King said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters?
I have said, Thou and Ziba divide y land.
30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his owne house.
31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Roglelim, and went over Jordan with the king to conduct him over Jordan.
32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourescore yeeres old: and he had provided the King of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.
33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.
34 And Barzillai said unto the King, How long have I to live, that I should goe up with the king unto Jerusalem?
35 I am this day fourscore yeeres old:
and can I discerne between good & evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drinke? can I heare any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden to my lord y king?
36 Thy servant will goe a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompence it me with such a reward?
37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turne backe againe, that I may die in mine own citie, and be buried by the grave of my father, and of my mother: but behold, thy servant Chimham, let him goe over w my lord the king, & do to him what shal seeme good unto thee.
38 And the King answered, Chimham shal goe over with me, and I will doe to him y which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that I will do for thee.
39 And all the people went over Jordan: and when the king was come over, y king kissed Barzillai, & blessed him: & he returned to his own place.
40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also halfe y people of Israel.
41 And behold all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stollen thee away, and have brought the king, and his houshold, & all Davids men w him over Jordan?
42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is neer of kin to us: wherfore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all o. the kings cost? or hath he given us any gift?
43 And the men of Israel answered men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, & we have also more right in David then ye: why then did ye despise us, y our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?
And the words of y men of Judah were fiercer then the words of the men of Israel.

CHAP. XX.

AND there happened to bee there a man o. Belial, whos name was Sheba, the son of Bichri a Benjamit, and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have wee inheritance in the son of Iesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.
2 So every man of Israel went up frō after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.
3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward and ted them, but went not in to them: so they were shut up to the day of their death living in widowhood.
4 Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three dayes, and be thou here present.
5 So Amasa went to assemble y men of Judah: but he tarried longer then the set time w he had appointed him.

6 And

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shal Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm then did Absalom: take thou thy lords seruants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, & escape us.

7 And there went out after him Ioabs men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: & they went out of Ierusalem to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them; and Ioabs garment that he had put on, was girded vnto him, and vpon it a girdle with a sword fast tied vpon his loynes in the sheath thereof: and as he went forth, it fell out.

9 And Ioab said to Amasa, Art thou in health my brother? & Ioab took Amasa by y beard of the right hand to kis him.

10 But Amasa tooke no heed to the sword that was in Ioabs hand: so he smote him therewith in the fift rybbe, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and strake him not again, and he died. So Ioab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Ioabs men stood by him, and said, He that fauoureth Ioab, and he y is for Dauid let him go after Ioab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the high way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the high way into the field, & cast a cloth vpon him, when he saw that every one that came by him, stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the high way, all y people went on after Ioab to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went thorow all the tribes of Israel vnto Abel, & to Bethmaachah, and all the Berites: & they were gathered together, and went after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth maachah, and they cast vp a bank against the citie, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Ioab, battered the wal, to throw it down.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Heare, heare, I pray you, vnto Ioab, Come neere hither, that I may speake with thee.

17 And when he was come neer vnto her, the woman said, Art thou Ioab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said to him, Heare the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do heare.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, they shal surely aske counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow vp the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Ioab answered and said, Farre be it, farre from me, that I should swallow vp or destroy.

21 The matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the son of Bichri by name) hath lifted vp his hand against the king, even against David: deliuer him only, & I will depart from the city. And the woman said vnto Ioab, Behold, his head shal be thrown to thee ouer the wal.

22 Then the woman went vnto all people in her wisedome, and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Ioab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the citie, every man to his tent: and Ioab returned to Ierusalem vnto the king.

23 Now Ioab was ouer all the hoste of Israel, & Benaiah y son of Iehoiada was ouer y Cherethites & ouer y Pelethites.

24 And Adoram was ouer the tribute, and Iehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was Recorder.

25 And Sheva was Scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were the Preists.

26 And Ira also the Iairite, was a chief ruler about Dauid.

CHAP. XXI.

THen there was a famine in the dayes of Dauid three yeers, yeer after yeer: & Dauid enquired of y Lord. And y Lord answered. It is for Saul, & for his bloody house, because he slew y Gibeonites.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said vnto them (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, & y children of Israel had sworne to them: & Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to y children of Israel & Iudah.)

3 Wherefore Dauid said to y Gibeonites, What shal I do for you? & wherewith shal I make y atonement that ye may bleſſe the inheritance of y Lord?

4 And the Gibeonites said vnto him, We will haue no siluer nor gold of Saul, nor of his house: neither for vs shalt thou kil any man in Israel. And he said, What you shal say, that wil I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed vs, & deuised against vs y we should be destroyed, that we should not remaine in any of y coasts of Israel,

6 Let seuen men of his stocke be deliuered vnto vs, & we will hang them vp vnto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul whom the LORD did chuse. And the king said, I wil giue them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Ionathan, the son of Saul, because of the Lords oath that was betweene them, betweene Dauid, and Ionathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare vnto Saul, Armoni, and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought vp for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

9 And he deliuered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fel all seuen together, and were put to death in the dayes of harueſt, in the

...o And Rapah the daughter of Ajah ...

...nor the beasts of the field by night.
11 And it was told David what Rizpah ...
...the daughter of Aiah, the concubine ...
...of Saul had done.
12 And David went and took the bones ...
...of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan ...
...his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, ...
...which had stolen them from the streets ...
...of Bethshan, where the Philistines had ...
...hanged them, when the Philistines had ...

13 And he brought up from thence y ...
...bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan ...
...his son; and they gathered the ...

14 And the bones of Saul & Jonathan ...
...his son buried they in the country of ...
...Benjamin in Zelah in the Sepulchre of ...
...Kish his father: and they performed all ...

15 Moreover the Philistines had yet ...
...a warre with Israel, and David went ...
...down, and his servants with him, and ...

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the ...

18 And it came to pass after this, that ...
...there was againe a battel with the ...
...Philistines at Gob; then Sibbechai ...
...the Hushathite slew Saph, which was ...
...of the race of the giant.
19 And there was again a battel in Gob ...
...with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son ...
...of Jaare Oregim a Bethlehemite, slew ...
...the brother of Goliath y Gittite, y staffe of ...
...whose speare was like a weavers beame.
20 And there was yet a battel in Gath, ...
...where was a man of great stature, that had ...
...on every hand five fingers, and on ...
...every foot six toes, four & twenty in nō: ...
...and he also was born to y Giant.
21 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan ...
...the son of Shimei, the brother of ...
...David, slew him.
22 These three were born to the Giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAP. XXII.

1 And David spake unto the LORD the words of this song, in the day that the LORD had deliuered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, The LORD is my rocke, and my fortresse, and my deliverer.
3 The God of my rocke, in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvatiō, my refuge, my saviour: y savest me from violence.
4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.
5 When the waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.
6 The sorrowes of hel compassed me about, the snares of death preuented me.
7 In my distresse I called upon the LORD, and cried vnto my God: and he did heare my voyce out of his Temple, and my cry did enter into his eares.
8 Then the earth shook and trembled: the foundations of heaven mooved and shooke, because he was wroth.
9 There went up a smoake out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth deuoured: coales were kindled by it.
10 He bowed the heavens also & came down, and darkenes was under his feet.
11 And he rode upon the Cherub, and did flie: & he was seen upon the wings of the winde.
12 And he made darkenes pavilions round about him, darke waters, and thicke clouds of the skies.
13 Through the brightnes before him were coales of fire kindled.
14 The LORD thundred from heaven, and the most High uttered his voyce.
15 And he sent out arrowes, & scattered them, lightning, and discomfited them.
16 The channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of y LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
17 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.
18 He deliuered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me, for they were too strong for me.
19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.
20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.
21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousnes, according to y cleanes of my hands hath he recompensed me.
22 For I have kept the wayes of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
23 For all his iudgements were before me, and as for his statutes, I did not put them from me.
24 I was also vpright before him, and have kept my self from mine iniquity.
25 Therefore the LORD hath rewarded me according to my righteousnes, according to my cleanes in his eye sight.
26 With y merciful thou wilt shew thy self merciful, and with a vpright man thou wilt shew thy self upright.
27 With the pure thou wilt shew thy self pure: and with the froward thou thou wilt shew thy self vpright vnto thy 28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are on y haughty, y that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my lampe, O Lord:
& the Lord will lighten my darknes.
30 For by thee I have runne through a troup: by my God I have leaped over a wall.
31 As for God, his way is perfect, the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.
32 For who is God, saue the LORD?
and who is a rocke, saue our God?
33 God is my strength and power:
and he maketh my way perfect.
34 He maketh my feet like hindes feet,
and setteth me vpon my high places.
35 He teacheth my handes to warre:
so that my armes may break a bow of steele.
36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy saluation: and thy gentleness hath made me great.
37 Thou hast enlarged my steppes vnder me, that my feet did not slip.
38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not again until I had consumed them.
39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea they are fallen vnder my feet.
40 For thou hast girded me with strength to battell: thou hast subdued vnder me those that rose vp against me.
41 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.
42 They looked, but there was none to saue: yea vnto the LORD, but he answered them not.
43 Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did stampe them as the myre of the street, and did spread them abroad.
44 Thou hast also deliuered me from the strivings of my people, thou hast kept me to be head of the heathē: a people which I knew not, shall serve me.
45 Strangers shall submit themselues vnto me: as soone as they hear, they shall be obedient vnto me.
46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their close places.
47 The LORD liveth, and blessed be my rocke: and exalted be the God of the rocke of my saluation.
48 It is God that auengeth me, and bringeth down the people vnder me; 49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me vp from those that rose vp against me: thou hast rid me from the violent man.
50 Therefore will I give thanks vnto thee O LORD, among the heathen:
and I will sing prayses vnto thy Name.
51 He is y tower of saluation for his king: & sheweth mercy to his anoynted vnto Dauid, and to his seed for euermore.

CHAP. XXIII.

NOw these be the last words of Da-uid: Dauid the son of Iesse said, & the man who was raised vp on high, the Anoynted of the God of Iacob, &
the sweete Psalmist of Israel said, 2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me,
and his word was in my tongue.
3 The God of Israel said, the Rocke of Israel spake to me: he y rulest ouer men must be iust, ruling in y feare of God.
4 And he shall bee as the light of the morning when the Sun riseth, even a morning without clouds: as the tender grasse springing out of the earth by cleare shining after raine.
5 Although my house be not so with God: yet he hath made with me an euerlasting couenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my sal-uation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.
6 But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thornes thrust away: because they cannot be taken with handes.
7 But the man that toucheth them must be fenced with yron & the staffe of a speare: and they shall be vtterly burnt with fire in the same place.
8 These be the names of the mighty men whom Dauid had: The Tachmonite that sate in the seat, chief among the captaines (the same was Adino the Eznite:) he lift vp his speare against eight hundred, whō he slew at one time.
9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with Dauid, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battell: and the men of Israel were gone away.
10 He arose and smote the Philistines vntil his hand was weary: and his hand claue vnto the sword: & y Lord wrought a great victory that day: and y people returned after him onely to spoile.
11 And after him was Shammah the sonne of Agee y Hararite: & y Philistines were gathered together into a troupe, where was a piece of ground full of le-tiles: & y people did flie from y Philis-12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.
13 And three of the thirty chiefe went down and came to Dauid in the haruest time, vnto the caue of Adullam:
and the troupe of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.
14 And Dauid was then in an hold, and the garison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
15 And Dauid longed, and said, Oh that one would giue me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate.
16 And the three mighty men brake thorow the hoste of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, & took it, and brought it to Dauid: nevertheless he would not drink therof, but powred
it out vnto the LORD.
17 And he said, Be it far from me, O
LORD

18 And Gad came that day to David, and said vnto him, Go vp, rear an Altar vnto the LORD, in the threshing floor of Araunah the Iebusite.

19 And David, according to ỹ saying of Gad, went vp as ỹ LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his seruants comming on towards him: and Araunah went out, & bowed him self before the king on his face vpon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherfore is my lord the king come to his seruant? And David said, to buy the threshing floor of thee, to build an Altar to ỹ LORD, ỷ plague may be stayed from ỹ people.

22 And Araunah said vnto David, Let my lord king take & offer vp what seemeth good to him: Behold here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, & threshing instruments & other instruments of ỹ oxe for wood.

23 All these things did Araunah as a king, giue vnto the king. And Araunah said vnto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee.

24 And the king said vnto Araunah, Nay, but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings vnto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor & the oxen, for fifty shekels of siluer.

25 And David built there an Altar vnto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings & peace offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, & the plague was stayed from Israel.

CHAP. I.

NOw king Dauid was old, & stricken in yeres, and they couered him with clothes, but he gate no heat.

2 Wherefore his seruants said vnto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgine, and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, & lie in thy bosom, that my lord ỹ king may get heat.

3 So they sought for a faire damosel thorowout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damosel was very faire, and cherished the king, and ministred to him: but the king knew her not.

5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted him self, saying, I will be king: & he prepared him charets & horsemen, & fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time, in saying, Why hast ỹ done so? And he also was a very goodly man, & his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And he conferred & talked with Ioab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar ỹ priest: & they following Adonijah, helped him.

8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Iehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the worthies of the king, and Dauid were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah slew sheep, and oxen, and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth which is by Enrogel, and called all his brethren the kings sons, and all the men of Iudah the kings seruants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reigne, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, giue thee counsel, that thou mayest saue thine owne life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go, and get thee in vnto king David, & say vnto him, Diddest not thou, my lord O king, sweare to thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reigne?

14 Behold while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirme thy words.

15 And Bathsheba went in vnto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunamite ministred vnto the king.

16 And Bathsheba bowed, and did obeisance vnto the king: and the king said, What wouldest thou?

17 And she said vnto him, My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God vnto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne:

18 And now behold, Adonijah reigneth, and now my lord the king, thou knowest it not.

19 And he hath slain oxen, & fat cattle & sheep in abundance, & hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, & Ioab captaine of y host: but Solomon thy seruant hath he not called.

20 And thou my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are vpon thee, that thou should'st tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to passe, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I, and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

22 And lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan ỹ prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before ỹ king, he bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed.
48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day mine eyes even seeing it.
49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.
50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the Altar.
51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the Altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.
52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.
53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAP. II.

NOw the days of David drew nigh that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying,
2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, & shew thy self a man.

nots, as it is written in the Law of Moſes, that thou maieſt proſper in al that thou doeſt, and whithersoever thou turneſt thy ſelfe:

4 That the LORD may continue his word which he ſpake concerning me, ſaying, If thy children take heede to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart, and with all their ſoul, there ſhal not fail thee (ſaid he) a man on the throne of Iſrael.

5 Moreover, thou knoweſt alſo what Ioab the ſon of Zeruiah did to me, & what he did to the two Captaines of y hoſts of Iſrael, to Abner ſon of Ner, and to Amaſa the ſon of Iether, whom he ſlew, and ſhed the blood of warre in peace, and put the blood of warre upon his girdle that was about his loynes, & in his ſhoes that were upon his feet.

6 Doe therefore according to thy wiſedome, and let not his hoare head go downe in the grave in peace.

7 But ſhew kindneſſe unto the ſons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of thoſe that eate at thy table: for ſo they came to me when I fled becauſe of Abſalom thy brother.

8 And behold, thou haſt with thee Shimei the ſon of Gera, a Beniamite of Bahurim, which curſed me with a grievous curſe in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came downe to meete me at Iordan, and I ſwore unto him by the LORD, ſaying, I will not put thee to death with the ſword.

9 Now therefore holde him not guiltleſſe, for thou art a wiſe man, and knoweſt what thou oughteſt to doe unto him: but his hoare head bring thou downe unto the grave with blood.

10 So Dauid ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the dayes that David reigned over Iſrael, were forty yeeres: ſeuen yeeres reigned he in Hebron, & thirty & three yeeres reigned he in Ieruſalem.

12 Then ſate Solomon upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdome was eſtabliſhed greatly.

13 And Adonijah the ſon of Haggith came to Bathſheba the mother of Solomon, and ſhe ſaid, Commeſt thou peaceably? And he ſaid, Peaceably.

14 He ſaid moreouer, I haue ſome what to ſay unto thee. And ſhe ſaid, Say on.

15 And he ſaid, Thou knoweſt that the kingdome was mine, and that all Iſrael ſet their faces on mee, that I ſhould reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned about, and is become my brothers: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I aske one petition of thee, deny me not. And ſhe ſaid unto him, Say on.

17 And he ſaid, Speake I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for hee will not ſay thee nay) that hee give mee Abiſhag the Shunamite to wife.

18 And Bathſheba ſaid, Well, I will ſpeake for thee unto the king.

19 Bathſheba therefore went unto king Solomon to ſpeake unto him for Adonijah: and the king roſe up to meete her, and bowed himſelfe unto her, and ſate downe on his throne & cauſed a ſeate to be ſet for the kings mother, and ſhe ſate on his right hand.

20 Then ſhe ſaid, I deſire one ſmall petition of thee, I pray thee ſay me nay: And y king ſaid unto her, aſke on my mother, for I will not ſay thee nay.

21 And ſhe ſaid, Let Abiſhag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah my brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon anſwered and ſaid unto his mother, And why doeſt thou aſke Abiſhag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Aſk for him the kingdome alſo (for he is mine elder brother) even for him, and for Abiathar the prieſt, and for Ioab the ſon of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon ſware by the LORD, ſaying, God do ſo to me, and more alſo, if Adonijah haue not ſpoken this word againſt his own life.

24 Now therefore as the LORD liueth, which hath eſtabliſhed me, & ſet me on the throne of Dauid my father, & who hath made me an houſe as he promiſed, Adonijah ſhal be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon ſent by the hand of Benaiah the ſon of Iehoiada, and he fell upon him that he died.

26 And unto Abiathar the Prieſt ſaid the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields, for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, becauſe thou bareſt the Ark of y LORD GOD before David my father, and becauſe y haſt been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thruſt out Abiathar from being Prieſt unto the LORD, that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he ſpake concerning the houſe of Eli in Shiloh.

28 The tidings came to Ioab (for Ioab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Abſalom) and Ioab fled to y Tabernacle of the LORD, & caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Ioab was fled unto the Tabernacle of the LORD, and behold, he is by the Altar: Then Solomon ſent Benaiah the ſon of Iehoiada ſaying, Go fal on him.

30 And Benaiah came to y Tabernacle of the LORD, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the king, Come forth. And he ſaid, Nay, but I will die here. And Benaiah brought y king word again, ſaying, Thus ſaith Ioab, and thus he anſwered me.

31 And the king ſaid unto him, Do as he hath ſaid, and fal upon him & bury him, that thou mayeſt take away the innocent blood which Ioab ſhed from me, and from the houſe of my father.

32 And the LORD ſhal return his blood upon his own head, who fel upon two men more righteous and better than he, and ſlew them with the ſword, my father David not knowing thereof to wit, Abner the ſon of Ner, captain of

of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether captaine of the host of Iudah.
5 Then I bood shall therefore return upon the head of Ioab, and upon the head of his seed for ever, but upon David and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.
6 So Benaiah the son of Iehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him, and he was buried in his owne house in the wildernesse.
7 And the king put Benaiah the son of Iehoiada in his room over the host and Zadok the Priest did the King put in the room of Abiathar.
8 And the king sent, and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Ierusalem, and dwell there, and goe not forth thence any whither-soever.
9 For it shall be that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brooke Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine owne head.
10 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Ierusalem many dayes.
11 And it came to passe at y end of three yeares, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath: & they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.
12 And Shimei arose and saddled his asse, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.
13 And it was told Solomon, that Shimei had gone from Ierusalem to Gath, and was come again.
14 Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to sweare by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for certaine that on the day thou goest forth, and walkest abroad any whither-soever, thou shalt surely die? And thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.
15 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandement y I have charged thee with?
16 The King said moreover unto Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickednesse (to which thine heart is priuy) that thou didst to David my father, therefore the LORD shall return thy wickednesse upon thine own head.
17 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the Lord for ever.
18 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Iehoiada, which went out and fell upon him that he dyed, and the kingdome was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAP. III.

1 Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaohs daughter, and brought her into the citie of David, untill he had made an end of building his owne house, and the house of the LORD, and the wal of Ierusalem round about.
2 Onely the people sacrificed in high places because there was no house built unto the Name of the LORD until those dayes.
3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: onely he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.
4 And the king went to Gibeon, to sacrifice there: for that was the great high place a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that Altar.
5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Aske what I shall give thee.
6 And Solomon said, thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy according as thee walked before thee in trueth, and in righteous-nesse, and in uprightnesse of heart with thee, and thou hast kept for him this great kindnesse, thou hast given him a sonne to sit on his throne, as it is this day.
7 And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy servant king in stead of David my father: & I am but a little child,
I know not how to go out or come in.
8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that can not be numbred nor counted for multitude.
9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?
10 And the speech pleased the LORD that Solomon had asked this thing.
11 And God said to him, Because thou hast asked this thing, & hast not asked for thy self long life, neither hast asked riches for thy self, nor hast asked y life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy self understanding to discerne judgement: 12 Behold, I have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart, so y there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shal any arise like unto thee.
13 And I have also given thee y which thou hast not asked, both riches & honnour, so that there shall not be any among y kings like to thee all thy dayes.
14 And if thou wilt walk in my wayes to keep my statutes and my Com-mandements, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy dayes.
15 And Solomon awoke, and be old it was a dream: and he came to Ieru-salem and stood before the Ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.
16 Then came there two women that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.
17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I, and this woman dwell in one house, and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to passe the third day after that I was delivered, y this woma was delivered also: and we were togeather, there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this womans childe dyed in her night because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, & took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, & laid it in her bosom and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I arose in the morning to give my child suck, behold it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay, but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son: And this said No, but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son, Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son y liveth, & thy son is dead, & the other saith, Nay, but thy son is the dead, & my son is the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword: And they brought a sword before the king:

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, (for her bowels yerned upon her son) and she said O my lord give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered, & said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of y judgment which y king had judged, & they feared y king: for they saw y the wisdome of God was in him, to do judgement.

CHAP. IV.

SO king Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were the princes which he had, Azariah the son of Zadok y Priest.

21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the river unto the land of the Philistims, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the dayes of his life.

22 And Solomons provision for one day, was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal.

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside Harts and Roe-bucks, and fallow Deer, and fatted fowl.

…Now therefore command thou, that …they hew me Cedar trees out of Lebanon: and my servants shall be with thy …servants: & to thee will I give hire for …thy servants, according to al that thou …shalt appoint for: for thou knowest y there …is not among us, any that can skill to …hew timber, like unto the Sidonians.
…And it came to passe when Hiram …heard the words of Solomon, that he …rejoyced greatly, and said, Blessed be the …LORD this day, which hath given …unto David a wise son over this great …people.
…And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, …I have considered the things which …thou sentest to me, for: and I will do al …thy desire concerning timber of Cedar, …and concerning timber of Fir.
…My servants shal bring them down …from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will …convey them by sea in flotes, unto the …place that thou shalt appoint me, & …will cause them to be discharged there, …and thou shalt receive them: and thou …shalt accomplish my desire, in giving …meat for my household.
…to So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees …and Fir trees, according to al his desire.
…And Solomon gave Hiram twenty …thousand measures of wheat for food to …his household, and twenty measures of …pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram …year by year.
…And the LORD gave Solomon …wisdom, as he promised him: and there …was peace between Hiram & Solomon, …and they two made a league together.
…And king Solomon raised a levy …out of al Israel, and the levy was thirty …thousand men.
…And he sent them to Lebanon, …ten thousand a moneth by courses, a …moneth they were in Lebanon, and two …moneths at home: and Adoniram was …over the levy.
…And Solomon had threescore & ten …thousand that bare burdens, and four-…score thousand hewers in y mountains:
…Besides y chief of Solomons officers, …which were over the work, three thousand …and three hundred, which ruled over …the people that wrought in the work.
…And the king commanded, and …they brought great stones, costly …stones, and hewed stones, to lay the …foundation of the house.
…And Solomons builders, and Hi-…rams builders did hew them, and the …stone squarers: so they prepared tim-…ber and stones to build the house.

CHAP. VI.

…And it came to passe in the four hun-…dred and fourtieth yeer, after the …children of Israel were come out of the …land of Egypt, in y fourth yeer of So-…lomons reigne over Israel, in y moneth …Zif, which is y second moneth, that he …began to build y house of the LORD.
…And the house which king Solo-…mon built for the LORD, the length …thereof was threescore cubites, and the …breadth thereof twenty cubites, and …the height thereof thirty cubites.
…And the porch before the Temple …of the house: twenty cubites was the …length therof, according to the breadth …of the house, and ten cubites was the …breadth thereof before the house.
…And for the house he made win-…dows of narrow lights.
…And against the wall of the house …he built chambers round about, against …the walls of the house round about, both …of the Temple and of the Oracle: and …he made chambers round about.
…The nethermost chamber was five …cubites broad, and the middle was six …cubites broad, and the third was seven …cubites broad: for without in the wal of …the house he made narrowed rests round …about, that the beams should not be …fastned in the wals of the house.
…And the house when it was in buil-…ding, was built of stone, made ready …before it was brought thither: so that …there was neither hammer, nor ax, nor …any toole of yron heard in the house, …while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it: and covered the house with beams and boards of Cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of Cedar.

11 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building; if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, & keep all my Commandments to walk in them: then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father.

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of Cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor & the walls with boards of Cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the Oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the Temple before it, was fourty cubits long.

18 And the Cedar of the house within was carved with knops, and open flowers: all was Cedar, there was no stone seen.

19 And the Oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD.

20 And the Oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold, and so covered the Altar which was of Cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle, & he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the Oracle, he overlaid with gold.

23 And within the Oracle he made two Cherubims of Olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of y Cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the Cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of y other, were ten cubits.

25 And the other Cherub was ten cubits: both the Cherubims were of one measure, and one size.

26 The height of the one Cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other Cherub.

27 And he set the Cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the Cherubims, that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the Cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of Cherubims, and palm trees, and open flowres, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold within and without.

31 And for the entring of the Oracle he made doors of Olive tree: the lintel, and side posts were a fift part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of Olive tree, and he carved upon them carvings of Cherubims, and palm trees, & open flowres, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the Cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple, posts of Olive tree a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved theron Cherubims and palm-trees, and open flowres: and covered them with gold, fitted upon the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewen stone, and a row of Cedar beams.

37 In the fourth yeer was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the moneth Zif.

38 And in the eleventh yeer, in the moneth Bul, (which is the eight moneth) was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it: So was he seven yeers in building it.

CHAP. VII.

BUt Solomon was building his own house thirteen yeers, and he had finished all his house.

2 He built also y house of the forest of Lebanon: the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and y height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rowes of Cedar pillars. & Cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with Cedar above upon the beams that lay on fourty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows, and light was against light in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars, the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before the, and y other pillars, & y thick beams were before the.

7 Then

1 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might iudge, even the porch of iudgement: & it was couered with Cedar from one side of ỹ floor to ỹ other.
2 And his house where he dwelt, had another court within the porch, which was of the like worke. Solomon made also an house for Pharaohs daughter, whom he had taken to wife) like vnto
this porch.
3 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stone sawed with saws, within and without, euen from the foundation vnto the coping: and so on the out side toward the great court.
4 And the foundation was of costly stones, euen great stones, stones of tenne cubits, and stones of eight cubits.
5 And aboue were costly stones (after the measures of hewed stones) & Cedars 6 And the great court round about was with three rowes of hewen stones and a row of Cedar beames both for the inner court of the house of ỹ Lord, and for the porch of the house.
7 And king Solomon sent, and fet him out of Tyre.
8 He was a widows son of ỹ tribe of Nephtali, and his father was a man of Tyre a worker in brasse, and he was filled with wisedom & vnderstanding and cunning to worke all workes in brasse. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his worke.
9 For he cast two pillars of brasse of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelue cubites did compasse either of them about.
10 And he made two chapiters of molten brasse, to set vpon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubites, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubites:
11 And nets of checker worke, and wreathes of chain-work, for the chapi-ters which were vpon the top of the pillars: seuen for the one chapiter, and seuen for the other chapiter.
12 And he made the pillars, and two rowes round about vpon the one networke, to couer the chapiters that were vpon the top with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapiter.
13 And the chapiters that were vpon
the top of the pillars, were of lillie worke in the porch: foure cubites.
14 And the chapiters vpon the two pillars had pomegranates also aboue them against the belly which was by the net worke: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rowes round about vpon the other chapiter.
15 And he set vp the pillars in the porch of the Temple: and he set vp the right pillar, and called the name thereof Iachin: and he set vp the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz.
16 And vpon the top of the pillars was lillie worke: so was the worke of the pillars finished.
17 And he made a molten Sea, ten cu-bites from the one brim to the other,
it was round all about, and his height was five cubites: and a line of thirty cubites did compasse it round about.
18 And vnder the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it ten in a cubite, compassing the Sea round about: the knops were cast in two rowes when it was cast.
19 It stood vpon twelue oxen, three looking toward the North, and three looking toward the West, and three looking toward the South, and three looking toward the East: and the sea was set above vpon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.
20 And it was an hand breadth thick & ỹ brimme thereof was wrought like the brimme of a cup, with flowers of lillies: it contained two thousand bathes.
21 And he made tenne bases of brasse, four cubites was the length of one base,
and foure cubites the breadth thereof,
and three cubites the height of it.
22 And the worke of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges: 23 And on the borders which were between ỹ ledges were lyons, oxe, & Cherubims:
and vpon the ledges there was a base aboue: & beneath ỹ lyons & oxe were certaine additions made of thin work.
24 And every base had foure brasen wheeles and plates of brasse: and the four corners thereof had vnder-setters:
vnder the laver were vnder-setters molten, ten at the side of every addition.
25 And the mouth of it with in the chapiter and aboue, was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the worke of the base, a cubite and an half.
26 And also on ỹ mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.
27 And vnder the borders were foure wheeles: and the axeltrees of ỹ wheeles were ioyned to the bases: and ỹ hight of a wheele was a cubite, & halfe a cubite.
28 And the works of the wheeles, was like the work of a charet wheele: their axel trees: and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were al molten.
29 And there were foure vnder-setters to the foure corners of one base: & the vnder-setters were of ỹ very base it self.
30 And in the top of the base was there a round compasse of halfe a cu-bite high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof were of the same.
31 For on the plates of the ledges and on the borders thereof, and on the graued Cherubims, lyons, and plamtrees according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.
32 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure and one size.
33 Then made he ten layers of brasse,
every one of them ten bases one layer, 34 And he put five bases on ỹ right side of the

of ỹ houſe, & ỹe on ỹ left ſide of the houſe: & he ſet ỹ ſea on ỹ right ſide of ỹ houſe eaſtward, over againſt ỹ ſouth.

40 And Hiram made the lavers, and the ſhouels, and the baſons: ſo Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the houſe of the LORD.

41 The two pillars, & the two bowls of ỹ chapters, ỹ were on the top of the two pillars: and the two net-works to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon ỹ top of the pillars.

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two net-works, even two rows of pomegranates for one net-work, to cover the two bowles of the chapiters that were upon the pillars:

43 And the ten baſes, and ten layers on the baſes.

44 And one Sea, and twelve oxen under the Sea.

45 And the pots, and the ſhouels, and the baſons, and all theſe veſſels ỹ Hiram made to king Solomon for the houſe of the LORD, were of bright braſſe.

46 In the plain of Iordan did the king caſt them in the clay ground, between Succoth and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon left all the veſſels unweighed, becauſe they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the braſſe found out.

48 And Solomon made all the veſſels that pertained unto the houſe of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the Shewbread was.

49 And the candleſticks of Pure gold, five on the right ſide, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold,

50 And the bowls, & the ſnuffers and the baſons & the ſpoons, & the cenſers of pure gold: and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner houſe, the moſt holy place, and for the doors of the houſe, to wit, of the Temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the houſe of the Lord: and Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, even the ſilver, and the gold, and the veſſels did he put among the treaſures of the houſe of the LORD.

CHAP. VIII.

THen Solomon aſſembled the elders of Iſrael, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Iſrael unto king Solomon in Ieruſalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord, out of the city of David which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Iſrael aſſembled themſelves unto king Solomon at the feaſt, in the month Ethanim, which is the ſeventh month.

3 And all the elders of Iſra l came, and the Prieſts took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the Lord, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy veſſels that were in the tabernacle, even thoſe did the Prieſts & the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Iſrael, ỹ were aſſembled to him, were with him before the ark, ſacrificing ſheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbred for multitude.

6 And the Prieſts brought in the ark of the Covenant of the LORD unto his place, into the oracle of the houſe, to the moſt holy place, even under the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims ſpread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the Cherubims covered the ark, and the ſtaves thereof above.

8 And they drew out the ſtaves that the end of the ſtaves were ſeen out in the Holy place before the oracle, and they were not ſeen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 There was nothing in ỹ ark ſave the two tables of ſtone, which Moſes put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Iſrael, when they came out of ỹ land of Egypt.

10 And it came to paſſe when ỹ Prieſts were come out of the holy place, ỹ the cloud filled the houſe of the LORD.

11 So that the Prieſts could not ſtand to miniſter, becauſe of the cloud: for the glor of the LORD had filled the houſe of the Lord.

12 Then ſpake Solomon, The LORD ſaid ỹ he would dwell in ỹ thick darkneſs.

13 I have ſurely built thee an houſe to dwell in, a ſetled place for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and bleſſed all the Congregation of Iſrael: (and all the Congregation of Iſrael ſtood.)

15 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael, which ſpake with his mouth to David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it ſaying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Iſrael out of Egypt, I choſe no city out of all the tribes of Iſrael to build an houſe, that my Name might be therein: but I choſe David to be over my people Iſrael.

17 And it was in the heart of David my father to build an houſe for the Name of the LORD God of Iſrael.

18 And the LORD ſaid unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an houſe unto my Name, thou didſt well that it was in thine heart.

19 Neverthleſſe, thou ſhalt not build the houſe: but thy ſon that ſhall come forth out of thy loins, he ſhall build the houſe unto my Name.

20 And ỹ LORD hath performed his word that he ſpake, & I am riſen up in the room of David my father, and ſit on the throne of Iſrael, as the LORD promiſed, and have built an houſe for the Name of ỹ LORD God of Iſrael.

21 And I have ſet there a place for the ark, wherin is ỹ covenant of ỹ LORD which he made & our fathers when he brought them out of ỹ land of Egypt.

22 And

and Solomon stood before the Al-of the LORD in the presence of al congregation of Israel, and spread his hands toward heaven:
23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, is no God like thee, in heaven earth beneath, who keepest covenant & mercy with thy servants, walk before thee with all their heart.
24 Who hast kept with thy servant
David my father that thou promisedst him: yea spakest also with thy mouth and fulfilledst it with thine hand, as it is this day.
25 Therefore now LORD God of Israel keep with thy servant David my father, that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walke before me as thou hast walked before me; 26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word I pray thee) be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.
27 But will God indeed dwel on the earth? Behold, y heaven & the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee: how much less this house y I have builded?
28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day: 29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My Name shal be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shal make toward this place.
30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, & of thy people Israel, when they shal pray towards this place:
and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.
31 If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be layd upon him to cause him to sweare, and y oath come before thine Altar in this house: 32 Then heare thou in heaven, & do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousnes.
33 When thy people Israel be smitten downe before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confesse thy Name, and pray, & make supplication unto thee in this house:
34 Then heare thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again into the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.
35 When heaven is shut up and there is no raine, because they have sinned against thee: if they pray towards this place, & confesse thy Name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them:
36 Then heare thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walke, & give raine on thy land which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.
37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, or if there be caterpillar: if their enemies
y besiege them in the land of their cities, whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness here be.
38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shal know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:
39 Then heare thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his wayes, whose heart thou knowest:
(for thou, even thou only knowest the hearts of all the children of men.) 40 That they may feare thee all the daies that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
41 Moreover, concerning a stranger that is not of thy people Israel, but commeth out of a far country for thy Names sake;
42 (For they shal heare of thy great Name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched-out armes,) when he shal come and pray towards this house; 43 Heare thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and doe according to al that the stranger calleth to thee for: y al people of the earth may know thy Name, to feare thee, as doe thy people Israel, and that they may know, that this house w
I have builded, is called by thy Name.
44 If thy people goe out to battel against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, & shal pray to y Lord toward y city w thou hast chosen & toward thous y I have built for thy name 45 Then heare thou in heaven their prayer, and their supplication, and maintaine their cause.
46 If they sinne against thee, (for there is no man y sinneth not,) & thou be angry with them & deliver them to y enemy, so y they carry them away captive to the land of y enemie farre or neere:
47 Yet if they shal bethinke themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying,
We have sinned, & have done perversly,
we have committed wickednesse:
48 And so return to thee with al their heart, and with al their soule, in y land of their enemies w led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest to their fathers y city which thou hast chosen, and the house w I have built for thy name:
49 Then heare thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintaine their cause.
50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before

before them, who carried them captive, if they may have compassion on them:
51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou brougt forth forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:
52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.
53 For thy didst separate them from among all y people of yearth to be thine inheritance, as y spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when y broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.
54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he rose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, with his hands spread up to heaven.
55 And he stood, & blessed all y congregation of Israel, & a loud voice, saying 56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good, promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.
57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:
58 That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his waies, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.
59 And let these my words wherewith I have made supplication before y Lord, be nigh to the Lord our God, day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, & y cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shal require:
60 That all the people of the earth may know, that the LORD is God, and that there is none else.
61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD your God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.
62 And the king, and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the Lord
63 And Solomon offred a sacrifice of peace-offring which he offered to the Lord, two & twenty thousand oxen, & an hundred & twenty thousand sheep: so the king, and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.
64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, & the fat of the peace-offrings because the brazen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receive the burnt-offrings, and meat-offrings and the fat of the peace-offerings.
65 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, unto the river of Egypt before the LORD our God, seven days, and seven dayes, even fourteen dayes.
66 On the eight day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyfull & glad of heart, for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

CHAP. IX.

AND it came to passe, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the kings house, and all Solomons desire which he was pleased to do:
2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.
3 And the Lord said to him, I have heard thy prayer, & thy supplication y hast made before me; I have hallowed this house which thou hast built to put my name there for ever, and mine eyes & my heart shall be there perpetually.
4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in uprightness of heart, and in equity, that is to do according to all that I have commanded thee, & wilt keep my statutes, and my judgments:
5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdome upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.
6 But if you shal at all turn from following me you, or your children, & will not keep my commandments, & my statutes which I have set before you, but go & serve other gods, and worship them:
7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them, & this house which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, & Israel shall be a proverb, & a by-word among all people:
8 And at this house which is high, every one that passeth by it, shall be astonished, and shall hiss, and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?
9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold on other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.
10 And it came to passe at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the kings house;
11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees, & fir-trees, & with gold, according to all his desire) y then Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galile.
12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they pleased him not.
13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day.

11 And Hiram sent to the king six hundred talents of gold.

11 And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, for to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, & Millo, & y wal of Ierusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, & taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites y dwelt in the cite, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether.

18 And Baalah, and Tadmor in the wilderness in the land.

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his charets, and cities for his horsmen, and that which Solomon delired to build in Ierusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Iebusites which were not of the children of Israel,

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able vtterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon leyie a tribute of bond-service vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen; but they were men of warre, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his charets, and his horsmen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were Solomons work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 But Pharaoh s daughter came up out of the city of David to her house, which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 And three times in a yeer did Solomon offer burnt-offerings, and peace offerings upon the altar which he built vnto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD; so he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the red sea in the land of Idom.

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants s penen y had know lidge of the sea with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they came to Ophir, & fet from thence gold, four hundred & twenty talents, & brought it to king Solomon.

CHAP. X.

1 And when the queen of Sheba heard of y fame of Solomon (concerning the name of the LORD) she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Ierusalem w a very great traine, w camels y bare spices, and very much gold, & precious stones: & when she was come to Solomon she communed w him of all y was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomons wisdome, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, & the sitting of his servants, & the attendance of his ministers, & their apparel, & his cup-bearers, and his aleant by which he went up to the house of the Lord: there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, it was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts, and of thy wisdome.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdome and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, & happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, & that hear thy wisdome.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel, because the Lord loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgement & justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, & of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices, as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 And the navy also of Hiram that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of Almug trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the Almug trees pillars for y house of y Lord, & for the kings house, harps also, & Psalteries for singers: there came no such Almug-trees, nor were seen to this day.

13 And king Solomon gave to y queen of Sheba, all her desire whatsoever she asked, besides y which he gave her of his royal bounty: so she turned, & went to her own country, she & her servants.

14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one yeer was six hundred threescore & six talents of gold,

15 Besides that he had of the merchantmen, and the traffick of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governours of y country.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold: three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forrest of Lebanon.

18 Moreover the king made a great throne of Ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two Lyons stood beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

21 And

21 And all king Solomons drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forrest of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the dayes of Solomon.

22 For he king had at sea a Navy of Tharshish, with the Navy of Hiram: once in three yeers came the Navy of Tharshish bringing Gold and Silver, Ivory, and Apes, and Peacocks.

23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches, and for wisdom.

24 And all the earth sought to Solomon, to heare his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, & garments, & armour, & spices, horses and mules, a rate yeer by yeer.

26 And Solomon gathered together charets, and horsemen: And he had a thousand and four hundred charets, & twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for charets, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and Cedars made he to be as the Sycomore trees, that are in the vale for abundance.

28 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linnen yarne: the kings Merchants received the linnen yarne at a price.

29 And a charet came up & went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their meanes.

CHAP. XI.

BVt king Solomon loved many strange women (together with the daughter of Pharaoh) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Idomites, Zidonians & Hittites,

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go into them, neither shall they come in unto you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave to these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives princesses, & three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to passe when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods, & his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddesse of the Zidodians, & after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evill in the sight of the LORD, & went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the Lord said to Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my Covenant and my statutes which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend thy kingdom from thee, & will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy dayes I will not do it, for David thy fathers sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit, I will not rend away all the kingdom: but will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servants sake, & for Jerusalems sake, which I have chosen.

14 And the Lord stirred up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the kings seed in Edom.

15 For it came to passe, when David was in Edom, & Joab the captaine of the host was gone up to bury the slaine, after he had (smitten every male in Edom.

16 (For six monethes did Joab remain there with all Israel, untill he had cut off every male in Edom.)

17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites, of his fathers servants with him, to go into Egypt: Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, & came to Paran: & they took men with them out of Paran, and they came into Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Taphenes the Queene.

20 And the sister of Taphenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Taphenes weaned in Pharaohs house, and Genubath was in Pharaohs houshold among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, & that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said to him, but what hast thou lacked with me, that behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit, let me go in any wise.

23 And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men unto him, & became captain over a band when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And

of one in was an adversary to Israel. 15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is done of me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The man of God cometh to Bethel. 4 Jeroboam's hand is dried up. 6 The prophet prayeth for the king, and his hand is restored. 11 The old prophet deceiveth the man of God. 20 The man of God is slain by a lion.

AND, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

11 Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place:

17 For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place of the which he did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And it came to pass after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase.

25 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him.

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones:

32 For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Jeroboam's son is sick. 2 He sendeth his wife to the prophet Ahijah. 6 Ahijah reproveth her. 12 The child dieth. 14 Baasha destroyeth the house of Jeroboam. 19 The acts of Jeroboam. 21 Rehoboam's reign. 25 Shishak spoileth Jerusalem. 29 The acts of Rehoboam.

AT that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam, and get thee to Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people.

3 And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

5 And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Israel,

8 And rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes;

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast me behind thy back:

10 Therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now.

15 For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger.

16 And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin.

17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

22 And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built them high places, and images, and groves, on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 And there were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

25 And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem:

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made in their stead brasen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, which kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it was so, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XV.

1 Abijam's reign. 4 For David's sake God giveth him a lamp in Jerusalem. 7 The acts of Abijam. 9 Asa's reign. 11 He reformeth religion. 16 He maketh war with Baasha. 25 Nadab's reign. 27 Baasha slayeth him, and reigneth. 29 He destroyeth the house of Jeroboam. 34 His reign and death.

NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigned Abijam over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem:

5 Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron.

14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Benhadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abelbethmaachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it was so, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Jehu's prophecy against Baasha. 8 Elah's reign. 9 Zimri slayeth him, and reigneth. 15 Omri reigneth. 21 Tibni is slain. 23 Omri's reign. 28 His death. 29 Ahab's reign. 30 His wickedness. 34 Hiel buildeth Jericho.

THEN the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;

3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him of his that dieth in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,

13 For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria.

25 And Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Elijah foretelleth a famine. 2 He is fed by the brook Cherith. 7 He is fed by the widow of Zarephath. 17 He raiseth her son from death.

AND Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Elijah showeth himself to Ahab. 3 Obadiah hideth the prophets. 17 Elijah reproveth Ahab. 21 He challengeth the prophets of Baal. 30 He repaireth the altar of the LORD. 36 He prayeth. 38 The fire of the LORD consumeth the sacrifice. 40 The prophets of Baal are slain. 41 Elijah prayeth for rain. 46 He runneth before Ahab to Jezreel.

AND it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to show himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went by himself one way, and Obadiah went by himself another way.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art not thou that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself unto him to day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the grove four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let therefore two bullocks be given us; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name:

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,

43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Jezebel threatening Elijah, he fleeth. 4 He requesteth to die. 5 An angel comforteth him. 8 He goeth to Horeb. 9 The word of the LORD cometh to him. 11 He is commanded to go out. 13 He complaineth. 15 He is sent back. 19 He calleth Elisha.

AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God.

9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left, and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria:

16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

18 Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee?

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

CHAP. XX.

1 Ben-hadad besieging Samaria, 11 sendeth a proud message to Ahab. 13 A prophet encourageth Ahab. 22 He warneth him to prepare against the spring. 26 Ben-hadad is overthrown. 31 His servants counsel him to submit. 35 A prophet reproveth Ahab for sparing Ben-hadad. 43 Ahab cometh heavy to Samaria.

AND Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Benhadad,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Benhadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Benhadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Benhadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Benhadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

13 And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Benhadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Benhadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the come to mee againe the third day.

13 And the King answered the people roughly, and forsooke the old mens counsel that they gave him.
14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will adde to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.
15 Wherefore the King hearkened not to the people: for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahiah the Shilonite, unto Ieroboam the son of Nebat.
16 So when all Israel saw y the King hearkened not unto them, the people answered the King, saying, What portion have wee in David? neither have we inheritance in y son of Iesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.
17 But as for the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram who was over the tribute, and all Israel stoned him with stones that he died: therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Ierusalem.
19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.
20 And it came to passe when all Israel heard that Ieroboam was come againe, that they sent and called him unto the Congregation, and made him King over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Iudah only.
21 And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he assembled all the house of Iudah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourescore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.
22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,
23 Speake unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon king of Iudah, and unto all the house of Iudah, and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,
24 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house, for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to y word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.
25 Then Ieroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, & dwelt therein and went out from thence, & built Penuel.
26 And Ieroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdome return to the house of David:
27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Ierusalem, then shall the heart of this people turne againe unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam King of Iudah, and they shall kil mee, and goe againe to Rehoboam king of Iudah.
28 Whereupon the king tooke counsel, and made two calues of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you, goe up to Ierusalem: behold thy Gods O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.
29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan.
30 And this thing became a sinne: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.
31 And he made an house of high places, and made Priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Leui.
32 And Ieroboam ordained a feast in the eight moneth, on the fifteenth day of the moneth, like unto the feast that is in Iudah, and he offered upon the altar (so did he in Bethel) sacrifice unto the calues that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.
33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel, the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, even in the moneth which he had deuised of his owne heart, and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel, and he offered upon the altar and burnt incense.

CHAP. XIII.

AND behold, there came a man of God out of Iudah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Ieroboam stood by the Altar to burne incense.
2 And hee cried against the Altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O Altar, Altar, thus saith the LORD: Behold, a childe shall be borne unto the house of David, Iosiah by name, & upon thee shall hee offer the Priests of the high places y burnt incense upon thee, & mens bones shall be burnt upon thee.
3 And he gave a signe the same day, saying, This is the signe which the LORD hath spoken: Behold, the Altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall bee powred out.
4 And it came to passe when King Ieroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from off the Altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand which he put forth against him dried vp, so that he could not pull it in againe to him.
5 The Altar also was rent, and the ashes powred out from the altar, according to the signe which the man of God had given by y word of y LORD.
6 And the king answered, and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand be restored againe. And the man of God besought the LORD, and y kings hand was restored again, and became as it was before.
7 And the king said unto the man of God,

come home with me, and refresh yself, and I will give thee a reward
the king of God said to the king Thou wilt give me half thine house
thou wilt give me half thine house, will not go in with thee, neither will I eat read, nor drink water in this place:
for so it was charged me by the ord of the LORD, saying, Eate no ead, nor drinke water, nor turne aain by the same way that thou camest.
So he went another way, & returned t by the way that he came to Bethel.
Now there dwelt an old Prophet in ethel, and his sonne came and told him l the workes that the man of God had one that day in Bethel: the words so which he had spoken unto the King so they told also unto their father nd when their father said unto them, hich way went he? for his sons had en what way the man of God went hich came from Judah.
nd he said unto his sons, Saddle e the asse. So they saddled him the sse: and he rode thereon, nd went after the man of God,
nd found him sitting under an oake:
nd he said unto him, Art thou the an of God that camest from Judah?
e said, I am.
hen he said unto him, Come me with me and eate bread.
nd he said, I may not return with ee nor goe in with thee, neither will eate bread, nor drinke water with ee in this place.
or it was said to me by the word of e Lord, Thou shalt eate no bread r drinke water there, nor turne aain to go by way that thou camest.
e said unto him, I am a Prophet so as thou art, and an Angel spake nto me by the word of the Lord, say-ng, Bring him backe with thee into hine house, that he may eat bread, and rinke water: But he lied unto him.
o he went backe with him, & did eate bread in his house, & drank water.
nd it came to passe as they sate at he table y the word of y Lord came nto the Prophet y brought him back.
nd he cried unto the man of od that came from Judah, saying, hus saith the LORD, For as much
s thou hast disobeyed the mouth of y ORD, and hast not kept y Commandement hich y Lord thy God commanded thee, ut camest backe, and hast eaten read and drunke water in the place, f the which the LORD did say unto ee, Eate no bread, and drinke no ater; thy carcasse shall not come unto e sepulchre of thy fathers.
nd it came to passe after hee had aten bread, & after he had drunk, that e saddled for him the asse, to wit, for e Prophet whom he had brought backe om:
nd when hee was gone, a Lyon et him by the way, and slew him:
nd his carcasse was in the way, and e asse stood by it, the lyon also stood y the carcasse.

25 And behold men passed by, and saw the carcasse cast in the way, and the Lyon standing by the carcasse:
and they came and told it in the city where the old Prophet dwelt.
26 And when the Prophet that brought him backe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the Lyon which hath torn him & slaine him according to y word of y Lord, which he spake to him.
27 And hee spake to his sons, saying,
Saddle me the asse: & they saddled him.
28 And hee went and found his carcasse cast in the way, and the asse and y Lyon standing by the carcasse: the Lyon had not eaten y carcasse, nor torne the asse.
29 And the Prophet tooke up the car-casse of the man of God, and laid it upon the asse, and brought it backe:
and the old Prophet came to the citie
to mourne, and to bury him.
30 And hee laid his carcasse in his owne grave, and they mourned over him, saying, Alas my brother.
31 And it came to pass after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried, lay my bones beside his bones 32 For the saying which he cryed by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places, which are in the cities of Samaria shall surely come to passe.
33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.
34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, & to destroy it from off y face of y earth.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 At that time Abiah the son of Jeroboam fell sicke.
2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise,
I pray thee, and disguise thy selfe, that thou be not knowen to be the wife of Jeroboam, & get thee to Shiloh: Behold there is Ahiah y Prophet, which told me y I should be king over this people.
3 And take with thee tenne loaves,
and cracknels: and a cruse of hony, and goe to him: hee shal tell thee what shal become of the childe.
4 And Jeroboams wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahiah: but Ahiah could not see, for his eyes were set, by reason of his age.
5 And the LORD said to Ahiah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam commeth to aske a thing of thee for her son, for he is sicke: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her, for it shall be when she commeth in that she shall faine her selfe to be another woman.
6 And it was so, when Ahiah heard the sound of her feet as she came at the door, that he said, Come in thou wife of Ieroboam, why faineſt thou thy ſelf to be another? for I am ſent to thee with heavie tidings.

7 Go tell Ieroboam, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, Foraſmuch as I exalted thee from among y people, & made thee a prince over my people Iſrael,

8 And rent the kingdome from the houſe of David, and gave it thee, and yet thou haſt not been as my ſervant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that onely which was right in mine eyes,

9 But haſt done evil above all that were before thee, for thou haſt gone, and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and haſt caſt me behind thy back:

10 Therefore behold, I will bring evil upon y houſe of Ieroboam, & will cut off from Ieroboam him y piſſeth againſt the wall, and him that is ſhut up and left in Iſrael, & will take away the remnant of y houſe of Ieroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 Him that dieth of Ieroboam in the citie, ſhall the dogs eat: and him that dieth in the field, ſhall y fowles of the air eat: for the Lord hath ſpoken it.

12 Ariſe thou therefore, get thee to thine own houſe; and when thy feet enter into the city, the child ſhall die.

13 And all Iſrael ſhall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Iero-boam ſhall come to the grave, becauſe in him there is found ſome good thing toward the LORD God of Iſrael in the houſe of Ieroboam.

14 Moreover, the LORD ſhall raiſe him up a king over Iſrael, who ſhall cut off the houſe of Ieroboam that day: but what? even now.

15 For the LORD ſhall ſmite Iſrael as a reed is ſhaken in the water, and he ſhall root up Iſrael out of his good land which he gave to their fathers, and ſhall ſcatter them beyond the river, becauſe they have made their groves, provoking the Lord to anger.

16 And he ſhall give Iſrael up, becauſe of the ſins of Ieroboam, who did ſin, and who made Iſrael to ſin.

17 And Ieroboams wife arоſe, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when ſhe came to the threſhold of the door, the child dyed.

18 And they buried him, and all Iſrael mourned for him, according to y word of the Lord, which he ſpake by y hand of his ſervant Ahiah the Prophet.

19 And the reſt of the acts of Iero-boam how he warred, & how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of y Chronicles of the kings of Iſrael.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboam reigned, were two and twenty yeares:
and he ſlept with his fathers, and Nadab his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

21 And Rehoboam y ſon of Solomon reigned in Iudah. Rehoboam was forty one yeare old when he began to reigne, and he reigned ſeven teen yeers in Ieruſalem, the city which the LORD did chuſe out of all the tribes of Iſrael, to put his Name there: & his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite.

22 And Iudah did evil in the ſight of the Lord, and they provoked him to jeale-ouſie with their ſins which they had committed, above all their fathers had done.

23 For they alſo built them high places, and images, & groves on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 And there were alſo Sodomites in the land, and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

25 And it came to paſſe in the fifth yeare of king Rehoboam that Shiſhak king of Egypt came up againſt Ieruſalem.

26 And he tooke away y treaſures of the houſe of y LORD, and y treaſures of the kings houſe, he even tooke all away: alſo he tooke away all y ſhields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made in their ſtead braſen ſhields, & committed them to the hands of the chiefe of y guard, which kept the door of y kings houſe.

28 And it was ſo, when the king went into the houſe of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them backe into the guard-chamber.

29 Now the reſt of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

30 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam all their dayes.

31 And Rehoboam ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of David, and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite. And Abijam his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XV.

NOw in the eighteenth yeare of king
Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat reigned Abijam over Iudah.

2 Three yeeres reigned he in Ieruſalem, and his mothers name was Maachah, the daughter of Abiſhalom.

3 And he walked in all the ſins of his fathers, which he had done before him:
& his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God as y heart of David his father.

4 Never the leſſe, for Davids ſake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Ieruſalem, to ſet up his ſon after him, and to eſtabliſh Ieruſalem.

5 Becauſe Dauid did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, & turned not aſide from any thing y he commanded him all y dayes of his life, ſave onely in the matter of Vriah the Hethite.

6 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam & Ieroboam all the dayes of his life.

7 Now the reſt of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah? And there was warre between Abijam and Ieroboam.

Abiiam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in ỹ city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.
9 And in ỹ twentith yeer of Ieroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Iudah.
10 And fourty and one yeers reigned he in Ierusalem: & his mothers name was Maachah ỹ daughter of Abishalom.
11 And Asa did that which was right in the eies of the LORD, as did David his father.
12 And he took away the Sodomites out of the land: and he removed all the idols that his fathers had made.
13 And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queene, because she had made an idole in a grove: and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brooke Kidron.
14 But the high places were not removed out of the land. Asa his heart was perfect with the LORD, all his dayes.
15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated: and the things which he had dedicated, into ỹ house of the LORD, silver, and gold, & vessels.
16 And there was war betwen Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their dayes.
17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Iudah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out, or come into Asa king of Iudah.
18 Then Asa took all the silver & the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasure of the kings house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. & king Asa sent them to Benhadad ỹ son of Tabrimon, ỹ son of Hezion king of Syria, ỹ dwelt at Damascus, saying,
19 There is a league betweene me & thee, and betweene my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold: come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, ỹ he may depart from me.
20 So Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Iion and Dan, and Abelbethmaachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.
21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.
22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Iudah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, & the timber thereof, where with Baasha had builded: and king Asa built therewith Geba of Benjamin, & Mizpah.
23 The rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in ỹ book of ỹ Chronicles of the kings of Iudah? Neverthelesse in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.
24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of Dauid his father: and Iehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.
25 And Nadab the son of Ieroboam began to reigne over Israel, in the second yeer of Asa king of Iudah, and reigned over Israel two yeers.
26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.
27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of ỹ house of Issachar, conspired against him, & Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to ỹ Philistines (for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.)
28 Even in the third yeer of Asa king of Iudah, did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.
29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, ỹ he smot all the house of Ieroboam: he left not to Ieroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah ỹ Shilonite.
30 Because of the sins of Ieroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocations wherewith he provoked ỹ LORD God of Israel to anger.
31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
32 And there was war between Asa, & Baasha king of Israel all their dayes.
33 In the third yeer of Asa king of Iudah, began Baasha ỹ son of Ahijah to reigne over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four yeers.
34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Ieroboam, and in his sinne wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

CHAP. XVI.

Then the word of the LORD came to Iehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Ieroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins.
3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house: & will make thy house like the house of Ieroboam the son of Nebat.
4 Him that dieth of Baasha in ỹ city, shall the dogs eate: & him ỹ dieth of his in the fields shall the fouls of ỹ ayr eate.
5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, & was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
7 And also by the hand of ỹ Prophet Iehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil ỹ he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with ỹ work of his hands, in being like the house of Ieroboam: & because he killed him.
8 In the twentieth and first yeer of Asa against Baasha.

Asa king of Iudah, began Elah the son of Baasha to reigne over Israel in Tirzah, two yeers.

9 And his servant Zimri (captaine of halfe his charets) conspired against him: as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunke in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smot him and killed him, in the twentie and seventh yeer of Asa king of Iudah, and reigned in his stead.

11 And it came to passe, when he began to reigne, assoone as he sate on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha, he left him not one that pisseth against a wal, neither of his kinsefolks nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Iehu the Prophet.

13 For all the sinnes of Baasha, and the sinnes of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sinne, in provoking the Lord God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty and seventh yeer of Asa king of Iudah, did Zimri reigne seven dayes in Tirzah: and the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slaine the king: Wherefore all Israel made Omri the captain of the hoste king over Israel, that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him: and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to passe when Zimri saw the city was taken, that he went in to the palace of the kings house, and burnt the kings house over him with fire, & died,

19 For his sinnes which he sinned, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his sin which he did to make Israel sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: halfe of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to make him king: & halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and one yeer of Asa king of Iudah, began Omri to reigne over Israel twelve yeers: six yeers reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hil Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, & built on the hil, and called the name of the city which he built, after y name of Shemer, owner of the hil, Samaria.

Omri buildeth Samaria.

25 But Omri wrought evil in the eies of the LORD, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Ieroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sinne, wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, & was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirtie and eight yeer of Asa king of Iudah, began Ahab the son of Omri to reigne over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria, twenty and two yeers.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, above all that were before him.

31 And it came to passe, as if it had been a light thing for him to walke in the sinnes of Ieroboam y son of Nebat, he took to wife Iezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, & went & served Baal, & worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove, and Ahab did more to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger, then all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel the Bethelite build Iericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his first born, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son, Segub, according to y word of the Lord, which he spake by Iehoshua the son of Nun.

CHAP. XVII.

AND Elijah the Tisbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these yeers, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the Lord came to him saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turne thee Eastward, and hide thy self by the brook Cherith, that is before Iordan.

4 And it shall be that thou shalt drink of the brook, and I have commanded the Ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Iordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening: and he drank of the brooke.

7 And it came to passe, after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no raine in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth

Sarepta to Zidon, and dwel there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there, to sustain thee.

10 So he arose, & went to Zarephath: & when he came to the gate of y city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: & he called to her, & said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, & said, bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, & a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in & dress it for me, & my son, that we may eat it, & die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go & do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, & bring it unto me, & after, make for thee & for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went, & did according to the saying of Elijah: & she, & he, & her house did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to passe after these things, that the son of the woman the mistress of the house, fell sick, & his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come to me to call my sin to remembrance, & to slay my son?

19 And he said to her, Give me thy son. & he took him out of her bosome, & carried him up unto a loft, where he abode, & laid him on his own bed.

20 And he cryed to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow, with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this childes soul come into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah: and the soul of the childe came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the childe, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother, and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know, that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 And it came to passe after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third yeer, saying, Go shew thy self unto Ahab, and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab, and there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the governour of his house: (now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when Iezebel cut off the Prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land to al fountains of water, & to al brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses & mules alive, that we lese not al the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to passe thorow out it: Ahab went one way by himself: and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tel thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom: and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go tel thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shal come to passe, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shal carry thee whither I know not, and so when I come and tel Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Iezebel slew the Prophets of the LORD? how I hid an hundred men of the Lords Prophets, by fifty in a cave, & fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go tel thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here; and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As y LORD of hosts liveth before whom I stand, I will surely shew my self unto him to day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to passe, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but thou and thy fathers house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send & gather to me al Israel to mount Carmel, and the Prophets of Baal, four hundred and fifty, fifty) and the Prophets of the groave, four hundred, which eat at Iezebels table.

20 So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? If the LORD be God, follow him, but if Baal, then follow him: and the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people I, even I only remaine a Prophet of the Lord, but Baals prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks, & let them chuse one bullocke for themselves, and cut it in peices, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under, and I will dresse the other bullock, & lay it on wood, and put no fire under.

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the Name of the LORD, and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, & said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for your selves, and dresse it first for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullocke which was given them, and they dressed it, & called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon saying, O Baal hear us. But there was no voyce, nor any that answered. And they leapt upon the Altar which was made.

27 And it came to passe at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god, either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried loud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancers, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to passe, when mid-day was past and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice nor any to answere, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come neere unto me. And all the people came neer unto him. And he repaired the Altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sonnes of Iacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name.

32 And with the stones he built an Altar in the Name of the LORD, & he made a trench about the Altar as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in peices, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and powre it on the sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the Altar, and he filled the trench also with water.

36 And it came to passe at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the Prophet came neere, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this People may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart backe again.

38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God, the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the Prophets of Baal, let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink, for there is a sound of abundance of raine.

42 So Ahab went up to eat, & to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, & he cast himself down upon the earth, & put his face betweene his knees,

43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the Sea. And he went up and looked, & said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to passe at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea like a mans hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the raine stop thee not.

45 And it came to passe in the meane while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great raine. & Ahab rode & went to Iezreel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah, and he girded up his loynes, and ran before Ahab, to the entrance of Iezreel.

CHAP. XIX.

A Nd Ahab told Iezebel all that Elijah had done, and withall, how he had slain all the Prophets with the sword.

2 Then Iezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying; So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them, by to morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, & came to Beer-sheba which belongeth to Iudah, and left his servant there.

he himself went a days journey
e in the wilderness, and came and sate e under a Juniper tree: & he requested for himself that he might die, and d, It is enough, now O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better n my fathers.
5 And as he lay & slept under a Junitree, behold the Angel touched and said unto him, Arise, and eate 6 And he looked, and behold, there was e cake baken on the coales, and a cruse water at his head. And he did eate & drink, and laid him down he againe.
7 And the Angel of the Lord came a-
the second time, and touched him, d said, Arise, and eat, because the ney is too great for thee.
8 So he arose, and did eat and drink, went in the strength of that meat rty dayes and fourty nights, unto Horeb the mount of God.
9 And he came thither unto a cave, & ode there, and behold, the word of LORD came to him, and he said unto m, What doest thou here, Elijah?
10 And he said, I have been very zea-for the Lord God of hosts; for the ldren of Israel have forsaken thy cont, thrown me down thine Altars, & n the Prophets with the sword:
d I even I only am left, and they k my life to take it away.
11 And he said, Go forth, and stand the mount before the LORD.
And behold, the Lord passed by, and a at and strong wind rent the mounins, and brake in pieces the rocks be-the Lord; but the LORD was not in wind: and after the winde an rthquake, but the LORD was not in e earthquake.
12 And after the earthquake a fire, but LORD was not in the fire, and af-the fire a still small voyce.
13 And it was so when Elijah heard , that he wrapped his face in his man-
, and went out, and stood in the trance of the cave. & behold, there s a voice unto him, and said, What thou here, Elijah?
14 And he said, I have been very zea-for the Lord God of hostes, be-the children of Israel have for-ken my Covenant, thrown me down Altars, and slaine thy Prophets the sword, and I, even I only am ft, and they seek my life to take it away.
15 And the Lord said unto him, Go, return thy way to the wildernes of mascus, and when thou comest, oint Hazael to be king over Syria.
16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt oint to be king over Israel, and ah, the son of Shaphat of Abel olah, shalt thou anoint to be phet in thy roome.
17 And it shall come to pass that him escapeth the sword of Hazael, shall Jehu: and him that escapeth from sword of Jehu, shall Elisha slay.
18 Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.
19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxe before him, & he with the twelfth: & Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.
20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee kisse my father and my mother: then I will follow thee. & he said to him Go back again: for what have I done to thee?
21 And he returned backe from him, and took a yoke of oxen, & slew them, & boil'd their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eate: then he arose, and went after Elijah, & ministred to him.

CHAP. XX.

1 AND Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his hoste together: & there were thirty and two kings with him, & horses and chariots, and he went up & besieged Samaria, & warred against it.
2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Benhadad,
3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine: thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest are mine.
4 And the king of Israel answered, & said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, & all that I have.
5 And the messengers came againe, & said, Thus speaketh Benhadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, thou shalt deliver me thy silver, & thy gold, & thy wives, & thy children.
6 Yet I will send my servants to thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants: and it shall be, whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, & take it away.
7 Then the king of Israel called all the Elders of the land, and said, Marke, I pray you, & see how this man seeketh mischiefe: for he sent to me for my wives, & for my children, & for my silver, and for my gold, & I denyed him not.
8 And all the Elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.
9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Benhadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, & brought him word again.
10 And Benhadad sent to him, & said, The gods do so to me, and more also if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all y people y follow me.
11 And the king of Israel answered, and said. Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harnes, boast himself, as he that putteth it off.
12 And it came to pass when Benhadad heard this message (as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions) that he said unto his servants,

Set your selues in aray. And they set themselues in aray against the city.
13 And behold, there came a Prophet to Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliuer it into thine hand this day, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.
14 And Ahab said, By whom? and he said, Thus saith the Lord, euen by the young men of the Princes of ỹ prouinces: Then he said, Who shal order the battel? And he answered, Thou.
15 Then he numbred the young men of ỹ Princes of the Prouinces, and they were two hundred thirty & two: & after them he numbred all ỹ people, euen all ỹ children of Israel, being seuen thousand.
16 And they went out at noone: but Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the pauilions, he and the kings, the thirtie and two kings that helped him.
17 And the young men of the Princes of ỹ prouinces went out first: and Benhadad sent out, & they told him, saying, there are men come out of Samaria.
18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they be com out for warre, take them aliue.
19 So these young men of ỹ Princes of the prouinces came out of the city, and the armie which followed them:
20 And they slew euery one his man: and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them: and Benhadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen.
21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.
22 And the Prophet came to the king of Israel, & said to him, Go strengthen thy self, and marke and see what thou doest: for at the returne of the yeer, the king of Syria will come up against thee.
23 And the seruants of the king of Syria said vnto him, Their gods are gods of the hils, therefore they were stronger then we: but let us fight against them in the plaine, and surely we shalbe stronger then they.
24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, euery man out of his place, and put captaines in their roomes.
25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and charet for charet: and we will fight against them in the plaine, and surely we shal be stronger then they. & he hearkened to their voice and did so.
26 And it came to pas at the returne of the yeer, that Benhadad numbred the Syrians and went vp to Aphek, to fight against Israel.
27 And the children of Israel were numbred, & were al present, & went against them: & the children of Israel pitched before them, like two little flocks of kids but ỹ Syrians filled the countrey.
28 And there came a man of God, & spake vnto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians haue said, The LORD is God of the hils, but he is not God of the valleys: therefore will I deliuer this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shal know that I am the Lord.
29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes: and so it was, that in the seuenth day the battel was ioyned: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.
30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the citie: and there a wal fel vpon seuen and seuen thousand of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled, and came into the cities into an inner chamber.
31 And his seruants said vnto him, Behold now, we haue heard that the kings of the house of Israel are mercyful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loines, and ropes vpon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel, peraduenture he will saue thy life.
32 So they girded sackcloth on their loines, and putropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy seruant Benhadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue. And he said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.
33 Now the men did diligently obserue whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Benhadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him: then Benhadad came forth to him: and he caused him to come vp into the caret.
34 And Benhadad said vnto him, The cities which my father took from thy father, I will reskote, and thou shalt make streetes for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then (said Ahab) I will send thee away with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and sent him away.
35 And a certaine man of the sonnes of the Prophets said vnto his neighbour in the word of ỹ Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.
36 Then said he to him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, assoone as thou art departed from me, a Lyon shal slay thee. And assoone as he was departed from him, a Lyon found him and slew him.
37 Then he found another man, & said, Smite me, I pray thee. And ỹ man smote him, so ỹ in smiting he wounded him.
38 So the Prophet departed, & waited for the king by the way, & disguised himself with ashes on his face.
39 And as the king passed by, he cried vnto the king, and he said, Thy seruant went out into the midst of the battel: and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man vnto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any meanes he be missing, then shal thy life be for his life, or else ỹ shalt pay a talet of siluer.
40 And as thy seruant was busie here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said vnto him, So shall thine own iudgment be: thy self hast decided it.
41 And he hasted, and took y ashes from his face, & ȳ King of Israel from him, ȳ he was of ȳ Prophets of the Lord to him. Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou hast let go out of thine hand a man whō I appointed to utter from destruction, therefore thy life shal go for his life, & thy people for his people.

And the king of Israel went to his house heavy, and displeased, and came to Samaria.

CHAP. XXI.

AND it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Iezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Iezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab King of Samaria.
And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house, and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it: or if it seem good to thee, I wil give thee
the worth of it in money.
And Naboth said to Ahab, The Lord forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.
And Ahab came into his house, heavy and displeased, because of the word which Naboth the Iezreelite had spoken unto him: for he had said, I will not give the inheritance of my fathers: & he laid him down on his bed, & turned away his face, & would eat no bread.
But Iezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit
so sad that thou eatest no bread?
And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Iezreelite, and said to him, Give me thy vineyard for money, or else if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: And he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.
And Iezebel his wife said unto him,
Dost thou now governe ȳ kingdome of Israel? arise, and eate bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee
the vineyard of Naboth the Iezreelite.
So she wrote letters in Ahabs name and sealed them with his seale, and sent the letters unto the Elders, and to the Nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.
And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:
And set two men, sons of Belial before him to beare witnesse against him, saying, Thou didest blaspheme God and the king: and then carrie him out, and stone him that he may die.
And the men of the city, even ȳ Elders and the Nobles, who were the inhabitants in his citie, did as Iezebel had sent unto them, & as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.
They proclaimed a fast, and set Na-both high among the people.
And there came in two men, children of Belial, & sate before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.
Then they sent to Iezebel, saying,
Naboth is stoned, and is dead.
And it came to passe, when Iezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Iezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, the Iezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money, for Na-both is not alive, but dead.
And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Na-both ȳ Iezreelite, to take possessiō of it.
And the word of the LORD came
to Elijah the Tesbbite, saying, Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possesse it.
And thou shalt speake to him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speake unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, in the place where dogs licked ȳ blood of Naboth shal dogs licke thy blood, even thine.
And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee, because thou hast sold thy selfe to worke evil in the sight of the LORD.
Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and wil take away thy posterity, and wil cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up, and left in Israel.
And I will make thine house like the house of Ieroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the sonne of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.
And of Iezebel also spake the Lord saying, The dogges shal eate Iezebel by the wall of Iezreel.
Him that dieth of Ahab in the citie,
the dogs shal eate: and him ȳ dieth in ȳ field, shal the fouls of the ayre eate.
But there was none like unto Ahab which did sell himselfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, whom Iezebel his wife stirred up.
And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things, as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.
And it came to passe, when Ahab heard these words that he rent his clothes, & put sackcloth on his flesh & fasted, & lay in sackcloth & went softly.
And the word of the LORD came
to Elijah the Tesbbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth him selfe before me? because he humbleth himselfe before me, I wil not bring ȳ evil in his dayes: but in his sons dayes will I bring the evil upon his house.

CHAP. XXII.

AND they continued three yeers with out warre betweene Syria & Israel.

2 And it came to passe in the third yeere, that Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we be still, & take it not out of ỹ hand of ỹ king of Syria?

4 And hee said to Iehoshaphat, Wilt thou goe with me to battel to Ramoth Gilead? And Iehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as ỹ art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Iehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

6 Then the King of Israel gathered the Prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I goe against Ramoth-Gilead to battel, or shall I forbeare? And they said, Goe up: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the King.

7 And Iehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Iehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Micaiah the son of Imlah) by whom we may enquire of the LORD? but I hate him, for hee doeth not prophesie good concerning me, but evil, And Iehoshaphat said, Let not the King say so.

9 Then the King of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel, and Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah sate each on his throne having put on their robes, in a void place, in the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the Prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him hornes of iron, and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the Prophets prophesied so, saying, Goe up to Ramoth-Gilead, and prosper, for the LORD shall deliver it into the Kings hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the Prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: Let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speake that which is good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speake.

15 So he came to the king, and the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall wee goe against Ramoth-Gilead to battel, or shall we forbeare? And hee answered him, Goe, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of ỹ king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adiure thee, that thou tell mee nothing but that which is true in the Name of the LORD?

17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon y hilles, as sheepe that have not a shepeard. And the LORD said, These have no master, let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Iehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that hee would prophesie no good concerning me, but evil.

19 And he said, Heare thou therefore the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand, and on his left.

20 And the Lord said, Who shall perswade Ahab, that he may goe up & fall at Ramoth-Gilead? And one said on this maner, & another said on ỹ manner.

21 And there came foorth a spirit and stood before the LORD, and said, I will perswade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will goe forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt perswade him, and prevaile also: Goe forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy Prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah ỹ son of Chenaanah went neere, & smote Micaiah on ỹ cheeke, and said, which way went ỹ spirit of the LORD from me, to speake unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in ỹ day, when thou shalt goe into an inner chamber to hide thy self.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governour of the city, and to Ioash the kings son:

27 And say, Thus saith the king, put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If thou returne at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel, and Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah went up to Ramoth-Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Iehoshaphat, I will disguise my self, and enter into the battel, but put thou on thy robes. And the King of Israel disguised himself, & went into y battel.

31 But the King of Syria commanded his thirty and two captaines that had rule over his charets, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to passe, when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: & Iehoshaphat cryed out.

33 And it came to passe, when the captaines of the charets perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they returned backe from pursuing him.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty: And he answered, and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered, and said unto them, If I be a man of God, Let fire come down from heaven and consume thee, and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him, and his fifty.

13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty, & his fifty: & the third captain of fifty went up, & came & fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, & said to him, Oh man of God, I pray thee, let my life, & y life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties, with their fifties, therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord said to Elijah, Go down with him, be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said to him, thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron (is it not because there is no God in Israel, to enquire of his word?) therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 So he died, according to y word of y Lord w Elijah had spoken and Jehoram reigned in his stead, in the second yeet of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAP. II.

AND it came to passe when the Lord would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha, from Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee: for the LORD hath sent me to Bethel: and Elisha said unto him, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Bethel.

3 And the sons of the Prophets that were at Bethel, came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that y Lord wil take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it, hold you your peace.

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha tarry here, I pray thee, for the Lord hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, as the Lord liveth, & as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the Prophets that were at Jericho, came to Elisha, & said to him, knowest thou y the Lord will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it, hold you your peace.

6 And Elijah said to him, tarry, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the Prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his mantle, & wrapped it together, & smote the waters, & they were divided hither & thither: so that they two went over on drie ground.

9 And it came to passe, when they were gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee: and Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee: but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to passe as they still went on and talked, that behold, there appeared a charet of fire, & horses of fire, & parted them both asunder, & Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 And Elisha saw it, & he cryed, My father, my father, y charet of Israel, and y horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes and rent them in two peeces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan.

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither & thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the Prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha: And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said to him, behold, now there be with thy servants fifty strong men, let them go, we pray thee, & seek thy master, lest peradventure y Spirit of the Lord hath taken him up, & cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shal not send.

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men, and they sought three dayes, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho) he said unto them, Did I not say to you, Go not?

19 And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, y situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but y water is naught, & y ground barren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein, and they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth to the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I have healed these waters: there shal not be from thence were not more dearth, or barren land.

25 And the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.
23 And he went up from thence unto Bethel: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up thou bald-head; Go up thou bald-head.
24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the Name of the LORD: and there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.
25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAP. III.

Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth yeer of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, & reigned twelve yeers.
2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the image of Baal, y his father had made.
3 Nevertheless, he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.
4 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, & rendred to the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, & an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.
5 But it came to passe when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbred all Israel.
7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battel? and he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.
8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? and he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.
9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetcht a compasse of seven dayes journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattel that followed them.
10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which powred water on the hands of Elijah.
12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel; What have I to do with thee? Get thee to the Prophets of thy father, and to the Prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
14 And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whō I stand, Surely were it not, y I regard y presence of Jehoshaphat y king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.
15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to passe, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.
16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.
17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain, yet that valley shal be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattel, and your beasts.
18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD, he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.
19 And ye shal smite every fenced city, & every choice city, & shal fel every good tree, & stop all wels of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.
20 And it came to passe in the morning, when the meat-offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.
21 And when all the Moabits heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.
22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the Sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.
23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore Moab, to the spoil.
24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelits rose up & smot the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.
25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, & filled it, & they stopped all the wels of water, and felled all the good trees: onely in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit the slingers went about it, & smote it.
26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battel was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through, even to the king of Edom: but they could not.
27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wal: and there was great indignation against Israel, & they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAP. IV.

NOw there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the Prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? Tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go borrow thee vessels abroad, of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels, borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee, and upon thy sons, and shalt powre out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her, and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her, and she powred out.

6 And it came to passe when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came, and told the man of God: and he said, Go sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman: and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall, and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick, and it shall be when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned in unto the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunamite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, About this season according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay my lord thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season, that she had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head: and he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, she sat on her knees till noon, and then he died.

21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new Moon, nor Sabbath. And she said, It shall be well.

24 Then she saddled an asse, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not my riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went, and came to the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to passe, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is ỳ Shunamite.

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, & say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, it is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hil, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came neer to thrust her away. And ỳ man of God said, Let her alone, for her soul is vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my LORD? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man salute him not; and if any salute thee answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child, but there was neither voice, nor hearing: wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD.

CHAP. V.

Naaman captaine of the hoste king of Syria, was a great his master, and honourable, by him: for the Lord had given de-Syria. He was also a migh valour, but he was a leper.
Syrians had gone out by and had brought away cap-of the land of Israel a little waited on Naamans wife said unto her mistresse, God my lord were with the that is in Samaria for he recover him of his leprosie.
went in and told his lord-Thus and thus said the maid land of Israel.
king of Syria said, Go & to-
I will send a letter unto the Israel. And he departed and him ten talents of silver, & six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.
6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosie.
7 And it came to passe, when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, & said, Am I God, to kill & to make alive, that this man doth send to me to recover a man of his leprosie?
Wherefore consider, I pray you, & see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.
8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now unto me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel.
9 So Naaman came with his horses, and with his charet, and stood at the
the door of the house of Elisha.
10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Iordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleane.
11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought. He will surely come out to me, and stand, and cal on the Name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place and recover the leper.
12 Are not Abana & Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better then all waters of Israel? May I not wash in them & be clean
So he turned, & went away in a rage.
13 And his servants came neere, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the Prophet had bid thee doe some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it: how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash and be cleane?
14 Then went he downe, and dipped himself seven times in Iordan, according to the saying of the man of God, and his flesh came againe like unto the flesh of a little childe, & he was clean.
15 And he returned to the man of God hee and all his company, and came and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in al the earth, but in Israel: now therfore I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.
16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none: And he urged him to take it, but he refused.
17 And Naaman said, Shal there not then I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering, nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.
18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow my self in the house of Rimmon, when I bow downe my self in the house of Rimmon, the Lord pardon thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said to him, Goe in peace. So he departed from him a little way.
20 But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought, but as the Lord liveth, I will run after him, & take somwhat of him.
21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted downe from the charet to meet him, and said, Is all well?
22 And he said, All is well; my master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me, from mount Ephraim, two young men of the sons of ỹ prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, & two changes of garments.
23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents: and he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants, and they bare them before him.
24 And when hee came to the tower, he tooke them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house, and he let the men goe, and they departed.
25 But hee went in and stood before his master; and Elisha said unto him, Whence commest thou, Gehazi? and he said, Thy servant went no whither.
26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his charet to meet thee? is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheepe, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?
27 The leprosie therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever: and he went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

CHAP. VI.

AND the sons of the Prophets said to Elisha, Behold now, ỹ place where we dwel with thee, is too strait for us:
2 Let us goe, we pray thee, to Iordan, and take thence every man a beame, let us make us a place there where we may dwel. And he answered, Goe yee.
3 And one said, Bee content, I pray thee, and goe with thy servants. And hee answered, I will goe.
4 So he went with them: and when they came to Iordan, they cut down wood.
5 But as one was felling a beam, ỹ axe head fell into the water: and he cryed, & said, Alas master, for it was borrowed.
6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? and he shewed him the place: and he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither, and the yron did swimme.
7 Therfore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and tooke it.
8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and tooke counsel with his servants, saying, in such and such a place shall be my campe.
9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou passe not such a place, for thither the Syrians are come downe.
10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him, and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.
11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing, and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?
12 And one of his servants said, Nay my lord, O king: but Elisha the prophet, that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bed chamber.
13 And he said, Goe and spie where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.
14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and charets and a great hoste: & they came by night, and compassed the city about.
15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city, both with horses and charets. And his servant said unto him, Alas my master, how shall we doe?
16 And he answered, Feare not: for they that be with us, are more than they that be with them.
17 And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray thee open his eyes that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, & he saw, and behold, the mountaine was full of horses, and charets of fire round about Elisha.
18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindnes. And he smote them with blindnesse, according to the word of Elisha.
19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seeke, but he led them to Samaria.
20 And it came to passe when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Lord, open the eies of these men, that they may see. And ỹ LORD opened their eyes, & they saw, and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.
21 And the King of Israel said unto Elisha, when hee saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?
22 And hee answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast take captive with thy sword, and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and goe to their master.
23 And hee prepared great provision for them, and when they had eaten and drunke, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So ỹ bands of Syria came no more into ỹ land of Israel.
24 And it came to passe after this, that Benhadad King of Syria gathered all his host and went up & besieged Samaria.
25 And there was a great famin in Samaria; & behold, they besieged it, until

Elisha said, Heare ye y word

If we say, We will enter into the they slay us, we shall but die?

they rose up in the twilight to into the campe of the Syrians:
when they were come, o the utter-

there was no man there.
For the Lord had made the host of Syrians, to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great hoste: and they said one to another, Lo, y king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of y Hittites, & y kings of the Egyptians to come on us.
7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.
8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the campe, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and caried thence silver and gold, and raiment, and went & hid it, and came again, and entred into another tent, & carried thence also, & went & hid it.
9 Then they said one to another, We do not wel, this day is a day of good tidings, & we hold our peace: if we tarry till y morning light, some mischiefe wil come on us: now therfore come, y we may go & tel the kings houshold.
10 So they came, and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to y campo of Syrians,
and behold, there was no man there,
neither voyce of man, but horses tyed, & asses tyed, and the tents as they were.
11 And he called the porters, and they told it to the kings house within.
12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I wil now shew you what the Syrians have done to us: They know that we be hungry, therfore are they gone out of y camp, to hide themselves in y field, saying, When they com out of the city, we shal catch them alive, and get into the city.
13 And one of his servants answered, and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: Behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites, that are consumed) and let us send and see.
14 They took therefore two charet horses, and the king sent after the host, of the Syrians, saying, Go, and see.
15 And they went after them to Jordan, and lo, all the way was ful of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste; and the messengers returned, & told the king.
16 And the people went out, & spoiled the tents of the Syrians: So a measure of fine flourre was sold for a shekel, &
two measures of barley for a shekel,
according to the word of the LORD.
17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: & the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.
18 And it came to pass, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying,
Two measures of barly for a shekel,
and a measure of fine flourre for a shekel, shalbe to morrow about this time, in the gate of Samaria:
19 And that lord answered the man of plenty in Samaria.

of God, and said, Now behold, if the LORD should make windowes in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eate thereof.

20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAP. VIII.

THen spake Elisha unto the woman whose son he had restored to life, (saying, Arise, and go, thou and thine household, and sojourne where soever thou canst sojourne: for the Lord hath called for a famine, and it shall also come upon the land seven yeers.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, & sojourned in the land of y Philistines seven yeers.

3 And it came to pass at the seven yeers end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king, for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house, and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field, since the day that she left the land, even til now.

7 And Elisha came to Damascus, and Benhadad the king of Syria was sicke, and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go meete the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou maiest certainely recover: howbeit, the LORD hath shewed me, that he shall surely die.

11 And he setled his countenance stedfastly until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, & wilt dash their children, and rip their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed fro Elisha, & came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? & he answered, He told me y y shouldest surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thicke cloth, and dipped it in water and spread it on his face, y he died, & Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fift yeer of Ioram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Iehoram that being then king of Iudah, Ioram the son of Iehoshaphat king of Iudah began to reigne.

17 Thirty and two yeeres old was he when he began to reigne, and reigned eight yeers in Ierusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did y house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: & he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Yet the Lord would not destroy Iudah, for David his servants sake, as he promised to give to him alway light, and to his children.

20 In his dayes Edom revolted from under the hand of Iudah, and made them a king over themselves.

21 So Ioram went over to Zair, and all the charets with him, and he rose by night, & smote y Edomites which compassed him about, and the captaines of the charets: & the people fled into their tents.

22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Iudah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the actes of Ioram, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

24 And Ioram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: And Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth yeer of Ioram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Iehoram king of Iudah begin to reigne.

26 Two and twenty yeers old was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, and he reigned one yeer in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in y way of y house of Ahab, & he did evil in y sight of the Lord, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of y house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Ioram the son of Ahab, to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Ioram.

29 And king Ioram went backe to be healed in Iezreel, of the wounds w the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Iehoram king of Iezrael went down to see Ioram the son of Ahab in Iezreel, because he was ly

ch. CHAP. IX.
1 Nd Elisha the Prophet, called one of the children of the Prophets, & said unto him, Gird up thy loynes, and take this box of oyle in thine hand, & go to Ramoth-Gilead.
2 And when thou commest thither, look out there Iehu the son of Iehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in, & make him rise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber.
3 Then take the box of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel: then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.
4 So a young man, even a young man of the Prophet, went to Ramoth-Gilead:
5 And when he came, behold, the captaines of the host were sitting: and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captaine. And Iehu said, Vnto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captaine.
6 And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.
7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the Prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Iezebel.
8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish, and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel.
9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Ieroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha
the son of Ahijah.
10 And the dogs shall eate Iezebel in the portion of Iezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.
11 Then Iehu came forth to the servants of his lord, and one said to him,
Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said to them, ye know the man, & his communication.
12 And they said, It is false, tell us now:
and he said, Thus, & thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.
13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the staires, and blew with trumpets, saying, Iehu is king.
14 So Iehu the son of Iehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, conspired against Ioram: now Ioram had kept Ramoth-Gilead, he, and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria:
15 But king Ioram was returned to be healed in Iezreel, of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria) And Iehu said, If ye be your minds, then let none go forth, nor escape out of the city, to go to tell it in Iezreel.
16 So Iehu rode in a charet, and went to Iezreel (for Ioram lay there) and Ahaziah king of Iudah was come down to see Ioram.
17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Iezreel, and he spied the company of Iehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Ioram said, Take an horseman and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?
18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Iehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them,
but he commeth not againe.
19 Then he sent a second on horseback which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? and Iehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.
20 And the watchman told, saying,
He came even unto them, and commeth not againe: and the driving is like the driving of Iehu the son of Nimshi:
for he driveth furiously.
21 And Ioram said, Make ready. And his charet was made ready. And Ioram king of Israel, & Ahaziah king of Iudah went out, each in his charet, & they went out against Iehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Iezreelite.
22 And it came to passe when Ioram saw Iehu, that he said, Is it peace, Iehu?
And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Ieze-bel, and her witchcrafts are so many?
23 And Ioram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.
24 And Iehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Ioram between his armes, and the arrow went out at his heart, & he sunk down in his charet.
25 Then said Iehu to Bidkar his captain, take up & cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Iezreelite; for remember, how that when I & thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him: 26 Surely (I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD, and I will re-quite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.
27 But when Ahaziah the king of Iudah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house: and Iehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the charet, and they did so, at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam: and he fled to Megiddo, and died there.
28 And his servants carried him in a charet to Ierusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers, in the citie of David.
29 And in the eleventh yeer of Ioram
the

the son of Ahab, began Ahaziah to raign over Iudah.

30 And when Iehu was come to Iezreel, Iezebel heard of it, & she painted her face, and tiredher head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Iehu entred in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace who slew his master?

32 And he lift up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side, Who? And there looked out to him two or three Eunuches.

33 And he said, throw her down. So they threw her down, and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wal, & on the horses; & he trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go,see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a kings daughter.

35 And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her then y skull, and the feet, and the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore, they came againe, and told him;and he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tisbbite, saying, In the portion of Iezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Iezebel.

37 And the carcasse of Iezebel shalbe as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Iezreel, so that they shal not say, This is Iezebel.

CHAP. X.

AND Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria: and Iehu wrote letters and sent unto Samaria to the rulers of Iezreel, to the Elders, & to them that brought up Ahabs children, saying,

2 Now assoon as this letter commeth to you, seeing your masters sons are with you, & there are with you chariets and horses, a fenced citie also, and armour:

3 Look even out the best and meetest of your masters sons, and set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, & said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shal we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, & he that was over the city, the Elders also & the bringers up of the children, sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us, we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, if ye be mine, & if ye will hearken unto my voyce take ye the heads of the men your masters sons, and come to me to Iezreel by to morow this time. (now the kings sons being seventy persons, were wt great men of the city, w brought them up)

7 And it came to passe, when the letter came to them, that they took the kings sons, and slew seventy persons, & put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Iezreel.

8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of y kings sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entring in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to passe in y morning that he went out, & stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

10 Know now, that there shal fal unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake by his servant Elijah.

11 So Iehu slew al that remained of the house of Ahab in Iezreel, & all his great men, and his kinsfolkes, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 And he arose, and departed, & came to Samaria: and as he was at the shearing-house in the way,

13 Iehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Iudah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and we go down to salute the children of the king, and the children of the queene.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they tooke them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab comming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, is thine heart right, as my heart is with thine heart? And Iehonadab answered, it is: If it be, Give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand, and her took him up into the charet.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeale for the LORD: so they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.

18 And Iehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Iehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the Prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his Priests, let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: whosoever shalbe wanting, he shall not live. But Iehu did it in subtilties, to the intent that hee might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Iehu said, Proclaime a solemne assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Iehu sent through al Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the house of Baal: and the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was o-

10 and 7 Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.
11 So Iehu went, and Iehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal,
and said unto the worshippers of Baal,
Search & look that there be here with you none of the servants of y LORD, but the worshippers of Baal onely.
12 And when they went in to offer sacrifices, and burnt offrings, Iehu appointed fourescore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him.
13 And it came to passe, assoon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offring, that Iehu said to the guard, and to the captains, Go in, and slay them, let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword, and the guard, and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal:
14 And they brought forth ŷ images out of ŷ house of Baal, & burnt them.
15 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house
unto this day.
16 Thus Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.
17 Howbeit, from the sins of Ieroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, Iehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan.
18 And the LORD said unto Iehu, Because thou hast done well in executing y which is right in mine eyes, & hast done unto the house of Ahab, according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.
19 But Iehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Ieroboam, which made Israel to sin.
20 In those dayes the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel; 21 From Iordan Eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, (which is by the river Arnon) even Gilead and Bashan.
22 Now the rest of the acts of Iehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
23 And Iehu slept with his fathers, & they buried him in Samaria and Iehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.
24 And the time that Iehu reigned over Israel in Samaria, was twenty and eight yeers.

CHAP. XI.

1 And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose, & destroyed all ŷ seed royall

2 But Iehosheba the daughter of king Ioram, sister of Ahaziah, tooke Ioash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the kings sons which were slain, and they hid him, even him and his nurse in the bed-chamber from Atha-liah, so that he was not slaine.
3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six yeers: and Athaliah did reigne over the land.
4 And the seventh yeer Iehoiada sent and fet the rulers over hundreds, & the captains, & the guard, & brought them to him into the house of the LORD, & made a covenant with them, & took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, & shewed them the kings son.
5 And he commanded them, saying,
This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you that enter in on the Sabbath, shall even be keepers of the watch of the kings house;
6 And a third part shalbe at ŷ gate of Sur, & a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shal ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.
7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the Sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the Lord about the king.
8 And yee shall compasse the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that commeth within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king, as he goeth out, and as he commeth in.
9 And the captains over the hundreds, did according to all things that Iehoia-da the Priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the Sabbath, with them that should go out on the Sabbath, and came to Iehoiada the Priest.
10 And to ŷ captaines over hundreds, did the Priest give king Davids speares and shields, that were in the Temple.
11 And the guard stood every man with his weapons in his hand round about the king, from the right corner of ŷ temple, to ŷ left corner of ŷ temple, along by the altar and the temple.
12 And he brought forth ŷ kings son, & put ŷ crown upon him, & gave him
the testimony, & they made him king, and anointed him, and they clapt their hands, and said, God save the king.
13 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard, and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.
14 And when she looked, lo, the king stood by a pillar as ŷ manner was, & ŷ princes & the trumpeters by the king, & all the people of the land rejoyced, & blue with trumpets. & Athaliah rent her clothes, and cryed treason treason.
15 But Iehoiada the Priest commanded the captaines of the hundreds, the officers of the host, & said unto them.
Have her forth without the ranges: & him that followeth her, kill with the sword: for the Priest had said, Let her not bellain in the house of the Lord.

16 And they laid hands on her, and she went by the way, by the which the horses came into the kings house, and there was she slain.
17 And Iehoiada made a covenant between the LORD & the king, & y people, y they should be the Lords people: between the king also and the people.
18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down, his Altars, and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the Priest of Baal, before the altars: and the Priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.
19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captaines, and the guard, and all the people of the land, and they brought down the king from y house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard, to y kings house, & he sate on the throne of the kings.
20 And all the people of the land rejoyced, and the city was in quiet, and they slew Athaliah with the sword, beside the kings house.
21 Seven yeers old was Iehoash when he began to reign.

CHAP. XII.

IN the seventh yeer of Iehu, Iehoash began to reigne, & forty yeers reigned he in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
2 And Iehoash did y which was right in y sight of y Lord all his daies, wherein Iehoiada the Priest instructed him.
3 But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed, and burnt incense in the high places.
4 And Iehoash said to the Priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the Lord, even the money of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that commeth into any mans heart to bring into the house of the LORD.
5 Let the Priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance, & let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shalbe found.
6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth yeer of king Iehoash, the Priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.
7 Then king Iehoash called for Iehoiada y priest, & the other priests, & said to them, Why repair ye not y breaches of the house? Now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of y house.
8 And the Priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.
9 But Iehoiada the Priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar on the right side, as one commeth into the house of the LORD, and the Priests that kept the door, put therein all the money y was brought into the house of the LORD.
10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, the kings Scribe, and the high Priest came up, and they put up in bags, & told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.
11 And they gave the money being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of y LORD: & they laid it out to the carpenters and builders,
12 And to masons & hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house, to repaire it.
13 Howbeit, there were not made for y house of the Lord, bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money y was brought into y house of the LORD.
14 But they gave to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.
15 Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.
16 The trespasse money, and sinne money was not brought into the house of the LORD, it was the Priests.
17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, & fought against Gath, & took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Ierusalem.
18 And Iehoash king of Iudah took all the hallowed things that Iehoshaphat and Iehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Iudah had dedicated, & his owne hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, & in y kings house, & sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and he went away from Ierusalem.
19 And the rest of the acts of Ioash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?
20 And his servants arose and made a conspiracy, & slew Iehoash in y house of Millo, which goeth down to Silla.
21 For Iozachar the son of Shimeath, and Iehozabad the son of Shomer his servants smote him, and he died: and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

IN the three and twentieth yeer of Ioash the son of Ahaziah king of Iudah, Iehoahaz the son of Iehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen yeers.
2 And he did that which was evill in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Ieroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, he departed not therefrom.
3 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad lying,

of Hazael, all their dayes.
Jehoahaz besought the LORD,
LORD hearkened unto him:
saw the oppression of Israel, be-the king of Syria oppressed them.
(And ỹ Lord gave Israel a Saviour, they went out from under ỹ hand the Syrians: and the children of Is-dwelt in their tents as before time.
withstanding these, they departed not the sins of the house of Jeroboam who made Israel to sin, but walked them: and there remained the grove also in Samaria.)
neither did he leave of ỹ people to Jehoahaz, but fifty horsemen, & ten chariots, & ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like ỹ dust by threshing.
Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, & his might, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
So Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria and Jo-ash his son reigned in his stead.
In the thirtie and seventh yeer of Joash king of Judah, began Jehoash ỹ son of Jehoahaz to reigne over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen yeers.
And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, but he walked therein.
Now the rest of ỹ acts of Joash, and all that he did, & his might, wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of ỹ kings of Israel?
And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sate upon his throne:
and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
Now Elisha was fallen sicke of his sickness whereof he died, and Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.
And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him a bow and arrows.
And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the kings hands.
And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORDS deliverance, & ỹ arrow of deliverance fro Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek till thou have consumed them.
And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon ỹ ground.
And he smote thrice, and stayed.
And ỹ man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times, then hadst ỹ smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.
20 And Elisha died, and they buried him: and the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the comming in of the yeer.
21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, ỹ behold, they spied a band of men; & they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: & when the man was let down, & touched ỹ bones of Elisha,
he revived, and stood upon his feet.
22 But Hazael king of Syria oppressed
Israel all the dayes of Jehoahaz.
23 And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, & had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob, & would not destroy them, neither cast
he them from his presence as yet.
24 So Hazael the king of Syria died, &
Benhadad his son reigned in his stead.
25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, took again out of ỹ hand of Benhadad ỹ son of Hazael, ỹ cities ỹ he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war: three times did Jehoash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAP. XIIII.

IN the second yeer of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, reigned Amazah the son of Joash king of Judah.
2 He was twenty & five yeers old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine yeers in Jerusalem: & his mothers name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.
3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD; yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did.
4 How beit ỹ high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.
5 And it came to passe, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father.
6 But the children of the murderers he slew not, according to that which is written in the book of ỹ law of Moses, wherein ỹ LORD commanded, saying, the fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers: but every man shalbe put to death for his own sin.
7 He slew of Edom in the valley of salt, ten thousand, and took Selah by war, and called the name of it Iokthel unto this day.
8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.
9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, the thistle that was in Lebanon, sent to the Cedar that was in Lebanon, saying,
Give thy daughter to my son to wife.
And there passed by a wild beast ỹ was in Lebanon, & trode down the thistle.
10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, & thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, & tarry at home: for why should

y meddle to thy hurt, y thou shouldest fal, even thou and Iudah with thee?

11 But Amaziah would not hear: therefore Iehoash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Iudah, looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Iudah.

12 And Iudah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Iehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Iudah, the son of Iehoahaz, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Ierusalem, and brake down the wal of Ierusalem from the gate of Ephraim, unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 Now the rest of the acts of Iehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Iudah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 And Iehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, with the kings of Israel, and Ieroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 And Amaziah the son of Ioash king of Iudah, lived after the death of Iehoash son of Iehoahaz king of Israel fifteen yeers.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of y Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Ierusalem: and he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Ierusalem with his fathers in the city of Dauid.

21 And all the people of Iudah took Azariah (which was sixteen yeers old) and made him king in stead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built Elath, & restored it to Iudah, after y the king slept w his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth yeer of Amaziah the son of Ioash king of Iudah, Ieroboam the son of Ioash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned fourty and one yeers.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Ieroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 He restored y coast of Israel, from the entring of Hamath, unto the Sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ionah, the son of Amittai the Prophet, which was of Gath-hepher.

26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel.

27 And the LORD said not, that he would blot out y name of Israel from under heaven: but he saued them by the hand of Ieroboam y son of Ioash.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Ieroboam, & al that he did, & his might, how he warred, & how he recovered Damascus & Hamath, w belonged to Iudah for Israel, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of y kings of Israel?

29 And Ieroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel, & Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XV.

IN the twentie & seuenth yeer of Ieroboam king of Israel, began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Iudah to reign.

2 Sixteen yeers old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two & fifty yeers in Ierusalem: & his mother name was Iecholiah of Ierusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

4 Saue that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed, and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 And the LORD smote the king, that he was a leper to the day of his death, and dwelt in a seuerall house. And Iotham the kings sonne was ouer the house, iudging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of Dauid, and Iotham his sonne reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirty and eight yeer of Azariah king of Iudah, did Zachariah the son of Ieroboam reigne ouer Israel in Samaria six moneths.

9 And he did that which was euill in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Ieroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Iabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of y acts of Zachariah behold, they are written in the book of y Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was the word of the LORD which he spake unto Iehu, saying, Thy sons shal sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so came to passe.

13 Shallum the son of Iabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth yeer of Vzziah king of Iudah, and he reigned a full moneth in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Iabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum & the conspiracy which he made behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 Then Menahem smote Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah, because they opened not vnto him, therefore he smote it; and all the women therein that were with child he ript vp.

17 In the nine and thirtieth yeer of Azariah king of Iudah, began Menahem the sonne of Gadi to reigne over Israel, and reigned ten yeers in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was evill in the sight of the Lord: he departed not all his dayes from the sins of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat who made Israel to sin.

19 Pul the King of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gaue Pul a thousand talents of siluer, that his hand might be with him, to confirme the kingdome in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of substance, of each man fifty shekels of siluer, to giue to the king of Assyria: so the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth yeer of Azariah king of Iudah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two yeers.

24 And he did that which was evill in the sight of the Lord, he departed not from the sins of Ieroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captaine of his, conspired against him, & smote him in Samaria in the palace of the house, with Argob, and Arieh, & with him fifty men of the Gileadites: & he slew him, and reigned in his roome.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the two and fiftieth yeere of Azariah king of Iudah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty yeers.

28 And he did that which was evill in the sight of the Lord, he departed not from the sins of Ieroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin.

29 In the dayes of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-Pileser King of Assyria, and tooke Ijon, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and caried them captiue to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, & slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth yeere of Iotham the son of Vzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second yeer of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, began Iotham the son of Vzziah king of Iudah to reign.

33 Five and twenty yeers old was he when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixteen yeers in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Ierusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all thy father Vzziah had done.

35 Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still in the high places: He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 Now the rest of the acts of Iotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah.

37 (In those dayes the LORD began to send against Iudah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah)

38 And Iotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVI.

1 IN the seuenteenth yeer of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Iotham king of Iudah began to reign.

2 Twenty yeers old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen yeers in Ierusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like Dauid his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to passe thorow the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and vnder every greene tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Assyria, and Pekah, son of Remaliah king of Israel, came vp to Ierusalem to warre: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not ouercome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recouered Elath to Syria, and drave the Iews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, & dwelt there vnto this day.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy seruant, and thy son: come vp, and saue me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel which rise vp against me.

8 And Ahaz took the siluer and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkned vnto him: for the king of Assyria went vp against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pilezer king of Assyria, and saw an altar y was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Uriah the Priest the fashion of the altar, and the Pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Uriah the Priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Uriah the Priest made it, against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt-offering, and his meat-offring, and powred his drink-offring, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offrings upon the altar.

14 And he brought also y brazen altar which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, fro between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the Northside of y altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Uriah the Priest, saying, Upon y great altar, burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offring, & the kings burnt sacrifice, and his meat-offring, & the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, & their meat-offring, & their drink offrings, and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offring, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brazen altar shall be for me to enquire by.

16 Thus did Uriah the Priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them, and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen y were under it, & put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the covert for the Sabbath that they had built in y house, & the kings entry without, turned he from y house of the LORD, for the king of Assyria.

19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVII.

IN the twelfth yeer of Ahaz king of Iudah began Hoshea y son of Elah to reign in Samaria, over Israel nine yeers.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria, and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done yeer by yeer: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 Then the king of Assyria came up throo-out all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three yeers.

6 In the ninth yeer of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, & carried Israel away into Assyria, & placed them in Halah, & in Habor, by y river of Gozan, & in the cities of the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, (whom the LORD cast out from before y children of Israel) and of y kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen, to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up images, and groves in every high hil, and under every green tree.

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them, and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger.

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, & against Iudah, by all the Prophets, & by all the Seers, saying, Turn from your evil ways, and keep all my commandments, and my statutes according to all the Law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the Prophets.

14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardned their necks like to the neck of their fathers, that did not beleeve in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his Statutes, and his Covenant that he made with their fathers, and his Testimonies which he testified against them, and they followed vanitie, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the Commandments of y LORD their God, & made molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons & their daughters to pass throow the fire, and used divination, & inchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of y LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight, there was none left but the tribe of Iudah only.

Mans captivity.

19 Also Iudah kept not the Commandements of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD reiected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, vntil he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he rent Israel from the house of Dauid, and they made Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat king, and Ieroboam draue Israel from following the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Ieroboam which he did, they departed not from them:

23 Vntil the LORD remooued Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his seruants the Prophets: so was Israel caried away out of their owne land into Assyria, vnto this day.

24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, in stead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in y cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent Lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the maner of the God of the land: therefore hee hath sent Lyons among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the maner of the God of the land.

27 Then y king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of y Priests whom ye brought from thence, and let him go & dwel there, & let him teach them the maner of the God of y land.

28 Then one of the Priests whom they had caried away from Samaria, came & dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should feare the LORD.

29 Howbeit, every nation made gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima.

31 And the Auites made Nibhaz, and Tartak, & the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech, and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and made vnto themselues of the lowest of them Priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared y Lord, & serued their own gods after the maner of y nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Vnto this day they do after the former maner: they feare not the Lord, neither doe they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandement which the LORD commanded the children of Iacob, whom he named Israel,

35 With whom the LORD had made a couenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not feare other gods, nor bow your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD who brought you vp out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and a stretched out arme, him shall ye feare, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye doe sacrifice,

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances and the Law, and the Commandement which he wrote for you, ye shall obserue to do for euermore, and yee shall not feare other gods:

38 And the Couenant that I haue made with you ye shall not forget, neither shall ye feare other gods,

39 But the LORD your God ye shall feare: and he shall deliuer you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the Lord, and serued their grauen images, both their children, and their children: as did their fathers, so doe they vnto this day.

CHAP. XVIII.

NOw it came to passe in the third yeere of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Iudah began to reigne.

2 Twentie and five yeeres old was he when he began to reign, & he reigned twenty and nine yeeres in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Abi the daughter of Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Dauid his father did.

4 He remooued the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groues, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for vnto those dayes y children of Israel did burn incense to it: & he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Iudah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he claue to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his Commandements which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was with him, and he prospered whithersoeuer he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and serued him not.

8 He smote the Philistines euen vnto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the towre of the watchmen to the fenced cities.

9 And it came to passe in the fourth yeere of King Hezekiah (w hich was the seuenth yeere of Hoshea sonne of Elah king of Israel) ỹ Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three yeeres they tooke it: even in the sixt yeere of Hezekiah (that is the ninth yeere of Hoshea king of Israel) Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel into Assyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor, by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

12 Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his Covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not heare them, nor do them.

13 Now in the fourteenth yeere of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Iudah, and tooke them.

14 And Hezekiah king of Iudah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended, return from me: that which thou puttest on mee will I beare. And the king of Assyria appointed vnto Hezekiah king of Iudah, three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house,

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doores of the Temple of the LORD, & from the pillars which Hezekiah King of Iudah had ouerlaid, & gave it to ỹ king of Assyria.

17 And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and Rabsaris, and Rabshakeh, from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great hoste against Ierusalem: and they went up, and came to Ierusalem: and when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the vpper poole, which is in the high way of the fullers field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim ỹ son of Hilkiah, which was ouer the houshold, and Shebna the Scribe, and Ioah the son of Asaph the Recorder.

19 And Rabshakeh said vnto them, Speake ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, ỹ king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 I thou sayest (but they are but vain words) I have counsell and strength for the war: now on whom doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now behold, thou trustest on the staff of this bruised reed, even on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will go into his hand, & pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say vnto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that hee, whose high places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Iudah and Ierusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Ierusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turne away the face of one captaine of the least of my masters servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for charets and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come vp without the Lord against this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me, Go vp against this land and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Ioah, vnto Rabshakeh: speak I pray thee, to thy servants, in the Syrian language, for we vnderstand it) and talke not with vs in the Iewes language, in the eares of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rabshakeh said vnto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, & to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eate their own dung and drinke their own pisse with you?

28 Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in ỹ Iewes language and spake, saying, Heare the word of the great King, the King of Assyria.

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shal not be able to deliver you out of his hand.

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver vs, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith ỹ king of Assyria, make an agreement w me by a present, & come out to me, and eat ye every man of his own vine, & every on of his fig-tree, & drink every one the waters of his cistern.

32 Vntil I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread & vineyards, a land of oyle-olive, & of honey: ỹ ye may live & not die. & hearken not to Hezekiah, when he perswadeth you, saying, the LORD will deliver vs.

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath & of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Iuah? Ha they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countreys that have delivered their countrey out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Ierusalem out of mine hand?

36 And the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the kings commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was ouer the houshold, and Shebna the Scribe, & Ioah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to passe, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes

Hezekiah's prayer,

and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the Elders of the Priests covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the Prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, & there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be, the Lord thy God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach y living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words of y blasphemy, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast on him, and he shall heare a rumour, and shall return to his owne land, and I will cause him to fall by y sword in his owne land.

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, & Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, & read it: and Hezekiah went up to the house of y LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O Lord God of Israel y dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art y God even thou alone of all the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 Lord, bow down thine care, and heare: open Lord thine eyes, and see: & hear y words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth Lord, y kings of Assyria have destroyed y nations & their lands.

18 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but y work of mens hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdomes of y earth may know that thou art the Lord God, e ven thou onely.

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amos sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard.

21 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning him, The Virgine, the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne: the daughter of Ierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lift up thine eyes on high? even against the holy One of Israel.

23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my charets, I am come up to the height of the mountaines, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall Cedar trees therof, and y choice Fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forrest of his Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunke strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dryed up all the rivers of besieged places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have don it, and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded, they were as the grasse of the field, & as the green herb as the grasse on the house tops, and as corne blasted before it be growne up.

27 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine eares therefore I will put my hooke in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turne thee backe by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a signe to thee, Ye shall eate this yere such things as grow of themselves, and in the second veer that which springeth of the same, & in y third yeer sow ye, & reape, and plant vineyards, & eatey fruits therof.

30 And the remnant y is escaped of y house of Iudah, shal yet againe take root downward, & beare fruit upward.

31 For out of Ierusalem shal go forth a remnant: and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the LORD of hostes shall do this.

32 Therfore thus saith the LORD concerning y king of Assyria, He shall not not come into this city, nor ſhoot an arrow there, nor come before it with ſhield, nor caſt a banke againſt it.

33 By the way that he came, by the ſame ſhall he return, and ſhall not come into this citie, ſaith the LORD.

34 For I will defend this city to ſave it, for mine owne ſake, and for my ſervant Davids ſake.

35 And it came to paſs that night, ỳ the Angel of the LORD went out, and ſmote in the campe of the Aſſyrians, an hundred foureſcore and five thouſand: and when they aroſe early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpſes.

36 So Sennacherib king of Aſſyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

37 And it came to paſs: as he was worſhipping in the houſe of Niſroch his god, that Adramelech, and Sharezer his ſons ſmot him ẃ the ſword: & they eſcaped into the land of Armenia, and Eſarhaddõ his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XX.

IN thoſe dayes was Hezekiah ſick unto death, and the Prophet Iſaiah the ſon of Amoz came to him, & ſaid unto him, thus ſaith ỳ Lord, Set thine houſe in order: for thou ſhalt die, & not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wal and prayed unto the Lord, ſaying,

3 I beſeech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy ſight: and Hezekiah wept ſore.

4 And it came to paſſe, afore Iſaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, ſaying,

5 Turne againe, and tell Hezekiah the Captaine of my people, Thus ſaith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have ſeen thy teares: behold I will heal thee, on the third day thou ſhalt go up unto the houſe of the LORD.

6 And I will adde unto thy daies fifteen yeers, and I will deliver thee, and this city out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria, and I will defend this city for mine owne ſake, and for my ſervant Davids ſake.

7 And Iſaiah ſaid, Take a lumpe of figs. And they took and laid it upon the boyle: and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah ſaid unto Iſaiah, What ſhall be the ſigne that the LORD will heale me, & that I ſhall go up into the houſe of the LORD the third day?

9 And Iſaiah ſaid, this ſigne ſhalt thou have of the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that he hath ſpoken: ſhall the ſhadow go forward ten degrees, or goe backeten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah anſwered, It is a light thing for ỳ ſhadow to goe down ten degrees: nay, but let ỳ ſhadow returne backward ten degrees.

11 And Iſaiah ỳ Prophet cried unto ỳ LORD, & hee brought ỳ ſhadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone downe in the dial of Ahaz.

12 At that time Berodach Baladan ſon of Baladan king of Babylon ſent letters & a preſent unto Hezekiah: for he had heard ỳ Hezekiah had been ſick.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened to them, and ſhewed them ỳ houſe of his precious things, ỳ ſilver, & the gold, & the ſpices and the precious ointment, & the houſe of his armour, and all ỳ was found in his treaſures: there was nothing in his houſe, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah ſhewed them not.

14 Then came Iſaiah the Prophet to king Hezekiah, and ſaid unto him, What ſaid theſe men? & from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah ſaid, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he ſaid, What have they ſeen in thine houſe? And Hezekiah anſwered, All the things ỳ are in mine houſe have they ſeen: there is nothing among my treaſures ỳ I have not ſhewed them.

16 And Iſaiah ſaid to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold the dayes come, that all ỳ is in thine houſe, and that which thy fathers have laid up in ſtore unto this day: ſhall be carried unto Babylon: nothing ſhall be left ſaith the LORD.

18 And of thy ſons ỳ ſhall iſſue from thee, which thou ſhalt beget, ſhall they take away, and they ſhall be ỳ unuchs in ỳ palace of the King of Babylon.

19 Then ſaid Hezekiah unto Iſaiah, Good is the word of ỳ LORD, which thou haſt ſpoken, And he ſaid: is it not good, if peace & truth be in my dayes?

20 And ỳ reſt of ỳ acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool and conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

21 And Hezekiah ſlept with his fathers, & Manaſſeh his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XXI.

MAnaſſeh was twelve yeers old when he began to reign, & reigned fifty and five yeeres in Ieruſalem: & his mothers name was Hephzibah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the LORD, after ỳ abominations of ỳ heathen, whom ỳ LORD caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

3 For he built up againe the high places, which Hezekiah his father had deſtroyed, and he reared up altars for Baal, & made a groue, as did Ahab king of Iſrael, and worſhipped all the hoſt of heaven and ſerved them.

4 And he built altars in the houſe of the LORD, of which the LORD ſaid, In Ieruſalem will I put my Name.

5 And he built altars for all the hoſt of heaven, in the two courts of the houſe of the LORD.

6 And he made his ſon paſſe thorough the fire, and obſerved times, and uſed

22 And he forsooke the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 And y servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: & the people of the land made Iosiah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the actes of Amon, which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Vzza, and Iosiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXII.

IOsiah was eight yeers old when he began to reigne, & he reigned thirty and one yeers in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Iedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozcath.

2 And he did that which was right in y sight of the LORD, and walked in all y waies of David his father, & turned not aside to y right hand, or to y left.

3 And it came to pass in the eighteenth yeer of king Iosiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam the Scribe to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high Priest, that he may summe the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the doore have gathered of the people.

5 And let them deliver it into y hand of the doers of the worke, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work, which is in the house of the Lord to repaire the breaches of the house.

6 Vnto carpenters, and builders, and masons: and to buy timber, and hewen stone to repaire the house.

7 Howbeit, there was no reckoning made with them, of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 And Hilkiah the high Priest said to Shaphan the Scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the Scribe came to y king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in y house, & have delivered it into y hand of them that do the work, that have y oversight of the house of the LORD.

10 And Shaphan the Scribe shewed y king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath delivered me a booke: and Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass when the king had heard the words of the booke of the Law, that he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah charah, and Shaphan the Scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king, saying, 13 Go yee, enquire of the Lord for me and for the people, and for all Iudah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord ỹ is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.

14 So Hilkiah the Priest, & Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, & Asahiah went unto Huldah the Prophetesse, ỹ wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: Now she dwelt in Ierusalem in ỹ College: And they communed with her.
15 And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tel the man that sent you to me;
16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, & upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the booke which the king of Iudah hath read.
17 Because they have forsaken me, & have burnt incense unto other gods, ỹ they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands: therefore my wrath shal be kindled against this place, and shal not be quenched.
18 But to the king of Iudah, which sent you to enquire of the LORD, Thus shal ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, as touching the words which thou hast heard, 19 Because thine heart was tender, & thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.
20 Behold therefore, I wil gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace, and thine eies shal not see all ỹ evil which I wil bring upon this place. And they brought the king word againe.

CHAP. XXIII.

A Nd the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the Elders of Iudah, and of Ierusalem.
2 And the king went up into ỹ house of the Lord, and all the men of Iudah, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, and ỹ Priests, & ỹ Prophets, & all the people both small and great: & he read in their ears all the words of the booke of the Covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.
3 And the king stood by a Pillar, and made a Covenant before the Lord, to walke after the LORD, and to keep his Commandements, and his Testimonies and his Statutes, with all their heart, and all their soul, to perform the words of this Covenant that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the Covenant.
4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high Priest, and the Priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the Temple of the LORD, all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, & for all the hoste of heaven: & he burnt them without Ierusalem in ỹ fields of Kidron, and caried the ashes of them to Bethel.
5 And he put down the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Iudah had ordeined to burne incense in the high places, in the cities of Iudah, and in the places round about Ierusalem: them also that burnt incense unto Baal, to the Sunne, and to the Moone, and to the Planets, and to all the hoste of heaven.
6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Ierusalem, unto the brook Kidron, & burnt it at the brook Kidron, & stamped it small to powder, & cast ỹ powder upon ỹ graves of ỹ children of ỹ people.
7 And he brake down the houses of the Sodomites ỹ were by the house of the LORD, where the women wrought hangings for the grove.
8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Iudah, and defiled the high places where the Priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beersheba, & brake down the high places of ỹ gates ỹ were in the entring of ỹ gate of Iehoshua the governour of the city, which was on a mans left hand, at the gate of the city.
9 Nevertheless, the priests of the high places came not up to the Altar of the LORD in Ierusalem, but they eate of the unleavened bread among their brethren.
10 And he defiled Tophath which is in ỹ valley of ỹ children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to passe through the fire to Molech.
11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Iudah had given to the Sun, at the entring in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathanmelech the Chamberlaine, which was in the suburbes, and burnt the chariots of the Sunne with fire.
12 And the Altars that were on the top of ỹ upper chamber of Ahaz which the kings of Iudah had made, and the Altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, did the king beat down, & brake them downe from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.
13 And the high places that were before Ierusalem which were on ỹ right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth, the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, & for Milchom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did ỹ king defile.
14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, & filled their places with the bones of men.
15 Moreover, the Altar that was at Bethel, and the high places which of Nebat who made Israel to sinne, had made: both that Altar, and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stampt it small to dust, and burnt the groue.

16 And as Iosiah turned himselfe, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent and tooke the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the Altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD, which the man of God proclaimed, who had published these words.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? and the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Bethel.

18 And he said, Let him alone: let no man moue his bones, so they let his bones alone with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to prouoke the LORD to anger, Iosiah tooke away, and did to them according to all y acts that he had done in Bethel.

20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there, upon the altars, and burnt mens bones upon them, and returned to Ierusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the Passeouer vnto the LORD your God, as it is written in this booke of the Couenant.

22 Surely there was not holden such a Passeouer from the daies of the iudges that iudged Israel, nor in all the dayes of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Iudah:

23 But in the eighteenth yeere of king Iosiah, wherein this Passeouer was holden to the LORD in Ierusalem.

24 Moreouer, the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idoles, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Iudah, and in Ierusalem, did Iosiah put away, that hee might perform the words of the Law, which were written in the booke that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of y LORD.

25 And like vnto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soule, and with all his might, according to all that Law of Moses, neither arose there any like him.

26 Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fiercenesse of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Iudah, because of all the prouocations that Manasseh had prouoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remoue Iudah also out of my sight, as I haue remoued Israel, and will cast off this citie Ierusalem, which I haue chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Iosiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

29 In his dayes Pharaoh Nechoh king of Egipt, went vp against y king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Iosiah went against him, and he slew him at Megiddo, whe he had seen him.

30 And his seruants caried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, & brought him to Ierusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre: and the people of the land tooke Iehoahaz the son of Iosiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his fathers stead.

31 Iehoahaz was twenty and three yeeres old when he began to reign, & he reigned three monthes in Ierusalem, & his mothers name was Hamutal, y daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh Nechoh put him in bands at Riblah, in y land of Hamath, that he might not reigne in Ierusalem and put y land to a tribute of an hundred talents of siluer, & a talet of gold.

34 And Pharaoh Nechoh made Eliakim the son of Iosiah king, in the roome of Iosiah his father, and turned his name to Iehoiakim, & tooke Iehoahaz away, and he came to Egypt, and died there.

35 And Iehoiakim gaue the siluer and y gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed y land to giue y money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the siluer and the gold of the people of y land, of euery one according to his taxation, to giue it to Pharaoh Nechoh.

36 Iehoiakim was twenty and five yeeres old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he did that which was evill in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAP. XXIIII.

IN his dayes Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon came vp, and Iehoiakim became his seruant three yeeres: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And the Lord sent against him bands of y Caldees, & bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Iudah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his seruants the Prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this vpon Iudah, to remoue it out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4 And also for the innocent blood that he shed: (for he filled Ierusalem with innocent blood) which the Lord would not pardon.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Iehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not writ-written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

6 So Iehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Iehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.
7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt, to the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.
8 Iehoiachin was eighteene yeeres old when he began to reigne, and he reigned in Ierusalem three moneths: and his mothers name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Ierusalem.
9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.
10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon came up against Ierusalem, & the city was besieged.
11 And Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.
12 And Iehoiachin the king of Iudah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eight yeere of his reigne.
13 And hee carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the kings house, & cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in the Temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.
14 And he caried away al Ierusalem, and al the Princes, and al the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives: & al the craftsmen and smithes, none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.
15 And he caried away Iehoiachin to Babylon, and the kings mother, and the kings wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those caried he into captivity from Ierusalem to Babylon.
16 And al the men of might, even seven thousand, & craftesmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.
17 And y king of Babylon made Mattaniah his fathers brother king in his stead, & changed his name to Zedekiah.
18 Zedekiah was twenty and one yeeres old when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleven yeeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Hamutal, the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.
19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to al that Iehoiachin had done.
20 For through the anger of the Lord it came to passe in Ierusalem and Iudah until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAP. XXV.

AND it came to passe in y ninth yeere of his reigne, in the tenth moneth, in the tenth day of the moneth, that Nebuchad nezzar king of Babylon came, he and his host against Ierusalem, and pitched against it, and they built fort against it, round about.
2 And the citie was besieged unto the eleventh yeere of king Zedekiah.
3 And on the ninth day of the fourth moneth, the famine prevailed in the citie, and there was no bread for the people of the land.
4 And the citie was broken up, and al the men of warre fled by night by the way of the garden between the two walles, which is by the kings garden: now the Caldees were against the citie round about, and the king went the way toward the plaine.
5 And the army of the Caldees pursued after the king, and overtooke him in the plaines of Ierico: and al his army were scattered from him.
6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah, & they gave iudgement upon him.
7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brasse, and caried him to Babylon.
8 And in the fift moneth, on the seventh day of y moneth (which is y nineteenth yeere of king Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, vnto Ierusalem,
9 And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the kings house, and al the houses of Ierusalem, and every great mans house burnt he with fire.
10 And all the armie of the Caldees that were with the captain of the guard brake downe the walls of Ierusalem round about.
11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, and the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captaine of the guard cary away.

CHAP. X.

NOw the Philiſtines fought againſt Iſrael, and the men of Iſrael fled from before the Philiſtines, and fell down ſlain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philiſtines followed hard after Saul, and after his ſons, and the Philiſtins ſlew Jonathan, & Abinadab, and Malchiſhua, the ſons of Saul.

3 And the battel went ſore againſt Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then ſaid Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy ſword, and thruſt me thorow therewith, leſt theſe uncircumciſed come, and abuſe me: but his armour-bearer would not, for he was ſore afraid. So Saul took a ſword and fell upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer ſaw that Saul was dead, he fell likewiſe on the ſword and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three ſons, and all his houſe died together.

7 And when al the men of Iſrael that were in the valley, ſaw that they fled, and that Saul and his ſons were dead, then they forſook their cities, and fled, & the Philiſtines came & dwelt in them.

8 And it came to paſſe on the morrow, when the Philiſtines came to ſtrip the ſlain, that they found Saul and his ſons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had ſtripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and ſent into the land of the Philiſtines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the houſe of their gods, and faſtned his head in the temple of Dagon.

12 They aroſe, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his ſons, and brought them to Iabeſh, & buried their bones under the oke in Iabeſh, and faſted ſeven dayes.

13 So Saul died for his tranſgreſſion, he committed againſt ỹ LORD, even againſt ỹ word of ỹ LORD, & he kept not, & alſo for asking counſel of one ỹ had a familiar ſpirit to enquire of it:

14 And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he ſlew him, and turned the kingdome unto David the ſon of Ieſſe.

CHAP. XI.

THen all Iſrael gathered themſelves to David unto Hebron, ſaying: Behold, we are thy bone and thy fleſh.

2 And moreover, in time paſt, even when Saul was king, thou waſt he that ledeſt out and broughteſt in Iſrael, and ỹ LORD thy God ſaid unto thee: Thou ſhalt feed my people Iſrael, and ỹ ſhalt be ruler over my people Iſrael.

3 Therefore came all the Elders of Iſrael to the king to Hebron, and David made a Covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Iſrael, according to ỹ word of ỹ LORD by Samuel.

4 And David and all Iſrael went to Ieruſalem, which is Iebus, where the Iebuſites were ỹ inhabitants of y land.

5 And the inhabitants of Iebus ſaid to David, Thou ſhalt not come hither. Nevertheleſs David took the caſtle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David ſaid, whoſoever ſmiteth the Iebuſites firſt, ſhal be chief and captain. So Ioab the ſon of Zeruiah went firſt up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the caſtle: therefore they called it ỹ city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Ioab repaired the reſt of the city.

12 And after him was Eleazar the ſon of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties.

13 He was with David at Paſdammim, and there the Philiſtines were gathered together to battel, where was a parcell of ground full of barley: and ỹ people fled from before ỹ Philiſtines.

14 And they ſet themſelves in the midſt of that parcell, and delivered it, and ſlew the Philiſtines: and the LORD ſaved them by a great deliverance.

15 Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock of David unto the cave of Adullam, and the hoſt of the Philiſtines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philiſtines garriſon was then at Bethlehem.

17 And David longed, and ſaid: Oh that one would give me drink of the water of ỹ well of Bethlehem, that is at ỹ gate!

18 And the three brake through the hoſt of the Philiſtines, and drew water out of ỹ well of Bethlehem, ỹ was by the gate, and took it, & brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but powred it out to the LORD,

19 And ſaid: My God forbid me that I ſhould do this thing: Shall I drink ỹ blood of theſe men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with ỹ jeopardy of their lives they brought it: therefore he would not drink it. Theſe things did theſe three mighties.

20 And Abiſhai, ỹ brother of Ioab, he and the sword of the three: For lifting up his spear against three hundred, she slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three he was more honourable than the two, for hee was their captaine; howbeit he attained not to the first three.

22 Benaiah the son of Iehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lion like men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubites high, and in the Egyptians hand was a speare like a weauers beame, and he went down to him with a staffe, and pluckt the speare out of the Egyptians hand, and slew him with his owne speare.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Iehoiada, and had the name among the three mighties.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: & David set him over his guard.

CHAP. XII.

NOw these are they that came to David, to Ziklag while hee yet kept himselfe close, because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men helpers of the warre.

2 They were armed with bowes, and could vse both the right hand and the left, in hurling stones, and shooting arrowes out of a bow, even of Sauls brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Ioash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, & Iezeiel, and Pelet y sons of Azmaueth and Berachah, and Iehu the Anothite,

6 Elkanah, and Iesiah, and Azareil, and Ioezer, and Iashobeam the Korhites,

7 And Ioelah, and Zebadiah the sons of Ieroam of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves vnto David, into the hold to the wildernesse, men of might, and men of warre, fit for the battell, y could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of Lyons, & were as swift as the Roes vpon y mountaines.

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mismannah y fourth, Ieremiah y fift,

11 Attai the sixt, Eliel the seventh,

12 Iohanan the eighth, Elzabad y ninth,

13 Ieremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad captaines of the host: one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Iordan in the first moneth: when it had ouer flowen all his banks, and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the East, and toward the West.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Iudah, to the hold vnto Dauid.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said vnto them: If ye be come peaceably vnto me to helpe me mine heart shall be knit vnto you, but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, y God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit came vpon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Iesse, Peace, peace be vnto thee, and peace be to thine helpers, for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against and helpers,

against Saul to battel, but they helped them not. For the lords of the Philistines, upon aduisement, sent him away saying, Hee will fal to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fel to him of Manasseh Adnah, and Iozabad, and Iediel, and Michael, and Iozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captaines of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rouers: for they were al mightie men of valour, and were captaines of the hoste.

22 For at that time day by day, there came to David to helpe him, until it was a great hoste, like the hoste of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the warre, and came to David to Hebron, to turne the kingdome of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Iudah y bare shield and speare, were six thousand and eight hundred ready armed to the warre.

25 Of the children of Simeon mighty men of valour for the war, seuen thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Leui, foure thousand and six hundred.

27 And Iehoiada was the leader of the Aronites, and with him were three thousand and seuen hundred.

28 And Zadok a young man, mighty of valour, and of his fathers house, twentie and two captaines.

29 And of the children of Beniamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim, twentie thousand and eight hundred mightie men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the halfe tribe of Manasseh, eightteene thousand which were expressed by name to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do: the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandement.

33 Of Zebulun such as went forth to battel, expert in war, with al instruments of warre, fifty thousand, which could keepe ranke, They were not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captaines, and with them, with the shield and speares, thirty and seuen thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battel expert in warre, fourty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Iordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with al maner of instruments of warre for the battel, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of warre, that could keepe ranke, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king ouer all Israel: and al y rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with Dauid three dayes, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreouer, they that were nie them, even unto Issachar and Zabulon and Naphtali brought bread on asses, on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meate, cakes of figges, and bunches of raisins, and wine and oile, and oxen, and sheepe abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

AND David consulted with the captaines of thousands, and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our brethren every where, that are left in all the lands of Israel, and with them also to the Priests and Leuites which are in their cities and suburbes, that they may gather themselues unto us.

3 And let us bring again the Arke of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the dayes of Saul.

4 And all the Congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered al Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt, even unto the entring of Hamath, to bring the Arke of God from Kiriath-iearim.

6 And David went up, and al Israel to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-iearim, which belonged to Iudah to bring thence the Arke of God the LORD that dwelleth between the Cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they caried the Arke of God in a new cart, out of the house of Abinadab: and Vzza, and Ahio drave the cart.

8 And David and al Israel played before God with al their might, and with singing, and with harpes, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshing floore of Chidon, Vzza put forth his hand to hold the Ark, for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Vzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the Arke: and there he died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Vzza: wherefore the place is called Perez-Vzza, to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the Arke of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the Arke home to himself to the city of David, but caried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

14 And the Arke of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house, and all y he had, was blessed. 12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all y he hath, because of the Ark of God. So David went and brought up the Ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom into the city of David with gladness.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of Cedars, with Masons and Carpenters to build him an house. 2 And David perceived that the Lord had established him king over Israel, for his kingdome was lift up on high, because of his people Israel. 3 David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begate more sons and daughters. 4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, & Shobab, Nathan, & Solomon, 5 And Ibhar, & Elishua, and Elpalet, 6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, & Japhia, 7 And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet. 8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. 9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. 10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I goe up against y Philistines? & wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up, for I will deliver them into thy hand. 11 So they came up to Baal-Perazim, and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand, like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called y name of y place Baal-Perazim. 12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a Commandement, and they were burnt with fire. 13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. 14 Therefore David enquired again of God: and God said unto him, Go not up after them, turne away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. 15 And let it be when thou shalt heare the sound of going in y tops of y mulberry trees, then thou shalt goe out to battell: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of y Philistines. 16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon, even to Gazer. 17 And the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the feare of him upon all nations.

CHAP. XV.

1 And he made him houses in y city of David, & prepared a place for the Ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. 2 Then David said, None ought to carry the Ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the Ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever. 3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it. 4 And David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites. 5 Of y sons of Kohath: Uriel y chiefe, & his brethren, an hundred & twenty. 6 Of the sons of Merari: Asaiah the chiefe, and his brethren, two hundred and twenty. 7 Of the sons of Gershom: Ioel y chiefe, and his brethren, an hundred & thirty. 8 Of the sons of Elizaphan: Shemaiah y chiefe, and his brethren, two hundred. 9 Of the sons of Hebron: Eliel y chiefe, and his brethren, fourescore. 10 Of the sons of Uzziel: Aminadab the chiefe, and his brethren, an hundred and twelve. 11 And David called for Zadok, and Abiathar the Priests, and for the Levites for Uriel, Asaiah, and Ioel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Aminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chiefe of the fathers of the Levites: sanctifie your selves both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the Arke of the LORD God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it. 13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order. 14 So the Priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of the LORD God of Israel. 15 And the children of y Levites bare y Ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. 16 And David spake to the chiefe of y Levites to appoint their brethren to be y singers with instruments of musicke, psalteries, & harpes, and cymbals sounding, by lifting up the voyce with joy. 17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Ioel: and of his brethren Asaph the son of Berrechiah: and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah. 18 And with them their brethren of y second degree: Zachariah, Ben, & Jaziel & Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, & Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, & Maasiah, & Mattithiah, and Eliphaleh, and Mikniah, and Obed-Edom, and Iehiel the porters. 19 So the Singers, Heman, Asaph and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brasse. 20 And Zachariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maasiah, and Benaiah with Psalteries on Alamoth. 21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphaleh, and Mikniah, and Obed-Edom, and Iehiel, and Azzaziah with harpes on the Sheminith to excel. 22 And Chenaniah the chiefe of the Levites was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilfull. 23 And Berrechiah, and Elkanah, were doore keepers for the Arke.

24 And Shebaniah, and Iehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasiah, and Zacharias, and Benaiah, and Eliezer y Priest did blow with the trumpets before the Arke of God: and Obed-Edom, and Iehiah, were door keepers for the Ark.

25 So David & the Elders of Israel, and the captaines ouer thousands, went to bring up the Arke of the Covenant of the LORD, out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy

26 And it came to passe, when God helped the Leuites that bare the Ark of y Covenant of the Lord, that they offered seuen bullocks and seuen rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linnen, & al the Leuites y bare the Ark, & the singers, & Chenaniah y master of y song: with y singers. David also had vpon him an Ephod of linnen

28 Thus al Israel brought up the Ark of y Covenant of y LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, & with trumpets and with cymbals, making a noise with Psalteries & harpes

29 And it came to passe, as the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord came to the citie of David, that Michal y daughter of Saul, looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAP. XVI.

SO they brought the Arke of God, and set it in the midst of the tent, that David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings, and the peace offrings, he blessed the people in the Name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman to every one a loafe of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And hee appointed certaine of the Leuites to minister before the ark of y LORD, and to record, and to thanke, and to praise y LORD God of Israel.

5 Asaph the chiefe, and next vnto him Zachariah, Ieiel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Ieiel with Psalteries, and with harpes: but Asaph made a sound with cymbals

6 Benaiah also and Iahaziel the Priest with trumpets continually before the Arke of the Couenant of God.

7 Then on that day David deliuered first this Psalme to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph & his brethren

8 Giue thankes vnto the LORD, call vpon his Name, make knowne his deeds among the people.

9 Sing vnto him, sing Psalmes to him, talk you of all his wondrous workes.

10 Glory ye in his holy Name, let the heart of them reioyce that seeke the LORD.

11 Seeke the LORD and his strength, seeke his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous workes that he hath done, his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth.

13 O ye seed of Israel his seruant, ye children of Iacob his chosen ones.

14 Hee is the LORD our God, his iudgements are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful alwayes of his Couenant: the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

16 Even of the Couenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath vnto Isaac,

17 And hath confirmed the same to Iacob for a Law, and to Israel for an euerlasting Covenant:

18 Saying, Vnto thee will I giue the land of Canaan the lot of your inheritance,

19 When ye were but few, euen very few, and strangers in it:

20 And when they went from one nation, and from one kingdome to another people:

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproued kings for their sakes.

22 Saying, Touch not mine Anointed, and doe my Prophets no harme.

23 Sing vnto the LORD all the earth, shew from th day to day his saluation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen, his marueilous workes among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be reuerenced aboue all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols, but the LORD made y heauens.

27 Glory & honour are in his presence, strength and gladnesse are in his place.

28 Giue vnto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people: giue vnto the LORD glorie and strength.

29 Giue vnto the LORD the glorie due vnto his Name: bring an offring, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beautie of holinesse.

30 Feare before him all the earth: the world also shal be stable, that it be not moued.

31 Let the heauens be glad, & let earth reioyce: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roare, and the fulnesse thereof: let the fields reioyce, and all that is therein.

33 Then shal the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD: because he commeth to iudge the earth.

34 O giue thankes vnto the LORD, for hee is good: for his mercy endureth for euer.

35 And say ye, Saue vs, O God of our saluation, and gather vs together, and deliuer vs from the heathen, that we may giue thanks to thy holy Name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for euer and euer: and all the people said, Amen, and praised y LORD.

37 So he left there before the Arke of the Couenant of the LORD, and his brethren to minister before the Arke continually, as every dayes work required:

38 And Obed-Edom with their brethren, threescore and eight: Obed-Edom also the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah to be porters.

39 And Zadok the Priest, and his brethren the Priests before the Tabernacle of the LORD, in the high place that is at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the Altar of the burnt offering continually, morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel.

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the Lord, because his mercy endureth for ever.

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God: and the sons of Jeduthun were porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAP. XVII.

1 NOw it came to passe, as David sate in his house, y David said to Nathan y Prophet, Loe, I dwel in an house of cedars, but the Arke of y Covenant of the Lord remains under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said to David, Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee.

3 And it came to passe the same night, y word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go, and tel David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwel in.

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one Tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the Iudges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of Cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say to my servant David, Thus saith y Lord of hosts, I tooke thee from the sheepcote, even from following y sheep, y y shouldest be ruler over my people Israel.

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name, like the name of y great men that are in y earth.

9 Also I will ordaine a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shal the children of wickednesse waste them any more, as at the beginning.

10 And since the time that I commanded Iudges to be over my people Israel, I have subdued all thine enemies. Furthermore I tel thee, that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And it shal come to passe, when thy dayes be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee which shalbe of thy sons, and I will stablish his kingdom.

12 He shal build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shal be my son, and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I tooke it from him that was before thee.

14 But I will settle him in my house, and in my kingdome for ever, and his throne shal be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speake unto David.

16 And David the King came and sate before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, & what is mine house that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a smal thing in thine eyes, O God: for thou hast also spoken of thy servants house, for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speake more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD for thy servants sake and according to thine owne heart hast thou done all this greatnes, in making known al these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our eares.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeeme, to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatnes and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine owne people for ever, and thou LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be stablished, that thy Name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, (thou art God, and hast promised this good unto thy servant)

27 Now therefore let it please thee to blesse the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

CHAP. XVIII.

NOw after this it came to pass that David smot the Philistins, & subdued them, & took Gath, & her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became Davids servants, and brought gifts.

3 And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah toHamath, as he went to establish his dominiō by y river Euphrates

4 And David took from him a thousand charets, and seven thousand horsmen, and twenty thousand footmen. David also houghed all y charet-horses but reserved of the an hundred charets

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to helpe Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garisons in Syria, Damascus, and the Syrians became Davids servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whither soever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold, that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Ierusalē

8 Like wise from Tibbath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brasse, wherewith Solomon made the brasen Sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brasse.

9 Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the hoste of Hadarezer king of Zobah:

10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him, (for Hadarezer had war with Tou) and with him al maner of vessels of gold, and silver, and brasse.

11 Them also king David dedicated unto the Lord, with the silver and the gold that he brought from al these nations: from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistins, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt, eighteene thousand.

13 And he put garisons in Edom, and al the Edomites became Davids servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whitherforever he went.

14 So David reigned over al Israel and executed judgement and iustice among al his people.

15 And Ioab the son of Zeruiah was over the hoste, and Iehoshaphat the son of Ahilud Recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the Priests, and Shausha was Scribe.

17 And Benaiah the son of Iehoiada was over the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chiefe about the king.

CHAP. XIX.

NOw it came to pass after this that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindnes to Hanun y son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindnes to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of y children of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him.

3 But y Princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinke'st thou that David doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? Are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spie out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took Davids servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their buttockes and sent them away.

5 Then there went certaine, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them (for the men were greatly ashamed) and the king said, tarry at Iericho until your beards be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David; Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver, to hire them charets and horsmen out of Mesopotamia, & out of Syria, Maachah, and out of Zoba.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand charets, & the king of Maacha, and his people, who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from the cities, and came to battel.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the hoste of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out and put the battel in aray before the gate of y citie, and the kings y were come, were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Ioab saw that y battel was set against him before, & behinde, he chose out of all the choise of Israel, & put them in aray against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in aray against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, if the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if y children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage and let us behave our selves valiantly for our people, & for y cities of our God: & the Lord do y which is good in his sight.

14 So Ioab and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians unto battel: and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entred into the city. Then Ioab came to Ierusalem.

16 And when the Syrians, saw that they were put to y worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth y Syrians that were beyond the River: and Shophach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer, went before them.

17 And it was told David, and he gathered all Israel, & passed over Iordan, and came upon them, and set the battell in aray against them. So when David had put the battell in aray against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel, and David slew of the Syrians seuen thousand men which fought in charets, and fourty thousand footmen, & killed Shophach the captaine of the hoste.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to y worse before Israel, they made peace with David & became his servants: neither would the Syrians helpe the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XX.

1 And it came to passe, that after y yeere was expired, at the time that kings go out to battell, Ioab led forth the power of the armie, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (but David tarried at Ierusalem) and Ioab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crowne of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it, & it was set upon Davids head: and he brought also exceeding much spoyl out of the citie.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, & with harrowes of yron, and so axes: even so dealt David with all the cities of y children of Ammon. And David & all the people returned to Ierusalem.

4 And it came to pass after this that there arose war at Gezer with y Philistines at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the gyant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines, & Elhanan y son of Iair, slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose speare staffe was like a weavers beame.

6 And yet againe there was warre at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers & toes were four and twenty, sixe on each hand, and sixe on each foote: And he also was the son of the gyant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Ionathan the son of Shimea, Davids brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the gyant in Gath, and they fel by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAP. XXI.

1 And Satan stood up against Israel, & provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Ioab, and to y rulers of y people, Go number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan: & bring y number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Ioab answered, The Lord make his people an hundred times so many mo as they be: but my lord y king are they not all my lords servants: why the doeth my lord require this thing: why will he be a cause of trespasse to Israel?

4 Neverthelesse, the kings word prevailed against Ioab: wherefore Ioab departed, and went thorow out all Israel, and came to Ierusalem.

5 And Ioab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David: and all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Iudah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Beniamin counted he not among them; for the kings word was abominable to Ioab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing, therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing, but now I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant, for I have don very foolishly.

9 And the Lord spake unto Gad, Davids Seer, saying,

10 Go and tel David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things, chuse thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, & said to him, Thus saith y Lord, Chuse thee,

12 Either three yeers famine, or three moneths to be destroyed before thy foes, (while that the sword of thine enemies ouertaketh thee) or else three dayes the sword of the Lord, even the pestilence in the land, and the Angel of the Lord destroying throughout all the coast of Israel. Now therefore aduise thy self what word I shal bring againe to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait. Let me tal now into the hand of the Lord, (for very great are his mercies) but let me not fal into the hand of man.

14 So the Lord sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fel of Israel, seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an Angel to Ierusalem to destroy it: & as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thy hand. And the Angel of the Lord stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Iebusite.

16 And David lift up his eyes, & saw the Angel of the Lord stand betweene the earth and the heaven, having a drawne sword in his hand stretched out over Ierusalem. Then David and the Elders of Israel who were clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

17 And David said to God, Is it not I that commanded y people to be numbred? even I it is that have sinned, and don evil indeed, but as for these sheep

what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, O Lord my God, be on me, & on my fathers house, but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Then the Angel of y LORD commanded Gad to say to David, y David should go up, and set up an Altar unto the LORD, in the threshing floor of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the Name of the LORD.

20 And Ornan turned back, and saw the Angel: and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said unto Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an Altar thereon unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said to David, Take it to thee, & let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes. Lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offrings, & the threshing instruments for wood, & the wheat for y meat offring. I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay, but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for y place, six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offred burnt offrings, & peace-offrings, & called on y Lord, and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the Altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the Angel: and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Iebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 For the Tabernacle of the LORD which Moses made in the wilderness & the altar of the burnt-offring were at that season in y high place at Gibeon.

30 But David could not go before to enquire of God: for he was afraid, because of the sword of the Angel of the LORD.

CHAP. XXII.

THen David said, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offring for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel: & he set masons to hew wrought stons to build y hous of God

3 And David prepared ston in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joynings, and brasse the land it subdued before the LORD, in abundance without weight.

4 Also Cedar-trees in abundance: for the Zidonians, & they of Tyre brought much Cedar-wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, & the house that is to be built for the LORD, must be exceeding magnifical, of fame & of glory throughout all countreys: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son, & charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the Name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house to my Name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold a son shall be born unto thee, who shall be a man of rest: and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietnesse unto Israel in his days.

10 He shall build an house for my Name, & he shall be my son, & I will be his Father & I will establish y throne of his kingdome over Israel for ever.

11 Now my son, the LORD be with thee, and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom & understanding, & give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayst keep the Law of the Lord thy God.

13 Then thou shalt prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the Statutes, and Iudgments which the LORD charged Moses with, concerning Israel: be strong and of good courage, dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD, an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brasse and yron without weight: (for it is in abundance) timber also and stone have I prepared, and thou mayest adde thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers & workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

17 David also commanded all the Princes of Israel, to helpe Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into my hand: and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now set your heart, and your soul, to seek the Lord your God: arise therefore, and build ye the Sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the Arke of the Covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the Name of the LORD.

CHAP. XXIII.

SO when David was old, and full of dayes, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the Princes of Israel, with the Priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbred from the age of thirty yeers and upward: and their number by their polles, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the Lord; and five thousand were officers and Judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised y Lord with the instruments which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

6 And David divided them into Courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershom, Kohath and Merari.

7 Of the Gershomites were Laadan, and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan the chiefe was Iehiel, and Zetham, and Ioel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei, Shelomith, & Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chiefe of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were: Iahath, Zina, and Ieush, & Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Iahath was the chiefe, and Zaath the second: but Ieush and Beriah had not many sons, therfore they were one reckoning according to their fathers house.

12 The sons of Cohath: Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Vzziel, four.

13 The sons of Amram, Aaron, & Moses, and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctifie the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burne incense before the Lord to minister unto him, and to blesse in his Name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were: Gershom and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chiefe.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons but daughters, and their brethren the sons of Kish took them.

23 The sons of Mushi, Mahli, and Eder, and Ieremoth, three.

24 These were the sons of Levi, after the house of their fathers, even the chiefe of y fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the worke for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty yeers and upward.

25 For David, said, The Lord God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, y they may dwel in Ierusalem for ever.

26 And also unto the Levites: they shal no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service ther of.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were numbred from twenty yeers old and above:

28 Because their office was to waite on the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of the Lord, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of al holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God:

29 Both for the shewbread, and for y fine flowre for meat offring, and for y unleavened cakes, & for y w is baked in the panne, and for that which is fryed, & for al maner of measures & size.

30 And to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at even.

31 And to offer al burnt sacrifices to the Lord in the Sabbaths, in the new Moones, and on the set feasts by number, according to y order commanded unto them continually before y Lord:

32 And that they should keep y charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and y charge of the holy place, & the charge of y sons of Aaro their brethre in the service of y house of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIIII.

NOw these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, & Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children, therfore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the Priests Office.

3 And David distributed them; both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, & Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their office in their service.

4 And there were more chiefe men found of the sons of Eleazar, then of the sons of Ithamar: and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteene chiefe men of y house of their fathers, & eight among the sons of Ithamar, according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, on sort with another: for the governours of the Sanctuary, and governours of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nathanel the Scribe, one of y Levites, wrote hem

then in before the king and the Princes, and Zadok the Priest, and Ahimelech y son of Abiathar, and before the chiefe men of the fathers of the Priests & Levites: one principall household, being taken for Eleazar, & one taken for Ithamar.

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground, was Ezri the son of Chelub.

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars was Zabdi the Ziphmite.

28 And over the Olive-trees, and Sycamore trees that were in the low Plains, was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Ioash.

29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shetrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai.

30 Over the camels also was Obil the Ismaelite: and over the asses was Iehedeiah the Meronothite.

31 And over the flocks was Iaziz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Ionathan Davids uncle was a counseller, a wise man, and a Scribe: and Iehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the kings sons.

33 And Ahitophel was the kings counseller, and Hushai the Arkite was the kings companion.

34 And after Ahitophel was Iehoiada the son of Benaiah and Abiathar: and the Generall of ỹ kings army was Ioab.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND David assembled all the Princes of Israel, the Princes of the tribes, & the captains of the companies that ministred to the king by course: & the captains of every thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the Stewards over all the substance and possession of the king and of his sons, with the officers, & with the mighty men, & with all ỹ valiant men unto Ierusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, Hear me my brethren and my people. As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and for the foot-stool of our God, & had made ready for ỹ building

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my Name, because thou hast been a man of warres, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be y ruler; & of the house of Judah, y house of my father: & among y sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons) he hath chosen Salomon my son, to sit upon y throne of y kingdom of the LORD, over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, Solomon the son he shall build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandements, and my Judgements, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel y Congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the Commandements of the LORD your God, that you may possesse this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him w a perfect heart, and with a willing minde: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all y imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if y forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now, for the LORD hath chosen thee, to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlets thereof, and of the place of the mercy-seat.

12 And the pattern of all y he had by the Spirit, of the courts of y house of the LORD, of all y chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God: & of y treasuries of y dedicate things:

13 Also for y courses of y priests & the Levites, & for all y work of the service of y house of y LORD, & for all y vessels of service in y house of y LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for y vessels of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service: silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all manner of service:

15 Even the weight for y candlesticks of gold, & for their lamps of gold: by weight for every Candlestick, & for y with the candlesticks thereof, and for the Candlesticks of silver by weight, both for y Candlesticks, & also for the lamps thereof, according to y use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for y tables of Shewbread for every Table, likewise silver for y tables of silver.

17 Also pure gold for y fleshhooks, and the bowles and the cups: and for the golden basins, he gave gold by weight for every basin; and likewise silver by weight for every basin of silver.

18 And for the Altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chare of the Cherubims that spread out their wings, and covered y ark of y Covenant of the LORD.

19 All this (said David) y LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me; even all y works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, & do it: fear not, nor be dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God, will be w thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until y hast finish'd all the work for the service of y house of y LORD.

21 And behold, the courses of the Priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God, and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing man, skilful for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandement.

CHAP. XXIX.

FVrthermore, David the king said unto all the Congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God, y gold for things to be made of gold, y silver for things of silver, and the brasse for things of brasse, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood, Onix stones, and stones to be set, glittering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper goods, of gold, and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for y holy house:

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withall:

5 The gold for things of gold, & y silver for things of silver: & for all manner of work to be made by y hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day to y LORD?

6 Then the chief of the fathers and Princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, with the rulers over the kings work,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold five thousand talents, and ten thousand drammes: and of silver, ten thousand talents, and of brasse, eighteen thousand talents, and Davids thank-giving.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found, gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Iehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoyced for that they offered willingly: because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoyced with great joy.

10 Wherfore David blessed ȳ LORD before all the Congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel, our father, for ever and ever.

11 Thine, O LORD, is ȳ greatnesse, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all ȳ is in the heaven and in the earth, is thine: thine is the kingdome, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all, and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore our God we thank thee, and praise thy glorious Name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our dayes on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thy holy Name, commeth of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou tryest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightnesse. As for me, in the uprightnes of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen ẅ ȳ people ẅate present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee.

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart to keep thy Commandements, thy testimonies, thy statutes, to do all these things, & to build ȳ palace, for the ẅ I have made provision.

20 And David said to all the Congregation: Now bless the LORD your God. And all the Congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD, on that day with great gladnesse, and they made Solomon the son of David king, the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be chief governour, & Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sate on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royall majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

25 Thus David the son of Iesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the time that he reigned over Israel, was fourty yeers. Seven yeers reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three yeers reigned he in Ierusalem.

28 And he dyed in a good old age, full of dayes, riches and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the Seer, and in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the book of Gad the Seer,

30 With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countreys.

The second Book of the CHRONICLES.

CHAP. I.

AND Solomon the son of David was strengthned in his kingdome, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake to all Israel, to the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, & to ȳ Iudges, & to every Governour in all Israel, ȳ chief of ȳ fathers.

3 So Solomon, & all ȳ Congregation ẅ him went to ȳ high place ẅas at Gibeon, for there was ȳ tabernacle of ȳ congregation of God, ẅ Moses ȳ servant of ȳ Lord had made in ȳ wildernesse.

4 But the Ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim, to the place ẅ David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Ierusalem.

5 Moreover, the brasen altar that Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur had made, he put before the Tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the Congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 In that night did God appear unto Solo-

Solomon, and said, unto him; aske what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead:

9 Now, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people, like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisedome and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can judge thy people that is so great?

11 And God said unto Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, & thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life, but hast asked wisedome & knowledge for thy self, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisedome & knowledge is granted unto thee, and I will give thee riches and wealth and honour, such as none of the kings have had, that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 Then Solomō came from his journey to y high place y was at Gibeō to Jerusalem, from before the Tabernacle of y congregatiō, & reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered charets, & horsemen: & he had a thousand & four hundred charets, and twelve thousand horsemen, & he placed in the charet cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king made silver & gold at Jerusalem, as plenteous as stones, & Cedar trees made he as the Sycamore trees that are in y vale, for abundance.

16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linnen yarn: the kings merchants received the linnen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetcht up, and brought forth out of Egypt, a charet for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred & fifty: and so brought they out horses for all y kings of y Hittites & for y kings of Syria by their means.

CHAP. II.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the Name of the LORD, & an house for his kingdome.

2 And Solomon told out three score and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and four score thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him Cedars to build him a house to dwel therin, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the Name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continuall shew bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the new Moons, & on y solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And y house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build him an house, seeing y heave & heave of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, y I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therfore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, & in brasse, and in iron, and in purple, & crimson, and blew, and that can skill to grave, with the cunning men that are with me in Judah, and in Jerusalē, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also Cedar trees, Fir trees, and Algume trees out of Lebanon. (for I know that thy servants can skil to cut timber in Lebanon) and behold, my servants shall be with thy servants,

9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build, shalbe wonderful great.

10 And behold, I will give to thy servants the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, & twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand bathes of oil.

11 Then Huram the king of Tyre, answered in writing, which he sent unto Solomon: Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Huram said moreover; Blessed be the LORD God of Israel that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdome.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man (endued with understanding) of Huram my fathers;

14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilfull to work in gold, and in silver, in brasse, in iron, in stone, & in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, & in crimson, also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, & with y cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore, the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants.

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon as much as thou shalt need, and we will bring it to thee in floates by Sea to Joppa, and thou shalt carie it up to Jerusalem.

17 And Solomon numbred all the strangers that were in the land of Israel after the numbring wherewith David his father had numbred them: and they were found an hundred & fifty thousand, & three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set three score and ten thousand of the to be bearers of burdēs, & fourscore thousand to be hewers in y mountain, & three thousand & six hundred ouerseers to set y people a work.

CHAP. III.

THen Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Ierusalem in mount Moriah, where y Lord appeared vnto David his father in the place that David had prepared in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite.

2 And he began to build in the seconday of the second moneth, in the fourth yeer of his reigne.

3 Now these are the things where in Solom̃ was instructed for the building of y house of God. The length by cubites, after y first measure, was three-score cubits, & y breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the porch that was in the front of y house, y length of it was according to y breadth of y house, twenty cubits & y hight was an hundred & twenty, and he overlaid it within w pure gold.

5 And the greater house he sieled with fir-tree, which he overlaid w fine gold, and set thereon palm trees, & chaines.

6 And he garnished the house with precious stons for beauty, and the gold was gold of Paruaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts and the walles therof, and the doors therof with gold, and graued Cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits and the breadth therof twenty cubits, and hee overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to sixe hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nailes was fifty shekels of gold: and he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy place he made two Cherubims of image worke, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the wings of the Cherubims were twenty cubites long, one wing of the one Cherub was five cubites, reaching to the wal of the house, and the other wing was likewise five cubites, reaching to y wing of y other Cherub.

12 And one wing of the other Cherub was five cubites, reaching to the wal of the house: and the other wing was five cubites also, ioyning to the wing of the other Cherub.

13 The wings of these Cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubites, and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

14 And he made the vaile of blue and purple and crimson, and fine linnen, and wrought Cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two pillars of fourty & five cubites high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubites.

16 And he made chaines, as in the Oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars, & made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chaines.

17 And he reared up y pillars before y Temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left, and called y name of that on the right hand, Iachin, and the name of that on the left, Boaz.

CHAP. IIII.

MOreover, he made an Altar of brasse, twenty cubites the length therof, and twenty cubites y breadth therof, & ten cubites the height therof.

2 Also he mad a molten Sea of ten cubites, from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubites the height therof, and a line of thirty cubits did compasse it round about.

3 And vnder it was the similitude of oxen, which did compasse it round about: ten in a cubite compassing the Sea round about. Two rowes of oxen were cast when it was cast.

4 It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the North, and three looking toward the West, & three looking toward y south, & three looked toward y east, & y sea was set aboue on them, & all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an hand breadth, & the brim of it like y worke of the brim of a cup, w flowres of Lilies: and it receiued and held three thousand Bathes.

6 He made also the Lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering, they washed in them: but the Sea was for the Priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten Candlesticks of gold, according to their forme, and set them in the Temple, five on the right hand and five on the left.

8 He made also ten Tables, & placed them in the Temple, five on the right side, and five on the left, and he made an hundred basins of gold.

9 Furthermore, he made the Court of the Priests, and the great Court, and doors for the Court, and overlaid the doors of them with brasse.

10 And he set the sea on the right side of the East end ouer against the South.

11 And Huram made the pots, and the shouels, & the basins. & Huram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God.

12 To wit, the two pillars, and pomels, and the chapiters which were on the top of y two pillars, and the two wreathes to cover the two pomels of y chapiters, w were on y top of y pillars:

13 And foure hundred pomegranates on the two wreathes: two rowes of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pomels of the chapiters, which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also bases, and lauers made he upon the bases.

15 One Sea, and twelve oxen vnder it.

16 The pots also, and the shouels, and the flesh-hookes, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the Lord of bright brasse.

17 In the plain of Iordan did the king cast cast them, in the clay ground, betwixt Succoth and Zeredathah.

17 Thus Solomō made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brasse could not be found out.

18 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also & the Tables where-on the Shew-bread was set.

19 Moreover the candlesticks & their lamps that they should burn after the manner before the Oracle of pure gold.

20 And the flowers, and the lampes, and the tongs made he of gold, and that perfect gold.

21 And the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons and the censers of pure gold. And the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most Holy place, And the doors of the house of the Temple were of gold.

CHAP. V.

THus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the Lord was finished, and Solomon brought in all y things that David his father had dedicated, and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the Elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the rulers of the fathers of the children of Israel to Jerusalem, to bring vp the Ark of y covenant of the LORD, out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king in the feast which was in the seventh moneth.

4 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the Arke.

5 And they brought up the Arke, and the Tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in y tabernacle, these did the Priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him before the Arke, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told, nor numbred for multitude.

7 And the Priests brought in the Ark of the covenant of the Lord vnto his place to the Oracle of the house into the most Holy place, even under the wings of the Cherubims:

8 For the Cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims covered the Arke, and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the Arke, that the ends of the staves were seene from the Arke before the Oracle, but they were not seen without. And there it is vnto this day.

10 There was nothing in the Arke, save the two Tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the LORD made a Covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place (for all the Priests that were present, were sanctified, & did not then wait by courses

12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons, and their brethren, being arayed in white linnen having cymbals, and psalteries, and harpes, stood at the East end of y altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpetters & singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lift up their voyce with the trumpets & cymbals, and instruments of musick, & praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever, that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD.

14 So that the Priests could not stand to minister, by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

CHAP. VI.

THen said Solomon, The Lord hath said that he would dwel in the thicke darknes.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, & blessed y whole congregation of Israel, & all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, y my Name might be there, neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my Name might be there, & have chose David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father, to build an house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my Name, y didest well in y it was in thine heart.

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house, but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loines, he shall build the house for my Name.

10 The Lord therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken, for I am risen up in the room of David my father, & am set on y throne of Israel, as y Lord promised, & have built y house for y Name of the Lord God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the Ark, wherein is the Covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 And he stood before the Altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands.

13 (For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold of five cubits long, & five cubires bits broad, & three cubits high, & had set it in the midst of the court, & on it he stood, & kneeled down on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, & spread forth his hands toward heaven)

13 And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven nor in the earth, which keepest covenant, & shewest mercy to thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts.

14 Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father, that which thou hast promised him, and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

15 Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight, to sit upon y throne of Israel: yet so, that thy children take heed to their way, to walk in my Law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O Lord God of Israel let thy word be verified which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven & the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built?)

19 Have respect therfore to the prayer of thy servant, & to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee;

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day & night, upon the place where of thou hast said that y wouldest put thy Name there, to hearken to the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place.

21 Hearken therfore unto the supplications of thy servant, & of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place: heare thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven: and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him sware, and the oath come before thine Altar in this house:

23 Then heare thou from heaven, & do, and judge thy servant by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his owne head: and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousnes.

24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, & shall return & confesse thy Name, & pray & make supplication before thee in this house:

25 Then heare thou from the heavens and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, & bring them again to the land w̄ y gavest to them, and to their fathers.

26 When the heaven is shut up, & there is no raine, because they have sinned against thee: yet if they pray towards this place, & confesse thy Name, & turn from their sin, when y dost afflict the:

27 Then heare thou from heaven, & forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when y hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walke, and send raine upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, or locusts, or caterpillars: if their enemies besege them in the cities of their land: whatsoever sore, or whatsoever sickenesse there be:

29 Then what prayer, or what supplication soever it albe made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shal know his owne sore, and his owne griefe, and shal spread forth his hands in this house:

30 Then heare thou from heaven thy dwelling place, & forgive, and render to every man according to all his wayes, whose heart thou knowest (for y only knowest y harts of y children of men)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy wayes, so long as they live in the land, which thou gavest to our fathers.

32 Moreover, concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great Names sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arme: if they come and pray in this house:

33 Then heare thou from the heaven even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all y stranger calleth to thee for: y all people of the earth may know thy Name, & fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, & may know y this house w̄ I have built, is called by thy Name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies, by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee towards this city, whom hast chosen, & the house w̄ I have built for thy Name:

35 Then heare thou from the heaven their prayer and their supplication, & maintaine their cause.

36 If they sin against thee (for there is no man which sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off, or neer.

37 Yet if they bethinke themselves in the land, whither they are carried captive, & turn, & pray to thee in y land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amisse, & have dealt wickedly:

38 If they return to thee with all their heart, and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have caried them captives, & pray towards their land which thou gavest to their fathers, & toward the citie which thou hast chosen, & toward the house which I have built for thy Name:

39 Then heare thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintaine their cause, and forgive thy people w̄ have sinned against thee,

40 Now

Solomons offerings.

as those my God, let I beseech thee) thine eye be open, and let thine eares be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

15 Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the Ark of thy strength: let thy Priests O LORD God, be cloathed with salvation, let thy Saints rejoyce in goodness.

16 O LORD God, turne not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAP. VII.

1 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering, and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the Priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORDS house.

3 And all the children of Israel saw when the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house: they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For hee is good, for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the Priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musicke of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry: and the Priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen Altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven daies, and all Israel with him: a very great Congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, unto the river of Egypt.

9 And on the eight day they made a solemne assembly: for they kept the dedication of the Altar seven dayes, and the feast seven dayes.

10 And on the three & twentieth day of the seventh moneth, he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart, for the goodnesse that the LORD had shewed to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the kings house: and all that came into Solomons heart to make in the house of the LORD, & in his own house he prosperously effected.

12 And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard thy prayer, & have chosen this place to my selfe for an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up heaven that there bee no raine, or if I command the Locusts to deuoure the land, or if I send pestilence among my people.

14 If my People which are called by my Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seeke my face, and turne from their wicked waies, then will I heare from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heale their land.

15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and my eares attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have I chosen, and sanctified this house, that my Name may be there for ever, and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and doe according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgements:

18 Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But if ye turne away, & forsake my Statutes & my Commandements which I have set before you and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them:

20 Then will I plucke them up by the rootes out of my land which I have given them, & this house which I have sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, & will make it to be a proverb, & a by-word among all nations.

21 And this house which is high shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it, so that hee shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: Therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAP. VIII.

1 And it came to passe (at the end of twenty yeeres wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his owne house.)

2 That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwel there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And hee built Tadmor in the wildernesse, and all the store cities which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and barres:

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all y Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel:

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not: them did Solomon make to pay tribute unto this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work, but they were men of war, and chiefe rulers of his captains, and captaines of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chiefe of king Solomons officers, even two hundred and fifty that bare rule over the people.

11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because places are holy where unto the Arke of the Lord hath come.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the Altar of the LORD, whe had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certaine rate every day offering according to the commandement of Moses, on the Sabbaths, & on the new Moons, and on the solemn Feasts, three times in the yeere, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of Weeks, and in the feast of Tabernacles.

14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the Priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the Priests, as the duty of every day required: the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandement of the king unto the Priests and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treasuries.

16 Now all the worke of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished: so the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 Then went Solomon to Ezion-Geber, and to Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence three hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

CAP. IX.

AND when the Queene of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company & camels that bare spices, & gold in abundance, and precious stones: & when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the Queene of Sheba had seene the wisedome of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, & the sitting of his servants, & the attendance of his ministers, & their apparell, his cupbearers also, & their apparel, & his ascent by which he went up into the house of the Lord: there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in my own land of thine acts, and of thy wisedome.

6 Howbeit, I believed not their words until I came, & mine eyes had seene it: and behold, the one half of the greatnesse of thy wisedom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, & happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisedome.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to doe iudgement & iustice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred & twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the Queene of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought Algum trees, and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the Algum trees terraces to the house of the Lord, & to the kings palace, & Harps, & Psalteries for singers: and there were none such seene before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the Queene of Sheba, all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which she brought unto the king: so she turned, and went away to her own land, she, and her servants.

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one yeere, was six hundred & threescore & six talents of gold.

14 Besides that which chapmen and marchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia, & governours of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: two hundred sickels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made of beaten gold, three hundred sickels of gold went to one shield: & king put them in the house of the forrest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover, the king made a great throne of Ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stayes on each side of the sitting place, and two lyons standing by the stayes.

19 And twelve lyons stood there on the one like vnto the other, vpon the backers. There was not the like made in any kingdome.

21 And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forrest of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of siluer: it was not any thing accounted of in the dayes of Solomon.

22 For the kings ships went to Tarshish with the seruants of Hiram: euery three yeere once came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold and siluer, Ivory and apes and peacockes.

23 And king Solomon passed all the kings of earth in riches & wisedome.

24 And all y kings of y earth sought y presence of Solomon, to heare his wisedome, that God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harnesse, & spices, horses and mules, a rate yeere by yeere.

26 And Solomon had foure thousand stalls for horses and charets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet-cities, and with the king at Ierusalem.

27 And he reigned ouer all the kings from the riuer, euen to the land of the Philistims, and to the border of Egypt.

28 And he king made siluer in Ierusalem as stones, and Cedar trees made he as the Sycamore trees, that are in the low plaines in abundance.

29 And they brought to Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

30 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the booke of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecie of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo y Seer, against Ieroboam y son of Nebat?

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of Dauid his father, and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. X.

1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to passe, when Ieroboam the son of Nebat (who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Ieroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Ieroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grieuous, now therefore ease thou somewhat the grieuous seruitude of thy father, and his heauy yoke that he put vpon us, and we will serue thee.

5 And he said vnto them, Come again of me after three dayes. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam tooke counsel with y old men that had stood before Solomon his father, while he yet liued, saying, What counsel geue ye me to returne answere vnto this people.

7 And they spake vnto him saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them and speake good words to them, they will be thy seruants for ever.

8 But hee forsooke the counsel which the old men gaue him, and tooke counsel with y young men y were brought vp with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said vnto them, What aduice geue ye, that we may returne answer to this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, ease some what the yoke that thy father did put vpon vs?

10 And the young men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answere the people that spake vnto thee, saying, thy father made our yoke heauy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for vs, thus shalt thou say to them, my little finger shall be thicker then my fathers loynes.

11 For whereas my father put an heauy yoke vpon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again vnto me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly, and king Rehoboam forsooke the counsel of the old men.

14 And answered them after the aduice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heauy, but I will adde thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not vnto the people, for the cause was of God, y the Lord might perfourme his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite, to Ieroboam y son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken vnto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion haue we in Dauid? and we haue none inheritance in the son of Iesse: euery man to your tents O Israel, and now Dauid, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Iudah, Rehoboam reigned ouer them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was ouer the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, y he died: but king Rehoboam made speed to get him vp to his charet to flee to Ierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of Dauid vnto this day.

CHAP. XI.

1 AND when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he gathered of the house of Iudah and Beniamin, an hundred and fourescore thousand chosen men which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speake unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Iudah, and to all Israel in Iudah and Beniamin, saying,
4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: returne every man to his house; for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Ieroboam.
5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Ierusalem, and built cities for defence in Iudah.
6 He built even Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,
7 And Bethzur, & Shoko, & Adullam,
8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,
9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,
10 And Zorah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which are in Iudah, and in Beniamin, fenced cities.
11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captaines in them, and store of victual, and of oyle, and wine.
12 And in every several city he put shields and speares, and made them exceeding strong, having Iudah and Beniamin on his side.
13 And the Priests and the Levites that were in all Israel, resorted to him out of all their coasts.
14 For the Levites left their suburbes and their possession, and came to Iudah and Ierusalem: for Ieroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the Priests office unto the LORD.
15 And hee ordained him Priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made.
16 And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Ierusalem to sacrifice unto the Lord God of their Fathers.
17 So they strengthened the kingdome of Iudah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three yeers: for three yeers, they walked in the way of David and Solomon.
18 And Rehoboam tooke him Mahalath the daugher of Ierimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Iesse:
19 Which bare him children, Ieush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.
20 And after her, he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom, & bare him Abijah, & Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.
21 And Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom, above all his wives and his concubines: for he tooke eighteene wives and threescore concubines, & begat twenty and eight sons and threescore daughters.
22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the sonne of Maacah the chiefe to be ruler among his brethren: for he throught to make him king.
23 And he dealt wisely, & dispersed of all his children throw out all the countreys of Iudah and Beniamin, to every fenced city: and he gave them victuall in abundance: & he desired many wives

CHAP. XII.

AND it came to passe, when Rehoboam had established y kingdome, & had strengthened himselfe he forsooke the Law of y LORD, & all Israel with him.
2 And it came to passe that in the fifth yere of Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Ierusalem, (because they had transgressed against y LORD)
3 With twelve hundred charets, and threescore thousand horsmen: & y people were without number that came with him out of Egypt: the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.
4 And he tooke the fenced cities which pertained to Iudah, & came to Ierusalem.
5 Then came Shemaiah the Prophet to Rehoboam, & to y Princes of Iudah that were gathered together to Ierusalem, because of Shishak, and said unto them. Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.
6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves, and they said, The LORD is righteous.
7 And when y LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be powred out upon Ierusalem by the hand of Shishak.
8 Neverthelesse, they shall be his servants, y they may know my services, & y service of y kingdomes of the countreys.
9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Ierusalem, and tooke away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the kings house: he tooke all: he caried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.
10 In stead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brasse, and committed them to y hands of y chiefe of y guard, y kept y entrance of the kings house.
11 And when the king entred into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fet them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.
12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: & also in Iudah things went well.
13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himselfe in Ierusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and fourty yeers old when he began to reigne, and he reigned seventeene yeeres in Ierusalem, the citie which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his Name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonitesse.
14 And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seeke the LORD.
15 Now the actes of Rehoboam first and last, are they not written in the booke of Shemaiah the Prophet, and of Iddo the Seer, concerning genealogies? And there were warres betweene Rehoboam & Ieroboam continually.
16 And

And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of David, & Abiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

1 In the eighteenth yeer of king Jeroboam, began Abiah to reigne ouer Iudah.

2 He reigned three yeers in Ierusalem. (his mothers name also was Michaiah the daughter of Vriel of Gibea:) and there was war between Abiah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abiah set the battel in aray with an army of valiant men of warre, euen foure hundred thousand chosen men: Ieroboam also set ỹ battel in aray against him, with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 And Abiah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Heare me Ieroboam, & all Israel:

5 Ought ye not to know, that ỹ Lord God of Israel gaue the kingdome ouer Israel to David for ever, euen to him and to his sonsby a couenant of salt?

6 Yet Ieroboam the son of Nebat, the seruant of Solomon the son of David, arose up, and hath rebelled against his LORD.

7 And there are gathered vnto him vaine men, the children of Belial, and haue strengthened themselues against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was yong, and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye thinke to withstand ỹ kingdome of the Lord, in ỹ hand of ỹ sons of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, & there are ỹ golden calues which Ieroboam made you for gods.

9 Haue not ye cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Leuites, and haue made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoeuer commeth to consecrate himself with a young bullocke, and seuen rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we haue not forsaken him, and the priests which minister vnto the Lord are the sons of Aaron, and the Leuites wait vpon their busines.

11 And they burn vnto the Lord euery morning, and euery euening, burnt sacrifices, and sweet incense: the shewbread also set they in order vpon the pure table, and the candlestick of gold, with the lamps therof, to burn euery euening: for we kẽp the charge of the Lord our God, but ye haue forsaken him.

12 And behold, God himself is with vs for our captaine, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarme against you: O children of Israel, fight ye not against the Lord God of your fathers, for you shal not prosper.

13 But Ieroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Iudah, & the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Iudah looked back, behold, the battel was before and behind: and they cryed vnto the Lord, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Iudah gaue a shout: & as themen of Iudah shouted, it came to pass that God smote Ieroboam and all Israel, before Abiah and Iudah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Iudah: & God deliuered them into their hand.

17 And Abiah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell downe slaine of Israel fiue hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought vnder at ỹ time, & ỹ children of Iudah preuailed, because they relied vpon the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Abiah pursued after Ieroboam, & took cities from him: Bethel with the townes therof, and Iesharah with the towns therof, and Ephraim with the townes thereof.

20 Neither did Ieroboam recouer strength againe in the dayes of Abiah & the Lord strook him, and he died.

21 And Abijah waxed mightie, & married fourteen wiues, and begate twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the actes of Abiah and his waies, & his sayings, are written in the story of the Prophet Iddo.

CHAP. XIIII.

SO Abiah slept with his fathers and they buried him in ỹ citie of Dauid, & Asa his son reigned in his stead: in his dayes the land was quiet ten yeers.

2 And Asa did that which was good & right in the eyes of the Lord his God.

3 For he tooke away the Altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake downe the images, & cut downe the groues.

4 And commanded Iudah to seeke ỹ LORD God of their fathers, and to do the Law, and the Commandement.

5 Also hee tooke away out of all the cities of Iudah, the high places, & images, & ỹ kingdom was quiet before him.

6 And he built fenced cities in Iudah, for the land had rest, and he had no warre in those yeers, because the Lord had giuen him rest.

7 Therefore he said vnto Iudah, Let vs build these cities, and make about them walls and towres, gates and bars, while ỹ land is yet before vs: because we haue sought ỹ Lord our God: we haue sought him, and he hath giuen vs rest on euery side. So they built, & prospered.

8 And Asa had an armie of men that bare targets, and speares, out of Iudah three hundred thousand, and out of Beniamin, ỹ bare shields, & drew bowes, two hundred & fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an hoste of thousand thousand, and three hundred charets, and came vnto Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battel in aray in the the valley of Zephatah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cryed unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on thee, and in thy Name we go against this multitude: O LORD, thou art our God, let not man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Iudah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa, and the people that were with him, pursued them unto Gerar, and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves, for they were destroyed before the Lord, and before his host, and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all y cities round about Gerar, for y fear of y LORD came upon them, & they spoiled all cities, for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattel, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Ierusalē.

CHAP. XV.

AND the spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Obed.

2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me Asa, and all of Iudah and Benjamin, The LORD is with you, while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you: but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel & sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all y inhabitants of y countreys.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and citie of city: for God did vex them with all adversities.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecie of Obed the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Iudah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, y was before y porch of y LORD.

9 And he gathered all Iudah and Benjamin and the strangers with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseth, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance: when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Ierusalem in y third month, in y fifteenth yeer of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time of the spoil which they had brought seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entred into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart, & with all their soul.

13 That whosoever would not seek the Lord God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the Lord with a loud voyce, and shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Iudah rejoyced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, & sought him with their whole desire, and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them rest round about.

16 And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the King, he removed her from being Queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his dayes.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth yeere of the reign of Asa.

CHAP. XVI.

IN the six and thirtieth yeer of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Iudah, & built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come into Asa king of Iudah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the kings house, and sent to Benhadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and my father: behold, I have sent unto you gold, go break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, y he may depart from me.

4 And Benhadad hearkned unto king Asa, and sent the captaines of his hosts against the cities of Israel: and they smote Iion, and Dan, and Abelmaim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his worke cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Iudah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building, and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 And at that time Hanani the Seer came to Asa king of Iudah, & said to him, Because thou hast relyed on y king of Syria, and not relyed on y LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims, a huge hoste, with very many charets and horsemen? yet because thou didst relie on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah, had made him horns of iron, & said, Thus saith ỹ LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria til they be consumed.

11 And al the Prophets prophesied so, saying, Goe up to Ramoth-Gilead, and prospet, for the LORD shal deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to cal Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the Prophets declare good to the king with one assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that wil I speake.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-Gilead to battel, or shal I forbeare? And he said, Go ye up and prosper, and they shal be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said unto him, How many times shal I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the trueth to me in the Name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see al Israel scattered upon the mountaines, as sheep ỹ have no shepheard: and ỹ Lord said, These have no master, let them return therfore every mã to his house in peace.

17 (And ỹ king of Israel said to Iehoshaphat, Did I not tel thee, ỹ he would not prophesie good unto me, but evil?)

18 Againe, he said, Therefore heare the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and al the hoste of heaven standing on his right hand, and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shal entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may goe up, and fal at Ramoth-Gilead? And one spake, saying after this maner, and another saying after that maner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I wil entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his Prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail, go out and do even so.

22 Now therefore behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy Prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came neer, and smote Micaiah upon the cheeke, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speake unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thy self.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him backe to Amon the governour of the city, and to Ioash the kings son:

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him ỹ bread of affliction, and ỹ water of affliction until I returne in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly returne in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken al ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah went up to Ramoth-Gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Iehoshaphat, I wil disguise my self, and wil go to the battel, but put thou on thy robes. So ỹ king of Israel disguised himself, & they went to the battel.

30 Now ỹ king of Syria had commanded the captaines of the charets that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with smal nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to passe, when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel: therefore they compassed about him to fight: But Iehoshaphat cryed out, and the LORD helped him, and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to passe, that when the captaines of the charets perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned backe again from pursuing him.

33 And a certaine man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ioynts of the harnesse: therefore he said to his charet-man, Turn thine hand that thou mayest carry me out of ỹ hoste, for I am wounded.

34 And the battel increased that day: howbeit, the king of Israel stayed himself ỹe up in his charet against ỹ Syrians until the Even: and about the time of the Sun going downe, he died.

CHAP. XIX.

AND Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah returned to his house in peace to Ierusalem.

2 And Iehu the seer of Hanani the Seer went out to meet him, and said to king Iehoshaphat, Should'st thou helpe the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? Therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Neverthelesse there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thy heart to seeke God.

4 And Iehoshaphat dwelt at Ierusalem, and he went out againe through the people, from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them backe unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 And hee set Iudges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Iudah, city by city,

6 And said to the Iudges, Take heede what ye doe: for ye Iudge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the iudgement.

7 Wherefore, now let the feare of the LORD be upon you, take heed and doe it: for there is no iniquity with

...ance and God. not respect of per...sons nor taking of gifts.

9 Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites & of y Priests, & of y chief of the fathers of Israel, for y judgment of the Lord & for controversies when they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they charged them saying, Thus shall ye deal in the fear of the LORD faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

11 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between Law and Commandement, Statutes & Judgements, ye shall even warn them, that they trespass not against the Lord and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this doe, and ye shall not trespass.

12 And behold, Amariah the chief Priest is over you in all matters of the Lord, and Zebadiah the son of Ismael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the Kings matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and the Lord shall be with the good.

CHAP. XX.

1 It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab and the children of Ammon and with them other besides the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battel.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, there commeth a great multitude against thee from beyond y sea on that side Syria, and behold, they be in Hazezon Tamar, which is Engedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the Congregation of Judah & Jerusalem, in y house of y Lord, before y new Court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our Fathers, Art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, & gavest it to y seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy Name, saying,

9 If when evil commeth upon us, as the sword, judgement, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, & in thy presence (for thy Name is in this house) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now behold, the children of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, & destroyed them not:

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of the possession, which y hast given us to inherite.

12 O our God, will thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that commeth against us: neither know we what to do, but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, y son of Benajah, y son of Jehiel, y son of Mattenniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the spirit of y LORD in y midst of y Congregation:

15 And he said, Hearken ye all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat. Thus saith the Lord to you, be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude: for the battel is not yours, but Gods.

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the clifte of Ziz, and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battel, set your selves, stand ye still, & see the salvation of y LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them, for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to y ground, & all Judah & the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping y Lord.

19 And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites, & of the children of y Korhites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voyce on high.

20 And they rose early in the morning, & went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: & as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood & said Hear me, O Judah, & ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his Prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed Singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the Lord, for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah, and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab, stood up against y inhabitants of mount Seir utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch-tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, & behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat, and his people came to take away the spoyle of bem, they found among them in abundance, both riches with ỹ dead bodies, and precious iewels (which they strip off for them'elves) more then they could carry away: and they were three dayes in gathering of the spoyle, it was so much.

26 And on ỹ fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therfore ỹ name of ỹ same place was called
The valley of Berachah, to this day.

27 Then they returned every man of them, to go againe to the Covenant Iudah & Ierusalem, & Iehosaphat in the forefront of them, to go againe to Ierusalem with joy: for the LORD had made thẽ to rejoyce over their enemies.

28 And they came to Ierusalem with Psalteries, and Harpes, and Trumpets, into the house of the LORD.

29 And the feare of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So ỹ realm of Iehosaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest round about.

31 And Iehosaphat reigned over Iudah: he was thirty and five yeers old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five yeers in Ierusalem:
and his mothers name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in ỹ way of Asa his father, & departed not from it doing ỹ was right in ỹ sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the actes of Iehosa-phat first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Iehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the Kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Iehosaphat king of Iudah joyne himselfe with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

36 And he joyned himselfe with him to make shippes to go to Tarshish: and they made the shippes in Ezion-Geber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodauah of Mareshah, prophesied against Iehosa-phat, saying, Because ỹ hast joyned thy selfe with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works, and the shippes were broken, ỹ they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAP. XXI.

NOw Iehosaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Iehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Ie-hosaphat, Azariah, and Iehiel & Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, & Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Iehosaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great of gifts of silver and of gold, and of precious things, with rensed cities in Iudah: but the kingdom gave he to Iehоram, because he was the first born.

4 Now when Iehoram was risen by and strengthened himselfe, and slew all his brethren with ỹ sword, and diverse also of them'elves:

5 Iehoram was thirty and two yeers old when he began to reign and reigned eight yeers in Ierusalem.

6 And he walked in the wayes of the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evill in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the Covenant which he had made with him, and for as much as he promised to give him a light and to his sons for ever.

8 In his dayes the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Iudah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Iehoram went forth with his Princes, and all his charets with him:
and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in,
and the captaines of the charets.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Iudah unto this day.
The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand, because he had forsaken ỹ LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made high places in the mountaines of Iudah, & caused the inhabitants of Ierusalem to commit fornication, & compelled Iudah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from Eliiah the Prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iehosaphat thy father, nor in the wayes of Asa king of Iudah,

13 But hast walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and hast made Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem to go a whoaring, like to the whoredome of the house of Ahab, & also hast slaine thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better then thy self:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And ỹ shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels til thy bowels fall out by reason of ỹ sickness day by day.

16 Moreover, the LORD stirred up against Iehoram the spirit of the Philistines and of the Arabians that were neere the Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Iudah, & brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, & his wives:
that there was never a sonne left him,
save Iehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this ỹ Lord smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to passe, that in processe of time, after the end of two yeers, his bowels fell out by reason of his sick-nesse, so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 He

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, & he reigned in Ierusalem eight years, and departed without being desired: howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAP. XXII.

1 And the inhabitants of Ierusalem made Ahaziah his yongest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Ieboram king of Iudah reigned.

2 Forty & two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, & he reigned one year in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Athaliah y daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the wayes of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counseller to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evill in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellers after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Ieboram the son of Ahab king of Israel, to warre against Hazael king of Syria, at Ramoth-Gilead, and the Syrians smote Ioram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Iezreel, because of y wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Ieboram, king of Iudah went down to see Iehoram, the son of Ahab at Iezreel, because he was sicke.

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, by comming to Ioram: for when he was come, he went out with Iehoram against Iehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to passe, that when Iehu was executing judgement upon the house of Ahab, and found the Princes of Iudah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministred to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 And he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (for he was hid in Samaria) & brought him to Iehu: & when they had slaine him, they buried him, because, said they, he is the son of Iehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still y kingdom.

10 But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royall of the house of Iudah.

11 But Iehoshabeath the daughter of king Ioram, the sister of Ahaziah, took Ioash the son of Ahaziah, & stole him from among the kings sons that were slain, & put him & his nurse in a bed-chamber. So Iehoshabeath the daughter of king Iehoram, the wife of Iehoiada the Priest (for she was sister of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah, so y she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God, six yeers, and Athaliah did reigne over the land.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 AND in the seventh yeer Iehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captaines of hundreds, Azariah the son of Ieroham, & Ishmael the son of Iehohanan, & Azariah the son of Obed, & Maasiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat y son of Zichri into covenant w him.

2 And they went about in Iudah, and gathered the Levites out of all y cities of Iudah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Ierusalem.

3 And all the Congregation made a Covenant with the king in the house of God: & he said unto them, behold, the kings son shal reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall doe, A third part of you entring on the Sabbath of the Priests and of the Levites, shalbe porters of the doors.

5 And a third part shalbe at y kings house, and a third part at the gate of y foundation: & all the people shalbe in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the Lord, save the Priests, and they that minister of the Levites, they shall go in, for they are holy: but all y people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shal compass y king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and whosoever else commeth into the house, he shal be put to death: but be you w the king when he commeth in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites, and al Iudah did according to all things that Iehoiada the Priest had commanded: and took every man his men that were to come in on the Sabbath, with them that were to go out on the Sabbath: for Iehoiada the Priest dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover Iehoiada the Priest delivered to the captaines of hundreds, speares & buckelers, & shields, y had been king Davids, which were in y house of God.

10 And he set all the people, (every man having his weapon in his hand) from y right side of the Temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar & the Temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the King's son and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Iehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the King: she came to the people into the house of the Lord.

13 And she looked, and behold, the King stood at his pillar at the entring in, and the Princes, and the trumpets by the King: and all the people of the land rejoyced, and sounded with trumpets: also the singers with instruments of musick: and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason.

14 Then Iehoiada the Priest brought out the captaines of hundreds, y were ther over the house, and said unto them, Haue ner forth of the rauges: and who so followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the Priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entring of the horse-gate, by the kings house, they slew her there.

16 And Iehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king that they should be the LORDS people.

17 Then all the people went to y house of Baal, & brake it down, & brake his altars & his images in pieces, & slew Mattany Priest of Baal before y altars.

18 Also Iehoiada appointed the Officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the Priests the Leuites whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offrings to the LORD, as it is written in y Law of Iose, with rejoycing & with singings, as it was ordained by David.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was in vncleane in any thing, should enter in.

20 And he took the captaines of hundreds, and the nobles, and the gouernours of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the kings house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land reioyced: and the citie was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with y sword.

CHAP. XXIIII.

IOash was seuen yeers old when he began to reigne, and he reigned forty yeers in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Zibiah of Beersh. ba.

2 And Ioash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, all the dayes of Iehoiada the Priest.

3 And Iehoiada took for him two wiues, & he begate sons & daughters.

4 And it came to passe after this, that Ioash was minded to repaire the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together y Priests and the Leuites, and said vnto them, Go out vnto the cities of Iudah, & gather of all Israel money to repaire the house of your God from yeer to yeer, and see that yee hast the matter: notwithstanding the Leuites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Iehoiada the chief, & said vnto him, Why hast thou not required of the Leuites to bring in out of Iudah, and out of Ierusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the seruant of the LORD, and of the Congregation of Israel, for the Tabernacle of witnesse?

7 For the sons of Athaliah y wicked woman had broke up y house of God, and also all the dedicate things of the house of y Lord, did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the kings commandement they made a chest, and set it without y gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made a proclamation throw Iudah and Ierusalem, to bring to the LORD the collection that Moses the seruant of God, laid upon Israel in the wildernesse.

10 And all the Princes, & all y people rejoyced, and brought in, and cast the chest, vntill they had made an end.

11 Now it came to passe that at what time the chest was brought vnto the kings office, by the hand of the Leuites: and when they saw that there was much money, y kings scribe & the kings Priests Officer, came and emptied the chest, and tooke it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king, & Iehoiada gaue it to such as did y worke of the seruice of the house of y Lord, & hired masons & carpenters to repaire the house of the Lord, & also such as wrought in iron & brasse to mend the house of the Lord.

13 So the workmen wrought, & the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Iehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withall, and spoones, & vessels of gold and siluer. & they offered burnt offerings in the house of y LORD continually all the dayes of Iehoiada.

15 But Iehoiada waxed old, and was full of dayes when he died: an he died and thirty yeers old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the citie of Dauid among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and towards his house.

17 Now after the death of Iehoiada came the Princes of Iudah, and made obeisance to the king: then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of y Lord God of their fathers, & serued groues and idols: and wrath came vpon Iudah and Ierusalem for this their trespasse.

19 Yet he sent Prophets to them, to bring them again vnto the LORD, & they testified against them: but they would not giue eare.

20 And the spirit of God came vpon Zechariah the sonne of Iehoiada the Priest, which stood aboue the people, and said vnto them, Thus saith God, why transgresse ye the Commandements of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye haue forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandement of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Ioash the king remem-but the kindnesse which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his sons before his eyes: and when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

22 And it came to passe, at the end of the yeare that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

23 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers: so they executed judgement against Joash.

24 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

25 And these are they that conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitesse, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitesse.

26 Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Amaziah was twenty and five yeeres old when he began to reigne, and reigned twenty and nine yeeres in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.

3 Now it came to passe, when the kingdome was stablished to him, that he slew his servants, that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the Law, in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers: but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captaines over thousands, and captaines over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbred them from twenty yeers old and above, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men able to go forth to warre, that could handle speare and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel, for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee: for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battel: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said unto the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive, did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 But the souldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battel, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 Now it came to passe after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, & set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, & he sent unto him a Prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to passe, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, Art thou made of the kings counsel? forbear; why should'st thou be smitten? Then the Prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 Then Amaziah King of Judah took advise, & sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast. Abide now at home, why should'st thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou should'st fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear: for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the cause they sought after ỳ gods of Edom.

21 So Ioash the king of Israel went up & they saw one another in ỳ face, both he & Amaziah king of Iudah at Beth-shemesh, which belong eth to Iudah.

22 And Iudah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Ioash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Iudah, the son of Ioash, the son of Ioahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Ierusalem; and brake downe the wall of Ierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubites.

24 And he took all the gold and the silvers, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, & the treasures of the kings house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah ỳson of Ioash king of Iudah lived after ỳ death of Ioash son of Iehoahaz king of Israel fifteene yeers.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah first & last, loe, are they not written in ỳ book of the kings of Iudah & Israel?

27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turne away from following the Lord, they made a conspiracy against him in Ierusalem, & he fled to Lachish, but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of Iudah.

CHAP. XXVI.

THen all the people of Iudah tooke Vzziah, who was sixteen yeers old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, & restored it to Iudah after that ỳ king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen yeers old was Vzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty & two yeers in Ierusalem. his mothers name also was Iecoliah of Ierusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in ỳ sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the dayes of Zachariah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought ỳ Lord, God made him prosper.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wal of Gath, and the wal of Iabneh, and the wal of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod & among ỳ Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians ỳ dwelt in Gur-baal. & ỳ Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Vzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entring in of Egypt, for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Vzziah built towres in Ierusalem at the corner gate, and at ỳ valley gate, and at the turning of the wal and fortified them.

10 Also he built towres in the desert, and digged many wels, for he had much cattel, both in the low country, and in the plaines: husbandmen also and vinedressers in the mountaines and in Carmel; for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover, Vzziah had an hoste fighting men, that went out to warre by bands, according to the number of their account, by ỳ hand of Ieiel ỳ Scribe & Maasiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the kings captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army of three hundred thousand, and seven thousand & five hundred, that made warre with mighty power to help the king against the enemies.

14 And Vzziah prepared for them throughout all the host, shields & speares, and helmets, and habergeons, and bowes, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Ierusalem ingines, inuented by cunning men to be on the towres, & upon the bulwarkes to shoot arrowes and great stones with all. And his name spread far abroad, for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against ỳ Lord his God, & went into the Temple of the Lord, to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him fourescore Priests of the Lord that were valiant men.

18 And they withstood Vzziah ỳ king, and said unto him, It pertaineth not unto thee, Vzziah, to burne incense to the Lord, but to the Priests, the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burne incense. Goe out of the Sanctuary, for thou hast trespassed, neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord God.

19 Then Vzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burne incense: and while he was wroth with the Priests, ỳ leprosie even rose up in his forehead before the Priests in the house of the Lord, from beside the incense Altar.

20 And Azariah the chief Priest, and all the Priests looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence: yea, himself hasted also to goe out, because the Lord had smitten him.

21 And Vzziah the King was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper, for he was cut off from the house of the Lord: and Iotham his son was over the kings house, judging the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Vzziah, first and last, did Iesiah the prophet, the son of Amoz write.

23 So Vzziah slept with his fathers, & they buried him with his fathers in ỳ field of the burial which belonged to the Kings: for they said, He is a leper. & Iotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXVII.

IOtham was twenty and five yeers old when he began to reign, and he reigned

...Moreover, he built cities in ỹ moun...s of Iudah, and in the forreſts he ...built caſtles and towres.

...So Iotham became mighty, becauſe ...he prepared his wayes before the Lord ...his God.

...The reſt of the acts of Iotham, ...and all his wars and his wayes, lo, they ...are written in the book of the Kings of ...Iſrael and Iudah.

...He was five and twenty yeeres old ...when he began to reign, and he reign...ed ſixteen yeers in Ieruſalem.

...And Iotham ſlept with his fathers, ...and they buried him in ỹ city of David, ...and Ahaz his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Ahaz was twenty yeers old when he began to reign, and he reigned ſix...teen yeers in Ieruſalem, but he did not that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, like David his father.

2 For he walked in the waves of the kings of Iſrael, and made alſo molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover, he burnt incenſe in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire after the abomi...nations of the heathen, whom the Lord had caſt out before ỹ children of Iſrael.

4 He ſacrificed alſo and burnt incenſe in the high places, and on the hils, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the Lord his God deli...vered him into the hand of the King of Syria, and they ſmote him, and carried away a great multitude of them cap...tives, and brought them to Damaſcus: and he was alſo delivered into the hand of the King of Iſrael, who ſmote him with a great ſlaughter.

6 For Pekah, the ſon of Remaliah, ſlew in Iudah an hundred and twenty thouſand in one day, which were all va...liant men, becauſe they had forſaken the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephra...im, ſlew Maaſeiah the King's ſon, and Azrikam the governour of the houſe, and Elkanah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Iſrael carried a...way captive of their brethren two hun...dred thouſand, women, ſons, & daugh...ters, & took alſo away much ſpoil from them, & brought ỹ ſpoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the Lord was there, whoſe name was Obed: and hee went out before the hoſt that came into Sa...maria, and ſaid unto them, Behold, be...cauſe the Lord God of your fathers was wroth with Iudah, he hath delive...red them into your hand, & ye have ſlain them in a rage, ỹ reacheth up to heaven.

10 And now ye purpoſe to keep under the children of Iudah and Ieruſalem for bond-men, and bond-women unto you: But are not there with you, even ỹ you, ſins againſt the Lord your God.

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have ta...ken captive of your brethren, for the fierce wrath of God is upon you.

12 Then certaine of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the ſon of Iohanan, Berechiah the ſon of Meſhil...lemoth, & Iehiskiah the ſon of Shal...lum, and Amaſa ỹ ſon of Hadlai, ſtood up againſt them that came from ỹ war,

13 And ſaid to them, Ye ſhall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended againſt the Lord alrea...dy, ye intend to adde more to our ſins, & to our treſpas: for our treſpas is great & there is fierce wrath againſt Iſrael.

14 So the armed men left the captives, and the ſpoil before the Princes, and all the Congregation.

15 And the men which were expreſſed by name, roſe up, and took the cap...tives, and with the ſpoil cloathed all that were naked among them and aray...ed them, and ſhod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, & anointed them, and caried all the feeble of them upon aſſes, and brought them to Iericho, the city of palme trees to their brethren; then they returned to Samaria.

16 At that time did King Ahaz ſend unto the kings of Aſſyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come & ſmitten Iudah, & caried away captives.

18 The Philiſtines alſo had invaded the cities of the low countrey, & of the South of Iudah, and had taken Beth...ſhemeth, and Aijalon, & Gederoth, & Shocho with ỹ villages therof, & Timnah with ỹ villages thereof, Gimzo alſo, & ỹ villages therof: & they dwelt there.

19 For the Lord brought Iudah low, becauſe of Ahaz king of Iſrael; for he made Iudah naked, and tranſgreſſed a...gainſt the Lord.

20 And Tiglath-Pilneſer King of Aſ...syria came unto him, and deſtreſſed him, but ſtrengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the houſe of the Lord, and out of the houſe of the king, and of the Princes, and gave it to the king of Aſſyria; but he helped him not.

22 And in the time of his diſtreſſe, did he treſpaſſe yet more againſt the Lord:

23 This is that King Ahaz. For he ſacrificed to ỹ gods of Da...maſcus, which ſmote him: and he ſaid, is cause the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them that they may helpe me: but they were the ruine of him and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, & cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doores of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts, and of all his wayes, first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, & they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXIX.

HEzekiah began to reigne when he was five and twenty yeers old, & he reigned nine and twenty yeers in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He in the first yeer of his reign, in y first moneth, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, & repaired them.

4 And he brought in the Priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the East-street,

5 And said unto them, Heare me, ye Levites: sanctifie now your selves, and sanctifie the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthines out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evill in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the Lord, and turned their backes.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense, nor offered burnt-offerings in the Holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, & he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, & our sons, & our daughters, & our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a Covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turne away from us.

11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and burne incense.

12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath y son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Iallelel: and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah.

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Iehiel and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah.

14 And of the sons of Heman, Iehiel and Shimei: and of the sons of Iedithun, Shemaiah and Vzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, & sanctified themselves, and came according to the commandement of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the Lord.

16 And the Priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleannesse that they found in the temple of y Lord, into the court of the house of the Lord. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on y first day of the first moneth to sanctifie: and on the eight day of the moneth came they to the porch of the Lord. So they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth, they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the Lord, and the Altar of burnt offring with all the vessels thereof, and the Shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the Altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambes, and seven he-goats for a sin offring for the kingdome, and for the Sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the sons of Aaron to offer them upon the Altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, & sprinkled it on the Altar: likewise when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the Altar: they killed also the lambes, and they sprinkled the blood upon the Altar.

23 And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin offering, before the king and the congregation, and they layed their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, & they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offring, and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in y house of the Lord with cymbals with psalteries, and with harpes, according commencement of David, and of the kings Seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandement of the LORD by his Prophets.

16 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the Priests with the trumpets.
17 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the Altar: and when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David, king of Israel.
28 And al the Congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trum-peters sounded: and al this continued til the burnt offering was finished.
29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king, and al that were present with him, bowed themselves, and worshipped.
30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king, and the Princes commanded the Levites to praise to the LORD, with the words of David, and of Asaph the Seer:
and they sang Praises with gladnes, &
they bowed their heads, & worshipped.
31 Then Hezekiah answered and said,
Now ye have consecrated your selves unto the LORD, come neer: and bring sacrifices and thanke-offerings into the house of the Lord. And the Congregation brought in sacrifices, and thankeofferings: and as many as were of a free heart, burnt offerings.
32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the Congregation brought, was seventie oxen, & ten bullocks, an hundred rams, & two hundred lambes: al these were for a burnt offering to y LORD.
33 And y consecrated things were six hundred oxen, & three thousand sheep.
34 But y Priests were too few, so that they could not flay al y burnt offrings:
therefore their brethren y Levites did help them, til y worke was ended: & til other priests had sanctified themselves, for y Levites were more upright in hart to sanctifie themselves, then y Priests.
35 And also y burnt offerings were in abundance, with y fat of the peace offerings, and the drinke offerings, for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.
36 And Hezekiah rejoyced, and al the people, that God had prepared the people: for y thing was don suddenly.

CHAP. XXX.

1 And Hezekiah sent to al Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Ie-rusalem: to keep the Passeover unto the LORD God of Israel.
2 For the king had taken counsel, and his Princes, and all the Congregation in Ierusalem, to keep the Passeover in the second moneth.
3 For they could not keep it at y time, because y Priests had not sanctified them selves sufficiently, neither had y people ga thered themselves together to Ierusale

4 And the thing pleased the king, and al the congregation.
5 So they established a decree, to make Proclamation throughout al Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passeover unto the LORD God of Israel at Ierusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort, as it was written.
6 So the postes went with the letters from the king & his Princes, throughout al Israel and Judah, and according to the commandement of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of y kings of Assyria.
7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.
8 Now be ye not stiffenecked, as your fathers were, but yeeld your selves to y LORD, and enter into his Sanctuary, so he hath sanctified for ever, and serve y LORD your God, that y fercenesse of his wrath may turne away from you.
9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren, and your children shall finde compassion before them that leade them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turne away his face from you, if ye returne unto him.
10 So y Postes passed from city to city, thorow y countrey of Ephraim & Manasseh, eve to Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorne, and mocked them.
11 Nevertheless, divers of Asher, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun, humbled themselves, and came to Ierusalem.
12 Also in Iudah, the hand of God was to give them one heart, to doe the Commandement of the king and of the Princes, by the word of the LORD.
13 And there assembled at Ierusalem much people, to keepe the Feast of unleavened bread in the second moneth, a very great Congregation.
14 And they arose and tooke away the Altars that were in Ierusalem, and all the Altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brooke Kidron.
15 Then they killed the Passeover on the fourteenth day of the second moneth: and the Priests and the Levites were ashamed, & sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.
16 And they stood in their place after their manner according to the Law of Moses the man of God: The Priests sprinkled the blood which they receved of the hand of the Levites.
17 For there were many in y congregation y were not sanctified, therefore y
Levites had the charge of y killing of y Passeover for every one that was not clean, to sanctifie them to the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eate the Passeover otherwise then it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one,

19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the Lord God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the Sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened unto Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Ierusalem, kept the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with great gladnesse: and the Leuites and the Priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Leuites, that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: so they did eate thorowout the feast, seuen dayes, offering peace offerings, & making confession to the Lord God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keepe other seuen dayes, & they kept other seuen dayes with gladnesse.

24 For Hezekiah king of Iudah did giue to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and seuen thousand sheepe, and the Princes gaue to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheepe, and a great number of Priests sanctified themselues.

25 And all the Congregation of Iudah with the Priests and the Leuites, and all the congregation that came out of the land of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Iudah, reioyced.

26 So there was great ioy in Ierusalem: for since the time of Salomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel, there was not the like in Ierusalem.

27 Then the Priests the Leuites arose and blessed the people: and their voyce was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling place, even to heauen.

CHAP. XXXI.

NOw when all this was finished, all Israel that were present, went out to the cities of Iudah, and brake the images in peeces, and cut downe the groues, and threw down the high places, and Altars out of all Iudah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, till they had vtterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to their possession into their owne cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the Priests and the Leuites after their courses, every man according to his seruice, the Priests and Leuites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to giue thankes, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the kings portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, euen for the morning and euening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new Moones, and for the feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

4 Moreouer, he commanded the people that dwelt in Ierusalem, to giue the portion of the Priests and the Leuites, that they might be encouraged in the Law of the LORD.

5 And assoone as the commandement came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first fruits of corn, wine, and oyle, and honey, & of all the increase of the field, and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Iudah, that dwelt in the cities of Iudah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheepe, and the tithe of holy things, which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid them by heapes.

7 In the third moneth they began to lay the foundation of the heapes, and finished them in the seuenth moneth.

8 And when Hezekiah and the Princes came and saw the heapes, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the Priests and the Leuites concerning the heapes.

10 And Azariah the chiefe Priest of the house of Zadok, answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eate, & haue left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people, and that which is left, is this great heape.

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them:

12 And brought in y offerings and the tythes, & y dedicate things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Leuite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Iehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Ierimoth, and Iozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah were officers vnder the hand of Cononiah, and Shimei his brother, at the commandement of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Leuite, the porter toward the East, was over the free wil offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Iesshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shechaniah, in the cities of the Priests, in their set office, to giue to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the smal:

16 Besides their genealogie of males from three yeres old and upward, of euery one that entred into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their seruice in their charges, according to their courses:

17 Both to y genealogie of the Priests by the house of their fathers, and the Leuites from twenty yeres old and vpward, in their charges by their courses:

18 And to the genealogie of all their little ones, their wiues, and their sonnes, and their daughters, through all the Congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness, as did the sons of Aaron ỹ Priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every severall citie, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all ỹ males among the Priests, & to all that were reckoned by genologies among the Levites.

32 And thus did Hezekiah thorowout all Iudah, and wrought that which was good and right, and trueth before the LORD his God.

33 And in every worke ỹ he began in the service of the house of God, and in the Law, and in the Commandments, to seeke his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came & entred into Iudah, and incamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was minded to fight against Ierusalem,

3 He took counsell with his Princes, and his mighty men, to stop the waters of the fountaines which were without the citie: and they did helpe him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopt all the fountaines, and the brooke ỹ ran thorow the midst of the land, saying, Why should ỹ king of Assyria come & finde much water?

5 Also he strengthened himselfe, and built up all the wal that was broken, and raised it up to the towers: and another wal without, and repaired Millo in the city of Dauid, and made darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captaines of war over ỹ people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of ỹ city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong & courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is wt him: for there be moe with us, then wt him.

8 With him is an arme of flesh, but with us is the Lord our God to helpe us, and to fight our battels. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Iudah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Ierusalem (but he himselfe laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him) unto Hezekiah king of Iudah, and unto all Iudah that were at Ierusalem saying;

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon doe ye trust, that ye sit in the siege in Ierusalem?

11 Doeth not Hezekiah perswade you to give over your selves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shal deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria.

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his altars, and commanded Iudah, and Ierusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one Altar, and burne incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I & my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any wayes able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroied, ỹ could deliver his people out of mine hand, ỹ your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor perswade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom, was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my Fathers: how much lesse shal your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters to raile on the Lord God of Israel, and to speake against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand: so shal not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cryed with a loud voice in the Iewes speech, unto the people of Ierusalem that were on the wall to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the citie.

19 And they spake against the God of Ierusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the worke of the hands of man.

20 For this cause Hezekiah the king, & ỹ Prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cryed to heaven.

21 And the LORD sent an Angel, & cut off all the mighty men of valour, & the leaders and captaines in the campe of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his owne land. And when he was come into ỹ house of his god, they ỹ came forth of his own bowels slew him there with ỹ sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of al other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Ierusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Iudah, so that hee was magnified in the sight of al nations from thence forth.

24 In those dayes Hezekiah was sicke to ỹ death, & prayed to the LORD: & he spake to him, & he gave him a signe.

25 But Hezekiah rendred not again according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was lifted up, therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Iudah and Ierusalem.

26 Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himselfe for the pride of his heart (both he and ỹ inhabitants of Ierusalem:) so that ỹ wrath of ỹ LORD came not on them in the dayes of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honor: and he made himself treasuries for silver and for gold, and for precious stones & for spices, & for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels.

28 Store-houses also for ỹ increase of corn, and wine, and oil, and stalls for all maner of beasts, & coats for flocks.

29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and possessions of flockes and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the West side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his workes.

31 Howbeit, in the businesse of the Embaʃadours of the Princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acʃtes of Hezekiah, and his goodnes, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the ſon of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Iudah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefeſt of the ſepulchers of the ſons of David: & all Iudah and the inhabitants of Ieruſalem did him honour at his death: and Manaſſeh his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XXXIII.

MAnaſſeh was twelve yeers old when he began to reigne, and he reigned fifty and five yeers in Ieruſalē.

2 But did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, like to the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had caſt out before the childrē of Israel.

3 For hee built againe the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up Altars for Baalim, & made groves, & worshipped all the hoſt of heaven, & ſerved thē.

4 Alſo he built Altars in the houſe of ỹ Lord: whereof ỹ Lord had ſaid, In Ieruſalem ſhal my Name be for ever.

5 And he built Altars for all the hoſt of heaven in the two courts of ỹ houſe of the LORD.

6 And he cauſed his children to paſſe thorow the fire in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom: alſo he obſerved times, & uſed inchantments, & uſed witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar ſpirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the ſight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he ſet a carv.d image (the idole which hee had made) in the houſe of God, of which God had ſaid to David & to Solomon his ſon: In this houſe, and in Ieruſalem which I have choſen before al the tribes of Iſrael, wil I put my Name for ever.

8 Neither wil I any more remoove ỹ foot of Iſrael, from out of the land I have appointed for your fathers: ſo that they wil take heed to do all I have commanded them, according to the whole Law and the Statutes and Ordinances, by the hand of Moſes.

9 So Manaſſeh made Iudah, & the inhabitants of Ieruſalem to erre, & do worſe then ỹ heathen, whō ỹ Lord had deſtroyed before ỹ children of Iſrael.

10 And the Lord ſpake to Manaſſeh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 Wherfore the Lord brought upon them the captaines of the hoſt of the king of Aſſyria, which took Manaſſeh among the thornes, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he beſought the Lord his God, and humbled himſelfe greatly before the God of his Fathers.

13 And prayed unto him, and he was intreated of him, and heard his ſupplication, & brought him againe to Ieruſalem to his kingdom. Then Manaſſeh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this, he built a wall without the city of David, on the weſt ſide of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entring in at the fiſh-gate, & compaſſed about Ophel, and raiſed up a very great height: & put captaines of war in all the fenced cities of Iudah.

15 And he tooke away ỹ ſtrange gods, and the idole out of the houſe of the Lord, and all the Altars that he had built in the mount of the houſe of the LORD, and in Ieruſalem, and caſt them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the Altar of the Lord, and ſacrificed theron peace offerings & thank offerings, & commanded Iudah to ſerve the Lord God of Iſrael.

17 Neverthelеſſe the people did ſacrifice ſtil in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 Now the reſt of the acʃtes of Manaſſeh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of ỹ Seers that ſpake to him in the Name of the Lord God of Iſrael, behold, they are written in the acʃtes of the kings of Iſrael.

19 His prayer alſo, and how God was intreated of him, and al his ſinne, and the treſpaſſe, & the places wherein he built high places, & ſet up groves and carven images before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the ſayings of the Seeres.

20 So Manaſſeh ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own houſe: and Amon his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

21 Amon was two and twenty yeers old when he began to reigne, & reigned two yeers in Ieruſalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, as did Manaſſeh his father: for Amon ſacrificed to all the carved images which Manaſſeh his father had made, and ſerved them.

23 And humbled not himſelfe before the LORD, as Manaſſeh his father had humbled himſelfe: but more trespassed more and more.

23 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.
24 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: and the people of the land made Josias his son king in his stead.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 Josias eight yeers old when hee began to reigne, 3 and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty yeers.
3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in y wayes of David his father, & declined neither to the right hand, nor to y left.
4 For in the eight yeer of his reigne, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth yeere hee began to purge Iudah and Ierusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carued images, & the molten images.
4 And they brake down the Altars of Baalim in his presence, and the images that were on high above them, he cut down, and the molten images he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.
5 And he burnt the bones of the priests vpon their altars, and cleansed Iudah and Ierusalem.
6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even vnto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about.
7 And when he had broken down the Altars, and the groves, and had beaten the grauen images into powder, & cut down all the Idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Ierusalem.
8 Now in the eighteenth yeer of his reigne, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maasiah the governour of the city, and Ioah the son of Ioahaz the Recorder, to repaire the house of the LORD his God.
9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they deliuered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doores had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Iudah, and Benjamin, and they returned to Ierusalem.
10 And they put it in the hand of the workemen that had the oversight of y house of the Lord, and they gave it to the workemen that wrought in y house of y Lord, to repaire & mend y house.
11 Euen to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewen stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses, which the kings of Iudah had destroyed.
12 And the men did y work faithfully, and the overseers of them were Iahath, and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Sechariah, and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward, and other of the Levites, all y could skil of instruments of musick.
13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the worke in any maner of service: and of the Levites there were Scribes, and officers, and porters.
14 And when they brought out the money y was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a booke of the Law of the LORD, given by Moses.
15 And Hilkiah answered, and said to Shaphan the Scribe, I have found the booke of y law in y house of the Lord. And Hilkiah deliveredy booke to Shaphan.
16 And Shaphan carried the booke to the king, and brought the king word backe againe, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it.
17 And they have gathered together the mony that was found in the house of the Lord, and have deliuered it into the hand of the ouerseers, and to the hand of the workemen.
18 Then Shaphan the Scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a booke. And Shaphan read it before the king.
19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the Law, that he rent his clothes.
20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the Scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,
21 Go, enquire of the Lord for me, and for them that are left in Israel, & in Iudah, concerning the words of y book that is found: for great is y wrath of y Lord that is powred out upon us, because our Fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this booke.
22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the Prophetesse, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikuath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now shee dwelt in Ierusalem in the Colledge) and they spake to her to that effect.
23 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel; Tell yee the man that sent you to me,
24 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in y booke which they have read before the king of Iudah:
25 Because they have forsaken me, & have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be powred out on this place, and shall not be quenched.
26 And as for the king of Iudah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say unto him: Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, concerning the words which thou hast heard:
27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou diddst humble thy selfe before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants therof, and humbledst thy selfe before me, and didst rent thy clothes, and weep before me, I have even heard thee also, saith the Lord.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy Fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace: neither shal thine eyes see all the evil y I will bring on this place, & on y inhabitants of y same. So they brought the King word again.

29 Then the king sent, and gathered together all the Elders of Iudah, and Ierusalem.

30 And the king went up into y house of the Lord, and al the men of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and al the people great and small: and he read in their eares al the words of the book of the Covenant, that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, & made a Covenant before the LORD, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandements, & his testimonies, & his statutes, w al his heart, and with al his soul, to perform y words of y covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused al that were present in Ierusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Ierusalem did according to the Covenant of God the God of their Fathers.

33 And Iosiah took away al the abominations out of all the countrys y pertained to the children of Israel, & made al y were present in Israel to serve: & to serve y Lord their God. And al his dayes they departed not fro following the Lord, the God of their Fathers

CHAP. XXXV.

MOreover, Iosiah kept a Passeover unto the Lord in Ierusalem: and they killed the Passeover on the fourteenth day of the first moneth.

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the Lord.

3 And said to the Levites y taught al Israel, which were holy to the Lord, Put the holy Arke in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build: it shal not be a burden upon your shoulders; serve now the Lord your God, and his people Israel.

4 And prepare your selves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the holy place, according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kil the Passeover, and sanctifie your selves, & prepare your brethren, that they may do according to y word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

7 And Iosiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids al for the Passeover offrings, for al that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the kings substance.

8 And his Princes gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zacharias, and Iehiel, rulers of y house of God, gave unto the priests for the Passeover offrings, two thousand and five hundred smal cattel, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brethren: and Hashabiah, and Ieiiel, and Iozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for Passeover offrings five thousand smal cattel, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the kings commandement.

11 And they killed the Passeover, & y priests sprinkled y blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offrings that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as is written in the book of Moses, & so did they with the oxen.

13 And they rosted the Passeover with fire, according to the ordinance: but their holy offrings sod they in pots, and in cauldrons, and in pans, & divided them speedily among al y people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests y sons of Aaron were occupied in offring of burnt offrings, & the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to y commandement of David, and Asaph, and Heman, & Ieduthun y kings Seer: & porters waited at every gate: they may not depart from their service, for their brethren y Levites prepared for them.

16 So al the service of the Lord was prepared the same day to keep the Passeover, and to offer burnt offrings upon the Altar of the Lord, according to the commandement of Iosiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present, kept the Passeover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven dayes.

18 And there was no Passeover like to that, kept in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel y Prophet: neither did al the kings of Israel keep such a Passeover as Iosiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and Iudah, and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

19 In the eighteenth yeer of y reign of Iosiah, was this Passeover kept.

20 After al this, when Iosiah had prepared y Temple Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: & Iosiah went out against him.

In the first Embassadours to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, ye king of Iudah? come not against the house of Iudah? come not against the house of Iudah against ye house, whereof I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

2 Nevertheless, Iosiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself that he might fight with him, and hearkened not to the words of Necho, from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

3 And the archers shot at king Iosiah: and the king said unto his servants, Have me away, for I am sore wounded. 4 His servants therefore took him out of his chariot, & put him in ye second chariot he had: and they brought him to Ierusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of ye sepulchres of his fathers. & 5 All Iudah & Ierusalē mourned for Iosiah.

6 And Ieremiah lamented for Iosiah, and all the singing men, and the singing women spake of Iosiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel, and behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Iosiah, and his goodnes, according to that is written in the Law of the LORD,

8 And his deeds first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Iudah.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Then the people of the land took Iehoahaz the son of Iosiah, & made him king in his fathers stead in Ierusalē.

2 Iehoahaz was twenty and three yeers old when he began to reigne, and he reigned three moneths in Ierusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Ierusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Iudah and Ierusalem, and turned his name to Iehoiakim. And Necho took Iehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 Iehoiakim was twentie and five yeers old when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleven yeers in Ierusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchad-nezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, & put thē in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Iehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Iudah: and Iehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 Iehoiachin was eight yeers old when he began to reigne, and he reigned three moneths, and ten dayes in Ierusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the yeer was expired, king Nebuchad-nezzar sent, & brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Iudah and Ierusalem.

11 Zedekiah was one and twenty yeers old when he began to reigne, & reigned eleven yeers in Ierusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in ye sight of ye Lord his God, & humbled not himself before Ieremiah ye Prophet, speaking from ye mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchad-nezzar, who had made him sweare by God: but he stiffened his necke, & hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord God of Israel.

14 Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of ye Lord which he had hallowed in Ierusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers: rising up betimes, and sending: because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his Prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, til there was no remedy.

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Caldees, who slew their young men with the sword, in ye house of their Sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man, or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king, and of his Princes: all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, & brake down the wal of Ierusalem, & burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, & destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And them ye had escaped from the sword, carried he away to Babylon: where they were servāts to him & his sons til ye reign of ye kingdom of Persia.

21 To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Ieremiah, til the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, to fulfil three score and ten yeers.

22 Now in the first yeer of Cyrus king of Persia, (that the word of ye Lord spoken by the mouth of Ieremiah, might be accomplished) the Lord stirred up ye spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, ye he made a Proclamatiō throughout all his kingdome, & put it also in writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All ye kingdoms of the earth hath ye Lord God of heave ye gīve me, & he hath charged me to build him an house in Ierusalem which is in Iudah. Who is there among you of all his people? the Lord his God be with him, & let him go up.

CHAP. III.

AND when the seventh moneth was come, & the children of Israel were in the cities: the people gathered themselves together as one man to Ierusalē

2 Then stood up Iesua the son of Iozedak, and his brethren the Priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases, (for fear was upon them, because of the people of those countries) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings, morning and evening.

4 They kept also y feast of tabernacles as it is written, & offred y daily burnt offrings by number, according to y custom as y duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continuall burnt offering, both of the new Moons, and of the set feasts of the LORD, that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free will offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh moneth, began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD: but the foundation of the Temple of the Lord was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the Masons, and to the Carpenters, and meat, and drink, and oyl, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring Cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Ioppa: according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Ierusalem; in the second moneth began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Iesua the son of Iozadak, and the remnant of their brethren, the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity, unto Ierusalem: and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old & upward, to set forward ward the work of the house of ỹ Lord.

9 Then stood Ieshua with his sons, and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Iudah together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.
10 And whē the builders laid ỹ foundation of the temple of the Lord, they set the priests in their apparell w trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph, with Cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.
11 And they sung together by course, in prailing and giving thanks unto the LORD, because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.
12 But many of the priests, and Levites, and chief of the fathers who were ancient men, ỹ had seen the first house: when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice, & many shouted aloud for joy.
13 So that the people could not discern ỹ noise of the shout of joy, from ỹ noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard a farre off.

CHAP. IV.

NOw when the adversaries of Iudah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the Temple unto the LORD God of Israel:
2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, & to the chief of the Fathers, & said unto the, let us build w you, for we seek your God as ye do, and we do sacrifice unto him since the daies of Esar-Haddō king of Assur, w brought us up hither.
3 But Zerubbabel, and Ieshua, & the rest of the chief of the Fathers of Israel said unto them, You have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God, but we our selves together will build unto ỹ Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus ỹ king of Persia hath cōmided us.
4 Then the people of the land weakned the hands of the people of Iudah, and troubled them in building:
5 And hired counsellers against the, to frustrate their purpose, all the dayes of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.
6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Iudah and Ierusalem.
7 And in the daies of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia. & the writing of the letter was written in ỹ Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.
8 Rehum the Chancellour, and Shimshai the Scribe, wrote a letter against Ierusalem to Artaxerxes the king, in this sort:
9 Then wrote Rehum the Chancellor, and Shimshai ỹ Scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, the Apharsathites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, ỹ Babylonians, Susanchites, ỹ Dehavites, & ỹ Elamites,
10 And the rest of the nations, whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.
11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants on this side the river, and at such a time.
12 Be it known unto the king, that the Iews which came up from thee to us, are come unto Ierusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the wals thereof, and ioyned the foundations.
13 Be it known now unto the king, that if this city be builded, and the wals set up again, they will they not pay tribute, and custome, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.
14 Now because we have maintenance from ỹ kings palace, & it was not meet for us to see the kings dishonour, therefore have we sent & certified the king,
15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou finde in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtfull unto kings and provinces, and ỹ they have moved sedition within the same of old time, for which cause was this city destroyed.
16 We certifie the king, that if this city be builded again, and the wals thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the River.
17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the Chancellour, and to Shimshai the Scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the River, Peace, and at such a time.
18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainely read before me.
19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found, that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition hath been made therein.
20 There hath been mighty kings also over Ierusalem, which have ruled over all countreis beyond ỹ river, & tollage, tribute, & custome was payed unto them.
21 Give ye now commandement to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded until another commandment shall be given from me.
22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?
23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the Scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Ierusalem unto the Iews, and made them to cease by force and power.
24 Then ceased the work of the house of God, which is at Ierusalem. So it ceased ished unto the second yeer of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAP. V.

1 Then the prophets, Haggai ỹ prophet, and Zacharíah the son of Iddo prophesied unto ỹ Iews that were in Iudah and Ierusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Ieshua the son of Iozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Ierusalem: & with thẽ were the prophets of God helping thẽ.

3 At the same time came to them Tatnai governour on this side the River, and Shether-Bozenai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was upon the Elders of ỹ Iews, that they could not cause them to cease, til the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 The Copie of the letter ỹ Tatnai governour on this side the River, and Shether-Bozenai, and his companions ỹ Apharsachites, which were on this side the River, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherin was written thus, Vnto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto ỹ king, ỹ we went into the province of Iudea, to ỹ house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walles, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those Elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certifie thee, that we might write the names of ỹ men ỹ were ỹ chief of thẽ.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, & build ỹ house ỹ was builded these many yeers ago, & a great king of Israel builded & set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar the king of Babylon, the Caldean, who destroyed this house, and caried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in ỹ first yeer of Cyrus ỹ king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And the vessels also of gold & silver, of the house of God, which Nebuchad-nezzar took out of the Temple ỹ was in Ierusalem, & brought thẽ into the Temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the Temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governour:

15 And said unto him, take these vessels, Go, carry them into the Temple that is in Ierusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of ỹ house of God, which is in Ierusalem. And since that time even until now, hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore if it seem good unto the king, let there be search made in the kings treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so that a decree was made of Cyrus the king, to build this house of God at Ierusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAP. VI.

1 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the Rolles, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace, that is in the province of the Medes, a Roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first yeer of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Ierusalem: let the house be builded, ỹ place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid, the height therof three score cubites, & the bre dth thereof three score cubites.

4 With three rowes of great stones, & a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of ỹ kings house.

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchad-nezzar took foorth out of the Temple, which is at Ierusalem, and brought into Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the Temple which is at Ierusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore Tatnai, governour beyond the river, Shether-Bozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the River, be ye far from thence.

7 Let the work of the house of God alone, let the governour of the Iews, and the Elders of the Iews build this house of God in this place.

8 Moreover, I make a decree, what ye shal do to ỹ Elders of these Iews for ỹ building of this house of God: that of the kings goods, even of the tribute beyond ỹ River, forthwith expences be giv̄ to these mẽ, ỹ they be not hindred.

9 And that ỹ they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Ierusalem, let it be given them, day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, ỹ whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be be pulled down from his house, & being set up, let him be hanged theron, & let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his Name to dwel there, destroy all kings, and people that shal put to their hand to alter, and to destroy this house of God ẅ is at Ierusalem. I Darius have made a decree, let it be done ẅ speed.

13 Then Tatnai governour on this side the river, Shether-Bozenai, & their companions, according to ỹ ẅ Darius ỹ king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the Elders of the Iews builded, and they prospered through the prophecying of Haggai the prophet, & Zechariah ỹ son of Iddo, and they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of ỹ God of Israel, & according to ỹ commandmẽt of Cyrus, & Darius, & Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the moneth Adar, which was in the fixt yeer of the reign of Darius the king.

15 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God ẅ ioy.

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God, an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and for a sin-offering for al Israel twelve he-goats according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and ỹ Levites in their courses, for ỹ service of God, ẅ is at Ierusalẽ, as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passeover upon the fourteenth day of the first moneth:

20 For the priests and ỹ Levites were purified together al of thẽ were pure, and killed ỹ passeover for al the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And ỹ children of Israel ẅ were come again out of captivity, and al such as had separated themselves unto ỹ E. fro the filthinesse of ỹ heathen of ỹ land to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat.

22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven dayes ẅ ioy: for ỹ LORD had made them joyfull, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to streng then their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

CHAP. VII.

NOw after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amaziah, the son of Azariah the son of Maraioth,

4 The son of Zeraiah, the son of Vzzi the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a ready Scribe in ỹ law of Moses which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him al his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of ỹ children of Israel, and of ỹ priests, and Levites, and ỹ singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Ierusalem, in ỹ seventh yeer of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Ierusalem in the fifth moneth, which was in the seventh yeer of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first moneth, began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth moneth, came he to Ierusalẽ, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel, Statutes and judgements.

11 Now this is the copie of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the Scribe, even a Scribe of the words of the commandements of ỹ LORD, and of his Statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a Scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests, and Levites in my Realm, which are minded of their own free will to go to Ierusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven Counsellors, to enquire concerning Iudah and Ierusalem, according to the Law of thy God which is in thine hand.

15 And to carry the silver and gold which the king, and his counsellors have freely offred unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Ierusalem.

16 And al the silver and gold that thou canst finde in all the province of Babylon, with the freewil-offerings of the people, and of the priests offring willingly for the house of their God which is in Ierusalem.

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money, bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God, which is in Ierusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee, for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Ierusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needfull for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the kings treasure house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a Decree to all the treasurers of beyond the River, that whatsoever the priest, the Scribe of the Law of the God of heavens shall require of you, it be done speedily.

22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.
23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sonnes?
24 Also we certifie you, that touching any of the priests, and Levites, Singers, Porters, Nethinims, or Ministers of the house of God, it shall not be law-full to impose toll, tribute, or custome upon them.
25 And thou Ezra, after thy wisedome of thy God that is in thine hand, set Magistrates, and Judges which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, even all such as know the Laws of thy God:
and teach ye them that know them not.
26 And whosoever will not do the Law of thy God, and the law of the King: let judgement be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.
27 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the kings heart, to beautifie the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem:
28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellers, & before all the kings mighty princes. & I was strengthened as the hand of y Lord my God was upon me, & I gathered together out of Israel, chief men to go up with me.

son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.
11 And of the sons of Bebai, Zech-riah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.
12 And of the sons of Azgad, Joha-nan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.
13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Je-hiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.
14 Of the sons also of Bigvai, Vthai, & Zabbud, and with them seventy males.
15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava, and there abode we in tents three dayes:
and I viewed the people, & the priests, & found there none of y sons of Levi.
16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, & for Elnathan, & for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Me-shullam, chief men, also for Jarib, and for Elnathanmen of understanding.
17 And I sent them with commundement unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us Ministers for the house of God.
18 And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of y sons of Mahli, y son of Levi, the son of Israel, & Sherebiah with his sons, & his brethren, eighteen.
19 And Hashabiah, and with him Je-shaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren, and their sons, twenty.
20 Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims, all of them were expressed by name.
21 Then I proclaimed a Fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might afflict our selves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, & for all our substance.
22 For I was ashamed to requite of the king a band of souldiers and horsmen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.
23 So we fasted, & besought our God for this, and he was entreated of us.
24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them.
25 And weighed unto them the silver and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king and his counsellers, and his lords, and all Israel there present had offered:
26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents,
and of gold an hundred talents:
27 Also twenty basins of gold, of a thou-

thousand drams, and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD, the vessels are holy also, and the silver and the gold are a free will offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests, and the Levites, and chief of the Fathers of Israel at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and y Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava, on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from y hand of y enemy, & of such as lay in wait by y way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold, and the vessels weighed in the house of our God, by the hand of Meremoth the son of Urijah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, & with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites:

34 By number, and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those y had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

36 And they delivered the kings commission unto the kings lieutenants, and to the governours on this side the river, and they furthered the people and the house of God.

CHAP. IX.

NOw when these things were done, y princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, & the priests, & y Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, y Moabites, y Egyptians, & y Amorites.

2 For they have take of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons, so that y holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespasse.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment, and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head, and of my beard, and sate down astonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me, every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away, and I sate astonied until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness, and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespasse is grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have been in a great trespasse unto this day, and for our iniquities, have we our kings, & our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to y sword, to captivity, & to a spoil, & to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, & give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen, yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us, in the sight of y kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up y house of our God, & to repair y desolations thereof, & to give us a wall in Judah, & in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandements,

11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land, with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, and seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we again break thy commandements, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAP. X.

NOw when Ezra had prayed, & when he had confessed, weeping & casting himself down before y house of God, there assembled to him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, & wo-

Ezra 10 reform.

1 While Ezra prayed, and while he confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise, for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee; be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear that they should do according to this word: and they sware.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib, & when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout all Judah & Jerusalem, to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 Then all the men of Judah & Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within three days: it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month, and all the people sate in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, & for y great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and taken strange wives to increase the trespasse of Israel.

11 Now therfore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate your selves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered, and said with a loud voyce, As thou hast said to us, so must we do:

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, & we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of a day or two: for we are many that have trangressed in this thing.

14 Let now our Rulers of all the congregation stand, & let them all which have taken strange wives in our cities, come at appointed times, and with them the Elders of every city, & the Judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel, & Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were imployed about this matter, & Meshullam and Sabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so: and Ezra the Priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after y house of their fathers, and all of them by their names were separated, and sate down in the first day of the tenth moneth, to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives, by the first day of the first moneth.

18 And among the sons of the priests there were found that had take strange wives: namely of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, & his brethren, Maaseiah and Eliezer, & Jarib, & Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives: and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespasse.

20 And of the sons of Immer, Hanani, and Zebadiah:

21 And of the sons of Harim, Maaseiah and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Vzziah.

22 And of the sons of Pashur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Also of y Levites, Jozabad, & Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelitah) Pethahiah, and Judah, and Eliezer.

24 Of y singers also: Eliashib, & the porters, Shallum, and Telem, and Vri.

25 Moreover of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Jeshiah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

26 And of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jerimoth, and Eliah.

27 And of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

28 Of the sons also of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

29 And of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.

30 And of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, & Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, & Binnui, & Manasseh.

31 And the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, & Shemariah.

33 Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattha, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

34 Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Vel.

35 Benaiah, Bedaiah, Chelluh,

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasai,

38 And Bani and Binnui: Shimei,

39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah.

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azareel and Shelemiah, Shemariah

42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

43 Of y sons of Nebo: Iehiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, & Joel, Benaiah.

44 All these had taken strange wives: and some of them had wives, by whom they had children.

CHAP. I.

THe words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to passe in ỹ moneth Chisleu in the twentieth yeer, as I was in Shushan the palace.

2 That Hanani one of my brethren came, he, and certaine men of Iudah, & I asked them concerning the Iewes that had escaped, which were left of the captiuity, and concerning Ierusalem.

3 And they said unto mee, The remnant that are left of the captiuity there in the prouince are in great affliction and reproach: the wal of Ierusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 And it came to passe when I heard these words, that I sate down & wept, and mourned certaine dayes, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercie for them that loue him; and obserue his commandments:

6 Let thine eare now be attentiue, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest heare the prayer of thy seruant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy seruants, & confesse the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I & my fathers house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the Commandments, nor the statutes, nor the iudgements which thou commandedst thy seruant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy seruant Moses, saying, if ye trans gresse, I will scatter you abroad among ỹ nations.

9 But if ye turn to me, and keep my commandments, & do them, though there were of you cast out to the vtmost part of ỹ heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, & will bring them to the place ỹ I have chosen to set my Name there.

10 Now these are thy seruants, and thy people whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine eare be attentiue to the prayer of thy seruant, and to the prayer of thy seruants, who desire to feare thy Name: & prosper, I pray thee, thy seruant this day, and grant him mercy in ỹ sight of this man. for I was ỹ kings cup-bearer.

CHAP. II.

AND it came to passe in the moneth Nisan, in the twentieth yeer of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gaue it unto the king: now I had not beene before time sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto mee, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing ỹ art not sicke? this is nothing els but sorow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid

3 And said to the King, Let the king liue for euer: why should not my countenance be sad, when the citie ỹ of my fathers sepulchres lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with

4 Then the king said unto me, for what doest thou make request? so I prayed to the God of heauen.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please ỹ king, and if thy seruant haue found fauour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Iudah, unto the citie of my fathers sepulchres, ỹ I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the Queene also sitting by him) For how long shal thy iourney be? and when wilt thou returne? So it pleased the king to send me, and I set him a time.

7 Moreouer, I said unto the king, If it please ỹ king, let letters be giuen me to the gouernours beyond the riuer, that they may conuey me ouer, till I come into Iudah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the kings forrest, that he may giue me timber to make beames for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wal of the citie, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the gouernours beyond the riuer, & gaue them the kings letters: (now the king had sent captaines of the armie, and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the seruant the Ammonite heard of it, it grieued them exceedingly that there was come a man to seeke the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Ierusalem, and was there three dayes.

12 And I arose in the night, I and a few men with me, neither told I any man what God had put in my heart to do at Ierusalem: neither was there any beast with me, saue ỹ beast ỹ I rode on.

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the wals of Ierusalem, which were broken downe, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the kings pooles: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to passe.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wal, and turned backe, and entred by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Iewes, nor to the Priests, nor to the Nobles, nor to the Rulers, nor to the rest ỹ did the worke.

17 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distresse that we are in, how Ierusalem lyeth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let us build up the wal of Ierusalem, that we be no more a reproch.

18 Then

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the Ophel vnto the place ouer against the water-gate toward the East, and the to[illegible] was good vpon me, a-[illegible] words that he had spo[illegible] me. And they said, Let vs

[illegible] and build. So they strengthened [illegible] hands in this good worke.
[illegible] Sanballat the Horonite,
[illegible] the seruant the Ammonite, [illegible] Arabian heard it, they [illegible] vs in scorne, and despised vs, [illegible] in this thing that ye do?
[illegible] against the king?
[illegible] answered I them, and said to [illegible] The God of heauen, he will pro[illegible] vs, therfore we his seruants will [illegible] and build: but youhaue no portion [illegible] nor memorial in Ierusalem.

CHAP. III.

Then Eliashib the high Priest rose [illegible] with his brethren the Priests [illegible] they built the sheepe-gate, they against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner.

32 And betweene the going up of the corner vnto the sheepe gate: repaired the gold-smithes, and the merchants.

CHAP. III.

BVt it came to passe, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wal, he was wroth, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the Iewes.

2 And he spake before his brethren, & the army of Samaria, and said, What doe these feeble Iewes? will they forthie themselves? will they sacrifice?
will they make an end in a day? will they reuiue y stones out of the heapes of the rubbish which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him and hee said, euen that which they build, if a fox goe up, hee shal euen breake down their stone wal.

4 Heare, O our God, for we are despised: and turne their reproach vpon their owne head, and giue them for a spoy in the land of captivity.

5 And couer not their iniquity, and let not their sin bee blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wal, and al the wal was ioined together vnto y half therof for the people had a minde to work.

7 But it came to passe, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, & the Asdodites, heard that y walles of Ierusalem were made up, and that y breaches began to be stopped then they were very wroth

8 And conspired al of them together to come and to fight against Ierusalem and to hinder it.

9 Neuerthelesse, wee made our prayer vnto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Iudah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wal.

11 And our aduersaries said, They shal not know, neither see til we come in y midst among them, and slay them, and cause the worke to cease.

12 And it came to passe, that when the Iews which dwelt by them came, they said vnto us ten times, From al places whence ye shal returne vnto us, they wil be vpon you.

13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wal, and on the higher places, I euen set the people after their families, with their swords, their speares, and their bowes.

14 And I looked, and rose vp, and said vnto the Nobles, and to the Rulers, and to the rest of the people. Bee not ye afraid of them: Remember the Lord which is great & terrible, & fight for your brethren, your sonnes, and your daughters, your wiues, & your houses.

15 And it came to passe, when our enemies heard that it was known vnto vs, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned al of vs to the wal, euery one vnto his worke.

16 And it came to passe from that time forth, that y halfe of my seruants wrought in the work, & y other half of them held both y speares, the shields, & the bowes, and the habergeons, and the rulers were behind al y house of Iudah.

17 They which builded on the wal, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded euery one with one of his hands, wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders euery one had his sword girded by his side, & so builded, and he that sounded the trumpet stood by me.

19 And I said vnto the Nobles, and to the Rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated vpon the wal, one afarre from another:

20 In what place therefore ye heare the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither vnto vs: our God shal fight for vs.

21 So we laboured in the worke: and half of them held y speares, from the rising of y morning til y starres appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruant, lodge within Ierusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to vs, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my seruants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of vs put off our clothes, saving that euery one put them off for washing.

CHAP. V

AND there was a great cry of the people, and of their wiues against their brethren the Iewes.

2 For there were that said, We our sons,
& our daughters are many: we take corne therefore we take vp corn for them, that we may eate, and liue.

3 Some also of there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corne,
because of the dearth.

4 There were also of that said, We have borrowed money for the kings tribute, and that vpon our lands, & vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and loe, we bring into bondage our sons, and our daughters, to be seruants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeeme them, for other men haue our lands & vineyards.

6 And I was very angry, when I heard their cry, and these words.

7 Then I consulted with my selfe, and I rebuked the Nobles and the Rulers, and said vnto them, You exact vsury every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said vnto them, We after have redeemed our brethren y which were sold to y heathen;& will ye sell your brethren?or shal they be sold to us?then held they their peace, and found nothing to answere.

Also I said, It is not good that ye do this thing: ought ye not to walk in the feare of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?
2 Likewise, and my brethren, and my servants might exact of them money and corne: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.
3 Restore, I pray you, to them, even to day, their lands, their vine-yards their oliveyards, & their houses, also y hundredth part of y money, & of y corn, the wine, & of y oyle, that ye exact of them.
4 Then said they, We will restore them, & will require nothing of them:
so will we doe as thou sayest. Then I called the Priests and took an oath of them, that they should doe according to this promise.
5 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.
6 Moreover, from the time that I was commanded to be their governour in the land of Iudah, from the twentieth yeere, even to the two & thirtieth yeere of Artaxerxes the king, that is twelve yeeres, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governour:
but the former governours that were before me, were chargeable unto the people, & had taken of them bread and wine, beside fourtie shickels of silver, yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the feare of God.
7 Yea also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: & all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.
8 Moreover, there were at my table of the Iewes, and of the rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen y are about us according to that which was prepared for me, even once in ten dayes, and store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governour, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.
9 Think upon mee, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAP. VI.

1 Now it came to passe, when Sanbal-lat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard, that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein: (though at that time I had not set up the dores upon the gates.)

1 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plaine of Ono: but they thought to doe me mischiefe.
3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great worke, so that I cannot come downe: why should the worke cease, whilest I leave it, and come downe to you?
4 Yet they sent unto me foure times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.
5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like maner, the fift time, with an open letter in his hand:
6 Wherein was written; It is reported among the heathen and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebell: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest bee their king, according to these words.
7 And thou hast also appointed Prophets to preach of thee at Ierusalem, saying, There is a king in Iudah. And now shall it be reported to the king, according to these words, come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.
8 Then I sent to him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou faignest them out of thine owne heart.
9 For they all made us afraid, saying, their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done: now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.
10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah y son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up, and he said; Let us meet together in the house of God, within the Temple, and let us shut the doors of the Temple: for they will come to slay thee: yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.
11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there that being as I am, would go into the Temple to save his life? I will not goe in.
12 And loe, I perceived that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophecie against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, & so doe, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evill report, y they might reproach me.
14 My God, thinke thou upon Tobiah, and Sanballat, according to these their works, and on the Prophetesse Noadiah, and the rest of the Prophets that would have put me in feare.
15 So the wall was finished, in the twenty and fift day of the moneth Elul, in fiftie and two dayes.
16 And it came to passe, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen y at were about us, saw these things, they were much cast downe in their owne eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.
17 Moreover, in those dayes the Nobles of Iudah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Iudah sworne unto him: because he was the sonne in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Iohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, & vttered my words to him: and Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAP. VII.

NOw it came to passe, when the wall was built, & I had set up the doors, and the Porters, and the Singers, and the Leuites were appointed.

2 That I gaue my brother Hanani, & Hananiah y ruler of the palace, charge ouer Ierusalem, (for he was a faithful man, and feared God aboue many.)

3 And I said to them, Let not y gates of Ierusalem be opened vntill the Sun be hot, and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and barre them, and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, euery one in his watch, & euery one to be ouer against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of y genealogy of thē, & came vp at the first, & found written therein,

6 These are the children of the prouince, y were vp out of y captivity, of those y had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar y king of Babylō had carried away, & came again to Ierusalem, & to Iudah, every one to his city:

51 The children of Gazzam, the children of Vzza, the children of Phaseah.

52 The children of Besai, the chilall Israel dwelt in their cities. And when the seventh moneth came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

CHAP. VIII.

AND all the people gathered themselves together as one man, into ỹ streete that was before the water gate, and they spake unto Ezra the Scribe, to bring the book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought ỹ Law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could heare with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh moneth.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate, from the morning until mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand: And the eares of all the people were attentive unto the book of the Law.

4 And Ezra the Scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose, and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Vrijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand: and on his left hand Pedaiah, and Mishael and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the booke in the sight of all the people (for he was above all the people) and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD the great God, and all the people answered, Amen, Amen; with lifting up their hands, and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD, with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Ieshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Iamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Iozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: & the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in ỹ book, in the law of God distinctly, & gave the sense, & caused them to understand the reading.

9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, & Ezra the Priest the Scribe, & the Levites that taught the people said to all the people, This day is holy to the LORD your God, mourn not, nor weep: for all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, & drink the sweet, and send portions to them, for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy to our Lord: neither be ye sorry, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy, neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drinke, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

A solemne fast.

13 And on the second day were gathered together the chiefe of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the Scribe, even to understand the words of the Law.

14 And they found written in the Law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwel in boothes, in the feast of the seventh moneth:

15 And that they should publish and proclaime in all their cities, and in Ierusalem, saying, Go forth to the mount, and fetch olive branches, & pine branches, and mirtle branches, and palme branches, and branches of thick trees, to make boothes, as it is written.

16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves boothes, every one upon the roofe of his house, and in their courts, and in y courts of the house of God, and in the street of the watergate, & in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come againe out of the captivity, made boothes, and sate under the boothes: for since the dayes of Iehua thei on of Nun, unto that day had not the children of Israel done so: & there was very great gladnes.

18 Also day by day from the first day to the last day, he read in the book of the Law of God: and they kept the feast seven dates, and on the eight day was a solemn assembly according to y maner.

CHAP. IX.

NOw in the twentie and fourth day of this moneth, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, & earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from al strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, & read in the book of the Law of y Lord their God, one fourth part of the day, & another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the Lord their God.

4 Then stood up upon the stayres of the Levites, Ieshua and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Buwni Sherebiah, Bani, & Chenani, and cryed with a loud voyce, unto the Lord their God.

5 Then the Levites, Ieshua, & Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up, and blesse the LORD your God for ever and ever, and blessed be thy glorious Name, which is exalted above al blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou art Lord alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with al their host, the earth, and al things that are therein, the seas, and al that is therein, and thou preservest them al: and the hoste of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the Lord the God, who diddest choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Vr of the Caldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham.

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and Perizzites, & y Iebusites, & y Girgashites, to give it I say, to his seed: & hast performed thy words, for y art righteous.

9 And diddest see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt: and heardest their cry by the red sea.

10 And shewedst signes and wonders upon Pharaoh, and onal his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them: so didst thou get thee a name, as it is th s day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land: and their persecuters thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into y mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou leddest them by day by a cloudy pillar, & in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherin they should go.

13 Thou camest down also on mount Sinai, & spakest with them from heaven, & gavest them right judgements, & true laws, good statutes & commandements.

14 And madest knowne unto them thy holy Sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant.

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possesse the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardned their necke, and hearkened not to thy commandements,

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindfull of the wonders that thou didst among them: but hardened their necke, and in their rebellion appointed a Captaine to return to their bondage: but y art a God ready to pardon, gracious, & merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindnes, & forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations:

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wildernes: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to leade them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherin they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy Manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, fourty yeers didst thou sustain them in the wildernes, so that they lacked nothing: their cloths waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide

...they possessed y land
...y land of y king of Heshbō
...land of Og, king of Bashan.
...children also multiplied
...of starres of heaven, & brought ...to the land, concerning w
...promised to their fathers,
...should go in to possesse it.
...children went in, & possessed
...land, and thou subduedst before
...the inhabitants of the land, the
...nites, and gavest them into their
...with their kings, and the peo-
...the land, that they might do
...them as they would.
...they took strong cities, and a
...land, and possessed houses full of a
...wells digged, vineyards, and
...yards, and fruit trees in abun-
...so they did eate, and were filled,
...became fat, and delighted them-
...in the great goodnes.
...nevertheles, they were disobedient,
...rebelled against thee, and cast thy ...behind their backes, and slew thy
...which testified against them,
...turn them to thee, & they wrought
...provocations.
...Therfore thou deliveredst them to ...hand of their enemies, who vexed
...them in the time of their trouble,
...when they cryed to thee, thou hear-
...dst them from heaven; and according
...to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest
...them saviours, who saved them out of ...the hand of their enemies.
...but after they had rest, they did
...evil again before thee: therefore leftest
...them in the hand of their enemies,
...so that they had the dominion over
...them: when they returned, & cryed
...unto thee, thou heardest them from ...heaven; and many times didst thou de...liver them, according to thy mercies:
...& testifiedst against them, that
...thou mightest bring them again unto
...thy Law: yet they dealt proudly, and
...hearkened not unto thy commande-
...ments, but sinned against thy Judge...ments (of which if a man do, hee shall live in ...them) and withdrew the shoulder, and
...hardened their neck, & would not hear.
...Yet many yeers didst thou forbeare
...them, & testifiedst against them by thy ...Spirit in thy Prophets: yet would they ...not give eare: therfore gavest y the in-
...to the hand of the people of the lands.
...Neverthelesse for thy great mercies
...sake, thou didst not utterly consume
...them, nor forsake them, for thou art a ...gracious and mercifull God.
...Now therefore, our God, the great,
...the mighty, and the terrible God, who ...keepest covenant, and mercy, let not all
...the trouble seem little before thee, that
...hath come upon us, on our kings, on ...our Princes, and on our Priests, and
...on our Prophets, and on our fathers, &
...on all thy people, since the time of the ...kings of Assyria, unto this day.
...Howbeit, thou art just in all that ...is brought upon us, for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly.
34 Neither have our kings, our Princes, our priests, nor our fathers kept thy Law, nor hearkened to thy commandements, and thy Testimonies, wherwith thou didst testifie against them.
35 For they have not served thee in their kingdomes, & in thy great goodnes y gavest them, & in the large & fat land y gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.
36 Behold, we are servants this day, & for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, to eate the fruit thereof, and y good thereof, lo, we are servants in it.
37 And it yeeldeth much increase to the kings, whom y hast set over us, because of our sinnes: also they have dominiō over our bodies, & over our cattel at their pleasure, & we are in great distres.
38 And because of all this, we make a sure covenant, & write it, & our Princes, Levites and priests, seale unto it.

CHAP. X.

NOw those that sealed were Nehemiah the Tirshatha, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkiiah,
2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
3 Pashur, Amariah, Malchiah,

8 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests.
9 And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui, of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;
10 And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

24 Hallohesh, Pilcha, Shobek,
25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
26 And Ahiiah, Hanan, Anan,
27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.
28 And the rest of y people y priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, & all they that had separated themselves from the people of y lands unto y law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, every one having knowledge, & having understanding,
29 They clave to their brethren their Nobles, and entred into a curse, & into an oath, to walke in Gods Law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe & doe all the commandements, of the Lord our Lord, and his Judgements, and his Statutes.

30 And

30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons.
31 And if the people of the land bring ware, or any victuals on the Sabbath day, to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the Sabbath, or on the holy day, & that we would leave y seventh yeere, and the exaction of every debt.
32 Also we made ordinances for us to charge our selves yerely, with the third part of a shekel, for the service of the house of our God.
33 For the shew bread, and for y continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the Sabbaths, of the new Moones, for the set feasts & for the holy things, & for the sin offerings, to make an atonemēt for Israel, & for all y work of y house of our God.
34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed, yere by yeer, to burn upon y altar of y Lord our God, as it is written in the Law:
35 And to bring the first fruites of our ground, and first fruites of all fruit of all trees, yere by yeer, unto the house of the Lord:
36 Also the first borne of our sons, and of our cattel (as it is written in the Law) and the firstlings of our beasts, & of our flockes, to bring to the house of our God, unto the Priests that minister in the house of our God:
37 And that we should bring the first fruites of our dough, and our offrings, and the fruit of all maner of trees of wine, and of oyle, unto the Priests, to the chambers of the house of our God: and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites: y y same Levites might have the tithes, in all y cities of our tillage.
38 And the Priest the son of Aaron shal be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes, and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers into the treasure-house.
39 For y children of Israel, and y children of Levi shal bring y offering of y corn of the new wine, & the oyl to the chambers, where are the vessels of the Sanctuary, and the priests y minister, and the porters, and the singers: & we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAP. XI.

AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Ierusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwel in Ierusalem, the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.
2 And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwel at Ierusalem.
3 Now these are the chiefe of the province that dwelt in Ierusalem: but in the cities of Iudah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the Priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Salomons servants.
4 And at Ierusalem dwelt certaine of the children of Iudah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Iudah: Athaiah the son of Vzziah, the son of Zecharias, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahaleel, of the children of Perez.
5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Ioiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shelah.
6 All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Ierusalem, were foure hundred threescore and eight valiant men.
7 And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Ioed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Iesaiah:
8 And after him, Gabai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.
9 And Ioel the son of Zichri was overseer, and Iudah the son of Senuah was second over the city.
10 Of the Priests: Iedaiah the son of Ioiarib, Iachin,
11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God.
12 And their brethren that did the work of the house, were eight hundred and twentie and two: and Adaiah the son of Ieroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zecharias, the son of Pashur, the son of Melchiah.
13 And his brethren chiefe of the fathers two hundred forty and two: and Amashai, the son of Azareel the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer.
14 And their brethren mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.
15 Also the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashub, the son of Bunni.
16 And Shabbethai, and Iozabad, of the chiefe of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.
17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, y son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was principal to begin y thanksgiving in prayer: & Bakbukiah the second among his brethrē: & Abda y son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Iedithun.
18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourescore and fourteen.
19 Moreover y porters: Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren y kept y gates, were an hundred seventy and two.
20 And the residue of Israel, of y Priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Iudah, every one in his inheritance.
21 But y Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha, and Gispa were over the Nethinims.
22 The overseer also of the Levites

16 Of Iddo, Zechariah: of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
17 Of Abijah, Zichri: of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;
18 Of Bilgah, Shamma: of Shemaiah Jehonathan:
19 And of Ioiarib, Mattenai: of Iedaiah, Vzzi:
20 Of Sallai, Kallai: of Amok, Eber.
21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah: of Iedaiah Nethaneel.

22 The Levites in the dayes of Eliashib, Ioiada, and Iohanan, and Iaddua, were recorded chiefe of the fathers: also y Priests, to y reign of Darius y Persian.
23 The sons of Levi, the chiefe of the fathers, were written in the book of the Chronicles, even until the dayes of Iohanan the son of Eliashib.
24 And the chiefe of the Levites, Hashabiah, Sherebia, and Ieshua the son of Kadmiel with their brethren over against them, to praise, & to give thanks according to y commandement of David y man of God, ward over against ward.
25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward, at the thresholds of the gates.
26 These were in the dayes of Ioiakim the son of Ieshua, y son of Iozadak, and in the dayes of Nehemiah the Governour, and of Ezra the Priest, the Scribe.
27 And at the dedication of the wal of Ierusalem, they sought y Levites out of all their places, to bring the to Ierusalem, to keep the dedication w gladnes, both with thanksgivings & singings, w cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.
28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plaine country round about Ierusalem, & from y villages of Netophathi.
29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba, and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Ierusalem.
30 And the Priests, & the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wal.
31 Then I brought up the Princes of Iudah upon the wal, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks; whereof one went on the right hand upon y wal toward y dung-gate:
32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the Princes of Iudah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,
34 Iudah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah and Ieremiah.
35 And certaine of the Priests sons with trumpets, namely Zachariah the son of Ionathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, y son of Zaccur, y son of Asaph.
36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Iudah, Hanani, with y musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the Scribe before them.
37 And at y fountaine gate, which was over against them, they went up by the staues of the citie of David: at the going up of the wal about the house of David, even toy water-gate, Eastward.

38 And the other company of them y gave thanks, went over against them, & I after them, and the half of the people upon the wals, from beyond the tower of the furnaces, even to y broad wal.

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, & above the old-gate, & above y fishgate, and the tower of Hananeel, & the tower of Meah, even to y sheepgate: & they stood stil in y prison gate.

40 So stood y two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers w me:

41 And the Priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, w trumpets.

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Vzzi, and Iehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Izrahiah their officer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoyced, for God had made them rejoyce with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoyced: so that y joy of Ierusalē was heard even a far off.

44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for y treasures, for the offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the Law for the Priests and Levites: for Iudah rejoyced for the Priests and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandement of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the dayes of David and Asaph of old, there were chiefe of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the dayes of Zerubabel, and in the dayes of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers, and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy thing s unto the Levites: and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAP. XIII.

ON that day they read in the book of Moses, in the audience of the people, & therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the Congregation of God for ever.

2 Because they met not y children of Israel with bread, and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pas when they had heard the Law, that they separated from all Israel the mixed multitude.

4 And before this Eliashib the Priest having y oversight of the chamber of y house of our God, was allyed to Tobiah.

5 And hee had prepared for him a great chamber, where afore time they laid the meat offrings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of corne, the new wine and oyl, which was commanded to be given to the Levites and the singers, and the porters, and the offerings of the Priests.

6 But in all this time was not at Ierusalem: for in the two and thirtieth yeere of Artaxerxes king of Babel came I unto the king, and after certain dayes, obtained I leave of the king.

7 And I came to Ierusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore, therefore I cast forth all the houshold stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, & they cleansed the chambers, & thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering, and the frankincense.

10 And I perceived that the portions of y Levites had not been given them: for the Levites & the singers that did the work, were fled every one to his countrey.

11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Iudah the tithe of the corne, and the new wine and the oyl, unto the treasuries.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah y Priest, & Zadok the Scribe, and of y Levites, Pedaiah: and next to him was Haran the son of Zaccur, y son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithfull: and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 Remember me O my God concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

15 In those dayes saw I in Iudah treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses, as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all maner of burdens, which they brought into Ierusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre therein, which brought fish, and all maner of ware, & sold on the Sabbath unto y children of Iudah, & in Ierusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Iudah, and said unto them, What euil thing is this that ye do, and prophane the Sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this euil on us, and on this city? yet ye bring more wrath on Israel, by prophaning the Sabbath.

19 And it came to pas (after the gates of Ierusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath) I commanded that the doores should be shut, & charged that they should not be opened til after the Sabbath: and some of my seruants set I at the gates, that there should no burden

...with reformed.
...gers in on the Sabbath day.
...merchants, and sellers of all
...ware, lodged without Jerusa-
...em once.
17 I testified against them, and ...them; Why lodge ye about
...? if ye do so again, I will lay
...hands. From that time forth
...ame they not more on the Sabbath.
18 And I commanded the Levites, that ...they should cleanse themselves, and ...that they should come and keep the ...gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day:
...Remember me, O my God, concerning
...this, and spare me, according to the ...greatness of thy mercy.
23 In those days also I saw the Jews that ...had taken wives of Ashdod, of Am-
...mon, and of Moab.
24 And their children spake half in ...the speech of Ashdod, and could not ...speak after the Jews language, but ac...cording to the language of each people.
25 And I contended with them, and ...cursed them, and smote certain of ...them, and plucked off their hair, and ...made them swear by God, saying, Ye ...shall not give your daughters unto
...their sons, nor take their daughters to
...your sons, or for your selves.
26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin
...by these things? yet among many na...tions was there no king like him, who ...was beloved of his God, and God made
...him king over all Israel: yet even him
...did outlandish women cause to sin.
27 Shall we then hearken to you to do ...all this great evil, to transgress against
...our God, in marrying strange wives?
28 And one of the sons of Joiada the ...son of Eliashib the high Priest, was
...son in law to Sanballat the Horonite:
...therefore I chased him from me.
29 Remember them, O my God be...cause they have defiled the Priesthood
...and the covenant of the Priesthood,
...and of the Levites.
30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the Priests and the Levites, every one in his business;
31 And for the wood offering at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

The book of ESTHER.

CHAP. I.

1 NOw it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and twenty provinces)
2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,
3 In the third year of his reigne, he made a feast unto all his Princes, and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the Nobles and Princes of the provinces being before him:
4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdome, & the honour of his excellent magnificence many dayes, even an hundred and fourescore dayes.
5 And when these dayes were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small seven dayes, in the court of the garden of the king Ahasuerus palace:
6 Where were white, greene, and blue hangings, fastned with cords of fine linen and purple, to silver rings and pillers of marble, y beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red and blue and white and black marble.
7 And they gave them drinke in vessels of gold, (the vessels being divers, one from another) & royal wine in a great abundance, according to y state of y king.
8 And the drinking was according to y law, none did compell; for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should doe according to every mans pleasure.
9 Also Vashti the Queen made a feast unto women, in the royall house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.
10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlaines that served in y presence of Ahasuerus y king.
11 To bring Vashti the Queene before the king, with the Crown Royal, to shew the people and the Princes her beauty: for she was faire to looke on.
12 But the Queene Vashti refused to come at the kings commandement by his chamberlaines: therefore was y king very wroth, & his anger burned in him.
13 Then the king said to the wisemen, which knew the times (for so was the kings manner towards all that knew law, and judgement.
14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven Princes of Persia and Media, which saw the kings face, and which sate the first in the kingdome)
15 What law we do to y Queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandement of y king Ahasuerus by y chamberlaines.
16 And Memucan answered before the king and the Princes: Vashti the Queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.
17 For this deed of y Queen shal come abroad unto all women, so y they shal despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shal be reported; The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.
18 Likewise shal the Ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the kings princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royall commandement from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians, and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royall estate unto another that is better then she.

20 And when the kings decree, which he shall make, shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great & small.

21 And the saying pleased the king, and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the kings provinces, into every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAP. II.

AFter these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembred Vashti, and what she had done, & what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the kings servants that ministred unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdome, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hegai y kings Chamberlain, keeper of y women, & let their things for purification be give them.

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king, be queen in stead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 Now in Shushan the palace, there was a certain Iew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Iair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite.

6 Who had been carried away from Ierusalem, with the captivity which had been carried away with Iechoniah king of Iudah, whom Nebuchad-nezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadassah (that is Esther) his uncles daughter, for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautifull, whom Mordecai (when her father & mother were dead) took for his own daughter.

8 So it came to passe, when the kings commandement and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the kings house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindnesse of him, and speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her out of the kings house, and he preferred her and her maids, unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not shewed her people, nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her, y she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 Now when every maidens turn was come, to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve moneths, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the dayes of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six moneths with oil of myrrhe, and six moneths with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women.)

13 Then thus came every maiden in to y king, whatsoever she desired, was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women, to y kings house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz the kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had taken her for his daughter) was come, to go in unto the king, she required nothing, but what Hegai the kings chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus, into his house royall, in the tenth moneth (which is the moneth Tebeth) in y seventh yeer of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight, more then all the virgins: so that he set the royall crown upon her head, and made her queen in stead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esthers feast, and he made a release to the province, and gave gifts according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sate in the kings gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred, nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandement of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 In those dayes, (while Mordecai sate in the kings gate) two of the kings chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

2 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen, and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

3 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out: therefore they were both hanged on a tree, and it was written in the book of the Chronicles before the king.

CHAP. III.

1 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the kings servants that were in the kings gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman, for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the kings servants, which were in the kings gate, said unto Mordecai, why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to passe, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai his matters would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdome of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month (that is, the month Nisan) in the twelfth yeer of king Ahasuerus, they cast pur, that is, the lot, before Haman, from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelfth month, that is, the moneth Adar.

8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad, and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdome, and their laws are divers from all people, neither keep they the kings laws: therefore it is not for the kings profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the kings treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews enemy.

11 And the king said to Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them, as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the kings scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written, according to all that Haman had commanded unto the kings Lieutenants, and to the governours that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people, after their language, in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the kings ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the kings provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, (which is the moneth Adar) and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the kings commandement, and the decree was given in Shushan the Palace: and the king and Haman sate down to drink, but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAP. IV.

1 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cryed with aloud and bitter cry:

2 And came even before the kings gate, for none might enter into the kings gate, clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province whithersoever the kings commandement, and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 So Esthers maids, and her chamberlains came, and told it her; then was the queen exceedingly grieved, and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away the sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the kings chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the citie, which was before the kings gate;

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the summ of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the kings treasuries, for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree, that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it to Esther, & to declare it to her, and to charge her, she should go in to the king, and to make supplication to him, and to make request before him, for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Again Esther spake to Hatach, & gave him commandment to Mordecai;

the golden scepter.

11 All the kings servants and the people of the kings provinces do know, whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one that he shall be put to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden Scepter, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esthers words,

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answere Esther: Think not with thy self that thou shalt escape in the kings house, more then all the Jewes.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jewes from another place, but thou & thy fathers house shall be destroyed: And who knoweth whether yare come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 Then Esther bade them returne Mordecai this answere.

16 Go, gather together all the Jewes that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three dates, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise, and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the Law; & if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to al that Esther had commanded him.

CHAP. V.

NOw it came to pass on y third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner Court of y Kings house, over against the kings house: and the king sate upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the Queen standing in y Court, y she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter y was in his hand: So Esther drew neer and touched y top of y scepter.

3 Then said the king unto her, What is it Queene Esther? and what is thy request? it shal be even given unto the halfe of that kingdome.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make ha[s]te that he may do as Esther hath said: So the king and Haman came to do to y banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king said unto Esther at y banquet of wine, What is thy petition and it shal be granted thee? and what is thy request? even to the halfe of the kingdome it shal be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition, and my request is:

8 If I have found favour in the sight of y king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let y king & Haman come to y banquet y I shal prepare for them, & I will do to morrow as y king hath said.

9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful, & with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the kings gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was ful of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheles, Haman refrained himself & when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, & Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the Princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the Queen did let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared, but my self: and to morrow am I invited to her also with the king.

13 Yet al this availeth me nothing so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the kings gate.

14 Then said Zeresh his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubites high, & tomorrow speak thou to the king, that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go in merrily with the king to the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused the gallows to be made.

CHAP. VI.

ON that night could not y king sleep, and he commanded to bring y book of records of the chronicles, and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the kings chamberlaines, the keepers of the doore, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And y king said, what honour & dignity hath bee don to Mordecai for this? Then said y kings servants y ministred to him, there is nothing done for him.

4 And the king said, Who is in the court? (Now Haman was come into the outward court of y kings house to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallowes that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the kings servants said to him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. & the king said unto him, what shal be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? (now Haman thought in his heart, to whom would y king delight to do honour more then to my self?)

7 And Haman answered y king, For y man whom y king delighteth to honour,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought that which the king vseth to weare, & the horse y the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head.

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the kings most noble Princes, that he may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street

the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.
10 Then y king said to Haman, Make haste, & take the apparel, & y horse as thou hast said, & do even so to Mordecai the Iewe, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all y thou hast spoken.
11 Then took Haman the apparell, and the horse, and araied Mordecai, brought him on horseback through the street of the citie, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom y king delighteth to honour.
12 And Mordecai came againe to the king's gate: But Haman hasted to his house, mourning, and having his head couered.
13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife, & all his friends, every thing that had befallen him: then said his wise men, & Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Iewes before whom thou hast begun to fal, thou shalt not preuaile against him, but shalt surely fal before him.
14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the kings chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAP. VII.

SO the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the Queene.
2 And the king said againe to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, what is thy petition, Queen Esther, and it shal be granted thee? and what is thy request? and it shal be performed, even to the half of y kingdom.
3 Then Esther the Queen answered, and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.
4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slaine, and to perish: but if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervaile the kings damage.
5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered, and said unto Esther the Queene, Who is he? and where is he that durst presume in his heart to do so?
6 And Esther said, The aduersary & enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before y king & y Queene.
7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the Queene: for he saw that there was euil determined against him by y king.
8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden, into the place of the banquet of wine: and Haman was fallen vpon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the Queene also before me in the house? As the word went out of the kings mouth, they couered Hamans face.
9 And Harbonah one of the Chamberlains said before the king, Behold, also the gallowes fifty cubites high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.
10 So they hanged Haman on the gallowes y he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was y kings wrath pacified.

CHAP. VIII.

ON that day did y king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman y Iewes enemy, unto Esther the queene: and Mordecai came before the king: for Esther had told what he was unto her.
2 And the king tooke off his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gaue it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.
3 And Esther spake yet againe before the king, & fel down at his feet, & besought him with teares to put away y mischiefe of Haman the Agagite, & his deuice y he had deuised against y Iewes.
4 Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,
5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found fauour in his sight, and the thing seeme right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters deuised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy y Iewes, w are in all the kings prouinces.
6 For how can I endure to see the euil that shal come upon my people? or how can I endure to see y destruction of my kinred?
7 Then the king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queene, and to Mordecai the Iew: Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallowes, because he laid his hand upon the Iewes.
8 Write ye also for y Iewes, as it lieth you in y kings name, and seale it with the kings ring: for the writing & writen in the kings name, & sealed with y kings ring, may no man reuerse.
9 Then were the kings Scribes called at that time, in the third moneth, (that is, the moneth Sivan) on the three and twentieth day thereof, and it was written (according to al that Mordecai commanded) to the Iewes, and to the Lieutenants and the deputies, & rulers of the prouinces, which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twentie & seuen prouinces, unto every Province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, & to the Iewes according to their writing, and according to their language.
10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kings ring, and sent letters by Posts on horsebacke, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:
11 Wherein the king granted the Iewes which were in every city, to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoile of them for a prey.

13 Vpon one day, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is the moneth Adar.

13 The copy of the writing for a commandement to be given in every province, was published to all people, & that the Iewes should be ready against y day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the Posts that rode on mules & camels, went out, being hastened, & pressed on by y kings commandment, & y decree was given at Shushan y palace.

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of y king in royal apparel, of blew & white, and with a great crown of gold, & with a garment of fine linnen and purple, and the city of Shushan rejoyced and was glad.

16 The Iewes had light and gladnes, and joy and honour.

17 And in every province and in every city, whithersoever the kings commandement and his decree came, the Iewes had joy and gladnes, a feast and a good day: and many of the people of the land became Iewes: for the feare of the Iewes fell upon them.

CHAP. IX.

NOw in the twelfth month (y is the moneth Adar) on the thirteenth day of the same, when the kings commandement and his decree drew neer to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Iewes hoped to have power over them: (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Iewes had rule over them that hated them.)

2 The Iewes gamered themselves together in their cities, throughout all y Provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt, & no man could withstand them: for the feare of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, & the lieutenants, and the deputies, & officers of the king, helped the Iewes, because y feare of Mordecai fell on them.

4 For Mordecai was great in y kings house, and his fame went out through out all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, & destruction, & did what they would to those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace y Iewes slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Puratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaizatha.

10 The ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha the enemy of the Iewes slew they, but on the spoile laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those were slaine in Shushan the palace, was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, the Iewes have slaine and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, & the ten sons of Haman, & have they done in the rest of the kings provinces? now what is thy petition, and it shalbe granted thee: and what is thy request further? & it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please y king let it be granted to the Iewes that are in Shushan, to do to morrow also, according to this daies decree, & let Hamans ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: & the decree was given at Shushan, & they hanged Hamans ten sons.

15 For the Iewes that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of y moneth Adar, & slew three hundred men at Shushan: but on y prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Iewes that were in the kings provinces, gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, & slew of their foes seventy & five thousand: but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of y moneth Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same, rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladnes.

18 But the Iewes that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, & on y fourteenth thereof, & on y fifteenth day of the same they rested, & made it a day of feasting & gladnes.

19 Therfore the Iewes of the villages that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made y fourteenth day of the moneth Adar a day of gladnes & feasting, & a good day & of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Iewes, that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far.

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same yeerely:

22 As the dayes wherin the Iewes rested from their enemies, & the moneth which was turned unto them, from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them dayes of feasting & joy, & of sending portions one to another, & gifts to y poore.

23 And the Iewes undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them:

24 Because Haman y son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Iewes, had devised against y Iewes to destroy them, & had cast Pur (y is, the lot) to consume them & to destroy them:

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device & he devised against the Iewes, should return upon his own head, and that her and his sonnes should hanged on the gallowes.

4 Wherfore they called these dayes n after the name of Purim: there-n all the words of this letter, and of hat which they had seen concerning his matter, & which had come to them.
5 The Iewes ordained, & took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon al hat ioyned themselves to them; so hat it should not fail, that they would eep these two dayes according to their riting, and according to their apointed time every yeer.

6 And that these dayes should be remembred, and kept throughout every eneration, every family, every pro-ince, and every city. & y these dayes of Purim should not faile from among he Iewes, nor the memorial of them erish from their seed.

7 Then Esther the queen, the daugher of Abihail, and Mordecai the Iew, wrote with all authority, to confirme his second letter of Purim.

8 And he sent the letters unto all the ews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdome of Ahasue-rus, with words of peace and truth:

9 To confirm these dayes of Purim, in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Iew, and Esther y queen had enioyned them, & as they had decreed for themselues, & for their seed, the matters of the fastings, & their cry

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the booke.

CHAP. X.

AND the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the Iles of the sea.

2 And all the actes of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of y greatnes of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Iew was next to king Ahasuerus, and great among the Iewes, & accepted of y multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to al his seed.

The book of IOB.

CHAP. I.

HEre was a man in the land of Vz, whose name was Iob, and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil:

2 And there were born unto him
seuen sonnes and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seuen thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and fiue hundred yoke of oxen, and fiue hundred she asses, & a very great household: so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the East.

4 And his sonnes went and feasted in their houses, every one his day, & sent, and called for their three sisters to eate
and to drinke with them.

5 And it was so, when the dayes of their feasting were goue about, that Iob sent and sanctified them, and rose vp early in the morning, and offered burnt offrings, according to y number of them all: For Iob said, It may be y my sonnes have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Iob continually.

6 Now there was a day when y sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence commest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the Lord said unto Satan, hast thou considered my servant Iob, that there is none like him in the earth? a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil.

9 Then Satan answered the Lord, & said, Doth Iob feare God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the worke of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch al that he hath, and he wil curse thee to thy face.

12 And the Lord said unto Satan,
Behold, al y he hath is in thy power;
onely upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 And there was a day when his sons
& his daughters were eating & drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

14 And there came a messenger to Iob, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them.

15 And the Sabeans fel upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain y servants with the edge of y sword,
& I onely am escaped alone to tel thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, & said, y fire of God is fallen from heaven, & hath burnt up y sheep, & y servants, & consumed them,
& I onely am escaped alone to tel thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Cal-deans made out three bands, and fel upon the camels, & have carried them away, yea, and slaine the servants with the edge of the sword, and I onely am escaped alone to tel thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons & thy daughters were eating & drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

19 And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, & smote the four corners of the house, and it fel on the young men, and they are dead, and I only

only am escaped alone to tel thee.
20 Then Iob arose and rent his mantle and shaved his head, & fel down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked shal I return thither: the Lord gaue, & y Lord hath taken away, blessed be the Name of the LORD.
22 In all this Iob sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAP. II.

AGaine, there was a day when y sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, & Satan came also among them to present himselfe before the LORD.
2 And the Lord said to Satan, From whence commest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.
3 And the Lord said vnto Satan, Hast thou considered my seruant Iob, that there is none like him in the earth; a perfect and an vpright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and stil he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou mouedst me against him to destroy him without cause.
4 And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath, will he giue for his life.
5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone, & his flesh, and he wil curse thee to thy face.
6 And the Lord said to Satan, Behold he is in thine hand, but saue his life.
7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Iob with sore biles, from the sole of his foot vnto his crown.
8 And he took him a pot sherd to scrape himself withal: and he sate down among the ashes.
9 Then said his wife vnto him, Doest thou still retaine thine integritie? Curse God, and die.
10 But he said to her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh: what? shal we receive good at the hand of God, and shal we not receive evil? In al this did not Iob sin with his lips.
11 Now when Iobs three friends heard of al this evil y was come on him they came every one from his own place, Eliphaz y Temanite, & Bildad y Shuhite, & Zophar y Naamathite, for they had made an appointment together, to come to mourn with him, & to comfort him.
12 And when they lift up their eyes afarre off, & knew him not, they lifted up their voyce and wept: and they rent every one his mantle, & sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.
13 So they sate down by him upon y ground seven dayes, & seven nights, & none spake a word vnto him: for they saw that his griefe was very great.

CHAP. III.

AFter this opened Iob his mouth, & cursed his day.
2 And Iob spake, and said,
3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.
4 Let that day be darkenes, let not God regard it from aboue, neither let the light shine vpon it.
5 Let darkenes, and the shadow of death stain it, let a cloud dwel vpon it, let the blackines of the day terrifie it.
6 As for that night, let darkenes seize vpon it, let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeer, let it not come into the number of the moneths.
7 Loe, let that night be solitary, let no ioyful voyce come therein.
8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.
9 Let the stars of y twilight thereof be dark, let it look for light but have none, neither let it see y dawning of y day.
10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mothers wombe, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.
11 Why died I not from the wombe? why did I not giue up the ghost when I came out of the belly?
12 Why did the knees preuent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?
13 For now should I have lien still, and been quiet, I should have slept, then had I been at rest.
14 With kings, and Counsellers of the earth, which build desolate places for themselues.
15 Or with Princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:
16 Or as an hidden vntimely birth, I had not beene, as infants which neuer saw light.
17 There the wicked cease from troubling: and there the weary be at rest.
18 There the prisoners rest together, they hear not y voyce of y oppressour.
19 The smal and great are there, & the seruant is free from his master.
20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, & life to the bitter in soul?
21 Which long for death, but it commeth not, & digge for it more than for hid treasures:
22 Which reioyce exceedingly, and are glad when they can find y grave?
23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?
24 For my sighing commeth before I eat, and my roarings are powred out like the waters.
25 For the thing which I greatly feared, is come vpon me: & that which I was afraid of, is come vnto me.
26 I was not in safty, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet, yet trouble came.

CHAP. IIII.

THen Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and said,
2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieued? But who can withhold himself from speaking?
3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, & y hast strengthened y weake hands.

1 The words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence? the uprightness of thy ways, & thy hope?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, & sow wickedness reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lyon, and the voice of the fierce lyon, and the teeth of the young lyons are broken.

11 The old lyon perisheth for lacke of prey, and the stout lyons whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, & mine ear received a little thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,

14 Fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face, the hair of my flesh stood up.

16 It stood still, but I could not discerne the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shal mortal man be more just than God? shal a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Lo, he put not trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:

19 How much less on them y dwel in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before y moth.

20 They are destroyed from morning to evening, they perish for ever, without any regarding it.

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them, go away? they die, even without wisdome.

CHAP. V.

CAlnow, if there be any that wil answer thee, and to which of the holy wilt thou turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them:

5 Whose harvest y hungry eateth up, & taketh it even out of y thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although affliction commeth not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground:

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doth great things and unsearchable: marvelous things without number.

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields.

11 To set up on high those that be low, that those which mourn, may be exalted to safetie.

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftinesse: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darknesse in the day time, and grope in the noon day as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.

18 For he maketh sore, & bindeth up: he woundeth, & his hands make whole.

19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles, yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shal redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from y scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction, when it commeth.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shalbe at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know y thy tabernacle shalbe in peace, & thou shalt visite thy habitation, and shalt not sin.

25 Thou shalt know also, that thy seed shal be great, and thine off-spring as the grasse of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn commeth in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, lo it is, hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

CHAP. VI.

BVt Iob answered and said,

2 Oh that my grief were throughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together.

3 For now it would be heavier then the sand of the sea, therefore my words are swallowed up.

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poyson whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrours of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild asse bray, when he hath grasse? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury, be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egge?

7 The things that my soul refuseth to touch, are as my sorrowful meat.

8 O that I might have my request: & that God would grant me the thing that I long for:

9 Even

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me, that he would loose his hands and cut me off.

10 Then should I yet have comfort, yea, I would harden my self in sorrow, let him not spare, for I have not concealed the words of the holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is my end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brasse?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdome driven quite from me?

14 To him that is afflicted, pitty should be shewed from his friend, but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the streams of brooks they passe away.

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid.

17 What time they waxe warme, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they goe to nothing, and perish.

19 The troopes of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

20 They were confounded, because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 For now ye are nothing, ye see my calamitie, and are afraid.

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give me a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or deliver me from the enemies hand? or redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forceable are right words? but what doth your arguing reproove?

26 Do ye imagine to reproove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and you dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me, for it is evident to you if I lie.

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea return again: my righteousnesse is in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?

CHAP. VII.

IS there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his dayes also like the dayes of an hireling?

2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possesse moneths of vanitie: and wearisome nights are appointed unto me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of toslings to and fro, unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with wormes and clods of dust; my skinne is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My dayes are swifter then a weavers shuttle, & are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me, shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed, and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave, shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therfore I will not refrain my mouth, I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitternesse of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, & terrifiest me through visions.

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather then my life.

16 I loath it, I would not live alway: let me alone, for my dayes are vanity.

17 What is man that thou shouldest magnifie him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

18 And y thou shouldest visit him every morning, & trie him every moment?

19 How long will thou not depart from me? nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned, what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to my self?

21 And why doest thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust, and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAP. VIII.

THen answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgement? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty:

6 If thou were pure & upright, surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousnesse prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thy self to the search of their fathers.

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our dayes upon earth are a shadow.)

10 Shall not they teach thee, & tell thee, & utter words out of their heart?

11 Can

10 Can flag grow up without mire? can the flagge grow without water?
11 Whilest it is yet in his greenes, and not cut downe, it withereth before any other herb.
12 So are the paths of all that forget God, & y hypocrites hope shal perish:
13 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spiders web.
14 He shall leane upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
15 He is green before the Sun, & his branch shooteth foorth in his garden.
16 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.
17 If he destroy him from his place, then shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.
18 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shal others grow.
19 Behold, God wil not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:
20 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoycing.
21 They that hate thee, shall be clothed with shame: and the dwelling place of y wicked shal come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

1 Then Iob answered, and said,
2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?
3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answ. him one of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardned himself against him and hath prospered?
5 Which remooveth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.
6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and y pillars therof tremble:
7 Which commandeth the Sun, and it riseth not: and sealeth up the Starres.
8 Which alone spreadeth out y heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of y sea:
9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, & the Pleiades, and the chambers of y South.
10 Which doth great things past finding out, yea & wonders without number.
11 Lo, he goeth by me, & I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What dost thou?
13 If God will not withdraw his anger, y proud helpers do stoup vnder him.
14 How much lesse shal I answer him, & chuse out my words to reason with him?
15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my Iudge.
16 If I had called, & he had answered me: yet would I not believe y he had hearkened unto my voyce.
17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, & multiplieth my wounds without cause.
18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternes.
19 If I speake of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of iudgement, who shall set me a time to plead?
20 If I iustifie my self, mine own mouth shal condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shal also prove me perverse.
21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.
22 This is one thing, therfore I said it: He destroyeth the perfect and y wicked.
23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the triall of the innocent.
24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the Iudges therof: if not, where, and who is he?
25 Now my dayes are swifter then a Post: they flee away, they see no good.
26 They are passed away as the swift ships, as y Eagle that hasteth to y prey.
27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heavines, and comfort my self:
28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that y wilt not hold me innocent.
29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?
30 If I wash my self with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean:
31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.
32 For he is not a man as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in iudgement.
33 Neither is there any daisman betwixt us, y might lay his hand upon us both.
34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrifie me:
35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

CHAP. X.

1 My soul is weary of my life, I will leave my complaint on my self, I will speak in the bitternes of my soul.
2 I will say unto God, Do not condemne me: shew me wherfore thou contendest with me.
3 Is it good unto thee that y should oppresse? that thou shouldest despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?
4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?
5 Are thy dayes as the dayes of man? are thy yeers as mans dayes?
6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?
7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked, and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.
8 Thine hands have made me, and fashioned me together round about, yet thou dost destroy me.
9 Remember I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay, and wilt thou bring me into dust again?
10 Hast thou not powred me out as milk, and crudled me like chees?
11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinewes.
12 Thou hast grated me life, & thy ouersight thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.
13 And

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart; I know that this is with thee.
14 If I sin, then thou markest me, & thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I be wicked, woe unto me, and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head: I am full of confusion, therefore behold thou mine affliction;
16 For it increaseth: thou huntest me as a fierce lyon: and again, thou shewest thy self marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, & increasest thine indignation upon me; changes & war are against me.
18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of y womb? O y I had given up y ghost, & no eie had seen me!
19 I should have been as though I had not been, I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not my dayes few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,
21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness, and the shadow of death, 22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself, and of y shadow of death, without any order, & where the light is as darkness.

CHAP. XI

THen answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?
3 Should thy lies make men holdy their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.
5 But, O that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;
6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisedome, that they are double to that which is: know therefore, that God exacteth of thee less then thine iniquity deserveth.
7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty to perfection?
8 It is as high as heaven, what canst thou do? deeper then hell, what canst thou know?
9 The measure thereof is longer then the earth, and broader then the sea.
10 If he cut off, or shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?
11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickednes also, will he not then consider it?
12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild asses colt.
13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him:
14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickednesse dwell in thy tabernacles.
15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot, yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:
16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that passe away.
17 And thine age shall be clearer then the noon day: thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope, yea, thou shalt dig about thee, & y shalt take thy rest in safety.
19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.
20 But the eies of the wicked shall fail, and they shal not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

CHAP. XII.

AND Iob answered and said,
2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisedome shall die with you.
3 But I have understanding as well as you, I am not inferiour to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?
4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.
5 He that is ready to slip with his feet, is as a lamp despised in the thoughts of him that is at ease.
6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure, unto whose hand God bringeth abundantly.
7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the ayr, and they shall tell thee.
8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.
9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the hand of y LORD hath wrought this?
10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, & y breath of all mankind.
11 Doeth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?
12 With the ancient is wisedome, and in length of dayes, understanding.
13 With him is wisdome & strength, he hath counsell, and understanding.
14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again, he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.
15 Behold he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up, also he sendeth them out: and they overturn the earth.
16 With him is strength & wisdome, the deceived and the deceiver are his.
17 He leadeth counsellers away spoiled, and maketh the Judges fools.
18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loyns with a girdle.
19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthrow th the mighty.
20 He removeth away the speech of the trustyy, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.
21 He powreth contempt on princes, and weakneth the strength of y mighty.
22 He discovereth deep things out of darknesse, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.
23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the persons, and frustrateth them again.

10 He maketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

11 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

CHAP. XII.

1 Onely ere hath seen all this, mine eye hath seen it, mine eare hath heard and understood it.

2 What I know, the same do I know also, I am not inferiour unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all of you physicians of no value.

5 O that you would altogether hold your peace, and it should be your wisedome.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will you speak wickedly for God? and talke deceitfully for him?

8 Will you accept his person? will ye plead for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reproove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintaine mine owne wayes before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Heare diligently my speech, and my declaration with your eares.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause, I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who is he that will plead with me? for now if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide my self from thee.

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speake, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities & sinnes? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou break a leafe driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stuble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possesse the iniquities of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And he as a rotten thing consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Man that is borne of a woman, is of few dayes and full of trouble.

2 He commeth forth like a floure, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And doest thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgement with thee?

4 Who can bring a cleane thing out of an uncleane? not one.

5 Seeing his dayes are determined, the number of his moneths are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot passe.

6 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish as an hireling his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut downe, that it will sprout again, & that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof waxe old in the earth, and the stocke thereof dye in the ground:

9 Yet through the sent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, & riseth not, till y heavens be no more, they shal not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in y grave, that y wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, y y wouldest appoint me a set time, & remember me.

14 If a man die, shal he live again? All the dayes of my appointed time will I wait till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For now thou numbrest my steps, doest thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, & thou fowest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling commeth to nought: and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones, thou washest away the things that grow out of the dust of the earth, and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh on him shal have pain, and his soule within him shal mourn.

CHAP. XV.

1 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fil his belly with the East wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talke?

talke or with speeches, wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou castest off feare, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth vttereth thine iniquity, & ỹ chusest ỹ tongue of ỹ crafty.

6 Thy own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine owne lips testifie against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born, or wast thou made before ỹ hils?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God, and doest thou restraine wisdome to thy selfe?

9 What knowest thou? that we know not, what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are both ỹ gray headed, & very aged men much elder then thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? & what do thine eyes winke at:

13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and letteſt ſuch words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he ſhould be cleane? and he which is born of a woman, that he ſhould be righteous?

15 Behold, hee putteth no truſt in his Saintes, yea, the heavens are not cleane in his ſight:

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will ſhew thee, heare mee, and that which I have ſeen I will declare:

18 Which wiſe men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it.

19 To whom alone ỹ earth was given, and no ſtranger paſſed among them.

20 The wicked man trauaileth with paine al his daies, and the number of yeeres is hidden to the oppreſſour.

21 A dreadful ſoſid is in his eares, in proſperity ỹ deſtroyer ſhal come on him.

22 He beleeveth not that he ſhal return out of darkneſſe, and he is waited for of the ſword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, ſaying, Where is it? hee knoweth that the day of darkneſſe is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguiſh ſhal make him afraid, they ſhall prevaile againſt him, as a king ready to the battel.

25 For he ſtretcheth out his hand againſt God, and ſtrengtheneth himſelfe againſt the Almighty.

26 He runneth on him, even on his neck, upon ỹ thicke bolles of his bucklers:

27 Becauſe he covereth his face with his fatneſſe, and maketh collops of fat on his ſlankes.

28 And he dwelleth in deſolate cities, and in houſes which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heapes.

29 He ſhal not be rich, neither ſhal his ſubſtance continue, neither ſhal her prolong ỹ perfection thereof on ỹ earth.

30 He ſhal not depart out of darkneſſe, ỹ flames ſhal dry up his branches, & by ỹ breath of his mouth ſhal he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived in vanitie, ſo vanitie ſhalbe his recompence.

32 It ſhalbe accompliſhed before his time, and his branch ſhal not be greene.

33 He ſhal ſhake off his unripe grape as the vine, and ſhal caſt off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites ſhal be deſolate, and fire ſhal conſume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 They conceive miſchief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAP. XVI.

Then Iob anſwered, and ſaid,

2 I have heard many ſuch things: miſerable comforters are ye all.

3 Shal vaine words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee, ỹ yanſwerest?

4 I alſo could ſpeak as ye do: if your ſoule were in my ſoules ſtead, I could heape up words againſt you, and ſhake my head at you.

5 But I would ſtrengthen you with my mouth, and the mooving of my lips ſhould aſſwage your griefe.

6 Though I ſpeake, my griefe is not aſſwaged: and though I forbeare, what am I eaſed?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou haſt made deſolate all my company.

8 And thou haſt filled me with wrinkles, which is a witneſſe againſt me: and my leannеſſe riſing up in me, beareth witneſſe to my face.

9 He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he graſheth on me with his teeth, my enemy ſharpeneth his eyes on me.

10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth, they have ſmitten me upon the cheeke reprochfully: they have gathered themſelves together againſt me.

11 God hath deliuered me up to ỹ ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at eaſe, but he hath broken me aſunder: he hath alſo taken me by my necke, and ſhaken me to pieces, and ſet me up for his marke.

13 His archers compaſſe me round about, he cleaveth my reines aſunder, and doth not ſpare: he powreth out my gal upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach: he runneth on me like a Giant.

15 I have ſewed ſackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horne in the duſt.

16 My face is foule ỹ weeping, & on mine eye-lids is the ſhadow of death.

17 Not for any iniuſtice in mine hands: alſo my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

19 Alſo now behold, my witneſſe is in heaven, and my record is on high.

20 My friends ſcorn me: but mine eye powreth out teares unto God.

21 O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!

22 When

9 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAP. XVII.

1 My breath is corrupt, my dayes are extinct, the graves are ready for me.
2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocations.
3 Put me now, put me in a surety with thee: who is he that will strike hands with me?
4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding; therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
5 He speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.
6 He hath made me also a by-word of the people, and I was as a tabret before them.
7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.
8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stirre up himself against the hypocrite.
9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath cleane hands shall be stronger and stronger.
10 But as for you all, do you returne, and come now: for I cannot finde one wise man among you.
11 My dayes are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.
12 They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.
13 If I wait the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkenesse.
14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worme, Thou art my mother, and my sister.
15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?
16 They shall go down to the barres of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said:
2 How long will it be, ere you make an end of words? marke, and afterwards we will speake.
3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts? and reputed vile in your sight?
4 He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rocke be removed out of his place?
5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the sparkle of his fire shall not shine.
6 The light shall be darke in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.
7 The steps of his strength shall be straitned, and his owne counsell shall cast him downe.
8 For he is cast into a net by his owne feet, and he walketh upon a snare.
9 The gin shall take him by the heele, and robbers shall prevail against him.
10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.
11 Terrours shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.
12 His strength shall be hunger-bitten, & destruction shall be ready at his side.
13 It shall devoure the strength of his skin, even the first borne of death shall devoure his strength.
14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrours.
15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.
16 His roots shall be dryed up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.
17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.
18 He shall be driven from light into darknes, and chased out of the world.
19 He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.
20 They that come after him, shall be astonished at his day, as they that were before were affrighted.
21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Then Iob answered and said:
2 How long will ye vexe my soul, and breake me in pieces with words?
3 These ten times have ye reproached me: you are not ashamed that you make your selves strange to me.
4 And bee it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth in my self.
5 If indeed ye will magnifie your selves against me, and plead against me my reproach,
6 Know now yͤ God hath overthrown me, & hath compassed me with his net.
7 Behold I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no iudgement.
8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot passe, and he hath set darkenes in my pathes.
9 He hath stript mee of my glory, and taken the crown from mine head.
10 He hath destroyed me on every side, & I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.
11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.
12 His troopes come together, and raise up their way against me, and encampe round about my tabernacle.
13 He hath put my brethren farre from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.
14 My kinsfolke have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.
15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids count me for a stranger: I am an alian in their sight.
16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answere: I intreated him with my mouth.
17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

13 Yea, young children despised me, I arose, and I they spake against mee.
19 All my inward friends abhorred me, and they whom I loved, are turned against me.
20 My bone cleaueth to my skinne, and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
21 Haue pity vpon me, haue pity vpon me, O ye my friends, for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 Oh y my words were now written, O y they were printed in a booke!
24 That they were graven with an iron pen, and leaden y rocke for ever.
25 For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shal stand at the latter day vpon the earth:
26 And though after my skin, wormes destroy this body, yet in my flesh shal I see God:
27 Whom I shal see for my self, & my eies shal behold, & not another, though my raines be consumed within mee.
28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him? seeing the root of the matter is found in me.
29 Be ye afraid of the sword, for wrath bringeth y punishments of the sword, y ye may know there is a iudgement.

CHAP. XX.

THen answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Therefore doe my thoughts cause me to answer, & for this I make haste.
3 I haue heard the checke of my reproach, and the spirit of my vnderstanding causeth me to answer.
4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed vpon earth.
5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the ioy of the hypocrite but for a moment?
6 Though his excellencie mount vp to the heauens, and his head reach vnto the clouds:
7 Yet hee shal perish for ever, like his own dung: they which haue seene him, shal say, Where is he?
8 He shal flee away as a dreame, and shal not be found: yea, he shal be chased away as a vision of the night.
9 The eye also which saw him, shal see him no more; neither shal his place any more behold him.
10 His children shal seeke to please the poore, and his hands shal restore their goods.
11 His bones are ful of the sin of his youth, which shal lie down with him in the dust.
12 Though wickednesse be swete in his mouth, though he hide it vnder his tongue:
13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not, but keep it still within his mouth:
14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gal of Aspes within him.
15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shal vomit them vp again: God shal cast them out of his belly.
16 He shal suck the poyson of Aspes: the vipers tongue shal slay him.
17 He shal not see the riuers, the floods, the brooks of hony and butter.
18 That which he laboured for, shal he restore, & shal not swallow it down according to his substance shal it restore, & he shal not reioyce therein.
19 Because he hath oppressed & hath forsaken the poore, because he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not:
20 Surely he shal not feel quietnesse in his belly, he shal not saue of that which he desired.
21 There shal none of his meat be left, therefore shal no man looke for his goods.
22 In the fulnesse of his sufficiency he shal be in straits: every hand of the wicked shal come vpon him.
23 When he is about to fil his belly, God shal cast fury of his wrath on him, & shal raine it on him while he is eating.
24 He shal flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shal strike him through.
25 It is drawn, and commeth out of the body, yea, the glistering sword commeth out of his gal: terrours are vpon him.
26 All darknesse shal be hid in his secret places: a fire not blowen shal consume him, it shal goe ill with him that is left in his Tabernacle.
27 The heauen shal reueale his iniquity, & y earth shal rise vp against him.
28 The increase of his house shal depart, and his goods shal flow away in the day of his wrath.
29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed vnto him by God.

CHAP. XXI.

BVt Iob answered, and said,
2 Heare deligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.
3 Suffer me that I may speake, and after that I haue spoken, mocke on.
4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?
5 Marke me, and be astonied, and lay your hand vpon your mouth.
6 Euen when I remember, I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.
7 Wherefore doe the wicked liue, become olde, yea, are mighty in power?
8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from feare, neither is the rod of God vpon them.
10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not, their cow calveth, and casteth not her calfe.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flocke, and their children dance.
12 They take the timbrel and harpe, and reioyce at the sound of the organe.
13 They spend their dayes in wealth, and in a moment go down to y grave.
14 They ob reviled.

16 Therefore they say unto God, depart from us: for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.
17 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?
18 Yet their good is not in their hand:
the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
19 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger.
20 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storme carrieth away.
21 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.
22 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
23 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the middest?
24 Shall any teach God knowledge?
seeing he judgeth those that are high?
25 One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.
26 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.
27 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, & never eateth with pleasure.
28 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.
29 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.
30 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?
31 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? & do not ye know their tokens?
32 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.
33 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?
34 Yet shall he be brought to the grave,
and shall remain in the tombe.
35 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.
36 How then comfort ye me in vains, seeing in your answers there remaineth but falshood?

CHAP. XXII.

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
2 Can a man be profitable to God, though he that is wise may be profitable to himself?
3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, if thou make thy wayes perfect? or is it gain to him that thou makest thy way perfect?
4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee?
will he enter with thee into judgement?
5 Is not thy wickednesse great, and thine iniquities infinite?
6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.
7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast with-holden bread from the hungry.
8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth: & honourable man dwelt in it.
9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee, 11 Or darknes, that thou canst not see,
and abundance of waters cover thee.
12 Is not God in the height of heaven?
and behold the height of the stars how high they are.
13 And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?
14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not, and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.
15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have troden?
16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflowen with a flood?
17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?
18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
19 The righteous see it, & are glad, & the innocent laugh them to scorne.
20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.
21 Acquaint now thy self with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.
22 Receive, I pray thee, the Law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.
23 If thou return to the almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy Tabernacles.
24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.
25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.
26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.
27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shal hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.
28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shal shine upon thy wayes.
29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up: and he shal save the humble person.
30 He shal deliver the Iland of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

CHAP. XXIII.

Then Iob answered, and said,
2 Even to day is my complaint bitter, my stroke is heavier then my groaning.
3 O! I knew where I might find him!
that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, & fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which he would answer me, & understand what he would say unto me.
6 Will he plead against me with his great power? No, but he would put strength in me.
7 Then the righteous might dispute with him, so should I be delivered for ever from my Judge.
8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there, and backward, but I cannot perceive him:
9 On the left hand where he doeth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him.
10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tryed me, I shall come forth as gold.
11 My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.
12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips, I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.
13 But he is in one minde, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.
14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.
15 Therfore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.
16 For God maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:
17 Because I was not cut off before the darkenesse, neither hath he covered the darkenesse from my face.

CHAP. XXIV.

WHy, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him, not see his dayes?
2 Some remove the land-marks, they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.
3 They drive away the asse of the fatherlesse, they take the widows ox for a pledge.
4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide themselves together.
5 Behold, as wild asses in the desart, go they forth to their work, rising betimes for a prey: the wildernesse yeeldeth food for them, and for their children.
6 They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.
7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the showres of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
9 They pluck the fatherlesse from the breasts, and take a pledge of the poor.
10 They cause him to go naked without clothing: and they take away the sheaf from the hungry, 11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.
12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soule of the wounded cryeth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.
13 They are of those that rebell against light, they know not his wayes, nor continue in the pathes thereof.
14 The murderer rising with the light, killeth the poor, and needy, and in the night is as a thief.
15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguiseth his face.
16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the day time, for they know not the light.
17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrours of the shadow of death.
18 He is swift as the waters, their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.
19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.
20 The womb shall forget him, the worm shall feed sweetly on him, he shall be no more remembred, and wickednesse shall be broken as a tree.
21 He evil intreateth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.
22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.
23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their wayes.
24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone, & brought low, they are taken out of the way as all other, & cut off as the tops of the eares of corn.
25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, & make my speech nothing worth?

CHAP. XXV.

THen answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.
3 Is there any number of his armies? & on whom doth not his light arise?
4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?
5 Behold, even to the Moon, and it shineth not, yea, the Starres are not pure in his sight.
6 How much lesse man? who is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

CHAP. XXVI.

BVt Iob answered, and said,
2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?
3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? & how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?
4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.
5 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.
6 He stretcheth out the North over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.
7 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds: and the cloud is not rent under them.
8 He holdeth back the face of his throne, & spreadeth his cloud upon it.
9 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.
10 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astonished at his reproofe.
11 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.
12 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens: his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.
13 Lo, these are parts of his ways, but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

CHAP. XXVII.

MOreover, Job continued his parable, and said,
2 As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;
3 All the while my breath is in me, & the Spirit of God is in my nostrils;
4 My lips shall not speake wickednes, nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 God forbid that I should justifie you: till I dye, I will not remove my integrity from me.
6 My righteousnesse I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shal not reproach me, so long as I live.
7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me, as the unrighteous.
8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soule?
9 Will God heare his cry, when trouble commeth upon him?
10 Will he delight himselfe in y Almighty? will he alwaies call upon God?
11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceale.
12 Behold, all ye your selves have seen it, why then are ye thus altogether vaine?
13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.
14 If his children be multiplyed, it is for the sword: and his off-spring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those that remaine of him shalbe buried in death: and his widowes shal not weep.
16 Though he heape up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay:
17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on: and the innocent shall divide the silver.
18 He buildeth his house as a moth, & as a booth that the keeper maketh.
19 The rich man shall lie downe, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not:
20 Terrours take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.
21 The East winde carrieth him away, and he departeth, and as a storme hurleth him out of his place.
22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: hee would faine flee out of his hand.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hisse him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

SVrely there is a veine for the silver, & a place for gold where they fine it.
2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brasse is molten out of the stone.
3 He setteth an end to darkenesse, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkenesse, & the shadow of death.
4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.
5 As for the earth, out of it commeth bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
6 The stones of it are the place of Saphires: and it hath dust of gold.
7 There is a path which no foule knoweth: and which the Vultures eye hath not seene.
8 The lyons whelpes have not trodden it, nor the fierce lyon passed by it.
9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rocke: hee overturneth the mountaines by the rootes.
10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks, and his eye seeth every precious thing.
11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing, and the thing that is hid, bringeth hee forth to light.
12 But where shal wisedom be found? & where is y place of understanding?
13 Man knoweth not the price thereof, neither is it found in the land of the living.
14 The depth saith, it is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.
15 It cannot nee gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
16 It cannot bee valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious Onix, or the Saphire.
17 The gold and the Chrystall cannot equall it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of Corall, or of Pearles: for the price of wisedome is above Rubies.
19 The Topas of Ethiopia shal not equall it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
20 Whence then commeth wisedome? and & where is the place of understanding?

28 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, & kept close from the fouls of the ayre.
29 Destruction and death say, we have heard the fame thereof with our eares.
30 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
31 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, & seeth under the whole heaven:
32 To make ỹ weight for ỹ windes, & he weigheth the waters by measure.
33 When hee made a decree for the raine, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
34 Then did he see it, and declare it, he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
35 And unto man he said, Behold, the feare of the Lord, that is wisdome, & to depart from evil, is understanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

MOreover, Iob continued his parable, and said,
2 O that I were as in moneths past, as in ỹ dayes when God preserved me:
3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkenesse.
4 As I was in the dayes of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;
5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;
6 When I washed my steps with butter, & ỹ rock powred me out rivers of oyl:
7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street.
8 The young men saw me, & hid themselves: and the aged arose, & stood up.
9 The Princes refrained talking, & laid their hand on their mouth.
10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roofe of their mouth.
11 When the eare heard me, then it blessed me: and when the eye saw me, it gave witnesse to me:
12 Because I delivered the poor that cryed, and the fatherlesse, and him that had none to help him.
13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: & I caused the widowes heart to sing for joy.
14 I put on righteousnesse, and it clothed me: my judgement was as a robe and a diademe.
15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor: & the cause which I knew not, I searched out.
17 And I brake ỹ jawes of the wicked, and pluckt the spoile out of his teeth.
18 Then I said, I shal die in my nest, & I shall multiply my dayes as ỹ sand.
19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.
20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.
21 Vnto me men gave ear & waited, and kept silence at my counsell.
22 After my words they spake not a-gain, & my speech dropped upon them.
23 And they waited for me as for the raine, and they opened their mouth wide, as for the latter raine.
24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not, & the light of my countenance they cast not downe.
25 I chose out their way, and sate chiefe, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

BVt now they that are younger then I, have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flocke.
2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?
3 For want and famine they were solitarie, fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.
4 Who cut up mallowes by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.
